The Defender's Bible Reading Plan 2018

This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. Joshua 1-8

And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Timothy 3:15-17

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. Ephesians 6:17

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 2 Timothy 2:15

Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Matthew 4:4

Intent and Goals

The intent for this reading plan is to not only encourage and equip individuals to consistently read their Bibles, but also to facilitate deeper fellowship and accountability among believers.

As individuals read through the plan, they encourage others to join in, committing to the same schedule. As they read through the plan, they share what God has revealed to them.

While deployments and assignments will separate military spouses, family members, and friends, loved ones can continue to read through the program and share thoughts via correspondence.

This Bible reading program has proven to be a very useful for small group fellowships, allowing group members to spend what little time they have in the Bible instead of other secondary sources. All that group members need is a Bible which are usually readily available from the chaplain (camouflaged, of course).

The goals of this Bible study plan are as follows:

- Read daily in both the Old and New Testaments
- Read a chapter from Proverbs everyday
 - There are 31 Proverbs chapters to correspond to 31 days in most months
- Read a book of the Gospels each quarter year
- Read the Psalms each weekend

The Defender's Bible Reading Plan 2018

- Attributes:
 - Daily readings in the Old Testament, Proverbs, and the New Testament
 - A Gospel Book read each quarter
 - Psalms read each weekend
 - About 15-30 minutes of reading each day
- Directions:
 - Read annotated selections daily and check the block
 - Read the Proverb chapter that corresponds to the day of the month – for example, on the 2nd of each month, read chapter 2 of Proverbs
 - Stay with the plan even when you miss days – you can use the weekends to collect the chapters you missed
 - Journal. Share and discuss with others
 - Meditate upon and practice the 'One Another' verse for the week
- Tips:
 - Pick a dedicated time each day for reading – best to put on your armor before you face the day's battles (first thing in the morning)
 - Find a dedicated place where you will do your readings – a private, quiet place
 - Find a family member or friend who will hold you accountable to keeping up with your readings. Discuss with others
 - Keep a journal or organized notes for reference as you read throughout the year/years
 - Use the weekends to do research and study on difficult passages you encounter during the weekdays
 - Consider a "tithe" of your time for Bible study, prayer, and meditation

Renewing Your Mind

Jesus said that if you have lusted in your heart, you have committed adultery; and if you have hated in your heart, you have committed murder. Thoughts turn into desires, which produce actions. Continued action produces habits, and habits build your character which in turn influences what you think. The cycle starts with your thoughts and what is in your heart. The Bible says to be transformed through the “renewing of your mind” and to, “above all else, guard your heart.” What do you allow to influence your thoughts? What are you allowing into your mind? Eliminate all influences that foster impure thoughts. Fill your mind with the Scriptures:

How can a young man keep his way pure?
By living according to your word.
I seek you with all my heart;
do not let me stray from your commands.
I have hidden your word in my heart
that I might not sin against you.
Praise be to you, O Lord;
teach me your decrees.
With my lips I recount
all the laws that come from your mouth.
I rejoice in following your statutes
as one rejoices in great riches.
I meditate on your precepts
and consider your ways.
I delight in your decrees;
I will not neglect your word.
(Psalm 119:9-16)
