"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 28 July 18: What sins are you continuing commit though you know it is wrong? Where do you lack self-control? Remember, self-control is a fruit of the Spirit (see Gal 5). Pray that God will strengthen you to put real change into your repentance, and strive with all of your might to desist. Meditate upon what it means to be unfaithful in your behavior before the Almighty, Holy God who paid for your sins with His One and Only Son, Jesus. (Psalm 85:8)

DBRP - WEEK 30, Day 5, Friday, 27 July 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Neh+3%2C+4%3B+pro+27%3B+Luke+5>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 27 July 18:

1. Nehemiah 3:1-32 -- Nehemiah had the work carefully managed so each person knew his or her responsibility. A common commitment to God's task unified a people who otherwise tended to be separated by religious, cultural, family, historical, and professional differences. The Bible gives by-name credit for the work that everyone did.

2. Nehemiah 3:9, 12, 14-19 -- The officials joined in with everyone else to do the backbreaking labor.

3. Nehemiah 4:1 -- "Now when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry and greatly enraged, and he jeered at the Jews." Opponents to God's work reacted in anger because they feared they would lose their power and authority. Some people will feel threatened by your accomplishments and ridicule or resist you. Don't chase the poisonous snakes that bite you. Or, as the old country saying goes, "Don't wrestle with a pig in the mud because you both get dirty and the pig likes it." Stay focused on what God has called you to do, and move around the obstacles.

4. Nehemiah 4:1-3 -- "...and he jeered at the Jews." Mocking and sarcasm are ways people express their fear and insecurity.

5. Nehemiah 4:4-5 -- "Hear, O our God, for we are despised...." Do not rail back at enemies but rather turn it over to God in prayer for Him to handle.

6. Nehemiah 4:4-23 -- Dedication to God and hard work, empowered by the Holy Spirit, brings amazing results.

7. Nehemiah 4:5 -- "Do not cover their guilt, and let not their sin be blotted out from your sight, for they have provoked you to anger in the presence of the builders." Enemies arouse God's anger. If you are committed to serving God and fulfilling His will, then your enemies are, in fact, God's enemies. No one can thwart God's will. You have nothing to worry about if you are doing what God has told you to do.

8. Nehemiah 4:6 -- "The people had a mind to work." My father often said, "People do what they really want to do." Most of the time, when we say, "I can't," what we really mean is "I don't really want to." We have all heard the saying, "Where there is the will there is the way," but how much truer is this saying when your will is aligned with God's will? In Nehemiah we see the Jews accomplish the seemingly impossible despite being mocked, threatened, and severely resource constrained. They let nothing stand in their way and worked tirelessly day and night to accomplish their task -- no excuses. Conversely, in Proverbs we read about the sluggard who is nothing but excuses -- "The sluggard says, 'There is a lion in the road! There is a lion in the streets (Proverbs 26:13)!'" It is vital for the Christian to have a "mind to work," but it foremost essential that we have "the mind of Christ" and that we endeavor only where God would have us (1 Corinthians 2:16). Jesus said that He did "nothing" apart from the Father's leading (John 5:19). Apart for God's leading, our best efforts will be misplaced and counterproductive -- "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts (Isaiah 55:8, 9)." Interestingly, if you do a word search for the word "diligent" in the Bible, the word is mostly applied to "inquiring" of the Lord, "listening to the voice" of the Lord, "searching God's word, and then obeying His commands. Our diligence must be in growing closer to Christ each day. In our readings today, we see a great example given by Jesus: He was swarmed by crowds on needy people (Lepers, paralytics, etc) who were desperately seeking His ministry. What would we do in that situation? I know that I would be very tempted to wear myself out attempting to minister to everyone's needs, relying on my own talents, intellect, and skills – "But He would withdraw to desolate places and pray (Luke 5:16)." Far more important than doing things right is doing the right things, and only God knows what is right. "Diligently listen to the voice of the Lord your God, and do that which is right in his eyes, and give ear to his commandments and keep all his statutes (Exodus 15:26)."

9. Nehemiah 4:6-8, 11-12, 15 -- Success among God's people only brings the world's increased anger.

10. Nehemiah 4:10-12 – "The strength of those who bear the burdens is failing...." Barriers to work, threats from enemies, and the doubts of others can bring us to doubt. However, focus on God relieves fear. (Neh 4:14)

11. Nehemiah 4:20 – "In the place where you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us." God is on your side when you are on God's side. Anything you do outside of God's will is ultimately meaningless. When you are serving God, you are fulfilling your life's purpose and will experience great joy. If you are not experiencing great joy, check yourself and evaluate whether or not you are doing what you should be doing.

12. Proverbs 27:1 – "Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring." Make the most of each day, one day at a time. Success being faithful with each day. We cannot do anything about the past and cannot control the future. Today is where we make a difference.

13. Proverbs 27:5 – "Better is open rebuke than hidden love." Love sometimes demands uncomfortable rebukes. To remain silent in the face of sin in order to avoid needed conflict is unloving.

14. Proverbs 27:6 – "Faithful are the wounds of a friend; profuse are the kisses of an enemy." Friends tell you the painful truth. True love speaks the truth in love.

15. Proverbs 27:7 – "One who is full loathes honey, but to one who is hungry everything bitter is sweet." People compromise when they are not satisfied with what they already have. God may keep you a bit hungry so you don't take what you have for granted and grow complacent. I have seen that an easy life can ruin a person.

16. Proverbs 27:8 – "Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man who strays from his home." Compromise as a result of discontentment is destructive.

17. Proverbs 27:13 – "Take a man's garment when he has put up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for an adulteress." Love often involves protecting someone from themselves. Where people lack self-control and discipline, they need protection from others who are stronger. Leaders have the strength to lead self so they can then lead others.

18. Proverbs 27:14 – "Whoever blesses his neighbor with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, will be counted as cursing." All messages must be communicated with consideration and timing. We are not just responsible for what we say, we are also responsible for how, when, and why we say it.

19. Proverbs 27:17 – “Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another.” Friends should strengthen one another and support one another in pursuit of godliness.

20. Proverbs 27:18 – “Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who guards his master will be honored.” You should seek to improve your boss and protect him/her from their own bad decisions.

21. Proverbs 27:19 – “As in water face reflects face, so the heart of man reflects the man.” What is in your heart is who you really are, not what others say about you or even what you say about yourself.

22. Proverbs 27:23-27 – “Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds, for riches do not last forever; and does a crown endure to all generations? When the grass is gone and the new growth appears and the vegetation of the mountains is gathered, the lambs will provide your clothing, and the goats the price of a field. There will be enough goats’ milk for your food, for the food of your household and maintenance for your girls.” Churches do not spend enough time providing discipling in the Biblical principles of economics. These are very important verses that teach the importance of creating industry rather than simply making money, raising geese that lay golden eggs rather than simply trying to collect golden eggs. Invest in the ability to produce wealth for the long-term rather than just acquiring wealth in the near-term. Have a plan for the future and build upon it daily. The Biblical retirement plan is not storing up riches in barns (which Jesus condemned) but rather creating production capacity that will continue to produce after your primary working years.

23. Luke 5:4-7 – “Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets.” When you are seeking to walk in obedience to God, obeying His word though it may seem to make no sense, He will reveal Himself to you by doing what you couldn’t. Putting down the nets was hard work, but God used that commitment to provide miraculous results. God honors obedience with god-sized results, but the hard work isn’t the cause of the results, God is. We show our commitment, and God shows His power. Ultimately, God is not merely trying to provide for our earthly needs, He is seeking to draw us closer to Him.

24. Luke 5:8 – “But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, ‘Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord.’” Experiencing the presence of God causes us to repent and to fear the LORD.

25. Luke 5:15 – “But now even more the report about him went abroad, and great crowds gathered to hear him and to be healed of their infirmities.” Jesus did not seek the crowds; they sought Him. Jesus didn’t beg for followers; He merely revealed the truth and let those who would accept the truth follow.

26. Luke 5:20 – “And when he saw their faith, he said, ‘Man, your sins are forgiven you.’” Jesus brings healing and forgiveness to those who pursue Him.

27. Luke 5:17-24 -- Doubters do not seek forgiveness.

28. Luke 5:28 – “And leaving everything, he rose and followed him.” Following Jesus involves surrendering all to Him.

29. Luke 5:33-6:9 -- Religion, with its rites and rules, is easier to follow than following Jesus.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 27 July 18: Today, have a plan and work hard for God’s glory. Don’t let anything distract you from your God-centered plan. Do the very best you can and watch God reveal Himself to you and to others by doing what you can’t. (See today’s readings)

DBRP - WEEK 30, Day 4, Thursday, 26 July 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 26 July 18:

1. Nehemiah 1:4 – “As soon as I heard these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days, and I continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven.” Nehemiah’s focus was on God’s people and God’s plan. Nehemiah lived in prosperity but wept bitterly over the plight of other believers. Do you have this sort of heart for distant believers?

2. Nehemiah 1:6 – “I now pray before you day and night for the people of Israel your servants, confessing the sins of the people of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Even I and my father’s house have sinned.” Nehemiah took personal responsibility for the current situation rather than blaming others such as political leaders. Nehemiah’s plea for help from God included confession of sin, repentance, and a request for God’s forgiveness, both for himself and for the nation.

3. Nehemiah 1:7 – “We have acted very corruptly against you and have not kept the commandments, the statutes, and the rules that you commanded your servant Moses.” Sin is measured by God’s word, not by popular opinion or current standards of morality.

4. Nehemiah 1:8, 9 -- “If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples, but if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts are in the uttermost parts of heaven, from there I will gather them and bring them to the place that I have chosen, to make my name dwell there.” Like Ezra, Nehemiah was heavily convicted by the state of God’s people who were in “great trouble and shame,” because they “acted very corruptly against [God] and [had] not kept the commandments” of God. They had denied their own holiness and their “wall” was “broken down” – a physical manifestation of their spiritual condition. Rather than standing as a “priestly kingdom” among the kingdoms of the earth, God’s people remained “scatter[ed]... among the peoples.” Like Ezra, Nehemiah was driven to lamentation, personal repentance, fasting, prayer, and career changing action. Like Ezra, Nehemiah knew it was time for action, not primarily because of the physical threat to God’s people (which was very real), but because he saw that God’s people had been enslaved by their sin and their compromise with the world (Ezra 9:9; see Jeremiah 13:17;). Their problem was, above all else, a spiritual problem. In our New Testament readings today, Jesus proclaims, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me.... to proclaim liberty to the captives... to set at liberty those who are oppressed.” Our hope is in Christ and Christ alone. In today’s readings, Jesus says to Satan, “It is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve.’” Colossians 2:8-10 warns, “See to it that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority.” It is time to rebuild a wall of holiness and to faithfully serve Christ as KING.

5. Nehemiah 1:11; 2:2, 3 – “Now I was cupbearer to the king.... And the king said to me, ‘Why is your face sad, seeing you are not sick? This is nothing but sadness of the heart.’ Then I was very much afraid. I said to the king, ‘Let the king live forever! Why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers’ graves, lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?’”

- Nehemiah was the king's cupbearer, a trusted confidant and advisor to the king. Nehemiah's position was one of great responsibility, power, and honor in the Persian Empire. Nehemiah couldn't ask for a more successful, prosperous, rewarding life. However, when Nehemiah heard that God's people in Judah were in great distress he "sat down and wept and mourned for days, and... continued fasting..., confessing the sins of the people." His heart was so stirred that, though he tried to conceal his emotions, the king could see he was sad and questioned him. With a bold request to the king, Nehemiah put his life on the line to help his people. He put his career on hold and personally led the effort to help the people in Jerusalem. I can't help but notice the stark contrast between Nehemiah's response to the plight of God's people and the American churches response to Christian persecution around the globe. Last year, Fox News reported, "over 900,000 Christians have been martyred in the last 10 years." However, the church in America, the most blessed of God's people on the planet, remain largely silent on the issue.

6. Nehemiah 2:4 – "Then the king said to me, 'What are you requesting?' So I prayed to the God of heaven." Nehemiah prayed before answering the king. Do you seek answers before answering?

7. Nehemiah 2:8 – "And the king granted me what I asked, for the good hand of my God was upon me." Nehemiah knew that it was God that moved the heart of the king, not Nehemiah's words.

8. Nehemiah 2:16 – "And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, and I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, and the rest who were to do the work." Nehemiah knew he was protected by God but still used wisdom to keep security. He was careful not to let the word get out about his plans until he was ready.

9. Proverbs 26:9 – "Like a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools." People often use God's word inappropriately to justify their foolish thinking, decisions, and behavior.

10. Proverbs 26:11 – "Like a dog that returns to his vomit is a fool who repeats his folly." Do not continually repeat your sins of the past.

11. Proverbs 26:14 – "As a door turns on its hinges, so does a sluggard on his bed." A lazy and undisciplined person's actions are very predictable.

12. Luke 4:1 – "And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness." Jesus, our example, was led by the Spirit, not merely by perceptions, intellect, or emotions. Only the Spirit knows the complete picture.

13. Luke 4:2 – "...he was hungry." You are vulnerable to temptation when you are physically weak.

14. Luke 4:3 – "If you are the Son of God...." Satan wants you to doubt your status with God.

15. Luke 4:3 -- Temptation occurred person to person. A personal evil one exists, Satan.

16. Luke 4:5-7 – "... it will all be yours." Temptations targets personal desires you might have for personal accomplishments rather than accomplishments for the Kingdom. Satan looks for any selfishness or self-centeredness in you, wants you to make something a priority in your life other than God, and wants you to pursue your own goals.

17. Luke 4:9-12 – “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here.... And Jesus answered him, ‘It is said, You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.’” Satan wants you question God’s protection and control in your life or presume upon Him support for your selfish desires. God does not support your goals but empowers you to serve His purposes. Many people are tempted to view God as their genie in a bottle.

18. Luke 4:18 -- “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed....” The Spirit leads you to help the lost and the needy.

19. Luke 4:26-27 – “Elijah was sent to none of them but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian.” Sidon and Syria were foreign nations. God worked there, to the dismay of those in Israel. What can we learn from these verses?

20. Luke 4:31-41 -- Jesus' mission involved attacking demons, diseases, and doctrinal ignorance.

21. Luke 4:34 -- “Ha! What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God.” The demons know who Jesus is, but they refuse to follow Him. James said, “You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder!” (James 2:19) Many self-proclaimed Christians don’t even have demon-like respect for Jesus, unable to shudder. Believing in Jesus is not enough; you have to believe in Him enough to obey Him and follow him.

22. Luke 4:42-5:16 -- Jesus had to choose between prayer, healing, preaching, and moving on. How do you decide between these things?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 26 July 18: Today, commit to being not just a believer in Jesus but a disciple of Jesus, a follower who obeys at all costs.

DBRP - WEEK 30, Day 3, Wednesday, 25 July 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=ezra+9%2C+10%3B+pro+25%3B+Luke+3>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 25 July 18:

1. Ezra 9:2 -- “The holy race has mixed itself with the peoples of the lands.” We cannot partner with unbelievers. Holiness is a requirement.

2. Ezra 9:2 – “And in this faithlessness the hand of the officials and chief men has been foremost.” Israel’s worst sinners were the political and religious leaders. Israel’s leaders were leaders in sin.

3. Ezra 9:3 -- “I... sat appalled.” What is appalling today is what no longer appalls us. Ezra was shocked, appalled, and greatly distressed by sin. Are you?

4. Ezra 9:4 -- “All who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the faithlessness... gathered around.” In an age of unfaithfulness, the faithful will unite.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

5. Ezra 9:5 – “And at the evening sacrifice I rose from my fasting, with my garment and my cloak torn, and fell upon my knees and spread out my hands to the Lord my God.” Our response to sin should be humiliation, shame, confession, mourning, fasting, and prayer.

6. Ezra 9:6 -- “O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift my face to you....” What makes today’s generation blush?

7. Ezra 9:7 -- “From the days of our fathers to this day we have been in great guilt. And for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to utter shame, as it is today.”

- Ezra, “appalled” at the “faithlessness” of God’s people fell to his knees in earnest prayer, trembling in shame, guilt, and humility before the Lord. God’s people were called to be a holy kingdom among the kingdoms, “a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation (Exodus 19:6).” God commanded His people to “take possession” of the land, to subdue it and control it for God’s glory. God expected His holy people to be a “city on a hill,” a light among the nations. However, rather than conquerors, they had become slaves to the world. They had been “given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to utter shame.” Both figuratively and literally, God’s people had “inter-married” with the ungodly around them – the bride of Christ had committed adultery. God had given the “remnant” an opportunity for “reviving,” and opportunity to rebuild the “church.” However, immediately, God’s remnant began compromising its holiness for the sake of friendship with world. Today, the Church is largely guilty of the same sin, that of syncretism. We have too often compromised the Kingdom for the sake of the American dream. It is time for us to “separate [ourselves] from the peoples of the land.”

-- Matthew 6:24 -- No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other.

-- Luke 11:23 -- Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

-- Revelation 3:16 -- So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth.

8. Ezra 9:9 – “For we are slaves. Yet our God has not forsaken us in our slavery, but has extended to us his steadfast love.” Even in your punishment, God shows you love, mercy, and grace.

9. Ezra 9:10-12 – “For we have forsaken your commandments....” Ezra knew exactly what commandments God’s people had disobeyed because He knew God’s word.

10. Ezra 9:13 – “And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, seeing that you, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserved...” If God were ‘fair’ and gave you what you deserved, you would have died eternally long ago. Never complain that God isn’t fair, and don’t take His mercy and grace for granted. Be always thankful for what you have received.

11. Ezra 10:1 – “While Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, a very great assembly of men, women, and children, gathered to him out of Israel, for the people wept bitterly.” Can you imagine a great number of people in America gathering together and weeping bitterly in repentance for the Nation’s sins? When was the last time you wept bitterly over your sins and the sins of your people?

12. Ezra 10:8 – “...and that if anyone did not come within three days, by order of the officials and the elders all his property should be forfeited, and he himself banned from the congregation of the exiles.” Those who were not willing to submit to church discipline were removed from the congregation.

13. Ezra 10:10-12 – “And Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, ‘You have broken faith....’” Again, Ezra knew the specific commandments of God the people had broken. (see Exodus 34:11-16; Deuteronomy 7:1-4)

14. Ezra 10:11 – “Now then make confession to the Lord, the God of your fathers and do his will.” Sin requires confession, repentance, restitution, and changed behavior.

15. Ezra 10:13, 14 – “But the people are many, and it is a time of heavy rain; we cannot stand in the open. Nor is this a task for one day or for two, for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. Let our officials stand for the whole assembly. Let all in our cities who have taken foreign wives come at appointed times, and with them the elders and judges of every city, until the fierce wrath of our God over this matter is turned away from us.” God’s discipline includes mercy. We couldn’t stand the punishment we deserve.

16. Ezra 10:14 -- The people were so serious about repentance and renewal that those who did not show up to the assembly were punished.

17. Ezra 10:17 -- “By the first day of the first month they had come to the end of all the men who had married foreign women.” Returning to fidelity to God came with great personal sacrifice and pain. The impact was likely felt for generations.

18. Ezra 10:18 – “Now there were found some of the sons of the priests who had married foreign women: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib....” Sin was recorded by name and dealt with publicly. Those who were willing to acknowledge and correct their sin were restored.

19. Ezra 10:44 – “All these had married foreign women, and some of the women had even borne children.” Sin has terrible consequences on the next generation.

20. Proverbs 25:3 – “As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the heart of kings is unsearchable.” There is no way for us to truly know the character, motives, and intent of a leader. Only God knows. We can only judge the deeds of a person, whether they are just and righteous or not. Be very careful not to assume the motives of anyone.

21. Proverbs 25:4 – “Take away the dross from the silver, and the smith has material for a vessel....” Remove sin from your life that you may be usable by God for special matters.

22. Proverbs 25:6 – “Do not put yourself forward in the king’s presence or stand in the place of the great....” Don’t be a self-promoter.

23. Proverbs 25:8, 9 – “...do not hastily bring into court, for what will you do in the end, when your neighbor puts you to shame? Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not reveal another’s secret....” Handle conflict quietly, at the lowest possible level.

24. Proverbs 25:15, 16 – “With patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue will break a bone. If you have found honey, eat only enough for you, lest you have your fill of it and vomit it.” Be patient; don't come on too strong. Even a good idea can be rejected if it forced upon someone too quickly without gentle persuasion.

25. Proverbs 25:21, 22 – “If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, for you will heap burning coals on his head, and the Lord will reward you.” God expects your love for your enemies to be tangible; if it doesn't cost you something, it probably isn't worth very much.

26. Proverbs 25:26 – “Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.” Accept as much sin in your life as you would accept feces in your drinking water. Don't pollute yourself with compromise.

27. Proverbs 25:28 – “A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.” Again, Proverbs reminds us that self-control through the power of the Holy Spirit is critical to our security in life.

28. Luke 3:2 – “During the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness.” The word of God came to John rather than the High Priest.

29. Luke 3:5 – “...and the crooked shall become straight.” When God takes control of your life, He straightens everything out, usually not overnight.

30. Luke 3:8 – “Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham.” Religious talk is cheap; God expects obedience and honors and uses the faithful. John embodied that truth, a simple but faithful man mightily used by God.

31. Luke 3:8, 9 -- “Bear fruits in keeping with repentance.... Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

- A saving faith is a fruitful faith. Genuine repentance is revealed in transformation. John the Baptist's words are not hard to understand but hard for people to accept. Jesus said it this way, “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me, he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.” (John 15) Is this hard to understand? Christians are fruitful. Jesus said you can judge a person by their fruit – “You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?” (Matthew 7) Concerning being a lady, Margaret Thatcher said, “If you have to tell people you are, you aren't.” Similarly, genuine Christianity is self-evident, revealed in word and deed.

32. Compare Luke 3:9 with John 15.

33. Luke 3:10-14 – Our “fruit” is measured in how we treat others.

34. Luke 3:16 – “John answered them all, saying, ‘I baptize you with water, but he who is mightier than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.’” Real Christians and leaders never point to themselves but always point to Jesus.

35. Luke 3:18 – “So with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people.” Preach the Good News with many exhortations.

36. Luke 3:18 -- “With many other exhortations he preached good news to the people.” The Good News was proclaimed with exhortations.

37. Luke 3:20 – “[Herod] locked up John in prison.” John challenged Herod’s sin and was imprisoned for it. We also are called to challenge sin and be ready to suffer for it.

38. Luke 3:21 – “Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heavens were opened...” Prayer opens the heavens. Jesus exemplified prayer for us.

39. Luke 3:23-37 -- Jesus’ genealogy included many very imperfect people. It is not physical birth and family that matters but spiritual birth and family.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 25 July 18: Today, study God’s word, pray, obey, proclaim, and trust. (See today’s readings).

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 24 July 18:

1. Ezra 7:6 -- “The king granted him all that he asked, for the hand of the Lord his God was on him.” God can change the hearts of your potential adversaries.

2. Ezra 7:6 -- “He was a scribe skilled in the Law of Moses that the Lord, the God of Israel, had given.” God gave you the Bible. Does that fact impact how you prioritize daily Bible study?

3. Ezra 7:9, 10 -- “The good hand of his God was on him. For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the Lord, and to do it and to teach his statutes and rules in Israel.”

- In today’s readings the lives of Ezra, Simeon, Joseph, Anna, and Jesus reveal important characteristics of God’s servants of which we should seek to emulate: First, they diligently and humbly studied God’s word, lived by it, and taught it to others (Ezra 7:9, 10; Luke 2:46-52). Second, they were committed to fervent prayer (Luke 2:37, 38). Third, they were obedient to God’s word but were also submissive to earthly authorities – even Jesus submitted to the authority of his earthly parents while simultaneously teaching them (Luke 2:4, 2:51). Fourth, they had earned reputations as “righteous”, “insightful”, “wise”, and “devout” people (Ezra 8:16, 18, 21; Luke 2: 25, 52). Fifth, they were guided by the Spirit, seeking to fulfill God’s purposes rather than their own, and trusting on God’s provision rather than that of men (Ezra 8:22; Luke 2:25-27). These were lives surrendered to God and used mightily for God’s purposes and to God's glory. Are you ready to be a living sacrifice? Are you ready to assume your role as a priest like Ezra?

-- Romans 12:1 -- I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

-- 1 Peter 2:4, 5 -- As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

-- 1 Peter 2:9 -- But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

-- Revelation 1:5, 6 -- From Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

- Ezra was known throughout the land, even by the king, as a faithful man of God. For what are you most known? As Ezra stepped out in faith to follow God's direction for his life, God worked where Ezra had no power in order to accomplish His purposes and bring glory to Himself – he changed the heart of the king to allow the Temple to be built and to supply the financial needs. When serving God, do you do only what you know you have the power to do, or do you trust that God will provide? Though Ezra accepted support from the king, he refused to depend on human institutions because he knew he could depend on God. (v. 8:22) He recognized that dependence on government would compromise his witness to a watching world. Do you at times look for human solutions rather than trusting in God? You may not consider yourself a temple builder, but you are. You are the Temple as is the Church collective. (1 Cor 3:17, 1 Cor 6:19, Eph 2:21). Are we building day by day to bring the greatest glory to God? What can we learn from Ezra?

- "Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the Lord, and to do it and to teach his statutes and rules in Israel." Teachers must be, both, studiers and doers. Many want to teach so they study diligently, driven mostly by pride as their knowledge puffs them up. Real teachers are doers who model what is right based upon a deep understanding of God's word. Notice that Jesus taught by word and example.

4. Ezra 7:14 – "For you are sent by the king and his seven counselors to make inquiries about Judah and Jerusalem according to the Law of your God, which is in your hand...." Ezra used God's word to evaluate the situation and the condition of His people.

5. Ezra 7:16 – "...with all the silver and gold that you shall find in the whole province of Babylonia, and with the freewill offerings of the people and the priests, vowed willingly for the house of their God that is in Jerusalem." Even the king of Persia expected Jews in exile to want to give money to maintain worship in the temple in Jerusalem.

6. Ezra 7:24 -- "We also notify you that it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll on anyone of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the doorkeepers, the temple servants, or other servants of this house of God." The church had a tax-exempt status.

7. Ezra 7:25 -- "...appoint magistrates and judges who may judge all the people in the province Beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God." Judges were to judge based on God's laws, not personal opinion or popular opinion.

8. Ezra 7:27 -- "Blessed be the Lord, the God of our fathers, who put such a thing as this into the heart of the king, to beautify the house of the Lord that is in Jerusalem." God controls the hearts of kings. God will make national leadership respond if His people are faithful to God. God uses ungodly leaders to punish His unfaithful people. The most influential people in politics are God's people, based not upon what they do in the voting booths but rather what they do before God daily and publicly.

9. Ezra 7:28 -- "I took courage, for the hand of the Lord my God was on me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me." Courage comes from God. Knowing God is your God should give you complete courage.

10. Ezra 8:18 -- "And by the good hand of our God on us, they brought us a man of discretion." Are you equipped with the godly character and competence required for you to be usable by God for important jobs within His Kingdom?

11. Ezra 8:21 -- "Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a safe journey for ourselves, our children, and all our goods." Ezra called a fast to show dedication to and dependence on God as they traveled, acknowledging that safety and protection would come from God alone and not through human capabilities. On what do you base your security?

12. Ezra 8:22 -- "For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemy on our way, since we had told the king, 'The hand of our God is for good on all who seek him, and the power of his wrath is against all who forsake him.'" Ezra trusted God to protect him and to punish his enemies. Ezra considered it a great embarrassment for God's people to trust in the government.

13. Ezra 8:23 -- "So we fasted and implored our God for this, and he listened to our entreaty." God heard Ezra's prayer.

14. Ezra 8:24, 25 -- "Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests: Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their kinsmen with them. And I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering for the house of our God that the king and his counselors and his lords and all Israel there present had offered." Ezra appointed leaders but also held them accountable and set controls to ensure they carried out responsibility. (Ezra 8:25-34)

15. Ezra 8:31 -- "Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem." The hand of our God was on us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambushes by the way. God did what Ezra had trusted Him to do.

16. Ezra 8:35, 36 -- "At that time those who had come from captivity, the returned exiles, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel...." Ezra began his work in prayer, executed his work in faith, and completed his work in worship. This is a good model for us.

17. Proverbs 24:10 – “If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.” You must develop strength before you need it. During hard times, you use the strength you had already developed. When the hard times come, it is often too late to build the strength you need.

18. Proverbs 24:11, 12 – “Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter. If you say, ‘Behold, we did not know this,’ does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will he not repay man according to his work?” If you remain silent, concealing your knowledge of ‘The Way, The Truth, and The Life, Jesus while those you know continue to walk in darkness, you will be held accountable by God.

19. Proverbs 24:19 – “Fret not yourself because of evildoers, and be not envious of the wicked...” Let God worry about the wicked while you focus on being faithful to Him, regardless of apparent outcomes. God knows what is going on and will judge the hearts of all people.

20. Proverbs 24:29 -- Do not say, ‘I will do to him as he has done to me; I will pay the man back for what he has done.’” Do not chase after the poisonous snakes the bite you – the poison will just travel to your heart. Let God deal with those who offend you. Just continue to follow Jesus.

21. Proverbs 24:32 – “Then I saw and considered it; I looked and received instruction.” God wants you to compare the actions of others to God’s word, consider the consequences of their actions, and learn from their actions, both good and bad.

22. Luke 2:4, 5 – “And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the town of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be registered with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child.” With his betrothed being very pregnant, Joseph could have made excuses for not obeying an ungodly government, but being a man of God, he obeyed anyway. (See Romans 13) Joseph did not make excuses for not obeying the law of the land.

23. Luke 2:9 – “And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with great fear.” God didn’t first reveal His Son to the religious leaders or to those that society would have expected but rather to seemingly insignificant shepherds in a field. Who receives the true revelation of God today?

24. Luke 2:11 – “For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.” Jesus is the Savior, Messiah, and LORD; He has been for eternity.

25. Luke 2:15 – “When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, ‘Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.’” The shepherds were guided, not by sight or human intellect but by the Holy Spirit.

26. Luke 2:16 – “And they went with haste....” When God speaks and reveals truth to you, you don’t waste time in response. Delayed obedience is sin.

27. Luke 2:17 – “And when they saw it, they made known the saying that had been told them concerning this child.” When people experience the reality of God, they are compelled to tell others – it is not difficult or awkward for them.

28. Luke 2:19 – “But Mary treasured up all these things, pondering them in her heart.” Even Mary could not understand the birth of Jesus completely.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

29. Luke 2:20 – “And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.” Again, when you respond to God’s word, and He proves faithful, you cannot help but praise God and glorify Him.

30. Luke 2:21-24 -- God made sure Jesus complied with all Jewish laws and so was a faithful Jew in every way. God takes obedience very seriously, in every regard, and expects His people to do the same. Only sinners attempt to distinguish between big sins and little sins.

31. Luke 2:22, 23 – “...according to what is said in the Law of the Lord.” Joseph was obedient to both the laws of the land and, more importantly, to God’s laws. How about you?

32. Luke 2:25 – “Now there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.” Simeon was known to be “righteous, devout” and filled with the Holy Spirit. Are you? Simeon was usable by God for an important assignment. Are you?

33. Luke 2:27 – “And he came in the Spirit into the temple....” Are you led by the Spirit? Do you go to church in the Spirit?

34. Luke 2:34 – “Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising of many in Israel. “The Good News is only good news to those who accept salvation through Jesus.

35. Luke 2:36 – “And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived with her husband seven years from when she was a virgin....” The Bible is full of prophets and prophetesses. Again, most are not in established religious positions.

36. Luke 2:51 – “And he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was submissive to them.” The Son of God submitted in obedience to imperfect human parents out of obedience to the Father, and example for everyone. God calls us to obedience.

37. Luke 2:52 – “And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and man.”

- This verse has always fascinated me. It reminds me of Proverbs 3:3, 4: “Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart. So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man.” A Christian should model love and faithfulness, something the world desperately desires, something the Bible says is very hard to find, something that even kings long for – “Love and faithfulness keep a king safe.” (Proverbs 20:28) The Christian proclaims, through both word and deed, that true love and faithfulness come from the Lord and flow through His people. It is with God that “Love and faithfulness meet together.” (Psalm 85:10) David proclaimed, “I do not conceal your love and your faithfulness from the great assembly.” (Psalm 40:10). If we are growing in favor with God, our behavior will gain the favor of those around us – we will be very easy to like. As Ambassadors of Christ and proclaimers of the Gospel, Christians must be very diligent to make sure that their behavior does not stand in the way of the message. The prophet Samuel stood before the whole Assembly asking if there was anyone he had ever wronged. (1 Samuel 12:3) On trial for his faith, Paul proudly proclaimed the Gospel while adamantly denying any wrongdoing: “So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man.” (Acts 24:16) We are reminded that with love, a clear conscience is required – “love... comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.” (1 Timothy 1:5) We see in today’s readings that Joseph and Mary also took great

“pains” to honor both God and man – Jesus was born while Joseph and Mary were traveling to fulfill Caesar’s decree. As was exemplified by Jesus, the perfectly lovable Christian will still be rejected by men, but because of the Gospel, not because of their behavior. This reveals the righteousness of God’s final judgment of those who reject Love. Peter summed it up well: “Dear friends, I urge you, as foreigners and exiles, to abstain from sinful desires, which wage war against your soul. Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us. Submit yourselves for the Lord’s sake to every human authority: whether to the emperor, as the supreme authority, or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to commend those who do right. For it is God’s will that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish people. Live as free people, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as God’s slaves. Show proper respect to everyone, love the family of believers, fear God, honor the emperor.... Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good? But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. ‘Do not fear their threats; do not be frightened.’ But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander. For it is better, if it is God’s will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil. For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God.” (see 1 Peter 2, 3). Like Jesus, let’s “increase in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and man.”

- God favored the heart of Jesus, and men favored the words and deeds of Jesus. People see the outward you, but God sees the inward you. Both should glorify God. Our mission (the Great Commandment) is all about relationships. Whether we like it or not, we are called to be people persons. We must learn to build loving relationships with others as an act of worship to God. Strained relationships with others is a signal of a heart problem and a relationship problem with God. God says that if you cannot love the person you can see, you cannot love Him who is unseen.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 24 July 18: Today, focus on humbly and diligently obeying and respecting all authority as an act of worship to Jesus, trusting Him for your protection and using your obedience as an opportunity to glorify God. (see Philippians 2:1-8, Ephesians 5:21, and Romans 13)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 23 July 18:

1. Ezra 5:2 – “Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the house of God that is in Jerusalem, and the prophets of God were with them, supporting them.” Zerubbabel defied the king’s edict to renew work on the temple.
2. Ezra 5:2 -- Prophets work too.
3. Ezra 5:8 – “Be it known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God. It is being built with huge stones, and timber is laid in the walls. This work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands.” God’s people worked with great diligence in order to make rapid progress. How hard are you working to advance the Kingdom?

4. Ezra 5:11 – “And this was their reply to us: ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.’” God’s people used challenges against them as opportunities to witness, and they did not back down. Their justification and defense always started with the authority of God over man.

5. Ezra 6:8 – “Moreover, I make a decree regarding what you shall do for these elders of the Jews for the rebuilding of this house of God. The cost is to be paid to these men in full and without delay from the royal revenue, the tribute of the province from Beyond the River.” God worked through ungodly people to resource the building of His temple, using governmental, secular treasuries; furthermore, God worked through the ungodly government to force His enemies to support the project directly, much to their dismay. What can God do to counter your enemies if you commit to His purposes?

6. Ezra 6:9 – “And whatever is needed—bulls, rams, or sheep for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, or oil, as the priests at Jerusalem require—let that be given to them day by day without fail....” Not only did the Governor’s plot against God’s people fail, he ended up having to personally support God’s work with significant resources. Who saw something like that coming?

7. Ezra 6:22 – “The Lord had made them joyful and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, so that he aided them in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.” God turns hearts.

8. Proverbs 23:1-3 – “When you sit down to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you, and put a knife to your throat if you are given to appetite. Do not desire his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.” Rulers make many promises, but there is usually a catch, a hidden agenda, a power play. Politicians get elected on promises. Be wary of deceptive food.

9. Proverbs 23:13, 14 – “Do not withhold discipline from a child; if you strike him with a rod, he will not die. If you strike him with the rod, you will save his soul from Sheol.” Parents who don’t discipline their children create adults with deep character issues. “Discipline your son, for there is hope; do not set your heart on putting him to death.” (Proverbs 19:18)

10. Proverbs 23:17-18 – “Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the Lord all the day. Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off.” Many Christians compromise their fidelity to God because they want what the world seems to have, and they often realize far too late the price of compromise.

11. Proverbs 23:22-25 – “Listen to your father who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old.... The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; he who fathers a wise son will be glad in him. Let your father and mother be glad; let her who bore you rejoice.” The most important institution in the Bible is the family. The foundation of society is the family. The family is the school house for character development. The most important leadership position is parent. The measure of the leader is the character of his/her children. Children need the leadership of both a godly man and a godly woman, working together to develop the whole person developing in the child. When a society loses respect for God’s plan for the family, the society is doomed.

Note: Here is a video overview of The Book of Luke, chapters 1-9: https://youtu.be/XIb_dClxr0

12. Luke 1:2 – “...those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses....” The Gospel rests on eyewitness accounts and is historically true.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Luke 1:3-4 – “...it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, that you may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught.” Luke wrote to a Gentile who needed historical assurance.

14. Luke 1:5 – “In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah. And he had a wife from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.” Bible events are related to political and historical events.

15. Luke 1:5-10 -- Men chose Zechariah by lot, but God had already chosen Zechariah because of his faithfulness to God.

16. Luke 1:6, 7 – “And they were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and statutes of the Lord. But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were advanced in years.” Righteousness is revealed in obedience that is not motivated by personal reward but rather by love. Though obedient, Elizabeth was not blessed with a child, but she was obedient nonetheless.

17. Luke 1:11 – “And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.” God meets us in prayer.

18. Luke 1:12 – “And Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him.” Our first response to holiness is overwhelming reverence. When was the last time you felt that?

19. Luke 1:15 – “...for he will be great before the Lord. And he must not drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother’s womb.” God’s servants are empowered by the Holy Spirit for the work they have been given.

20. Luke 1:16, 17 – “And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God, and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared.” The Spirit of God reconciles people to Himself and people to each other in the love of Christ. The Spirit promotes unity. Disunity is a mark of separation from God. Some seek unity around something other than Christ -- a cause, an organization, a set of values, etc. However, this is in defiance of God’s first and greatest commandment and is doomed to fail. John was on a mission of reconciliation like we are now. How are you doing? Who have you brought back to God?

21. Luke 1:17 – “...and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared.” GOD HEALS FAMILIES!

22. Luke 1:18-20 – “And Zechariah said to the angel, ‘How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in years.’ And the angel answered him, ‘I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak until the day that these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time.’” What does it take for you to believe God and obey Him? Some ask for a sign, but evidence is not the problem; our hearts are the problem.

23. Luke 1:20 – “And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak until the day that these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time.” God doesn’t want you proclaiming what you don’t really believe.

24. Luke 1:23 – “And when his time of service was ended, he went to his home.” Though stricken with muteness by God and in the midst of a life-changing event, Zechariah finished his duty.

25. Luke 1:25 -- “Thus the Lord has done for me in the days when he looked on me, to take away my reproach among people.” Elizabeth patiently and faithfully waited on the Lord and was rewarded beyond everyone’s expectations.

26. Luke 1:28 – “And he came to her and said, ‘Greetings, O favored one, the Lord is with you!’ God chooses people.” Angels and prophets only deliver the message.

27. Luke 1:32-33 – “He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.” God gave Jesus the Kingdom.

28. Luke 1:34-37 -- God does the impossible to bring glory to Himself and not to us.

29. Luke 1:38 – “Mary said, ‘Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word.’” Mary was usable by God because her life was wholly surrendered to God.

30. Luke 1:45 – “And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord.” Blessings come when we trust God, regardless of circumstances, to fulfill His word. Blessings come from believing not in what we want but rather what God has said. It isn’t “Name it and claim it.” Joy comes from unity to God as we become one with Him and what He is doing for His glory. There is no room for self here.

31. Luke 1:46-47 – “And Mary said: ‘My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.’”

- The activity of God in our lives drives us to uncontrollable praise. Praise is the spontaneous response of a grateful child of God in His presence. The person who knows God and experiences Him intimately sings to the Lord with deepest praise! Mary was overwhelmed by the Lord’s goodness to her. In response she sang one of the most beautiful and profound songs of praise found in Scripture. Trying to stop the praise of a thankful heart would be like trying to arrest the flow of a mighty waterfall! God created us to praise Him; praise will be our activity when we are gathered around His throne in heaven.

- You should never have difficulty thinking of reasons why God deserves your praise. You should enjoy the times you have to praise your Lord, both privately and publicly in worship. If your life is not filled with praise, it may be that you have lost your appreciation for God’s merciful activity in your life. Never forget what God has saved you from. Never take for granted what it means to have the assurance of eternity with God. Do not disregard the spiritual kinship you enjoy with other believers. Take time often to recount the blessings He has poured out upon you and your family. As you contemplate the boundless love and mercy God has shown you, you will want to sing His praises as Mary did. Spontaneous praise is authentic praise. It does not have to be manipulated or orchestrated. It is a real and personal expression of a grateful heart and wonder-filled life that has encountered holy God! (Blackaby)

32. Luke 1:48 – “...for he has looked on the humble estate of his servant. For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed....” God uses people society ignores.
33. Luke 1:50 – “And his mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.” Not everyone receives God’s mercy, only those who fear Him.
34. Luke 1:51-55 -- God reverses human fortunes.
35. Luke 1:60-61 -- God’s ways often go against human customs.
36. Luke 1:69-73 -- Salvation has always been God’s plan.
37. Luke 1:74-75 – “...that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.” Salvation always leads to service.
38. Luke 1:77 – “...to give knowledge of salvation to his people in the forgiveness of their sins....” People need to know that forgiveness and salvation are needed and available.
39. Luke 1:79 – “...to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.” As Ambassadors for Christ, we are called guide others to the way of peace, to Jesus.
40. Luke 1:80 – “And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.” God measures maturity in spiritual strength. Some grow physically but remain spiritual infants.
41. Luke 1:80 – “And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.” Jesus spent much time in isolation preparing for God’s work.

DBRP - WEEK 29, Day 7, Sunday, 22 July 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=ezra+3%2C+4%3B%3B+pro+22%3B+psa+83%2C+84>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 22 July 18:

1. Ezra 3:6 – “From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the Lord. But the foundation of the temple of the Lord was not yet laid.” Life’s challenges did not stop the people from putting worship first and being faithful with worship.
2. Ezra 3:8 – “Now in the second year after their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak made a beginning, together with the rest of their kinsmen, the priests and the Levites and all who had come to Jerusalem from the captivity. They appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to supervise the work of the house of the Lord.” The entire community joined to rebuild the temple. What role are you playing in the building up of God’s people?

3. Ezra 3:8 -- “Now in the second year... Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak made a beginning.” Change in large organizations takes much time. After the first year, you may feel like you are just getting started.

4. Ezra 3:11-13 – “And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid. But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers’ houses, old men who had seen the first house, wept with a loud voice when they saw the foundation of this house being laid, though many shouted aloud for joy, so that the people could not distinguish the sound of the joyful shout from the sound of the people’s weeping, for the people shouted with a great shout, and the sound was heard far away.” New beginnings can be bitter sweet as you reflect upon what was lost while rejoicing in what you now have. Rebuilding may bring mixed emotions – perhaps your joy in Jesus is still hindered by guilt and regret concerning past mistakes and subsequent consequences. God wants you to learn from the past but to look forward and to trust Him with the future; and you must trust Him to take care of what is out of your hands to fix from the past. You can’t plow a field or drive a car looking backwards. Your present joy must replace your past sorrow. The Bible uses the word “rejoice” 220 times in the English Standard Version. The prefix “re-” is Latin for “again” or for “again and again.” So, rejoice can mean “joy again,” to return to joy again and again. “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice.” (Philippians 4:4) This is a Biblical command that had to be repeated for a reason – we sometimes have a hard time doing it. Sometimes we must force ourselves to return to joy, to posture our minds for joy, to drive out all negativity. Take action – pray for joy; recite memorized Scripture verses on joy; sing hymns of joy, recollect all the ways God has blessed you; seek strength from other Christians, get busy serving others, etc. When you are feeling down, return to the joy you have in Jesus, despite apparent circumstances. Trust that God is exercising Romans 8:28 in your life and drawing you closer to Him every day.

5. Ezra 3:12 -- “And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid.” The most important part of any building is the foundation; the most important part of any organization is the foundation; the most important part of your life is the foundation. If the foundation of your life isn’t Jesus Christ, what you build is irrelevant. It will all come crumbling down. Build your house upon the Rock of Jesus!

6. Ezra 4:1-5 – “Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple to the Lord, the God of Israel, they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of fathers’ houses and said to them, ‘Let us build with you, for we worship your God as you do, and we have been sacrificing to him ever since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria who brought us here.’” The enemies of God were a “new church” with a very short, modern history. God’s people were careful to avoid syncretism, keeping worship holy before the Lord.

7. Ezra 4:2, 3 -- “Let us build with you, for we worship your God as you do.... You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God.” We are called, appointed, and empowered by God to love Him, serve Him, obey Him, and glorify Him on this earth. We are a separate Kingdom under Christ living amongst other earthly kingdoms, engaging them, ministering to them, but not partnering with them. The gods of the kingdoms of darkness are not our gods, and we can have nothing to do with other “paths to heaven.” We are called to be Ambassadors of Christ to the other kingdoms, faithful to an uncompromised message. We serve as messengers, proclaiming the need for repentance and salvation through Jesus Christ alone. Under the LORD-ship of Christ, we have no partnership with those of the dark kingdoms who are at enmity with God. We make no appeal to the rebellious attitudes of mankind. Many will call us to live in peace through compromise and will blame us for a lack of peace when we refuse to respect their false beliefs or compromise to them. The Bible says, "If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all." (Romans 12:18) However, the context of this verse reveals that this is not a 'peace' in compromise, but rather a willingness to suffer gracefully in the tribulation Jesus said we would experience as sheep before wolves. Our message is there is no peace but through Jesus. We are called to be peacemakers who call people to the Prince of Peace, not peace lovers who avoid conflict at all costs.

8. Ezra 4:4-6 – "Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah and made them afraid to build and bribed counselors against them to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia. And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem." Again, when God's people refuse to compromise, they will be attacked psychologically, politically, legally, economically, and physically. Are you prepared to resist while you continue to advance the Kingdom of God on earth? In Ezra, the enemies of God's people attempted to use the government and the law to stop their progress, and they also attempted to slander God's people. In the face of opposition, God's people began to become discouraged and afraid. This went on for many years. We must be willing to persevere, enduring trials and tribulations for the long-haul, perhaps for generations. Don't worry too much about progress, rather focus on fidelity.

9. Ezra 4:7-16 – In order to remain faithful to God and His work, God's people refused to partner with the local community and risk compromise. As a result, they were labeled and rebellious and dangerous; interestingly, those who opposed God's people claimed to share their faith at first (v2), but later proclaimed their allegiance to the king over Israel's God. God's people are often labelled as enemies of the state. "They are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city." (Ezra 4:12)

10. Ezra 4:14 – "Now because we eat the salt of the palace and it is not fitting for us to witness the king's dishonor, therefore we send and inform the king...." The enemies of God, considering themselves religious, claimed that they were doing their duty to the kings but never mentioned any concern for the God of Israel.

11. Ezra 4:23, 24 – "Then, when the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read... they went in haste to the Jews at Jerusalem and by force and power made them cease. Then the work on the house of God that is in Jerusalem stopped, and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia." Using the government and legal processes, the enemies of God's people were able to stop all work on the Temple for 15 years, 535 to 520 B.C. From our perspective, that is a long time to get stuck in political red tape with continual threats of violence. How many do you think abandoned all hope during that period? Would you remain faithful to God's calling though seeming defeated? Legal challenges against God's people are nothing new. They are certainly no reason to compromise or to quit. How is your endurance and perseverance?

12. Ezra 4:23-24 – "Then, when the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their associates, they went in haste to the Jews at Jerusalem and by force and power made them cease. Then the work on the house of God that is in Jerusalem stopped, and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia." Israel had to struggle with obeying Persia's king while obeying God first.

13. Proverbs 22:3 – “The prudent sees danger and hides himself, but the simple go on and suffer for it.” Inevitable consequences are not hard to predict or see coming if you are willing to listen to wisdom.

14. Proverbs 22:15 – “Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline drives it far from him.” Punishment provides incentive where you lack self-discipline. This is for your own good and the good of those who would be victimized by your selfishness.

15. Proverbs 22:17-21 -- “Incline your ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply your heart to my knowledge, for it will be pleasant if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips. That your trust may be in the Lord, I have made them known to you today, even to you. Have I not written for you thirty sayings of counsel and knowledge, to make you know what is right and true, that you may give a true answer to those who sent you?” The Bible says, “Above all else, guard your heart, for from it flow the springs of life (Proverbs 4:23).” Today’s Proverbs remind us that in order to guard your heart, you must “incline your ear” to God’s word, and you must also “apply” it to your heart, storing it up within your heart. You must live by God’s word, decide from God’s word, respond to life’s challenges with God’s word, and respond to others solely from God’s word. Today’s Proverbs say that it is “pleasant” to keep God’s word “within you.” Jesus said that living in Him and in His word was the key to life, love, and joy -- “If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.” Today’s Proverbs also say that remaining in God’s word will build your “trust... in the Lord,” which will give you more and more confidence to walk in faith, rely upon God’s provision, and live in peace. The peace of God will guard both your heart and your mind in Christ Jesus (see Philippians verse below). How important is God’s word in your life? Is time in God’s word and time in prayer your top priority today?

- Philippians 4:4-7 -- Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

16. Proverbs 22:21 – “...to make you know what is right and true, that you may give a true answer to those who sent you?” The Bible is provided to show you what is “right and true,” but it is also provided so you can share with others what is right and true.

17. Psalm 83:3 – “They lay crafty plans against your people; they consult together against your treasured ones.” This verse was demonstrated in Ezra 4 and is being demonstrated against the church today in many ways.

18. Psalm 84:1, 2 – “How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord of hosts! My soul longs, yes, faints for the courts of the Lord; my heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God.”

- How important is it to you to be close to God today in His church with His people? If you don’t feel like going to church this morning, check your heart, and go anyway. Be where God intends you to be, and pray that God will use the experience to convict your heart.

- Psalm 84 proclaims an intense passion for the Lord, a total reliance on the Lord, and a complete surrender to the Lord. I love Psalm 84:10 – “For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.” The Psalmist is genuine, and if we had the advantage of knowing the Psalmist personally, that genuine love would, no doubt, be evident in all he did. As it says in today’s Proverbs, “Even a child makes himself known by his acts, by whether his conduct is pure and upright.” (Proverbs 20:11) If you knew the Psalmist, you might seek to learn from him how he acquired such a deep and enviable love for God. However, a close examination of the Bible will give you some very important insights into just that: Psalm 84 is identified as “A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.”

-- Korah was the grandson of Kohath, one among the 250 who challenged the rights of Moses and Aaron to the priesthood as recorded in Numbers 16. You may recall from Numbers 16 that God wrathfully opened the earth and consumed Korah and all associated with Korah, his household and possessions. (Numbers 16:28-35) However, we learned in Numbers 26 that the sons of Korah did not die; God spared them in His mercy. God purified the house of Korah. Seven generations later, the prophet Samuel arose from the line of Korah (1 Chronicles 6:31-38; 1 Chronicles 38; 1 Samuel 1:1, 20). The Korahites became doorkeepers and custodians for the tabernacle. (1 Chronicles 9:19-21, 1 Chronicles 2) Some became expert warriors and joined King David in various military exploits. (1 Chronicles 12:6) Pertaining to the Psalms, the Korahites became David’s music ministry leaders in the Tabernacle and Temple. There are many Psalms attributed to the sons of Korah (About 25). All mirror the heart for the Lord that is revealed today in Psalm 84. For example, you may have been touched by Psalm 42:1 -- “As the deer pants for flowing streams, so pants my soul for you, O God.” – another praise from the Sons of Korah. Perhaps the most revealing verses from the Sons of Korah are found in Psalm 46:1-3: “God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging.” The heart of the Korahites so beautifully revealed in the Psalms is a heart of genuine gratitude, praise, and worship that comes from true salvation.

-- The Korahites were descendants of men who “despised” God, an infamous group who brought a level of wrath from God the likes of which the people had never seen before (“something new”). (Numbers 16:28-35) The ignoble beginnings of the Korahites were, of course, known by all and recorded for eternity in the Bible. But more importantly, what was also evident to all and recorded in the Bible for eternity is what God did in the Korahite family with the Sons of Korah. As Paul Harvey use to say, “Now you know... the rest of the story.” God’s justice combined with His mercy and love transformed the Korahites, and this is their very public testimony that brings great glory to God. The Sons of Korah loved much because they had been forgiven much. They could not help but proclaim their love in both word and deed. Perhaps you have a similar testimony. Your story of salvation brings glory to God when you proclaim it publicly. Your story is your witness of the Truth of God. Proclaim it with passion today!

- Is Jesus your ultimate desire and your joy? Is he your strength? Do you trust him implicitly? Do you desire a heart that is more desiring of God, more loving of God, and more obedient to God? Perhaps, like me, you can relate to the man who said to Jesus, “I believe; help my unbelief (Mark 9:24)!” I am struck by the fact that it is God that softens our hearts and gives us a heart that seeks Him (Deuteronomy 30:6; Jeremiah 24:7; Ezekiel 11:19, 36:26), while at the same time, God’s greatest command to us is, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength (Mark 12:30).” In fact, the Bible warns us to “be very careful, therefore, to love the Lord your God (Joshua 23:11).” God gives us the ability to love Him and to love others, and God also gives us the responsibility to do both. But if I have the desire to love, do I need a command to love? No. In perfect love, there is no need for commands, and obedience is inevitable. As John said, “For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome (1 John 5:3).” But in my imperfection, God’s commands guide me in my pursuit of love – they are a lamp unto my feet as I seek to walk with God. Paul reminds us that we have to “fight the good fight” and “pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart (2 Timothy 2:22).” I am thankful that God has enabled and equipped us to grow in our love for Him and others.

- Jeremiah 29:13 -- You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart.

19. Psalm 84:3, 4 – “Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, at your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are those who dwell in your house, ever singing your praise! Selah” We can be at home without a home when we are in the presence of God.

20. Psalm 84:10 -- “I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.” What is your life’s ambition? How do you define life success? Does your joy depend on anything other than merely being in God’s presence? Would you rather be a nobody with Jesus or have everything this world can offer? What is your ultimate goal in life? What does the Bible say your goal should be?

21. Psalm 84:11, 12 – “For the Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord bestows favor and honor.

No good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the one who trusts in you!” What guarantees joy, prosperity, and security in life?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 22 July 17: Meditate today upon this verse from today’s readings: “My soul longs, yes, faints for the courts of the Lord; my heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God.” (Psalm 84:2) Pray the Holy Spirit will continue to increase your knowledge and love for Jesus as well as your obedience to Him, and pray that your love for Jesus would unite you with His people as Jesus prayed for in John 17.

DBRP - WEEK 29, Day 6, Saturday, 21 July 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=eza+1%2C+2%3B%3B+pro+21%3B+psa+82>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 21 July 18:

1. Ezra 1:1 – “In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia....” God can stir the hearts of unbelieving leaders to accomplish His purposes and to fulfill His word which God always fulfills. A foreign king ruled, but God still controlled.

- Today, Psalm 82 reminds us of four important things: God is in charge (82:1); God is a God of justice and cares about right and wrong (82:2); God expects His people to be preservers of justice, in part, to protect those without understanding who walk in darkness (82:3-5); if those with understanding do not live justly and demand just behavior from those without understanding, everyone will suffer (82:6, 7).

These truths are further revealed in our readings from Ezra: God is in charge and worked through a foreign king to restore his people just as He said He would. God's people had not been conquered and placed into captivity because Nebuchadnezzar was powerful enough to thwart the plan of God; on the contrary, God used Nebuchadnezzar to punish His people who had failed to live by justice, to preserve justice, to glorify God, and to serve as a light among the nations. The burden of responsibility is not on the godless who walk in darkness but rather on God's people who have been given the truth along with the responsibility to protect the ignorant with the truth. Today, many Christians look at the world and lament over the darkness without recognizing that what they see is in fact an indictment on God's people who have failed in their calling to be holy, salt, and light, to subdue the earth as the primary influence on earth. We complain about increased immorality and corruption within our society and blame the godless, those who live in and are trapped in darkness; however, it is those who have the light and hide it that are to blame. We forget that the vast majority of Jesus' rebukes and calls to repentance were directed at God's people rather than to the pagans. We forget that the "lost sheep" to which he referred were believers who had gone astray, not unbelievers. Jesus said, "You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet. You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 5:13-16) The hope for our nation is individual and collective repentance of Christians followed by revival within a church that glorifies God and brings light into the darkness.

- To the above point, the way God restored His people in the book of Ezra is informative: Note that the 'everyday' people are listed first, and every head is counted. (Ezra 2:3-35) God uses every person within the church to play a critical role. Professional singers and a whole host of staff personnel were called out and prepared to orchestrate God's worship services. All these people played such an important role in God's plan for His people that they are mentioned in the Bible. God's plan to rebuild included faithful political leaders (Ezra 2:2), faithful priests (Ezra 2:2), faithful professional singers (Ezra 2:2), faithful security personnel (Ezra 2:42), and faithful managers and workers (Ezra 2:42).

- Did you also notice that, in accordance with God's plan, one of the first people mentioned in the returning party was Zerubbabel, a descendant of that great political leader, David? (Ezra 2:2; see Hag 1:1; Zech 4:6-10) Proclaimers of truth and defenders of justice cannot isolate themselves from the reality of politics and government. Do you want to serve your country? Serve your church. What role are you playing in the body? If God counted every head within your church as he did in Ezra, where would He place you? There are no "innocent bystanders" in God's Kingdom, a Kingdom of priests.

- To help us understand how the Father works in our lives and how we are to trust in Him for our every need, Jesus uses examples from the animal kingdom: At one point, Jesus asks us to consider the birds and how God takes care of their every need (Matthew 6:26, 10:29), not letting anything happen to them outside of His will -- "Are you not of more value than they?" However, most often Jesus compares us to helpless sheep -- "Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves (Matthew 10:16)."

-- "Sheep are gentle, submissive, and literally defenseless animals. Christians are like sheep, the world is also like a wolf pack. Wolves are predators. They are ravenous and dangerous. They run in packs and work together to gang up on their prey. Sheep are helpless before wolves. So, it is with Christians in the world. In one sense, believers will always be at a disadvantage because we don't play by the same rules. The virtues that our King calls us to cultivate are meekness, gentleness, self-control, kindness, and other sheep-like qualities that no self-respecting wolf would ever desire. Given the disparity that exists between sheep and wolves, why would people who are compared to the former ever associate with those compared to the latter? Jesus told His disciples that He intentionally sent them to be involved in the lives of unconverted people. He sends His sheep on a mission to wolves. Specifically, we are sent to call wolves to become sheep. Though on the surface this seems like an utterly foolish mission, in reality, it is God's way to accomplish His saving work in the world and to display His wisdom and power in the process. When sheep conquer wolves it is obvious that something supernatural has happened. Our Lord wants His followers to see themselves as inherently helpless as He sends them into the world of unbelievers to preach the Gospel of His kingdom. Such self-awareness will cause us to trust not in our own resources but in Christ (Tom Ascol).” Sheep are helpless without the shepherd, but wolves are no match for a good shepherd. In John 10 Jesus reveals himself as the Good Shepherd. With the Lord as your Shepherd you shall not want (Psalm 23).

2. Ezra 1:2 -- “Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: ‘The Lord, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.’” Cyrus recognized that his power came from the LORD. What a shock it must have been to the world when the king of Persia proclaimed his dependence on God and proclaimed his commitment to the rebuilding of the Temple. Who could have imagined such a thing? Notice that, similar to the account in Exodus, people also showered the expeditionary Jews with valuable gifts in order to support their mission financially. God is in control and calls us to trust in Him with all our hearts, leaning not on our own understanding. What God is calling us to do is impossible for us to do on our own strength so that God can reveal His power to us and through us. As we step out in faith, we will see God work in miraculous ways through circumstances and in the hearts of others. God encourages us to have the faith to be faithful under seemingly impossible circumstances.

3. Ezra 1:3-4 – “Whoever is among you of all his people... let him go up to Jerusalem... and rebuild the house of the Lord.... And let each survivor, in whatever place he sojourns, be assisted by the men of his place with silver and gold, with goods and with beasts, besides freewill offerings for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.” God wanted some to do the building and some to resource the building. Everyone can add L.I.F.E. to the church – labor, influence, finances, and experience. How are you contributing to your local church?

4. Ezra 1:5 – “Then rose up... everyone whose spirit God had stirred to go up to rebuild the house of the Lord that is in Jerusalem.” Only those with a true heart for God's work will do God's work. The Spirit-filled believer is the one who drops everything to respond to God's word when the remainder of the 'religious' wont. The Afghans have an old proverb, “Talk doesn't make the flowers grow.” Following God's word required major life adjustments and a willingness to get your hands dirty. (Ezra 1:3-5; 2:1)

5. Ezra 1:7 – “Cyrus the king also brought out the vessels of the house of the Lord that Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his gods.” God can always restore what was lost in ways we could never imagine. No one could have imagined that Cyrus would restore the temple treasures. It is worth repeating, God moves hearts as God pleases.

6. Ezra 2:2 -- Joshua, the high priest, was the religious leader of the return from exile. You never know what God might be preparing for you to do, but it will likely not be what you planned. (see Hag 1:1; Zech 3) God required and prepared a large number of priests to serve His people. (Ezra 2:36-39)

7. Ezra 2:64-67 -- "The whole assembly together was 42,360, besides their male and female servants, of whom there were 7,337, and they had 200 male and female singers. Their horses were 736, their mules were 245, 67 their camels were 435, and their donkeys were 6,720." God's congregants kept full accountability of their people and property. Does your church? Ezra records the travelers down to the individual. Does your church keep track of every individual and care for them equally? Will they know who does and doesn't show up for church on Sunday? This sort of accountability is not easy; it must be intentional.

8. Proverbs 21:3 -- "To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice." If you want to show God how much you love Him, do what He says.

9. Proverbs 21:11 -- "When a scoffer is punished, the simple becomes wise; when a wise man is instructed, he gains knowledge." Better to be a person who will follow God's word than to be a person who requires God's discipline.

10. Proverbs 21:15 -- "When justice is done, it is a joy to the righteous but terror to evildoers." Justice protects a people from themselves.

11. Proverbs 21:17 -- "Whoever loves pleasure will be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil will not be rich." Wealth comes from daily sacrifice and frugality. Why would God bless you with great wealth if you only intend on using it for yourself?

12. Proverbs 21:25, 26 -- "The desire of the sluggard kills him, for his hands refuse to labor. All day long he craves and craves, but the righteous gives and does not hold back." The righteous are known for both hard work and generosity.

13. Proverbs 21:27 -- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with evil intent." God hates unrepentant worship.

14. Proverbs 21:30 -- "No wisdom, no understanding, no counsel can avail against the Lord." If your plans are God's plans, your plans are guaranteed to succeed.

15. Proverbs 21:31 -- "The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the Lord." God is in complete control. Your fate rests solely in His hands and His alone. The only power you have is what God gives you, and the outcome to any situation rests with God and God alone. Replace fear with love, faith, prayer, study, and obedience.

16. Psalm 82:1-4 -- "Give justice to the weak and the fatherless; maintain the right of the afflicted and the destitute. Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked." God calls us to be rescuers and defenders of justice, to protect the defenseless.

17. Psalm 82:5 -- "They have neither knowledge nor understanding, they walk about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken." When a nation's leaders turn from God and no longer have true knowledge or understanding, everything falls apart as if subject to a massive earthquake which comes suddenly and destroys at the foundations of the institutions.

18. Psalm 82 – God holds leaders accountable for justice and mercy, something that can only be administered by leaders that go to Him and the source of all justice and mercy. In final judgment, God will punish the ungodly and establish justice and mercy personally, once and for all. Jesus will reign on the new earth with His faithful servants.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 21 July 18: Today, consider how well you have kept account of all the Christians God has placed in your life in close relationship. Are you staying in touch with them? Are you praying for them? Are they growing in the Lord, closer to Jesus? Are they serving their church? How can you continue to partner with them for continued service to God? Also, consider how well you know everyone in your church and how well they know you. Who would you notice missing if they weren't there on Sunday? Who would notice you missing? Who are you discipling, and who is discipling you. God calls us to serve Him as a community of close believers, as close together as stones of a temple, and as closely knit as parts of the human body. Don't try to serve God independently – He won't honor that. (Ezra 2:64-67)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+chron+35%2C+36%3B+prov+20%3B+2+thes+3>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 20 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 35:2 -- "He appointed the priests to their offices and encouraged them in the service of the house of the Lord." God's priests need encouragement too. Who is encouraging you in the service of the Lord? Who are you encouraging?
2. 2 Chronicles 35:20-22 -- "I am not coming against you this day, but against the house with which I am at war. And God has commanded me to hurry. Cease opposing God, who is with me, lest he destroy you. Nevertheless, Josiah did not turn away from him." Be careful not to get in God's way by deciding for yourself, without the leading of the Holy Spirit, what you are going to do for God. You don't want to find yourself unintentionally opposing God by pursuing seemingly noble causes that aren't what God really desires or intends. Just because you think it is a good idea, doesn't mean God really wants you to do it.
3. 2 Chronicles 35:21 -- "Cease opposing God, who is with me, lest he destroy you." God uses people you would least expect to accomplish His purposes.
4. 2 Chronicles 36:12 -- "He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the Lord." You must take a humble approach to God's word and obey. Each day, you should pour into the word of God, let the Holy Spirit convict you, and respond in repentance and renewal.
5. 2 Chronicles 36:13 -- "He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the Lord, the God of Israel." God expects you to keep your promises, oaths and commitments.
6. 2 Chronicles 36:14 -- "All the officers of the priests and the people likewise were exceedingly unfaithful, following all the abominations of the nations. And they polluted the house of the Lord that he had made holy in Jerusalem." God's people have a long and terrible history of, at times, being more influenced by the world around them than an influence on the world. In this chapter, the government leadership led the nation adrift, and the church followed. The church should serve as the conscience of the nation, exposing darkness and preserving order (salt and light) in accordance with the Laws of God. This is warning to churches found throughout the Bible.

7. 2 Chronicles 36:14 – “All the officers of the priests and the people likewise were exceedingly unfaithful, following all the abominations of the nations. And they polluted the house of the Lord that he had made holy in Jerusalem.” Your sin leads others to sin.

8. 2 Chronicles 36:15, 16 -- “The Lord, the God of their fathers, sent persistently to them by his messengers, because he had compassion on his people and on his dwelling place. But they kept mocking the messengers of God, despising his words and scoffing at his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord rose against his people, until there was no remedy.” God’s people are called to proclaim His message to the nation. If God’s word is ignored and despised, there may come a national crisis without remedy. Pray for corporate repentance and revival among God’s people and a new Great Awakening.

9. 2 Chronicles 36:16-17 – “But they kept mocking the messengers of God, despising his words and scoffing at his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord rose against his people, until there was no remedy. Therefore he brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or aged. He gave them all into his hand.” If you disobey the God who loves you, He may choose those who don’t love you to punish you.

10. 2 Chronicles 36:17 -- If God has chosen evil leaders to punish a people, the political efforts of the people to remove the evil leaders are futile. Repentance is the answer.

11. 2 Chronicles 36:19 – “And they burned the house of God and broke down the wall of Jerusalem and burned all its palaces with fire and destroyed all its precious vessels.” God’s punishment against a nation affects the believers too.

12. 2 Chronicles 36:23 -- “Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, ‘The Lord, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever is among you of all his people, may the Lord his God be with him. Let him go up.’” When God’s people prove unfaithful, God can use unbelievers to punish them and to complete the work He intended to be accomplished. Several times, we see God using unbelievers to do what the church should have done for His glory. Be strong and courageous and do the work of a disciple and an ambassador!

13. Proverbs 20:3 – “It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife, but every fool will be quarreling.” Quarreling is an activity of fools.

14. Proverbs 20:4 – “The sluggard does not plow in the autumn; he will seek at harvest and have nothing.” You don’t get something for nothing, and you are investing in twenty years from now right now – what will you have to show later for what you do today, not just in resources but in character and sanctification?

15. Proverbs 20:6 – “Many a man proclaims his own steadfast love, but a faithful man who can find?” There is nothing more valuable than a faithful person. Fidelity is a requirement to be loving.

16. Proverbs 20:7 – “The righteous who walks in his integrity— blessed are his children after him!” Righteousness has a positive effect on the next generation. Your integrity affects your children more than you know.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

17. Proverbs 20:9 -- "Who can say, 'I have made my heart pure; I am clean from my sin'?" All have sinned, and no one can make their heart pure. Only Jesus can fix our impurity.

18. Proverbs 20:11 -- "Even a child makes himself known by his acts, by whether his conduct is pure and upright." How you act reveals the truth of your faith and your character. No one can truly know another person's heart, but actions reveal much.

19. Proverbs 20:12 -- "The hearing ear and the seeing eye, the Lord has made them both." How foolish is it to trust your own perceptions rather than God who created and controls everything and sees all that you cannot see or understand?

20. Proverbs 20:16 -- "Take a man's garment when he has put up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for foreigners." God wants the wise to protect the foolish from their own actions. We all need someone in our lives who will be strong when we are weak and who will protect us from ourselves when we need it.

21. Proverbs 20:22 -- "Do not say, 'I will repay evil'; wait for the Lord, and he will deliver you." Never try to get even with those who offend you. Only God sees the whole picture to include motives, intent, mitigating circumstances, etc. Only God can respond justly, and God can respond far better than you can.

22. Proverbs 20:30 -- "Blows that wound cleanse away evil; strokes make clean the innermost parts." If you lack self-control or self-discipline in an area of your life, God, your Loving Father, will apply external discipline. Ouch!

23. 2 Thessalonians 3:1, 2 -- "Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may speed ahead and be honored, as happened among you, and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men. For not all have faith." Paul's prayers requests were first about accomplishing the Great Commission and then personal security. The focus of your life and the focus of your prayers should be that God uses you to spread His word. Seek first the Kingdom.

24. 2 Thessalonians 3:3 -- "May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ." None of us are perfected in love; pray that God sanctifies you day by day into purer love. Love grows the closer you get to the source of love, Jesus. Know Him!

25. 2 Thessalonians 3:4 -- "And we have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will do the things that we command." Paul expected God's people to obey God.

26. 2 Thessalonians 3:5 -- "May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ."

- The Lord directs our hearts to love, and we don't grow in love unless we follow the Lord's direction. As we grow in love, we grow in steadfastness, a word with synonyms such as commitment, loyalty, and faithfulness – persistent, unwavering obedience. So, the Lord tells us how to love, and the more we follow his instructions, the more self-discipline turns into genuine desire -- we want to love and obey Him from a heart of genuine love, love is no longer hard. This is what John meant when he said, "For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome." (1 John 5:3) At first, when our love is immature, obedience is difficult – we don't really want to do what we should, but we force ourselves; but as we struggle in obedience, our heart changes, and it becomes easier because we want to obey more and more. Don't we see this pattern play out with children? In so many ways, my children now desire things I once had to force upon them. Don't you see this pattern in your own spiritual walk? Aren't there many things you truly desire to do now that you once had to force yourself to do?

- Today, Paul reminds us of the importance of the Bible for our daily growth and development, but he also reminds us that Christians play an important role in developing one another. Paul's emphasis in today's readings is on "tough love," holding fellow believers accountable for their actions. Specifically, he says twice to "Keep away from [Christians] who... [do] not live according to the teaching." (2 Thessalonians 3:6, 14) Why ostracize a fellow Christian? Paul says, "in order that he may feel ashamed. Yet do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother." (2 Thessalonians 3:14) Holding others accountable is hard and takes moral courage; however, it protects them, you, and others from further consequences of sin. And the hope is that discipline will be replaced by desire. Being firm is not the same as being unloving, though it is often portrayed that way. But iron sharpens iron through friction. Conversely, rebukes MUST ALWAYS come from a heart of love and the motive of reconciliation.

- Perhaps the pendulum has swung in American churches from poorly administered church discipline to no discipline at all. Much of today's "grace" movement suggests that we should not talk about obedience but only love. The idea is until we truly love, we cannot obey anyway, and talk about obedience just makes people feel guilty, angry and defeated. This is a false linear approach to growth – first you believe, then you love, then you obey. Actually, maturing in love is not purely linear. Most people believe and love enough to obey a little, and in their somewhat reluctant obedience, they grow in faith and love as their relationship with Jesus grows. Information becomes transformation through practical application, coached by the Holy Spirit (often using other Christians in the process). And don't all good coaches make you run laps you don't really want to run so that you can be ready to win the game you really want to win? Jesus said it this way, "If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority." (John 7:17)

- Obedience to God's word is a path to ever-increasing love and heart/mind transformation. We are called to encourage one another in obedience and to rebuke one another, using God's word as our standard and God's love as our guide. This is why Paul said to Timothy, "But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people.... But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work." (2 Timothy 3:1-16)

- Finally, much of the current "grace" movement suggests that a church emphasis on obedience is the same as "legalism" and always comes from self-righteous, judgmental hearts. Legalism uses obedience as a path to salvation rather than a path to sanctification. Obedience doesn't make God love us, it helps us love Him and others. Yes, in our sin, we are very tempted to approach others from a self-righteous perspective, but growing in humility is part of the sanctification process too. We must not only learn to search our hearts (empowered by the Holy Spirit) for deep-rooted pride, we must also learn to deal with those around us who are also struggling with pride, recognizing that some of their rebukes might be true, regardless of their motives. Haven't we been reading about how God uses imperfect messengers for His purposes in our lives? Your only judge is God. He will test you in an imperfect church, family, and community. Show grace, mercy, and love to the prideful and arrogant, and see if they aren't revealing pride that remains in you.

27. 2 Thessalonians 3:6 -- "Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from any brother who is walking in idleness and not in accord with the tradition that you received from us." God expects you to work hard in love and to surround yourself with like-minded fellow workers.

28. 2 Thessalonians 3:11, 12 -- "For we hear that some among you walk in idleness, not busy at work, but busybodies. Now such persons we command and encourage in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living." Rather than worrying and talking about what others should be doing but aren't, do what should be done yourself. Talk is cheap. Get behind the plow.

29. 2 Thessalonians 3:13 -- "As for you, brothers, do not grow weary in doing good." God's work is hard work that at times can seem overwhelming. Don't grow weary! Keep moving forward!

30. 2 Thessalonians 3:13 -- Doing good and preaching the Good News can be wearisome because people resist the truth, and even other believers will work against you. Again, don't grow weary.

31. 2 Thessalonians 3:15 -- "Do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother." You have an obligation to hold others accountable and to warn them, as painful as that may be. Do it in love.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 20 July 18: Today, prayerfully ask God to show you the truth behind your motives, why you do the things you do. If you are motivated by anything other than love (fear, pride, greed, duty, etc.), ask God to further purify you in love, and seek to eliminate self-centeredness from your actions. (2 Thessalonians 3:3; Proverbs 15:11)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+chron+33%2C+34%3B+prov+19%3B+2+thes+2>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 19 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 33:1 -- "Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem."

- Though Manasseh was one of the vilest kings to reign in Jerusalem, God allowed him to reign for fifty-five years for His purposes. Faith requires perseverance.

- A young orphan is in danger of being influenced by the wrong people outside of family. We have metaphorical spiritual orphans within the church, not being properly disciplined by more mature Christians.

2. 2 Chronicles 33:2, 3 -- "And he did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to the abominations of the nations whom the Lord drove out before the people of Israel. For he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had broken down, and he erected altars to the Baals, and made

Asheroth, and worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.” When you sin, you repeat the destructive behavior of so many others before you who have already demonstrated the foolishness of disobedience. Wise people do not repeat historic folly. The Bible is provided, in part, so you can heed the lessons of those who have gone before you. “For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.” (Romans 15:4) “Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come.” (1 Corinthians 10:11)

3. 2 Chronicles 33:9 -- “Manasseh led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray, to do more evil than the nations whom the Lord destroyed before the people of Israel.” You will either lead people closer to Christ or further away. Who are you influencing, and how does your impact advance the Gospel which is your life’s mission?

4. 2 Chronicles 33:10 -- “The Lord spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they paid no attention.” People today have more access to God’s word than any other time in human history, and God speaks today through His word and the Holy Spirit. God’s word is clear; the question is will we pay attention? Faith without obedience is dead.

5. 2 Chronicles 33:11-13 -- “Therefore the Lord brought upon them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria, who captured Manasseh with hooks and bound him with chains of bronze and brought him to Babylon. And when he was in distress, he entreated the favor of the Lord his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.... Then Manasseh knew that the Lord is God.”

- Manasseh was a terribly evil king who led the whole kingdom away from God and even murdered his own children (v6) as an act of worship to idols, yet God was willing to accept his humble prayer and to forgive him. God forgives the truly repentant. But it took great suffering for Manasseh to finally turn to God. Pride is a very powerful thing. Where does pride still reign in your life? What will it take for God to humble you? Better to have self-discipline than to require God’s external discipline to get your attention.

6. 2 Chronicles 33:17 -- “Nevertheless, the people still sacrificed at the high places, but only to the Lord their God.” Do not leave a door open for sin to enter. Compromise usually leads to greater compromise. Remove completely from your life those things that would tempt you to sin.

7. 2 Chronicles 33:19 -- “And his prayer, and how God was moved by his entreaty, and all his sin and his faithlessness, and the sites on which he built high places and set up the Asherim and the images, before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the Chronicles of the Seers.” How Jesus saved you from your sin, made you a new creation, and changed the course of your whole life is your testimony. If you are a disciple of Jesus, you no longer have to be ashamed by your past, but you can now proclaim the truth of the Gospel. Witnesses testify to what they have personally experienced; anything else is simply hearsay. You are a witness if Jesus has made you a new creation. Share your testimony with thanksgiving and joy.

8. 2 Chronicles 33:21-24 -- “Amon... reigned two years in Jerusalem. And he did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, as Manasseh his father had done. Amon sacrificed to all the images that Manasseh his father had made, and served them. And he did not humble himself before the Lord, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself, but this Amon incurred guilt more and more. And his servants conspired against him and put him to death in his house.” Amon’s story is the opposite of his father Manasseh, both started out in severe sin, but Manasseh humbled himself before the Lord, and Amon didn’t. The door is open to everyone, but every person makes their own choice.

9. 2 Chronicles 34:1-17 – Revival involves a return to obedience, and when God brings revival, he also calls the revived to mission.

10. 2 Chronicles 34:2 -- “[Josiah] did what was right in the eyes of the Lord... and he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.” Let this be said at your funeral.

11. 2 Chronicles 34:3 -- “For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet a boy, he began to seek the God of David his father, and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, and the carved and the metal images.” Discipleship involves constant, diligent seeking and purging.

12. 2 Chronicles 34:9-13 -- You should be working diligently in your church on a strategy to spread the Gospel to your community and beyond.

13. 2 Chronicles 34:18, 19 -- “Then Shaphan the secretary told the king, ‘Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.’ And Shaphan read from it before the king. And when the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes.” Discipleship and sanctification involve discovery of God’s word, diligent study of God’s word, being continually humbled by the Holy Spirit through God’s written word, and obeying God’s word, one day at a time.

14. 2 Chronicles 34:19 -- “And when the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes.” Right relationship with God starts with repentance. This is not what most churches preach today. God uses His Bible as His primary instrument for repentance, revival, and sanctification.

15. 2 Chronicles 34:21 -- “Go, inquire of the Lord for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that has been found. For great is the wrath of the Lord that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord, to do according to all that is written in this book.” God expects you to follow His word which reflects His character and His perfect will.

16. 2 Chronicles 34:22 -- “So Hilkiah and those whom the king had sent went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter) and spoke to her to that effect.” The Spirit of God is not a respecter of position. In this case, the high priest knew that Huldah, who kept the wardrobe, would know God’s word through the Holy Spirit.

17. 2 Chronicles 34:27, 28 -- “Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard his words against this place and its inhabitants, and you have humbled yourself before me and have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, declares the Lord. Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not see all the disaster that I will bring upon this place and its inhabitants.” Even through corporate punishment, God will honor your humble obedience. But you will likely stand out in the crowd as faithful before the Lord when everyone else isn’t. You will be set apart.

18. 2 Chronicles 34:31 -- “And the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.” The truly repentant respond to God’s grace with obedience.

19. 2 Chronicles 34:32, 33 – “Then he made all who were present in Jerusalem and in Benjamin join in it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. And Josiah took away all the abominations from all the territory that belonged to the people of Israel and made all who were present in Israel serve the Lord their God. All his days they did not turn away from following the Lord, the God of their fathers.” Forcing obedience brings stability but doesn’t change hearts. External controls are no substitute for self-control. As soon as the external controls are gone, self-destruction is likely. Self-discipline is a fruit of the Spirit.

20. Proverbs 19:2 – “Desire without knowledge is not good, and whoever makes haste with his feet misses his way.” It is not enough to want to be a good person. You must also plan for good works. “...but those who plan peace have joy. (Proverbs 12:20)

21. Proverbs 19:3 – “When a man’s folly brings his way to ruin, his heart rages against the Lord.” Don’t blame God for your bad choices.

22. Proverbs 19:3, 11, 19: “Good sense makes one slow to anger, and it is his glory to overlook an offense.... A man of great wrath will pay the penalty, for if you deliver him, you will only have to do it again.” How you control your temper reveals your faith, wisdom, and relationship with God.

23. Proverbs 19:13, 14 – “A foolish son is ruin to his father, and a wife’s quarreling is a continual dripping of rain. House and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a prudent wife is from the Lord.” Family stability is critical to life success. Families are not built with money, education, or opportunity. They are built on the foundation of Jesus Christ.

24. Proverbs 19:21 -- “Many are the plans in a man’s heart, but it is the Lord’s purpose that prevails.” How has God arranged circumstances to reveal Himself and His truth to you? How has He changed your world view and your approach to life?

25. Proverbs 19:22 – “What is desired in a man is steadfast love, and a poor man is better than a liar.” Ultimately, your character is what counts, not your capabilities.

26. Proverbs 19:24 – “The sluggard buries his hand in the dish and will not even bring it back to his mouth.” Opportunity awaits those who will take it.

27. 2 Thessalonians 2:1-3 – “Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. Let no one deceive you in any way....” False end times teachings have always troubled the church.

28. 2 Thessalonians 2:3 -- “...the man of lawlessness is revealed...” Who is the antichrist? Is he alive right now? When will he be revealed? There has always been much debate on the matter, but the Bible clearly reveals that the spirit of ‘antichrist’ is alive and well. This we can understand. There have been many ‘antichrists,’ and we are surrounded by antichrists today. Jesus explains that if a person isn’t “with him” in total, that person is against Him, anti-Him, antichrist. If a person doesn’t “gather” with Jesus, that person “scatters” as an enemy to Jesus. The only person who uses the actual word “antichrist” in the Bible is John, and he says, “many antichrists have come. Therefore, we know that it is the last hour....

Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son.... and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already.... For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist.” (1 John 1, 2, 4) Anyone who denies (in any way) the complete Gospel is “antichrist.” Note, that in today’s readings, the word “antichrist” is not used but rather “the man of lawlessness.” We should not miss the point that the primary trait of the one who opposes the will of God is “lawlessness,” along with rebellion, disobedience, and pride. Contrarily, the one who is truly “pro-Christ” is identified by obedience, inspired by genuine love. Jesus said this, “Why do you call me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.... Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?’ And then will I declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.’” (Luke 6:46-49; Matthew 7:21-23) You see that Jesus also uses the word “lawlessness” to describe “religious” people who claim to be followers of Jesus but who do not actually follow Him in obedience to His word. “Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.... Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.” (Galatians 6:7-9; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11) “God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” (John 4:24) Worship God in “truth.”

29. 2 Thessalonians 2:8-10 – Even God’s breath is strong enough to destroy Satan’s opposition.

30. 2 Thessalonians 2:10-11 – “...because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.” God’s judgment comes when you refuse to love the truth. The Bible says that God IS love and IS Truth. Our first command is to love God. This is life eternal.

31. 2 Thessalonians 2:10-16 -- Love binds one who witnesses with those who respond.

32. 2 Thessalonians 2:15 – “So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by our spoken word or by our letter.” Stand firm!

DBRP - WEEK 29, Day 3, Wednesday, 18 July 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+chron+31%2C+32%3B+prov+18%3B+2+thes+1>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 18 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 31:1 -- "Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke in pieces the pillars and cut down the Asherim and broke down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all." Worship should lead you into a desire for purity and holiness before the Lord.

2. 2 Chronicles 31:2-4 -- "And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, division by division, each according to his service.... The contribution of the king from his own possessions was for the burnt offerings... And he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the Law of the Lord." God expects everyone within the church to play a specific role in worship and ministry under the direction of a church leader. Leaders must lead by example in every way. Hezekiah first gave from His own possessions before asking others to give.

3. 2 Chronicles 31:4 -- "And he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the Law of the Lord." The priests were fully supported so that they could completely dedicate themselves to the Law of the LORD. The church was supported by the tithe.

4. 2 Chronicles 31:10, 14-19 -- Financial obedience ensures the church has needed resources for worship, ministry, evangelism, and fellowship and also enables church leaders to focus on leadership rather than fund raising.

5. 2 Chronicles 31:20 -- "Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and he did what was good and right and faithful before the Lord his God." Good leaders must be good managers and stewards. Not every manager is a good leader, but every good leader is a good manager. Leadership starts with self-leadership. You must be able to effectively manage your own time, money, and resources before you are ready to lead others and manage more.

6. 2 Chronicles 31:21 -- "And every work that he undertook in the service of the house of God and in accordance with the law and the commandments, seeking his God, he did with all his heart, and prospered." Faith in God and wholehearted dedication enables you to finish the work God appointed you to do.

7. 2 Chronicles 32:1-3 -- "After these things and these acts of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah and encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them for himself. And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and intended to fight against Jerusalem, he planned with his officers and his mighty men to stop the water of the springs that were outside the city; and they helped him." Hezekiah's faithfulness did not remove problems from his life, did not eliminate the need to plan, and did not remove the need to trust and obey God. In fact, in his faithfulness, problems only seemed to get far worse for Hezekiah. What do you do when your faithfulness doesn't seem to be "working"?

8. 2 Chronicles 32:11-15 -- "Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, 'On what are you trusting, that you endure the siege in Jerusalem? Is not Hezekiah misleading you, that he may give you over to die by famine and by thirst, when he tells you, The Lord our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria? Has not this same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, Before one altar you shall worship, and on it you shall burn your sacrifices? Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands at all able to deliver their lands out of my hand? Who among all the gods of those nations that my fathers devoted to destruction was able to deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand? Now, therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you in this fashion, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand!”

- Faith calls you to trust God’s ways rather than human ways.

- The world is blinded by its own apparent successes. The world will point to its great achievements to lure you away from faith in God and make you trust substitutes for God.

- The world wants you to believe that all religions are equal, equally powerless. The world’s attacks against Christianity will grow, teaching that our faith is an illusion. Only those who truly know Jesus (know Him personally, not just facts about Him) will survive such attacks.

9. 2 Chronicles 32:18 – “And they shouted it with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, in order that they might take the city.” The mockers of Christianity speak the language of the people. They are often very knowledgeable of what is written in the Bible (though they don’t have Holy Spirit enlightenment) and can quote the Bible better than many true believers. They often seek to relate on a personal level in order to lure people away from Jesus. They are also usually very passionate about the lies they personally believe. They can be very persuasive to those who are not strongly united with Christ.

10. 2 Chronicles 32:20 – “Then Hezekiah the king and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed because of this and cried to heaven.” Prayer is not our last resort; it is our primary weapon.

11. 2 Chronicles 32:21 -- “And the Lord sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty warriors and commanders and officers in the camp of the king of Assyria.” God accomplishes His purposes in ways that the world can’t understand or perceive to be from God.

12. 2 Chronicles 32:22 -- “So the Lord saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all his enemies, and he provided for them on every side.” Either you will turn to the world for your provision and security or you will turn to God. You cannot turn to both. God provides through worldly means; for example, God feeds you through everyday farmers and markets, but never lose sight that it is God that is providing.

13. 2 Chronicles 32:25 -- “But Hezekiah did not make return according to the benefit done to him, for his heart was proud. Therefore, wrath came upon him and Judah and Jerusalem.” You are always in danger of responding to God’s blessings with foolish pride, taking credit rather than giving credit to God and trusting in your own strength. God does not share the glory. Hezekiah was very successful in the LORD, until pride became his downfall.

14. 2 Chronicles 32:27 – “Hezekiah... made for himself treasuries for silver.” Pride turned into self-centeredness and materialism.

15. 2 Chronicles 32:31 – “God left him to himself, in order to test him and to know all that was in his heart.” Remember your days in school? During tests, the teacher was silent. How do you respond when your faith is tested and there appears to be no response from God? Remember in John 11 how when Lazarus was sick, Jesus stayed away two more days so that Mary and Martha would receive an even greater revelation of Him than they had seen previously (Jesus is the Resurrection and the Life)? Perhaps the silence you are feeling is God building your faith and preparing you for far greater things than you ever anticipated. God may also be revealing to you the limits of your own faith. In your doubt, what is God revealing to you about what you truly believe? In your doubt, draw nearer to God, not further away.

16. Proverbs 18:1 – “Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound judgment.” It is a destructive sin to ‘go it alone.’ You were made to commune with both God and God’s people. Isolation is a symptom of selfishness, self-centeredness, and pride. God has made us specifically for relationships.

17. Proverbs 18:2 – “A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.” What you think is true is irrelevant compared to what really is true. A wise person continually tests their perceptions and beliefs against God’s word and truth. Unbelievers judge God’s word from their perceptions. Believers judge their perceptions from God’s word.

18. Proverbs 18:3, 5-6, 8, 19, 21, 23 -- Your words have great power to help or to hurt people. Jesus said that we will be held accountable for every careless word we speak. We are Christ’s’ Ambassadors. We should only speak His words. We do not have the right or authority to do anything else.

19. Proverbs 18:9 – “Whoever is slack in his work is a brother to him who destroys.” Unprofessionalism causes incredible grief to many. How many times have you suffered because someone didn’t do their job or didn’t do it well? God wants us to bring credit to His name by doing all things with excellence, striving to be as consistent, reliable, timely, and effective as He is.

20. Proverbs 18:10-11 – “The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe. A rich man’s wealth is his strong city, and like a high wall in his imagination.” Trust and reliance on human strength, or self-reliance, is deceptive idolatry. Again, God works through people, but idolatry sees mankind, or other substitutes for God, as the source of strength and places faith created things rather than the Creator. God will not tolerate things to distract people from Him.

21. Proverbs 18:14 – “A man’s spirit will endure sickness, but a crushed spirit who can bear?” Spiritual health and strength are infinitely more important than physical health and strength.

22. Proverbs 18 – Notice from Proverbs 18 the emphasis God places on how well we listen to Him and on what we say to others as His ambassadors. You cannot share with others what you don’t know. How important is diligent Bible study to Christians who have been commissioned by God to speak on His behalf as priests to the world?

23. 2 Thessalonians 1:3 -- "We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing." Love is the measure of genuine faith -- when faith grows, love grows. How much we love others reveals how much we really love Jesus. When we genuinely love others, we want nothing more than to see them grow closer to Jesus, and when we see it, we are compelled to give thanks to God.

24. 2 Thessalonians 1:3-5 – "Therefore we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions that you are enduring. This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering...."

- Faith and love grow with steadfastness and endurance through hardships. The process of discipleship and sanctification is hard and not for the halfhearted.

- Your life is intended to be a testimony to the glory of God, and every day you stand before the world as a witness to God's grace, His mercy, and also His justice. As you live more and more by genuine faith in God and as your life continues to be transformed by God's love which is revealed in the love you show for others, you stand as proof of the Good News of the Gospel. When the world persecutes you because of the truth, you stand as evidence of God's righteous judgment. "We are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us." (2 Corinthians 5:20) The light of your life should serve as a beacon to draw others to Jesus Christ. Those who reject God do so despite your witness and the witness of so many others who have proclaimed the Gospel both in word and deed. Our call is to be "worthy" witnesses to God's glory, that the light which exposes darkness and reveals truth would not be dimmed. We are not called to be good people alone; we are called to proclaim the Gospel with our good deeds serving as proof of the power of God in our own lives. We don't proclaim morality; we proclaim Jesus. When people think of you, do they commend you for your goodness or do they automatically think about Jesus Christ to whom you persistently give ALL the glory? "He must increase, but I must decrease." (John 3:30)

25. 2 Thessalonians 1:5-12 – The message of God which is proclaimed through His Ambassadors on earth (us) is that Christ will return and that there will be a Judgement. When was the last time you heard this preached with power?

26. 2 Thessalonians 1:6-8 -- "...since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus." Not obeying the Gospel brings judgment. God will judge people based upon their true faith in Jesus, revealed in how they treated others and whether or not they believed enough to obey. Faith without works (obedience) is dead.

27. 2 Thessalonians 1:9-10 – "They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed." Eternal life is unity with God through Jesus (John 17:3) Eternal damnation is separation from God. God will bring glory to Himself by responding to the faithful in a positive way and to the unfaithful in a negative way. End times brings glory to God.

28. 2 Thessalonians 1:10 -- "...when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed." Not everyone will marvel when Christ returns, only the believers. God uses the testimony of others to call believers. We testify to the truth, and the Holy Spirit convicts hearts with our testimony.

29. 2 Thessalonians 1:11 -- "To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power." Not everyone demonstrates worthiness. Worthiness requires both the power of the Holy Spirit AND resolve, resulting in consistent works of faith.

30. 2 Thessalonians 1:12 -- "...so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ." Is the name Jesus Christ glorified in you? Do those around you automatically associate your name and life with Jesus Christ? Does your life reflect the image of Jesus?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 18 July 18: Today, consider how you respond to God's discipline and what God has taught you through his discipline. Recommit to living day-by-day in obedience, learning through positive instruction rather than negative discipline. When disciplined, give thanks, learn, grow, and move forward with joy having been guided by the firm hand of God to a better place in life.

DBRP - WEEK 29, Day 2, Tuesday, 17 July 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+CHRON+29%2C+30%3B+PRO+17%3B+1+Thes+5>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 17 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 29:3 -- "In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the Lord and repaired them." Worship was top priority for Hezekiah. He first directed his resources towards the house of God.

2. 2 Chronicles 29:5 -- "Carry out the filth from the Holy Place." You are the holy place. Remove from yourself what displeases God.

- 1 Corinthians 6:19 -- Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own;

- Matthew 15:11 -- "...it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth; this defiles a person."

3. 2 Chronicles 29:6 -- "For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done what was evil in the sight of the Lord our God." Repentance and sanctification often involve no longer doing what your family taught you growing up.

4. 2 Chronicles 29:11 -- "My sons, do not now be negligent, for the Lord has chosen you to stand in his presence, to minister to him and to be his ministers and make offerings to him." We must not take our responsibility to God lightly. We stand in the presence of God Almighty, and He has commanded us. To be complacent is cosmic treason against the KING of kings.

5. 2 Chronicles 29:11 -- "My sons, do not now be negligent, for the Lord has chosen you to stand in his presence, to minister to him and to be his ministers and make offerings to him." Don't be negligent in your worship and service to the LORD. Be holy and bold.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. 2 Chronicles 29:36 – “And Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because God had provided for the people, for the thing came about suddenly.” God will work in your life in ways only He can work, bringing glory to Himself while increasing your faith in Him. He will do the impossible through you so you and others will know it was Him and not you.

7. 2 Chronicles 30:9 -- “For the Lord your God is gracious and merciful and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him.” Now is the time to repent.

8. 2 Chronicles 30:10-12 -- “So the couriers went from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun, but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them. However, some men of Asher, of Manasseh, and of Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. The hand of God was also on Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the princes commanded by the word of the Lord.” The word of God is divisive, separating the wheat from the chaff, the sheep from the goats, but is always accomplishes its purpose. Preach the truth, and let the Spirit do the sifting. Our hearts should always hope for reconciliation, truly wanting none to perish. Never give up hope for anyone – we have no idea what the Lord might do in their lives.

9. 2 Chronicles 30:18, 19 -- “‘May the good Lord pardon everyone who sets his heart to seek God, the Lord, the God of his fathers, even though not according to the sanctuary’s rules of cleanness.’ And the Lord heard Hezekiah and healed the people.” God knows your heart. If you are truly seeking God from your heart with all of your ability, God will honor that.

10. 2 Chronicles 30:19, 20 -- “‘May the good Lord pardon everyone who sets his heart to seek God, the Lord, the God of his fathers, even though not according to the sanctuary’s rules of cleanness.’ And the Lord heard Hezekiah and healed the people.” Sound doctrine, yes! But, grace, mercy, and love over doctrine.

11. 2 Chronicles 30:23-27 – There is one Spirit and one Truth. By definition, the closer we all get to the truth, the closer to get to each other (basic spiritual geometry). The Spirit is naturally unifying. Where there is disunity, there is distance from the Spirit. Unity in Spirit brings great joy to everyone.

12. Proverbs 17:3 – “The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and the Lord tests hearts.” How could the LORD test your heart? Where do you have idols? If tested, would you pass the test?

13. Proverbs 17:4 – “An evildoer listens to wicked lips, and a liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.” Who you choose to listen to reveals the condition of your heart.

14. Proverbs 17:7 – “Fine speech is not becoming to a fool; still less is false speech to a prince.” Don’t cheapen the grace you have received and dishonor God through disobedience.

15. Proverbs 17:9 – “Whoever covers an offense seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates close friends.” Your mission is reconciliation. Everything you say and do should unite.

16. Proverbs 17:10 – “A rebuke goes deeper into a man of understanding than a hundred blows into a fool.” Is the conviction of God’s word empowered by the Holy Spirit enough to bring you to obedience, or do you need to learn the hard way?

17. 1 Thessalonians 5:3 -- “While people are saying, ‘There is peace and security,’ then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.” Humanism is ‘enlightening’ the ungodly into extinction. As in the time of Noah, few, including the religious, will see the looming destruction.

18. Compare the instruction of 1 Thessalonians 5:12-18 with Proverbs 12.

19. 1 Thessalonians 5:14 -- “And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all.” Do you know how to admonish patiently?

20. 1 Thessalonians 5:16-19 -- “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. Do not quench the Spirit.” Rejoice, pray, and give thanks continuously in order to fulfill God’s will for your life and remain empowered by the Spirit. How often have you disobeyed this command?

21. 1 Thessalonians 5:18 -- “Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.” This is a hard one. However, Paul is calling us to see life from God’s perspective and from the realization that God, the Almighty, who IS Love has saved us through His Son, Jesus Christ; and is now working “all things... together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.” (Romans 8:28) There are many reasons why a loving God allows bad things to happen. However, the key is keeping perspective on the God who allowed the suffering to occur rather than trying to understand the mind of God, which is an impossibility -- “For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?” (Romans 11:34) We can never truly understand what “God was thinking” when He let bad things happen to us, but today’s readings tell us that we can ALWAYS rejoice in our circumstances because God is only dealing with us from a position of Love perfected. A parental memory that is burned in my mind is that of taking my infants to get their inoculations. I will never forget the looks of pain and confusion they would give me as they received injections from a stranger while I watched willingly. Though they could not speak, their heart-breaking question was obvious: “Why, Daddy?” Of course, there was no way to explain to them what they could not possibly understand. However, the conclusion of the event was always the same: With tears in their eyes, they reached with all their ability back into my (or Mom’s) loving arms. They helped me understand what it means to trust as a child. Paul tells us today that perspective is everything, but he also tells us not to go through trials alone. We all need the encouragement and support of other Christians -- “Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.” (1 Thessalonians 5:11) In fact, the Bible tells us that one of the many reasons God allows us to suffer, in part, so we can be a better minister to others who are suffering. (2 Corinthians 1:4) Another key to enduring our own hardships is by focusing on ministering to the needs of others rather than focusing on our own pain.

- Job 2:10 -- “Shall we accept good from God, and not trouble?” In all this, Job did not sin in what he said.

- Isaiah 45:7 -- I form the light and create darkness, I bring prosperity and create disaster; I, the LORD, do all these things.

- Lamentations 3:37-39 -- Who is there who speaks and it comes to pass, Unless the Lord has commanded it? Is it not from the mouth of the Most High That both good and ill go forth? Why should any living mortal, or any man, Offer complaint in view of his sins?...

- Jeremiah 32:42 -- "This is what the LORD says: As I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will give them all the prosperity I have promised them.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

22. 1 Thessalonians 5:23 -- "May your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." Pursue blamelessness within your heart. This is a life-long endeavor that requires all of your effort.

DBRP - WEEK 29, Day 1, Monday, 16 July 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 16 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 27:2 – "And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord according to all that his father Uzziah had done, except he did not enter the temple of the Lord. But the people still followed corrupt practices." Success involves having an influence over those around us for God's glory, not just living a private faith without impact.

2. 2 Chronicles 27:6 -- "So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before the Lord his God." Is your life ordered around Jesus? Have you built your house on the firm foundation, the solid rock of Jesus? Is Jesus the Cornerstone of your life? Jotham stuck out among the list of kings because he chose to order his life before the Lord his God. Will you be remembered that way?

3. 2 Chronicles 28:2 -- "...but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel." Following anyone other than Jesus will lead you to sin and destruction. You cannot walk with the ungodly and walk with Jesus at the same time; they are going in opposite directions. The world, which is in rebellion to God, pursues substitutes for god while your aim in life is Jesus Himself. Conversely, you should be growing closer each day to those who are seeking greater unity with Jesus, like ships headed to the same destination.

4. 2 Chronicles 28:9-11 -- "But a prophet of the Lord was there, whose name was Oded, and he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria and said to them, 'Behold, because the Lord, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand, but you have killed them in a rage that has reached up to heaven.... Have you not sins of your own against the Lord your God? Now hear me, and send back the captives from your relatives whom you have taken, for the fierce wrath of the Lord is upon you.'" God's people have always been called to serve as the conscience of government and to convict others of sin, call people to repentance, and warn of God's looming judgment of sin.

5. 2 Chronicles 28:20 -- "So Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came against him and afflicted him instead of strengthening him." Turning to the world for strength rather than God will only hurt you, not help you.

6. 2 Chronicles 28:22-25 -- When you do not repent, you seek deeper into sin.

7. 2 Chronicles 28:23 -- "For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus that had defeated him and said, 'Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me.' But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel." What seems to work for the world will not work for us. We operate within the spiritual realm with spiritual goals and objectives.

8. Proverbs 16:2 -- "All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, the Lord weighs the spirit." What matters is not what you think about yourself but what God thinks of you.

9. Proverbs 16:6 – “By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the Lord one turns away from evil.” Sacrificial deeds done with the wrong motives don’t mean anything or fix anything. Love and faithfulness are what matters. Sacrifices don’t make up for disobedience or a lack of genuine love. God doesn’t want your sacrifices, He wants your love and faithfulness.

10. Proverbs 16:8 – “Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues with injustice.” The righteous may be poor, and the unrighteous may be rich on earth, but riches are not the same as reward. All that people think money can offer them -- security, joy, peace, validation, etc. -- are really in the hands of God and come through relationship with Jesus Christ. When you have Jesus, nothing else really matters all that much. When you don’t have Jesus, all the wealth in the world can’t fill the void in your life.

11. Proverbs 16:20 – “Whoever gives thought to the word will discover good, and blessed is he who trusts in the Lord.” Read, study, and meditate upon God’s word; then, trust and obey, day-by-day.

12. Proverbs 16:25 – “There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death.” Take it to the bank: man’s way is the wrong way. If you are following anything or anybody other than Jesus Christ and His commandments, you are heading the wrong direction. God says, “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.” (Isa 55:8, 9) God commands you, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.” (Proverbs 3:5) Solomon, the wisest king that ever lived, couldn’t get it right. What makes anyone else think they can apart from the lead of Jesus. Follow Jesus and only Jesus. Jesus didn’t say, “I will show you the way,” He said, “I am The Way.” His way is one of obedience. Jesus obeyed every word of the Father. Deny yourself, take up your cross, and follow Jesus. You have been provided with God’s Word and the power of the Holy Spirit. You have been given all authority by Jesus to be His Ambassador on this earth. What more do you need? Stop chasing the world’s sinful fantasies.

13. Proverbs 16:32 – “Whoever is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city.” A person with self-control is a powerful person. If you cannot control your temper, you cannot control anything else for very long. You are unfit for God’s work and need to pray that God will grant you the last fruit of the Spirit – self-control (see Gal 5).

14. Proverbs 16:33 – “The lot is cast into the lap, but its every decision is from the Lord.” Nothing is left to chance.

15.1 Thessalonians 4:1 -- “...you ought to walk and to please God, just as you are doing, that you do so more and more.” God expects you to strive more and more to walk with Jesus. Sanctification is a life-long process.

16. 1 Thessalonians 4:3-8 -- “For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore, whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.”

- Sanctification is God's will for your life. What does God want you to do with your life? Become closer and more like Jesus every day, more holy. God has called you to purity and holiness – strive daily for it. Holiness requires self-control. Self-control is key to sanctification, and sexual sin is not only a sign of a lack of self-control and sanctification, it defies the Great Commandment of loving God and others. It is absolutely unthinkable that a Christian would engage in any form of sexual immorality considering that the Christian's body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, and sexual immorality would be an utter desecration of God's temple, the abomination of desolation! "Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So, glorify God in your body." (1 Corinthians 6:19, 20)

17. 1 Thessalonians 4:8 -- "For God did not call us to be impure, but to live a holy life. Therefore, anyone who rejects this instruction does not reject a human being but God, the very God who gives you his Holy Spirit."

- God has called you to holiness instead of impurity. In urging us to "live in order to please God" and to "do this more and more," Paul reminds us that the Bible's instructions are given to us "by the authority of the Lord Jesus." We are called by God to live "holy" lives, and we have been empowered by God through the Holy Spirit to live holy lives. When we sin, we cannot use the old excuse, "The Devil made me do it." God has given us the power to obey, but we choose not to when, even for a brief moment, something has become more important to us than God. Paul wants us to face the fact that when we sin, we are deliberately denying the Lordship of God and His authority over our lives! He also warns that God will hold us accountable (1 Thessalonians 4:6), though we remain in His love and grace. Furthermore, Paul points out that sin and disobedience have nothing to do with love, and it is impossible to grow in love without growing in holiness and obedience. Sin is not only an offense to God, it also always hurts others (1 Thessalonians 4:6). Sin hurts, destroys, kills. True love absolutely requires obedience to the God who is Love, and our ability to love others is dependent on our love for God.

18. 1 Thessalonians 4:9-12 -- "Now concerning brotherly love you have no need for anyone to write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another.... But we urge you, brothers, to do this more and more, and to aspire to live quietly, and to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we instructed you, so that you may walk properly before outsiders and be dependent on no one."

- God wants you to strive to grow in love daily, and to live an inoffensive and unencumbered life, not being dependent upon the sinful world which would influence you to compromise your purity and holiness. God calls us to live quiet lives, working hard to be self-sufficient and to love others. Often people will ask, "What does God want me to do with my life?" However, their focus is usually on profession, and they are usually really asking, "How can I be successful in life (by the world's standards)?" However, Thessalonians' answer to the question focuses on character rather than competence – "live a holy life." Thessalonians seems to minimize "professional" success (though we are called to be excellent in all things) – "make it your ambition to lead a quiet life: You should mind your own business and work with your hands." Who you are matters far more than what you do. Find something to do, and do it to the glory of God, not to your own glory. "This only have I found: God created mankind upright, but they have gone in search of many schemes. Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the duty of all mankind. For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil. (Ecclesiastes 7:29; 12:13, 14)."

19. 1 Thessalonians 4:13 -- "But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope." God does not want you to get wrapped up in the worries of the world or to grieve about things like the world does. Be at peace in the hope which has been given you through the promise of Jesus.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 16 July 18: Today, pursue sanctification as your life goal. Walk today side-by-side with Jesus, seeking to know Him more fully, seeking to grow closer to Him through every experience. Don't just do good, know Him more and more. Don't follow anyone else, only Him. Partner with those who have the same goal for life as you -- to know Jesus more and more. (See today's readings)

DBRP - WEEK 28, Day 7, Sunday, 15 July 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+chron+25%2C+26%3B+proverbs+15%3B+psalm+80%2C+81>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 15 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 25:2 -- "And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, yet not with a whole heart." Obedience that doesn't come from a whole heart is disobedience. The First Commandment is, "You shall have no other gods before me," and The Greatest Commandment is, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind." Apparent obedience that is not really inspired by genuine reverence and love for the Almighty is artificial and short-lived. This is why Jesus said things like, "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart." (Matthew 5:27, 28) In this example, hidden lust reveals a heart that doesn't revere and love God enough to care about what He cares about, to desire what He desires. That is where sin starts, in the heart. Jesus was tempted in the desert, externally by Satan, not internally from His heart – He remained without sin. External temptations don't cause us to sin; our hearts cause us to sin. "It is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth; this defiles a person." (Matthew 15:11)

2. 2 Chronicles 25:7, 8 -- "But a man of God came to him and said, 'O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the Lord is not with Israel, with all these Ephraimites. But go, act, be strong for the battle. Why should you suppose that God will cast you down before the enemy? For God has power to help or to cast down.'" Once again, the Bible warns about partnering with ungodly people and putting your trust in worldly powers rather than in God. Amaziah had already hired the Israelites but then listened to God's word and sent them home, losing his investment but ultimately winning the battle. However, the Israelite warriors plundered Judah's cities on the way home, killing thousands. Amaziah and his people still suffered consequences for not obeying God in the first place. Working with the ungodly doesn't 'work' for God. What consequences do God's people face today in compromise with the world? It is tempting to partner with unbelievers rather than relying on God. It takes courage to resist pressures to compromise holiness and join with the world; it takes faith to rely on God.

3. 2 Chronicles 25:14-16 -- A true prophet is compelled to speak the truth against sin, regardless the audience and regardless the consequences.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. 2 Chronicles 25:15 -- "Therefore the Lord was angry with Amaziah and sent to him a prophet." God sends His messengers to warn sinners to repent. We are Christ's Ambassadors, proclaiming to others, whether they want to hear it or not, His message of repentance and forgiveness.

5. 2 Chronicles 25:16 -- "But as he was speaking, the king said to him, 'Have we made you a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you be struck down?' So, the prophet stopped, but said, 'I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.'" Those who follow sin unrepentantly will often respond violently to God's word.

6. 2 Chronicles 25:16 -- "But when he was strong, he grew proud, to his destruction." One of the most repeated themes throughout the Bible is that pride comes before the fall. Uzziah was blessed by God but soon began to take credit for God's work, trust in his own power, and pursue his own desires rather than God's will. So many others in the Bible did something along these lines with devastating consequences. Be very careful that you don't grow prideful in your successes. Give all glory and credit to God. Never lift yourself up before others.

7. 2 Chronicles 26:5 -- "He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear of God, and as long as he sought the Lord, God made him prosper." Uzziah followed wise godly counsel and was blessed. Do you have wise Christian counsellors in your life who lead you in pursuit of God's will?

8. 2 Chronicles 26:16 -- "But when he was strong, he grew proud, to his destruction. For he was unfaithful to the Lord his God and entered the temple of the Lord to burn incense on the altar of incense." Success can be dangerous.

9. 2 Chronicles 26:18 -- "...and they withstood King Uzziah and said to him, 'It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the Lord, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary, for you have done wrong, and it will bring you no honor from the Lord God.'" It is not the position of government to control worship.

10. Proverbs 15:1 -- "A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger." Why stir up anger?

11. Proverbs 15:3 -- "The eyes of the Lord are in every place, keeping watch on the evil and the good." Nothing escapes God's attention, and He is in complete control. He will not be mocked.

12. Proverbs 15:8 -- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright is acceptable to him." We cannot expect to live in disobedience and have God give us what we want. God does not spoil His children. His greatest gift to you is Himself, and desires, first and foremost for nothing, including your sin, to stand as a barrier in your relationship with Him. He has already given you His Holy Spirit and complete access, but in sin, you can quench the Spirit, grieve the Spirit, and get out of step with the Spirit. He will deal with your walk before your wants.

13. Proverbs 15:10 -- "There is severe discipline for him who forsakes the way; whoever hates reproof will die." How is this verse revealed in what you have been reading in Chronicles? How have you seen this revealed in life?

14. Proverbs 15:11 -- "Sheol and Abaddon lie open before the Lord; how much more the hearts of the children of man!" People judge what you do, but God sees deep within you to judge why you do it -- He knows the truth of your motives and heart. Many people do 'good' deeds for the wrong reasons: fear, pride, greed, duty (legalism), rather than love. God desires gifts offered in love. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal to you the true motives behind your actions and purify your love. Jesus said, the first step to following Him is to "deny yourself." Ask the Holy Spirit to help you remove self from the equation – the hardest step.

15. Proverbs 15:15-17 – "All the days of the afflicted are evil, but the cheerful of heart has a continual feast. Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble with it. Better is a dinner of herbs where love is than a fattened ox and hatred with it." Motivated by anything other than love for God and others, you can build for yourself a kingdom on earth, but it would be full of trouble and affliction, and it will be burned up in judgment. The Bible says that God's gifts have no trouble added to them – "The blessing of the Lord makes rich, and he adds no sorrow with it." (Proverbs 10:22)

16. Proverbs 15:16 – "Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble with it." Trust God to provide you with everything you need if you remain in obedience to Him. Whatever you gain in disobedience is only a curse.

17. Proverbs 15:19 – "The way of a sluggard is like a hedge of thorns, but the path of the upright is a level highway." An attitude of laziness sees everything as a pain and accomplishes very little. An attitude of diligence is very freeing and sees much progress in life.

18. Proverbs 15:26 – "The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord, but gracious words are pure." Words are only pure when they come from a truly gracious heart. God knows the heart, and the kindest words are an abomination (a very strong word) to Him when they come from the wrong heart. You can say all the right things and be completely wrong. Again, God knows your thoughts. Thoughts that prioritize something as higher or more important than God are idolatry and an abomination.

19. Proverbs 15:28, 29 – "The heart of the righteous ponders how to answer, but the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things. The Lord is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous." The quality of our relationships with both God and man is determined by the condition of our hearts. Check your heart.

20. Proverbs 15:29 – "The Lord is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous." Acceptable prayers are God-centered rather than self-centered.

21. Proverbs 15:31-33 – "The ear that listens to life-giving reproof will dwell among the wise. Whoever ignores instruction despises himself, but he who listens to reproof gains intelligence. The fear of the Lord is instruction in wisdom, and humility comes before honor." Again, you must approach God's word humbly and accept its correction in your life, every day.

22. Psalm 81: 9, 10 -- "There shall be no strange god among you; you shall not bow down to a foreign god. I am the Lord your God." The modern Christian risks breezing by verses such as this one too quickly: "I'm a Christian; of course I don't worship other gods." However, the danger of idolatry is just as alive and well today for the Christian it was for the Jew in ancient Israel, only we have made idolatry more subtle and sophisticated. Our greatest idol is ourselves. Whenever we presume to place ourselves, our desires, our goals, our passions, our "needs" ahead of God's will and commands, we introduce the "strangest god" of all into the equation, ourselves. We are a far worse idol than a carved image or any other created form – the inanimate object or god of imagination has a big thing over us: it has never sinned against God! Uzzah died when he dared to touch the ark of the covenant in order to keep the holy ark from falling on the ground, presuming that his hand was cleaner than the dirt. How easy it is for us to forget from where we came. How easy it is for us to let pride rob God of His due glory, honor and praise and for us to lose sight of the wonderfulness of the grace He has poured out upon us through His One and Only Son Jesus Christ – “as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us” (if you travel east on a globe, you never get to west). (Psalm 103:12) Even when we think about God, we tend to consider Him from our own perspective – “How does God relate to me?”. The fullness of joy is the removal of “me” so that there is only Him – “For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.” (1 Corinthians 2:2) “I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.” (Galatians 2:20)

- Colossians 3:5 -- Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

- 1 Samuel 15:23 -- For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the Lord, he has also rejected you from being king.”

- Galatians 5:24 -- And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

- Galatians 6:14 -- But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

23. Psalm 81:11-16 -- “But my people did not listen to my voice; Israel would not submit to me. So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts, to follow their own counsels. Oh, that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways! I would soon subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their foes. Those who hate the Lord would cringe toward him, and their fate would last forever. But he would feed you with the finest of the wheat, and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.”

Compare these verses to Romans 1. A person doesn't realize what they have been “given over” in their disobedience. It is a terrible thing to be turned over by God. Trust and obey! Surrender totally to Jesus, and walk with Him, not the world. Look to God to supply your every need, not idols. Proclaim His praises to everyone!

24. Psalm 80:19 – “Restore us, O Lord God of hosts! Let your face shine, that we may be saved!” Turn to the Lord for restoration every day.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 15 July 18: “Sing aloud to God our strength; shout for joy to the God of Jacob! Raise a song; sound the tambourine, the sweet lyre with the harp.” (Psalm 81:1, 2) This Sunday, ‘go to church’ all day long (and from this day forward), wherever you are and through whatever you are doing. Proclaim Jesus to everyone everywhere.

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+chron+23%2C+24%3B+proverbs+14%3B+psalm+79>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 14 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 23:1-11 -- God's faithful people need to come together to plan how to promote revival.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

2. 2 Chronicles 23:3 – “And all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And Jehoiada said to them, ‘Behold, the king’s son! Let him reign, as the Lord spoke concerning the sons of David.’ God keeps His word. No one can thwart His plans.

3. 2 Chronicles 23:9, 10 -- “And Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains the spears and the large and small shields that had been King David’s, which were in the house of God. And he set all the people as a guard for the king, every man with his weapon in his hand.”

- We see throughout the Bible the expectation and responsibility for men to be ready, able, and willing to fight to defend themselves and others when necessary and within God’s standards. We see throughout the Bible that fighting, in itself, is not evil just as commerce in itself is not evil; it is the motive and the means that must be considered carefully. In 2 Chronicles, we see that Jehoiada the priest leads the fight with weapons from the Temple against the corrupt illegitimate, ruling authorities. In Luke 22, Jesus warns his disciples to buy swords to defend themselves if they don’t have any – “The disciples said, ‘See, Lord, here are two swords.’ ‘That’s enough!’ he replied (Luke 22:38).” Self-defense is a responsibility and right that cannot be delegated or abrogated.

4. 2 Chronicles 23:16 – “And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king that they should be the Lord’s people.” Covenant is made in a community of faithful believers.

5. 2 Chronicles 23:17 – “Then all the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.” Obedience means forsaking all ties with substitutes for God. To follow Jesus, you must completely eliminate those things that have been distractions and that have tempted you to sin. Is it time for you to clean house?

6. 2 Chronicles 23:18 – “And Jehoiada posted watchmen for the house of the Lord under the direction of the Levitical priests and the Levites whom David had organized to be in charge of the house of the Lord, to offer burnt offerings to the Lord, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David.” A faithful, powerful church has faithful ministers God chooses for the congregation in order to do what God commands.

7. 2 Chronicles 24:1, 2 – “Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Zibiah of Beersheba. And Joash did what was right in the eyes of the Lord all the days of Jehoiada the priest.” A seven-year-old leader guided by wise, godly counselors is far better than the most experienced secular politician. Often more important than the leader are the counsellors and advisors to the leader, those who are the real decision-makers. Particularly at seven years old, Joash was simply a figure head, and Jehoaida was the real power broker who lead the nation in a godly way. Likewise, our political leaders today will be guided by others behind the scenes, and knowing who they are and what they believe is of vital importance. Who gives you advice and counsel? Your counsellor and advisor should be very close to Jesus, but your eyes need to always remain on Jesus. Bad counsel and advice can be devastating in your life.

8. 2 Chronicles 24:17, 18 -- “Now after the death of Jehoiada the princes of Judah came and paid homage to the king. Then the king listened to them. And they abandoned the house of the Lord, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols. And wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this guilt of theirs.” The Bible further makes the point to you -- “Bad company ruins good morals.” (1 Corinthians 15:33) When Jehoaida’s counsel was replaced with the counsel of the princes, Joash turned from God and led the entire nation astray. Do not let anyone lead you astray simply because (s)he likes you, has a great personality, and is very kind to you. If your friends, relatives, and coworkers are not following Jesus as their top priority, they are adrift and will desire you to go with them to someplace other than where God wants you to go.

9. 2 Chron 24:17,18 -- Political ambitions ruin integrity and obedience to God.

10. 2 Chronicles 24:19 -- “Yet he sent prophets among them to bring them back to the Lord. These testified against them, but they would not pay attention.” Church and State – The church is called to be the conscience of government and society whether they desire to listen or not. If the church remains silent in order to remain comfortable or agreeable, destruction is inevitable.

11. 2 Chronicles 24:20 -- “Then the Spirit of God clothed Zechariah.”

- Romans 13:14 -- But put on the Lord Jesus Christ....

- 1 Corinthians 15:33 - For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality....

- Galatians 3:27 -- For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ....

- Ephesians 4:24 -- and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness....

- Ephesians 6:11 -- Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil....

- Colossians 3:9-14 -- ...put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator.... Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.....

- 1 Pet 3:3, 4 -- Do not let your adorning be external—the braiding of hair and the putting on of gold jewelry, or the clothing you wear— but let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious....

- Are you dressed for success? You cannot fulfill your purpose in life without first putting on Jesus and being wrapped filled with the Holy Spirit.

12. 2 Chronicles 24:20 -- “Thus says God, ‘Why do you break the commandments of the Lord, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken the Lord, he has forsaken you.’” You cannot prosper while continuing to disobey God in any area of your life. Yes, you will continue to sin, but you must have, as your heart's desire, the intent not to sin, and you must pursue holiness with all of your might.

13. 2 Chronicles 24:20 -- When political leaders stray from justice and righteousness, a faithful prophet is required to proclaim the truth.

14. 2 Chronicles 24:21 -- “But they conspired against him, and by command of the king they stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the Lord.” A successful prophet is one who is faithful to God's word, regardless of what people think. God might very well allow you to suffer and die for Him. Spoiler alert: we all die anyway. Dying for God is an honor, but truly living for God, in Christ, dead to self, is an even greater honor. Martin Luther King said, "A man who does not have something for which he is willing to die is not fit to live."

15. 2 Chronicles 24:24 -- "Though the army of the Syrians had come with few men, the Lord delivered into their hand a very great army, because Judah had forsaken the Lord, the God of their fathers. Thus they executed judgment on Joash." God Himself destroys wicked people and wicked nations, and He may use other wicked people to do it.

16. Proverbs 14:2 -- "Whoever walks in uprightness fears the Lord, but he who is devious in his ways despises him." Our actions reveal how we really feel about God in our hearts. When we sin, we prefer something more than God. Though we find ways to justify our sin and make light of it, the Bible calls it spiritual adultery and idolatry. We will make excuses for our sin by blaming something other than ourselves -- circumstances, chemistry, upbringing, external instigators, etc. However, how we respond to our circumstances is our choice, and that choice reveals what is truly in our hearts. For example, rude, disrespectful people don't make you angry, they reveal the anger that is already in your heart. So, the question is "Why is there anger in your heart?" As it has been said, "The heart of man's problem is the problem with man's heart." We should pay very close attention to Amaziah's story in our readings today. The Bible says, "He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, yet not with a whole heart (2 Chronicles 25:2)." Amaziah was a "church-goer" who followed the rules but not out of genuine love for the Lord. He believed in God, and knew that God's rules "worked," to generally bring prosperity to a person's life, but in his heart, his king and lord was himself. Rather than "seek[ing] first the Kingdom of God," he desired to build his own kingdom on earth. The truth of his heart was eventually revealed, not in crisis, but rather in success. He became proud and began to worship idols (merely a tangible representation of his adulterous heart). Eventually, his heart had become so hard, he refused to listen any longer to God's word ("I don't have time to read the Bible"), and he was destroyed. "The backslider in heart will be filled with the fruit of his ways, and a good man will be filled with the fruit of his ways (Proverbs 14:14)."

17. Proverbs 14:4 -- "Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean, but abundant crops come by the strength of the ox." True strength is revealed not in what you have but rather in what you can reproduce.

18. Proverbs 14:7 -- "Leave the presence of a fool, for there you do not meet words of knowledge." Don't waste your time seeking wisdom from those who do not know the Source of Wisdom, Jesus Christ.

19. Proverbs 14:10 -- "The heart knows its own bitterness, and no stranger shares its joy." You don't really know what is going on in the lives of others. Be patient with them and serve as a constant source of healing by always pointing to Jesus.

20. Proverbs 14:14 -- "The backslider in heart will be filled with the fruit of his ways, and a good man will be filled with the fruit of his ways." Contrary to the beliefs of many in the "Grace" movement, believers do experience consequences and discipline for disobedience. God gives salvation through grace and disciplines us for our sanctification.

21. Proverbs 14:25 – “A truthful witness saves lives, but one who breathes out lies is deceitful.” A truthful witness proclaims Jesus Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Proclaiming any other ‘truth’ is to be a false witness and a liar.

22. Proverbs 14:29 – “Whoever is slow to anger has great understanding, but he who has a hasty temper exalts folly.” Those slow to anger truly understand the forgiveness that they have received through Jesus and the truth of the Gospel. Understanding the Truth changes how you respond to others as love compels you to forgive.

23. Psalms 79:9 – “Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name; deliver us, and atone for our sins, for your name’s sake!” God will always deal with you in a way that brings glory to Him.

24. Psalm 79:10 – “Why should the nations say, ‘Where is their God?’ Let the avenging of the outpoured blood of your servants be known among the nations before our eyes!” It is sometimes hard to understand why wickedness continues and why God allows the innocent to suffer. We must remember that God has a plan and will remain faithful to Romans 8:28. Continue to trust and obey.

25. Psalm 79:13 – “But we your people, the sheep of your pasture, will give thanks to you forever; from generation to generation we will recount your praise.” In the midst of suffering, continue to give thanks to God and to praise Him to all.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 14 July 18: Endeavor from this day forward to get dressed in Jesus before you step off, and don't be caught improperly dressed or even naked in public -- “Then the Spirit of God clothed Zechariah.” (2 Chronicles 24:20) “But put on the Lord Jesus Christ” ... (Rom 13:14) For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality.... (1 Cor 15:33) “For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.” ... (Gal 3:27) “and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.” ... (Eph 4:24) “Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil.” ... (Eph 6:11) “...put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator.... Put on then, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony....” (Col 3:9-14) “Do not let your adorning be external—the braiding of hair and the putting on of gold jewelry, or the clothing you wear— but let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God’s sight is very precious....” (1 Pet 3:3, 4) Are you dressed for success? You cannot fulfill your purpose in life without first putting on Jesus and being wrapped filled with the Holy Spirit.

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+chron+21%2C+22%3B+proverbs+13%3B+1+thes+3>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 13 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 21:6 -- “And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did what was evil in the sight of the Lord.” There is a reason why God forbids marriage with unbelievers. People who are close to you will have a positive or negative influence on your life. You must be very careful not to establish covenant-type relationships with those who will only tempt you to be unfaithful to God. Those close to you must be ready to walk with you in a mutually supportive relationship as you both of you follow Jesus together.

2. 2 Chronicles 21:11 -- "Moreover, he made high places in the hill country of Judah and led the inhabitants of Jerusalem into whoredom and made Judah go astray." The Bible describes spiritual unfaithfulness as whoredom.

3 2 Chronicles 21:12, 13 -- "Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, 'Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa king of Judah, but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel and have enticed Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into whoredom, as the house of Ahab led Israel into whoredom, and also you have killed your brothers, of your father's house, who were better than you.' God may allow sinners to have earthly victory over the faithful, but God will ultimately hold everyone accountable, and our reward is eternal.

4. 2 Chronicles 21:13 -- People are tempted to hurt those who are better than them.

5. 2 Chronicles 21:12-15 -- "Because you... have... enticed Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into whoredom, as the house of Ahab led Israel into whoredom, and also you have killed your brothers, of your father's house, who were better than you, behold, the Lord will bring a great plague on your people, your children, your wives, and all your possessions, and you yourself will have a severe sickness with a disease of your bowels, until your bowels come out because of the disease, day by day."

Jehoram's greatest offense was leading people astray from God; this was worse in God's eyes than Jehoram killing his brothers. Jehoram's spiritual infidelity caused everyone around him to sin and to suffer tremendously before Jehoram himself died a painful death. How striking is it that Jehoshaphat had so little influence on Jehoram?

6. 2 Chronicles 21:15, 16 -- "...and you yourself will have a severe sickness with a disease of your bowels.... And the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the anger of the Philistines and of the Arabians who are near the Ethiopians." God punishes with sickness, enemies, and negative circumstances. Those who reject God will not attribute these things to God's discipline.

7. 2 Chronicles 21:20 -- "And he departed with no one's regret." Jehoram was influential, but in the end, no one respected him or cared about him. He had a miserable and painful life because He walked away from the faith of his father to serve other gods.

8. 2 Chronicles 21:1-6 -- "Jehoshaphat king of Israel.... gave [his sons] great gifts of silver, gold, and valuable possessions, together with fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram [who] reigned in his place.... And [Jehoram] did what was evil in the sight of the Lord."

- 2 Chronicles 22:2, 3 -- "Ahaziah.... also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor in doing wickedly."

- No person, regardless their position in life has a greater responsibility, ministry, or position than that of parent. There is no greater test of genuine leadership than that of parent, a position that costs greatly but comes with little glory. It is easy to get caught up in earthly pursuits and worldly measures of success and lose sight of our first priority in leadership. Even service to the church can be out of balance, robbing the family of essential leadership. The first measure of genuine leadership is within the household and family. (1 Timothy 3) In the Old Testament, God built His kingdom by starting with one man, one wife, one family. God's charge to parents was very clear: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.... You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates." (Deuteronomy 6:5-9) In fact, God has revealed the purpose of his first institution of marriage: "Godly offspring." (Malachi 2:15) Of course, children too have free will, and the story of the "prodigal son" reminds us that faithful parenting is not an inoculation for our children against rebellion and sin. Nonetheless, our responsibility is clear.

9. 2 Chronicles 22:3 -- "He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor in doing wickedly." Again, the Bible warns about the influence of close relationships – a person will either help or hinder another person's walk with Jesus. Don't be led astray by those closest to you, and don't lead others astray. Good relationships are first and foremost about growing together in Christ. Everything else is secondary. If your friends or family members don't share with you your goal of Jesus, you cannot be yoked together.

10. 2 Chronicles 22:9 -- "He searched for Ahaziah, and he was captured while hiding in Samaria, and he was brought to Jehu and put to death. They buried him, for they said, 'He is the grandson of Jehoshaphat, who sought the Lord with all his heart.'" Jehoshaphat was respected for generations because of his fidelity to God. How will you be remembered?

11. 2 Chronicles 22:10 – "Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal family of the house of Judah." There is no limit to what the godless will do.

12. 2 Chronicles 22:11 -- "But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the king's sons who were about to be put to death." Jehoshabeath's brave action at the critical place and time was used by God to sustain the lineage of the royal family of Judah. If you will be faithful with the moment, God can use you to do amazing things.

13. Proverbs 13:7-11 – God's word has much to say about the dangers and deception of riches.

14. Proverbs 13:8 – "The ransom of a man's life is his wealth, but a poor man hears no threat." It can be freeing to have nothing left to lose.

15. Proverbs 13:10 – "By insolence comes nothing but strife, but with those who take advice is wisdom." Arguments are fueled by selfish pride.

16. Proverbs 13:13 – "Whoever despises the word brings destruction on himself, but he who reveres the commandment will be rewarded." There are consequences for disobeying God's word, always.

17. Proverbs 13:18 – "Poverty and disgrace come to him who ignores instruction, but whoever heeds reproof is honored." God's discipline is intended to teach you valuable lessons for life. Don't ignore it.

18. Proverbs 13:20 – "Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm." Wisdom is a journey. Walk with the wise and become wise.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

19. Proverbs 13:25 – “The righteous has enough to satisfy his appetite, but the belly of the wicked suffers want.” The wise know how to be content in any situation. The wicked are never satisfied.

20. 1 Thessalonians 3:10 – “...as we pray most earnestly night and day that we may see you face to face and supply what is lacking in your faith?” Prayer should be earnest and continuous.

21. 1 Thessalonians 3:12 -- “...and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.” God is love, only God is pure Fidelity, and only God is blameless and holy. He Created all wisdom and goodness. He is the Creator and Source of all love and goodness. You cannot create love and wisdom – you can only receive it from the Creator and transfer it. To grow in love, faithfulness, purity, and holiness, you must grow closer to Jesus – there is no other way, and all of your earthly relationships depend on your relationship to God. Willpower, self-motivation, positive mental attitude, personal power, and knowledge cannot get you there – you must depend solely on Jesus and be guided by the Holy Spirit which is not natural but supernatural.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 13 July 18: Today, make a list of those friendships you have made with others where Jesus is your mutual goal. Focus on those few relationships and be as “iron sharpens iron” with those few people. Grow with them in Christ day-by-day. Seek more friendships like those – they will likely be very few. Then you brightly radiate the Truth to others. (see today’s readings)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 12 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 19:2 -- “But Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, ‘Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the Lord? Because of this, wrath has gone out against you from the Lord.’” God will hold His people accountable if they partner with the ungodly. We are not to become entangled in the world's affairs or partner with unbelievers, even under the justification of building relationships of influence. Some mistakenly believe that refusing to partner with the world is the same as isolating oneself from the world. You can have relationship and can influence without syncretism.

2. 2 Corinthians 19:6 – “...and said to the judges, ‘Consider what you do, for you judge not for man but for the Lord. He is with you in giving judgment.’” As Ambassadors for Christ and as priests, we can no longer represent anyone else's interest other than Jesus Christ's, and His position on a matter will almost always differ from world opinion.

3. 2 Chronicles 19:7 -- “Now then, let the fear of the Lord be upon you. Be careful what you do, for there is no injustice with the Lord our God, or partiality or taking bribes.” You are God’s representatives on earth, and He holds you to a very high standard in all that you do. He will not tolerate Christians misrepresenting Him. Yes, he responds to us in grace, but He, nonetheless, expects you to honor Him with your words and deeds before the world.

4. 2 Cor 19:10 -- "...then you shall warn them, that they may not incur guilt before the LORD and wrath may not come upon you and your brothers. Thus you shall do, and you will not incur guilt." We are guilty if we don't warn the sinner.

5. 2 Chronicles 20:9 -- "If disaster comes upon us, the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house and before you—for your name is in this house—and cry out to you in our affliction, and you will hear and save." When crisis comes, God expects His people to turn to Him and to trust in Him.

6. 2 Chronicles 20:12 -- "We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you." No one knows what to do without God's guidance. We are totally dependent on God for direction, understanding, and wisdom. Human wisdom is an illusion.

7. 2 Chronicles 20:14 -- "And the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel." The Spirit enables us to know God's word and will. No one can understand without the empowerment of the Holy Spirit.

8. 2 Chronicles 20:17 -- "You will not need to fight in this battle. Stand firm, hold your position, and see the salvation of the Lord on your behalf." If you are walking with the Lord, you will not need to worry about defending yourself. Hold to the truth, and watch God work.

9. 2 Chronicles 20:21 -- "... he appointed those who were to sing to the LORD and praise him in holy attire, as they went before the army, and say, 'Give thanks to the LORD, for his steadfast love endures forever.'" Faith causes you to give thanks in the face of seemingly impossible odds.

10. 2 Chronicles 20:35-37 -- "Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined with Ahaziah king of Israel, who acted wickedly. He joined him in building ships to go to Tarshish, and they built the ships in Ezion-geber. Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, 'Because you have joined with Ahaziah, the Lord will destroy what you have made.' And the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish." Again, God does not want His people to partner with the world and will hold His people accountable if they do.

11. Proverbs 12 – This chapter compares the attributes of the righteous person with the attributes of the foolish person. Read this chapter and see which attributes apply to you. Do you love discipline (v1)? Do you see God's favor in your life (v2)? Are you firmly grounded and strong (v3)? Are you in iron-sharpens-iron, honorable relationships (v4)? Are your thoughts pure, holy, and wise; and do you give sound counsel (v5)? Do your words rescue and heal people rather than destroy them and hurt them (vs6, 18)? Are you commended for your good sense (v8)? Do you live well within your means, without concern about impressing others (v9)? Are equally kind to the lowliest people (v 10)? Are you hard working (vs11, 24, 27)? Do you focus on doing the best you can rather than worrying about what everyone else is doing and rather than becoming envious or jealous (vs12, 14)? Are you always truthful, even in the smallest ways (vs13, 17, 18, 22)? Do you humbly listen to the advice of others? (v15)? Do you hold your emotions and ignore insults (v16)? Do you plan to make peace with all others rather than adding friction (v20)? Do you speak the truth only when it is helpful and brings peace and reconciliation (v 23)? Do you always comfort others in distress (v25)? Do your words and guidance always lead people to a better place and closer to Jesus (vs26, 28)

12. Proverbs 12:1 -- How you respond to discipline is critical.

13. Proverbs 12:18, 25 -- "There is one whose rash words are like sword thrusts, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.... Anxiety in a man's heart weighs him down, but a good word makes him glad."

- You may have heard someone described as "a people person." However, much like a Marine has to be fighter, Christians have to be people persons – it is who we are, part of our identity. God has given us our mission, and it is a people mission – "this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation." (2 Corinthians 5:18, 19) Our primary weapons system in our spiritual battle is God's word which is the sword of truth (God's word; God Sword; GODSWORD) (Ephesians 6:17) However, God's word cuts to heal, to bring peace, hope, joy, and love. We testify to the truth in all situations, because only the truth brings reconciliation. As today's Proverbs say, "Whoever speaks the truth gives honest evidence, but a false witness utters deceit. Truthful lips endure forever, but a lying tongue is but for a moment. Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil, but those who plan peace have joy. No ill befalls the righteous, but the wicked are filled with trouble. Lying lips are an abomination to the Lord." (Proverbs 12:17-22) Christians cannot tolerate lies and flattery which promotes continued deceit and pain. However, administer truth with gracefulness, gentleness, patience, kindness, mercy, politeness, hopefulness, peacefulness, compassion, and love, always with the motive to bring others closer to God, not farther away. Our "weapon" of God's word is not used against people but rather against spiritual forces. In the Marine Corps, there is no such thing as an "accidental discharge" of a weapon, only a "negligent discharge," because as professionals, we understand that there is no excuse for carelessness with our weapons. Likewise, there is no excuse for a Christian to have a "negligent discharge" of the mouth. As Jesus said, "I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak." (Matthew 12:36) Likely, these are hard words for all of us, but we must listen carefully to our Master. Paul charged Timothy: "Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth." (2 Timothy 2:15) Do you administer the truth (and only the truth) in such a way that brings healing and gladness?

14. Proverbs 12:24, 27 -- The Bible continuously repeats God's expectation for us to work hard and avoid laziness.

15. 1 Thessalonians 2:3-6 -- "For our appeal does not spring from error or impurity or any attempt to deceive, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts. For we never came with words of flattery, as you know, nor with a pretext for greed—God is witness. Nor did we seek glory from people, whether from you or from others, though we could have made demands as apostles of Christ." We will be held accountable for how faithfully delivered the message, not for how it was received. Communicate to please God, not men.

16. 1 Thessalonians 2:4 -- "We have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts." Preach the Gospel in love and obedience to God; don't worry so much about how people respond. The Holy Spirit will use the word of God to convict hearts, not your clever packaging of God's word. You will never be able to convince or please those who are not convicted by the Holy Spirit to respond. Success for you is faithfulness to God, not how others respond to God – that is between them and God.

17. 1 Thessalonians 2:4 -- "So we speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts."

- Paul repeats a theme we have been reading all year: What matters more than words or deeds is the heart or motivation behind those words or deeds. People can even preach Jesus for the wrong reasons which usually results in preaching in the wrong way too. Concerning those false prophets, Jesus said, "You will recognize them by their fruits." (Matthew 7:16) Today, Paul describes the attributes of Christ-centered preaching: The Gospel is presented boldly, without flattery, not to please men or the crowd but rather to please God; it will cause conflict and result in suffering for the proclaimer. (1 Thessalonians 2:2-4) There are no hidden agendas, no personal interests, no desires for personal gain, no uncontrolled emotions, no personal opinions, no crafty arguments, no clever attention getters, no fog machines or light shows, no careless Scriptural interpretation, just the Gospel in its pure form. (1 Thessalonians 2:3-6) The Gospel message is not sugar-coated (hence the conflict and suffering), it starts with the word "repent," calls sin, sin, and ends with only one way for salvation: Jesus Christ. However, painful truth is not delivered callously or caustically but rather with love, compassion, gentleness, and affection as a loving mother would display to her infant. (1 Thessalonians 2:7, 8) Rebukes and corrections are always seasoned with encouragement, support, and modelled example. (1 Thessalonians 2:10-12) The person who proclaims Jesus from a genuine heart is ready to work day and night for the sake of the Kingdom, seeking nothing in return, and will display impeccable character and conduct. (1 Thessalonians 2:9, 10) When a truly godly person presents the word of God, it is evident that what is being heard is not "the word of men" but actually "the word of God." (1 Thessalonians 2:13) Nevertheless, the holy person will not be accepted by all. The faithful Christian is ready to be driven out and even killed that the lost might be saved. (1 Thessalonians 2:15) Even the faithful Christian can get caught up in human emotions and passions and can find themselves proclaiming Truth for the wrong reasons and in the wrong way. We must, above all else, guard our hearts and constantly examine our motives. One way to do that is to compare our emotions, words, and deeds to the attributes of love and to the fruits of the spirit (provided below; good memory verses). If we find ourselves drifting away from love and the Spirit in defense of the Gospel, we have identified a heart issue and are being deceived by the Evil One.

- 1 Corinthians 13:4-8 -- Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends.

- Galatians 5:22, 23 -- But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.

18. 1 Thessalonians 2:8 -- "So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were ready to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves." To share the Gospel, you must be ready to humbly serve those who treat you sinfully. You take up your cross when others mistreat you because of your testimony. When you behave badly and in return are treated badly, there is no reward in that.

19. 1 Thessalonians 2:9 -- "We worked night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God." Work diligently to be a burden to no one so that nothing would distract from the message of Jesus.

20. 1 Thessalonians 2:12 -- "We exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory." Proclaiming the truth includes both exhortation and encouragement, challenging people in a positive way to turn to God.

21. 1 Thessalonians 2:13 -- "...when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers." The word of God is powerfully at work in you – does that excite you?

22. 1 Thessalonians 2:13 -- "And we also thank God constantly for this, that when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God." We don't proclaim man-made philosophies, good advice, self-help strategies, or current morality; we proclaim Jesus. Our words are not our own. Speak only God's word into every situation.

23. 1 Thessalonians 2:14 -- "For you suffered the same things from your own countrymen as they did from the Jews." If you are faithful to God's word, don't be surprised if you are persecuted by other 'Christians' who have established a comfortable compromise with the world. Your words will threaten their comfortable, compromised position.

24. 1 Thessalonians 2:20 -- "For you are our glory and joy." Your success in life is measured by the disciples you make. This is the Great Commission Jesus gave you. No other measures of success matter.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 12 July 18: Recommit your life to the sole mission of fulfilling the Great Commission – "And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'" (1 Thessalonians 2)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 11 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 17:3 -- "The Lord was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the earlier ways of his father David. He did not seek the Baals, but sought the God of his father and walked in his commandments, and not according to the practices of Israel." Jehoshaphat did not compromise like everyone else did. Therefore, God honored Him. The Israelites worshiped God, but not wholeheartedly. Many in churches today try to serve God and also substitutes for God. Will you be like Jehoshaphat?

2. 2 Chronicles 17:6 -- "His heart was courageous in the ways of the Lord." It takes courage to follow the ways of God, mostly moral courage to stand out against popular opinion and social morality.

3. 2 Chronicles 17:7, 9 -- "In the third year of his reign he sent his officials, Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nathaniel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.... And they taught in Judah, having the Book of the Law of the Lord with them. They went about through all the cities of Judah and taught among the people." Jehoshaphat had a plan to make disciples of all the people. Jehoshaphat's national security strategy was to ensure the entire nation was educated in the Book of the Law.

4. 2 Chronicles 17:10 -- "And the fear of the Lord fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, and they made no war against Jehoshaphat." Because of Jehoshaphat's faithfulness, God made his enemies live at peace with them.

5. 2 Chronicles 17:11 -- "Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents." The Bible says, "When a man's ways please the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him." Jehoshaphat trust God at His word, and God proved Himself faithful.

6. 2 Chronicles 18:1 -- "Now Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor, and he made a marriage alliance with Ahab." Jehoshaphat makes a big mistake: The Bible says that His people are not to be unequally yoked and partner with the world. Jehoshaphat gets himself entangled in ungodly affairs for sake of friendship. You cannot befriend the ungodly and remain faithful to God.

7. 2 Chronicles 18:5 -- "The king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, 'Shall we go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I refrain?' And they said, 'Go up, for God will give it into the hand of the king.'" The church has always been tempted to compromise God's word to please government. Here all but one prophet had become false prophets. Where do you stand when the majority of God's people agree with sinful policy?

8. 2 Chronicles 18:6 -- But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here another prophet of the LORD of whom we may inquire?" Ahab surrounded himself with religious leaders who said what he wanted to hear. All agreed and claimed to speak on behalf of God. Perhaps the most unattended church in your community is really the most successful in the eyes of God.

9. 2 Chronicles 18:13 -- "But Micaiah said, 'As the Lord lives, what my God says, that I will speak.'" Micaiah was hated and ostracized because he refused to speak anything but the word of God. Are you a Micaiah? Are you willing to boldly proclaim what no one, including other church goers, want to hear?

10. 2 Chronicles 18:26 -- "Thus says the king, 'Put this fellow in prison and feed him with meager rations of bread and water until I return in peace.'"

- God did not keep Micaiah from prison but did vindicate him in the end.

- Your measure of success is not how people respond to your message but rather how faithful you are as Christ's Ambassador.

11. 2 Chronicles 18:29 -- "And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your robes.' And the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle." Man can do nothing to thwart God's plan.

12. 2 Chronicles 18:33 -- "But a certain man drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate." God's activity seems random to those who do not have Holy Spirit vision. Nothing is random with God. God uses all circumstances to accomplish His will.

13. Proverbs 11:1 -- "A false balance is an abomination to the Lord, but a just weight is his delight." We don't take dishonesty as seriously as God does. "Abomination" is a very strong word.

14. Proverbs 11:2 -- "When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with the humble is wisdom." It takes humility to turn to God. Many people are stuck in pride though.

15. Proverbs 11:4 -- "Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death." Riches won't help you stand before God. Compare Proverbs 11:4 with Matthew 16:26 -- "For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul?"

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

16. Proverbs 11:9 – “With his mouth the godless man would destroy his neighbor, but by knowledge the righteous are delivered.” Advice from the ungodly will only destroy you. Seek the counsel of someone close to Jesus. (see also vs. 11 and 14)

17. Proverbs 11:16 – “A gracious woman gets honor, and violent men get riches.” Wealth is empty without respect.

18. Proverbs 11:20 – “Those of crooked heart are an abomination to the Lord, but those of blameless ways are his delight.” Behavior reflects the heart.

19. Proverbs 11:24-26 – “One gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want. Whoever brings blessing will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered. The people curse him who holds back grain, but a blessing is on the head of him who sells it.” Again, you can expect God to treat you how you treat others. (see also v. 31)

20. Proverbs 11:28 – “Whoever trusts in his riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf.” Riches are not security. Fidelity to God is.

21. 1 Thessalonians 1: 4-7 -- “For we know, brothers loved by God, that he has chosen you, because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction.... you received the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.”

- John the Baptist, Jesus, Peter, and Paul both began their preaching with the following word: “Repent.” (see. Matthew 3:12; Matthew 4:17; Acts 2:38; Acts 26:20). They all also spoke of the need to “perform deeds [or “bear fruit”] in keeping with repentance.” Of course, this message was not received by the “scoffers.” Proverbs talk about these scoffers, warning us not to “correct” or “reprove” a scoffer but rather to save our reproof for wise people (scoffers are not wise) who will accept it. So, what does it mean to be a scoffer? This is not a word we use much today. Other Bible versions use the words “scorner” or “mockers.” We know from other passages that scoffers “delight in their scoffing” and are compared to fools who “hate knowledge.” (Proverbs 1:22) A scoffer won’t listen to a rebuke, and “seeks wisdom in vain,” and refuses to “go to the wise.” (Proverbs 13:1, Proverbs 14:6; Proverbs

15:12) The Bible says that the scoffer is the root cause of “strife... quarrelling... and abuse,” and they have the power to “set a city aflame.” (Proverbs 22:10; Proverbs 29:8) “Scoffer” is the name of the arrogant, haughty man who acts with arrogant pride,” a person motivated by “their own ungodly passions.” (Proverbs 21:24; Jude 1:18) “The scoffer is an abomination to mankind.... Condemnation is ready for scoffers.” (Proverbs 24:9; Proverbs 19:29) So, the Bible warns us about preaching to scoffers, but how do you know if you are dealing with a scoffer? Paul reminds us today that it is God who convicts a person’s heart, not us. If God is working on someone’s heart, they will respond to the Gospel with humility, and repentance. If God has not “chosen” them, they will not respond and will take great offense to those words “repent,” “confess,” and especially “Jesus Christ.” Interestingly, Paul, though very religious, was a leader among the scoffers.” He not only took offense to the Gospel, he persecuted the scoffers with great enthusiasm. It wasn’t until Jesus “chose” him that everything changed and that he listened to God’s people – “You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide.” (John 15:16) I do not understand how this works, but I can relate with it from my own salvation experience. However, I don’t think we can perfectly discern who God is working on, so I actually think the Bible is warning us that we just need to be as discerning as possible and to be prepared to take a beating for sake of the Gospel of Jesus. At one point, Jesus tells the disciples that, "if anyone will not receive you or listen to your words, shake of the dust from your feet when you leave that house or town" (Matthew 10:14) However, we are also told to proclaim the Gospel to the "the whole creation." (Mark 16:15) The Bible is full of martyrs (persecuted witnesses), and I believe that God does use people like Stephen to convict the hearts of people like Saul (Paul). Sometimes we will preach "in season," and sometimes "out of season." (2 Timothy 4:2) I think we should seek to be led by the Holy Spirit in this, trusting not on our own understanding, and focusing our very limited time on where we believe the Father is already working -- "My Father is working until now, and I am working.... Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will." (John 5:17-21)

22. 1 Thessalonians 1:5 -- "...because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake." A person cannot receive God's word without the empowerment of the Holy Spirit.

23. 1 Thessalonians 1:6 -- "You received the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit." Those who have truly received God's word will joyfully work to exemplify the character of Christ in their actions.

24. 1 Thessalonians 1:8 -- "Your faith in God has gone forth everywhere, so that we need not say anything." Actions speak louder than words. We are called to verbally proclaim Jesus to everyone, but our behavior will validate our words and reveal the truth of the power of Jesus in the lives of sinners. Your faith will be evident to others by the way you live. Ralph Waldo Emerson - "What you do, speaks so loudly, I cannot hear what you say."

25. 1 Thessalonians 1:10 -- "...and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come." Wrath is coming. This is a critical part of our message.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 11 July 18: Today, consider what people voluntarily say about you and how they describe you. Have you developed a reputation within your community of being like Jesus? Resolve today to imitate Christ more and more, glorifying Him through not just your words but also your deeds. Proclaim Christ whenever you have the opportunity, but let your behavior speak about you. (1 Thessalonians 1:7, 8)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+chron+15%2C+16%3B+proverbs+10%3B+col+4>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 10 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 15:1 -- "The Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded," Go out with the Spirit of God as your guide.

2. 2 Chronicles 15:2 -- "The Lord is with you while you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will forsake you."

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- The LORD is with you while you are with Him. Do not forsake Him. God will not support your unfaithfulness and sin. If you want to make your own choices apart from Him, He will let you, and He will let you suffer the consequences of those choices.

3. 2 Chronicles 15:3, 4 – “For a long time Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest and without law, but when in their distress they turned to the Lord, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them.” Don’t turn to God only in distress.

4. 2 Chronicles 15:3-6 – “In those times there was no peace to him who went out or to him who came in, for great disturbances afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands. They were broken in pieces. Nation was crushed by nation and city by city, for God troubled them with every sort of distress.” When a person or a nation turns from God, there is lawlessness and inevitable suffering.

5. 2 Chronicles 15:7 – “But you, take courage! Do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded.” The true definition of courage is faith in the LORD, one day at a time.

6. 2 Chronicles 15:8 – “As soon as Asa heard these words, the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded, he took courage and put away the detestable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities that he had taken in the hill country of Ephraim, and he repaired the altar of the Lord that was in front of the vestibule of the house of the Lord.” One of the key steps of courage is removing wickedness and compromise from your midst and truly worshipping God with your every deed.

7. 2 Chronicles 15:9-15 -- A true Christian leader leads those around him/her to repentance, worship, and obedience.

8. 2 Chronicles 15:16 -- “Even Maacah, his mother, King Asa removed from being queen mother because she had made a detestable image for Asherah. Asa cut down her image, crushed it, and burned it at the brook Kidron.” Sometimes people have to choose fidelity to God over fidelity to family. Sometimes Christians have to reject the ungodly teachings and examples of their parents. Though the Bible commands us to respect our parents as well as the authority of government, God comes first.

9. 2 Chronicles 15:16 – A true Christian leader may even lead seniors to repentance, worship, and obedience.

10. 2 Chronicles 15:17 -- “Nevertheless, the heart of Asa was wholly true all his days.” Few people are described in the Bible as wholehearted. Do you serve God with a true heart? In repentance, be very careful to make your repentance complete and total.

11. 2 Chronicles 16:2-6 – “Then Asa took silver and gold from the treasures of the house of the Lord and the king’s house and sent them to Ben-hadad king of Syria....” Don’t rob God to appease men. Financial debt to ungodly institutions takes resources from Kingdom and gives them to the kingdoms of men.

12. 2 Chronicles 16:7-9 -- “Because you relied on the king of Syria, and did not rely on the Lord your God, the army of the king of Syria has escaped you....” You have no idea what you are giving up when you compromise your fidelity to God. God wants so much more from you that you cannot see with your own wisdom.

13. 2 Chronicles 16:9 -- “For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to give strong support to those whose heart is blameless toward him. You have done foolishly in this, for from now on you will have wars.” When you turn to substitutes for God to solve your problems, you will always suffer greatly. Trust in the Lord, not your own understanding, with all of your heart, and He will take care of you.

14. 2 Chronicles 16:10 -- “Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in the stocks in prison, for he was in a rage with him because of this. And Asa inflicted cruelties upon some of the people at the same time.” People tend to blame the God’s messengers for the truth, but the messengers are accountable to God for delivery of the message. God’s messengers are often persecuted by the rebellious for delivering God’s message. Jesus warned that His disciples would be persecuted by those who reject Him.

15. 2 Chronicles 16:12 -- “Yet even in his disease he did not seek the Lord, but sought help from physicians.” Asa did not finish well. Don’t lose the race on the final lap. Resolve to make your last day your best day.

16. Proverbs 10 – The word “lips” is used five times in this chapter, the word “mouth” is used six times, and the word “tongue” is used twice – what comes out of your mouth reveals your character and the condition of your heart. Words can build up or destroy. Pay close attention to what is coming out of your mouth and what your words say about your heart.

17. Proverbs 10:5 – “He who gathers in summer is a prudent son, but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who brings shame.” Prepare for hard times during easy times.

18. Proverbs 10:23 – “Doing wrong is like a joke to a fool, but wisdom is pleasure to a man of understanding.” Sinners joke about the sin that God abhors.

19. Colossians 4:1 – “Masters, treat your bondservants justly and fairly, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.”

- God expects you to treat others the way you want to be treated by Him (See Proverbs 11:24-26).

- The way we treat others reveals what we really believe about God and how much we truly value our salvation. Jesus said that love comes most from those who feel most forgiven. (Luke 7:47) Jesus also said that grace received demands grace given – “For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.” (Matthew 6:14, 15) When we truly understand the magnitude of the mercy, grace, and love we have received from God at the tremendous price of His Son, it becomes inconceivable for us to offer anything but the same to others. If we are demanding to receive justice from others, we have lost sight of our own guiltiness that was covered over with the blood of the Savior. When we treat others poorly, it is a clear sign that Jesus is not big enough (glorified) in our lives. When Jesus was asked what the greatest commandment was, he actually responded with, not one commandment but two: “He said to him, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.” (Matthew 22:37-40) Why two? Because they are inseparable – the second proves the first, and the second depends on the first. Your love for God is revealed most clearly through your relationships.

20. Colossians 4:2-4 – “Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison— that I may make it clear, which is how I ought to speak.” Prayer must be consistent and thankful. The focus of prayer is the Great Commission.

21. Colossians 4:3 – “At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison.” Is your main hope today that you might have the opportunity to share Jesus with others, and are you willing to suffer to do it?

22. Colossians 4:5, 6 – “Walk in wisdom toward outsiders, making the best use of the time. Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer each person.”

- It takes wisdom to know how to share the Gospel with outsiders, and the opportunities are fleeting. You must be prepared for the opportunity and present God’s word with grace.

- You are running out of time to appeal to the lost. Do you have an intense sense of urgency? How will that reveal itself today in your priorities?

23. Colossians 4:7 – “Tychicus will tell you all about my activities. He is a beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord.” Our friends should be faithful ministers and fellow servants. To whom do you give your priority time?

24. Colossians 4:8 – “I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are and that he may encourage your hearts...” Friends encourage one another on the journey of service to Christ.

25. Colossians 4:10-17 -- Friends in Christ work hard for one another and share the burden of hardships. We are united in one purpose: to fulfill God’s mission which He intends to fulfill not through many independent agents but rather through a body of believers who are one.

26. Colossians 4:12 – “Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers.” Epaphras continually “struggled” in prayer for other Christians. For whom do you pray that hard for?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 10 July 18: Struggle in prayer today for whomever God puts on your heart. Pray hard for them. Pray all day for them. Struggle. (Colossians 4:12)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 9 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 13:6 -- Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord....” To rebel against God's chosen workers is to rebel against God.

2. 2 Chronicles 13:8 -- “And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the Lord in the hand of the sons of David, because you are a great multitude and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made you for gods.” No number is sufficient to defeat God's plan.

3. 2 Chronicles 13:9 – “Have you not driven out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves like the peoples of other lands? Whoever comes for ordination with a young bull or seven rams becomes a priest of what are not gods.” God chooses His leaders; they are not chosen by powerful men.

4. 2 Chronicles 13:11 – “They offer to the Lord every morning and every evening burnt offerings and incense of sweet spices, set out the showbread on the table of pure gold, and care for the golden lampstand that its lamps may burn every evening. For we keep the charge of the Lord our God, but you have forsaken him.” God's true disciples are revealed by how they prioritize and emphasize worship.

5. 2 Chronicles 13:18 -- “The men of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the Lord, the God of their fathers.” With God on your side, nothing and nobody can defeat you. Nothing on earth can thwart God's plan for your life if you are willing to trust Him and obey Him. The faithful rely on God through seemingly impossible circumstances and are rewarded by God.

6. 2 Chronicles 13:20 – “Jeroboam did not recover his power in the days of Abijah. And the Lord struck him down, and he died.” God knows those who oppose Him and will judge them in His ways and His timing.

7. 2 Chronicles 13:20 -- God blesses your faith.

8. 2 Chronicles 13:22 – “The rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.” God's account of your life will focus on your relationship with Him and your fidelity to Him, not so much on your accomplishments.

9. 2 Chronicles 14:1-5 – “Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God. He took away the foreign altars and the high places and broke down the pillars and cut down the Asherim and commanded Judah to seek the Lord, the God of their fathers, and to keep the law and the commandment.” True leaders lead others to obey and seek the LORD.

10. 2 Chronicles 14:3-5 -- Faith leads away from substitutes for God and toward obedience to God.

11. 2 Chronicles 14:6 – “He built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest. He had no war in those years, for the Lord gave him peace.” Only the LORD can give you rest and peace.

12. 2 Chronicles 14:11-15 – “And Asa cried to the Lord his God, ‘O Lord, there is none like you to help, between the mighty and the weak. Help us, O Lord our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. O Lord, you are our God; let not man prevail against you.’ So the Lord defeated the Ethiopians....” God provides when His obedient people cry for help.

13. 2 Chronicles 14:18 -- “And Asa cried to the Lord his God, ‘O Lord, there is none like you to help, between the mighty and the weak. Help us, O Lord our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. O Lord, you are our God; let not man prevail against you.’” Again, when you are doing God's will and people oppose you, they are attempting to oppose God and have no chance. No one can thwart God's plan. Faith is not only trusting God, it is walking in the will of God and watching God work through His power to accomplish what you couldn't in your power.

14. Proverbs 9:6 – “Leave your simple ways, and live, and walk in the way of insight.” Jesus said that leaving the way of the world to follow Him would bring the fullness of joy in life. Are you still shortchanging your life in compromise with the world?

15. Proverbs 9:12 – “If you are wise, you are wise for yourself; if you scoff, you alone will bear it.” You are responsible for your own actions and their inevitable outcomes. Don’t blame someone else.

16. Proverbs 9:13 – “The woman Folly is loud; she is seductive and knows nothing.” Foolish people are loud and lustful.

17. Proverbs 9:17 -- “Stolen water is sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.” Don’t be deceived – there are no shortcuts in life, and you don’t get something for nothing. There is no way around obeying God and following Jesus to get to where you need to go.

18. Colossians 3:1 – “If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.” While everyone else is seeking worldly security and comfort, Christians are seeking to grow closer and closer to Jesus as their only priority.

19. Colossians 3:5 – “Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.” Idolatry is desiring what you shouldn’t, seeking fulfillment outside of God and His provision.

20. Colossians 3:5-15 – “Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.... put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another.... Put on then, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience.... forgiving each other.... put on love.... And be thankful.”

- Here is a practical test to see how well you are guarding your heart and growing in Christ. Which attributes are most apparent in your life? How consistent are you in those attributes? Have you “put to death” and “put away” the negative attributes, and have you “put on” the positive ones? Are you clothed in Christ?

- The more real God is in our lives, the less we care about the things that cause lust, hurt, and hate. God makes the pursuits of men meaningless. If we still desire what the world desires, we simply do not know God well enough.

21. Colossians 3:11 – “Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all.” Christians should never acknowledge, in positive or negative way, and man-made social stratifications such as race, ethnicity, or economic status, that have historically divided people. We must rise above this perspective to the perspective of God who only sees saved and unsaved.

22. Colossians 3:13 – “As the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.” Christians should be the perfect example of forgiveness as their whole hope for eternal life depends on undeserved complete forgiveness. God forgave you freely, even while you continued to sin. You have no choice but to forgive unconditionally. God expects us to forgive others in the same way He forgave us, taking the pain upon ourselves in selfless sacrifice for those who hurt us, responding only in perfect love, offering grace rather than demanding our rights, responding as a complete slave though we are mighty children of God.

23. Colossians 3:15 – “And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful.” We should be known for peacefulness, unity, and thankfulness.

24. Colossians 3:16 – “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.” We must learn the art of admonishing others in a positive, encouraging way.

25. Colossians 3:16, 17 – “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.” We must never forget that our sole mission in life is to preach and to teach God’s word, to make not just believers in Jesus but obedient disciples or followers of Jesus. We are not here to just be good people who spread good, moral ideas; we are here to be Ambassadors for Christ. We don’t point to morality, we point to the person of Jesus.

26. Colossians 3:17 – “And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.” We should publicly proclaim Jesus Christ in all that we do.

27. Colossians 3:18-21 – “Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and do not be harsh with them. Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord. Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged.” Households are schoolhouses for character development and spiritual growth. This is we learn how to love God by loving and serving others. How we treat our family is a primary act of worship and demonstrates how much we really love God. Parents teach their kids about God and how to love God by how they demonstrate love in the house.

28. Colossians 3:22 – “Bondservants, obey in everything those who are your earthly masters, not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord.”

- God always looks beyond actions to judge the heart behind those actions. God wants you to do what is right with a sincere heart, motivated solely by love for Him and for others, not motivated by fear, pride, greed, or even duty – only love.

- We are to serve those in authority over us as if they were God. We must treat those subordinate to us as Jesus would, as a servant.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 9 July 18: Use Colossians 3:5-15 today to see how well you are guarding your heart and growing in Christ. Be careful though not to assess yourself based solely upon what you say and do, rather look at the genuineness of your heart. Test your motivations to expose what isn’t love. (Colossians 3)

DBRP - WEEK 27, Day 7, Sunday, 8 July 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+CHRON+11%2C+12%3B+PRO+8%3B+psalm+77%2C+78>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 8 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 11:1-4 -- Since God's thoughts are far removed from our thoughts, He will, if we are listening, tell us to do many things that are contrary to our will and to our wisdom. We must be careful to heed the word of God and not be tempted to merely do what seems right to us.

2. 2 Chronicles 11:4 -- "Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up or fight against your relatives. Return every man to his home, for this thing is from me.' So they listened to the word of the LORD and returned and did not go against Jeroboam." God desires peace in families not strife.

3. 2 Chronicles 11:14, 15 -- "Jeroboam and his sons cast them [the Levites] out from serving as priests of the LORD, and he appointed his own priests for the high places."

- Ungodly leaders will seek to shut up or eliminate godly priests and preachers and replace them with preachers who will proclaim what they want to hear.

- Notice that when a nation rejects God it will no longer tolerate sound doctrine; it is replaced with religion that is acceptable to the unfaithful, religion the seeks to legitimize sin. These are hard times for the faithful. Paul had this to say to Timothy: "Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. As for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry." (2 Timothy 4:2-5) Conversely, when a nation accepts the teachings of God, the people of God are treated well and the nation is strengthened. Regardless the choice of a nation, regardless the cost, God's people must remain faithful to the KING.

4. 2 Chronicles 11:16 -- "And those who had set their hearts to seek the Lord God of Israel came...." You may have to leave everything behind and lose everything to remain faithful to the LORD, to go where He wants you to go, and to do what He wants you to do. You shouldn't be surprised when many 'religious' around you refuse to make that sort of committed sacrifice. Most choose comfort over fidelity and justify it through clever lies, often religious lies. (2 Chronicles 11:13-17)

5. 2 Chronicles 11:16, 17 -- "And those who had set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came... to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD, the God of their fathers. They strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and for three years they made Rehoboam the son of Solomon secure, for they walked for three years in the way of David and Solomon." Godly people strengthen a nation. Nations are blessed through the influence of godly people.

6. 2 Chronicles 12:1 -- "When the rule of Rehoboam was established and he was strong, he abandoned the law of the Lord, and all Israel with him." When the faithful were forced to leave Israel, Israel went into great depravity.

7. 2 Chronicles 12:2 -- "In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem." Again, God uses ungodly nations to punish his unfaithful people.

8. 2 Chronicles 12:7-8 -- "When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah: 'They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance.... Nevertheless, they shall be servants to him, that they may know my service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.” God responds to genuine repentance but may not completely remove the consequences of your sin. It is hard for us to see how God is using pain to chisel away the unwanted sinfulness in our hearts to reveal the masterpiece He is creating us to be. Beautiful rose bushes must be pruned, pure silver must be put through the fire, and our hearts must be refined through adversity. Romans 8:28 reminds us that, in Jesus, there are no bad circumstances, only good.

9. 2 Chronicles 12:14 -- "And he did evil, for he did not set his heart to seek the LORD."

- You must set your heart to seek The Lord or you will inevitably do evil. If the earnest desire of your heart is not the LORD, perfect unity to Jesus, you will fail to accomplish your life's purpose.

- In one generation after Solomon, the kingdom was forever divided. Chronicles records that "Those from every tribe of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD, the God of Israel, followed the Levites to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices to the LORD, the God of their fathers. They strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam son of Solomon three years, walking in the ways of David and Solomon during this time." (2 Chron 11:16,17) However, by the 5th year of Rehoboam's reign, "he and all Israel with him abandoned the law of the LORD." (2 Chronicles 12:1) Rehoboam's goal was not to establish a kingdom for God but rather a kingdom for himself (11:1), and "he did evil because he had not set his heart on seeking the LORD." Today's readings from Psalms point out that God had commanded fathers throughout the generations to impress upon their children the vitality of fidelity to the Lord that "they would put their trust in God and would not forget his deeds but would keep his commands." (Psa 78:7). 1 Kings 2 records that David charged Solomon to "be strong, show yourself a man, and observe what the Lord your God requires: Walk in his ways, and keep his decrees and commands, his laws and requirements, as written in the Law of Moses." However, 1 Kings 11 records that "The Lord became angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the Lord, [and] Solomon did not keep the Lord's command." Tragically, the Bible does not record a charge from Solomon to Rehoboam to set his heart on seeking the Lord and to remain faithful.

10. Proverbs 8:1 – "Does not wisdom call? Does not understanding raise her voice?" Wisdom is obvious to those willing to open their eyes.

11. Proverbs 8:13 – "The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate." Do you hate evil, pride, arrogance and perverted speech? You don't really love God if you don't hate evil.

12. Proverbs 8:22 -- "The Lord possessed me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old." God is the source of all wisdom, and all of His Creation functions are based upon His wisdom, the closer you draw to God, the more in synch you become with universal truth and the more effective your whole life becomes. You cannot get true wisdom apart from Jesus who is the "Word", or "Logos" or "Eternal Logic" (see John 1)

13. Proverbs 8:35 – "For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the Lord." Jesus said, "I am The Way, The Truth, and The Life; no one comes to the Father but through me. You must decide for yourself whether He was a liar, lunatic or The Lord.

14. Psalm 77:11 -- "I will remember the deeds of the Lord; yes, I will remember your wonders of old." In times of trouble and doubt, it is good to remember what God has done for His people and for you in life; count your many blessings. When you begin to doubt God's faithfulness, remember His perfect record of love and faithfulness. God is always good, loving, and faithful.

15. Psalm 78:4 – “We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.” God expects you to tell your children (or children you know) all that you have seen God do in your lifetime as a witness to His glory.

16. Psalm 78:5-7 -- "Teach... children that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children, so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments." God expects parents to teach their children to trust and obey God. Jesus said that our mission on earth was to make disciples (not just believers). Your first responsibility of discipleship is within your own family.

17. Psalm 78:7 -- “...so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;” Believers believe Jesus is the Son of God, but disciples don’t just believe, they follow and obey Jesus, dedicating all of their lives to Jesus. Jesus has appointed us to make disciples who obey – “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.” (Matthew 28:19, 20)

18. Psalm 78:11 – “They forgot his works and the wonders that he had shown them.” Forgetting what God has done leads you to depart from Him.

19. Psalm 78:20 – “He struck the rock so that water gushed out and streams overflowed. Can he also give bread or provide meat for his people?” You selfishly depart from God when you selfishly want more than He provides or when you don’t wait patiently and confidently for Him to provide.

20. Psalm 78:34-37 -- "When he killed them, they sought him; they repented and sought God earnestly.... But they flattered him with their mouths; they lied to him with their tongues. Their heart was not steadfast toward him; they were not faithful to his covenant." Many people obey God only out of fear or hope for reward, but God demands obedience motivated by love. God knows the difference between selfishly motivated worship and unselfish worship and service. Outwardly, they may look the same to other people, but God judges the heart behind the deeds. God is not fooled like people are.

21. Psalm 78:52 – “Then he led out his people like sheep and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.” God is the Good Shepherd. (see Psalm 23; John 10)

22. Psalm 78:67-68 -- He rejected the tent of Joseph; he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim, but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loves.” God judges once faithful people no longer useful to His mission. Past fidelity does not make up for today’s infidelity. It is today that matters, and it is not how you start that matters by how you finish the race.

23. Psalm 78:72 -- "With upright heart he shepherded them and guided them with his skillful hand." Good leaders require both character and competence. They must be both ethical (by God’s definition) and good at what they do. Many leaders are talented, with large personalities, but lack integrity. High competency often overshadows bad character in the eyes of the public, with unfortunate consequences.

24. Psalm 78 -- God's history of discipline within your family and your church should teach you the futility of sin and rebellion.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 8 July 18: Today, "set your heart" or resolve to seek The Lord, not just to be a "good person", to pursue the person of Jesus Christ as your life goal. (2 Chronicles 12:15)

DBRP - WEEK 27, Day 6, Saturday, 7 July 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 7 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 9:1-4 – "...There was nothing hidden from Solomon that he could not explain to her...." Solomon had everything, and seemed to know everything, but this was not enough in his life to give him peace and security. Character is not riches, fame, reputation, or even knowledge. Character is based upon what is truly in your heart, your relationship with God. God gave Solomon wisdom and riches, but Solomon had to choose to put God first in his life.

2. 2 Chronicles 9:8 -- "Because your God loved Israel and would establish them forever, he has made you king over them, that you may execute justice and righteousness." God establishes earthly kings for His purposes. Godly kings execute justice and righteousness due to their relationship with God who is justice and righteousness. God often blesses nations with godly kings and curses nations with ungodly kings. The fate of elections is in God's hands, and God will give to a nation according to His blessings and disciplines. The hope for America is repentance and revival.

3. 2 Chronicles 9 -- People often think that with more resources, opportunities, or intelligence, their life would be better. However, Solomon had everything, nothing was spared him by God, and he would end up destroying the kingdom and ending his life in regret. The secret to life is nothing but relationship with God.

4. 2 Chronicles 10:1-15 -- You need to choose very carefully the people from whom you take advice. If they are not seeking to advise you from their understanding of God's word, they will mislead you.

5. 2 Chronicles 10:8, 14 – "But he abandoned the counsel that the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him.... And the king answered them harshly; and forsaking the counsel of the old men, King Rehoboam spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men." How important is it to listen to wise counsel who will not just tell you what you want to hear or attempt to appeal to your ego and pride? At a critical time for the kingdom of Israel, King Rehoboam chose poor counsel, thereby decimating the kingdom. Where do you seek advice for tough decisions? Psalm 1:1, 2 says, "Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night." Your primary counsel should be from the Holy Spirit through God's word. Will you delight in God's word and meditate upon it all day and night?

6. 2 Chronicles 10:15 -- "So the king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn of affairs brought about by God that the Lord might fulfill his word, which he spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat." The Bible assumes the reader knows what happened in 1 Kings 11. Bible study requires a careful study of the whole Bible. None of it stands alone. Many are in Bible interpretation because they only lightly study and take verses out of the context of the entirety of God's word. Hence, the importance of systematic Bible reading programs such as this.

7. 2 Chronicles 10:15 – Again, God leads the hearts of men to accomplish His purposes which can include both blessings or curses depending upon the fidelity of those with whom He is dealing.

8. 2 Chronicles 10:19 – “So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.” God works through the rebellion and changes of government to accomplish His mission.

9. Proverbs 7:6, 7 -- For at the window of my house I have looked out through my lattice, and I have seen among the simple, I have perceived among the youths, a young man lacking sense....” Look and see God’s truth being revealed all around you in the lives of others.

10. Proverbs 7:11 – “She is loud and wayward; her feet do not stay at home....” The wicked are loud and lawless, true?

11. Proverbs 7:18 – “She is loud and wayward; her feet do not stay at home.” The wicked pursue pleasure in disobedience to God. They deceive themselves into thinking there are no consequences.

13. Psalm 76:1 – “In Judah God is known; his name is great in Israel.” Nations are great when God is known by the people and respected by the people as God.

14. Psalm 76:1, 11 – “In Judah God is known; his name is great in Israel.... Make your vows to the Lord your God and perform them; let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared.”

- Asaph’s Psalm explains where God is truly “known” He is truly worshipped, feared, and obeyed. When speaking to the Pharisees who pursued obedience and religion motivated by pride and self-righteousness, Jesus reiterated this truth -- you must not be like the hypocrites [actors]. For they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.... Pray then like this: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.” (Matthew 6:5, 9, 10) Strong’s Hebrew and Greek Dictionary says that “hallowed” means to “mentally venerate,” and venerate means to revere, adore, esteem, honor or worship. When God is truly hallowed, and honored as KING in the heart, genuine worship and acceptable obedience is the result. Today we read that the Queen of Sheba visited Solomon and said this, “The report was true that I heard in my own land of your words and of your wisdom, but I did not believe the reports until I came and my own eyes had seen it. And behold, half the greatness of your wisdom was not told me; you surpass the report that I heard.” (2 Chronicles 9:5, 6) Her experience with Solomon seems like a great example for the Christian life. Hearing about Jesus and believing enough to go to him is the first step – “So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.” (Romans 10:17; Galatians 3:5) However, our faith blossoms when hearing transitions to experiencing. We are not witnesses to what we have heard, nor witnesses to a philosophy or religion. We are witnesses to what we have seen and experienced first-hand; and we are witnesses to who we know personally and genuinely. It is the reality of Christ within us that produces fruit and works which will not be destroyed (see 1 Corinthians 3:12). When the queen of Sheba experienced first-hand the truth of Solomon, then she offered him many gifts with a heart similar to what Asaph describes in today’s Psalm – “let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared.” In response to the queen’s honoring of him, Solomon “gave to the queen of Sheba all that she desired, whatever she asked.” Consider how Solomon’s response to Sheba compares to the words of Jesus referenced yesterday from

John 15: "Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.... If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples." Let it be said "In [your heart] God is known; His name is great in [your heart]." John 15:11 -- "These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full."

15. Psalm 76:11-12 -- "Make your vows to the Lord your God and perform them; let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared, who cuts off the spirit of princes, who is to be feared by the kings of the earth." The nation who obeys God is the nation God blesses. Again, our only hope for America is repentance and revival.

15. Psalm 76:11, 12 -- When you must choose between your loyalty to God or government, always remain loyal to God.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 7 July 18: Pray for repentance and revival. Repentance and revival must occur in God's church. (See today's notes above)

DBRP - WEEK 27, Day 5, Friday, 6 July 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 6 July 17:

1. 2 Chronicles 7:1 – "As soon as Solomon finished his prayer, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the temple." God responds to prayer.

2. 2 Chronicles 7:14 -- "If my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land." The sins of God's people affect the land as does repentance. God has provided us with the prescription to heal our nation

3. 2 Chronicles 7:22 -- "Then they will say, 'Because they abandoned the Lord, the God of their fathers who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods and worshiped them and served them. Therefore he has brought all this disaster on them.'" God deals with you in a way that both reveals His character to you but also glorifies Himself before a watching world. God will glorify Himself to the world through your life either through positive example or negative example. God will not be mocked. God punishes even those He has saved through grace. A loving Father disciplines His children. Better for the children though to simply obey.

4. 2 Chronicles 8:11 -- "Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house that he had built for her, for he said, 'My wife shall not live in the house of David king of Israel, for the places to which the ark of the Lord has come are holy.'"

- God's people can't live a double life, attempting to partner with both the unholy and the holy. Solomon's divided loyalties caused a divided family and would lead to a divided nation.

- Solomon married a woman who could not completely share in his worship of the LORD. You cannot be truly "one" in marriage with different levels of fidelity to the One True God. Marriage should be a mutually supportive, interdependent discipleship partnership.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- This verse causes me to question the things that I allow in my life that are not presentable to the Lord. God's holy people cannot be joined with that which is unholy.

5. Proverbs 6:6-8 -- "Without having any chief, officer, or ruler, she prepares her bread in summer and gathers her food in harvest."

- A person must have the self-discipline to work hard every day to invest in the future without daily reward and without the direction of others. Successful people don't need external motivators.

- God's blessings in your life depend on your self-discipline.

6. Proverbs 6:20 -- "My son, keep your father's commandment, and forsake not your mother's teaching." God's plan is for children to be raised by a godly mother and father.

7. Proverbs 6:30, 31 -- "People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his appetite when he is hungry, but if he is caught, he will pay sevenfold; he will give all the goods of his house." We must hold everyone accountable for their sins, even if we can understand the circumstances which led them to sin.

8. Colossians 2:2, 3 -- "...being knit together in love, to reach all the riches of full assurance of understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge."

- Our goal is not to live a good life; our goal is to be one with Jesus Christ and to "love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind." (Matthew 22:37) This distinction is critical to the Christian life. Many Christians make "righteousness" their idol, unwittingly replacing Christ for morality. However, apart from Christ, there is nothing at all. Solomon sought wisdom and was the wisest man that had ever lived, but as Solomon learned the hard way, wisdom is not to be our ultimate goal. If we aim in life to be wise or to live good lives, to be good people, we will neither obtain true wisdom or goodness, nor will we obtain the fullness of joy that comes from true union with Jesus Christ. If we rather seek to truly and fully "know" Jesus, to be "knit together" in love with Him, we will "reach all the riches" with "whom is hidden all the treasure of wisdom and knowledge." We are not trying to act like Jesus, we are becoming fully and truly one with Him -- a dead body now alive in Christ; a once empty vessel now filled with the Holy Spirit; not us working but Christ working through us. (Romans 15:18) The Bible says that Noah "walked with God," before the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, but notice that Paul says that "those who have received Christ Jesus the Lord," are not to just walk "with" Him but rather to "walk in Him, rooted and built up in him." (Colossians 2:6, 7) In union with Christ, our identity becomes nothing. This relationship has been described as a bottle in the ocean, not just full of water by also surround by vast water, engulfed. Paul said, "I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me." (Galatians 2:20) Our joy is not in the world and what happens to us; our fulfillment is not in what we achieve, what others think of us, or what we think of ourselves; our joy and fulfillment (filled fully) is Christ. Paul reminds us today, "For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in Him, who is the head of all rule and authority." (Colossians 2: 9, 10) You ARE the Temple of God. Doesn't that change everything? Yes, we are called throughout the Bible to be obedient, but not obedient in the pursuit of self-righteousness, obedient in pursuit of oneness; obedient out of love -- "If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.” (1 Corinthians 13:1-3) Love, faithfulness, and obedience are inseparable. We are incapable of any of those of ourselves – God is love, and it is only God in us, consuming us, that produces true goodness. Concerning the good people (even Christians) try to do from their own “righteousness,” Paul says, “These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh.” (Colossians 2:23) Die of self. Be one with Christ.

-- Philippians 2:5-8 -- Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

- Fully knowing God requires uncommon unity among God's people. You cannot fully know God alone. God did not design you that way, and you cannot fulfill God's top command for you of loving others by seeking Him alone. In Genesis, whenever God created on one of the six days, He gave His benediction, “This is good,” until His first malediction when man was alone -- “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him.” (Genesis 2:18) You were saved into a spiritual family of believers. God wants us to be so close as a body of believers that we can be described as being “knit together in love.”

-- John 17:11, 21-26 -- Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one.... just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me.... O righteous Father, even though the world does not know you, I know you, and these know that you have sent me. I made known to them your name, and I will continue to make it known, that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.

-- John 15 -- 1, 4, 5, 7-17 -- I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.... Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.... If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another.

9. Colossians 2:6 -- "Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him." You can fully receive Christ without "walk[ing] in Him." How does that truth change your approach to today and every day?

10. Colossians 2:8 -- "See to it that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ."

- The philosophies and traditions of the world are captivating and deceptive; in Christ we have no need of them. The wisdom of man is foolishness in the eyes of God, and, in fact, powerless. Christ is our Head, and the Holy Spirit our Counselor. Those who are of the Kingdom of God should not attempt to live by the principles of the world, though some try to blend God's ways with worldly ways – impossible! In today's OT readings we see that Solomon made this mistake: "Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the City of David to the palace he had built for her for he said, 'My wife must not live in the palace of David king of Israel, because the places the ark for the Lord has entered are holy.'" (2 Chronicles 8:11) It was common practice in Solomon's time to marry into the families of neighboring kings in order to promote peace between nations. To most, Solomon's decision would have appeared very wise. However, in so doing, Solomon compromised with the ungodly and attempted to compartmentalize his faith. Too often, God's people attempt to compromise with the world in order to "keep the peace," and to receive some of the apparent benefits of the world. However, this infidelity always leads to sorrow of some sort. Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Anything else is a lie and destroys. Paul points out that the philosophies and traditions of the world have "an appearance of wisdom" but they are actually worthless.

-- 1 Corinthians 1:18-31 -- "For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written 'I will destroy the wisdom of the wise; the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate.' Where is the wise man? Where is the scholar? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe.... Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength. Brothers, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him. It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption. Therefore, as it is written: 'Let him who boasts boast in the Lord.'"

11. Colossians 2:13 – "And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses...." Your sins of which you have repented are forgiven – rejoice and live accordingly.

12. Colossians 2:23 -- "These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh." Religious practices designed to control the flesh cannot do the work of the Spirit and change the heart's desire for sin. Self-control is a fruit of the Spirit. Only through truly knowing Jesus can one overcome the desires of the flesh. The Bible, even in the New Testament, calls us to obedience, purity, and holiness, but the pursuit begins and ends with the pursuit of Jesus, seeking Him in truth. Love for Jesus inspires a desire for obedience that rules, regulations, and rituals can't.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 6 July 18: Today, meditate upon the product of your obedience to God and your disobedience to God. How much of both has been based upon your level of will power and inner personal strength rather than your genuine love for Jesus? Is your obedience truly motivated by genuine love or something else such as self-justification, pride, fear etc? Doesn't your disobedience reveal a heart problem rather than a head problem or physical control problem? Seek a closer relationship to Jesus to deal with your disobedience problem. (Colossians 2)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 5 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 6:4-11 -- God fulfills His promises generationally as he expects family to work together for His purposes for many generations. He expects mothers and fathers to build legacy for their children's children's children. How parents plan for many generations today?
2. 2 Chronicles 6:16 -- "Now therefore, O Lord, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father what you have promised him, saying, 'You shall not lack a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons pay close attention to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.'" God's tangible promise to Israel was conditional.
3. 2 Chronicles 6:18 -- "But will God indeed dwell with man on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you, how much less this house that I have built!" God does not live in a building and is not contained in any way. God didn't need a temple, but the people did, a place to unite in worship, a place of remembrance, ministry, fellowship, and sanctuary.
4. 2 Chronicles 6:24 -- "If your people Israel are defeated before the enemy because they have sinned against you, and they turn again and acknowledge your name and pray and plead with you in this house." God uses defeat in battle to punish a sinful nation. Repentance and prayer are what a sinful nation requires.
5. 2 Chronicles 6:26-30 -- "When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, if they pray toward this place and acknowledge your name and turn from their sin, when you afflict them, then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk, and grant rain upon your land, which you have given to your people as an inheritance." God uses natural conditions and disasters to punish a sinful nation. Repentance and prayer are what a nation requires.
6. 2 Chronicles 6:30 -- "...then hear from heaven your dwelling place and forgive and render to each whose heart you know, according to all his ways, for you, you only, know the hearts of the children of mankind...." God hears the prayers of a truly repentant nation. Also, register in your mind, once again, the fact that only God knows the true heart of a person – you cannot know or judge the heart of a person; you can only judge the actions of a person from the standard of God's word. Be very careful not to play the role of God by judging beyond actions. You will encounter people who do the "right" things with the wrong motives, and you will encounter people who do the wrong things out of immaturity but who are under the conviction of the Holy Spirit – God is doing things in their lives you cannot perceive. Too often, “mature” Christians pridefully and ungraciously treat immature Christians too harshly as a parent who expects the eight-year-old to act like the twenty-eight-year-old. As a result, they exacerbate and discourage the young one. In so doing, these prideful, puffed-up Christians also reveal the immature condition of their own hearts. All children must be rebuked at times, but in different ways. Jesus harshly rebuked the Pharisees (who claimed to have great knowledge and righteousness), but He was gentle with others whose outward behavior was worse than that of the Pharisees but who lacked understanding and were open to the truth of God. Jesus did not excuse or accept any sin, but handled sinners differently. We are all called to be “salt and light,” but too much light is unbearable, and too much salt is distasteful; wisdom knows how to rightly apply salt and light to others in a way that is edifying.

- Romans 12:3 -- For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.

- 1 Corinthians 8:1 -- This “knowledge” puffs up, but love builds up.

- Romans 14:4 -- Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

7. 2 Chronicles 6:34 -- “If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to you toward this city that you have chosen and the house that I have built for your name....” The greatest weapon in any battle or struggle is prayer. Victory in all situations rests in the hands of the LORD.

8. 2 Chronicles 6:39-36 -- “If they sin against you—for there is no one who does not sin—and you are angry with them... yet if they turn their heart... and repent and plead with you... if they repent with all their mind and with all their heart... and pray toward their land, which you gave to their fathers... then hear... and maintain their cause and forgive your people who have sinned against you.” Though all people sin, God is nonetheless angered by sin and will hold all sinners accountable. However, he responds to genuine repentance and forgives. The truly repentant would not think of continuing in known sin.

9. Proverbs 5:8 -- “...do not go near the door of her house.” We must choose to stay very far from all sin. Sin is nothing to take lightly and nothing to play with. I am not sure how it is possible to maintain this principle and watch TV today.

10. Proverb 5:14 -- “I am at the brink of utter ruin in the assembled congregation.” You reap what you sow in life. Eventually, the product of the life you have chosen will be evident to all.

[Note: See this overview of Colossians -- <https://youtu.be/pXTXIDxQsvc>]

11. Colossians 1:1 -- “Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother....” You are a follower of Christ because He willed it, and He does not intend for you to go it alone. You were saved into a Spiritual family, into a body, as just one stone of a temple, intended to be united and in perfect position with the other stones of the temple.

12. Colossians 1:4 -- "We heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints." Love is an act of faith. Faithful Christians are known by their love. Word will get around if you are an effective Christian.

13. Colossians 1:5-6 -- "the word of the truth, the gospel... has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and increasing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth." The word of God should bear fruit in your heart, driving you to greater and greater love.

14. Colossians 1:9 – "And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding...." Love comes only from the Holy Spirit; we do not create love, we can only transmit love coming from the Source through us. God is love. Without God, there is no real love. It is only our unity with the Holy Spirit that enables us to Truly love. Only as the vines are connected to the Branch can there be love. Anything that does not draw a person closer to the Way, the Truth, and the Life, is ultimately unloving.

15. Colossians 1:9-12 -- "Be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light." Wisdom comes from the knowledge of God and is revealed by your behavior. Some of the attributes of a true Christian are endurance, patience, joy, and thankfulness. Is that how others describe you?

16. Colossians 1:10: God expects us to "walk in a manner worthy of Him" as each day we seek to please Him more and more and grow in our true knowledge "of Him", not just "about Him." This is a choice we make. We can only "know Him" more and more if we walk with Him day by day, closer and closer. He leads the way, not us. Do not ask God to bless you along your way. Ask to help you follow His way, The Way, and be blessed.

17. Colossians 1:11-14 – If those closest to you had to describe you in just a few words, would four of them be "patient, joyful, thankful, and forgiving"?

18. Colossians 1:19 – "For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell." The fullness of God dwelt in Jesus, and He has given us the Holy Spirit which now dwells in us. Have you truly considered what that means for your life?

19. Colossians 1:20 – "...and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross." Jesus' purpose was to reconcile all things to Him through the sacrificial forgiveness of sins. He has now given us the mission on reconciliation and forgiveness, under His authority, and through the power of the Holy Spirit within us. Have you truly considered what that means for your life too?

20. Colossians 1:21-23 -- "And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard." Evil deeds are the outward indicator of someone who is alienated from God. Christ's true disciples are above reproach in their obedience to Jesus. In your knowledge and power through Him, God expects you to press forward boldly in your faith, relentlessly unwavering, as a minister of the Gospel, rejoicing in sufferings, being a good steward of the word of God that Has been given to you for you to administer to those around you.

21. Colossians 1:25 -- "I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known." Christians are stewards of God's word and the Good News, called to make it fully known to others. Are you a good steward?

22. Colossians 1:28 -- "Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ." Proclaiming Christ has always included a warning of the need for repentance and discipleship, "teaching them to obey all that I have commanded".

23. Colossians 1:28, 29 -- "Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me." Struggle beyond your natural energy, with His energy in you, to warn others of the need to repent and to proclaim the Good News of forgiveness and grace through Jesus. Toil, work harder than you think possible because God will make your impossible possible. Don't just make believers, make disciples who will grow to maturity in Jesus.

- Paul's struggle was two part: to proclaim Christ and then to disciple those who would believe that they must grow in their spiritual maturity and fruitfulness. This exemplifies the Great Commission: "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:19, 20) I have heard some call the second part of this two-fold mission statement, "teaching them to obey," the "Great Omission" because so many churches place such little emphasis on discipleship and obedience. In Colossians today, Paul expresses his continued prayer that "God [would] fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding. And we pray this in order that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God, being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience, and joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the kingdom of light. For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins." Your sins have already been forgiven, you have been rescued from the darkness, and you have already entered into eternal life. You have already been qualified as a priest and a saint to be a part of the kingdom. Now, to live out your calling requires that you grow daily in your "knowledge of God," wisdom and understanding. This takes effort, endurance and patience. Remember Proverbs 4:7: "Wisdom is supreme; therefore get wisdom. Though it cost all you have, get understanding." Proverbs points out that wisdom starts with the "Fear of the Lord" and is cultivated through prayer, the Word, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, one day at a time.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 5 July 18: Make today's priority to be a good steward of the knowledge of the Good News that has been bestowed upon you and entrusted to you. Focus on disciple-making today, and every day from this day forward. (Col 1)

DBRP - WEEK 27, Day 3, Wednesday, 4 July 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 4 July 18:

1. 2 Chronicles 3:1 -- "Then Solomon began to build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the Lord had appeared to David his father." Mount Moriah's history begins in Genesis 22 when God tests Abraham by asking him to sacrifice his son, and when God intervenes and provides the ram, foreshadowing the future, ultimate sacrifice of His Son. Just outside the Temple walls, Jesus would later be crucified. Today, the Islam Dome of the Rock and Al-Aqsa mosque also sit on Mount Moriah, possibly fulfilling the prophecy of Revelation 11:1-2 -- "I was given a reed like a measuring rod and was told, 'Go and measure the temple of God and the altar, and count the worshipers there. But exclude the outer court; do not measure it, because it has been given to the Gentiles.'"
2. 2 Chronicles 3:4 – Solomon built God's Temple using the old standards -- things had changed over time. Commentaries suggest that the "old" cubit was a longer cubit (Ezekiel 43:13) which would have meant a bigger building requiring more resources. Solomon did not use lower standards that might have been acceptable to people of the day.
3. 2 Chronicles 4:11-22 – The small parts of God's worship center deserve as much care and quality as the more obvious parts. The Bible says that we, the body of believers, are now God's temple. In your church, does everyone, regardless of their age, talent, position, maturity, or wealth receive the same amount of care and attention?
4. Proverbs 4:1-4 -- God wants children to have wise fathers and mothers who will teach them God's word personally. It is the parent's ultimate responsibility to disciple their children, not a pastor's, a Sunday school teacher's, or a school teacher's.
5. Proverbs 4:4-13 -- "Let your heart hold fast my words; keep my commandments, and live. Get wisdom; get insight; do not forget, and do not turn away from the words of my mouth.... The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight. Prize her highly... Hear, my son, and accept my words, that the years of your life may be many.... Keep hold of instruction; do not let go; guard her, for she is your life." Key to a successful and fulfilling life is remaining in God's word. To have wisdom, you have to get it from God's word. This is a lifelong, disciplined effort.
6. Proverbs 4:14, 15 – "Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of the evil. Avoid it; do not go on it; turn away from it and pass on." Following God requires turning from evil and will cause you to walk away from the crowd. The Christian life involves choosing a path in life that is 180-out from the path most everyone else is taking. Often you will walk with no one else but God. You cannot follow Jesus and the world. You cannot go two opposite directions at once; if you try to, you will go nowhere.
7. Proverbs 4:16, 17 – "For they cannot sleep unless they have done wrong; they are robbed of sleep unless they have made someone stumble. For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence." Ungodly people can't help but cause problems and pain for other people; they can't control themselves.
8. Proverbs 4:18, 19 – "But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day. The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know over what they stumble." Godly people grow in spiritual maturity little by little for their whole lives. The Christian path gets brighter and brighter everyday as you get closer and closer to God, but those who walk the way of the world, further and further from Jesus, walk deeper and deeper into darkness.

9. Proverbs 4:23-27 – “Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life. Put away from you crooked speech, and put devious talk far from you. Let your eyes look directly forward, and your gaze be straight before you. Ponder the path of your feet; then all your ways will be sure. Do not swerve to the right or to the left; turn your foot away from evil.” Guarding your heart is critically important, and it requires great effort (vigilance). You guard your heart by choosing carefully what you think about, what you focus on, where you go, what you do, and what you say. Daily decisions, which start with your choice of attitudes and thoughts, slowly shape your character over time. To grow in Christ-like character, seek the mind of Christ.

10. Philippians 4:1 – “Therefore, my brothers, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved.” A loving church unites behind God’s truth, desires true companionship with one another, works diligently together, and takes care of one another. They are a community within the community; they are family. Does this describe your church? Question: How many people in your church are going to have children soon? Who is sick? Who is having car trouble? You get the point.

11. Philippians 4:3 -- “Yes, I ask you also, true companion, help these women, who have labored side by side with me in the gospel.” Women play prominent roles throughout the Bible.

12. Philippians 4:4 – “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice.” Are you rejoicing today? Would everyone today describe you as joyful?

13. Philippians 4:4-7 -- “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

- Christians should be known for their joy, reasonableness, confidence, wisdom, steadiness, and peacefulness. Are you known by everyone to be very reasonable?

- Whenever I lose sight of the fact that my God is LORD, that He is in complete control of all circumstances, and that He only allows His perfect will to occur in my life, whenever I lose sight of that, I become “anxious” and “unreasonable.” However, when I obey Proverbs and “Trust in the Lord with all [my] heart, and do not lean on [my] own understanding,” and when I surrender my concerns to God, “the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding” guards my heart, mind, and actions. Proverbs reminds us that with love comes faithfulness (Proverbs 3:3). The more my love for God grows, the more faithful I desire to be; and the more faithful I am, the more attuned I become to the love of God, and the more my faith grows, which in turn makes me less anxious and unreasonable. With all this comes great peace that transcends circumstances.

-- Matthew 11:28 -- Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

-- James 4:8 -- Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you.

14. Philippians 4:6, 7 -- Our understanding is so incredibly small. It is absolutely impossible for us to understand God’s perfect will in any situation apart from the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Nothing is more critical for us today than to be united with the Holy Spirit, to be in tune with the Holy Spirit, receptive to the Holy Spirit, guided by the Holy Spirit, and in step with the Holy Spirit. We must walk in the Spirit, not in the flesh, not in our own understanding.

15. Philippians 4:8 -- "Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." The transformation of our minds includes the choice to think godly thoughts and eliminate negative, ungodly thinking. Christians must practice the discipline of thought control. You must endeavor to only think about what is honorable, just, pure, lovely, commendable, excellent, and worthy of praise. Your attitude will be infectious. In the presence of God, what is there to think about but "whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, whatever is excellent or worthy of praise"? When you are with the love of your life, shouldn't every minute be a celebration? Shouldn't your overflowing joy be evident to everyone around you? Shouldn't that in itself be an incredible testimony to the wonderfulness of the One you love? When you awake in the morning to begin another day with Jesus, shouldn't you genuinely feel the uncontrollable urge to say, "This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it."? (Psalm 118:24) The secret is truly "knowing" Jesus and resting in his "riches of glory." It's time to celebrate!

16. Philippians 4:11-13 -- "I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me."

- What was Paul's "secret" for always being content and cheerful regardless of the situation? How did he maintain an inner peace beyond anyone's understanding, worrying about nothing? Paul's peace reflects the peace displayed by Jesus who rested peacefully in the stern of a small boat in the middle of a great storm while the apostles exclaimed, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" (Luke 8:24) Paul's secret was that he remained in the presence of Jesus, relied not on his own strength but in the strength and understanding of Jesus. Paul trusted not in his environment or abilities but rather in Jesus alone. He kept the faith of a child who does not doubt Daddy's provision and protection. In the arms of the Creator, the Master, the LORD, what circumstances matter? The secret of contentment through any circumstance is trusting that God is not only bigger than all circumstances but will use ALL circumstances to create goodness beyond your imagination. (see Romans 8:28) Through Him, you are already victorious, though you might not always tangibly see it; and you can do ALL things – all things God intends for you to do. If you lack contentment, you lack right perspective on the reality of Jesus. Are you content in all situations because you have placed your complete trust in Jesus?

17. Philippians 4:14-20 -- Christians share in each other's troubles and provide for each other's needs as Christ's servants, empowered for ministry by Him.

18. Philippians 4:19 -- "And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus." Jesus will provide all the inner strength you need if you surrender to Him wholeheartedly, trust Him, and obey Him.

19. Philippians 4:21 -- "Greet every saint in Christ Jesus." Do you greet every Christian in Christ Jesus?

20. Philippians 4:23 -- "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit." Your peace and joy today depend on your willingness to walk in the confidence of God's grace.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 4 July 18: Decide today that, through today's political controversy, you will not get wrapped up in the emotions of those with a worldly view. Use this as an opportunity to communicate the truth of Jesus and the will of God. Judge everything in accordance with the word of God, and while everyone is pointing to politicians and political parties as their hope, point to Jesus Christ as the only hope. Do not get entangled in pointless arguments or unworthy conversations, but communicate the Gospel. Do not get anxious or lose your peace. Stand out with your higher viewpoint and message. Seek revival in America as an Ambassador for Jesus and a citizen of the Kingdom of God. (Today's readings)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+CHRON+1%2C+2%3B+PRO+3%3B+Phi+3>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 3 July 18:

[Note: Here is an overview of 2 Chronicles -- <https://youtu.be/HR7xaHv3las>]

1. 2 Chronicles 1:1 – “Solomon the son of David established himself in his kingdom, and the Lord his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.” Solomon was great because the LORD was with Him.

2. 2 Chronicles 1:9 – “O Lord God, let your word to David my father be now fulfilled, for you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.” God fulfilled His promise to Abraham. (See Gen 12:2, 13:16)

3. 2 Chronicles 1:11, 12 -- "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked for possessions, wealth, honor, or the life of those who hate you, and have not even asked for long life, but have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself that you may govern my people over whom I have made you king, wisdom and knowledge are granted to you. I will also give you riches, possessions, and honor, such as none of the kings had who were before you, and none after you shall have the like." God does not want your motivation to be power and prestige but rather the ability to serve others. God rewards selfless service.

4. Proverbs 3:1 -- "My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments." Set your heart to obey God's word.

5. Proverbs 3:3 -- “Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart. So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man.”

- With love goes faithfulness – they are inextricably linked, inseparable, measured from the heart but revealed in action. To the church in Rome Paul wrote, “First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed in all the world.” (Romans 1:8). People all over the world were talking about the church in Rome because the love of Christ had dramatically changed their behavior. To the Colossians, Paul wrote, “We always thank God... since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints....” (1 Colossians 1:3, 4) Paul had heard of the Colossians faith which was evident by their love and faithfulness. The Gospel of Grace was bearing fruit in their lives, and the word had gotten out. So, Paul encouraged them to continue in their faithfulness, to “walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.” Faithfulness reveals maturity in Christ. (Colossians 1:28) Is your fidelity to God being talked about in your community?

6. Proverbs 3:5 -- "Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding." Don't partially trust God or partially obey Him because His word seems to contradict your own understanding or "common sense." Trust God and His word because God is God, and you cannot possibly understand what He has ordained in His omniscient perfection. In no way does your understanding of reality alter reality. The truth is the truth whether you understand it or not. Jesus is the Truth. Trust Him, obey Him, and seek to know Him more and more each day.

7. Proverbs 3:11, 12 – “My son, do not despise the Lord’s discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the Lord reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights.” God will discipline you because He loves you. Accept God’s discipline with a teachable, humble, thankful spirit.

8. Proverbs 3:25 – “Do not be afraid of sudden terror or of the ruin of the wicked, when it comes....” Faith means you won’t be afraid of the unknown. Faith trusts God in all circumstances.

9. Proverbs 3:27 – “Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.” Giving is an act of faith; fear prevents giving. Give when you can, and trust that God will take care of you.

10. Proverbs 3:34 -- "Toward the scornful he is scornful, but to the humble he gives favor." God treats you the way you treat others.

11. Philippians 3:5, 6 – “...circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.” Human qualifications do not impress God. You can be blameless in the eyes of the Law and at odds with God.

12. Philippians 3:7-10 -- “But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death.” (Philippians 3:7-10)

- Religious efforts or personal accomplishments cannot compare with truly knowing Jesus. To know Christ, you must personally walk with Him day by day in obedience to His word. Join Him in His business of selfless love for others and experience His fellowship. There is great fellowship in suffering too. The Marines have a saying – “Adversity unites.” And veterans have a unique bond with those who fought together with them. In life, aren’t you closest with those who you have struggled with? In his tribulations, Paul wrote, “I want to know Christ and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to Him in His death.” (Philippians 3:10) Do you know that God uses your hardships to draw you closer to Him?

- There are really only two religions in the world, that which depends on faith in Jesus Christ alone, and that which depends on some sort of human effort or worth for salvation. I have heard people describe these two religions as the “do” religion and the “done” religion with the first religion attempting to discover what we must do to get to Heaven and the second relying on what Christ has done that whoever believes in his name would not perish but rather have everlasting life. Paul called those who depend on human effort, accomplishments, and self-righteousness (even if they call themselves Christians) as “dogs” and “evildoers.” To “worship by the Spirit of God” is to put absolutely “no confidence in the flesh,” no hope in our own abilities to obtain righteousness through our efforts. Paul points out that, in human standards, he had every right to brag of his good deeds; however, his (our) very best deeds are nothing but filthy rags before The Holy God. Of ourselves, we have no merit or righteousness (being right with God). Our only hope is to “be found in him” (Jesus). Through faith, we are covered over with the righteousness of Christ. When the Father sees true Christians from the Judgment Seat, he sees us clothed with the righteousness of His Son, this covering provided as a gift of grace and love, a gift that is absolutely impossible to earn. Paul reminds us that Christ has made us His own and encourages us to live out that truth with all of our being – “Only let us hold true to what we have attained.” Don’t “walk as enemies of the cross of Christ,” driven by earthly passions, self-centeredness, and self-righteousness; rather remember that “our citizenship is in heaven [through birth in Christ], and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.”

- Reflect upon the good things you have done in your life. Why did you do them? Did you do them to be a “good” person, to feel good about yourself, to earn respect from others, to make the world a better place, to avoid guilt; or did you do them to “know Christ,” to united with him, to become “like Him” because of your admiration for Him? When Paul was still Saul, a very committed religious man, he did all the “right things” for the wrong reasons which brought him no closer to God than any other sinner and which did nothing to secure his salvation. When Paul, formerly known as Saul, had his eyes open by Christ (both figuratively and literally) he understood that his human “goodness,” his attempts to be personally righteous, were totally unacceptable by God, no matter how proud he had felt or how much praise he had received from others. (Ephesians 2:8-9) Only the True Righteousness of Christ can cover over our sins and save us. When we do the “right things” for the wrong reasons, when we obey the law in pursuit of prideful righteousness, we are actually breaking the law by disobeying the Great Commandment: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.” Even unbelievers can do seemingly good things, but God judges the heart. Our focus is not on the law for the sake of obtaining merited righteousness, our focus is on Jesus Christ, knowing him and becoming one with Him in genuine love. We are walking in a love relationship that is growing every day, and that love is reflected outwardly in all that we do and say. When we walk in love, there is no need for laws to constrain us. We do what we ought because our Greatest Love, Christ, desires it.

-- John 17:3 -- This is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.

-- 1 John 4:7, 8 -- Whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

-- John 14:15, 21 -- If you love me, you will keep my commandments.... Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him.

-- 1 John 2:3-6 -- And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says ‘I know him’ but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

-- 1 John 5:2-5 -- By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

13. Philippians 3:13-16 -- "But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained." Every day, you will fail the standard of God's holiness, purity, and righteousness, but sanctification is a life-long process that will not be completed this side of Paradise. Learn from your mistakes and move on, endeavoring with all your might to grow more and more into the likeness of Jesus. Pursue holiness and perfection, and don't accept your imperfections as "just being human." Acknowledge your sins, ask for God's forgiveness, fully receive God's forgiveness, learn from your mistakes, and don't look back. Yesterday is over, make today a ministry masterpiece. Grow closer to Jesus one day at a time. Press forward towards greater unity with Jesus.

14. Philippians 3:17 -- "Keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us." Surround yourself with people who will encourage you in your pursuit of holiness, people in the you can respect because of their love and faithfulness.

15. Philippians 3:20 -- "But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ." Your allegiance is to God before country or any other loyalty. Are you a faithful citizen of the Kingdom of God? Are you ready to serve your kingdom as a good soldier and to recite your oath -- "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven"?

16. "Rejoice in the Lord! It is a safeguard for you. Know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead. Press on [toward perfection] to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of [you]. Forget what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called [you] heavenward in Christ Jesus. All of us who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you. Only let us live up to what we have already attained. Many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body."

- We all have to make a choice concerning who we will live for, ourselves or God. Will our god be our earthly desires or the Lord? Will our minds be set on earthly things or will we seek first the Kingdom and His righteousness? From today's readings, Solomon was given great wisdom from God; however, what did he do with that wisdom given by God? "Solomon accumulated chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem. Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue —the royal merchants purchased them from Kue. They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans. What was the command God had given to kings?

-- "The king, moreover, must not acquire great numbers of horses for himself or make the people return to Egypt to get more of them, for the Lord has told you, "You are not to go back that way again." He must not take many wives, or his heart will be led astray. He must not accumulate large amounts of silver and gold. When he takes the throne of his kingdom, he is to write for himself on a scroll a copy of this law, taken from that of the priests, who are Levites. It is to be with him, and he is to read it all the days of his life so that he may learn to revere the Lord his God and follow carefully all the words of this law and these decrees and not consider himself better than his brothers and turn from the law to the right or to the left. Then he and his descendants will reign a long time over his kingdom in Israel. (Deut 17:16-20)

- In his own great wisdom, Solomon forgot God's Law and directly disobeyed the King's commands from His Word. He set his mind on earthly things and built a might kingdom for himself instead of the LORD. This would cost him and his people greatly -- "Let love and faithfulness never leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart. Then you will win favor and a good name in the sight of God and man. Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight. Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord and shun evil."

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 3 July 17: Make your top priority today and every day truly knowing God, personally, experientially. Don't settle for knowing about Him. Seek a closer, real relationship with Him with all of your heart. Jesus said if you seek Him with all of your heart, you will find Him. Relationship with Jesus starts with being born again and then denying self continually, taking up your cross, and following Him. You grow in relationship with Him as you obey Him more and more. (Philippians 3)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 2 July 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 28:3 -- "But God said to me, 'You may not build a house for my name, for you are a man of war and have shed blood.'" Godly leaders are ready to admit where God has not allowed them to work.

2. 1 Chronicles 28:4, 5 -- "Yet the Lord God of Israel chose me from all my father's house to be king.... he has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel." God chooses all kings and political leaders, sometimes to be blessings and sometimes to be curses depending upon what God is doing with the people of that nation. God holds the next political election in His hands. If we desire better leaders, we need to turn to God before politics. National repentance and revival among God's people are crucial.

3. 1 Chronicles 28:9 -- "...my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the Lord searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you." David's charge to his son should be echoed by every Christian parent to their children.

4. 1 Chronicles 28:10, 20 -- Whatever the LORD has called you to do, "be strong and do it.... Be strong and courageous and do it. Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed, for the Lord God, even my God, is with you. He will not leave you or forsake you, until all the work for the service of... the Lord is finished.

5. 1 Chronicles 29:1, 2 -- "Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced, and the work is great, for the palace will not be for man but for the Lord God."

"Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced, and the work is great, for the palace will not be for man but for the Lord God. So I have provided for the house of my God, so far as I was able...."

- God uses inexperienced people to do great things through His power rather than their own power.

- We must do all that we can to set our kids up for success.

6. 1 Chron 29:3-6 -- For the LORD's work, David led the way in giving, very publicly, not to gain the praise of men in pride but rather to set the example and to inspire others to give too – it worked. The tithe was given publicly and specifically (10%) – this was expected; free will offerings were also given publicly, voluntarily, above and beyond the tithe; alms or gifts to the poor and needy were given privately, also above and beyond the tithe.

7. 1 Chronicles 29:9 – "Then the people rejoiced because they had given willingly, for with a whole heart they had offered freely to the Lord. David the king also rejoiced greatly." Giving from the heart brings great joy and causes you to rejoice.

8. 1 Chronicles 29:12 -- "Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all. In your hand are power and might." Again, God determines the fate of nations. If we want national security, civil order, and prosperity, we need to go to God. Pray that God will change the hearts of God's people, then that He will change the hearts of the nation, and then that He will change the hearts of the nation's leaders to honor and obey Him. (1 Chronicles 29:18, 19)

9. 1 Chronicles 29:14-16 -- "But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able thus to offer willingly? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you. For we are strangers before you and sojourners. O Lord our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building you a house for your holy name comes from your hand and is all your own." Anything you give to God is something He has already given you. Giving is an act of worship and an act of faith, acknowledging that God has graciously given us all we need, and He will replenish in abundance what we give in His Name. As they say, "You cannot out give God."

10. 1 Chronicles 29:17 -- "I know, my God, that you test the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. In the uprightness of my heart I have freely offered all these things, and now I have seen your people, who are present here, offering freely and joyously to you." God expects us to give from a position of joyful, grateful obedience.

11. Proverbs 2 -- The preconditions for finding “the knowledge of God” are to treasure God’s commands more than anything else on earth and with a genuine heart to understand them and apply them. If you accept God's word and store it in your heart (v1), and if you apply it diligently and prayerfully as your highest priority (vs3-4), then you will learn to fear the Lord. All wisdom comes from God, and He rewards those who seek Him and His wisdom wholeheartedly. You cannot know right or do right without a love for God and His commands. Your relationship with God is what gives you hope for life on earth. Walk with Him and in His ways.

12. Proverbs 2:6, 7 -- For the Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding; he stores up sound wisdom for the upright; he is a shield to those who walk in integrity....” Wisdom is learned from God’s word.

13. Proverbs 2:7, 8 – “...he stores up sound wisdom for the upright; he is a shield to those who walk in integrity, guarding the paths of justice and watching over the way of his saints.” For whom is God a shield?

14. Proverbs 2:9 – “Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path....” A person cannot understand justice and equity apart from God’s word.

15. Proverbs 2:13-17 -- God’s word causes you to separate from those who have forsaken the paths of uprightness.

16. Proverbs 2:20 – “So you will walk in the way of the good and keep to the paths of the righteous.” God’s word will take you down a different path in life than the way the majority are travelling.

17. Philippians 2:1-2 -- "So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind." Those who are truly spiritual will have unity in Christ. A Spirit filled person is comforting, loving, affectionate, sympathetic, joyful, and unifying.

18. Philippians 2:3-8 -- "Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves." Moving from selfishness to selflessness is called spiritual growth. Christ-like character is selfless. Empty yourself of personal ambition and become a complete servant to God and those around you; humble yourself and give everything you have to God and others; be an imitator of Christ.

19. Philippians 2:3, 4 -- “Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.”

- “Do nothing out of selfish ambition or conceit,” and look at everyone else as more important than you. Now there is a challenge for today. Paul goes further in this challenge by stating that to follow Christ’s example (which we are called to do), we must “empty” ourselves and become like “servants” to those around us. Have you ever said to someone “Who do you think I am, your servant?” Well if you are a Christian, you are a servant to others. These words are very easy to understand, aren’t they? They sure are hard to obey though, aren’t they? Why is this so hard to do?

20. Philippians 2:5 -- Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus....” Attitudes do not just happen; we choose them. Paul urged believers to have the same attitude that Jesus had. Jesus is the

Son of God. His place is at the right hand of His Father, ruling the universe. No position could be more glorious or honorable than the right hand of the Heavenly Father. Jesus' relationship with the Father gave Him the right to unsurpassed honor. Jesus chose not to hold on to this right. Nothing, not even His position in heaven, was so precious to Him that He could not give it up if His Father asked Him. His love for His Father compelled Him to make any sacrifice necessary in order to be obedient to Him. When the Father required a spotless sacrifice for the redemption of humanity, Jesus did not cling to His rights, nor did He argue that He should not have to suffer for the sins of rebellious creatures of dust (Isa. 53:7). Rather, He relinquished the glory of His heavenly existence in order to become a condemned man. He was born in a cattle shed; he slept in a feeding trough. His life was spent preparing for the day when He would suffer an excruciating execution. All of this He did willingly. We are tempted to hold tightly to things God has given us. We say, "I would be willing to give up anything God asked of me, but I just don't think He would ask me to give anything up!" The Father asked His Son to make radical adjustments in His life. Can we not expect that He will ask us to sacrifice privileges and comforts as well? If you find yourself resisting every time God seeks to adjust your life to His will, ask the Spirit to give you the same selfless attitude that Jesus demonstrated. (Comments from Henry T. Blackaby)

21. Philippians 2:5-8 -- "Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross." We are to emulate the example of Jesus who, though perfect and righteous in every way, become nothing for complete sinners who persecuted Him. He did this in obedience to God's will. We too must offer complete grace and mercy to those who wrong us, and we must be willing to suffer persecution in hopes of bringing others to Jesus.

22. Philippians 2:8 -- "And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross."

- Today's OT and NT readings heavily emphasize the importance of humble obedience in a Christian's life, not motivated by "selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility" and in love. (Philippians 2:2, 3) In the OT, David charges the Israelites to "observe and seek out all the commandments of the Lord your God, [to] know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind." (1 Chronicles 28:8, 9) Paul says that the "mind" of Christ which we are to take on is one of humble obedience. Paul encourages Christians to "work out" their salvation through continuous obedience, "with fear and trembling". (Philippians 2:12) We are called to obedience "without grumbling or disputing, that [we] may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom [we] shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ [we] may be proud that [we] did not run in vain or labor in vain." (Philippians 2:14-16) Jesus said, "this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent." (John 17:3) So what does it mean to "know" him? 1 John 4:7, 8 says, "Whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love." Jesus says, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments.... Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him." (John 14:15, 21) John adds, "And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says 'I know him' but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked." (1 John 2:3-6) "By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?" (1 John 5:2-5) The mark of genuine love for God is humble obedience without grumbling but rather with thanksgiving and rejoicing.

23. Philippians 2:12 -- "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure." If you are a Christian, your salvation is eternally secure through the work of Christ alone. However, we are called to "work out" our salvation by dedicating our life to obeying God for His glory on earth, growing up in Christ-like spiritual maturity as an infant grows over time into adulthood. Knowing Christ more and more in maturity and making Him known to others is the goal -- nothing else on earth matters. Growing in Christ is called sanctification. Salvation is a gift. Sanctification is a process that requires our continually yielding to the Holy Spirit. God chose us for salvation, but we must choose to surrender our lives completely to Him. In salvation, we are new creations, but it is possible for us to be unfruitful Christians, to never grow up, to be of little value to the Kingdom. We must choose to abide in Him as true disciples. Abiding is a command we must choose to obey. In our abiding is where we glorify God, experience true fellowship with God, find life fulfillment, and find complete joy. Evidence of abiding is a divine nature within us and genuine, unconditional love for those around us.

- 2 Corinthians 5:17 -- Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

- John 15:1-17 -- "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me, he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another.

- 2 Peter 1:3-9 -- His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins.

24. Philippians 2:14-16 -- "Do all things without grumbling or disputing, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain." The Bible doesn't say do 'some' things without grumbling or disputing, it says do 'all things' so that the world will see the difference that is in you, the Spirit of God.

25. Philippians 2:14 -- "Do all things without grumbling or disputing...." Complaining is a sign of spiritual immaturity, is ungodly, and ruins your witness.

26. Philippians 2:15-18 -- In the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, hold fast to God's word. Remain joyfully obedient.

27. Philippians 2:17 -- "Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all." Are you willing to sacrifice yourself for the work of another believer—to pour out your life sacrificially for the ministry and faith of others? Or do you say, "I am not willing to be poured out right now, and I don't want God to tell me how to serve Him. I want to choose the place of my own sacrifice. And I want to have certain people watching me and saying, 'Well done.'" It is one thing to follow God's way of service if you are regarded as a hero, but quite another thing if the road marked out for you by God requires becoming a "doormat" under other people's feet. God's purpose may be to teach you to say, "I know how to be abased..." (Philippians 4:12). Are you ready to be sacrificed like that? Are you ready to be less than a mere drop in the bucket— to be so totally insignificant that no one remembers you even if they think of those you served? Are you willing to give and be poured out until you are used up and exhausted— not seeking to be ministered to, but to minister? Some saints cannot do menial work while maintaining a saintly attitude, because they feel such service is beneath their dignity. (Comments from Oswald Chambers)

28. Philippians 2:17-18 -- "Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me." Paul rejoiced in suffering for the Gospel and expected others to rejoice with him in the knowledge that they were serving the purpose of Jesus wholeheartedly.

29. Philippians 2:20, 21 -- "For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare. For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ." Timothy stood out within the church as someone to emulate because, while everyone was seeking their own interests, Timothy was solely focused on the welfare of others.

30. Philippians 2:21 -- You cannot seek your own interests and Jesus' interests at the same time.

31. Philippians 2:22 -- "But you know Timothy's proven worth, how as a son with a father he has served with me in the gospel." Timothy had proven himself by his track record of selfless service. Timothy had earned the right to lead in Christ. How about you?

32. Philippians 2:25 -- "I have thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister to my need...." Some people know just what to say and do to encourage others who are going through difficult times. Their words give strength to those who are discouraged and comfort to those who are grieving. These people are sensitive to God's voice. They are not self-centered or unaware of the struggles of those around them. They are the ones we immediately seek when we enter a crisis. They are welcome visitors when we are in distress, for their presence sustains us. Scripture testifies of many whom God enabled to encourage others. When Moses was overwhelmed by his work, Jethro went to him and encouraged him. Jethro gave Moses wise counsel that eased his strain (Exod. 18:1-27). When Paul was imprisoned far from those who loved him, Epaphroditus risked his health and safety in order to go to Paul and minister to him (Phil. 2:25-30). Later, Paul urged Timothy to come and visit him, for Paul found strength and encouragement in Timothy (2 Tim. 4:9; Phil. 2:19-20). Paul asked Timothy to bring Mark also. Mark was the kind of friend Paul needed when he was enduring hardship (2 Tim. 4:11; Philem. 24). Paul also relied on Luke for encouragement. When everyone else was absent or preoccupied, Luke could be found with Paul (2 Tim. 4:11). Paul experienced trials throughout his life, but God sustained him by placing godly friends around him who provided support in practical and sacrificial ways. God wants to develop you into the kind of friend who can strengthen others. The words you share and the things you do can bring comfort and encouragement to your family, your friends, your neighbors, and your coworkers. (Notes from Henry T. Blackaby)

33. Philippians 2:29, 30 -- "So receive him in the Lord with all joy, and honor such men, for he nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete what was lacking in your service to me." Those who have truly surrendered their life for the Lord's service are those who truly deserve honor.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 2 July 18: Today, endeavor to truly empty yourself and give your life to serving those around you, particularly those who would persecute you. Do this without hope for any reward but merely to show your love for God and to bring Him glory before others. (Philippians 2)

DBRP - WEEK 26, Day 7, Sunday, 1 July 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 1 July 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 25:1 -- "David and the chiefs of the service also set apart for the service the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who prophesied with lyres, with harps, and with cymbals." The music ministry has always been a critical part of worship. 1 Chronicles 25 offers valuable guidance to today's churches on music ministries:

-- Music should be a proclamation of the Gospel and reveal the truth of God clearly and accurately in lyrical form, and/or it should be a prayer in lyrical form. Worship music should offer thanksgiving and praise, exalting God – a good acronym to remember the essential elements of prayer and music is ACTS: adoration, confession, thanksgiving, and supplication. Lyrics with accompanying music should be powerful, instructive, and fit for The KING. Many of the Psalms we will read this year were hymns to be sung by the congregation and are great examples for today's music ministries. Historically, worship music has been used to help people remember great spiritual truths. Prisoners of war have recounted that singing hymns from church helped get them through years of captivity. God uses worship music and hymns to speak directly to His people about the realities of what He is doing with them. A great example can be found in Deuteronomy 31 and 32 where God gives Moses a song to teach the people to sing for generations "that this song may be a witness for me against the people of Israel." (1 Chronicles 25:1-5; Deuteronomy 31:19) The selection of worship music should be led by the Holy Spirit. Having visited many churches, I have heard many songs that were very shallow and actually contrary to God's word. In those cases, the songs were man-centered rather than God-centered.

-- 1 Chronicles 25:6, 7 -- "The number of them along with their brothers, who were trained in singing to the Lord, all who were skillful, was 288. And they cast lots for their duties, small and great, teacher and pupil alike." Those chosen for the music ministry should demonstrate significant skill and talent, but also humility and discipline. Granted, most churches rely on the ministry efforts of volunteers who are not professional musicians. However, those selected for the ministry should do their very best to strive for excellence through diligent practice and rehearsal. It has been said that good preachers, on average, spend an hour preparing for every minute they intend to preach – 45 hours for a 45-minute sermon. There should be a similar commitment by those who intend to lead congregational music. Professional musicians practice for many hours each day. Chopin told one of his students that he would he shut himself up in his room for two weeks before a concert. Another famous pianist said, "If I don't practice for one day, I know it; if I don't practice for two days, my friends know it. If I don't practice for three days, EVERYBODY knows it." Personally, I believe that America's most talented musicians should come from the churches because they perform for the LORD.

-- Finally, some among the skilled musicians are chosen to be teachers and leaders, but this selection is not based on favoritism. I suspect if you have ever been a part of church leadership you have witnessed some drama associated with the music ministry, among those who feel entitled for one reason or another, or with some who have taken a self-centered approach to performing. For many reasons, it is easy for egos to get involved. We must focus on glorifying God and edifying the body rather than lifting up the individual or entertaining the crowd. Among David's 288 skilled musicians, lots were drawn to determine who would teach and lead. These leaders were tasked by higher church leadership, and they performed their duties responsibly.

-- Hopefully your church's music ministry is not focused on showmanship and entertainment but rather on genuine worship, discipleship, and edification of the body. Hopefully the gift that is brought before the LORD is suitable for the KING.

2. 1 Chronicles 25:6 -- "They were all under the direction of their father in the music in the house of the Lord with cymbals, harps, and lyres for the service of the house of God." The father prepared his sons for service in the church and taught them their profession. Parents should be preparing their children to serve the church for the rest of their lives.

3. 1 Chronicles 25:8 -- "And they cast lots for their duties, small and great, teacher and pupil alike." It is not the job you do that matters most, it is for whom you do it and how well and faithfully you perform your duties. In first Chronicles, David assigns important tasks to families, and within the families they cast lots to determine who would perform what specific job. There doesn't appear to be any discussion about who preferred what job or who "should" perform what job in the eyes of the people. Whatever job was assigned, the selectee did it with all their might and for the Lord. I believe with that attitude, a person can prosper at any job; perhaps we spend too much time worrying about what job we have and not enough time on doing something, anything to the glory of the Lord. I think it is also worth noting, again, that areas of responsibility were assigned to families, not just individuals, and the father led the children. Perhaps the family business is something else that has been lost in our culture. Here are some other things the Bible says about employment:

- Colossians 3:23, 24 -- Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ.

- 1 Thessalonians 4:10-12 -- But we urge you... to aspire to live quietly, and to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we instructed you, so that you may walk properly before outsiders and be dependent on no one.

- Proverbs 22:29 -- Do you see a man skillful in his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before obscure men.

- Ecclesiastes 9:10 -- Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might.

- Psalm 37:25 -- I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread.

4. Proverbs 1:7 – "The proverbs of Solomon... To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight, to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity; to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth— Let the wise hear and increase in learning, and the one who understands obtain guidance, to understand a proverb and a saying, the words of the wise and their riddles. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction."

- As we prepare to read the book of Proverbs again for the seventh time this year, it is important to take a moment to reflect on the book's purpose. It is intended to help you acquire not only knowledge but also discipline, prudence, and discernment. It is to help you live a life worthy of the gospel you have received. Don't lose sight of the fact that Proverbs are not provided just so that you can avoid pain in life but so you can become closer to and more unified with Jesus each day – that you can "know" Him more fully every day and reveal Him more clearly to others every day. Proverbs are intended to help disciples of Christ accomplish their desire of obeying God in love, as opposed to obtaining the desires of the flesh, and to do "what is right and just and fair." The book points out in the very first paragraph "fear[ing] the Lord" is the beginning and foundation of your journey; and then comes discipleship – practicing the disciplines of the Christian life, under the constant counsel of the Holy Spirit, to grow in wisdom and maturity in faith. This growth process is often referred to as sanctification. Our spiritual growth is a daily effort, motivated by love, not guilt, fear, our pride, and empowered by the Holy Spirit. But the choices we make each day have natural consequences. As the end of today's Proverbs warn, "waywardness kills, and complacency destroys." The family of Obed-Edom, mentioned throughout Chronicles, were leaders among God's people because they were "capable" and "strong." The Bible also points out, for "every matter pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king,” David searched the land for people who were “capable.” To make the cut for “Gideon’s Army,” it wasn’t enough to be willing to go, you had to demonstrate discipline at the watering hole – only 300 showed that required discipline. This month I hope we read Proverbs intently to acquire a disciplined and prudent life.

5. Proverbs 1:2 – “To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight....” Wisdom is knowledge rightly applied, with understanding that exceeds personal experience, understanding empowered by the Holy Spirit. Wisdom is the ability to make right decisions. Discipline is the internal strength or self-control (see Galatians 5:23) to carry out those decisions. Success requires both good decision-making (wisdom) and discipline (self-control) to follow through. Both wisdom and self-control are fruits of the Spirit, not the product of intellect. If you struggle with fidelity or consistency, understand it is a spiritual issue.

6. Proverbs 1:4 – “...to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth....” Not everyone is gifted with talent and resources, but everyone has equal access to wisdom from God through the Holy Spirit. Wisdom (or character) not talent will determine your ultimate success.

7. Proverbs 1:5 – “Let the wise hear and increase in learning, and the one who understands obtain guidance....” Character development is a life-long growth process that must be continually fed by the word of God, prayer, and counsel from fellow committed followers of Christ.

8. Proverbs 1:7 – “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.”

- Wisdom is available to all who would receive it from God. Those who are foolish choose to be. Rejecting God is the beginning of their choice. Many who claim to be Christian reject God every time they choose to sin in ways they justify as small and insignificant, but there is no small sin before God because all sin is a personal choice to attempt to dethrone God and enthrone self. To rebel against God, even for a moment, is cosmic treason! Merely believing in Jesus (demon-like belief as described in James 2:19) is not enough.

- Wisdom is naturally divisive. There can be no unity between the wise and the unwise. Jesus said, He came not to unite but to divide. If you are pleasing everyone, you are, by definition, compromising somewhere.

9. Proverbs 1:8 – “Hear, my son, your father’s instruction, and forsake not your mother’s teaching,” Parents are the teachers in the home which is the schoolhouse for character development.

10. Proverbs 1:10-19 – The ungodly world appears very prosperous. It is very critical that the church does not become entangled with the world. Year after year, the church gives more money to building debt than it does to missionaries. Christians give far more to credit cards and home loans than they do to tithes, freewill offerings, and alms. We desperately need to repent.

11. Proverbs 1:20-23 -- The truth is self-evident, it reveals itself. Wisdom is revealed every day for those who have the eyes to see it. Look in the streets and see the consequences of both wisdom and foolishness. How long will people so obviously destroy themselves. Repentance opens the door for the Spirit of Truth to change a life.

12. Proverbs 1:23 -- "If you turn at my reproof, behold, I will pour out my spirit to you." Wisdom requires repentance, a turning away from old behavior.

13. Proverbs 1:24-26 -- "Because I have called and you refused to listen, have stretched out my hand and no one has heeded, because you have ignored all my counsel and would have none of my reproof, I also will laugh at your calamity." The condemned refuse to accept the free gift of salvation through Jesus -- it is a choice they freely make.

14. Proverbs 1:24, 25 -- "Because I have called and you refused to listen, have stretched out my hand and no one has heeded, because you have ignored all my counsel and would have none of my reproof..." If you cannot hear God, it is not that He is not speaking but rather that you are not really listening. God stretches out His hand, but you must take it. God is willing to communicate to those who are willing to really listen.

15. Proverbs 1:28 -- "Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me." There comes a time when prayers for blessings are pointless and prayers for mercy are critical.

16. Proverbs 1:32 -- "For the simple are killed by their turning away, and the complacency of fools destroys them." Do not be complacent with God's commands.

17. Psalm 75:4-6 -- "I say to the boastful, 'Do not boast,' and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horn; or speak with haughty neck.'" For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up...." Only fools proudly ignore God's power and His promise to judge and destroy.

DBRP - WEEK 26, Day 6, Saturday, 30 June 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 30 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 23:3 -- "And they were to stand every morning, thanking and praising the Lord, and likewise at evening." God expects His people to worship every day, day and night.

2. 1 Chronicles 23:26 -- "And so the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the things for its service." A changing situation doesn't change God's commands and standards but may require a change to how we fulfill those requirements and standards. In Chronicles, David reorganized, retrained, and reequipped the Levites based on their shift in responsibilities from tabernacle to temple service. He also changed the age requirements for service. Perhaps there were some who resisted this change because, "That's not how we have always done it." There is a difference between deviating from techniques, procedures, and traditions, and deviating from doctrine, principles, and truth. We must never deviate from what God commands, but we will have to change the methods we use to fulfill His commands based on changing circumstances and environments. For example, long ago we illuminated churches with candles, now we light churches with electric lights. Many churches that once played acoustic instruments now play electric instruments. The shift to electronically supported worship is not a sin. However, if technology or modern methods become a distraction, one could drift into sin. Times and technologies change; God's word doesn't.

3. 1 Chronicles 23:30 -- "And they were to stand every morning, thanking and praising the Lord, and likewise at evening." Worship is a daily endeavor.

4. 1 Chronicles 24:5 -- "They divided them by lot, all alike, for there were sacred officers and officers of God among both the sons of Eleazar and the sons of Ithamar." Casting lots removed human bias and any perceptions of favoritism when deciding between parties with conflicting interests. In the case of these verses, some positions were likely considered more important, valuable or prestigious than others, so lots were cast to avoid perceptions of partiality. In pride, people tend to vie for important positions, and people tend to work harder when the spotlight is on them than when they are behind the scenes. Jesus called these people hypocrites which is the Greek word for stage actor. How you perform when no one is watching is who you really are. Throughout the Bible, we see God mightily using those who no one else seems to notice. Jesus himself lived most of his life in the shadow of mighty Herod, unnoticed by most. Of Him Isaiah said, "He had no form or majesty that we should look at him, and no beauty that we should desire him." (Isaiah 53:2) Jesus told us, "And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. Neither be called instructors, for you have one instructor, the Christ. The greatest among you shall be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." (Matthew 23:9-12) Pursue the Person of Jesus, not a position. Be faithful with whatever God gives you to do, for His glory, not yours. If your task is to clean the toilet, make that toilet fitting for The KING, and rejoice in such an opportunity.

5. Proverbs 30:1-3 -- "The man declares, I am weary, O God; I am weary, O God, and worn out. I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One." In John 17, Jesus said that life was knowing Him. Life for those who don't know Jesus is wearisome.

6. Proverbs 30:5, 6 -- "Every word of God proves true; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him. Do not add to his words." The Bible says that it is impossible for any human to fully understand our Creator; to fully understand the will, ways, and works of God; to know the mind of God; or to know what ought to be done day-by-day. So, God has given us His word and the counsel of the Holy Spirit to guide us through life on this earth. Nothing can be added to God's word, and those without the Holy Spirit cannot understand how to rightly apply God's word. It takes faith to trust God's word when you don't understand it. It takes faith to please God.

- Isaiah 55:8, 9 – For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

- Proverbs 3:5-8 -- Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord, and turn away from evil. It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones.

- 1 Corinthians 13:12 -- For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known.

- John 3:3-13 -- Jesus answered him, 'Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.... That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit....

Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak of what we know, and bear witness to what we have seen, but you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except he who descended from heaven, the Son of Man."

- Mathew 22:29 -- But Jesus answered them, "You are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God.

7. Proverbs 30:8-9 -- "Feed me with the food that is needful for me, lest I be full and deny you and say, 'Who is the LORD?' or lest I be poor and steal and profane the name of my God." Both good and bad circumstances can tempt us to sin. Good times can make us complacent and prideful; bad times can make us desperate, disgruntled, and disobedient.

8. Proverbs 30:12 -- "There are those who are clean in their own eyes but are not washed of their filth." Most people have a higher opinion of themselves than they ought.

9. Proverbs 30:20 -- "This is the way of an adulteress: she eats and wipes her mouth and says, 'I have done no wrong.'" Sinners have an incredible way of justifying and making light of their sin. Many sin and act as if it never happened, and some hearts have grown so calloused they cannot no longer recognize sin as sin.

10. Psalm 74:1 -- "O God, why do you cast us off forever? Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?"

- It can often feel like God has forgotten you or abandoned you -- He hasn't. Wait on the Lord. He knows exactly what is happening to you, is in complete control of your situation, and can only respond to you in perfect love and faithfulness. You cannot possibly understand the good He has in store for you as He takes you through trials and tribulations. What seems bad to us, God is bringing together for good. (Romans 8:28) Be still and know that God is God.

- Psalm 74 is identified as "A Maskil of Asaph" or song of Asaph. Who was Asaph, and to what event does this Psalm refer? When was "everything in the sanctuary" destroyed by "enemies"? Asaph was David's music director and is believed to have written twelve Psalms which collectively make up a larger portion of the entire Bible than several other books in the Bible. Asaph lived from David's reign, through Solomon's to Rehoboam's. So, he offers a VERY unique and important perspective, having basically witnessed the nation of Israel rise to its "Golden Age" under David and then fall to destruction after Solomon turned to idolatry. Asaph watched as the kingdom was torn in two, and he witnessed the Egyptians invade Jerusalem and strip the Temple. Though Asaph appears to have remained faithful in his service to God, he nonetheless personally suffered greatly due to the sins of the leaders and the sins of the nation. No doubt, many of Asaph's family and friends were killed in the foreign invasions about which he writes. Psalm 74 likely reflects Asaph's distress at the invasion of Shishak the king of Egypt. What can we learn today from Asaph's Psalm? First, Asaph clearly recognizes that Israel's national problems are in fact due to God's anger in response to the nation's sins. It wasn't simply because Egypt had grown strong or because Israel's leaders had not been competent enough -- it was because Israel had turned from God, the true source of their strength. How will God judge the sins of our nation? Second, Asaph, though faithful to God, also suffers the consequences of the nation's sins. When a nation turns from God, everyone suffers the consequences. It is important for Christians understand that reality as they prepare for the future. Finally, Asaph, though undoubtedly disillusioned by his government, never lost his faith in God or his perspective that “God [is] King is from of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.” (Psalm 74:12) In a time of national despair, Asaph understood that a stronger military, a better economy, or more capable elected officials would not save the nation, only the power of God. On what does the future of America depend?

11. Psalm 74:2 – “Remember your congregation, which you have purchased of old, which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your heritage!” God’s congregation is those whose sin debt He has paid through the blood of Jesus Christ and who now follow Him as His disciple.

12. Psalm 74:7 – “They set your sanctuary on fire; they profaned the dwelling place of your name, bringing it down to the ground.” God’s enemies will profane His name and seek to destroy the work of His people on earth.

13. Psalm 74:8 – “They said to themselves, ‘We will utterly subdue them;’ they burned all the meeting places of God in the land.” God’s enemies will not be satisfied while there are still those who worship God.

14. Psalm 74:9, 12 – “We do not see our signs; there is no longer any prophet, and there is none among us who knows how long.... Yet God my King is from of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.” A lack of prophecy is evidence of a weak, dying church. Despite the weak and dying churches, God will still work His plan for salvation across the earth for those He intends to save.

15. Psalm 74:16 – “Yours is the day, yours also the night; you have established the heavenly lights and the sun.” God is still in control.

16. Psalm 74:22 – “Arise, O God, defend your cause; remember how the foolish scoff at you all the day!” Just like sick people vomit, the fools will scoff. Remain true to the LORD in the midst of an epidemic of sin.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 30 June: Evaluate your self-control today. Test yourself by intentionally resisting that one particular temptation that you struggle with. In your temptation, pray and meditate upon why it is so difficult for you to resist. What does it reveal about your heart and your walk with the Spirit? Get to the root of the temptation. Rather than seeking greater willpower, seek the supernatural power of the Spirit in your life to build your self-control. Seek greater unity with the Spirit.

DBRP - WEEK 26, Day 5, Friday, 29 June 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 29 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 21:1 -- "Then Satan stood against Israel and incited David to number Israel." Satan's objective is to come between you and God by getting you to disobey Him and seek your own will.

2. 1 Chronicles 21:3 – “But Joab said, ‘May the Lord add to his people a hundred times as many as they are! Are they not, my lord the king, all of them my lord’s servants? Why then should my lord require this? Why should it be a cause of guilt for Israel?" Often people close to you can see the error of your ways better than you can.

3. 1 Chronicles 21:8 – "And David said to God, 'I have sinned greatly in that I have done this thing. But now, please take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.'" Repentance addresses God, admits sin, accepts the foolishness of personal acts, and asks for forgiveness.

4. 1 Chronicles 21:13 -- "Then David said to Gad, 'I am in great distress. Let me fall into the hand of the Lord, for his mercy is very great, but do not let me fall into the hand of man.'" Better to be disciplined by God who loves you than to be persecuted by people who can't love you. You can trust God's love when He disciplines you.

5. 1 Chronicles 21:14, 17 – "So the Lord sent a pestilence on Israel, and 70,000 men of Israel fell.... And David said to God, 'Was it not I who gave command to number the people? It is I who have sinned and done great evil. But these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand, O Lord my God, be against me and against my father's house. But do not let the plague be on your people.'" Your sin may cause many others to suffer.

6. 1 Chronicles 21:15 – "And God sent the angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but as he was about to destroy it, the Lord saw, and he relented from the calamity. And he said to the angel who was working destruction, 'It is enough; now stay your hand.' And the angel of the Lord was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite." In His mercy, God does not give you the punishment you deserve.

7. 1 Chronicles 22:5 – "For David said, 'Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the Lord must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and glory throughout all lands. I will therefore make preparation for it.' So David provided materials in great quantity before his death." God's people plan for and invest in an eternal plan and think generationally. It takes faith to put all your energies into a future you cannot see.

8. 1 Chronicles 22:13 -- "Then you will prosper if you are careful to observe the statutes and the rules that the Lord commanded Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Fear not; do not be dismayed." Salvation is a gift that cannot be earned through works, but many blessings we receive on earth depend upon obedience and faith. Our actions have consequences.

9. 1 Chronicles 22:19 -- "Now set your mind and heart to seek the Lord your God. Arise and build the sanctuary of the Lord God." We were made to serve God on earth. All of your work should be assigned by God and dedicated to Him. Don't pursue your own work that is dedicated to your own personal kingdom on earth.

10. Proverbs 29:1 – "He who is often reproved, yet stiffens his neck, will suddenly be broken beyond healing." God forgives and heals, but there is a point where the sickness of sin becomes terminal.

11. Proverbs 29:4 -- "By justice a king builds up the land, but he who exacts gifts tears it down." Godly leaders are motivated by justice, not influenced by political interest group donations.

12. Proverbs 29:7 -- "A righteous man knows the rights of the poor; a wicked man does not understand such knowledge." Godly leaders are not influenced by money.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Proverbs 29:9 -- "If a wise man has an argument with a fool, the fool only rages and laughs, and there is no quiet." Don't waste your energy arguing with fools. Proclaim the truth, but don't argue.

14. Proverbs 29:10 -- "Bloodthirsty men hate one who is blameless and seek the life of the upright." If you stand for truth, you will be targeted.

15. Proverbs 29:11 -- "A fool gives full vent to his spirit, but a wise man quietly holds it back." Have the wisdom to control yourself. Wise leaders show restraint when confronted.

16. Proverbs 29:12 -- "If a ruler listens to falsehood, all his officials will be wicked." Ungodly leaders bring ungodly subordinate leaders.

17. Proverbs 29:18 -- "Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law." A nation that drifts away from God's word will drift into lawlessness. When the church loses its salt and light and fails to do its job as the conscience of the state, national lawlessness prevails and the nation crumbles. The problem with the nation is not unbelievers but rather compromised, unfaithful, unholy, believers.

18. Proverbs 29:19 -- "By mere words a servant is not disciplined, for though he understands, he will not respond." When a person or people refuse to listen to the word of God, physical discipline must be applied.

19. Proverbs 29:20 -- "Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him." Godly leaders are careful with their words.

20. Proverbs 29:22 -- "A man of wrath stirs up strife, and one given to anger causes much transgression." Godly leaders do not stir up strife.

21. Proverbs 29:26 -- "Many seek the face of a ruler, but it is from the Lord that a man gets justice." Our hope is not in political leaders or in courts but in God alone. Our nation needs revival above elections.

Note: Check out this video overview of Philippians as you prepare to read the book --
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oE9qqW1-BkU>

22. Philippians 1:1, 2 -- "Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, To all the saints in Christ Jesus... Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." Paul's letter offers some very important insights into his perspective on our role in Christ: We are called to be servants and saints as Christ's ambassadors on a mission of reconciliation, proclaiming grace and peace on behalf of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. We are all partners in the gospel, sharing in God's grace. Christians have a heart for one another, continually and joyfully praying for one another as we all endeavor to grow more Christ-like each day and struggle to remain faithful to our calling under the great challenges presented by the world, the flesh, and the devil. As Christians ("people of the book"), we know that love must be accompanied by knowledge and insight so we can understand specifically what God's will is in order to pursue purity and holiness and to truly live a life of fidelity, worthy of the Gospel of Christ. Our aim is to courageously and fearlessly proclaim the gospel, and we know that the more courageous we are, the more we inspire others to confidence (iron sharpens iron). We preach God's truth not because we are judgmental "haters" but rather out of love and goodwill. We are not ashamed of the Gospel, and we are not afraid of the world's response to our message, because we have already been crucified with Christ and no longer live, but Christ lives in us. Our suffering for the gospel is fellowship with Christ. Our suffering on behalf of Christ is for us a gift from God, and in faith, we stand firm in unity before a sinful world.

23. Philippians 1:6 -- "And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ." You are a work in progress.

24. Philippians 1:7-11 -- "You are all partakers with me of grace.... For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus. And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God." Living by Grace, we are called to grow day-by-day in ever-increasing love, purity, and righteousness, through the power of Christ in order to bring glory to Him. Grace is not an excuse to continue in sin.

25. Philippians 1:12-14 -- "I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel, so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ. And most of the brothers, having become confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word without fear." God places you in challenging circumstances and with difficult people so that you can spread the Gospel while God also builds up your godly character. Don't resent the circumstances God has given you. Be thankful.

26. Philippians 1:15-16 -- "Some indeed preach Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from good will. The latter do it out of love." There are those who use the word of God for the wrong motives. But Bible doesn't tell us to just speak the truth but rather to "speak the truth in love." God knows everyone's motives and judges the heart. Check your own heart before you challenge others with the word of God; make sure you are not being motivated by fear, pride, anger, envy, or anything other than love.

27. Philippians 1:24, 25 -- "My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better. But to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account." In Christ, our only goal for life on earth should be to grow closer to Christ and to bring others closer to Christ. Nothing else really matters. To draw closer to Christ, you must obey Him. If you obey Him, all the issues of life will be resolved.

28. Philippians 1:27-28 -- "Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ... standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel, and not frightened in anything by your opponents." God intends for you to "strive" with other Christians to advance the Gospel with boldness. Striving is no small effort. The Greek word used here is "sunathleō," from where we get the word "athletics." The root word athleō was used of gladiators fighting in the arena. Paul pictured us fighting together, side by side in the arena of this world in a life and death battle to advance the gospel – "and not frightened in anything by your opponents." Are you courageously striving for the Gospel? Who is fighting at your side?

29. Philippians 1:29 -- "For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake." Suffering for God is a special trust granted to you by God Himself. You should be honored to suffer for Him.

Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 29 June 17: God has called you to proclaim the Gospel to the world, to go into the world and make disciples, teaching them to obey all that Jesus commanded (Matt 28:19-21), to be an Ambassador for Christ (2 Cor 5:20), proclaiming the mission of reconciliation (2 Cor 5:19), to dedicate your whole life and all of your energy to spreading the Good News (Philp 1). So, today, evaluate your mission accomplishment so far, and rededicate yourself to total commitment. Don't waste your life chasing after things that don't matter.

DBRP - WEEK 26, Day 4, Thursday, 28 June 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 28 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 19:3 -- "Do you think, because David has sent comforters to you, that he is honoring your father? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?' So Hanun took David's servants and shaved them and cut off their garments in the middle, at their hips, and sent them away...." We can misinterpret others' motives and actions when we view them from a position of fear, doubt, and our own sinful motives, and this may cause us to act sinfully towards them -- needless quarrels start that can be very destructive. Love calls us to give others the benefit of the doubt when acts of kindness are offered. Remember, only God truly knows the heart of another person. Be careful not to assume the worse of others.

- Previous notes (19 May 18) on this story as told in 2 Samuel 10 -- David sends a delegation to king Hanun to console him concerning the recent death of his father. Hanun, the young, inexperienced, poorly advised king of the Ammonites misinterprets David's gesture of kindness, believing it to be a trick, and responds by publicly humiliating and dishonoring David's envoys. The result is a pointless war between the Israelites, Ammonites and Syrians where over 40,000 people needlessly die. It is not at all hard to understand why Hanun acted the way he did: sending spies as envoys is a common tactic, and David's modus operandus included this sort of deception. Remember in 1 Samuel 27, king Achish trusted David while David was secretly massacring villages within his land, leaving "neither man nor woman alive to bring news to Gath." (1 Samuel 27:11) During the death of a king and the subsequent transition to new leadership, a kingdom is very vulnerable, and Hanun surely felt insecure and defensive. A wiser David would have recognized the sensitivity of the situation and would have dealt with Hanun more carefully; but David, rather than considering Hanun's perspective, assumed that Hanun would see things from his perspective, a big mistake we often make in our relationships. Hanun on the other hand reacted to David's poorly timed gesture rashly, likely due to his insecurity as a new king. Insecurity makes people defensive and often causes them to assume the worst in others. Insecurity can destroy relationships. Hanun did one of the worse things someone can do in a relationship, he belittled, embarrassed, humiliated and dishonored David and his men. He robbed them of their dignity. In this case, neither party had the maturity, self-confidence, or moral courage to seek forgiveness and reconciliation. It continued to escalate into great destruction. The first rule in relationships is to seek first to understand rather than be understood. We must be sensitive to the vulnerabilities and insecurities of others. If we have offended someone, we must quickly seek forgiveness, restitution and reconciliation, even if the other party is not wholly innocent. If we have been offended, we must quickly forgive and seek reconciliation. "If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all." (Romans 12:18) "Aim for restoration, comfort one another, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you." (2 Corinthians 13:11) Finally, we must NEVER dishonor or humiliate another person, but rather treat all people with dignity and respect.

2. 1 Chronicles 19:6 – “When the Ammonites saw that they had become a stench to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Aram-maacah, and from Zobah.” It is far easier to admit you are wrong and apologize than to try to defend your defenseless position. Demonstrate humility and settle matters quickly before they escalate out of control. “The beginning of strife is like letting out water, so quit before the quarrel breaks out.” (Proverbs 17:14)

3. 1 Chronicles 19:13 -- “Be strong, and let us use our strength for our people and for the cities of our God, and may the Lord do what seems good to him.” Great strength is found in the spirit of a person fighting for God and family. Victory is always in the hands of the LORD. Who would want to fight against Him? If what you are fighting for is not from God, you are fighting in vain.

4. 1 Chronicles 19:15 – “And when the Ammonites saw that the Syrians fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, Joab’s brother, and entered the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.” Fear can be very contagious, even among God’s people.

5. Proverbs 28:1 -- “The righteous are bold as a lion.” Faith in your position as Christ's Ambassador makes you naturally bold. A lack of boldness is an indicator of a lack of faith. God wants you to be bold.

6. Proverbs 28:5 -- “Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the Lord understand it completely.” God is the source of justice. Those who do not know God cannot administer justice. Secular leaders will lead unjustly. Justice is only administered by those who fear the LORD.

7. Proverbs 28:7 -- “The one who keeps the law is a son with understanding, but a companion of gluttons shames his father.” Gluttony is shameful. Lawlessness and gluttony both reveal a lack of self-control. Self-control is a fruit of the Spirit (see Galatians 5), not the product of intellect or human will.

8. Proverbs 28:8 – “Whoever multiplies his wealth by interest and profit gathers it for him who is generous to the poor.” God does not want His people to get wealthy from charging interest. God wants his people to gain wealth through industriousness, adding value, not by redistributing wealth from the weak to the strong.

9. Proverbs 28:9 -- “If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.” Sin hinders prayer. God does not honor the prayers of those who reject His law.

- “The late Norman Vincent Peale tells about a time when, as a young boy, he was intrigued by smoking. One day he found a cigar so he went to an alley behind his house and lit it up. He says the cigar did not taste very good, but it made him feel grown-up. That is, until he saw his father enter the alley. Quickly Norman Vincent Peale put the cigar behind his back and tried to act casual. Desperately trying to divert his father’s attention he pointed to a billboard at the corner advertising the circus coming to town. ‘Can we please go the circus when it comes to town?’ he asked. Norman Vincent Peale says his father taught him a lesson he never forgot, ‘Son,’ his father answered quietly but firmly, ‘never make a petition while you’re trying to hide the smoldering evidence of disobedience.’ How can we expect God to answer prayers when we are living in disobedience and unconfessed sin?”

10. Proverbs 28:13 -- “Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy.” Open confession is required for repentance and reconciliation. Genuine confession and repentance are critical to your relationship with God. You cannot and will not fix what you aren't willing to be honest about, honest first with yourself and then with others. Hiding transgressions from others is an act of fear, pride, and self-centeredness. When you are honest about your sinfulness, you are then in a position to proclaim the grace of Jesus. You will stop lifting yourself up before others and will start lifting up Jesus instead.

11. Proverbs 28:20 – “A faithful man will abound with blessings, but whoever hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.” Success in life is the product of fidelity to God, not the result of hard work to pursue or own goals and objectives.

12. Proverbs 28:21 -- "To show partiality is not good, but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong." Everyone must be held accountable, but we must consider the circumstances that led someone to sin. Circumstances don't excuse sin but may contribute to it. Justice is giving people what they deserve. Mercy is not giving people what they deserve, and grace is giving people what they don't deserve. God balances perfectly justice, mercy, and grace. We must seek from God the wisdom to do the same.

13. Proverbs 28:25, 26 – “A greedy man stirs up strife, but the one who trusts in the Lord will be enriched. Whoever trusts in his own mind is a fool, but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered.” You will either trust in the LORD or in yourself. What you decide will determine the outcome of your life. Fools always think they have it all figured out, or can figure it out, and don't need God.

14. Ephesians 6:4 – “Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.” Parents are also required to treat their children with dignity, patience, gentleness, and grace. Parents cannot abuse their authority.

15. Ephesians 6:5-9 – “Bondservants, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as bondservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a bondservant or is free. Masters, do the same to them, and stop your threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and that there is no partiality with him.”

- Yes, we are to treat our bosses like we would treat Jesus, and we must do it with sincerity. Do you sincerely treat your employer like you would Jesus?

- We are called to serve both God and man, not in order to get credit but out of sincere love and to bring glory to God.

- "...knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord." God will treat you the way you treat others.

- Who receives our service should not affect how we serve; how they respond to our service should not affect how we serve. If our service is not appreciated from people it matters little because we are serving the LORD, and He will treat us in the same way we treat others. He is gracious to the gracious, generous to the generous, forgiving to the forgiving, etc. God is in control of all things, not people.

16. Ephesians 6:10, 11 – “Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil.” The devil will scheme against you, and you will not be prepared for his attacks against you without the strength that comes from God.

17. Ephesians 6:12 -- "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places." The sinner is not your real enemy, evil spiritual forces are the enemy. The sinner is your objective.

18. Ephesians 6:14-18 -- Truth, righteousness, the gospel of peace, faith, the confidence and freedom in salvation from God, the word of God, and prayer protect us day by day. How well equipped are you?

19. Ephesians 6:17 -- "Take... the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God," Train with the sword every day so you are ready for the fight when it comes. No one gets really skilled at anything with daily commitment over time. "Forty years ago, in a paper in American Scientist, Herbert Simon and William Chase drew one of the most famous conclusions in the study of expertise: 'There are no instant experts in chess—certainly no instant masters or grandmasters. There appears not to be on record any case (including Bobby Fischer) where a person reached grandmaster level with less than about a decade's intense preoccupation with the game. We would estimate, very roughly, that a master has spent perhaps 10,000 to 50,000 hours staring at chess positions...' " How many hours have you spent studying God's word?

20. Ephesians 6:18 -- "...praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints...." Effective prayer requires perseverance in prayer.

21. Ephesians 6:20 -- "...for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak." You can serve God powerfully in any position or condition.

22. Ephesians 6:22 -- "I have sent him to you for this very purpose.... that he may encourage your hearts." Everyone can use an encouraging word; are you there to provide it to them?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 28 June: Only speak encouraging words today. (Ephesians 6:22)

DBRP - WEEK 26, Day 3, Wednesday, 27 June 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 27 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 17:2 -- "And Nathan said to David, 'Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.'" We must be careful not to confuse our thoughts with God's thoughts. Just because we think it makes sense doesn't mean it is what God wants.

2. 1 Chronicles 17:9-14 -- God takes the initiative to show you the work He wants you to do for Him.

3. 1 Chronicles 17:1-3 -- "Now when David lived in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, 'Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent.' And Nathan said to David, 'Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.' But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan...." Don't presume to speak for God when God hasn't really spoken. Don't get ahead of God on decisions. Again, just because it seems good to you doesn't mean it is what God wants.

4. 1 Chronicles 18:14 – “So David reigned over all Israel, and he administered justice and equity to all his people.” God wants justice to rule the world order. God is Justice. We are the Ambassadors for Christ on Earth. We are the priests of the earth. We are called to be the predominant influence on Earth in the Name of Jesus that justice, mercy, and grace would increase.

5. Proverbs 27:1 -- "Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring." Make the most of today, and don't put off till tomorrow what God has called you to do right now. Delayed obedience is disobedience. We cannot do anything about yesterday, and tomorrow is no guarantee. Today is what we can influence. So much of life is being faithful to God one day at a time, making the most of every opportunity, and it's all about relationships. Make today a ministry masterpiece!

6. Proverbs 27:2 – “Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips.” Stop talking about yourself.

7. Proverbs 27:4 – “Wrath is cruel, anger is overwhelming, but who can stand before jealousy?” Jealousy is more powerful than even anger. Jealousy drove the religious leaders of the New Testament to seek the execution of Jesus. Watch out for jealousy.

8. Proverbs 27:5, 6 – “Better is open rebuke than hidden love. Faithful are the wounds of a friend; profuse are the kisses of an enemy.” Telling someone only what they want to hear and/or not telling them what they need to hear is unloving and something only an enemy would do.

9. Proverbs 27:8 – “Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man who strays from his home.” A chick that strays from the nest is helpless and likely to die. One who commits adultery has rendered themselves completely vulnerable to destruction.

10. Proverbs 27:9 – “Oil and perfume make the heart glad, and the sweetness of a friend comes from his earnest counsel.” Friends journey through life together in pursuit of a greater loving relationship with God. A true friend earnestly desires to tell you how you can improve your walk with God. A true friend is also eager to listen to godly advice and recommendations. A loving relationship can handle constructive critique without letting pride get in the way. Good relationships require humility and trust from both parties.

11. Proverbs 27:10 – “Do not forsake your friend and your father’s friend, and do not go to your brother’s house in the day of your calamity. Better is a neighbor who is near than a brother who is far away.” God expects fellow Christians to unite together in Christ as family and to strengthen and support one another as family.

12. Proverbs 27:11 -- "Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who reproaches me." Children bring either bring good credit or bad credit upon the family name. What do people think about your Father in Heaven when you say you are a Christian and they see how you act?

13. Proverbs 27:14 – “Whoever blesses his neighbor with a loud voice, rising early in the morning....” Ministry must take into account the specific needs and attitudes of the person receiving it. You cannot approach different people the same way, and you cannot approach people the same way under different circumstances. Approaching someone with an impersonal, cookie-cutter approach is only perceived as phony and condescending.

14. Proverbs 27:17 – “Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another.” Again, your friends should be making you a better Christian and vice versa. Friendships are based upon a mutually supportive effort to know Jesus more and more and to make Him known more and more, not a mutually supportive pursuit of simple ‘happiness’ as the world suggests. Most athletes don’t enjoy the pain that comes from pushing the limits of their current physical capacities, but they celebrate the victories that come from the painful effort. Most athletes perform better when they have a good partner – iron sharpens iron. Who is sharpening you day by day? We all need two or three very close Christian friends who will challenge us in Christ.

15. Proverbs 27:18 – “Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who guards his master will be honored.” If we allow our leaders to fail, we will only suffer for it.

16. Proverbs 27:19 – “As in water face reflects face, so the heart of man reflects the man.” We use mirrors to judge our outward condition and appearance. We use humble, prayerful, Bible-based introspection and self-awareness, empowered by the Holy Spirit to judge our inner condition, our hearts. How important is it for us to learn how to be truly self-aware, receptive to the counsel of the Holy Spirit? Reputation is what others say about you. Character is what God says about you.

17. Proverbs 27:21 -- "The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and a man is tested by his praise." Your faith is tested in both good times and bad times. How you respond to both reveals in whom you have placed your trust, in God or in yourself.

18. Proverbs 27:23-27 -- “Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds, for riches do not last forever....” God commands us to prepare for “a rainy day” because one thing is certain: it is going to rain one day, and everyone, even Christians will get wet.

19. Ephesians 5:1-2 -- "Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God."

- Wow! Even if you can’t find the time to read all the Bible readings today, take the time to read Ephesians 5 and meditate deeply upon it. Powerful! I believe that one of the major purposes of the Christian life is to tangibly reveal the truths of God to others. We are a manifestation of the Truth. How complacently we live our lives! What is the expectation? Imitate God, and walk in love and total selflessness to the point of death. Our faith must not be just “empty words” but a life of integrity before the Lord, Coram Deo, revealed to those around us. We must have nothing to do with any form of immorality. We are to “walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true),” always striving to understand more and more “what is pleasing to the Lord.” To the Christian who continues to walk with the world, the Bible commands: “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.” Repent right now as the Holy Spirit convicts, and don’t waist another second of your life in compromise (there is no such thing as a small compromise) – “[make] the best use of the time, because the days are evil.” Surrender to God not to earn your way into Heaven or to get something from God, but simply out of reverence, love and gratitude to Him – “giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.” And how do we show submission to God? We submit ourselves to others (Ephesians 5:21). Where do you start? You start with your closest relationships, particularly the challenging ones – “Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.... do good to those who hate you.... lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil....

Bondservants, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ.... Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord.... Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her.” To walk in love like Jesus is to give yourself up for others. We are called to act like God by loving others unconditionally.

- Living the life of love: Christians like to talk a lot about love (rightfully so), but they don’t like to talk much about obedience. However the two go together: Deut 11:1, Deut 11:13, Jos 22:5, Neh 1:5, Psa 85:10, Psa 119: 88, 167; Pro 3:3, Hos 4:1, Dan 9:4; John 14-24, John 15: 10; Gal 5:22, 1 Pet 1:22, 1 John 2:5, 1 John 5:3. Sometimes we equate love to acceptance of sin, but today’s readings make it clear that “children of the light... have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them.” As Ephesians 4:15 instructed us yesterday, “Instead, [speak] the truth in love, [so that] we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ. Proverbs says it this way: Better is open rebuke than hidden love. Wound from a friend can be trusted.... Iron sharpens iron.” Today, Paul is being very specific about how Christians should live: “Be imitators of God (of who?)” as “God’s holy people” without even a hint of impurity. Don’t have a faith of mere “empty words.” Live carefully, wisely, prudently, productively, soberly, thankfully, purely, and joyfully. Be filled with the Holy Spirit. Submit to one another, not just for their sake, but out of reverence for Christ. This standard of living is something to strive for, without pride, fear, frustration, or comparison:

-- “Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained. Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.” (Philippians 3:12-21)

20. Ephesians 5:3-8 -- "But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not become partners with them." Perhaps no temporal sin is more condemned in the Bible than sexual sin, which is pure selfishness and strikes at the foundation the most important ordained institution on earth – the family. There is nothing funny about sexual sin, nothing at all. There is no excuse for sexual sin. It is to be abhorred. Do not partner with the sexually immoral. This message is clear throughout the Bible but less and less popular today.

21. Ephesians 5:4 – “Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving.” Some joking is out of place for believers.

22. Ephesians 5:10 – “...and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord.” You can and are supposed to know what pleases God from your personal study and your receptivity to the Holy Spirit. The Bible says,

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

“try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord,” much like a football coach says, try to catch the ball. It is within your capability, but it takes practice. At first, you will drop the ball more than you catch it, but with practice, you will improve. Without practice, without a willingness to keep trying persistently, you will never get better.

23. Ephesians 5:11, 12 -- “Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret.” God calls us to expose sin, much like John the Baptist did when he condemned Herod’s adultery (subsequently being executed). To be silent before sin is to condone it and to be culpable. What are you saying about fornication, adultery, homosexuality, pornography, etc?

24. Ephesians 5:25 – “Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her....” Husbands must surrender their lives for their spouses.

25. Ephesians 5:32 -- “This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church.” Marriage is designed to be a visible representation to the world of Christ's love for His church. If you are married, your marriage is your primary testimony to the world.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 27 June: Today, endeavor to "sacrifice" yourself to others and to give yourself up for others as Christ gave Himself up for you. Take up your cross when persecuted by others, with grace, mercy, and love. Forgive the sinners who "know not what they do." Return evil with kindness. While sharing in the sufferings of Jesus, humbly expose sin (in love), preach repentance, and proclaim the Gospel. (Ephesians 5)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 26 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 15:2; Deut 10:8 – “Then David said that no one but the Levites may carry the ark of God, for the Lord had chosen them to carry the ark of the Lord and to minister to him forever.” We must obey God. God’s word reveals what God commands. We must know, through diligent study, God’s word to know God’s commands. Obedience to God’s word enables our success.

2. 1 Chronicles 15:13 -- “Because you did not carry it the first time, the LORD our God broke out against us, because we did not seek him according to the rule.” Honoring God involves obeying Him as God. You cannot be complacent with God's commands. Only after David truly understood God’s word did David understand why God had disciplined him and caused him to fail. It would have been much better if David had understood and followed God’s word in the first place. (see 1 Chronicles 13:7)

3. 1 Chronicles 15:16, 25 – “David also commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their brothers as the singers who should play loudly on musical instruments, on harps and lyres and cymbals, to raise sounds of joy.... So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the house of Obed-edom with rejoicing.” God wants worshipful obedience to bring joy to you.

4. 1 Chronicles 15:22 – “Chenaniah, leader of the Levites in music, should direct the music, for he understood it.” God assigns ministers based upon the skills He has given them. What God has enabled you to do is for Him, not for you.
5. 1 Chronicles 16:9 -- "Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wondrous works!" God wants His works in your life to be the primary topic of your conversation with others.
6. 1 Chronicles 16:11 – “Seek the Lord and his strength; seek his presence continually!” Seeking the LORD is a continuous, wholehearted endeavor.
7. 1 Chronicles 16:12 – “Remember the wondrous works that he has done, his miracles and the judgments he uttered....” Worship should include recounting all the things God has done in your life.
8. 1 Chronicles 16:19 – “When you were few in number, of little account, and sojourners in it....” God begins mighty works with the few faithful among the masses.
9. 1 Chronicles 16:20-22 – “...wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people, he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account, saying, ‘Touch not my anointed ones, do my prophets no harm!’” God protects you when you have no strength, power or status. Have comfort in knowing the no one can take you outside of God’s will or protection. Whatever happens to you is intended by God for a greater good you cannot imagine.
10. 1 Chronicles 16:23 – “Sing to the Lord, all the earth! Tell of his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples!” God expects you to tell everyone about your salvation through Jesus. God wants you involved in His mission to redeem the lost world.
11. 1 Chronicles 16:25-26, 31 – “For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and he is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the Lord made the heavens.... Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice, and let them say among the nations, ‘The Lord reigns!’” God alone has power. God loves you unconditionally and with all power – rejoice in that! The world does not know or accept that “The LORD reigns.” This is even more reason to proclaim that truth.
12. Proverbs 26:11 -- "Like a dog that returns to his vomit is a fool who repeats his folly." You repeat what you don't repair. Don't keep making the same mistakes over and over again. Surrender to the Holy Spirit, learn and grow.
13. Proverbs 26:12 -- "Do you see a man who is wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him." Spiritual growth requires spiritual humility. Don't be prideful in your spirit.
14. Proverbs 26:13 -- "The sluggard says, 'There is a lion in the road! There is a lion in the streets!'" People come up with all sorts of excuses for why they 'can't' do what they should do.
15. Proverbs 26:27 -- "Whoever digs a pit will fall into it, and a stone will come back on him who starts it rolling." Don't get wrapped up in competition with other people, trying to undermine them. When you fight other people, you get hurt too. As the old saying says, "Don't wrestle with a pig in the mud because you both get dirty and the pig likes it."

16. Ephesians 4:1-3 -- "I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." Are you walking worthy?

In grace, God expects us to "walk with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace."

17. Ephesians 4:4-7 -- "There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all." We must strive for unity at all times because God's character seeks unity and because He brought us to unity with Him through grace, giving us relationship with Him despite our ugliness.

18. Ephesians 4:9-16 -- We must strive for unity with those who are hard to deal with, considering what depths Christ sank and what wounds He suffered to unite us with the Father. No one compares worse to us than we compare to the One who saved us.

19. Ephesians 4:11-14 -- "He equip[ed] the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes." You were made to help others get closer to Christ and to grow in the true knowledge of Him.

20. Ephesians 4:15 -- "Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ." You cannot love without speaking the truth, but you must speak the truth in a way that draws others closer to Christ, not further away. True love speaks the truth in love.

21. Ephesians 4:16 -- "...the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love." God's people should be as united and as mutually supportive as a human body, all responding to the desires of the Head, Jesus.

22. Ephesians 4:18 -- "They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart."

- A lack of wisdom is a heart problem.

- People are far from God because of the hardness of their hearts, not because God has made Himself inaccessible.

23. Ephesians 4:19, 20 -- "They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!" When people reject God, they turn to impurity. When people turn to Christ, they pursue the purity modelled by Christ.

24. Ephesians 4:26 -- "Be angry and do not sin." Anger is not sinful. Misapplied anger is sinful.

25. Ephesians 4:26-32 -- Un-forgiveness, idleness, and careless talk enable the devil in your life.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

26. Ephesians 4:29 -- "Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up." If it isn't helpful, don't say it.

27. Ephesians 4:1-3, 22, 24, 30 -- "I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.... put off your old self.... put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.... And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption."

- God has called us to pursue holiness with all our might (every effort). You have been saved by grace, through faith in Christ; now "live a life worthy of the calling you have received." What is that calling?

-- called to be set apart for the gospel of God (Rom 1:1)

-- called to belong to Jesus Christ (Rom 1:6)

-- called to be saints (Rom 1:7)

-- called to be holy (1 Cor 1:2, 2 Tim 1:9, 1 Pet 1:15)

-- called into fellowship with Jesus Christ our Lord (1 Cor 1:9)

-- called us to live in peace (1 Cor 7:15, Col 3:15)

-- called to be Christ's slave (1 Cor 7:22)

-- called to be free in Christ (Gal 5:13)

-- called to know hope (Eph 1:18)

-- called to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ (2 Thes 2:14)

-- called to eternal life (2 Tim 6:12)

-- called to follow in the footsteps of Christ (1 Pet 2:21)

-- called to inherit a blessing (1 Pet 3:9)

-- called to eternal glory in Christ (1 Pet 5:10)

- The Bible says that we "are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that [we] may declare the praises of him who called [us] out of darkness into his wonderful light" (1 Peter 2:9). Today Paul is urging us to wake up and grow up – to stop living like the world and to be holy because God our Father is holy – to attain "the whole measure of the fullness of Christ." Don't we realize that we were "created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness?" It is time to live up to our calling.

28. Ephesians 4:31-32 -- "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you." More attributes to measure yourself against.

29. Ephesians 4:32 – Forgive others the way Christ forgave you.

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 25 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 13:1, 2 -- "David consulted with the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with every leader. And David said to all the assembly of Israel, 'If it seems good to you and from the LORD our God....'"

- David focused his time on his leaders, counting on them to transmit his message, to execute his intent, and to give him feedback and counsel from their perspectives. Only a very few interacted with David daily. David had to not only develop leaders he could trust, but he had to develop leaders who knew how to develop trustworthy subordinate leaders. David needed disciple-making leaders who would develop godly disciple-making leaders. A person has limited capacity to truly disciple others, which takes daily effort to teach, coach and mentor in a way that develops godly character. A person can only truly disciple a limited number. Who are you discipling daily?

- Trust is the fabric of any organization. David's trust throughout his ranks of leaders rested on their fidelity to God above all else and their receptivity to God's leading. David relied on the confidence that his leaders, in the absence of specific and direct orders, would hear and obey God. Note what David said to the assembly – "If it seems good to you and from the LORD our God...." David was counting on leaders who would not simply rely on their own judgment but who would prayerfully seek guidance from God and be guided by the leading of the Holy Spirit. David didn't just say, "if it seems good and also lawful;" he said if it is "from" the LORD. Critical to good leadership is being led by the Holy Spirit, above our incredibly limited, easily deceived human perception and intellect. The Holy Spirit is not limited, but we can quench, grieve, and get out of step with the Spirit through our own infidelity and disobedience. If we don't experience clear guidance and intent from the Spirit daily as Jesus did, the issue is with our own lack of receptivity based upon the condition of our hearts. A good decision is not just based upon what we think; it must be "from the LORD."

2. 1 Chronicles 13:3 -- "Then let us bring again the ark of our God to us, for we did not seek it in the days of Saul." David knew that the kingdom's future depended on revelation from God and the power of God. So, does your future. Saul did not seek God's counsel as he should have, and it cost him everything and also caused the needless suffering of countless others. Learn from the lessons of the Old Testament which are provided for you by God.

3. 1 Chronicles 13:10-12 – "And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzzah, and he struck him down because he put out his hand to the ark, and he died there before God. And David was angry because the Lord had broken out against Uzzah.... And David was afraid of God that day...." What does it take for a person to stop fighting God's will, to stop blaming God for the consequence of sin, and to start revering God and obeying him? The Ark of the Covenant represented God's holiness and sat in the Most Holy Place. After the death of Aaron's two sons when they approached the Lord inappropriately, God gave Moses these instructions: "Tell your brother Aaron not to come whenever he chooses into the

Most Holy Place behind the curtain in front of the atonement cover on the ark, or else he will die, for God has proclaimed 'Among those who approach me I will show myself holy; in the sight of all the people I will be honored.'" God had given very specific instructions as to how the ark was to be handled: It was to be carried only by the Levites on foot using long poles that ran through rings on the sides – there were never to be removed. The people were to be shielded from the ark by the "atonement cover" made of pure gold and a curtain. The ark had been forgotten during the reign of Saul, and the people had lost perspective on the holiness of God. As the ark is carelessly moved in an unauthorized fashion, Uzzah dares to touch this holy object and dies – he had subconsciously presumed that his sinful hands were somehow cleaner than the ground where the ark would have fallen. It is interesting to me how David's response begins with anger and then turns to fear. The clearer our perspective of God, the greater we appreciate his holiness in contrast to our sinfulness, the more grateful we become for the grace bestowed upon us. Think of Peter's response to Jesus when he first understood who Jesus was: "he fell at Jesus' knees and said, 'Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!'" Today's readings in Ephesians point out that "In him and through faith in him we may approach God with freedom and confidence." However, this statement does not suggest that we should approach God without reverence. Note the next verse: "For this reason I kneel before the Father...." Today, worship has become very casual. Perhaps we have a problem with our perspective of God's holiness, our sinfulness, and the grace which we have received. How differently would we approach our God and live our lives with a clearer perspective.

4. 1 Chronicles 14:10-12 – "And David inquired of God, 'Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you give them into my hand?' And the Lord said to him, 'Go up, and I will give them into your hand.' And he went up to Baal-perazim, and David struck them down there. And David said, 'God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like a bursting flood.' Therefore the name of that place is called Baal-perazim. And they left their gods there, and David gave command, and they were burned." David inquired of God, knew without question God's reply, was quick to see God's hand in the outcomes, and publicly gave God all the credit while recommitting to obedience. Is that how you function?

5. Proverbs 25:2 – "It is the glory of God to conceal things, but the glory of kings is to search things out." What motivates your quest for knowledge will largely determine what you discover. Many get the right answers to all the wrong questions. Many seek increased knowledge to validate their own assumptions, turning a blind eye to greater truths. What might we have discovered in science and technology has we not raised up our children within an education system that excludes God from the equation? So much knowledge is a misguided, prideful pursuit among people seeking to free themselves of God's truth. "'Knowledge' puffs up, but love builds up." (1 Corinthians 8:1) "For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men." (1 Corinthians 1:25)

6. Proverbs 25:4 – "Take away the dross from the silver, and the smith has material for a vessel." Are you diligently seeking to remove the dross of sin from your life that you would be a worthy vessel for the Holy Spirit?

7. Proverbs 25:5 – "Take away the wicked from the presence of the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness." Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

8. Proverbs 25:6, 7 – "Do not put yourself forward in the king's presence or stand in the place of the great, for it is better to be told, 'Come up here,' than to be put lower in the presence of a noble." Too many people seek ministry and positions of church leadership for which God has not anointed them.

Too many leaders fail miserably because they are seeking to do what God never intended for them. If you are truly obedient to the responsibilities and opportunities God has placed in front of you, increased responsibility will naturally happen, and you will be truly ready for it.

9. Proverbs 25:15, 16 – “With patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue will break a bone. If you have found honey, eat only enough for you, lest you have your fill of it and vomit it.” Patience and self-control are key to positive relationships and to success in general.

10. Proverbs 25:19 – “Trusting in a treacherous man in time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips.” The wrong people in your life can make things bad that should be good.

11. Proverbs 25:28 – “A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.” Those who lack self-control are perpetual victims. Most people in America will die from diseases associated with smoking, a poor diet, a lack of exercise, and too much stress. However, they will really die from a lack of self-control. Self-control comes from the Holy Spirit, not from a better education or positive thinking.

12. Ephesians 3:1 -- "For this reason I, Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles...." There is no greater job than to be a prisoner for Jesus. Are you a prisoner for Christ on behalf of those God has placed in your life for His purposes?

13. Ephesians 3:2, 3 -- "You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you, how the mystery was made known to me by revelation." The grace that we have received is not primarily for us but rather has been given to us to for others. God revealed to us the Gospel, and we are called to be good stewards of the revelation that has been given to us. Your goal in life is to spread the good news to as many people as possible.

14. Ephesians 3:7 – “Of this gospel I was made a minister according to the gift of God's grace, which was given me by the working of his power.” Only God can empower a disciple or minister. You were chosen and did not commission yourself.

15. Ephesians 3:8 -- "To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ." God chooses His servants not because of their righteousness but because of His grace.

16. Ephesians 3:12, 13 – “...in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him. So I ask you not to lose heart over what I am suffering for you, which is your glory.” Faith in Christ gives us boldness before man and special access to God which empowers us and gives us supernatural understanding. Faith enables us to see that all of our circumstances are for God's glory.

17. Ephesians 3:16 – “...that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being....” True power comes from the Spirit of God within a true, yielded believer.

18. Ephesians 3:16-19 -- "...according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God." The Spirit gives you the power to grow in faith and love and to know Christ more and more, being filled fuller each day with Christ. You cannot grow in Christ without the power of the Spirit.

19. Ephesians 3:17 – “...so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love....” Real love only comes through a Christ-filled heart.

20. Ephesians 3:19 – “...and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.” Godliness is not achieved through knowledge and intellect but rather through Spirit-enabled love that is impossible to understand. The fullness of God comes through love.

21. Ephesians 3:20, 21 -- "Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen." God is doing things in you and for you that you cannot possibly understand. God will do far more than you can possibly imagine, far beyond your prayers, and not through your power but through His power working through you. Could you imagine a parent limiting his actions directed toward a three-year-old to only what the child asked for or to only what that child could imagine? Of course, a three-year-old cannot possibly comprehend what he really needs in life or how much the parent is ready to do for his benefit. Far more so, it is impossible for us to comprehend the love and power of the Father directed towards us. My kids have to trust me when they don't understand my actions towards them, and even more so, we have to trust in God and walk in faith. God is at work within you. Rejoice and walk boldly day by day. Trust in Him.

“Cross” Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 25 June 18: Pray for spiritual strength and to be filled more fully with the love and knowledge of Jesus. (Ephesians 3:16-20)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 24 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 11:3 – “And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the Lord by Samuel.” The Israelites elected the king God had already chosen. They chose him because he was clearly chosen by God. A nation that chooses to honor God above all else will elect godly leaders and receive the natural blessings that come from god-honoring choices. A nation that does not honor God as God will receive the consequences of the ungodly leaders they raise up.

2. 1 Chronicles 11:6 -- “‘Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and commander.’ And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.” David made the common mistake of choosing a leader simply because of his competency and ability to get things done rather than his character, loyalty, and trustworthiness. Joab was a mighty warrior but he was also deceitful, ruthless, and self-serving.

3. 1 Chronicles 11:9 -- "And David became greater and greater, for the Lord of hosts was with him." Your success depends on God's presence in your life. He won't walk away from you; be careful not to walk away from Him.

4. 1 Chronicles 11:10 -- "Now these are the chiefs of David's mighty men, who gave him strong support in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the Lord concerning Israel." Good leaders must be surrounded by mighty men, dedicated to God and skilled at what they do.

5. 1 Chronicles 11:12 -- "You shall be shepherd of my people Israel." Leaders are to be shepherds of the weak and defenseless, leading them to where they need to go and protecting them. The One Shepherd is Jesus; human leaders must be following Jesus in order to lead others where they need to go. Stray from Jesus, and you are leading others astray.

6. 1 Chronicles 11:17-19 -- "And David said longingly, 'Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate!' Then the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate and took it and brought it to David. But David would not drink it. He poured it out to the Lord and said, 'Far be it from me before my God that I should do this. Shall I drink the lifeblood of these men? For at the risk of their lives they brought it.' Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men." Leaders, be careful not to focus inward in your weakness. Be careful what you ask for, your followers will wear themselves out to get it for you. Consider carefully your displayed emotions and every word that comes out of your mouth so that you don't unintentionally mislead your followers. If you remain a faithful ambassador for Christ, not representing your own interests, you will be a good leader.

7. 1 Chronicles 12:16 -- "If you have come to me in friendship to help me, my heart will be joined to you; but if to betray me to my adversaries, although there is no wrong in my hands, then may the God of our fathers see and rebuke you." Oneness with God involves faithfulness to God, obedience. God rebukes disobedience and infidelity. Nearness to God is not about physical distance; it is about spiritual distance; how close you are to Him and His will. Today, many people desire unity, but people cannot have lasting unity unless they are all first united to Jesus. The closer people get to Jesus, the closer they get to each other and their unity is firmly grounded in the rock of Truth, Peace, Justice, and Security.

8. 1 Chronicles 12:38 -- "Likewise, all the rest of Israel were of a single mind." Organizations of any kind generate power through unity of vision, unity of effort, and unity of action. When that focus and unity is dedicated to God's will, that organization is unstoppable. Disunity among God's people causes weakness and failure. Logically, the closer everyone in a group is to Jesus, the closer they are to each other. When there is disunity and dissention, someone, or everyone, is not close enough to Jesus. Check your own proximity.

9. Proverbs 24:1 -- "Be not envious of evil men, nor desire to be with them." Don't partner with the world or get wrapped up in the worries of the world. You can engage the world, and interact with the world (which we are commanded to do) without partnering with the world.

10. Proverbs 24:10 -- "If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small." Inner strength is something you must develop before you need it. When adversity comes, it reveals the product of your discipleship. On the day of adversity, you will draw upon the internal strength that you have developed over time. If you haven't cultivated strength through daily discipleship, you will fail at the test. God uses adversity to reveal the truth of you.

11. Proverbs 24:11, 12 -- "Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter. If you say, 'Behold, we did not know this,' does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will he not repay man according to his work?" You cannot ignore the destructive sin of those around you -- God expects you to get involved. If allow those around you who God loves continue to destroy themselves in sin, God will hold you accountable.

12. Proverbs 24:16 – "...for the righteous falls seven times and rises again, but the wicked stumble in times of calamity." Both the righteous and the wicked stumble and fall, but the righteous get back up stronger than before while the wicked only get weaker.

13. Proverbs 24:25, 26 -- "Those who rebuke the wicked will have delight, and a good blessing will come upon them. Whoever gives an honest answer kisses the lips." Always speak the truth in love.

14. Proverbs 24:27 -- "Prepare your work outside; get everything ready for yourself in the field, and after that build your house." Do the hardest things first.

15. Psalm 73:2-3 -- "But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled, my steps had nearly slipped. For I was envious of the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.... But when I thought how to understand this, it seemed to me a wearisome task, until I went into the sanctuary of God; then I discerned their end." Comparing yourself to others who are not disciples can lead you astray. Also, if we view life from our own perspective rather than from the perspective of God's word, our outlook can become bitter, hopeless, and, consequently, sinful. This is why Proverbs warns, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths." (Proverbs 3:5, 6) If we forget the power, love, and faithfulness of the God we serve, the storms we face may seem to be the end of us, and we may find ourselves like the disciples crying out to Jesus "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" (Mark 4:38) Today, the psalmist points out that worldly perspective almost caused him to "stumble" or "slip" into sin. He recollects that as he watched the wicked apparently thrive while he suffered for obeying God he became "brutish and ignorant," as ignorant as an animal that only responds to pain and pleasure rather than to wisdom. (Psalm 73:22) Have you ever felt that way? What was the psalmist's answer for times like this? Go to the sanctuary of God, and align your thinking to God's thinking -- "Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live.... Seek the Lord while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it. For you shall go out in joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall break forth into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall make a name for the Lord, an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off." (Isaiah 55:1-13) Jesus said it like this: "All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.... These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.... Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full." (Matthew

11:27-29; John 15:11; John 16:24) Do not stumble or slip, "Enter into the joy of your master." (Matthew 25:21)

16. Psalm 73:5 -- "They are not in trouble as others are; they are not stricken like the rest of mankind." Outward appearances of success can be a deceptive. Faithfulness to God is the measure of success.

17. Psalm 73:9 -- "They set their mouths against the heavens, and their tongue struts through the earth." Prideful people have little real respect for God. The more "successful" they become, the more arrogant they become.

18. Psalm 73:12 -- "This is what the wicked are like — always carefree, they increase in wealth."

- "Their mouths lay claim to heaven, and their tongues take possession of the earth. Therefore their people turn to them and drink up waters in abundance. They say, 'How can God know? Does the Most High have knowledge?'" (Psalm 73:9-11) The message of the world is very appealing to those who want to build their own kingdom on earth. As countless bestselling self-help books explain, "By unleashing your personal power, you can achieve health, wealth and happiness — nothing is impossible if you set your mind to it. Believe in yourself. Have faith in your abilities. Be all you can be." Solomon, in all his wisdom, fell victim to this self-centered world view (idolatry) and achieved "worldly" success beyond imagination; but eventually, he came to understand that you cannot love and serve both God and the world. You cannot be loyal to two kingdoms which are diametrically opposed to one another. After having achieved it all and done it all (while compromising his fidelity to the Lord), he concluded that it was all "Meaningless, meaningless, meaningless!" Our purpose is to "Glorify God and enjoy Him forever." Anything else is pointless. Often, people will seek to build their earthly kingdom using God and religion as a source of power. "Dear Lord, please bless my kingdom, and I will be a good person and tell the world what you have done for me." However true spirituality and worship is to "offer [ourselves] as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God," living by the motto, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven."

- 1 John 3:1 -- "The world and its desires pass away, but the man who does the will of God lives forever."

- Psalm 84:10 -- "Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked."

- James 2:5 -- "Has not God chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom he promised those who love him?"

19. Psalm 73:16-17 -- "But when I thought how to understand this, it seemed to me a wearisome task, until I went into the sanctuary of God; then I discerned their end." You must see the world through God's perspective; from man's perspective, things don't make sense and seem unfair or pointless.

20. Psalm 73:22 -- "I was brutish and ignorant; I was like a beast toward you." Without spiritual discernment, you are not much better than an animal, responding only to urges, physical desires, and emotion.

21. Psalm 73:23-26 -- "Nevertheless, I am continually with you; you hold my right hand. You guide me with your counsel, and afterward you will receive me to glory. Whom have I in heaven but you? And there is nothing on earth that I desire besides you. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever." You must walk with God. Though you may not receive much comfort in this world, your reward is in Heaven.

22. Psalm 73:27-28 -- "For behold, those who are far from you shall perish; you put an end to everyone who is unfaithful to you. But for me it is good to be near God; I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may tell of all your works." Again, nearness to God is measured in faithfulness. It is good to be near God. Make God your refuge and your life's goal.

DBRP - WEEK 25, Day 6, Saturday, 23 June 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 23 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 9:1 – "And Judah was taken into exile in Babylon because of their breach of faith." Sin limits God's blessings in your life and warrants God's discipline.

2. 1 Chronicles 9:1, 13; Proverbs 23:12, 24:1, 23:19 -- "The people of Judah were taken captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.... Saul died because he was unfaithful to the Lord.... Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to words of knowledge.... Do not let your heart envy sinners, but always be zealous for the fear of the Lord. There is surely a future hope for you, and your hope will not be cut off.... Listen, my son, and be wise, and keep your heart on the right path...."

- We should be motivated by faithfulness inspired by love. Love and faithfulness go hand in hand. As Psalm 85:10 says, "Love and faithfulness meet together; righteousness and peace kiss each other." The Book of Proverbs has this to say: "Let love and faithfulness never leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart (3:3).... But those who plan what is good find love and faithfulness (14:2).... Through love and faithfulness sin is atoned for; through the fear of the LORD a man avoids evil (16:6).... Love and faithfulness keep a king safe; through love his throne is made secure...." There are unavoidable consequences to unfaithfulness. Unfaithfulness dishonors God and causes pain, sorrow, and destruction. It robs you of your joy and hurts the innocent. Unfaithfulness can have an impact that affects generations. Let love and faithfulness never leave you.

3. 1 Chronicles 9:2 – "Now the first to dwell again in their possessions in their cities were Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the temple servants." Priests should lead the way in dedication and closeness to God. Christians are all called to be "priests." The leader in any room is the one closest to Jesus who is committed to drawing those around him closer to Jesus. Leaders "know the way and show the way." Jesus is, "The Way, The Truth, and The Life." If you are not leading others closer to Jesus, you are leading them astray.

4. 1 Chronicles 9:10 – "Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin...." God knows every one of His servants by name and also recognizes them by their family. God deals with you personally, but He also deals with you through your relationships, particularly through your family. Family is a vital part of God's plan for people. God gives very specific responsibilities to spouses and parents, and He also tells children to honor their fathers and mothers as a path to His blessings. Jesus obeyed His mother as an example to us.

5. 1 Chronicles 9:13 – “...heads of their fathers’ houses...” God expects fathers to lead their families and to raise up leaders who will keep the faith for generations.

6. 1 Chronicles 19:20 – “And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the chief officer over them in time past; the Lord was with him.” Of Phinehas, the Bible specifically says that the Lord was with him. Is that what people say about you? More importantly, is that what God says about you?

7. 1 Chronicles 9:28 – “Some of them had charge of the utensils of service, for they were required to count them when they were brought in and taken out.” Management can be an act of worship, vital to the work of the ministry. Your God-given abilities were provided not that you could build your own kingdom on earth but rather that you could serve the Kingdom of God.

8. 1 Chronicles 9:33 – “Now these, the singers, the heads of fathers’ houses of the Levites, were in the chambers of the temple free from other service, for they were on duty day and night.” Music was considered so vital to worship that the singers had no other responsibilities and were on duty 24/7, 365.

9. 1 Chronicles 10:4 – “Therefore Saul took his own sword and fell upon it.” Saul and Judas had this in common -- they both rejected the Lordship of God in their lives and committed suicide in defeat.

10. 1 Chronicles 10:6 – “Thus Saul died; he and his three sons and all his house died together.” 1 Chronicles 9 describes fathers who raised their sons to serve God faithfully, while 1 Chronicles 10 reveals that Saul’s ungodly leadership led to his death and the death of his sons. Rejecting God can have a devastating effect on not only you, but also upon your whole family and others you care about.

11. 1 Chronicles 10:9 – “...the Philistines to carry the good news to their idols and to the people.” The world’s “good news” is the defeat of God’s people. Our Good News, is that Christ is King, rules all, and offers salvation to all who are willing to accept it. Note that Saul and the kingdom was defeated not because of the might of the Philistines but, rather, because of the sins of God’s people. The Church can only be defeated in infidelity.

12. 1 Chronicles 10:12 – “...all the valiant men arose...” The valiant continue to resist the sinful world for God’s glory even when it seems like all has been lost. Are you valiant for the Lord today?

13. 1 Chronicles 10:13, 14 – “So Saul died for his breach of faith. He broke faith with the Lord in that he did not keep the command of the Lord, and also consulted a medium, seeking guidance. He did not seek guidance from the Lord. Therefore, the Lord put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.”

- Though Saul was chosen by God, His obedience was still required. We too live by grace but must obey God and continually seek His guidance alone. Saul’s downfall started when, he let fear reign in his life rather than God and chose to disobey God. God desires people “after his own heart” (1 Samuel 13:14) who will remain faithful regardless the circumstances. It wasn’t that Saul didn’t know the requirements of God; it wasn’t that Saul lacked the ability to fulfill the requirements of God; rather, Saul lacked the faith to obey God. Saul did what made sense to Saul as if there were no God or as if God had no integrity. This is unacceptable to God as God intends to reveal Himself and His character through His servants.

- With responsibility comes accountability and God holds us accountable for what we have been given as a trust. This does not just apply to kings and kingdoms but to all aspects of responsibility. Proverbs says,

“The Righteous One observes the house of the wicked; he throws the wicked down to ruin. Whoever closes his ear to the cry of the poor will himself call out and not be answered.” (Proverbs 21:12, 13) Here we see the link between wickedness and a failure to steward God’s resources in which we have been entrusted in a way that cares for the needy. Also, the principle of accountability does not just apply to the Old Testament or to those who have not been saved by grace. Jesus said, “Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more.” (Luke 12:48) Paul explains that we “have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts.” (1 Thessalonians 2:4) We are called to spread the Gospel “by the command of God our Savior,” and we are instructed to “guard the good deposit entrusted to [us].” (Titus 1:3; 2 Timothy 1:14) We have been saved by faith and “approved in Christ,” no longer held “accountable.... under the Law,” but we have been “approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel” and to “do good works, which God prepared beforehand.” (Romans 16:10; Romans 3:9; Ephesians 2:10) We are called to be “zealous for good works,” to devote [ourselves] to good works,” “to stir up one another to love and good works,” and to have “a reputation for good works,” which will naturally cause Christians to be “approved by men.” (Titus 2:14; Titus 3:8-14; Hebrews 10:24; 1 Timothy 5:10; Romans 14:18) Jesus said, “Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.” (Matthew 5:17) We do good works because “it is God who works in [us], both to will and to work for his good pleasure,” and Paul warned that if we are not rich in good works we are, in fact, denying God. (Philippians 2:13; Titus 1:16) James was perhaps even more to the point: “What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him...? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.... Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good conduct let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom.” (James 2:14, 17; 3:13) The life of good works is a walk in grace that is pure and holy, and the Bible is clear about the implications of walking in impurity while claiming the name of Christ – “For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, ‘Vengeance is mine; I will repay.’ And again, ‘The Lord will judge his people.’ It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.” (Hebrews 10:26-31) Jesus said to the church that, by their behavior, they defile His name before men. “Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.” (Revelation 2:5) No, repentance is not just for the unsaved who are not under grace but also for God’s people.

14. Proverbs 23:16, 23 – “My inmost being will exult when your lips speak what is right.... Buy truth, and do not sell it; buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding.” The righteous heart longs to hear the truth.

15. Proverbs 23:17, 18 -- Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the Lord all the day. Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off.” What is the future for you and your family?

16. Proverbs 23:20, 21 – “Be not among drunkards or among gluttonous eaters of meat, for the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty, and slumber will clothe them with rags.” The Bible considers eating too much to be a sin like drinking too much, both demonstrating a destructive lack of self-control (which is a spiritual problem) and idolatry.

17. Proverbs 23 -- God wants to ensure you understand the dangers of inappropriate sexual activity and alcohol abuse.

18. Psalm 72:1-4 -- "Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the royal son! May he judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice!... May he defend the cause of the poor of the people, give deliverance to the children of the needy, and crush the oppressor!" Justice is not defined by men but by God. Men are as just as they are submissive to God. Godly leaders pursue justice and protect the weak.

19. Psalm 72:11 -- "In his days may the righteous flourish, and peace abound." When the righteous flourish, peace abounds. A truly just ruler has the moral authority to expand his reign on earth.

20. Psalm 72:15 -- "May prayer be made for him continually, and blessings invoked for him all the day!" We should pray for our leaders, particularly our faithful leaders.

21. Psalm 72:17 -- "May prayer be made for him continually, and blessings invoked for him all the day!" God desires that we pray for righteous leaders continually.

22. Psalm 72:18 -- "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things." All good things come from God.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 23 June 18: Choose today to lead your family to Christ as your first priority. If you have no family at all, choose today to lead those closest to you to Christ. To lead others to Christ, you must, by definition, be close to Him. (1 Chronicles 9)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+Chron+7%2C+8%3B+proverbs+22%3B+Eph+2>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 22 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 7:22 -- "And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him." Family should be a source of comfort during times of mourning, stopping what they were doing to give full support.

2. 1 Chronicles 7:23 -- "And Ephraim went in to his wife, and she conceived and bore a son. And he called his name Beriah, because disaster had befallen his house." Even in hard times, God wants His people to act on hope, investing in the future and continuing to grow a family.

3. 1 Chronicles 7:24 -- "His daughter was Sheerah, who built both Lower and Upper Beth-horon, and Uzzan-sheerah." It is noteworthy that Sheerah is mentioned in the Bible -- she was obviously a powerful leader, noted for building towns in strategic locations, one of those named after her. Women play prominent roles throughout the Bible.

4. Proverbs 22:1 -- "A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold." You must choose character over prosperity. Character may bring you prosperity, but prosperity will not bring you character.

5. Proverbs 22:6 -- "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it." Parents play a critical role in God's plan.

6. Proverbs 22:7 -- "The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is the slave of the lender." God does not want His people to have debt.

7. Proverbs 22:9 -- "Whoever has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor." Do you have a bountiful eye that brings you blessings?

8. Proverbs 22:15 -- "Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline drives it far from him." Do you obey God's word on your own, or does God need to give you some incentive in the form of discipline? Better to listen and obey instantly.

9. Proverbs 22:17-19 -- "Incline your ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply your heart to my knowledge, for it will be pleasant if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips. That your trust may be in the LORD, I have made them known to you today, even to you." Obeying God's word will be pleasant to you. To bring you fullness of joy in life, God has done an amazing thing: He has given you His very word. Memorize it, and let it guide your every move.

10. Proverbs 22:24, 25 -- "Make no friendship with a man given to anger, nor go with a wrathful man, lest you learn his ways and entangle yourself in a snare." Be careful not to let the bad habits of others be a greater influence on you than God's word.

11. Proverbs 22:26-27 -- "Be not one of those who give pledges, who put up security for debts. If you have nothing with which to pay, why should your bed be taken from under you?" Again, God doesn't want His people to have debt.

12. Proverbs 22:29 -- "Do you see a man skillful in his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before obscure men." God wants you to be excellent in what you do so you will have a greater influence on the world to God's glory.

13. Ephesians 2:1-3 -- "And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind." Ungodly people are led by both passion and intellect. They essentially see themselves as gods to themselves, doing whatever they justify as best. They refuse to submit to God. God's people are led by the Spirit.

14. Ephesians 2:8-10 -- "For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them."

- We were saved by grace – we did nothing to earn it, and we cannot boast in anything of ourselves that deserved God's gift to us as salvation. But we were saved for a purpose – "for good works." Before we were saved "we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind." Now in salvation, we are a "new creation," and the hostility that once existed between us and God has been "killed." Now, with "access in one Spirit to the Father," we are to "walk in" the "good works" which God has "prepared in advance" for us. This is what we are to do in life.

- Ecclesiastes 12:13 -- The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.

15. Ephesians 2:10 -- "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them." God created you specifically to serve Him. God prepares the good works, not you. Don't just do what you think is good. Do only what God directs.

16. Ephesians 2:11-13 -- "But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ. For he himself is our peace, who has made the two one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility...."

- You have total peace with God and complete access to Him in Christ. You are a vital part of God's family and have a unique fit (like a stone in a building) in God's Kingdom. You are no longer part of the world and the kingdom of the air (which is no kingdom at all). Alive in Christ by God's grace, we were created to good works which God has prepared for us that we might glorify the Father and the Son before all Creation and experience the fullness of joy in Him. The Bible says that Christians are ALL saints (in Christ), priests (Ex 19:6, Is 61:6, Rom 15:16, 1 Pet 2:5, Rev 1:6, Rev 5:10, Rev 20:6 – what do we expect from a priest?) and Christ's Ambassadors (representatives to a foreign kingdom) on this earth. We no longer behave as the worldly do, "gratifying the cravings of the sinful nature," because we are motivated by love, gratitude, and an understanding, spiritually "seated... with [Christ] in the heavenly realms" (What are you willing to do seated next to Christ?). "Do you really believe what you say you believe is really true?" Today, reflect upon the reality of your position in Christ, and remember your "priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God."

17. Ephesians 2:19 -- "So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God." You were saved to be a part of a family in Christ. You were not created to be independent or dependent on others but rather interdependent.

18. Ephesians 2:22 -- "...the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord." You are to be united to other members of the church as closely and as intentionally as stones of a temple, and Christ provides the means to unity and purpose. There is no daylight between stones of a temple.

Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 22 June 18: Today, commit to finding your specific place within the family of God and to whom you should be directly attached (the other stones) in order to fulfill your purpose. (Ephesians 2:22)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 21 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 5:1 -- "... he was the firstborn, but because he defiled his father's couch, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel, so that he could not be enrolled as the oldest son." Sin may be forgiven, but the consequences often remain and impact generations. Also, when a person commits a crime, he can turn to the Lord and receive forgiveness; however, God's forgiveness does not remove a person's responsibility to make restitution to others. If a person steals property and repents, he still needs to return the property (and make payment for the personal offense). If a murderer repents, he must still face the justice system. The responsibility for restitution remains whether or not victims are aware of the offense. The requirements for restitution also remain whether or not damages were intentional or accidental. Many Christians attempt to use grace as an excuse to avoid the responsibility of restitution, but grace should compel restitution and the desire for reconciliation whenever possible. The Old Testament established specific guidance for restitution, provided below. In the New Testament, Zacchaeus demonstrates restitution as a response to grace in Luke 19.

- Exodus 22:1-14 -- "If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and kills it or sells it, he shall repay five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. If a thief is found breaking in and is struck so that he dies, there shall be no bloodguilt for him, but if the sun has risen on him, there shall be bloodguilt for him. He shall surely pay. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. If the stolen beast is found alive in his possession, whether it is an ox or a donkey or a sheep, he shall pay double. "If a man causes a field or vineyard to be grazed over, or lets his beast loose and it feeds in another man's field, he shall make restitution from the best in his own field and in his own vineyard. "If fire breaks out and catches in thorns so that the stacked grain or the standing grain or the field is consumed, he who started the fire shall make full restitution. "If a man gives to his neighbor money or goods to keep safe, and it is stolen from the man's house, then, if the thief is found, he shall pay double. If the thief is not found, the owner of the house shall come near to God to show whether or not he has put his hand to his neighbor's property. For every breach of trust, whether it is for an ox, for a donkey, for a sheep, for a cloak, or for any kind of lost thing, of which one says, 'This is it,' the case of both parties shall come before God. The one whom God condemns shall pay double to his neighbor. "If a man gives to his neighbor a donkey or an ox or a sheep or any beast to keep safe, and it dies or is injured or is driven away, without anyone seeing it, an oath by the Lord shall be between them both to see whether or not he has put his hand to his neighbor's property. The owner shall accept the oath, and he shall not make restitution. But if it is stolen from him, he shall make restitution to its owner. If it is torn by beasts, let him bring it as evidence. He shall not make restitution for what has been torn. "If a man borrows anything of his neighbor, and it is injured or dies, the owner not being with it, he shall make full restitution. If the owner was with it, he shall not make restitution; if it was hired, it came for its hiring fee.

- Leviticus 6:2-5 -- "If anyone sins and commits a breach of faith against the Lord by deceiving his neighbor in a matter of deposit or security, or through robbery, or if he has oppressed his neighbor or has found something lost and lied about it, swearing falsely—in any of all the things that people do and sin thereby— if he has sinned and has realized his guilt and will restore what he took by robbery or what he got by oppression or the deposit that was committed to him or the lost thing that he found or anything about which he has sworn falsely, he shall restore it in full and shall add a fifth to it, and give it to him to whom it belongs on the day he realizes his guilt.

2. 1 Chronicles 5:18-22 -- The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh were skilled at warfare, but the Bible says that the reason they prevailed is because they cried out to The LORD and trusted Him. God controls all outcomes.

3. 1 Chronicles 5:20 – "...the Hagrites and all who were with them were given into their hands, for they cried out to God in the battle, and he granted their urgent plea because they trusted in him." God helps those who cry to him and have faith that He can and will help them.

4. 1 Chronicles 5:25, 26 -- "But they broke faith with the God of their fathers, and whored after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them. So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria...." God turned Pul's heart against the members of the half-tribe of Manasseh because they broke faith with God. Manasseh was mighty only while with God, and powerless when being disciplined by God. Notice also verse 26 says Pul also defeated and exiled the Reubenites and the Gadites, though only Manasseh is called out for breaking faith. It would appear that infidelity started with Manasseh and either spread to other tribes or at least impacted other tribes. Our American tradition is people are free to do whatever they want as long as it doesn't prevent others from doing what they want, but everyone's decisions eventually impact everyone else. Also, we see in these verses that God stirs hearts for His purposes. Have you prayed for God to work in the hearts of those who have troubled you or others you care about?

5. 1 Chronicles 6:32-33 -- Leadership in music is an important ministerial responsibility.

6. 1 Chronicles 6:38, 43, 47 -- Israel's ministers, even after exile, could trace their heritage back to one of the founding fathers of the nation.

7. Proverbs 21:1-- "The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of the LORD; he turns it wherever he will." God controls all political leaders for His purposes. Salvation is not in the hands of politicians but with The Lord. If you are worried about the state of the nation, pray for revival.

8. Proverbs 21:3 – "To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice." It's not about religion, it is about genuine love which produces obedience and faithfulness. Religious activities, charity, and "good deeds" are meaningless without love, faithfulness and obedience.

9. Proverbs 21:13 -- "Whoever closes his ear to the cry of the poor will himself call out and not be answered." God will treat you the way you treat others.

10. Proverbs 21:16 -- "One who wanders from the way of good sense will rest in the assembly of the dead." Destruction usually occurs slowly, one decision at a time. However, some decisions are immediately catastrophic.

11. Proverbs 21:17 – "Whoever loves pleasure will be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil will not be rich." Successful people have the self-discipline to give up fleeting pleasures now for greatness later. Successful people are willing to make the daily sacrifices that unsuccessful people aren't.

12. Proverbs 21:21 – "Whoever pursues righteousness and kindness will find life, righteousness, and honor." Character development is a lifelong pursuit that yields predictable results over time.

13. Proverbs 21:26 -- "All day long he craves and craves, but the righteous gives and does not hold back." Ungodly people are always thinking of themselves and are never satisfied. Godly people are always thinking about others and are content.

14. Proverbs 21:27 -- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with evil intent." God sees the selfish motives behind "good" deeds.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

15. Proverbs 21:30, 31 -- "No wisdom, no understanding, no counsel can avail against the LORD. The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the LORD." God remains in complete control and decides all outcomes. Hope is only in Him, not in human wisdom and power.

16. Ephesians 1:1 -- "Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God." Paul was an apostle because God willed it.

17. Ephesians 1:2 -- "Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

- "Do you really believe what you believe is really real?" The reality of God's grace should give you peace. In perfect love, God, all powerful and all knowing, chose you as an adopted child, before the creation of the world to pour lavishly every spiritual blessing on you in Christ. Why? He chose you because he wanted to. His love is so great for you that he freely gave you the One He loves, Jesus, so you could have complete, total, unconditional, forgiveness of all your sins, past, present, and future. In God's sight, due to this redemption through Christ, you are holy and blameless. You were specifically created by God for the praise of his glory. You have been marked with a seal as God's treasured possession and filled with the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit within you knows God as "Daddy," and NOTHING can separate you from the perfect love of Daddy, "neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation," not even yourself (Romans 8:38-39). Eternal life doesn't start when you die, eternal life started when you first knew the Father and the Son – the day you were saved and born again (John 17:3). What an amazing thing! Pray that through the "Spirit of wisdom and revelation" you may know him better and that "the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which [you have been] called." "Do you really believe what you believe is really real?"

18. Ephesians 1:3 -- With Christ comes every spiritual blessing.

19. Ephesians 1:4-6 -- God chose you before Creation for His purposes.

20. Ephesians 1:10 -- Heaven and earth will one day unite

21. Ephesians 1:16-23 -- "I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all."

- A near life or death experience can really change a person's perspective of life, helping that person reconsider what really matters and doesn't matter, what is truly important and what isn't truly important. Depending on the power of that experience, it may cause a person to make some major life changes after recognizing how distracted they had become on the wrong priorities. Well, the potential power of a near life or death experience is insignificant compared to the power of an eternal life experience through Jesus Christ. This does not result in a possibly changed life; this results in a positively completely new life, a person becoming a new Creation in Christ, freed from the penalty and bondage of sin, empowered with the Holy Spirit, in personal friendship with Jesus, with and eternal purpose and calling, and with direct access to the Father who treats the saved as His beloved children and empowers us for His purposes on earth. In the beginning of Ephesians, Paul explains that his incessant prayer is that the Ephesians' eyes would be opened so they would TRULY know Jesus (not just about Jesus), TRULY understand the magnitude of the blessings they have received in Christ, and TRULY understand the immeasurable greatest of the power of God in their lives. He wants the Ephesians to fully understand that Christians serve as instruments to KING Jesus who the Father has placed "far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things under his feet." (Ephesians 1:21, 22) Paul apparently sees that, though saved, the Ephesians haven't fully come to terms with their eternal life, its power, and the significance of their calling. As Jesus said, "This is eternal life, that they KNOW you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.... The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me. (John 17:3, 22, 23) The bigger (more glorified) Christ is in our lives, the smaller everything else becomes, temptations, troubles, personal differences, worldly powers, enemies, etc. The bigger Christ is in our lives, the more his love naturally flows from us, creating a unity within the body that cannot be missed by the world around us. The bigger Christ is in our lives, the more boldly, enthusiastically, and faithfully we obey his commandments. I pray that we will all know Christ better each day and realize who we are in Christ, that, in Christ, we have the power to change the world.

22. Ephesians 1:17, 18 -- "God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom." True wisdom comes only throughout the Spirit; it is not acquired through human effort or intelligence alone. It is God who opens our hearts to believe in Him and to know Him.

Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 21 June 18: Pray today for the Spirit of wisdom to add to your wisdom. (Eph 1:17)

DBRP - WEEK 25, Day 3, Wednesday, 20 June 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+Chron+3%2C+4%3B+proverbs+20%3B+gal+6>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 20 June 18:

1. Chronicles 3:2, 3 -- The Bible does not give details about the lives of many people like Daniel, Shephatiah, or Ithream. The Bible does not tell us everything, only what we need to know. Everything that is revealed in the Bible is there for a reason. What isn't in the Bible is not there for a reason.
2. 1 Chronicles 4:9-10 -- Prayer is important in every stage in the life of a family, especially at the birth of children and as children enter adulthood and seek to establish their own careers.
3. 2 Chronicles 4:9 -- "Jabez was more honorable than his brothers; and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, 'Because I bore him in pain.'" Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. The Bible breaks in the list of lineages to praise Jabez. What was significant about his life was his relationship with God. We only exist to glorify God.
4. 1 Chronicles 4:28-33 -- Land ownership and homestead are an important part of family identity.

5. Proverbs 20:3 -- "It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife, but every fool will be quarreling." Avoid strife and quarrels, and remain honorable.

6. Proverbs 20:5 -- "The purpose in a man's heart is like deep water, but a man of understanding will draw it out." It takes great discernment to understand people.

7. Proverbs 20:6 -- "Many a man proclaims his own steadfast love, but a faithful man who can find?" Your faithfulness is your most valuable asset. The proof of love is faithfulness. The mark of character is faithfulness. Faithfulness is the anticipated response to grace -- "When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose." (Acts 11:23) Faithfulness is a fruit of the Spirit, not a natural human endowment -- "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness...." (Galatians 5:22) The New Testament says that faithfulness is best expressed by those who not only remain obedient to God's word but also teach God's word to others -- "...and what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also." (2 Timothy 2:2) After all, this is our Great Commission. Faithfulness is a requirement of God's people -- "Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found faithful." (1 Corinthians 4:2) How God uses us and grows us in life depends on our faithfulness -- "And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant! Because you have been faithful in a very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.'" (Luke 19:17) But our infidelity never nullifies God's fidelity -- "What if some were unfaithful? Does their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God?" (Romans 3:3) As Ambassadors for Christ, we should never let the infidelity of others affect our fidelity to God or to them.

- Exodus 34:6 -- The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, "The Lord, the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness...."

- 2 Samuel 2:6 -- Now may the Lord show steadfast love and faithfulness to you.

- Deuteronomy 7:9 -- Know therefore that the Lord your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations....

- Psalm 25:10 -- All the paths of the Lord are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

- Psalm 26:3 -- For your steadfast love is before my eyes, and I walk in your faithfulness.

- Psalm 85:10 -- Steadfast love and faithfulness meet; righteousness and peace kiss each other.

- Psalm 89:14 -- Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne; steadfast love and faithfulness go before you.

- Proverbs 3:3 -- Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.

- Proverbs 14:22 -- Do they not go astray who devise evil? Those who devise good meet steadfast love and faithfulness.

- Proverbs 16:6 -- By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the Lord one turns away from evil.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- Proverbs 20:28 -- Steadfast love and faithfulness preserve the king, and by steadfast love his throne is upheld.

8. Proverbs 20:11 -- "Even a child makes himself known by his acts, by whether his conduct is pure and upright." How you act reveals what you really believe.

9. Proverbs 20:24 -- "A man's steps are from the LORD; how then can man understand his way?" Those who think they have control over their own lives are deceived. God is in control. Security is in God's hands.

10. Proverbs 20:27 -- "The spirit of man is the lamp of the LORD, searching all his innermost parts." The Spirit will convict you of your sin. How will you respond?

11. Proverbs 20:29 -- "The glory of young men is their strength, but the splendor of old men is their gray hair." Strength is fleeting, but wisdom is developed over a lifetime.

12. Proverbs 20:30 -- "Blows that wound cleanse away evil; strokes make clean the innermost parts." If you will not respond to the conviction of the Spirit, God may have to get your attention the hard way.

13. Galatians 6:1 -- "Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted." God wants us to work to restore sinners in gentleness.

14. Galatians 6:1-4 -- "Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. For each will have to bear his own load." Many Christians quote "Bear one another's burdens" out of context, referring to ministering to a person's physical needs, but it is really about responding to offenses or the sins of others. It involves bearing the burden of the offense without responding in personal defense, not countering boastfully but forgiving and "taking up your cross" in the situation, remembering that you too are a mere sinner and not subsequently sinning in your anger by failing to be soft, knowledgeable, gentle, timely, gracious, thoughtful, refreshing, instructional, yet humble.

15. Galatians 6:7 -- "Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows."

- The Principle of the Farm: A man reaps what he sows. You cannot rush a crop. You cannot wake up one morning and say, "I need to grow corn in a week." It takes time, daily discipline, hard work, and perseverance to grow a crop as it does to achieve all the things that matter most in life. Spiritual maturity, wisdom, knowledge, physical fitness, strong relationships, financial security, talents, etc, all take time and daily, consistent discipline (as in disciple) to develop. After the seeds are planted, you have to be willing to water dirt with no apparent results for some time until eventually you start to see a small sprout; but even then, it is hard to tell what you are growing -- you have to keep working. Also, if you love flowers, you have to hate weeds. You must protect what you are growing from that which corrupts -- this too takes effort; it is not a passive defense but an active one. One thing is certain, at harvest time, the product of your labors, good or bad, will be revealed. What are you cultivating? What disciplines to you practice consistently well in order to produce a harvest in your life that will glorify and honor God?

- The Chinese have a saying, "The best time to grow a tree was twenty years ago; the second best time to grow a tree is today." Every day is a fresh start. Make the most of every opportunity. "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up." Do not be motivated by pride or fear but rather love. Do not compare yourself with others or judge others compared to you -- keep your eyes affixed on Jesus, guided by the Holy Spirit. Seek first the Kingdom, and be joyful in all things, even the trials which are strengthening your character. Also, take the time to help the farmer next to you. Having lived two years in Nebraska, I learned something about the farm culture -- people are not only patient, but they are also very friendly and cooperative, having learned to depend on each other during hard times. We need each other's support.

16. Galatians 6:9-10 -- "And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith." Doing good can be wearisome. Don't give up. People in the church can be some of the hardest people to love and be patient with.

17. Galatians 6:10 -- "So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith." To whom does God command us to do good?

18. Galatians 6:12 -- "It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh who would force you to be circumcised, and only in order that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ." People often make great religious sacrifices and place great demands on others for all the wrong reasons.

19. Galatians 6:14, 17 -- "But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.... From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus." The reality of the cross should kill worldly pressures in your life. Who can stress you out when Christ has declared you worthy, victorious, righteous, and unconditionally loved?

20. Galatians 6:15 -- "For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation." Religious activity is nothing, a heart for God and others is everything.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 20 June 18: Endeavor to do good to EVERYONE today, particularly to those who clearly don't deserve it -- that is called grace, a reflection of the grace that you have received through Jesus. The grace you give others reveals your level of appreciation for the grace you have received. What could someone possibly do to you that would come close to being comparable to the offenses from which we have all been forgiven by our perfectly Holy God? (Galatians 6:10-17)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+chron+1%2C+2%3B+prov+19%3B+gal+5>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 19 June 18:

1. 1 Chronicles 1:1 – “Adam, Seth, Enosh....” Your family history begins with Adam and creation. Your family includes members of all the tribes and nations of the world. So, God wants you involved in his world mission of redemption. God's purpose for you goes back to His purpose in creation.

2. 1 Chronicles 1:28 – “The sons of Abraham: Isaac and Ishmael.” How many lives have been lost throughout history due to strife between the descendants of Isaac and Ishmael? The Bible says that Christians are descendants of Abraham, but this is not a blood relationship, but rather a spiritual one – “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise.” (Galatians 3:28, 29) “...for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith.” (Galatians 3:26) “Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham.” (Galatians 3:7) “For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but ‘Through Isaac shall your offspring be named.’ This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring.” (Romans 9:6-8) Ultimately, what divides the world is not race, ethnicity, genetics, nationality, political philosophy, or culture but faith. Many are seeking some sort of unity under man-made social stratifications, but this is foolish and hopeless. Many have sought unity by marginalizing faith, but this too is foolish and hopeless. There will be no peace between God and man and no peace on earth apart from Jesus.

- Acts 10:36 -- As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all).

- Romans 3:17 -- and the way of peace they have not known.

- Romans 5:1 -- Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

- Romans 15:13 -- May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

- Romans 15:33 -- May the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

- Romans 16:20 -- The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

- 2 Corinthians 1:2 -- Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

- Ephesians 2:14 -- For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility.

- Colossians 1:20 -- and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

- Colossians 3:15 -- And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful.

- 1 Thessalonians 5:3 -- While people are saying, “There is peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- 2 Thessalonians 3:16 -- Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in every way. The Lord be with you all.

- 1 Timothy 1:2 -- To Timothy, my true child in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

- Titus 1:4 -- To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

- 2 John 1:3 -- Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love.

3. 1 Chronicles 1:50; 1 Chronicles 2:3, 4, 1-17, 18 -- The Bible places women in critical roles for His purposes. Women have always played an important role in history. But while the world tends to focus on differences of race, ethnicity, and gender, God focuses on fidelity and unity. Race and gender are not virtues.

4. 1 Chronicles 2:3, 7 -- Your family history includes people God has had to discipline; no one is exempt from God's discipline. And in Jesus, our sinful past is not our identity, nor are we trapped in sin or condemned in sin.

5. 1 Chronicles 2:24-35 -- Foreigners are well integrated into Israel's family. God is focused on the spiritual family, while people are focused on natural, temporary relationships. Christianity should not be concerned with issues of race or national origin, only the issue of faith in Christ.

6. 1 Chronicles 1, 2 -- Genealogies reveal both the vertical and horizontal relationships that have shaped a family's history. Most important is the vertical relationship which defines the horizontal relationships. What has been your family's legacy of love for God? How will you write the next chapter? What legacy will you leave your children's children?

7. Proverbs 19:3 -- "When a man's folly brings his way to ruin, his heart rages against the Lord." Don't blame God or others for the consequences of your own bad decision-making.

8. Proverbs 19:4, 6, 7 -- Are you the sort of friend who is always there for support no matter what?

9. Proverbs 19:17 -- "Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord, and he will repay him for his deed." Giving to the poor is a true act of worship acceptable to the LORD.

10. Proverbs 19:22 -- "What is desired in a man is steadfast love, and a poor man is better than a liar." Your integrity is most valuable, and it is the foundation for trusting, loving relationships. Relationships require trust which comes from integrity. "Show yourself in all respects to be a model of good works, and in your teaching show integrity, dignity, and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say about us." (Titus 2:7, 8) Interestingly, integrity has two definitions: 1) truthfulness; 2) wholeness. The integrity of wholeness is one of dependable strength. For example, if a chair has integrity, it is put together in such a complete way that you can confidently sit in it, knowing that it will bear up under the pressure of your weight. For a person to have integrity, they must be truthful, but (s)he must also be whole, complete. Without Christ, a person is not whole, not complete, not strong, not reliable, unable to handle the pressure or weight of the burdens of life – without Christ, a person lacks essential integrity. Neither can that person be truthful. The strength and value of our integrity is found in Christ.

11. Galatians 5:1 -- "For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery." Grace should compel you to obedience, purity, and holiness. It would be terrible to take for granted the freedom Christ gave us from sin by continuing in the very sin Christ died from which to save us.

12. Galatians 5:6 -- "For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love." It is the truth of your heart that matters, not your religious activity.

13. Galatians 5:13-15 -- Your freedom and salvation is for a purpose – love. If you do not love as Christ loved, you are denying your purpose.

14. Galatians 5:16 -- "But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh." Only through the Spirit can you overcome human nature and its sinful desires.

15. Galatians 5:16-18 -- You will either walk in the Spirit or in the flesh.

16. Galatians 5:18 -- "But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law." Issues of the law are not issues at all for those who are controlled by the Spirit. Obedience is the proof of our genuine love rather than the proof of our personal will power.

17. Galatians 5:19-24 -- "Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires." Your actions over time reveal the truth of your salvation. The proof is in the pudding. Many attempt to obey out of duty, but duty will never be a powerful enough motivator. Only love and genuine spiritual power can overcome selfish sin. What do your actions reveal about your love for Jesus? Is it hard for you to obey Jesus? Why? Is it hard to do what you love?

18. Galatians 5:22-26 -- "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another."

- If you are in the Spirit and crucified with Christ, you have no need for the law because you are controlled by love, a force much, much greater than will power. You will obey the law without even considering it, without need to be reminded of it. Just like you don't need a rule to tell you to eat each day, love will compel you to feast on the Bread of Life. What causes you to do what you do? Is it fear, duty, or love?

- If you want fruit from a tree, you don't focus on trying to make a piece of fruit. You focus on growing a healthy tree. You think about what is required to make a tree healthy – quality soil, sunlight, water, etc. You also realize that fruit doesn't grow tomorrow. As I consider the above list of attributes, I realize that if I step out today saying, "Today I resolve to be loving, joyful, peaceful, patient, kind, good, faithful, gentle and self-controlled,” I will surely be disappointed. Not that I shouldn’t make the effort, and I certainly will, but the quality of these attributes is the natural product of the condition of my heart. My focus must be on my heart, and the condition of my heart depends on the quality of my relationship with Jesus Christ. If I am walking in love and surrender to Jesus, my “fruit” will reveal it. If I am “out of step” with the Spirit, my “fruit” will reveal it. How do I walk with Jesus? Humbly obey his commandments out of love. His greatest commandment is love. Jesus said this:

- John 15 -- I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. “This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another.

19. Galatians 5:25, 26 -- "If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another."

- The Spirit is uniting, not dividing. You must keep in step with the Spirit by loving others with the love flowing through you from the Source of Love, Jesus. Love is the command of the Spirit. If you are saved through faith in Jesus, you have as much access to the Spirit as anyone else, but in sin, you may be out of step with the Spirit; you may be quenching and grieving the Spirit; and you may be missing the power of the Spirit in your life. Do not deny the power that is yours in Christ due to infidelity and compromise.

- In the military, we talk about a threat as someone having both the capability and the intent to do harm. Someone who has the capability with no intent to harm is not a threat. Those who have the intent to harm but no capability is not a threat until they have a real capability. Unless we are born again, we have neither the capability nor intent to please God (John 3, 1 Cor 2:14). Apart from Christ, a person is a slave to sin (Romans 6:20) and controlled by human passions. We are dead to sin, and like a dead body, we cannot resuscitate ourselves (Galatians 3:3) In Christ we have been raised from the dead and set free from sin, becoming slaves to righteousness (Romans 6:18). God has poured his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, a love only God can provide (Rom 5, Rom 2). We now have the capability to love, but we must also be intent on loving. The only thing that counts is faith “expressed” in love. We must make the effort to “live by the Spirit.” As Paul says in Eph 4 “Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.... And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption." As a Christian you have capability to threaten the "forces of evil" (2 Cor 10; Eph 6:12); do you have intent?

-- Romans 12:1 Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship.

Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 19 June 18: Consider what your thoughts, attitudes, words and actions say about the condition of your heart and your love for Jesus. (Galatians 5)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+kings+23-25%3B+Prov+18%3B+Gal+4>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 18 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 23:8 -- "He... defiled the high places." To love God is to hate evil and substitutes for God.
 2. 2 Kings 23:8-20 -- "And he sacrificed all the priests of the high places who were there, on the altars, and burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem." Revival may put many religious leaders out of work.
 3. 2 Kings 23:13, 14 -- "And the king defiled the high places that were east of Jerusalem, to the south of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. And he broke in pieces the pillars and cut down the Asherim and filled their places with the bones of men." Josiah made a covenant before the Lord, "to walk after the Lord and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all his heart and all his soul." His first step was the same as what the Bible commands Christians to do in order to walk with God: "Put away all filthiness." (James 1:21) We cannot experience the fullness of joy and blessings in our relationship with God while we continue to hang onto sins which are detestable to the One we love. Josiah had to dig deep to remove the idolatry around him, all the way back to Solomon's time to remove high places Solomon himself had built around the same time he built the Temple. These high places were by now as much a part of Judah's national identity as anything else, built by their hero, Solomon, the wisest man of their day, the son of David! Yet, they had to go, likely much to the dismay of many. As Christians, fidelity may require that we remove things or change things that have always been there but that do not meet God's standard. Looking at our lives from God's perspective may require massive change. We may have to get rid of sins that have become old companions or that we have even attached to our personal identity -- "That's just who I am." The change may come at a tremendous personal cost. However, our love for God demands it. It takes great faith to change what has always been there. Without faith, it is impossible to please God. (Hebrews 11:6)
 4. 2 Kings 23:24 -- "Moreover, Josiah put away... the household gods and the idols and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might establish the words of the law... found in the house of the Lord." Perhaps our "household gods" are our televisions, computers, and handheld devices. To "establish" God's word in our hearts and lives, we must purify our lives from those things that dishonor God or that distract us from God's will.
- Hebrews 12:1, 2 -- Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

5. 2 Kings 23:25 -- "Before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses, nor did any like him arise after him." What will God say about the life you lived when it is over?

6. 2 Kings 23:26 -- "Nevertheless, the Lord did not turn away from the heat of his fierce anger, which burned against Judah because of all that Manasseh had done to provoke him to anger." Josiah sought to bring revival to Judah and to restore the nation, but it was too late. God had already decreed, "I will remove Judah also from my presence as I removed Israel, and I will reject Jerusalem, the city I chose, and this temple, about which I said, 'There shall my Name be.'" This was predicted by Moses in Deuteronomy 31 and by Joshua in Joshua 24 because they were "a perverse generation" with "no sense." Joshua said to the people, "You are not able to serve the Lord. He is a holy God." Even Moses, the humblest of men, was not able to obey the Law well enough to enter the Promised Land. The message from the Bible is clear: There is no one who is good, not even one, no one who truly seeks God. We have all sinned and have all fallen short of the Glory of God. We all deserve God's wrath and the penalty of death. Our hope is in the Promise spoken of in our readings in Gal 4 today. Nonetheless, we are to continually pursue holiness, righteousness, and purity as we are continually sanctified by the Holy Spirit that we may draw closer to Jesus daily.

7. 2 Kings 23:26-32 -- Revival must last more than just one generation. One good leader cannot change culture and a people's entire tradition and history.

8. 2 Kings 23:29 -- "King Josiah went to meet him, and Pharaoh Neco killed him at Megiddo, as soon as he saw him." Even the righteous suffer when God judges a people. Josiah died a rather unglamorous death as most of us will. However, he lived honorably, and his reward is eternal.

9. 2 Kings 23:35 -- "...he taxed the land to give the money according to the command of Pharaoh." People are often exploited through taxation.

10. 2 Kings 24:3-4 -- "Surely this came upon Judah at the command of the LORD, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done, and also for the innocent blood that he had shed. For he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD would not pardon." God will hold nations accountable for the shedding of the innocent blood of babies.

11. 2 Kings 24, 25 -- God's judgment can instantly eliminate what took generations to create. In an instant, the pride of a nation can be gone.

12. 2 Kings 25:7 -- "They slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah and bound him in chains and took him to Babylon." Godless people are cruel for cruelty's sake. There is no limit to the evil a godless person might do.

13. 2 Kings 25:18 -- God's judgement holds both political and religious leaders accountable.

14. 2 Kings 25:22 -- Through devastating judgement, God leaves a remnant and hope.

15. Proverbs 18:1 -- "Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound judgment." Again, isolation is an indicator of selfishness or self-centeredness. It is not a trait of the wise.

16. Proverbs 18:1, 2 – “Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound judgment. A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.” God intends for us to be in community and to focus on others over ourselves. We are called to reach out and proactively love the unloving. Often times, the hardest place to demonstrate this sort of love is in your family, and the second hardest place may be in the local church. However, God demands that we persistently, pursue 1 Corinthians 13 love as our top priority in both institutions (family and church) as these are God’s school houses for learning to love and our first workplaces to do His will. Concerning family, the Bible says, “If anyone does not provide for his relatives, and especially for members of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.” (1 Timothy 5:8) Concerning the church we read today, “As we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.” (Galatians 6:18) Too often, Christians isolate themselves from both family members and the local church do to relationship problems. The Bible warns that this is “against all sound judgement,” selfish, and foolish. Of course, God knows that many family members are selfish, sinful, and destructive and that that church is full of “self-righteous hypocrites.” That is exactly why He intends for you to be with them – “Bear one another’s burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.” (Galatians 6:2) God knows the “hurting people hurt people,” so in a way He has set you up for a beating, but it is in fellowship with Christ that you suffer as you serve as His instrument of grace and mercy. Who knows, in the process of loving the unloving, you might also discover your own flaws – “For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself.” (Galatians 6:3) The primary reason Christians isolate themselves is because they are, in fact, self-centered, self-righteous, prideful, and unloving; they look at others from a selfish perspective rather than seeing others from God’s perspective. One of the first rules in relationship is to “seek first to understand others before being understood.” Proverbs says, “A fool takes no pleasure in understanding.” Why does that unloving person act the way he does? What happened in their lives to make him so _____? Didn’t Jesus say that it’s the sick who need a doctor? But you have tried for years to have a relationship with that terrible person, and they just won’t change – “And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.” (Galatians 6:9) If we want to make the world a better place, let’s start with building Christ-like character in ourselves, then let’s focus on our families, followed by the church, then our local communities. If you are trying to serve as Christ’s Ambassador while in alienation to a family member or to your local church family, you are likely unfit for duty.

17. Proverbs 18:4 – “The words of a man’s mouth are deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is a bubbling brook.” People have much to say, but most of it is not worth hearing.

18. Proverbs 18:13 – “If one gives an answer before he hears, it is his folly and shame.” If while you are listening to someone you are formulating your response simultaneously, you are not really listening.

19. Galatians 4:1-6 -- Small children must be instructed and punished or rewarded over the most basic things because they lack both understanding and the internal discipline to do what they ought -- without internal discipline, they need external discipline. Conversely, one would hope that an adult has grown in maturity to have internal discipline that does not rely on external discipline to do what is right. Mature Christians who have the power of the Holy Spirit and a genuine love for Jesus are no longer spiritual children and no longer need the law because they have understanding and the discipline of a disciple, not to mention a genuine passion to honor God in obedience. Love does what regulations could never do. When an adult surrenders to immature urges, we might say, “Don’t act like a child!” Likewise, we must lovingly rebuke experienced Christians who act like spiritual infants.

20. Galatians 4:6 -- The heart of a Christian is filled with the Holy Spirit which is Love. We have perfect love within us but must not quench it, grieve it, or get out of step with it.

21. Galatians 4:9 -- Religion tends to focus on rules and duty. God wants us to focus on love, beyond mere duty. The more we know God, the more we are compelled to love Him and obey Him, not because of the rules, but because His desires are what we desire from the heart. Love makes obedience to rules a given, no longer a consideration because it is inevitable.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 18 June: Today, with fellow Christians, pray earnestly for revival in the American church. (2 Kings 23-25)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+kings+21%2C+22%3B+Prov+17%3B+psalm+71>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 17 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 21 -- Manasseh, Judah's most horrific king was born during Hezekiah's extra fifteen years. He never would have been born had Hezekiah accepted God's initial plan for him.

2. 2 Kings 21:3 -- "For he rebuilt the high places that Hezekiah his father had destroyed, and he erected altars for Baal and made an Asherah, as Ahab king of Israel had done, and worshiped all the host of heaven and served them." One unfaithful generation can tear down what previous faithful generations have built.

3. 2 Kings 21:8 -- "And I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander anymore out of the land that I gave to their fathers, if only they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the Law that my servant Moses commanded them." God's blessings are not automatic; they are conditional upon obedience. Don't expect God to bless your compromise.

4. 2 Kings 21:11 -- "Manasseh king of Judah has committed these abominations and has done things more evil than all that the Amorites did...." A wayward believer can do more evil than an unbeliever.

5. 2 Kings 21:12 -- "Behold, I am bringing upon Jerusalem and Judah such disaster that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle." The God of Grace does not simply ignore sin.

6. 2 Kings 22:1 -- "Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord and walked in all the way of David his father, and he did not turn aside to the right or to the left." In American politics there is much debate as to whether a person is equipped for the job (as there should be), but often what is more important is who that person surrounds themselves with for counsel and guidance. As an eight-year-old, Josiah was not equipped for the job, but he was surrounded by godly administrators and counsellors. Note that the first counsellor mentioned in this verse is his mother. Parents are critical to the success of their children. We will see later, that, as an adult, Josiah slips when he does not listen to sound, godly counsel.

7. 2 Kings 22:2 -- What is right in our own eyes is not the same as what is right in God's eyes. We must choose to do what is right in God's eyes.

8. 2 Kings 22:3 -- "In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the secretary, to the house of the Lord." Josiah prioritized support to God's temple. Political leaders must honor God above all else.

9. 2 Kings 22:7 -- "But no accounting shall be asked from them for the money that is delivered into their hand, for they deal honestly." It is critical that people of responsibility can be trusted implicitly.

10. 2 Kings 22:8 -- "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the Lord." Sin causes God's people to take God's word for granted and to forget it.

11. 2 Kings 22:8, 11, 18-20 -- "'I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the Lord.' ... When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes.... Thus says the Lord... because your heart was penitent, and you humbled yourself before the Lord... and you have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, declares the Lord. Therefore... you shall be gathered to your grave in peace."

- Revival involves a return to God's word, Spirit-led conviction, and genuine repentance. Josiah wanted to honor God by repairing the temple. However, it wasn't until he humbly read God's word that he was truly convicted of the depth of his sins and the sins of the people against God. Unlike the "scoffer" described in Proverbs, Josiah does not reject the Spirit's rebuke but rather responds with a "penitent heart." Interestingly, when Josiah and his "priest" want to get a deeper understanding of what they read, they know exactly where to go – to "Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe." (2 Kings 22:14) Not much of Huldah is recorded in the Bible, but we know two things: one, in a time when the nation had walked away from God and could no longer hear God's word, Huldah stood out as faithful and godly; second, Huldah was in a relatively prominent position as the wife of the keeper of the king's wardrobe. Notice also that when Josiah wanted to understand God's word, he did not seek out the prophet Jeremiah who preached in the streets. This may be because Huldah was known, accessible, acceptable, and non-threatening. It wasn't the official priest, the appointed religious leader who knew God's true word – it was the woman Huldah who had genuine relationship with God. Huldah, however, did not sugar-coat God's word but rather delivered it straight. Are you the one who stands out in your community as holy and powerfully used by God? When someone needs to understand the deeper meaning of God's word, do they automatically think of you and go to you? Are you fulfilling your role as an Ambassador for Christ and as a priest?

- 2 Corinthians 5:20 -- Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

- 1 Peter 2:9 -- But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

12. 2 Kings 22:11 -- "When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes." God's people must study God's word as a first priority. God's word is the primary instrument used by God to speak to God's people. The Holy Spirit uses God's word to convict the hearts of His people and to show them what they cannot understand through mere intellect. When we don't prioritize daily, diligent Bible study, we will lose the leading of the Holy Spirit and will drift into sin.

13. 2 Kings 22:12 -- "Great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us." Generations suffer when their ancestors do not obey ALL that is written in God's word. Jesus' answer for world peace was to have his disciples, "go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." There is no substitute for obedience.

14. 2 Kings 22:13 -- "Go, inquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found. For great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us." Josiah did not take sin against God lightly.

15. 2 Kings 22:14 -- "So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter), and they talked with her." See notes above about Huldah the prophetess who was known to be a person who heard from God though she was not in a religious position.

16. 2 Kings 22:19 -- "Because your heart was penitent, and you humbled yourself before the Lord, when you heard how I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and you have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, declares the Lord. Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not see all the disaster that I will bring upon this place." There is a big difference between being "sorry" and being repentant. A person can plead for forgiveness from God because they don't want to be punished (sorry), and a person can plead for forgiveness from God because their heart is truly broken for having offended their Lord (repentant). The truly repentant person is concerned about restoring a right relationship with God rather than whether or not they receive punishment. The repentant person is willing to accept discipline for the sake of a renewed relationship. The "sorry" person hopes to avoid the pain of discipline.

17. Proverbs 17:3 -- "The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and the LORD tests hearts." The LORD tests the heart in the fire of trials and temptations.

18. Proverbs 17:10 -- "A rebuke goes deeper into a man of understanding than a hundred blows into a fool." Will you learn the life lessons from the Bible, or does God have to teach you a lesson the hard way?

19. Proverbs 17:12 -- "Let a man meet a she-bear robbed of her cubs rather than a fool in his folly." Fools are more dangerous to you than ferocious animals.

20. Proverbs 17:13 -- "If anyone returns evil for good, evil will not depart from his house." Do not respond to Jesus' sacrifice for you with sinful disobedience to Him.

21. Psalm 71:2 -- "In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; incline your ear to me, and save me!" Salvation comes through the righteousness of Jesus, not through our own righteousness.

22. Psalm 71:3-5 -- God is the only Rock upon which you can place your hope and trust.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

23. Psalm 71:6 -- "Upon you I have leaned from before my birth." The longer you trust in God, the more you will trust Him in the future. Faith grows when you experience God's fidelity.

24. Psalm 71:8 -- "My mouth is filled with your praise, and with your glory all the day." Praising God all day strengthens your faith.

25. Psalm 71:15 -- "My mouth will tell of your righteous acts, of your deeds of salvation all the day." The more you recount God's blessings in your life, the more confidence you will have in His continued blessings.

26. Psalm 71:16 -- "With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come; I will remind them of your righteousness, yours alone." When you remind others of God's righteousness, you also benefit from reminding yourself.

27. Psalm 71:18 -- "So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come." A generational ministry gives you healthy purpose in your old age that benefits your health and longevity.

28. Psalm 71:24 -- "And my tongue will talk of your righteous help all the day long." How much do you talk about Jesus each day?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) - 17 June: Sing God's praises all day today. (Psalm 71:24)

DBRP - WEEK 24, Day 6, Saturday, 16 June 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+kings+19%2C+20%3B+Prov+16%3B+psalm+70>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 16 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 19:1 -- "As soon as King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the house of the LORD." Faced with a seemingly helpless situation, Hezekiah went straight to The Lord. Where do you go?

2. 2 Kings 19:4 -- "Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left." Never stop praying.

3. 2 Kings 19:7 -- "Behold, I will put a spirit in him, so that he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land, and I will make him fall by the sword in his own land." God can change hearts in ways beyond your power or understanding.

4. 2 Kings 19:12, 13 -- "Have the gods of the nations delivered them...?" To the world, Christianity is just another religion, another belief system. The world will challenge your faith by comparing Christianity to false, powerless religions. However, as the Founding Fathers said, Truth is self-evident.

5. 2 Kings 19:14 -- "Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the Lord and spread it before the Lord." Place all of your problems before the LORD. The Maker of Heaven and Earth is in control and loves you unconditionally.

6. 2 Kings 19:19 -- "So now, O Lord our God, save us, please, from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, O Lord, are God alone." In our lives, God is always working on two things at once, He is working on our hearts, and He is working through our lives to reveal Himself to the world. In both efforts, He is bringing glory to Himself. We must never lose perspective that our lives are all about Him and not about us. We were created to bring glory to God and to serve Him. Had Hezekiah defeated Sennacherib through his own military might, Hezekiah would not have had to rely on faith, and the world would not have acknowledged the power of God. In Hezekiah's prayer, Hezekiah seems to understand that the ultimate goal of his salvation is to bring glory to God. However, after God miraculously saves Judah from Sennacherib, Hezekiah seems to lose perspective and becomes self-centered as we will soon read.

7. 2 Kings 19:22 -- "Whom have you mocked and reviled? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes to the heights? Against the Holy One of Israel!" When people fight against God's people, they are fighting against God.

8. 2 Kings 19:34 -- "For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake." God's work in your life is ultimately about Him, not you.

9. 2 Kings 19:35-37 -- The power and the beliefs of the most powerful man on the planet are absolutely nothing before God.

10. 2 Kings 20:1-19 -- Blessed by God after great struggle and crisis, it is critical that we don't become complacent, take God for granted, or become self-centered. The Lord tells Hezekiah that it is time to die. While Hezekiah previously trusted God boldly with his life, he apparently didn't trust Him with his death. Hezekiah simply didn't want to die, whether it was God's perfect timing or not. In this case, I believe God allowed Hezekiah to live another 15 years to reveal the condition of Hezekiah's heart and to bring glory to Himself. Instead dying at a highpoint of honorable and faithful service to the Lord, Hezekiah lived on, dooming Judah to captivity and producing Manasseh, one of Judah's worse kings. Manasseh reversed all the good Hezekiah had done in his lifetime. Hezekiah was introduced to us this way: "He trusted in the Lord, the God of Israel, so that there was none like him among all the kings of Judah after him, nor among those who were before him." (2 Kings 18:5) Today we read his last recorded words of complete selfishness: "Why not, if there will be peace and security in my days?" (2 Kings 20:19) Wow! It is not how you start; it is how you finish. How will our lives end – on a pinnacle of faithfulness?

11. 2 Kings 20:13 -- "And Hezekiah welcomed them, and he showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his armory, all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them." Saved from death, Hezekiah became prideful and complacent. Immediately after success, you are very vulnerable. Success should be followed by humility, thankfulness, praise, obedience, and intentional recommitment. Above all else, guard your heart.

12. Proverbs 16:2 -- "All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the Lord weighs the spirit." It is vital for Christians to understand that their hearts can be very deceptive. We tend to give ourselves more credit than we should. Paul warned, "For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned." (Romans 12:3) You must seek the daily Counsel of the Holy Spirit to be shown what you cannot see within your own heart. And you must remain in a state of humility and repentance, not sorrowfully but joyfully, knowing that you are growing in grace. Continually examine your heart (empowered by the Holy Spirit), considering the real motivation behind your actions, particularly your acts of worship. Are you truly motivated by selfless love or by fear, pride, or mere duty? Seek the heart of Jesus, a heart of pure love.

13. Proverbs 16:3 -- "Commit your work to the Lord, and your plans will be established." Don't ask God to bless what you are doing. Ask God to show you how to be a part of what He is doing that you might join Him in it, grow closer to Him in the effort, and glorify Him. Commit to being a part of what God is doing, and you will be blessed.

14. Proverbs 16:4 -- "The Lord has made everything for its purpose, even the wicked for the day of trouble." God uses the ungodly for His purposes, often to discipline the godly. If you don't like your political leaders, your employers, or other difficult people in your life, your first step might be prayerful repentance. God controls all circumstances and places people in your life to teach you something. Conversely, consider verse 7 -- "When a man's ways please the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him."

15. Proverbs 16:8 -- "Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues with injustice." Don't sell out for instant, fleeting gain that can never satisfy. Don't be like Esau who traded his birthright for a bowl of soup.

16. Proverbs 16:12 -- "It is an abomination to kings to do evil, for the throne is established by righteousness." Make no mistake, all sin is an abomination, cosmic treason against the KING of Kings. Don't take any sin lightly.

17. Proverbs 16:13 -- "Righteous lips are the delight of a king, and he loves him who speaks what is right." God loves it when you speak the truth.

18. Proverbs 16:26 -- "A worker's appetite works for him; his mouth urges him on." God wants you to stay hungry. There is no growth in the comfort zone, and there is no comfort in the growth zone. Rejoice in your challenges.

19. Proverbs 16:32 -- "Whoever is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city." The greatest battle anyone will fight is the battle for self-control (which can only be won through the Holy Spirit). The mightiest person is the one who has overcome self. The greatest miracle on earth is genuine love displayed.

21. Psalm 70 -- Pray.

22. Psalm 70:5 -- "But I am poor and needy; hasten to me, O God! You are my help and my deliverer; O LORD, do not delay!" The only way to approach God is humbly.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) - 16 June: Consider your prayer life. Is it God-centered or self-centered? Are you praying for God to bless what you are doing or what He is doing through you? Are you praying, "Thy will be done," or "My will be done"?

DBRP - WEEK 24, Day 5, Friday, 15 June 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 15 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 17:7 -- "And this occurred because the people of Israel had sinned against the Lord their God." In this account, God used the ungodly nation of Assyria to punish Israel for its sins against Him. The Bible reveals that God uses nature, ungodly leaders, ungodly nations, and various circumstances to punish and discipline people. However, most today would reject the notion that world events are used by God to punish and discipline. How has God used life events to discipline you? How is God using world events to punish our nation?

2. 2 Kings 17:8, 9 -- "[They] walked in the customs of the nations whom the Lord drove out before the people of Israel, and in the customs that the kings of Israel had practiced. And the people of Israel did secretly against the Lord their God things that were not right. They built for themselves high places in all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city." When the church or God's people adopt the ways, practices, customs, and rules of the world, the salt loses its saltiness and the light is dimmed, allowing darkness to grow. A compromised church destroys nations more than corrupt political leaders. Compromise starts when God's people seek to build for themselves little kingdoms rather than seeking the Kingdom of God and rather than living by the motto, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." If the world is growing darker, it is because the light is growing dimmer. The problem is not "them," it is "us." As the church goes, so goes the nation. Rather than cursing the darkness, turn up the light. Pray for corporate repentance and revival within the church.

3. 2 Kings 17:12 -- "...and they served idols..." Idols are not just little statues representing fake gods. Idols are anything that takes priority in a person's life before God. Few people in America today worship statues, but nonetheless this generation is just as idolatrous as previous generations. 1 Samuel 15:23 and Colossians 3:5 add to our understanding of idolatry -- "For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry." (1 Samuel 15:23) "Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry." (Colossians 3:5) Many Christians are blind to their idolatry which is primarily a worship of self -- putting self above others and above obedience to God's command of selfless love. Jesus said that the first step to truly following Him is denying self, putting God and others above self, regardless the personal cost.

4. 2 Kings 17:13 -- "Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments." Obedience that is inspired by genuine love is the proof of holiness and rightness with God. We are saved by grace, but grace is revealed in the heart that genuinely desires and pursues obedience.

5. 2 Kings 17:14, 15 -- "But they would not listen, but were stubborn, as their fathers had been, who did not believe in the Lord their God. They despised his statutes and his covenant that he made with their fathers and the warnings that he gave them. They went after false idols and became false, and they followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom the Lord had commanded them that they should not do like them." It takes faith and love to obey. It is not usually that we don't know what we are called to do; it is that we don't have the heart to do it. The influences of the world, the flesh, and the devil are more appealing than the influence of God. So, we begin to look and act just like everyone else. How you act reveals what you truly believe and who you are really following.

6. 2 Kings 17:24 -- "And the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the people of Israel." A common practice used throughout history to subjugate a people is to separate them from their land. This is still practiced today, though you might not be paying attention to it. Throughout history, only their faith kept the Jews united as a people in exile. Does your faith keep you united to your family when separated?

7. 2 Kings 17:26 -- "Therefore he has sent lions among them, and behold, they are killing them, because they do not know the law of the god of the land." Once again, God uses nature and circumstances to control events in ways that people can't. When you are on God's side, the powers of the universe are working for you because God controls His creation for His purposes.

8. 2 Kings 17:34 -- "To this day they do according to the former manner. They do not fear the Lord, and they do not follow the statutes or the rules or the law or the commandment that the Lord commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel." The history between man and God is that God continues to show mercy and grace while man continues to defy God. In the midst of the populations, a few, the remnant remains faithful. This pattern continues to the Book of Revelation where God will finally end rebellion against Him and reward His faithful.

9. 2 Kings 17:41 -- "So these nations feared the Lord and also served their carved images. Their children did likewise, and their children's children—as their fathers did, so they do to this day." Partial obedience is not obedience but disobedience. Jesus warns, you are either all His or not His at all -- "Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. (Luke 11:23) "So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth." (Revelation 3:16) Of the millions who left Egypt into the desert for the Promised Land, only two actually made it, Joshua and Caleb. Why? Because they were wholehearted. Are you wholehearted?

10. 2 Kings 18:5 -- "He trusted in the Lord, the God of Israel, so that there was none like him among all the kings of Judah after him, nor among those who were before him." If you are truly walking with God, very few, if any, will be walking with you. If you find yourself in the crowd, you had better take pause. Are you willing to walk only with Jesus in this world?

- Hezekiah stood alone in his uncompromised faith. The Bible says that he was surrounded by people who claimed faith in God, but they did not "fear the Lord" enough to honor and serve Him faithfully. (2 Kings 17:34-41) They had a half faith which is really no faith at all, unacceptable before the Lord. Consequently, when crisis came, their false faith failed them, and they lived in subjugation. Now Hezekiah's faith is put to the ultimate test as the undefeated mighty king Sennacherib besieges Jerusalem. Consider the situation, Sennacherib has already defeated Israel and has taken possession of Samaria, and he has already defeated and taken all of the fortified cities of Judah. Now Sennacherib has surrounded Jerusalem and is claiming that, in fact, he is acting on behalf of God and that he holds the power of life and death, blessings and curses. (Hezekiah 18:25)

11. 2 Kings 18:6 -- "For he held fast to the Lord. He did not depart from following him, but kept the commandments that the Lord commanded Moses." Hezekiah did not hold lightly to God and His commands. Obedience is not easy in this world, nor has it ever been easy. Are you willing to cling to Jesus when everyone else is chasing after something else? Are you considered a fanatic in your faith by others?

12. 2 Kings 18:12 -- "They neither listened nor obeyed." First you have to commit to listening day-by-day (Bible study, prayer, receptiveness to the Holy Spirit); then you have to be willing to obey the Holy Spirit. Few really listen. Few faithfully obey. Are you among the few?

13. 2 Kings 18:15 -- "And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the Lord and in the treasuries of the king's house." This is where Hezekiah begins to slip. The world (Assyria) demanded of Hezekiah what was God's, and Hezekiah gave it to him in order to "keep the peace." At this point, Hezekiah feared man more than he feared God. As usual, this compromise involved money. Look at the church in America today. We pay what we owe to the government and to creditors, but we don't bring God the tithe, nor do we offer additional gifts and alms which God desires. The church will never be the influence it should be in the world as long as God's people honor themselves and others with their resources before they honor God who actually owns it all.

14. 2 Kings 18:20 -- "Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? In whom do you now trust, that you have rebelled against me?" Each day, everyone will make decisions on whether they trust their own intellect and might or God's. Sennacherib was a powerful strategist who conquered everyone around him. It took great faith to believe the unseen God was more powerful than the very visible and powerful ruler Sennacherib who openly taunted the Israelites for their faith and apparent weakness. Do you trust God beyond the apparent realities of the visible world? Was it strategy that brought down the walls of Jericho or the power of God? What will you rely on to tear down the walls in your life?

15. 2 Kings 18:22 -- "But if you say to me, We trust in the Lord our God, is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?" Sennacherib uses a common tactic, used by Satan in the garden and used by the ungodly today to weaken the hearts of God's people -- he tried to make them question their own religion and their religious leaders. He suggested that Hezekiah's faithful acts were really demonstrations of infidelity. He suggested that Hezekiah was merely using religion to control the people. Could you remain strong under such scrutiny? Today, many celebrate sin under the pretense of a greater understanding of religion or a higher revelation. Sennacherib did the same thing -- "Moreover, is it without the Lord that I have come up against this place to destroy it? The Lord said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.'" Do you know the truth well enough to combat the lies?

16. 2 Kings 18:25 -- "Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this place without word from the Lord? The Lord himself told me to march against this country and destroy it." God's enemies seek to undermine the resolve of God's people by claiming obedience to God in their disobedience. They claim to know God's will better than God's people and point to their worldly successes as proof.

17. 2 Kings 18:29-35 -- "Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the Lord by saying, 'The Lord will surely deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.' Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make your peace with me and come out to me. Then each one of you will eat of his own vine, and each one of his own fig tree, and each one of you will drink the water of his own cistern, until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, that you may live, and not die. And do not listen to Hezekiah when he misleads you by saying, 'The Lord will deliver us.' Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their lands out of my hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?'"

- The king of Assyria promised God's people a comfortable captivity, a bondage with benefits. So does the world today. You will be asked to compromise your faith and obedience to God by the majority around you who claim to be very religious and noble; by those who claim to be on God's side; by those who will appeal to common sense and reason. You will be told that God's commands must "evolve" and be re-defined to suit the changing times. You will see many around you surrender to the world and compromise for comfort. Will you have the faith to hold the line and remain obedient to God's commands though apparently surrounded?

-- Psalm 37:39 -- The salvation of the righteous is from the Lord; he is their stronghold in the time of trouble.

-- Proverbs 24:10 -- If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.

-- 1 Corinthians 16:13 -- Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong.

-- 1 Peter 3:15 -- But in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect,

-- Hebrews 11:7 -- By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

-- Colossians 2:8 -- See to it that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ.

- The world believes that all religions are basically equal, just different paths to God. The world teaches that we should respect all religions equally. Those who accept such notions will ultimately come to the conclusion that Christianity is just as powerless as all the other false religions of the world. Do you understand that Jesus Christ is the only way to the Father and the only source of true power? When all other beliefs prove false, will you remain unmoved on the Rock of Jesus?

18. 2 Kings 18:36 -- "But the people were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's command was, 'Do not answer him.'" Don't waste your time debating with the ungodly or even acknowledging their false doctrines. If they want to hear the truth, they will listen.

19. Proverbs 15:1-7, 23, 26, 28, 30, 33 -- "A soft answer turns away wrath.... the wise commends knowledge.... A gentle tongue is a tree of life.... The lips of the wise spread knowledge.... To make an apt answer is a joy to a man, and a word in season, how good it is!... gracious words are pure.... The heart of the righteous ponders how to answer.... good news refreshes the bones.... The fear of the LORD is instruction in wisdom, and humility comes before honor." Are your answers soft, knowledgeable, gentle, timely, gracious, thoughtful, refreshing, instructional, yet humble?

20. Proverbs 15:14 -- "The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge, but the mouths of fools feed on folly." Foolish talkers don't seek knowledge. Listen and learn.

21. Proverbs 15:15 -- "All the days of the afflicted are evil, but the cheerful of heart has a continual feast." You must choose to be cheerful regardless your circumstances. To the cheerful, every day is a holiday, every march is a parade, and every meal is a feast. To a certain degree, your attitude determines your altitude.

22. Proverbs 15:16 -- "Better is a little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble with it." Unity with God through obedience and love is the key to contentment and cheerfulness.

23. Galatians 3:24-26 -- "So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith." The law is the word of God, the manifestation of His character and His will. It is not outside of His will. Jesus said He did not come to abolish the law but rather to fulfill it. The law serves as a curb (to keep you on the right track), a mirror (to reveal your sin to you), and a guide (to show you where to go). The law sets boundaries for those who need boundaries. However, the law in itself cannot change a person's heart. Only Jesus can change a person's heart. When a person has a heart for Jesus, they no longer need the boundaries of the law because they no longer have a heart for sin. Many obey the law because they are scared not to obey. Many obey the law because they take pride in their self-made righteousness. Many obey the law out of a sense of duty. However, God wants us to love Jesus with all of our hearts so that there is no longer a concern about obeying the law -- obedience is the natural product of love. Jesus said that if you obey the Greatest Commandment of Love, the rest of the law will be covered. Likewise, if you disobey the details of the law, you have already disobeyed the law of love. The law cannot save you or change your heart, but if you are disobeying the law you are revealing a problem with your heart that has yet to yield to sanctification. The law does not save, but it still serves as a curb, mirror, and guide where we are not yet perfected in love.

24. Galatians 3:24 -- "So the law was put in charge to lead us to Christ that we might be justified by faith." The Law reveals your sinfulness and disobedience which should lead you to repentance and to Jesus. The Law does not save you, but the Law is used by the Holy Spirit to convict you in the process of sanctification, growing closer to God in pursuit of oneness.

25. Galatians 3:25 -- "Now that faith has come, we are no longer under the supervision of the law." Once again, when you are motivated by genuine love for Jesus, you no longer need the law to control you because love will compel you to obey from a genuine desire. Love is always more powerful than duty or fear of punishment. Many themes are repeated on purpose.

26. Galatians 3:25, 26 -- "For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law. But the Scripture declares that the whole world is a prisoner of sin, so that what was promised, being given through faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe." A person can never achieve righteousness through their own obedience, nor can the law create unconditional love for God in someone's heart. All require mercy, grace, and salvation through Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit.

27. Galatians 3:27 -- "...for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ." Covered in Christ, you are clothed in His righteousness giving you freedom from condemnation and special access to the Father. You are now free and uniquely empowered to follow God in obedience without fear of rejection from Him or separation from His love.

28. Galatians 3:28 -- "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus." Christians, Ambassadors for Christ, have no business discussing the politics of race, ethnicity, nationality, or any other man-made social stratification which commonly divides society and distracts people from the only topic that truly matters, Jesus. The physical, geographic boundaries that divided population groups and produced different races and cultures and that promoted distrust have no impact on the spiritual world. Today, people seek to find their identity and seek to identify others by their outward attributes -- much ungodly pride is involved here. Race, ethnicity, nationality, and gender are not virtues; do not take pride in any of them or show favoritism because of any of them. Man-made stratifications of people do not factor into God's economy and are almost always used by people for political purposes. There are two classifications of people in the world, followers of Christ and the unsaved. Your mission is to make disciples of all nations and to seek reconciliation between those who are divided from Jesus and each other.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 10 June 16: Today, consider why you obey God's commands. Are you obeying out of fear of the consequences of not obeying? Are you obeying out of pride for your own righteousness? Are you obeying to work your way into Heaven? Are you obeying out of a sense of guilt, hoping to make up for past sins? Are you obeying out of a sense of duty, because you know you should? Or, are you obeying out of love, because you have a heart, a passion to please God? When you obey for any reason other than love, you are not really obeying, because the First Commandment and the Greatest Commandment is to have no other God but God and to love Him unconditionally. Pray that God will continue to create in you a pure heart, that you would be wholehearted before Him and obey out of love. None of us love perfectly, but we should strive for ever-increasing Christ-like love, which grows as we grow closer to Him, the Source of Love.

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 14 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 15:2, 3 -- "His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah had done." Again, note that the Bible points to the parents when speaking of the character and competence of leaders. Note, that both the father and mother are mentioned. The foundation of a society is the home, and homes must be led by godly mothers and fathers, both are essential for the balanced character development of future leaders.
2. 2 Kings 15:4 -- "Nevertheless, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places." Azariah was a godly king, yet he let sin to continue in the land unchecked. We cannot stare at sin around us and hope it will go away. If we don't confront sin, it will continue to destroy and only grow.
3. 2 Kings 15:5 -- "And the Lord touched the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and he lived in a separate house." In the entire chapter of 2 Kings 15, Azariah was the only king who "did what was right in the eyes of the LORD," yet, God gave him leprosy with apparently no explanation. However, Azariah is also called Uzziah in 2 Chronicles 26, and 2 Chronicles 26 explains that, "when he was strong, he grew proud, to his destruction. For he was unfaithful to the LORD his God and entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense." Azariah arrogantly defied God's rules for worship and took on upon himself a priestly role. Therefore, God gave him leprosy, essentially a slow death sentence. God takes His holiness very seriously, and God has a much higher standard for those who assume positions of leadership.
4. 2 Kings 15:10, 13, 14 -- "Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him and struck him down.... he reigned one month in Samaria.... Menahem... struck down Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and put him to death and reigned in his place." A theme throughout the Bible is that God treats people the way they treat others.

5. 2 Kings 15:12 -- "This was the promise of the Lord that he gave to Jehu, 'Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.' And so it came to pass." God always keeps His promises. What promises can you find in the Bible that pertain to you?

6. 2 Kings 15:15 -- "Now the rest of the deeds of Shallum, and the conspiracy that he made, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel." The Bible cannot be fully understood without a diligent study of the whole Bible. 2 Kings 15:15 says, "behold" the rest of the story revealed in the rest of the Bible. Many Bible truths are obvious and easily understood. Many other truths are reserved for those who would diligently study all of God's word. Of course, diligent Bible study is only part of the equation – proper application is also required. Consider the birth of Jesus – very few people understood the significance of His birth at the time, but the wise men of the east and Herod's chief priests and scribes were able to accurately discern from God's word that the Christ was born in Bethlehem. However, the wisemen sought Him to worship him, while the chief priests and scribes sought to kill him – opposite responses to the same truth. Diligently study God's word to know Jesus more and more each day, to love Him more dearly, and to worship Him more genuinely. Study God's word to demonstrate your love for God by loving others more sincerely and effectively.

7. 2 Kings 15:20 -- "Menahem exacted the money from Israel, that is, from all the wealthy men, fifty shekels of silver from every man, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back and did not stay there in the land." Taxation is often used to subjugate certain groups of people in order to keep others in power.

8. 2 Kings 15 – God appreciates obedience to Him, not popularly acclaimed accomplishments or "good deeds" respected by people. A person can do many good things with the wrong motivation and wrong heart, receiving credit from people but not from God. Reputation is what others say about you. Character is what God says about you.

9. 2 Kings 16:2, 3 -- "He did not do what was right in the eyes of the Lord his God, as his father David had done, but he walked in the way of the kings of Israel. He even burned his son as an offering, according to the despicable practices of the nations whom the Lord drove out before the people of Israel." This is a shocking display of double-mindedness and infidelity. Ahaz was a believer who, nonetheless, followed the practices of the world, and the Bible describes the height of his sin to be the equivalent of modern-day abortion.

10. 2 Kings 16:8 -- "Ahaz also took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the Lord and in the treasures of the king's house and sent a present to the king of Assyria." Ahaz robbed the house of the Lord to pay for partnership with the ungodly. Do you give the whole tithe? How much do you give the government and bankers? Compare the average American Christian's financial support to the church and ministry to the amount they pay in financial debt, though they are far from starving.

11. 2 Kings 16:10 -- "When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, he saw the altar that was at Damascus. And King Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest a model of the altar, and its pattern, exact in all its details." Wow! Ahaz liked the Assyrian alter more than the one God prescribed so he removed God's alter and replaced it with the Assyrian alter. Ahaz then commanded that the daily offerings of worship to the Lord take place on this new altar. 2 Chronicles 28 gives more details of Ahaz's incredible offenses before God as well as the consequences. Ahaz worshipped in a way that was right in his own eyes but wholly offensive to God, and Ahaz dragged others with him down the path of destruction. If you had the opportunity to talk with Ahaz, he would have likely told you that he was a godly and very religious person, but he had made himself an enemy of God. How have we defiled holy things and robbed God of his due honor through compromise to the world?

12. 2 Kings 16:10 -- "When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, he saw the altar that was at Damascus. And King Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest a model of the altar, and its pattern, exact in all its details." Ahaz partnered with the world and blended pagan worship practices with worship to God, which, of course, is wholly unacceptable to God. Unfortunately the priest went along with him, validating his horrific sins. How has the secular world influenced the church and its "worship" today? Syncretism is perhaps the greatest threat to the modern-day church.

13. Proverbs 14:2 -- "Whoever walks in uprightness fears the LORD, but he who is devious in his ways despises him." Your actions reveal what you really think about God.

14. Proverbs 14:4 -- "Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean, but abundant crops come by the strength of the ox." What is your ox? Have you invested in the capacity to produce, or have you only invested in products that do not add a capacity to produce more for you? Many people buy cars, but few people by the factories that make the cars. Many people play video games, but few people build and sell video games. What do you produce?

15. Proverbs 14:34 -- "Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." Revival is the only hope for our nation. It must start with the church; it must start with you.

16. Galatians 2:2 -- "I went up because of a revelation and set before them (though privately before those who seemed influential) the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, in order to make sure I was not running or had not run in vain." Paul was led by the Holy Spirit but still sought counsel from other faithful followers of Christ to ensure he was on track.

17. Galatians 2:6 -- "And from those who seemed to be influential (what they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)—those, I say, who seemed influential added nothing to me." God does not care about social status or position. God is only interested in faithful servants, regardless their public acclaim.

18. Galatians 2:7-9 -- "...they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been entrusted with the gospel to the circumcised.... and when [they] perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised." Paul was led to serve God in a completely different direction than the rest of the apostles, yet they fully supported him having recognized the Holy Spirit working through him. The church was not divided over Paul's new and different approach? How do you respond to different forms of faithful ministry?

19. Galatians 2:11-14 -- "But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. For before certain men came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles; but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing the circumcision party. And the rest of the Jews acted hypocritically along with him, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. But when I saw that their conduct was not in step with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, 'If you, though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?'" Paul stood publicly and boldly against hypocrisy, deeds that did not match words, deeds that were not in step with the Gospel. The word hypocrite is the Greek word for "stage actor," playing a role. Don't allow yourself or others to pretend to be Christian while in fact not following Jesus in both word and deed. Paul warns that the hypocrite stands condemned.

20. Galatians 2:16 -- "We know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ." We are saved by faith alone, but not a faith that is alone. We don't obey God to be saved; we obey God because we are saved. It is our hearts desire to honor Him in deed and to reveal Him in deed.

21. Galatians 2:16, 18 -- "...we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified.... For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor." One of the most misapplied principles in the Bible is grace. Too many use grace as a license to continue in sin. Grace does not abolish the Law, it fulfills the Law, not because of the Law but because of genuine love. If you continue in sin, you are not just disobeying the written Law, you are demonstrating a lack of genuine love. Paul said that the love of Christ compelled him in obedience, not the Law. If you are motivated by love, the Law will be fulfilled naturally.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 14 June: Resolve today not to be a hypocrite. If you call yourself a Christian, endeavor to truly live like Jesus as an act of love for Jesus.

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+kings+13%2C+14%3B+Prov+13%3B+Gal+1>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 13 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 13:2 -- "He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from them."

- There is a theme that runs throughout the Bible -- it is hard to break free from customs, courtesies, social norms, traditions, and 'common sense' that have been passed down from generations but is contrary to God's word, will, and commands. We all must remain grounded in God's word and willing to challenge sinful norms. God wants you to live a holy life, not a socially acceptable life.

- The Bible continually reminds us how destructive the sins of one person can be on following generations and also continually reminds us the parents bear a burden of responsibility to raise their children to be godly -- "Jeroboam the son of Nebat." (see Malachi 2:15)

2. 2 Kings 13:4 -- "Then Jehoahaz sought the favor of the Lord, and the Lord listened to him." God will respond to genuine repentance.

3. 2 Kings 13:18, 19 -- "And he said, 'Take the arrows,' and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, 'Strike the ground with them.' And he struck three times and stopped. Then the man of God was angry with him and said, 'You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Syria until you had made an end of it, but now you will strike down Syria only three times.'" How you respond to little things reveals how you respond to big things. Given a command by Elisha, Jehoash responded with marginal commitment, reflecting how he would lead his people in battle. Had he doubled his efforts before Elisha, he would have demonstrated the type of zeal required to totally defeat Syria. What sort of energy and passion do you bring to your chores or to work? How well do you energize others to bring out their very best when they really don't want to? What you do with little things today reveals what you will do with big things tomorrow.

4. 2 Kings 13:10, 11 -- "In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned sixteen years. He also did what was evil in the sight of the Lord." Later in life, Jeroboam sought the Lord. Unfortunately his son Joash remained on the path of evil. Parents must train their children in righteousness starting at a young age.

5. 2 Kings 13:19 -- "Then the man of God was angry with him and said, 'You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Syria until you had made an end of it, but now you will strike down Syria only three times.'" Elisha had a bigger vision for Israel than the king did. Have God-sized expectations as you serve God in your lifetime. Remember, you have the power of God working through you if you are working for God.

6. 2 Kings 14:4 -- "But the high places were not removed." Many people struggle their whole lives with sins they refuse to surrender to God. Surely, you have seen this in others. Do you see it in yourself? God demands that you surrender all to him and pursue purity and holiness. Your sins are not your identity. Don't say, "That's just the way I am." You have the Holy Spirit within you. Be faithful and wholehearted.

7. 2 Kings 14:14 -- "But the high places were not removed." Hopefully you are getting the point by now.... Joash obeyed God except for this one area. Partial obedience is ultimately disobedience. Do you have "high places", things you simply won't let go of and that you let stand in the way of your purity, holiness, and fidelity to God?

8. 2 Kings 14:6 -- "Fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, nor shall children be put to death because of their fathers. But each one shall die for his own sin." Parents are responsible for the upbringing of their children, but people held accountable for their own actions.

9. 2 Kings 14:8-14 -- Taking pride in what God has allowed you to accomplish often leads to defeat and shame.

10. 2 Kings 14:19; see 14:3 -- God allowed a king who obeyed Him to be assassinated. Our reward is knowing Jesus and being with Him. God's perfect plan for you may include great hardships, even death. However, "for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose." (Romans 8:28) No matter what you are going through, God is using it to draw you closer to Him.

11. 2 Kings 14:25 -- Notice that Jonah is mentioned in the account of Jeroboam, without referencing Jonah's eventual work in Nineveh. Jonah had an international mission, doing big things at home and big things abroad.

12. Proverbs 13:5 -- "The righteous hates falsehood." Are you truly righteous? If you love flowers, you have to hate weeds. If you are ok with little lies, you have a heart problem. Be honest with yourself first and consider deeply where you have grown complacent with falsehood, even in little ways.

13. Proverbs 13:7 -- "One pretends to be rich, yet has nothing; another pretends to be poor, yet has great wealth." You will never fix what you aren't willing to be honest about. Don't pretend to be something you are not, be honest with yourself and with others about your strengths and weaknesses.

14. Proverbs 13:10 -- "With those who take advice is wisdom." Are you truly wise? Where do you get your advice? The Holy Spirit should be your primary Counsellor, but you must humbly seek and receive His advice.

15. Proverbs 13:11 -- "Wealth gained hastily will dwindle, but whoever gathers little by little will increase it." A major and critical life principle in the Bible is that growth in any area requires consistent discipline, day-by-day over time. People always over estimate what they can do in a day and under estimate what they can do in a lifetime. There are no quick fixes to the things that really matter in life. What are you willing to do consistently every day to become who you want to be at the end of your days?

16. Proverbs 13:16 -- "Every prudent man acts with knowledge, but a fool flaunts his folly." Fools are always the loudest and most confident. They are proud, not humble.

17. Proverbs 13:20 -- "Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm." When the Bible repeats itself, it is for the purpose of really making the point. Proverbs 13:20 is a repeated theme found throughout the rest of Proverbs for a reason. Pay attention.

18. Proverbs 13:20 -- "Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm." Your friends should be in pursuit of godly like you and strengthen you in your journey.

19. Proverbs 13:22 -- "A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the sinner's wealth is laid up for the righteous." Again, things that matter are built over time. The righteous work diligently today for a result that will last for generations to come.

20. Proverbs 13:23 -- "The fallow ground of the poor would yield much food, but it is swept away through injustice." God is a God of justice. God hates injustice. Injustice robs people and society of the good that could have been.

21. Proverbs 13:25 -- "The righteous has enough to satisfy his appetite, but the belly of the wicked suffers want." The wicked suffer want in part because they do not maintain the disciplines required to get what they want and in part because when they get what they want, it is never enough. The righteous work hard and learn to be satisfied with what they have.

22. Galatians 1:1 -- "Paul, an apostle—not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead." Don't miss this important theme in Galatians 1: God calls, commissions, and empowers His servants, not men. Many attempt to serve as an intermediary between God and people. They do not have the authority to do so. You have direct, personal access to God and have as much access to the leading of the Holy Spirit as anyone else. You do not need a degree from an institution or special rights administered to you by another person. All authority belongs to Jesus, and he appoints and equips people directly. Yes, you can learn from more mature Christians, but your Counsellor and Guide is the Holy Spirit. You are an Ambassador for Christ, not because you were chosen by men, but because you were chosen by God. Proclaim what you know about Jesus to others today!

23. Galatians 1:6,7,9 -- "I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel— not that there is another one, but there are some who trouble you and want to distort the gospel of Christ.... If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to the one you received, let him be accursed." Another critical theme: Many, sometimes well meaning, people are distorting the Gospel and preaching a false gospel by mixing it with popular philosophy. The Good News is Jesus and salvation through Him alone. However, many are preaching hope in other things -- psychology, self-help techniques, positive thinking, bright ideas, "common sense", etc. Many are trying to turn the Bible into a self-help book and mix it with quotes from modern, secular gurus who also offer a hope apart from Jesus. We are Ambassadors of Christ, not today's version of morality or human wisdom. We cannot use various techniques to save ourselves. We need Jesus. The Good News of Jesus is that we can have Jesus and salvation through him alone. Don't mix messages. Preach Jesus only!

24. Galatians 1:7 -- "There is another one, but there are some who trouble you and want to distort the gospel of Christ." Nothing has changed. Understand that many "teachers" of God's word distort the Gospel. You are called to carefully study your Bible to test every spoken word of people. The Holy Spirit is your teacher. Every other Christian is just a student like you, some good students, some bad. Some who are in the class are really not students at all.

25. Galatians 1:10 -- "For am I now seeking the approval of man, or of God? Or am I trying to please man? If I were still trying to please man, I would not be a servant of Christ." False teachers seek the approval of men. Some of these false teachers convince others that they need their approval to be a disciple or Ambassador. Your authority comes straight from God and God alone. Don't let institutions set up false barriers to your relationship with Jesus, to your growth in Him, and to your witness. Learn from others, but don't be limited by others.

26. Galatians 1:12 -- "For I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ." Institutions or other people do not distribute the revelation of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ reveals Himself to faithful followers.

27. Galatians 1:13 -- "For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it." Following the teachings of the most brilliant men in the church, Paul was working diligently and effectively but directly against the will of Jesus.

28. Galatians 1:14 -- "So extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers." Church or national traditions, long accepted for generations, can be a very dangerous thing. The word of God alone, empowered by the Holy Spirit, is our guide for life. Test everything against God's word.

29. Galatians 1:15-16 -- "But when he who had set me apart before I was born, and who called me by his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone." God chooses to reveal His Son to whomever He chooses, and those He chooses, He chooses for an earthly purpose -- to preach the Good News of Jesus to others. Don't wait for some sort of validation from others. Preach now what God has revealed to you and grow in the word over time.

30. Galatians 1:22 -- "And I was still unknown in person to the churches of Judea that are in Christ." You don't need to be well known or accepted to be used by God powerfully. You don't need the approval of people to serve God today. You just need to yield to the Holy Spirit.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 13 June: Preach Jesus only today. If you want to give someone advice, point them to Jesus. (Galatians 1:6,7,9)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+kings+11%2C+12%3B+Prov+12%3B+2+cor+13>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 12 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 11:1 -- "Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal family." Selfishness can grow in a person's life to where they are willing to do unthinkable things. When a person is fundamentally motivated by selfishness, though they might appear nice under favorable conditions, you never know what they will be willing to do under unfavorable conditions -- "It's you and me until it's you or me."

2. 2 Kings 11:2 -- "But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and she put him and his nurse in a bedroom." Unselfish people are willing to take great risks and make great sacrifices for others, placing others over self. While Athaliah was willing to murder for personal gain, Jehosheba was willing to put her own life on the line for a baby. Jehosheba played a critical role in the history of Israel and earned a place of honor in God's eternal word because she was willing to risk her life out of love for another; at the moment of decision, she did what was right, and it made all the difference.

3. 2 Kings 11:4 -- "And he made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD, and he showed them the king's son." Covenant relationships are life commitments that instill powerful trust and confidence, enabling amazing accomplishments. Marriage is intended to be a covenant, not a contract.

4. 2 Kings 11:5 -- "And he commanded them, 'This is the thing that you shall do: one third of you, those who come off duty on the Sabbath and guard the king's house....' Even God-enabled efforts require planning and organization.

5. 2 Kings 11:7, 8 -- "And the two divisions of you, which come on duty in force on the Sabbath and guard the house of the Lord on behalf of the king, shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand." Some had to work on the Sabbath, but they shifted to another day of rest. This was a church service with great security.

6. 2 Kings 11:8 -- "And whoever approaches the ranks is to be put to death." Strict rules surround holy things. Where there is no room for error, there can be no opportunity for complacency or compromise. Today, in our "it's all good" society, we have grown too comfortable around holy things.

7. 2 Kings 11:9 -- "The captains did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded...." Someone has to be in charge, and that person must command the loyalty of others. In this case, warriors submitted to the tactical leadership of a priest.

8. 2 Kings 11:10 -- "And the priest gave to the captains the spears and shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of the LORD." The church kept weapons and had a plan to fight.

9. 2 Kings 11:12 -- "Then he brought out the king's son and put the crown on him and gave him the testimony. And they proclaimed him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, 'Long live the king!'" This was a revolt against the standing government. But how do you reconcile this act with Romans 13:1, 2 -- "Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore, whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment.”? All authority has been given to Jesus. We must obey government until government calls us to disobey the KING of Kings. We serve King Jesus above all else.

10. 2 Kings 11:14 -- "And Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, 'Treason! Treason!'" The most treacherous person in the kingdom accused everyone else of treason. Those who are guilty of treason are quick, with great passion, to call the faithful treasonous.

11. 2 Kings 11:20 -- "So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet after Athaliah had been put to death with the sword at the king's house." People want justice and rejoice in justice, but they often aren't willing to pay the price of sacrifice to get justice. Everyone benefits from justice, but only a few are willing to fight for justice. Jesus said we are the "Salt and Light" of the world. Salt preserves, and light exposes darkness. We must be the few in society that are willing to expose the darkness and preserve society. Proverbs 29:2 -- When the righteous increase, the people rejoice, but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

12. 2 Kings 11:21, 12:2 -- "Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.... And Jehoash did what was right in the eyes of the Lord all his days, because Jehoiada the priest instructed him." The people who advise the leader are often more important than who the leader is. In American politics there is much debate as to whether a person is equipped for the job (as there should be), but often what is more important is who that person surrounds themselves with for counsel and guidance. As an eight-year-old (2 Kings 22), Josiah was not equipped for the job, but he was surrounded by godly administrators and counsellors. Note that the first counsellor mentioned in 2 Kings 22 is his mother. Parents are critical to the success of their children. We will see later that Josiah slips a bit when he does not listen to sound, godly counsel.

13. 2 Kings 12:3 -- "Nevertheless, the high places were not taken away; the people continued to sacrifice and make offerings on the high places." There can be no compromise with sin. The slightest bit of disobedience to God's commands can have devastating consequences, often not revealed for many years. What are you still hanging on to that detracts from your purity?

14. 2 Kings 12:4, 5 -- "Jehoash said to the priests, 'All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of the Lord, the money for which each man is assessed—the money from the assessment of persons—and the money that a man's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the Lord, let the priests take, each from his donor, and let them repair the house wherever any need of repairs is discovered.'" There are different types of giving -- tithes, gifts, and alms. The tithe is 10% given to the church. It is mandatory and given in public. Gifts are given to the church above and beyond the tithe. It is private and given in secret as are alms which are gifts to the poor and needy, again, above and beyond the tithe. The average church giver gives less than 2% of their income. This is wrong. Many believe that the tithe is a part of the Old Law which is no longer required. However, the tithe is not simply part of the Old Law. Abraham gave a tithe before the Law (Gen 14:20), and Jesus endorsed the tithe (Luke 11:42 -- "These you ought to have done"). The tithe is a steady, reliable source of income for the church to use to do its work. Today, our churches are weak in part because God's people don't tithe. Give your tithe as a public commitment and display of worship, and give your gifts and alms in secret. God loves the cheerful giver.

15. 2 Kings 12:7 -- "Why are you not repairing the house?" With good intentions and good ideas must come a specific plan for execution. As they say, "The devil is in the details." Leaders must set goals and objectives and ensure people actually get things done. Hope is not a method. God calls us to work efficiently and effectively to turn vision into reality. And any good plan accounts for the reality of human nature. People act like people do, and that is a reality that must be accounted for in the plan.

16. 2 Kings 12:13, 14 -- "But there were not made for the house of the Lord basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, or any vessels of gold, or of silver, from the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, for that was given to the workmen who were repairing the house of the Lord with it." First things must come first. Before the church buys that new electric drum set, they may want to consider buying Bibles for those who don't have one. Before you consider buying that new large screen TV, you might want to replace your roof. Take care of what matters most first. Do the hard thing first. Proverbs 24:27 -- Prepare your work outside; get everything ready for yourself in the field, and after that build your house.

17. 2 Kings 12:18 -- "Jehoash king of Judah took... his own sacred gifts...." Jehoash led by example and did exactly what he was asking everyone else to do.

18. Proverbs 12:1 -- "Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid." Don't resent the Lord's discipline.

19. Proverbs 12:4 -- "An excellent wife is the crown of her husband, but she who brings shame is like rottenness in his bones."

- An ungodly spouse can have a detrimental effect on your health.

- Relationship problems cause health problems.

20. Proverbs 12:9 -- "Better to be lowly and have a servant than to play the great man and lack bread." Let your accomplishments speak for themselves.

21. Proverbs 12:10 -- "Whoever is righteous has regard for the life of his beast, but the mercy of the wicked is cruel." The righteous treat animals better than the wicked treat people.

22. Proverbs 12:16 -- "The vexation of a fool is known at once, but the prudent ignores an insult." Do you ignore insults or stew over them?

23. Proverbs 12:18 -- "There is one whose rash words are like sword thrusts, but the tongue of the wise brings healing." Do all your words bring healing?

24. Proverbs 12:25 -- "Anxiety in a man's heart weighs him down, but a good word makes him glad." Do your words lighten the emotional burdens of others?

25. Proverbs 12:26 -- "One who is righteous is a guide to his neighbor, but the way of the wicked leads them astray." Are you leading your neighbors closer to Jesus?

26. 2 Corinthians 13:1 -- "This is the third time I am coming to you." Information is not transformation. People don't just need to hear the truth, they must be coached into truth -- this is discipleship. A leader must be willing to work with people over time, not just throwing truths at them without follow-up.

27. 2 Corinthians 13:1 -- "Every charge must be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses." You should apply this Biblical principle in your interactions with others.

28. 2 Corinthians 13:2 -- "Every charge must be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses." Don't believe hearsay. More and more in our society, we are guilty until proven innocent. Accusations are accepted as truth. God calls us to a much higher standard.

29. 2 Corinthians 13:4 -- "For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God." Don't confuse humility and sacrifice with weakness. The power of God flows through the humble. The most powerful person in any room is the true servant of Jesus.

30. 2 Corinthians 13:5 -- "Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you? — unless indeed you fail to meet the test!" The Bible calls you to be self-aware, always comparing yourself to the standard of Jesus. Faith is revealed in obedience to Jesus. If you are disobedient to Jesus, be honest about it. Where you are not living in selflessness, where you are not taking up your cross in relationships, where you are not truly following the example of Jesus, repent. Your test is certainly not what others around you are doing. Your test is the example Jesus gave you through His life. If your excuse for disobedience is, "Well, I am not Jesus, and I live by grace," you are really missing the point.

- Are you still doing things you wouldn't do if Jesus were in the room next to you, oblivious to the fact that, if you are truly a Christian, He is within you? Are you thinking things as if Jesus doesn't know your thoughts?

31. 2 Corinthians 13:7 -- "But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed." Note that Paul's prayer is that those around him would not do wrong. Also, note that Paul's motive in rebuking others is not to condemn them but rather to draw them closer to Jesus through obedience. His goal is reconciliation. That should be your motive and goal.

32. 2 Corinthians 13:9 -- "Your restoration is what we pray for." Examine your heart: If you are pointing out the sins of others without an earnest desire and intent to reconcile them or restore them in Christ, your heart is wrong and your best move is to keep quiet. If you are going to criticize someone, be willing to invest in them and coach them through the problem or issue.

33. 2 Corinthians 13:9, 10 -- "Your restoration is what we pray for. For this reason I write these things while I am away from you, that when I come I may not have to be severe in my use of the authority that the Lord has given me for building up and not for tearing down." Every word that comes out of your mouth, whether positive or negative, will either build people up or tear them down. Sometimes a situation requires an encouraging word, and sometimes a situation requires a rebuke. You must have the wisdom and willingness to provide both as required to build someone up. To be a true reconciler, you must speak the word of God, and you must speak from the right heart. If your heart is not focused on reconciliation, you will misspeak and will be an ineffective ambassador for Christ. True love speaks the truth in love.

34. 2 Corinthians 13:11 -- "Finally, brothers, rejoice. Aim for restoration, comfort one another, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you." In his rebuke, Paul called people to rejoice through discipline and to always seek peace. Peace is agreement, friendship, unity, and love with God – of one mind with Him. There can be no peace where there is disobedience to Jesus. Those who are of one mind with Jesus will naturally have peace with one another. If you want to promote peace, you must bring people into obedience to Jesus. You cannot just accept sin.

35. 2 Corinthians 13:11 -- "Aim for restoration." Remember, God gave you the mission of reconciliation. (2 Corinthians 5:19) Your goal in all relationships or encounters, particularly the challenging ones, should be to lead people closer to Jesus and peace. When you disagree with another person over an issue, don't let the issue become a distraction from your mission; don't lose sight of the goal, which is not winning but rather reconciling. Remember, an ambassador cannot represent themselves. If you lose the disagreement, what have you lost that God can't restore instantly? Have an eternal perspective.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 11 June: "Your restoration is what we pray for." Your mission on earth is to promote reconciliation -- bringing everyone around you closer to Jesus. Your specific assignment given to you by God is the people God has placed in your life. Perhaps, the one that needs your influence the most is the one who is the hardest to be around due to their behavior resulting from their distance from Jesus. Be ready to suffer their offenses and to live in grace that they might surrender to the grace of Jesus. Deny yourself, take up your cross in relationships, and follow the lead of Jesus to impact those around you. Be faithful today to your calling and mission of reconciliation. Today will only come once in your lifetime.

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+kings+9%2C+10%3B+Prov+11%3B+2+cor+12>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 11 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 9:1 – "Then Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets...." God used unnamed believers to do very important work. You don't have to be "important" to do important things. God only needs a faithful follower who obeys implicitly.

2. 2 Kings 9:7 – "And you shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, so that I may avenge on Jezebel the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the Lord." God never forgets evil deeds done against Him and His people.

3. 2 Kings 9:11 – "Why did this mad fellow come to you?" Notice the reputation God's ministers often have.

4. 2 Kings 9:13-15 -- "Then in haste every man of them took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps, and they blew the trumpet and proclaimed, 'Jehu is king.'"

- People are often ready for change but just need a bold leader to step up.

- The servants understood what God proclaimed through His prophets was sure to happen. They did not hesitate to respond.

5. 2 Kings 9:22 -- "What peace can there be, so long as the whorings and the sorceries of your mother Jezebel are so many?" Peace is found in submission and obedience to God. There can be no real peace apart from Jesus Christ.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. 2 Kings 9:23 -- "What peace can there be, so long as the whorings and the sorceries of your mother Jezebel are so many?" True peace can only come through right relationship with God. Compromise in obedience to keep the peace with the ungodly can only lead to more turmoil and destruction.

7. 2 Kings 9:26 -- "As surely as I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons—declares the Lord...." God remembers and fulfills His word of judgment.

8. 2 Kings 9:32; 10:4, 7 -- "Who is on my side? Who?" People have a tendency to change loyalties quickly.

9. 2 Kings 10:27 -- "And they demolished the pillar of Baal, and demolished the house of Baal, and made it a latrine to this day." God's people show no respect for false religions and offer no compromise.

10. 2 Kings 20:30 -- "Because you have done well in carrying out what is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." Generations are blessed by the faithful father.

11. 2 Kings 20:31 -- "But Jehu was not careful to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart." Once again, partial obedience is disobedience and reveals a heart that does not truly honor God as Sovereign LORD. Every sin is an act of cosmic treason, usurping God's authority for selfish reasons.

12. 2 Kings 10:31 -- "But Jehu was not careful to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, which he made Israel to sin." Jehu displayed incredible zeal for the Lord, but sin had become so institutionalized and such a tradition for the people that he could not escape it all. How much and how deeply has sin infested our customs, courtesies, traditions, habits, practices and way of life, even within the church? How much zeal is required to purify ourselves?

13. Proverbs 11:4 -- "Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death." Prosperity is ultimately meaningless when prosperity is not dedicated to God's purposes and God's glory. All that you do must be selflessly dedicated to God.

14. Proverbs 11:20 -- "Those of crooked heart are an abomination to the LORD, but those of blameless ways are his delight." God judges the heart.

15. Proverbs 11:22 -- "Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman without discretion." Indiscretion is unattractive.

16. 2 Corinthians 12:6 -- "I refrain from [boasting], so that no one may think more of me than he sees in me or hears from me." What you have done in the past matters little compared with what you are now. If you are what you should be, you won't have to boast -- what you are will be self-evident. Margaret Thatcher once said, "Being powerful is like being a lady; if you have to tell people you are, you aren't."

17. 2 Corinthians 12:8, 9 -- "Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should leave me. But he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.'" Paul continued to pray for what he wanted until he got a clear answer from God. When God did not give Him what he wanted, he accepted it as best.

18. 2 Corinthians 12:10 -- "For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong." Do you have this sort of contentment and believe that God is giving you what is best for you?

19. 2 Corinthians 12:14 -- "I seek not what is yours but you." Paul wanted nothing from people other than to see them saved. Those who do good deeds for personal gain or recognition should be ashamed.

20. 2 Corinthians 12:14 -- "For children are not obligated to save up for their parents, but parents for their children." Many families have gotten this wrong.

21. 2 Corinthians 12:20-21 -- "For I fear that perhaps when I come I may find... quarreling, jealousy, anger, hostility, slander, gossip, conceit, and disorder. I fear that when I come again... I may have to mourn over many of those who sinned earlier and have not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and sensuality that they have practiced." From quarreling to sexual immorality, these are the signs of an ungodly people. Do you see any of these unacceptable behaviors in the Christians you know? Paul admonished fellow Christians for such behavior. Do you?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) - 11 June: Do not boast. Lest your behavior speak for itself. (2 Corinthians 12:6)

DBRP - WEEK 23, Day 7, Sunday, 10 June 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+kings+7%2C+8%3B+Prov+10%3B+psalm+68%2C+69>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 10 June 18:

1. 1 Kings 7:1, 2 – "But Elisha said, 'Hear the word of the Lord: thus says the Lord, Tomorrow about this time a seah of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.' Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned said to the man of God, 'If the Lord himself should make windows in heaven, could this thing be?' But he said, 'You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it.'" God can miraculously change circumstances overnight. Most underestimate the power of God. A lack of faith could cause you to miss out on God's blessings.

2. 2 Kings 7:6 -- "For the Lord had made the army of the Syrians hear the sound of chariots and of horses." God can melt the resolve of your adversaries in miraculous ways, without you doing anything but waiting in faith.

3. 2 Kings 7:8, 9 – "And when these lepers came to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent and ate and drank, and they carried off silver and gold and clothing and went and hid them. Then they came back and entered another tent and carried off things from it and went and hid them. Then they said to one another, 'We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news. If we are silent and wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now therefore come; let us go and tell the king's household.'"

- The lepers understood that it would be a terrible sin, deserving of great punishment, to withhold the good news of salvation even for one day. Though they were tempted to simply enjoy their new riches, keeping them to themselves, they knew that countless others were doomed without what they had. So, they proclaimed this good news to the people who, at first, doubted. However, more "messengers" confirmed the good news, and soon multitudes rushed to receive previously unimaginable blessings from the Lord. What have you done with the Good News? What would happen if all Christians were as convicted as these lepers to share the “Good News”? How faithful have you been in sharing the Good News of Jesus? “We are not doing right.... If we wait until daylight, punishment will overtake us.”

- A scarcity mentality tempts people to sin. An abundance mentality, one that believes that God will richly provide, promotes forgiveness and cheerful giving.

4. 2 Kings 7:17-20 -- "Now the king had appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate. And the people trampled him in the gate, so that he died, as the man of God had said when the king came down to him. For when the man of God had said to the king, 'Two seahs of barley shall be sold for a shekel, and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, about this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria,' the captain had answered the man of God, 'If the Lord himself should make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?' And he had said, 'You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it.' And so it happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gate and he died."

- God keeps His promises.

- Refusing to believe God's word is deadly.

- The misfortunate death of the captain was not 'misfortune' at all but rather the fulfillment of the prophecy, demonstrating the power of God. God's discipline may seem harsh to those who believe that doubting the King and His message is no big deal.

5. 2 Kings 8:1 -- "...the Lord has called for a famine, and it will come upon the land for seven years." Once again, we see that God uses nature for His purposes and is in complete control of all circumstances. We also see how God reveals His plans to His prophets.

6. 2 Kings 8:5, 6 -- "And while he was telling the king how Elisha had restored the dead to life, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life appealed to the king for her house and her land. And Gehazi said, 'My lord, O king, here is the woman, and here is her son whom Elisha restored to life.' And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed an official for her, saying, 'Restore all that was hers, together with all the produce of the fields from the day that she left the land until now.'" God will arrange the timing of circumstances for His purposes and to reveal Himself to His servants. There are no chance encounters. How have you seen this happen in your life?

7. 2 Kings 8:11 -- "And the man of God wept." God's people hate to see others suffer. A real man cries for those who are suffering.

8. 2 Kings 8:12-15 -- Through the power of God, Elisha could see the evil in Hazael that Hazael could not even see in himself. What caused the man of God to weep caused the ambitious man to be excited.

9. 2 Kings 8:18 -- "And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD." An ungodly spouse can be more influential on a person than their godly parents were and can lead a person astray. The Bible warns Christians not to marry unbelievers, not to be unequally yoked, so that the Christian won't get pulled in the wrong direction.

10. 2 Kings 8:18 -- Bad company corrupts good morals.

11. Proverbs 10:3, 4 – “The Lord does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked. A slack hand causes poverty, but the hand of the diligent makes rich.” The Lord does provide, but, in no small part, by the guidance He provides us through His word. God’s word commands, and God expects, the righteous to work hard. We can’t throw out the ‘grace’ card as an excuse not to do our part and then expect God to miraculously make up for our lack of fidelity.

12. Proverbs 10:5 -- "He who gathers crops in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during harvest is a disgraceful son." Work as hard as you can, while you can, to meet your needs when you can't work later.

13. Proverbs 10:8 – “The wise of heart will receive commandments, but a babbling fool will come to ruin.” Many people are ready to ask God for countless personal blessings without receiving and obeying God’s commandments. They talk much but listen little. When we want what God wants, and live in accordance with what God wants, our prayer life is very fruitful. When we live for self and ask God only for what we want for ourselves, our prayer life is very unfruitful. God does not resource what is not in accordance with His will.

14. Proverbs 10:12 -- "Hatred stirs up dissension, but love covers over all wrongs." Just cover over wrongs; don't respond to them in a way that only sustains sin and makes it grow.

15. Proverbs 10:25 -- "When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous is established forever." God uses life circumstances to discipline sinful people. Some people can only be controlled by punishment. Those who lack internal discipline require external discipline. Better to listen to and obey God’s word than to receive the LORD’s discipline. (Proverbs 10:13) God also uses life circumstances to strengthen His faithful servants. Everyone goes through the storms of life; they destroy the wicked but only make the righteous stronger.

16. Proverbs 10:28 – “The hope of the righteous brings joy, but the expectation of the wicked will perish.” Joy comes from hope which is trusting God with your future and believing without doubt in His promises, regardless of current circumstances. The wicked expect happiness, and when they don’t get it, their spirits are crushed.

17. Psalm 68:4 – “Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides through the deserts; his name is the Lord; exult before him!” The Bible shows us that, throughout history, God has taken His servants through terribly dark times, and the Bible teaches us that, under terrible circumstances, we should turn to the LORD and not lose hope in Him. (Psalm 68) In the midst of trials and persecution, it is our knowledge of God and hope in Him that causes us to sing praises and remain joyful (though perhaps not always 'happy').

18. Psalm 68:6 -- "God settles the solitary in a home; he leads out the prisoners to prosperity, but the rebellious dwell in a parched land." All have sinned, but through Jesus, Christians are not isolated prisoners of sin but rather are being led to prosperity. Little lamb, follow your Good Shepherd closely. "You ascended on high, leading a host of captives in your train." (Psalm 68:18)

19. Psalm 68:19, 20 -- "Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up; God is our salvation.

- Our God is a God of salvation, and to GOD, the Lord, belong deliverances from death.

- We still sin daily, but God "bears us up" as we are being delivered from death.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

20. Psalm 68:35 – "...he is the one who gives power and strength to his people." It is God who empowers you to do His will, so how powerful does that make you? It is only when you attempt to operate outside of His will that you need to be concerned.

21. Psalm 69:29-31 -- "But I am afflicted and in pain; let your salvation, O God, set me on high! I will praise God's name in song and glorify him with thanksgiving. This will please the Lord more than an ox, more than a bull with its horns and hooves."

- God desires a heart of worship, not just acts of worship.

- God wants you to have faith, joy, and confidence in your salvation through Jesus, not in your deeds, which cannot bring you salvation. "Through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you (Acts 13:38)." Our sins are fully, completely, permanently forgiven through God's free gift of grace (giving us what we don't deserve), a gift we cannot earn or improve upon, a gift we cannot lose. "Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 5:1).... Not only is this so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation (Romans 5:11).... All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God (2 Cor 5:18-20)."

- Romans 5:8 says, "God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Through the blood of Christ, our sins have been covered over and Ephesians 2:13 adds: "Now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ." Jesus desires, "that your joy may be complete (John 15:11). If you are a Christian, it is time for you to accept the freedom, joy, and peace that is yours through Jesus Christ and spread the message of reconciliation with boldness.

22. Psalm 69:33 -- "For the LORD hears the needy and does not despise his own people who are prisoners." God does not despise the truly humble and repentant sinner who knows how desperately he needs mercy and grace through Jesus.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 10 June: Today, if you have the Good News of salvation through Jesus Christ, which is the way to escape from condemnation and eternal death, and which is the gift of eternal life, do not hoard the riches you have received freely. Do not hesitate another second to tell those who are perishing around you. Do not sin against God and others by failing to proclaim the Good News of Jesus today! (2 Kings 7:9)

DBRP - WEEK 23, Day 6, Saturday, 9 June 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+kings+5%2C+6%3B+Prov+9%3B+psalm+67>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 9 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 5:3 -- "She said to her mistress, 'Would that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.'" The captive girl showed compassion for her ruthless captor and sought healing for him. How do you treat those who have mistreated you?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

2. 2 Kings 5:10-12 -- "And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean.' But Naaman was angry and went away, saying, 'Behold, I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call upon the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place and cure the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?' So he turned and went away in a rage." Naaman could not humble himself in order to accept God's healing on God's terms. He expected God's prophet to honor him and treat him special. Elisha intentionally did not come out to see Naaman, sending a messenger instead. All Naaman had to do was accept the free gift of healing from God, but he considered it beneath him. The message couldn't have been more clear or simple -- 'Wash, and be clean'. God demands humility. Simple pride stands between many and Jesus.

3. 2 Kings 5:13, 14 -- "But his servants came near and said to him, 'My father, it is a great word the prophet has spoken to you; will you not do it? Has he actually said to you, 'Wash, and be clean'?' So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God, and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean."

- Again, God offers the free gift of salvation through His Son, Jesus, but many simply refuse to accept it -- it is just too simplistic for them, not sophisticated enough. How many people out of pride will refuse the simplicity of the Gospel -- "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life (John 3:16).... For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:23)."

- "... 'My father, it is a great word the prophet has spoken to you; will you not do it?' Many Christians make God's word far too complicated. God's commands are not hard to understand, and obedience to what you do understand positions you understand the deeper aspects of God's word. It is important to diligently study God's word, but it is through daily application where understanding occurs and where we experience God. Some use Bible study as a form of procrastination, like constantly searching for the perfect workout but never actually exercising. Some muddy the waters of God's word in an effort to make it say what it really doesn't say so that they can get out of doing the simple thing it says. They turn specific commands into "general principles" or philosophical concepts. Or they over litigate God's word to defend their compromised position -- "Who is my neighbor?" Those who read and simply obey, day by day, are blessed.

-- Ezekiel 34:17-19 -- As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord God: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and male goats. Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture; and to drink of clear water, that you must muddy the rest of the water with your feet? And must my sheep eat what you have trodden with your feet, and drink what you have muddied with your feet?

-- Ecclesiastes 12:11-13 -- The words of the wise are like goads, and like nails firmly fixed are the collected sayings; they are given by one Shepherd. My son, beware of anything beyond these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh. The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. For God will bring every deed into judgment, with every secret thing, whether good or evil.

4. 2 Kings 5:18 -- "In this matter may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, leaning on my arm, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when

I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon your servant in this matter.' He said to him, 'Go in peace.'" Naaman the Syrian was the only Leper cured by Elisha (Luke 4:27), not even any Jews were healed. Naaman could have been a powerful witness in Syria, but because he continued to compromise with the wicked practices of his culture for the sake of maintaining his position, the Bible records no other significant events in the life of Naaman -- he was healed and then nothing. He is never mentioned again in the Old Testament. What might have happened in Syria if Naaman had refused to bow down like Shadrach, Meshach, Abednego, and Daniel? Perhaps his impact would have transformed Syria like Daniel's impact transformed Babylon. How has compromise hindered our impact on the world around us? The compromising Christian may be saved, but ineffective or irrelevant at a time and place when God seeks faithful witnesses.

5. 2 Kings 5:18, 19 -- "'In this matter may the Lord pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, leaning on my arm, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, the Lord pardon your servant in this matter.' He said to him, 'Go in peace.'" Elisha's 'Go in peace' was not an endorsement but rather a dismissal. Having received healing and life, Naaman apparently did not, in turn, commit his life to faithfully serving God without compromise. Elisha did not condemn Naaman, but neither did he commend him or commission him -- Elisha was done with him. Christians often see salvation as having eternal life, but they fail to recognize that eternal life starts now (see John 17) and that we are not just saved for eternity, we are saved to shape history -- to serve God now, on earth, to be priests, ambassadors, salt and light, and to bring glory to God on earth. Like so many others, Naaman apparently viewed his gift of life as something intended for him rather than for God's glory. As with Paul, Grace should compel us to live our lives for Christ alone, to know Him more and more each day and to make Him known more and more each day. Don't render yourself irrelevant through compromise and lack of conviction. Serve God wholeheartedly.

6. 2 Kings 5:20 -- "As the Lord lives, I will run after him and get something from him." Elisha's servant swore an oath in God's name that he would commit a sin out of self-interest. People often pursue selfish ambitions in the name of God. God is not here for us, we are here for Him. His aim is not to bring us glory but that we would glorify Him. It is not about us. The fact that the prophet's servant who witnessed first-hand the power of God could not resist the temptation of selfishness and self-justification should drive us to our knees in prayer.

7. 2 Kings 5:26 -- "Was it a time to accept money...?" Turning to the world for earthly riches rather than remaining faithful to the Lord is a curse. How much of your life is about pursuit of something other than Jesus?

8. 2 Kings 6:17 -- "Then Elisha prayed and said, 'O LORD, please open his eyes that he may see.' So the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha." We cannot see the reality around us that only God can reveal. It is impossible for us to make sense out of the world strictly from our own perceptions. We must be guided by the Spirit. Only through the Spirit can you see the reality of the situation around you which is far different than what the eyes can see. The invisible is no less real than the visible, in fact it is more real; but people tend to believe only what they see and misinterpret what is actually happening. God's word provides us spiritual guidelines to keep us aligned with the invisible realities of God's will. It takes faith to follow God's word when you can't see the whole picture. God says, "Trust and obey."

9. 2 Kings 6:22 -- "Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master." Elisha taught the king of Israel to show mercy towards his enemies.

10. 2 Kings 6:23 -- "So he prepared for them a great feast, and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the Syrians did not come again on raids into the land of Israel." Hospitality, mercy, and grace had a greater impact on Syria than hostility would have.

11. Proverbs 9:1, 2 -- The product of wisdom is evident to anyone who cares to see.

12. Proverbs 9:17 -- "Stolen water is sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant." The simple seek personal gain at the expense of others. The simple also seek something for nothing and shortcuts to accomplishment rather than diligent hard work. Everyone is looking for "secrets" to success rather than self-discipline. Successful people are willing to do each day what unsuccessful people aren't.

13. Proverbs 9:10 -- "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight." Wisdom that is not founded on God, the Creator of Wisdom, is no wisdom at all.

14. Proverbs 9:13, 14 -- "The woman Folly is loud; she is seductive and knows nothing. She sits at the door of her house; she takes a seat on the highest places of the town," Foolish people are loud and proud, bold and audacious.

15. Psalm 67 -- God blesses us primarily to reveal Himself to a watching world, not simply so we can have what we want for our own comfort and security.

16. Psalm 67:2, 3 -- "...that your way may be known on earth, your saving power among all nations. Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you!" Your goal should be that people see God's power in your life and praise God, not you.

17. Psalm 67:7 -- "God shall bless us; let all the ends of the earth fear him!" Our goal is that our lives would be used by God to turn the whole world to Jesus Christ. Don't let anything about you distract people from Jesus. It is not about you. It is all about Jesus.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 9 June: Today, go out of your way to show sincere kindness to those who treat you poorly. (2 Kings 5:3; 2 Kings 6:22) Regardless your circumstances, walk in contentment, peace, and joy, trusting God with everything. Transmit Grace and Peace to everyone you encounter. (2 Kings 14:10, Proverbs 10:22, Proverbs 10:28, Galatians 1:3, 4) In all that you say and do today, point to Jesus. (Psalm 67)

DBRP - WEEK 23, Day 5, Friday, 8 June 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+kings+3%2C+4%3B+Prov+8%3B+2+cor+11>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 8 June 18:

1. 2 Kings 3:3 -- "Nevertheless, he clung to the sin." Character cannot be compartmentalized. All the good you do in one area of your life will not make up for the bad you continue to do in another area of your life. To claim a virtue as part of your character, you must be consistent in it. How many times does a person have to lie before they are viewed as dishonest? Trust is hard to earn but easily lost.

- Proverbs 25:26 -- Like a trampled spring and a polluted well Is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.

2. 2 Kings 3:4-10 -- Trouble often plagues you because you don't consult the Lord before making decisions.

3. 2 Kings 3:7 -- "I will go. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." Jehoshaphat partnered with Jehoram. But before the Bible records Jehoshaphat's commitment to Jehoram, it makes this statement about Jehoram: "...he clung to sin... which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from it." We will see later that by partnering with sinful people, Jehoshaphat compromised himself and got entangled in affairs that were not what God desired for Him and that would only cause him pain. Who do you partner with in business and in life matters?

- 1 Corinthians 15:33 -- Do not be deceived: "Bad company ruins good morals."

4. 2 Kings 3:11-12 -- God makes His word available to you. What you do with it is your choice.

5. 2 Kings 3:13 -- "And Elisha said to the king of Israel, 'What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother.' But the king of Israel said to him, 'No; it is the Lord who has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab.'" The king of Israel had no desire to hear from God until disaster was apparently at hand. The king was "religious" but his religion had the "form of godliness but without power (2 Tim 3:5)." In this time of calamity, Jehoshaphat convinced him to seek true counsel from the Lord through his prophet. Only because of the faithfulness of Jehoshaphat was this ungodly king saved.

- As opposed to the king of Israel who was a "church goer" and public figure, Elisha was known by all as a true "prophet of the Lord." He had no interest in the affairs of men and was no respecter of men. The Lord used him in a mighty way to bring glory to Himself.

- In Corinthians Paul warns the church not to be captivated and misled by false prophets who are talented speakers and dynamic leaders but who in fact serve themselves rather than God and who glorify themselves rather than God. Paul was not a dynamic, charismatic leader, but was sold out for the Lord. The Lord used him in a mighty way to bring glory to Himself.

- We will either live for ourselves or live for the Lord. We will build our own kingdom on earth or seek first the Kingdom of God. We will glorify ourselves or glorify God; we will seek to justify ourselves or rely on justification through faith in Jesus Christ. Are you known as a "good person" or as a "prophet of the Lord?"

6. 2 Kings 3:14 -- "And Elisha said, 'As the Lord of hosts lives, before whom I stand, were it not that I have regard for Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would neither look at you nor see you.'" God's word is available to those who are faithful to Him. (see also 1 Kings 22:43)

7. 2 Kings 3:18 -- "This is a light thing in the sight of the Lord." God does God-sized things.

8. 2 Kings 4:7 -- "She came and told the man of God, and he said, 'Go, sell the oil and pay your debts, and you and your sons can live on the rest.'" God controls nature and all circumstances and can provide for His faithful servants in miraculous ways, though the world will seek "plausible" explanations for these miraculous events.

9. 2 Kings 4:13 -- "Say now to her, 'See, you have taken all this trouble for us; what is to be done for you?'" God blessed the wealthy woman's consistent and faithful giving with a gift no money could ever buy her.

10. 2 Kings 4:28 -- Death can renew old doubts.

11. 2 Kings 4:43-44 -- God keeps His promises.

12. Proverbs 8:1-6 -- Wisdom is available to anyone with a humble heart.

13. Proverbs 8:13 -- "The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate." To love God is to hate evil, not to accommodate, tolerate, or accept it. The more you love God, the more you hate evil. If you are complacent concerning evil, you care little about God. If you can gaze upon evil (such as on TV) and not be outraged, your heart is not right. If your speech is not gracious and pure, your heart is not right.

14. Proverbs 8:17 -- "I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me." The Christian life requires diligence, a word with the following synonyms: conscientiousness, assiduousness, assiduity, hard work, application, concentration, effort, care, industriousness, rigor, meticulousness, thoroughness; perseverance, persistence, tenacity, dedication, commitment, tirelessness, indefatigability, doggedness. Do these words describe your daily walk with The Lord?

15. Proverbs 8:17-36 -- The truth is timeless and unchanging. The truth determines totally predictable outcomes in life, whether we believe the truth or not. What we believe to be true determines our behavior. If we truly believe truth, we will live by truth and be blessed. If we don't really believe truth (regardless of what we say), we will live by lies and sin and will suffer natural consequences.

16. Proverbs 8:22-31 -- When you tap into God's wisdom, you become synched-up with all of Creation. You are in harmony with all logic. Things will start to work for you like never before.

17. Proverbs 8:34-36 -- "Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors. For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD, but he who fails to find me injures himself; all who hate me love death." Wisdom requires daily attention. If you don't follow God's wisdom closely, you will only hurt yourself as you resist the power of the Creator and the logic behind His Creation and His plan.

18. 2 Cor 11:3 -- "But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ." Purity and fidelity start with your thought life.

19. 2 Corinthians 11:5, 6 -- "But I do not think I am in the least inferior to those 'super-apostles.' I may not be a trained speaker, but I do have knowledge. We have made this clear to you in every way." Much like many people today, the church in Corinth was being led astray by dynamic, impressive false teachers who were falsely preaching "another Jesus" for their own personal gain. They were "rock star" preachers who were wolves in sheep' clothing. Jesus said that the discerning would recognize false prophets by their fruit, and Paul says the same thing, as humbly as possible, comparing his own fruit to theirs. Paul is a great example of real leadership, a man who has earned the right to lead and, as opposed to false teachers, and has true "knowledge" which can only be obtained from genuine experience on practical application. First, Paul preached the gospel free of charge. How many leaders do you know who lead without reward? Paul gave to others but did not take; his leadership was not burdensome. Paul was motivated solely by love, and he did not direct attention to himself but rather to Christ. Paul's leadership was gracious, gentle, patient, and enduring; in fact, Paul at this point questions that perhaps he was too gentle (2 Corinthians 11:21). Paul could match credentials with anyone, but he did not consider credentials or pedigree to be the measure or qualifier of leadership but rather sacrifice and suffering in love for the cause. Paul had put his life on the line countless times for Jesus and often endured without even food or water. All the while in the face of many pressures and temptations, he remained holy and faithful – he did not falter, and his character was unblemished. Despite his shining character, he did not boast in himself but rather boasted in Christ and was quick to point out his own sins, flaws, and weaknesses in order to reveal the Grace of God in his own life. (2 Corinthians 11:28-32) To those who are easily enamored by superficial "leadership," Paul's meekness was seen as weakness, but Paul warns not to be deceived. Consider the popular preachers and leaders today: how many live like Paul? How many "gifted speakers" have been raised up to "super-apostle" status? Take a moment to be introspective. Do you lead like Paul? Have you paid the price to lead? Thousands of years ago, Sun Tzu once remarked that great generals are never honored or noticed because they don't fight great battles – they win quietly, behind the scenes so that the "great battles" are never required, and they don't have egos that demand the recognition that comes from spectacular victories. The irony is that greatness is not glamorous, most will miss it. Case in point, in the time of the reign of the mighty Herod, our Savior was born in a manger. What does the world remember of the mighty Herod?

20. 2 Cor 11:14 -- "And no wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. So it is no surprise if his servants, also, disguise themselves as servants of righteousness." Satan's servants will present themselves as godly or good people. It takes discernment through the word of God to identify these imposters.

21. 2 Cor 11:24-27 -- "Five times I received at the hands of the Jews the forty lashes less one. Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I was adrift at sea; on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from robbers, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brothers; in toil and hardship, through many a sleepless night, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure." What are you willing to endure to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to others?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 8 June: Walk today with a total expectation that God will richly bless you beyond your imagination. Commit everything without doubt, and watch God do miraculous things. (2 kings 4:4-7) Today, examine the purity of your thought life. Journal what you observe about your thoughts. Do your thoughts reflect "steadfast love and faithfulness"? (Proverbs 3:3) If not, pray that God would purify your heart. (2 Cor 11:3)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 7 June 18:

1. 1 Kings 1:6 – [And they said to him, "There came a man to meet us, and said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you, and say to him, Thus says the Lord, Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.”] Idolatry is placing your trust in something other than God or valuing something more than God. God takes that VERY seriously.

2. 2 Kings 1:7 -- "Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?" Where do you go for answers?

3. 2 Kings 1:10 -- "Fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty." There are consequences from being led by the ungodly. Bad leaders can lead men counter to God's will and into inevitable demise.

4. 2 Kings 1:13 -- "O man of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty servants of yours, be precious in your sight." God shows mercy to those who ask with a genuine heart.

5. 2 Kings 2:2 -- "But Elisha said, 'As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.'" Godly love and devotion towards others are permanent. Godly love is covenantal vice contractual.

6. 2 Kings 2:5 -- "The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha and said to him, 'Do you know that today the Lord will take away your master from over you?' And he answered, 'Yes, I know it; keep quiet.'" God reveals His plans to His prophets. God's prophets knew what God was going to do. God has given you His word and the counsel of the Holy Spirit to reveal truth to you. What has God revealed to you?

7. 2 Kings 2:11 -- "Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven." Elijah did not die.

8. 2 Kings 2:12 -- "Elisha saw it...." The Holy Spirit enabled Elisha to see within the spiritual realm things that could not be seen in the flesh.

9. 2 Kings 2:15 -- "Now when the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho saw him opposite them, they said, 'The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha.' And they came to meet him and bowed to the ground before him." God uses miracles to validate or legitimize His prophets before others.

10. 2 Kings 2:24 -- "He cursed them in the name of the LORD. And two she-bears came out of the woods and tore forty-two of the boys." Holiness demands respect. Disrespecting a true prophet of God is a dangerous thing. Even God's creation is against that offender.

11. Proverbs 7:1-6 -- God's invitation to wisdom is offered to every person.

12. Proverbs 7:22-27 -- Real sex education teaches that love waits for marriage, that sex is for marriage between one man and one woman, and that there are eternal dangers to illicit lust and sex. Most children in America are taught sex education in public institutions that start with the mandated premise that God is not part of the equation. Christians in America have allowed this to happen in general silence.

13. Proverbs 7:27 -- Where does immorality lead?

14. 2 Corinthians 10:1 -- "I, Paul, myself entreat you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ." Do you challenge others in meekness, gentleness, and humility?

15. 2 Corinthians 10:2-4 -- Your enemy is not the offensive sinner but rather the evil powers controlling that captive sinner – never forget that.

16. 2 Corinthians 10:4 -- "For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds." We are fighting a spiritual battle with Holy Spirit power, not through human abilities. We are fighting an insurgency to conquer the kingdoms around us, one heart at a time. At the commencement of his earthly ministry, Jesus proclaimed that the Kingdom was at hand, and the Bible calls us a "kingdom of priests" or "priestly kingdom." Daniel told king Nebuchadnezzar, "In the time of those kings, the God of Heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will crush all those kingdoms and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure forever." (Daniel 22:45) Daniel would later proclaim, "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations, and men of every language worshipped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.... Then the sovereignty, power and greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be handed over to the saints, the people of the Most High." (Daniel 7:13, 14, 27) Note that when Jesus gave the Great Commission, he started with this proclamation: "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me," and he ends with this: "and surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." (Matthew 28:18-20) King Jesus called his subjects to spread throughout the world as Ambassadors of his Kingdom and to advance the Kingdom of God from within the worldly kingdoms. As Micah prophesied, "The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the Lord, like showers on the grass, which do not wait for man or linger for mankind. The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among flocks of sheep, which mauls and mangles as it goes, and no one can rescue. Your hand will be lifted up in triumph over your enemies, and all your foes will be destroyed." (Micah 5:7-9) The physical Kingdom will not be fully established on earth until the return of Jesus Christ, but the spiritual kingdom is established, Jesus Christ is King, and you, Christian, are his Ambassador, and priest on earth, preparing others for his return. Is that our focus today? Is your allegiance to the Kingdom of God? Are you fulfilling your role in the Kingdom? Are you focused on advancing the Kingdom? Are you united with fellow subjects on the Kingdom? Do you have unity of effort with the other subjects around you? Will you live intentionally today? Are you preparing yourself to be worthy to reign with the Lord when he returns? How should the reality of who you are in Christ change your outlook today and your approach the world? Jonathans, get your armor bearers and advance boldly! Armor-bearers: find your Jonathans and join in the fight boldly with all of your heart and soul! "The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news!" (Mark 1:15)

- 1 Samuel 14:6 – Jonathan said, to his young armor-bearer, "Come, let's go over to the outpost of those uncircumcised fellows. Perhaps the Lord will act in our behalf. Nothing can hinder the Lord from saving, whether by many or by few." "Do all that you have in mind," his armor-bearer said. "Go ahead; I am with you heart and soul."

17. 2 Corinthians 10:5 -- Are your thoughts captive to Christ?

18. 2 Corinthians 10:7-10 -- We are not empowered by the strength of our personalities or human abilities but rather by the power and authority of Jesus Christ. This is power far beyond anyone's perceptions or imaginations.

19. 2 Corinthians 10:12 -- "But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding." How foolish is it for us to judge our own "goodness" based on what we see in others, by comparing ourselves to the "goodness" of other sinners? This is like one mass murderer who has ruthlessly killed ninety-nine people feeling more righteous than the one who has killed one hundred people. This is like two infants arguing over who is the most grown up. We are all sinners, equally unworthy. Our example with which to compare ourselves is Jesus Christ. Fortunately, our salvation does not depend on our righteousness but rather the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ. But God calls us to, under grace, pursue righteousness and holiness. It makes no difference what we think of ourselves or what others think of us. All that matters is how God sees us. For those who have been born again, God sees us cloaked in the righteousness of His One and Only Son. Boast in the Lord!

20. 2 Corinthians 10:17, 18 (2 Kings 2:24) -- "'Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.' For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends." It is a shameful, idolatrous, and sinful thing for a Christian to ever boast of their own abilities, even when they fake humility by giving God the credit for how good they are. God shares credit with no one, and we are nothing of ourselves. Never boast with personal pronouns -- "I" or "me." All glory goes to God on earth. It's not about you. Do not draw attention to yourself, only to Jesus. Do not praise yourself, only Jesus. Examine yourself every time you say "I" or "me" to be sure you are not boasting. Every time you are tempted, replace those personal pronouns with "Jesus Christ." When you proclaim only Jesus, you lose friends and employment opportunities because you will be seen as a fanatic. However, you will be on a new, much greater path.

21. 2 Corinthians 10:18 -- "For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends." From Henry T. Blackaby: "It is common for us all to seek approval for our actions.... Paul said that he was not striving to obtain the approval of people. Some of his critics thought their criticisms could determine what he did. Yet these same people were praising themselves for their own opinions and behavior. They were seeking the approval of others, and they were receiving it. Jesus said that those who seek to gain the approval of others 'have their own reward' (Matt. 6:2-5). Paul, too, realized that achieving the praise of others is not difficult, but earning God's approval is a far greater accomplishment. The affirmation 'Well done!' that Jesus received from the Father became Paul's goal as well (2 Tim. 2:3-5). Paul knew that self-approval is not hard to attain. Paul himself had once been pleased with his own life, until he came to realize that the righteousness he was so proud of was mere rubbish in the kingdom of God (Phil. 3:8). After his conversion, Paul understood that God's evaluation of his actions was what mattered, not his own opinion of himself. Whose opinion matters most to you? Have you become complacent, enjoying the approval of those around you? Have you become satisfied with your estimation of the way you are living? The commendation that matters most is the one that comes from God. The pleasure that your life gives to God should be your motivation to live righteously."

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 7 June: See if you can avoid talking about yourself or taking credit for anything today. Don't use the words "I" or "me" in conversation. Instead talk about Jesus. (2 Corinthians 10:17, 18) Also, focus on being a reconciler today. Remember, God has given you the message of reconciliation. (2 Cor 5:16-31) Don't look at others from a human perspective but rather from a spiritual point of view, understanding that their attitude problems are spiritual problems. Remember, you are engaged in a spiritual battle. The person who offends you is not the enemy but rather the objective, someone who is trapped in sin and suffering. Work through the Spirit to lead that person towards Jesus, regardless of how they treat you. Be a reconciler. (2 Cor 10:4)

DBRP - WEEK 23, Day 3, Wednesday, 6 June 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 6 June 18:

1. 1 Kings 21:4: "And Ahab went into his house vexed and sullen because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him, for he had said, 'I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers.' And he lay down on his bed and turned away his face and would eat no food." Envy makes you feel resentment, anger or sorrow because God has given someone something He hasn't given you; envy makes you want the other person to lose what they have that you might obtain. Envy is the product of pride and discontentment, both great sins against God. Pride, as opposed to humility, competes to place self above others, the exact opposite of what God commands – "Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves." (Philippians 2:3) As C. S. Lewis said, "Pride gets no pleasure out of having something, only out of having more of it than the next man. We say people are proud of being rich, or clever, or good-looking, but they are not. They are proud of being richer, or cleverer, or better-looking than others." Envy occurs when pride is wounded. While the apparent target of envy is the other person, the dissatisfaction is really with self and with God – I am not good enough, and God did not provide. Envy can cause you to forget all that you have for sake of the one thing you don't have. In Ahab's case, he was a king who lacked a vineyard. Envy exposes the idols in your heart. Few emotions are more dangerous than envy – there is no petty envy. Envy destroys and kills. Compare Ahab's story with James 4:1-3 -- "What causes quarrels and what causes fights among you? Is it not this, that your passions are at war within you? You desire and do not have, so you murder. You covet and cannot obtain, so you fight and quarrel. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions." If you feel envy in your heart, repent, and pray that God will give you a grateful, thankful heart of abundance that can truly celebrate the blessings received by others.

- Note: The Bible does reveal a positive form of pride – Pride in Christ and in the sanctification of others in Christ (rejoicing rather than haughtiness):

-- Romans 15:17 -- In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God.

-- Philippians 2:16 -- ...holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

-- 1 Corinthians 15:31 -- I protest, brothers, by my pride in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day!

-- 2 Corinthians 7:4 -- I am acting with great boldness toward you; I have great pride in you; I am filled with comfort. In all our affliction, I am overflowing with joy.

2. 1 Kings 21:7 -- "And Jezebel his wife said to him, 'Do you now govern Israel?'" Power does not corrupt. Power enables the behavior of those who already have a corrupt heart. Both positive stress (success) and negative stress (failure) magnify what is already in the heart.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

3. 1 Kings 21:9-13 -- Political leaders and others will often use religion as a way to legitimize their sinful behavior – “This is for God...”

4. 1 Kings 21:15, 16 – “And as soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.”

- Naboth’s land should have gone to his relatives after his death, but Ahab defied God’s laws and, apparently, no one spoke out against his actions in order to demand justice but Elijah. Are you willing to speak out against injustice and sin when no one else will?

- Ahab wanted Naboth’s vineyard and turned to Jezebel and the murderous ways of the world to get what he could not get through righteous ways, thereby cursing himself and his family – “Behold, I will bring disaster upon you. I will utterly burn you up, and will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel.” Even after Ahab’s genuine repentance, the consequences of his sin were not removed by God – “...in his son's days I will bring the disaster upon his house.”

5. 1 Kings 21:17-19 – “...In the place where dogs licked up the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick your own blood.”

- Ahab king of Israel thought he had gotten away with something, but you cannot hide from God's discipline and judgment. Ahab received condemnation from God for his actions. It is a terrible thing to position yourself against the will of God.

- Sin may begin as envy and greed and then proceed to theft and murder.

6. 1 Kings 21:20 – “Ahab said to Elijah, ‘Have you found me, O my enemy?’ He answered, ‘I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do what is evil in the sight of the Lord.’” Elijah was Ahab’s enemy because Ahab had become God’s enemy. Everyone takes a side in the war against good and evil. Those who side with evil usually claim that evil is, in fact, good. However, God sets the standard. A person either obeys God and stands with Him, or they don't. You either act as a servant to evil or to God. James 4:4 has the answer: "You adulterous people, don't you know that friendship with the world means enmity against God? Therefore, anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God." Do you see how certain themes run throughout the entire Bible?

7. 1 Kings 21:29 – “Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the disaster in his days....” God showed mercy to Ahab because Ahab repented. However, the consequences of Ahab’s actions were not completely removed; his family suffered because of his sin.

8. 1 Kings 22:4 -- “Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, ‘I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.’” Again, Jehoshaphat entangled himself with ungodly Israel which angered God. This is the fatal flaw of the American church that has mistakenly integrated with ungodly institutions.

9. 1 Kings 22:6-8 – “Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, ‘Shall I go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I refrain?’ And they said, ‘Go up, for the Lord will give it into the hand of the king.’ But Jehoshaphat asked, ‘Is there no longer a prophet of the Lord here whom we can inquire of?’ The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, ‘There is still one prophet through whom we can inquire of the Lord, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me...’”

- The king of Israel surrounded himself with religious leaders who claimed to speak for God but only said what he wanted to hear. This is often how people choose what church they go to. Second Timothy 4:3 has this to say: "For the time will come when people will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear."

- God's people are called to proclaim truth, whether people want to hear it or not, but fear of man will tempt us to avoid the confrontation that comes when light exposes darkness. Both Elijah and Micaiah suffered greatly for their testimony. Because of their unyielding and bold faithfulness, the king hated them and persecuted them. Today, Elijah and Micaiah would have been called haters, close minded, and judgmental, but note that, in the end, Ahab humbles himself before the Lord. We are commanded to proclaim the truth before power and contrary public opinion. Our love for God AND our love for others is demonstrated through faithful obedience. As Paul says in our readings today, "Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, others will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ."

10. 1 Kings 22:14 -- "But Micaiah said, 'As the Lord lives, what the Lord says to me, that I will speak.'" Is this your criteria for what you say to others?

11. 1 Kings 22:15 -- Micaiah knew the king didn't really want to hear or accept God's word. However, that did not stop him from speaking the truth.

12. 1 Kings 21:27 -- God invites you to repent humbly of your sin and perhaps not bear all the disciplinary punishment.

13. 1 Kings 22:27 -- God's messengers historically face persecution for speaking the truth.

14. 1 Kings 22:28 -- "If you return in peace, the Lord has not spoken by me."

- If you speak on behalf of God, and what you say does not happen, you are deceived and have misrepresented the KING. Essentially, you have become a false prophet. Be very careful about what you say in the Name of God. Be very careful not to put a Christian stamp on your own opinion or teachings emanating from pop psychology.

- Ahab surrounded himself with prophets who told him what he wanted to hear, aggressively rejecting the one true prophet Micaiah who put his life on the line to speak God's truth despite knowing that Ahab would reject the truth (a lesson for us today). Ahab's refusal to listen to God's word, which conflicted with his desires, resulted in Ahab's death. Even Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, who tried hard to honor God, allowed himself to be unduly influenced by the world around him rather than serving God wholeheartedly. We read today that Jehoshaphat engaged in an unsanctioned battle with the ungodly Ahab -- Jehoshaphat had made an "unequally yoked" alliance with Ahab (2 Chronicles 18). How could a noble king like Jehoshaphat ever say to an evil king such as Ahab, "I am as you are, my people as your people. We will be with you in the war."? Then, after Ahab's death, our readings tell us that, "Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go, for the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber." However, 2 Chronicles tells the rest of the story here: "After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined with Ahaziah king of Israel, who acted wickedly. He joined him in building ships to go to Tarshish, and they built the ships in Ezion-geber. Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, 'Because you have joined with Ahaziah, the Lord will destroy what you have made.' And the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish." (2 Chronicles 20:35-37) Jehoshaphat was a godly king who could have been so much more had he not trusted the wisdom of the world and become entangled in worldly alliances. I believe this is a VERY important lesson for the church today that we are largely missing. We do not have to separate or disengage from the world in order to remain holy; we can engage the world without allying with the world, becoming dependent on the world or mixing message with the world. Too often we believe that to influence the world, we must partner with the world, act like it, appeal to it, rely on it. The result: the church compromises its holiness and its witness. In the '90s, The Clinton Administration reversed US foreign policy with China with his new policy of "constructive engagement" which was based on the notion that if we opened the doors of cooperation and partnership with China, we would so influence them that they would be transformed and become a global champion of free trade and human rights. Clinton said, "And when it comes to advancing human rights and religious freedom, dealing directly and speaking honestly to the Chinese is clearly the best way to make a difference." Today, the reader can decide how well this "constructive engagement" policy has changed China and strengthened the free word's position. The reader can also decide how well the church's partnership with the world has changed the world and strengthened the church's position. Clinton said that there were only two possible approaches to China, "isolation" or "engagement" which was another word for "partnership" and "alliance." Likewise, the church seems to see only two alternatives. Isn't there a third alternative of engagement without compromise?

- Deuteronomy 15:6 -- For the Lord your God will bless you, as he promised you, and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow, and you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you.

15. 1 Kings 22:29-37 -- You cannot hide from God and escape the judgment he has revealed.

16. 1 Kings 22:34 -- "But a certain man drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate." The king's cunning plan could not thwart God's will. What seemed to be a random act was controlled by God to accomplish His purposes. God works daily in miraculous ways that are recognized by His people but viewed by others as mere chance or luck.

17. 1 Kings 22:39 -- Sinners may accomplish much, but it is ultimately meaningless.

18. 1 Kings 22:43 -- "Yet the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places." Though Jehoshaphat walked in the ways of the LORD, he did not challenge the sinful practices of the people, and this is viewed by God as a major failure by Jehoshaphat.

19. 1 Kings 22:43 -- "He did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the Lord. Yet the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places." God expects consistent and complete obedience.

20. 1 Kings 22:45 -- God is interested in a leader's relationship and obedience to Him rather than their famed accomplishments and reputation.

21. 1 Kings 22:48 -- "The ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber." God punished Jehoshaphat for his ungodly entanglements. More will be explained later in the Bible.

22. Proverbs 6:1-5 -- Avoid debt to others; work hard, save, and invest (Pro 6:6-11); be honest and cooperative in all your dealings with others (Pro 6:12-19); and don't commit adultery! (Pro 6:20-35)

23. Proverbs 6:6-11 -- Self-discipline involves making sacrifices and working hard today for a greater tomorrow.

24. 2 Corinthians 9:6 -- "The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully." Have you ever wondered why some Christians grow so rapidly in their faith while others seem to grow so slowly? The daily disciplines of discipleship will produce an abundant harvest. If you sow sparingly, you will also reap sparingly. Specifically, this verse applies to giving. Those who give to others position themselves to receive abundantly from the Lord.

25. 2 Corinthians 9:7 -- "Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." People are motivated to do "good deeds" for many reasons -- guilt, fear, pride, duty, etc. Many do the right things for the wrong reasons, and the Bible calls these deeds "filthy rags," straw that will be burnt in the fire. Charitable deeds that are not motivated by genuine love are valued by people but not by God. Seek a heart that gives out of love.

26. 2 Corinthians 9:6, 7 -- How you view God's gift to you determines how much of a heart you have for giving to others. How you give to others influences how God will bless you on earth.

27. 2 Corinthians 9:7 -- "God loves a cheerful giver." Any questions?

28. 2 Corinthians 9:8 -- "And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work." Do you have an abundance mentality? God is abundant in His grace. How much grace is God able to make abound to you? "All grace"! The grace God gives you is sufficient under what circumstances? "In all things at all times"! Why does God provide you all grace? So you may abound in every good work. Not that you can abound in everything, just in what He intends for you -- good works. If God called you to do it, nothing can stop you.

29. 2 Corinthians 9:13 -- "...they will glorify God because of your submission that comes from your confession of the gospel of Christ." The quality of our lives will be measured by how much we spread the gospel and how much we cared for the needs of others in the Name of Jesus.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 6 June: Pray that God will make you a more cheerful giver. Give to others today as an act of gratitude for what God has given you; give to others the way you want God to give to you. (2 Corinthians 9:6, 7)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+kings+19%2C+20%3B+Prov+5%3B+2+cor+8>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 5 June 18:

1. 1 Kings 19:1-3 -- After Elijah had been used as an instrument to display God's mighty power, and after he had killed all the prophets, then he was afraid of Jezebel's threats. She must have been incredibly powerful and ruthless. What does it take for you to lose heart?

2. 1 Kings 19:1-4 -- In a time of total distress, Elijah ran to the Lord and was strengthened by God. Where do you turn during times like this?

3. 1 Kings 19:4-8 -- God calls us to perform missions that are impossible for us under our own strength. He then provides what we cannot provide for ourselves. He does this to reveal Himself.

4. 1 Kings 19:10 -- "... I only, am left...." When you remain faithful to God while the world rejects God, you will feel alone, but you are not alone. Allow God to unite you with the body of believers.

5. 1 Kings 19:12 -- "And after the fire the sound of a low whisper." You must be ready to hear the whisper of God in the midst of the world's turmoil. You cannot hear the whisper of God unless you are really listening, unless you are willing to go to places of silence for that very purpose. If you are caught up in the noise of the world and expecting God to shout over it to provide you His word for you, you should learn from Elijah. We tend to look for God through great miraculous acts but often miss that He speaks to us through His word in a low whisper. It seems that we are so wrapped up in the daily hustle and bustle of the world, so distracted, and so worried that we are never quiet and still enough to just listen.

6. 1 Kings 19:14 -- "...and I, even I only, am left, and they seek my life, to take it away." In his service to the Lord, Elijah had experienced incredible highs and lows, and now he is experiencing intense discouragement. Elijah had just called down fire from heaven, and now he is in fear for his life, feeling isolated and alone. Elijah's focus had shifted from God to God's enemies. Only God could comfort Elijah, and God did. When discouraged, get alone with God.

7. 1 Kings 19:15 -- "You shall anoint Hazael to be king over Syria." God places all kings in power for His purposes. If you want a different leader, go to God.

8. 1 Kings 19:17 -- "And the one who escapes from the sword of Hazael shall Jehu put to death, and the one who escapes from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha put to death." God's prophets wielded the sword upon God's command.

9. 1 Kings 19:18 -- "Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him." Though you may think no one remains totally committed to obedience to God anymore, you are wrong. God accounts for all His faithful and will take care of them. If you don't see faithful people around you, you might be in the wrong place with the wrong people, you may be operating deep within enemy lines on a special mission from God, or you might not be paying close enough attention.

10. 1 Kings 19:19, 20 -- Elisha was called by God to change his entire life for God, to give up a profitable business to serve God.

11. 1 Kings 19:13, 19-21 -- "Elijah went up to him and threw his cloak around him.... So Elisha... took his yoke of oxen and slaughtered them. He burned the plowing equipment to cook the meat and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out to follow Elijah and became his servant." Without notice, Elijah called Elisha to a new life as a Prophet of God. This was an unexpected, life changing moment. Elisha could not continue to live the life he had been living and follow God's direction too. God's plan for Elisha was far greater than Elisha's plan for Elisha. Elisha was at the moment of decision: do I stay who I am (a decent, hardworking, respected, God fearing man) and build a good life for myself, or do I deny self and follow God wholeheartedly? Do I ask God to bless my life and what I am doing, or do I seek to know God's plan and become a part of what He is already doing for His own glory? Elisha cut all ties with his former life and left himself no "Plan B" or "out option." He was all in. Elisha made his choice -- no turning back. His old life was over; he was all in for the Lord. Gal 3:26-27 says: "So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ." God threw the cloak of Christ on you – now, what will you do?

12. 1 Kings 20:14 – "Then he said, 'Who shall begin the battle?' He answered, 'You'." What a powerful verse! God's plan requires a faithful servant to lead the way. Too often, God's people are all waiting for someone else to step up. Who shall begin the battle? Why not you?

13. 1 Kings 20:22 -- "Come, strengthen yourself, and consider well what you have to do, for in the spring the king of Syria will come up against you." The war is not won in a single battle. Don't grow complacent in your successes; prepare immediately for the next battle.

14. 1 Kings 20:23 -- "But let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they." No strategy can overcome the power of God.

15. 1 Kings 20:28 -- "I will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD." God gives you victories for His glory, not for your glory. Never make the mistake of trying to share glory with God in your successes.

16. 1 Kings 20:35-43 -- God expects instant, willing, total obedience.

17. 1 Kings 20:42 -- "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall be for his life, and your people for his people.'" Once again, partial obedience to God is disobedience to God, not something God takes lightly. Either God is honored by you as God or not. He cannot be a God in your life and not Sovereign in your life. Casual sin is cosmic treason against The Almighty.

18. Proverbs 5:11-14 -- You will either suffer the pain of discipline now or the pain of regret later.

19. Proverbs 5:22 -- "The iniquities of the wicked ensnare him, and he is held fast in the cords of his sin." Do not be trapped by sin.

20. 2 Corinthians 8:2 -- "...for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part." Do you respond to tests of affliction with joy and generosity towards others?

21. 2 Corinthians 8:3 -- "For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own accord, begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints." Do you beg for the opportunity to give and give beyond your means? Christian giving is radical.

22. 2 Corinthians 8:5 -- "They gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us." What we give to others is a reflection of what we have given to God.

23. 2 Corinthians 8:6 -- "...see that you excel in this act of grace also." We only live by God's grace, the undeserved gift of His Son, Jesus. Do you in turn excel in grace towards others? Grace also includes surrendering your rights to others who mistreat you unjustly.

24. 2 Corinthians 8:7 -- "But as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you —see that you excel in this act of grace also." We are encouraged to excel in everything, yes, everything; particularly, we are coached to excel in giving. So, how much to give? Paul says to use Jesus as our example – “For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich (2 Corinthians 8:7).” How much faith does it take to give like that? The churches in Macedonia, though suffering extreme poverty and affliction, gave generously and joyously, considering it an honor to give grace to others in the name of Jesus Christ. They had no problem giving because they had already given themselves to God and understood that is was all for His glory. Have you ever considered why, though we in America are so well off, we find it so difficult for us to give generously? What does that say about our perspective on God and our appreciation of the grace that has been bestowed upon us through Jesus?

25. 2 Corinthians 8:9 -- "For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich." Like Jesus, are you willing to become poor that others might be rich?

26. 2 Corinthians 8:18-19 -- "With him we are sending the brother who is famous among all the churches for his preaching of the gospel. And not only that, but he has been appointed by the churches to travel with us as we carry out this act of grace that is being ministered by us, for the glory of the Lord himself and to show our good will." Paul did not work alone; he was part of a ministry team, comprised of people with different talents and skills and supported by the church. Who is on your ministry team?

27. 2 Corinthians 8:28 -- "...we aim at what is honorable not only in the Lord's sight but also in the sight of man." How we are perceived by others does matter. Go out of your way not to offend while staying within the bounds of God's commands.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 5 June: Make special effort to connect and unite with fellow believers today. Expand your network of Christian fellowship if possible. Commit to serving God together. Share with each other to see a greater vision of what God is doing where you are. (1 Kings 19:10, 18; 2 Cor 8:18-19)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 4 June 18:

1. 1 Kings 17:4 -- "I have commanded the ravens to feed you there." God can take care of your needs in miraculous ways using all the powers of nature.

2. 1 Kings 17:7 -- "And after a while the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land." God will provide for you through hard times but won't necessarily keep you out of hard times.

3. 1 Kings 17:8-10 -- "Then the word of the LORD came to him, 'Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to feed you.' So he arose and went to Zarephath." You have to both hear God's word and obey God's word to experience His miraculous blessings. When you follow God, He arranges circumstances and controls hearts to provide for you in ways that others would not recognize as miraculous.

4. 1 Kings 17:12 -- "And now I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it and die." If you are willing to give all that you have for God's service, a total sacrifice, you will be blessed beyond imagination. It takes faith to give beyond what appears reasonable. God may take you to your breaking point to reveal your character and willingness to obey His law of love.

5. 1 Kings 17:13 -- "But first make me a little cake...." Faith operates without a safety net, where it's an all or nothing proposition. If you always require a back-up plan, you are not operating on total faith.

6. 1 Kings 17:13, 14 -- "Don't be afraid.... For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says...." Today's verses speak to the power of walking in faith and trusting in the Lord to the point of complete surrender, submission, and obedience. Elijah was commanded by God to journey into the wilderness during a great famine and drought – he went. He was then commanded to travel to Sidon with no food or water – he went. Elijah then asked a widow to give him the last food she had for her and her son and to believe that God would supply her needs – she did it. Obadiah put his life on the line to hide the Prophets from Jezebel, and he again put his life on the line by telling Ahab that Elijah was in town. Elijah, as an act of faith and obedience, presented himself to Ahab, though Elijah's faithful witness against society had made him "public enemy number one." In faith Elijah challenged the prophets of Baal publicly on Mount Carmel. These people acted in faith and God proved faithful. Through their faithfulness, they glorified God before a watching world and were, themselves, blessed by the experience. How much different do you suppose the widow's perspective of God was after God miraculously provided food for her and her son and then brought him back to life? It takes faith to obey God, and the Bible says, "without faith it is impossible to please God." In our NT readings today, Paul challenges the church to live by faith and "purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God."

7. 1 Kings 17:24 -- "And the woman said to Elijah, 'Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.'" Because of her faith, the widow experienced the power of God in an incredible and personal way.

8. 1 Kings 17:24 -- Like He does with all prophets, God gave Elijah great power in order to validate him as a true prophet, not just to take care of Him. God's ultimate aim is always to glorify Himself, not His followers. The true disciple of Jesus does not seek God's power to accomplish his personal goals or to gain the favor of people but only to accomplish God's will and to bring others to Jesus.

9. 1 Kings 18:1 -- "After many days the word of the Lord came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, 'Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain upon the earth.'" Elijah did not go anywhere on his own initiative but rather waited on direction from God. Jesus said that He operated the same way. Why do you do what you do? Notice that the word of the Lord came to Elijah, "after many days." Until then, Elijah simply remained faithful to what he had already been told to do, without using God's silence as an excuse to quit endeavoring. Are you willing to obey God's clearly written word without requiring some special revelation?

10. 1 Kings 18:4 -- "Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave and fed them with bread and water." Obadiah not only feared God, he also prepared for famine when no one else had. Therefore, he was able to care for God's prophets. Faithful followers of Christ don't hoard wealth or save for a future of unproductivity, but they do save so that they can provide for themselves and others during lean times or times of trouble. Are you saving up for retirement so you can finally relax? If so, your plan will ruin you.

11. 1 Kings 18:17, 18 -- "When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, 'Is it you, you troubler of Israel?' And he answered, 'I have not troubled Israel, but you have, and your father's house, because you have abandoned the commandments of the LORD and followed the Baals.'" The unrepentant sinner becomes the enemy of both God and His servants, blaming them for the consequences of sin. Sinners will blame and despise God's messenger. The messenger is an easy target. The word "martyr" is Greek for "witness." Jesus discovered that persecution started within the "church" as his teachings threatened church tradition, church leadership, and the position of compromise the church had established with the State and secular society. Today the church is largely silent in the face of dramatic social deviation. Speak the truth boldly, and discover the Greek word for witness. In the midst of persecution, God's servants must continue to proclaim truth. Are you willing to be hated by the world to proclaim God's message? Christians are not the judge but rather the messenger of the Judge. Never hold back from speaking the truth in love thereby denying your life mission and purpose.

12. 1 Kings 18:21 -- "And Elijah came near to all the people and said, 'How long will you go limping between two different opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him.' And the people did not answer him a word." You must choose between fidelity to God or fidelity to the world. You cannot be faithful to both. If you choose not to decide, you still have made a choice. Much like the people of this account, today, the Church remains largely silent in the midst of rapid social decay due to compromise. Following God is an all or nothing proposition. Jesus Himself said that He had no use for the lukewarm Christian. You cannot follow and not follow at the same time. You cannot partially obey and still be obedient. You cannot remain silent before the sins that God abhors and remain in a growing love relationship with Jesus.

13. 1 Kings 18:27 -- "And at noon Elijah mocked them, saying, 'Cry aloud, for he is a god. Either he is musing, or he is relieving himself, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened.'" Elijah did not show respect for false religions.

14. 1 Kings 18:29 -- "No one answered; no one paid attention." The world is full of passionate people who very sincerely believe lies to be true. No matter how much someone wants to believe a lie, the truth remains the truth. Jesus said he came to "testify to the truth." We have been entrusted with the message of truth which challenges many sincerely held beliefs in the world.

15. 1 Kings 18:37 -- "Answer me, O Lord, answer me, that this people may know that you, O Lord, are God." God answers our prayers as we desire when what we desire is His will be done. Your prayer life is powerful when it is aligned to God's will rather than simply your desires. God's intent is always to bring glory to Himself. All that we desire should be to glorify God.

16. Proverbs 4:1 -- "Hear, O sons, a father's instruction...." Proverbs, chapters 1-4 implore the reader to "listen to, hear, receive, accept, store up, and obey" God's word.

17. Proverbs 4:7 -- "The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight." To be wise, you must make getting wisdom your goal. Wisdom is often defined as "knowledge rightly applied." You won't be wise by being merely a hearer of God's word; you must be a hearer and a doer.

18. Proverbs 4:11 -- "I have taught you the way of wisdom; I have led you in the paths of uprightness." Parents must lead their children by example. Teach them what wisdom is and show them what it looks like. Jesus taught and then demonstrated. The Marine Corps has a training adage -- "Educate; demonstrate; replicate." The leader, teaches what to do; demonstrates what to do, and then coaches as the student attempts to replicate the teacher's example.

19. Proverbs 4:20-21 -- "My son, be attentive to my words; incline your ear to my sayings. Let them not escape from your sight; keep them within your heart." God's word must serve as your daily instruction and must be your focus; you must have a true passion to obey God's word.

20. Proverbs 4:23 -- Our first responsibility is to guard our hearts; everything else we do flows from our hearts.

21. Proverbs 4:24-27 -- Every little thing we do affects our hearts, positively or negatively. Did your heart get better or worse yesterday?

22. Proverbs 4:26 -- "Ponder the path of your feet; then all your ways will be sure." You must assess yourself continually and think deeply about how well you are obeying your Lord and Savior.

23. 2 Corinthians 7:1 -- "Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God." Knowledge of Jesus should drive you towards a relentless pursuit of holiness, purity, and obedience. Grace compels us to holiness motivated by love rather than by mere duty towards the Law.

24. 2 Corinthians 7:9 -- "As it is, I rejoice, not because you were grieved, but because you were grieved into repenting. For you felt a godly grief, so that you suffered no loss through us." Being 'sorry' or remorseful is not the same as being repentant. A person can be sorry from a self-centered perspective (sorrow over personally suffering the consequences of sin) while not really having a repentant heart which seeks renewal and restoration with God and those offended. A person can even feel sorrow for having failed or hurt others, without a commitment to seek reconciliation. Judas took his sorrow to a suicidal end, but Peter's repentance led to restoration and a changed life. Repentance is deep remorse over sins committed against God, driving the repentant person to truly hate their sin.

25. 2 Corinthians 7:10 -- "For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret, whereas worldly grief produces death." Today's philosophy would suggest that all grief is bad – finding happiness is the key to life. However, the Bible points out that there are two types of grief – godly and worldly. Godly grief is in fact vital and draws us to repentance and a deeper relationship with God, while worldly grief is wholly destructive, offering no hope. A key word above is "repentance." Jesus began his earthly ministry by proclaiming: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand (Matthew 3:2)." Good grief leads you to Christ. Bad grief destroys you.

26. 2 Corinthians 7:10 -- Salvation removes regret.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 4 June: Choose today to cleanse yourself that you may be holy and pure. Be washed with the word of God, and remove those things from your life that are unacceptable to God such as unwholesome entertainment. (2 Cor 7:1, Eph 5:3; 1 Cor 8:12; 1 Cor 6:18; Matt 5:29-30; 1 Cor 6:19-20; Psalm 119:9-11; Romans 12:1-2; Romans 3:23-24; 1 John 1:8-9) The choices you make today will either bring you closer to Jesus or further away. Make your purpose today oneness with Jesus and act accordingly. Don't read your Bible, say your prayers, and then entertain yourself with ungodly things. God will not be mocked in this way.

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+kings+15%2C+16%3B+Prov+3%3B+psalm+65%2C+66>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 3 June 18:

1. 1 Kings 15:3 – “And he walked in all the sins that his father did before him.” The Bible continually reminds us of how important parenting is to the development of our future leaders.
2. 1 Kings 15:3 -- “His heart was not wholly true to the Lord his God.” God desires “wholehearted” disciples.
3. 1 Kings 15:13 – “He also removed Maacah his mother from being queen mother because she had made an abominable image for Asherah. And Asa cut down her image and burned it at the brook Kidron.” People aren't helpless victims of their childhood upbringing and experiences. You can overcome the character flaws that were ingrained in you from childhood, and you can reject the sinful practices you were taught. Many people had rough upbringings, but, through the power of the Holy Spirit, they can create a new legacy for future generations.
4. 1 Kings 15:13 -- “He also removed Maacah his mother.” We should allow no other relationship compromise our fidelity to God.
5. 1 Kings 15:14 -- “But the high places were not taken away.” We must be very careful to remove anything from our lives that might cause ourselves or others to sin. Even if we can handle a temptation, we don't want to cause others to stumble. Do you still have ‘high places’ in your life?
6. 1 Kings 15:18. 19 -- “Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the Lord and the treasures of the king's house and gave them into the hands of his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who lived in Damascus, saying, ‘Let there be a covenant between me and you [against the king of Israel]....’” Asa's actions should have been unthinkable: not only did he essentially sell out God's people to Damascus, but he use the Temple Treasury to do it -- Wow! At this point, however, the people of Israel and Judah had drifted so far away from God that the "good" leaders are nowhere near God's standards. Asa may have seemed "great" compared to the rest, but he was still leading the people down the path of destruction. The statement made earlier about Abijah is probably the most important statement in our readings today: "his heart was not fully devoted to the Lord his God." This statement stands in stark contrast with what is said of Joshua and Caleb who "followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly." Partial obedience is disobedience, and partial commitment and compromise leads to destruction and ruin. As a people move farther and farther away from God, the "smaller" God appears in their eyes and the more irrelevant sin becomes in their eyes -- but God's perspective remains unchanged. Rather than placing his trust in God, Asa placed his trust in armies, economies, treaties, alliances, and politics. He did what was "right" from his perspective rather than from God's standard. Aram was building a kingdom upon a foundation of sand rather than the Rock. Our Kingdom is not of this world. Seek first the Kingdom of Heaven.
7. 1 Kings 15:23 – “Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might, and all that he did, and the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?” Notice that God's word spends much more time on Asa's obedience to God than on his royal achievements as king. Success is fidelity to God. What was the last thing Solomon want to say to the world at the end of his life? “The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.” (Ecclesiastes 12:13)

8. 1 Kings 15:30 – “It was for the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned and that he made Israel to sin, and because of the anger to which he provoked the Lord, the God of Israel.” Your sins can have a terrible influence on many people and many generations. We take sin far too lightly.

9. 1 Kings 16:2 -- “Since I exalted you out of the dust and made you leader over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have made my people Israel to sin, provoking me to anger with their sins.” Sin makes God angry. Leaders are held to a higher standard by God. God calls all Christians to be leaders, “priests.”

10. 1 Kings 16:3 – “I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.” The Bible repeats the warning that sin has a devastating impact on family for generations.

11. 1 Kings 16:12, 13 -- “Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the Lord, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned and which they made Israel to sin, provoking the Lord God of Israel to anger with their idols.” Again, we see that God uses ungodly people to punish other ungodly people. God will still hold accountable the ungodly people He used for His purposes.

12. 1 Kings 16:25, 30, 33 -- Sin without repentance gives rise to even greater sin.

13. 1 Kings 16:26 – Again, your sin can cause others to sin.

14. 1 Kings 16:34 -- “He laid its foundation at the cost of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the Lord, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.” See Joshua 6:26 – “Joshua laid an oath on them at that time, saying, ‘Cursed before the Lord be the man who rises up and rebuilds this city, Jericho. At the cost of his firstborn shall he lay its foundation, and at the cost of his youngest son shall he set up its gates.’” God keeps His promises of blessings and curses through the generations. His commands and warnings apply to all, whether they know about them or not, whether they believe in them or not.

15. Proverbs 3:3 – “Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.” Love and faithfulness go together. The level of your fidelity reveals the level of your genuine love.

16. Proverbs 3:5 – “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.” We must walk in faith and not in our own understanding.

17. Proverbs 3:7 – “Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord, and turn away from evil.” From the day Satan tempted Adam and Eve with the Apple, human wisdom has been founded on the lie that we can discern right from wrong, good from evil for ourselves. Godly wisdom trusts God, The Author of Truth, with right and wrong, good and evil. To fear the LORD is to turn away from evil, as defined by God’s word. To love God is to obey His word, regardless of our own reasoning. If we entertain sin, our wisdom is foolishness, and our love is flawed.

18. Proverbs 3:6-8 -- Faith is trusting God’s word over your own knowledge, observations, instincts, or feelings.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

19. Proverbs 3:11, 12 – “My son, do not despise the Lord’s discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the Lord reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights.” Faith believes that when God punishes His children, it is always from a position of perfect love.

20. Proverbs 3:11, 12 -- Hard times might actually be God’s act of love towards you.

21. Proverbs 3:17 – “Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.” Wisdom brings pleasantness and peace.

22. Proverbs 3:27, 28 -- Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it. Do not say to your neighbor, ‘Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it’—when you have it with you.” God expects you to meet the needs of others if you have the ability, with no delay. Don’t overthink it. If they need it, and you have it, give it.

23. Proverbs 3:32 – “...the upright are in his confidence.” Are you close enough to God to hear His whisper? God confides in the upright.

24. Psalm 65:4 – “Blessed is the one you choose and bring near, to dwell in your courts! We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house, the holiness of your temple!”

- God chose you before you chose Him.

- You are blessed by God when you go to church.

- “We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house....” Do you know anyone who is never satisfied with how the church services is run? Criticism reveals more about the critic than it does the critiqued.

25. Psalm 65:5 -- "By awesome deeds you answer us with righteousness, O God of our salvation." Our God is a righteous God who reigns in perfect righteousness. In our gratitude for His mercy and grace, we must not make light of His righteousness. Today we read that Ahab considered it a "light thing" to walk in sin and "did more to provoke the Lord, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him." (1 Kings 16:33) We must never consider sin to be a "light thing" and in so doing mock, test, and dishonor our God. God will always deal with unrighteousness. Today, David says, "Come and hear, all you who fear God and I will tell what he has done for my soul. I cried to him with my mouth and high praise was on my tongue. If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened. But truly God has listened; he has attended to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be God, because he has not rejected my prayer or removed his steadfast love from me! (Psalm 66:16-20) If you are cherishing sin in your heart, deal with it today through humble repentance.

- Hebrews 10:26-31 -- For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, “Vengeance is mine; I will repay.” And again, “The Lord will judge his people.” It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

26. Psalm 65:6-13 -- Consider how God has richly and perfectly provided for mankind. How could we not praise Him?

27. Psalm 66:10-12 -- God will allow you to go through great trials to refine you like silver. Trust Him. Don't resent His discipline.

28. Psalm 65:13-15 -- The more you truly appreciate God, the more you want to worship and obey Him.

29. Psalm 66:18 -- "If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened." Don't let sinful desires hinder your prayers. You cannot choose sin over God and expect to have a meaningful relationship with Him.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 3 June: Choose God over self and over sin today. Give it all up to God today in appreciation for what Jesus has done for you. Live in joyful obedience today. (Psalm 66:18)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 2 June 18:

1. 1 Kings 13:6 -- "And the king said to the man of God, 'Entreat now the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me.' And the man of God entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him and became as it was before." The king was only concerned about his arm, his physical health and comfort, rather than his relationship with God and God's anger over sin.
2. 1 Kings 13:18-24 -- Do not be deceived by those who claim to be spiritual leaders but who speak contrary to God's word. The consequences for being led astray are deadly.
3. 1 Kings 14:6 -- "I am charged with unbearable news for you." We are called to tell the truth, not what people want to hear.
4. 1 Kings 13:22 -- "Your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers." There are no excuses for disobeying God, and He holds everyone accountable for their behavior.
5. 1 Kings 14:22 -- "Judah did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins that they committed, more than all that their fathers had done." Rehoboam the son of Solomon was given by God a tremendous responsibility – to be king of Judah, "the city that the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there." Rehoboam was a terrible king who defiled the land and led to people into the same sort of idolatry and sexual sin practiced by the pagans around them – "They did according to all the abominations of the nations that the Lord drove out before the people of Israel." Under Rehoboam's leadership, the Israelites had lost their light and were now pure darkness. How could the son of Solomon allow this to happen on his watch? The Bible, in 2 Chronicles tells us: "And he did evil, for he did not set his heart to seek the Lord." (2 Chronicles 12:14) This simple statement is worth repeating -- Rehoboam did not "set his heart to seek the Lord." You too have been given a tremendous responsibility that comes with salvation. You are to be "salt and light," an Ambassador for Christ, a priest within a priestly kingdom, a witness; you have been called to go into to the world and make disciples, baptizing them, and teaching them to obey all the Jesus commanded, all under the authority of Jesus Christ. Have you "set your heart to seek the Lord?"

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- Deuteronomy 6:5, 6 -- You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.
- Deuteronomy 8:17 -- Beware lest you say in your heart, 'My power and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth.'
- Deuteronomy 10:12 -- "And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God require of you, but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart.
- Deuteronomy 10:16 -- Circumcise... your heart, and be no longer stubborn.
- Deuteronomy 11:16 -- Take care lest your heart be deceived.
- Deuteronomy 11:18 -- "You shall therefore lay up these words of mine in your heart.
- Deuteronomy 15:9 -- Take care lest there be an unworthy thought in your heart.
- Deuteronomy 30:10 -- obey the voice of the Lord your God.... turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
- 1 Samuel 12:24 -- Only fear the Lord and serve him faithfully with all your heart. For consider what great things he has done for you.
- Psalm 4:4 -- Be angry, and do not sin; ponder in your own hearts on your beds, and be silent.
- Psalm 40:8 -- I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart."
- Psalm 40:10 -- I have not hidden your deliverance within my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation.
- Psalm 86:11 -- Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your truth; unite my heart to fear your name.
- Psalm 119:7 -- I will praise you with an upright heart, when I learn your righteous rules.
- Psalm 119:32 -- I will run in the way of your commandments when you enlarge my heart!
- Psalm 119:112 -- I incline my heart to perform your statutes forever, to the end.
- Proverbs 3:1, 3 -- My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments... Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.
- Proverbs 3:5 -- Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.
- Proverbs 4:23 -- Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life.
- 6. Proverbs 2:1-5 -- To truly know God, your relationship with Him must be your life's pursuit.
- 7. Proverbs 2:4, 5: "...if you seek it like silver and search for it as for hidden treasures, then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God." Your relationship with God and your spiritual development takes hard work. Not everyone has a heart for the effort.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. Proverbs 2:6-10 -- "For the Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding; he stores up sound wisdom for the upright; he is a shield to those who walk in integrity, guarding the paths of justice and watching over the way of his saints. Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path; for wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul." The Lord gives wisdom. It is not something that can be obtained by man apart from God's enabling. You must be born again to "understand righteousness." Wisdom must "come into your heart" (not just your mind), and it must "be pleasant to your soul." Jesus clearly explained to Nicodemus (see John 3) that you must be "born of the Spirit" to have true wisdom, and we cannot give spiritual birth to ourselves, it must come from God. We are "dead to our sins" until we are saved through Christ and come alive with the Spirit within us. And it isn't that we choose to be born, it is that when we were still not alive (powerless), God chose us and chose to pay for our sins. As today's Psalms explain: "When iniquities prevail against me, you atone for our transgressions. Blessed is the one you choose and bring near, to dwell in your courts (Psalm 65:3, 4)!" Wisdom is knowledge rightly applied. No matter how smart you are or become, you can never understand enough within your human abilities to rightly apply knowledge. The Bible says that our thoughts are infinitely removed from God's thoughts. It is the power of the Holy Spirit that reveals to us the mind of God and reveals to us what we don't have the capacity to know otherwise. We then need the conviction of the Holy Spirit to have the self-control (a fruit of the Spirit) to do what we know we should do. You have been chosen by God; now what?

9. Proverbs 2:7, 8 -- "...he is a shield to those who walk in integrity...." God's shield does not protect you if you are not behind it.

10. Proverbs 2:10 -- "...for wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul...." True understanding requires knowledge to move from your head to your heart through the Holy Spirit, which is wisdom. With much knowledge of the Bible, and much commitment in the name of God, Paul persecuted Christians, until God impacted his heart and taught him a true understanding of God's word. Knowledge will never be enough. You must have a deep knowledge of God's word, but you must also have the Holy Spirit leading you into true understanding. Information is not transformation.

11. Psalm 64:10 -- "Let the righteous one rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in him! Let all the upright in heart exult!" Don't worry about your situation. Trust and obey God.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 2 June: Today, make sure you don't hide God's love from others or keep it a secret. How unloving would that be? Rather, show your love for God and for others today by sharing Jesus with as many as you can. "I have not hidden your deliverance within my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation." (Psalm 40:10)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 1 June 18:

1. 1 Kings 11:1-3 -- "Now King Solomon loved many foreign women, along with the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women, from the nations concerning which the Lord had said to the people of Israel, 'You shall not enter into marriage with them, neither shall they with you, for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods.' Solomon clung to these in love. He had

700 wives, who were princesses, and 300 concubines. And his wives turned away his heart." Solomon was granted unsurpassed wisdom by God. However, even in his superior wisdom, he did not "guard his heart" by obeying God's simple, clear commands. His lack of self-control and obedience destroyed him and set the stage for the ultimate destruction of the kingdom of Israel. Our problem is not the gap between ignorance and knowledge but rather the chasm between knowledge and commitment. It isn't that we don't know what God wants; it is that we refuse to do what God wants. It isn't that God hasn't adequately empowered us to obey; it's that in our hearts we really don't want to obey. There is a part of us that doesn't want our Savior to be our Lord and Savior. It takes humility to truly examine our hearts and an attitude of repentance and continual re-submission to walk with God day by day. Daily Bible study gives us course corrections and is used by the Holy Spirit to convict our hearts -- if we are receptive to the Holy Spirit. Do not quench the Spirit by ignoring that conviction. When God convicts you, you stand at a crossroads. What you do next is absolutely vital. Loving God is not an intellectual choice; it is an issue of the heart.

2. 1 Kings 11:14 -- "So Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and did not wholly follow the LORD." 1 Kings 11 is one of the scariest chapters in the Bible: Solomon was the wisest man in the Old Testament. God had blessed him with all that he desired. Yet this wisest man chose to directly disobey God even though God had appeared to him twice! This chapter shows how powerful sin is. All the wisdom in the world, even miraculous encounters with God won't enable a person to obey God within his own power. The power of the Holy Spirit is required as is much grace. Sin is powerful and its consequences severe. Solomon's sin resulted in the division of the tribes of Israel. The wisest king permanently divided the kingdom because he refused to simply obey God.

3. 1 Kings 11:14 -- "And the Lord raised up an adversary against Solomon." God punished Solomon by giving success to his enemies. This is a pattern in the Bible. How does God deal with your disobedience?

4. 1 Kings 11:38 -- "And if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do what is right in my eyes by keeping my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did, I will be with you and will build you a sure house, as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you." Solomon "did evil in the eyes of the Lord; he did not follow the Lord completely." Therefore, God tore the kingdom away from him and gave it to Jeroboam. For Jeroboam, God set the same conditions of obedience. Jeroboam, however, will also sin terribly against the Lord. The sins of these individuals will have a ripple effect on the rest of Israel's history and will cause pain and suffering for generations. Proverbs offers a warning to those who would follow their bad example: "How long will you who are simple love your simple ways? How long will... fools hate knowledge? Repent at my rebuke! Then I will pour out my thoughts to you, I will make known to you my teachings. But since you refuse to listen when I call and no one pays attention when I stretch out my hand, since you disregard all my advice and do not accept my rebuke, I in turn will laugh when disaster strikes you; I will mock when calamity overtakes you — when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when disaster sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when distress and trouble overwhelm you. Then they will call to me but I will not answer; they will look for me but will not find me, since they hated knowledge and did not choose to fear the Lord. Since they would not accept my advice and spurned my rebuke, they will eat the fruit of their ways and be filled with the fruit of their schemes. For the waywardness of the simple will kill them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them; but whoever listens to me will live in safety and be at ease, without fear of harm."

5. 1 Kings 11:40 -- "Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam." Solomon wasted his energy trying to kill Jeroboam, an adversary sent by God. Solomon should have spent his energy pursuing his relationship with God.

6. 1 Kings 12:1-12 -- "But he abandoned the counsel that the old men gave him." Rehoboam refused to accept sound, godly counsel, and he ruined his hope for success. Rehoboam had an opportunity to reconcile with his opponents and to restore unity, but instead, ignoring wise counsel, he chose to respond to his opponents pridefully and harshly. In so doing, he lost all hope for peace and prosperity for generations. As Christians, as we read yesterday, we have been given the mission of reconciliation. We must seek reconciliation in all of our relationships.

7. 1 Kings 12:27, 28 -- "'If this people go up to offer sacrifices in the temple of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.' So the king took counsel and made two calves of gold." Fear drove Jeroboam to turn to idols, and others followed Jeroboam's lead. Fear and pride seem to be the primary motivators for sin. Fear, pride, and rebellion are at the root of church splits and false doctrines.

8. Proverbs 1:4 -- "...to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth...." God's word is not hard to understand. You don't need a seminary degree to be the priest God has called you to be. The simplest faithful person is protected by God's word.

9. Proverbs 1:8, 9 -- "Hear, my son, your father's instruction, and forsake not your mother's teaching, for they are a graceful garland for your head and pendants for your neck." If you were to write a letter intended to pass along to your children, your children's children, and all generations to come essential wisdom for meaningful, prosperous living, what would you write? The Bible says that Solomon was the wisest man who had ever walked the earth, and Proverbs is, at least in part, his letter to his descendants, inspired by God. So, how valuable are the Proverbs to us? And what is the first major point that Solomon wants to leave behind: "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction (Proverbs 1:7)." Is your pursuit of knowledge grounded in the fear of the Lord, and does your pursuit for knowledge begin with a deep meditation on God's word? It is amazing how much we take the Word of God for granted.

10. Proverbs 1:20 -- "Wisdom cries aloud in the street, in the markets she raises her voice...." Wisdom is not hard to find if you are willing to listen.

11. Proverbs 1:24, 25 -- "Because I have called and you refused to listen, have stretched out my hand and no one has heeded, because you have ignored all my counsel and would have none of my reproof, I also will laugh at your calamity...." Sinners simply want to sin more than they want to honor God. We don't take sin seriously enough. Sin is dethroning God in your life for that moment. It is cosmic treason! It is trampling on the blood of Christ. We need to learn to see sin the way God sees it.

12. Proverbs 1:28 -- "Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me." There comes a time when it is too late to call upon the LORD.

13. 2 Corinthians 6:1 -- "Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain." Will you be working with God today, totally in His service spreading the Gospel?

14. 2 Corinthians 6:1 -- "We appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain." You can receive the grace of God in vain. Grace affords you the opportunity for sanctification. Don't waste the opportunity.

- From Oswald Chambers: "The grace you had yesterday will not be sufficient for today. Grace is the overflowing favor of God, and you can always count on it being available to draw upon as needed. '...in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses' — that is where our patience is tested (2 Corinthians 6:4). Are you failing to rely on the grace of God there? Are you saying to yourself, 'Oh well, I won't count this time'? It is not a question of praying and asking God to help you — it is taking the grace of God now. We tend to make prayer the preparation for our service, yet it is never that in the Bible. Prayer is the practice of drawing on the grace of God. Don't say, 'I will endure this until I can get away and pray.' Pray now — draw on the grace of God in your moment of need. Prayer is the most normal and useful thing; it is not simply a reflex action of your devotion to God. We are very slow to learn to draw on God's grace through prayer. '...in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors...' (2 Corinthians 6:5) — in all these things, display in your life a drawing on the grace of God, which will show evidence to yourself and to others that you are a miracle of His. Draw on His grace now, not later. The primary word in the spiritual vocabulary is now. Let circumstances take you where they will, but keep drawing on the grace of God in whatever condition you may find yourself. One of the greatest proofs that you are drawing on the grace of God is that you can be totally humiliated before others without displaying even the slightest trace of anything but His grace. '...having nothing....' Never hold anything in reserve. Pour yourself out, giving the best that you have, and always be poor. Never be diplomatic and careful with the treasure God gives you. '...and yet possessing all things' — this is poverty triumphant (2 Corinthians 6:10).

15. 2 Corinthians 6:4 -- "...but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger..." Maybe you don't have it so bad after all. Maybe you can handle that difficult, insulting person today with grace.

- From Oswald Chambers: "When you have no vision from God, no enthusiasm left in your life, and no one watching and encouraging you, it requires the grace of Almighty God to take the next step in your devotion to Him, in the reading and studying of His Word, in your family life, or in your duty to Him. It takes much more of the grace of God, and a much greater awareness of drawing upon Him, to take that next step, than it does to preach the gospel. Every Christian must experience the essence of the incarnation by bringing the next step down into flesh-and-blood reality and by working it out with his hands. We lose interest and give up when we have no vision, no encouragement, and no improvement, but only experience our everyday life with its trivial tasks. The thing that really testifies for God and for the people of God in the long run is steady perseverance, even when the work cannot be seen by others. And the only way to live an undefeated life is to live looking to God. Ask God to keep the eyes of your spirit open to the risen Christ, and it will be impossible for drudgery to discourage you. Never allow yourself to think that some tasks are beneath your dignity or too insignificant for you to do, and remind yourself of the example of Christ in John 13:1-17."

16. 2 Corinthians 6:6, 7 -- "...purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love; by truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left." Are you fully armed for the battle today?

17. 2 Corinthians 6:6, 7 – We appeal to unbelievers not through clever arguments, great music, dynamic speaking, and great marketing, but rather through “genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God.”

18. 2 Corinthians 6:10 -- "...having nothing, yet possessing everything." If you are a Christian who has nothing in this world, you still have Everything -- Jesus! Nothing plus Jesus is everything. Do you truly believe that?

19. 2 Corinthians 6:12 -- "You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections." People believe what they want to believe. You can't change those who are not convicted by the Holy Spirit no matter how hard you try or how clever your arguments. Do your best to proclaim the Gospel from your heart, and let the Holy Spirit do the rest.

20. 2 Corinthians 6:14 -- "Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness?" We have largely rejected this guidance out of comfort and expediency. Your close relationships should be with others who intentionally journey with you through life to draw closer to Jesus. If your best friends are unbelievers or "carnal Christians," (as if there could be such a thing) you are not where you should be with God. You are also in great danger of being enticed into additional sin. Learn from the lesson of Solomon.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 1 June: Confidently speak truth to others today in love, trusting God in the situation. (1 Corinthians 6:6, 7)

DBRP - WEEK 22, Day 4, Thursday, 31 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 31 May 18:

1. 1 Kings 9:4 -- “If you will walk before me... with integrity of heart and uprightness, doing according to all that I have commanded you...” God’s blessings are conditional. Even in a love relationship with God, David and Solomon were subject to blessings or curses based upon their faithfulness and obedience. This conditional "if you obey" statement appears a multitude of times in the Old Testament; however, Solomon, the wisest man that lived, failed to obey, resulting in terrible consequences. Today's readings address Solomon's splendor and the tremendous wealth he acquired (much through his relationship with Pharaoh). In Solomon's pursuit of success, he directly disobeyed God: Deut 17: 16, 17 -- "The king, moreover, must not acquire great numbers of horses for himself or make the people return to Egypt to get more of them, for the Lord has told you, 'You are not to go back that way again.' He must not take many wives, or his heart will be led astray. He must not accumulate large amounts of silver and gold." Surely the wisest man on earth was aware of God's commands, yet he disregarded them, exemplifying our sinful nature and our complete reliance of the mercy and grace of God. Despite the beliefs of the secular humanists, no amount of education or economic prosperity can overcome man's condition. Fortunately, as we learn in 2 Corinthians today, God has reconciled His people to himself, through Christ, "not counting people's sins against them," so that, "in him we might become the righteousness of God." God has given us the message and ministry of reconciliation as "Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us." And how does Paul say we should live our lives as Christ's Ambassadors? "So we make it our goal to please him.... that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again." Today, we will all go on mission with the message of reconciliation at Christ's Ambassadors -- glorify God today.

2. 1 Kings 9:5-8 -- "I will establish your royal throne over Israel forever.... But if you turn aside from following me, you or your children, and do not keep my commandments and my statutes that I have set before you... then I will cut off Israel.... And this house will become a heap of ruins." Once again, throughout the Bible, God gives His people choice and points out there are consequences to choices -- blessings or curses (see Deuteronomy 30:19). Today's NT readings also warn that we will all face final judgment before The Holy God. More on that below:

3. 1 Kings 9:7 -- God can reveal Himself and His truth to others through your relationship with Him either in a positive way or a negative way.

4. 1 Kings 9:11 -- "King Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee." This was very bad; the land of Israel was given to Israel by divine decree. Solomon surrendered God's blessings for what he thought was a shrewd business deal. Solomon did not have the right or authority to give parts of the Promised Land to an unbeliever. The men of Israel paid for the land with blood and lives, but Solomon sold it to a foreigner for gold. What about the people who lived in those towns? Solomon turned them over to be ruled by a pagan king. There are many socially accepted and preferred business practices, customs, and traditions that are practiced by Christians as a way of life that are contrary to God's will and commands. Take a close look at all that you do and all that you have taken for granted from the standard of God's word. Don't just do what the rest of the lost "sheeple" (people) are doing. What hard-earned Liberties is our nation giving away in treaties to foreign rulers?

5. 1 Kings 9:20, 21 -- "All the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites... whom the people of Israel were unable to devote to destruction—these Solomon drafted to be slaves, and so they are to this day." Another compromise by Solomon. These people were to be driven out. They were not.

6. Proverbs 31:1 -- "An oracle that his mother taught him..." A wise mother wants nothing more for her son than a wise, godly wife. A wise mother carefully instructs her children on God's plan for marriage.

7. Proverbs 31:6-7 -- "Give strong drink to the one who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress; let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more." Various forms of escapism are for the weak and not appropriate for a Christian who faces the responsibilities and opportunities God has set before them with courage and strength.

8. Proverbs 31:1-9 -- Leaders take responsibility and defend the weak.

9. Proverbs 31:11 -- "The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain." A marriage requires trust which comes from good character.

10. Proverbs 31:10-31 -- Mom's biggest concern was that her son marries well.

11. Proverbs 31:13-19 -- People of noble character are hard workers, not people of leisure who live for pleasure.

12. Proverbs 31:20 -- "She opens her hand to the poor and reaches out her hands to the needy." People of character give to the needy.

13. Proverbs 31:23 – “Her husband is known in the gates when he sits among the elders of the land.” A loving, godly couple make each other look good.

14. Proverbs 31:30 -- “Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.” There is no one more beautiful than a woman of godly character.

15. 2 Corinthians 5:6 -- “We walk by faith, not by sight.” God’s ways will defy our perceptions. If we walk by sight, we will miss the power of God in our lives.

16. 2 Corinthians 5:6, 7, 11, 16, 18-20 -- “So we are always of good courage.... we walk by faith, not by sight.... knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others.... the love of Christ controls us.... From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh.... Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation.... entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.... we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us.... We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.”

If you are a Christian, you have been given a life mission, a ministry, and specific marching orders. Your vocation is merely how you resource your mission; what you “do” is not the measure of your life. If you are asking, “What does God want me to do?” here it is: You are to courageously serve as Christ’s Ambassador on a mission of reconciliation.

To accomplish this task, you must first truly “know Him” in a real, saving relationship. Leaders “know the way and show the way.” Jesus is The Way! Be a real leader and lead people to Him because you are following Him so closely.

To accomplish your mission and purpose, you must stop walking by sight and walk by faith, beyond your understanding. The invisible must be more real and relevant to you than what is visible. You must know the “fear of the Lord” which gives you the passion to “persuade” even “implore” others to be “reconciled with God.”

You can no longer regard anyone “according to the flesh.” As Christ’s Ambassador, you have to see others from His perspective, not yours, and you must treat them as He would. When you talk to them, you must not represent yourself or use your own words. You can only represent Christ and use His words. Every encounter you have with every person should be intended to lead them closer to Jesus, not to get something for yourself.

Jesus told us that one of the secrets of success is to live one day at a time. So, it is a good practice to begin each day with a review of your mission and end each day with an assessment of your performance. So, yesterday, who did you implore to be reconciled to God? If your answer is no one, why? Perhaps you lack confidence (courage). Perhaps you don’t feel capable (walking in sight); perhaps you were too busy (worries of the world); perhaps your negative feelings (anger, bitterness, jealousy, prejudice, etc) are getting in the way (flesh, pride). Whatever the reason, today is a new day. Focus on the mission.

Here is a challenge: resolve to reach out to one person each day for Christ. If this has not been your practice, it will be very awkward at first. Isn’t that the case with anything? Did you ride a bike like a pro the first time you got on it? I don’t think anyone ever learned how to ride a bike without getting a bit scratched up. If you are not ready to crash several times, you will never ride your bike. Start riding today. God is holding the back of that bike as you learn, running alongside of you, encouraging you and protecting you from too much injury. It takes faith to trust that Daddy is with you as you learn how to ride – isn't it thrilling?

17. 2 Corinthians 5:7 – “We walk by faith, not by sight.” Having you been asking God to reveal Himself to you in a ‘real and powerful way?’ He wants you to walk by faith. Throughout the Bible we have many accounts of God revealing Himself to His people miraculously. Reading quickly through the Bible might give you the impression that this is the norm. However, God rarely revealed Himself miraculously through the Bible but commanded His people to obey Him without need for of ‘signs and wonders.’ In fact, Jesus pointed out that generally it is the weak in faith that need special revelation in order to trust and obey – “Only an evil, adulterous generation would demand a miraculous sign.” (Matthew 16:4) “You believe because you have seen me. Blessed are those who believe without seeing me.” (John 20:29) What does it take for you to trust and obey Jesus? Without special revelation from God, some seek the approval of others for validation. This too is a sign of weakness. Faith is willing to walk faithfully on the hard, sacrificial road though unnoticed and unsung. Still others require some clear indicators of success in order to continue their journey. But they are then no longer walking by faith – it doesn't take faith to do what you know you can do or to do what is obvious. Faith is willing to step out beyond your own abilities to rely on God's abilities, trusting God with the results, regardless of how hopeless things might see from the human perspective. And others, in a world of doubt, proclaim the merits of self-confidence, but God's people are confident in God, not self. “We are becoming obsessed with the moments when God did come and speak with us, and we are insisting that He do it again. But what God wants us to do is to ‘walk by faith.’ How many of us have set ourselves aside as if to say, ‘I cannot do anything else until God appears to me?’ He will never do it. We will have to get up on our own, without any inspiration and without any sudden touch from God. Then comes our surprise and we find ourselves exclaiming, ‘Why, He was there all the time, and I never knew it!’ Never live for those exceptional moments— they are surprises. God will give us His touches of inspiration only when He sees that we are not in danger of being led away by them. We must never consider our moments of inspiration as the standard way of life— our work is our standard.” (Oswald Chambers)

18. 2 Corinthians 5:9 -- “So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him.” We are not saved just so when we die, we will go to Heaven. We are saved to know, glorify, and serve God on earth. God has given us an earthly mission to fulfill. (Read James 17 to learn how to experience eternal life today)

- From Oswald Chambers: “‘We make it our aim....’ It requires a conscious decision and effort to keep our primary goal constantly in front of us. It means holding ourselves to the highest priority year in and year out; not making our first priority to win souls, or to establish churches, or to have revivals, but seeking only “to be well pleasing to Him.” It is not a lack of spiritual experience that leads to failure, but a lack of working to keep our eyes focused and on the right goal. At least once a week examine yourself before God to see if your life is measuring up to the standard He has for you. Paul was like a musician who gives no thought to audience approval, if he can only catch a look of approval from his Conductor.

Any goal we have that diverts us even to the slightest degree from the central goal of being “approved to God” (2 Timothy 2:15) may result in our rejection from further service for Him. When you discern where the goal leads, you will understand why it is so necessary to keep “looking unto Jesus” (Hebrews 12:2). Paul spoke of the importance of controlling his own body so that it would not take him in the wrong direction. He said, “I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest...I myself should become disqualified” (1 Corinthians 9:27). I must learn to relate everything to the primary goal, maintaining it without interruption. My worth to God publicly is measured by what I really am in my private life. Is my primary goal in life to please Him and to be acceptable to Him, or is it something less, no matter how lofty it may sound?”

19. 2 Corinthians 5:10 -- “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.” We all face judgement. You will either be judged by your righteousness or Jesus’ righteousness credited to you – your choice.

- From Henry T. Blackaby: “There are many motivations in the Christian’s life. One is our awareness that one day we will give an account of our lives to Christ, as He sits in judgment upon humanity. It is much more comforting to believe that Christians will be ushered into heaven with no questions asked about our faithfulness upon earth, but that is not what Scripture says will happen. Paul cautioned that in the final day of judgment every Christian will give an account for his or her actions. This expectation terrified Paul and motivated him to strive to please God in everything he did (2 Cor. 5:9-11). Paul knew that although he might ignore the Spirit’s quiet voice during His life on earth, a time of accounting would come when he would have to explain why he had rejected God’s instructions. Paul never carelessly assumed that, because of all he had done for God’s kingdom, God would overlook his sin. Instead, he understood that to whom much is given, much is required (Luke 12:48). God does not force His will upon us. He will ask us to answer for the way we responded to Him. Christians have been pardoned by the sacrifice of Jesus. We are not condemned. But because God is absolutely just, we will be called on to give an account of our actions. The Christian life gives a tremendous freedom, but it also brings a pervasive sense of our accountability to God and to others. We can learn from Paul that accountability is healthy; it gives us a powerful motivation to please God.”

- From Oswald Chambers: “Paul says that we must all, preachers and other people alike, ‘appear before the judgment seat of Christ.’ But if you will learn here and now to live under the scrutiny of Christ’s pure light, your final judgment will bring you only delight in seeing the work God has done in you. Live constantly reminding yourself of the judgment seat of Christ, and walk in the knowledge of the holiness He has given you. Tolerating a wrong attitude toward another person causes you to follow the spirit of the devil, no matter how saintly you are. One carnal judgment of another person only serves the purposes of hell in you. Bring it immediately into the light and confess, ‘Oh, Lord, I have been guilty there.’ If you don’t, your heart will become hardened through and through. One of the penalties of sin is our acceptance of it. It is not only God who punishes for sin, but sin establishes itself in the sinner and takes its toll. No struggling or praying will enable you to stop doing certain things, and the penalty of sin is that you gradually get used to it, until you finally come to the place where you no longer even realize that it is sin. No power, except the power that comes from being filled with the Holy Spirit, can change or prevent the inherent consequences of sin. ‘If we walk in the light as He is in the light...’ (1 John 1:7). For many of us, walking in the light means walking according to the standard we have set up for another person. The deadliest attitude of the Pharisees that we exhibit today is not hypocrisy but that which comes from unconsciously living a lie.”

- Paul warns us that we must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, and Paul encourages us to “make it our aim to please him” and “knowing the fear of the Lord.., persuade others.” However, I think (contrary to some comments above) the “fear” that motivates Paul is not fear of what God will do to us on the Day of Judgment, but rather it is sheer awe and gratitude for what God has already done for us through His Son, Jesus. How can Paul face both life and death with such “good courage” knowing judgment awaits? Because, at the Judgment Seat, thanks to Jesus, Paul will be viewed, not by what he did in the flesh, but rather he will be seen as the very “righteousness of God (2 Corinthians 5:21).” Paul’s obedience is driven not out of fear of punishment any longer but rather, “the love of Christ [which] controls [him] (2 Corinthians 5:14).” Paul has, through Christ, been reconciled, and now Paul has no choice (compelled by love) but be on the mission of reconciliation (v 18), motivated by love, gratitude, and joy. No longer judged by God for works of the flesh, Paul no longer regards others “according to the flesh (2 Corinthians 5:16).” We, like Paul, have been saved by Grace from God’s judgment and wrath; we have been made righteous (right with God), not by anything we did or will do but by what God did for us and the price Jesus paid on our behalf. With our trespasses no longer held against us, we are now free to approach God with complete confidence, to be united with Him, and to serve Him as He intended, without the burden of guilt, shame, and fear of punishment. With our trespasses no longer held against us by God, we are in no position to hold against others their trespasses against us. Rather, we need to see others the way God sees them and dedicate our lives to reconciling others to God. We are to invest ALL of our passion (“implore”) into proclaiming the Gospel, “on behalf of Christ.” The importance of a task is directly proportional to the importance of the one directing the task. How important to you is a task from God Himself? “Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God (1 Corinthians 5:20).”

20. 2 Corinthians 5:11 -- “Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others.” Those who truly love Jesus and others are compelled to share the Gospel with others. If we don’t really know the fear of the LORD, we cannot persuade others. We can only bear witness to what we have heard or read (that is just hearsay), only what we have experienced personally.

21. 2 Corinthians 5:11, 12 -- “But what we are is known to God.... Answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart.” Reputation is what others say about you; character is what God knows about you. God knows who you really are. The world boasts about outward appearances; Christians boast about what is in the heart.

22. 2 Corinthians 5:14-16 -- “For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh.” Jesus’ sacrifice of love for us, dying on the cross for us though we did not deserve it, forces us to see everyone else completely differently and leaves us no choice but to forgive and love all. Be controlled by the love of Christ. Self-control is a fruit of the Spirit, not the product of willpower, which always fails ultimately.

- From Oswald Chambers: “Paul said that he was overpowered, subdued, and held as in a vise by ‘the love of Christ.’ Very few of us really know what it means to be held in the grip of the love of God. We tend so often to be controlled simply by our own experience. The one thing that gripped and held Paul, to the exclusion of everything else, was the love of God. ‘The love of Christ compels us....’ When you hear that coming from the life of a man or woman it is unmistakable. You will know that the Spirit of God is completely unhindered in that person’s life. When we are born again by the Spirit of God, our testimony is based solely on what God has done for us, and rightly so. But that will change and be removed forever once you ‘receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you...’ (Acts 1:8). Only then will you begin to realize what Jesus meant when He went on to say, ‘...you shall be witnesses to Me....’ Not witnesses to what Jesus can do— that is basic and understood— but “witnesses to Me....’ We will accept everything that happens as if it were happening to Him, whether we receive praise or blame, persecution or reward. No one is able to take this stand for Jesus Christ who is not totally compelled by the majesty of His power. It is the only thing that matters, and yet it is strange that it’s the last thing we as Christian workers realize. Paul said that he was gripped by the love of God and that is why he acted as he did. People could perceive him as mad or sane— he did not care. There was only one thing he lived for— to persuade people of the coming judgment of God and to tell them of ‘the love of Christ.’ This total surrender to ‘the love of Christ’ is the only thing that will bear fruit in your life. And it will always leave the mark of God’s holiness and His power, never drawing attention to your personal holiness.”

23. 2 Corinthians 5:17 – “If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.”

- “What understanding do you have of the salvation of your soul? The work of salvation means that in your real life, things are dramatically changed. You no longer look at things in the same way. Your desires are new and the old things have lost their power to attract you. One of the tests for determining if the work of salvation in your life is genuine is— has God changed the things that really matter to you? If you still yearn for the old things, it is absurd to talk about being born from above— you are deceiving yourself. If you are born again, the Spirit of God makes the change very evident in your real life and thought. And when a crisis comes, you are the most amazed person on earth at the wonderful difference there is in you. There is no possibility of imagining that you did it. It is this complete and amazing change that is the very evidence that you are saved. What difference has my salvation and sanctification made? For instance, can I stand in the light of 1 Corinthians 13, or do I squirm and evade the issue? True salvation, worked out in me by the Holy Spirit, frees me completely. And as long as I ‘walk in the light as He is in the light’ (1 John 1:7), God sees nothing to rebuke because His life is working itself into every detailed part of my being, not on the conscious level, but even deeper than my consciousness.” (Oswald Chambers)

- “Our Lord never tolerates our prejudices— He is directly opposed to them and puts them to death. We tend to think that God has some special interest in our particular prejudices, and are very sure that He will never deal with us as He has to deal with others. We even say to ourselves, ‘God has to deal with other people in a very strict way, but of course He knows that my prejudices are all right.’ But we must learn that God accepts nothing of the old life! Instead of being on the side of our prejudices, He is deliberately removing them from us. It is part of our moral education to see our prejudices put to death by His providence, and to watch how He does it. God pays no respect to anything we bring to Him. There is only one thing God wants of us, and that is our unconditional surrender. When we are born again, the Holy Spirit begins to work His new creation in us, and there will come a time when there is nothing remaining of the old life. Our old gloomy outlook disappears, as does our old attitude toward things, and ‘all things are of God’ (2 Corinthians 5:18). How are we going to get a life that has no lust, no self-interest, and is not sensitive to the ridicule of others? How will we have the type of love that ‘is kind...is not provoked, [and] thinks no evil’? (1 Corinthians 13:4-5). The only way is by allowing nothing of the old life to remain, and by having only simple, perfect trust in God— such a trust that we no longer want God’s blessings, but only want God Himself. Have we come to the point where God can withdraw His blessings from us without our trust in Him being affected? Once we truly see God at work, we will never be concerned again about the things that happen, because we are actually trusting in our Father in heaven, whom the world cannot see.” (Oswald Chambers)

- From Henry T. Blackaby: “You do not become a Christian by asking Jesus into your heart. You become a Christian when you are born again. Jesus said, ‘Unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God’ (John 3:3). Saying a prayer or making a public commitment or signing a decision card will not save you. Only being born again will do that. The apostle Paul said that when you are ‘in Christ,’ the old things pass away. In the moment of your salvation, every sin you ever committed is forgiven. Healing for every hurt you have ever suffered is available. Love and acceptance are yours despite every failure you have ever experienced. Your past, no matter how difficult or painful, is completely and thoroughly provided for. Some will seek to diminish the awesome reality of your spiritual rebirth. You will hear them say, ‘Even though you’re now a Christian, you must still undergo years of counseling to overcome the hurts you’ve experienced’ or ‘You may be born again, but you’ll continue to struggle with your sin, and hopefully you will eventually gain victory in areas of your weakness.’ The problem is that we seek changes by our own will rather than by turning our lives over in faith to the One who has given us new life. The profound testimony of Scripture is that the blood of Jesus Christ and the death of the Son of God is sufficient to completely free you from your sin. Satan will seek to convince you that it is not. Whom will you believe?”

24. 2 Corinthians 5:18 – “Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.” From Henry T. Blackaby: “The world abounds with people whose sin has alienated them from God. Christ’s sacrificial work has restored Christians to a love relationship with the heavenly Father. As Christians, we are appointed as ministers of reconciliation. Once Christ dwells within us, we become His ambassadors, and we entreat others to be reconciled to Him (2 Cor. 5:20). We are God’s messengers of peace, urging others to return to God (Matt. 5:9). Sin breaks our relationship with God; it severs relationships with others as well. Broken relationships are the epidemic of our day. Sin alienates family members, separates friends, divides churches, and destroys marriages. Sin creates mistrust, jealousy, hatred, and greed, all of which devastate relationships. Only Christ has the remedy for the disastrous effect of sin on human relationships. As His ambassadors, we are to take the message of reconciliation to a broken, divided world. We urge reconciliation first with God, and then with each other. How tragic when God’s messengers of peace harbor enmity toward each other. It is a travesty to carry a message of love and yet be filled with hatred. If there is someone whom you refuse to forgive, your message of reconciliation is hypocrisy. The evidence that you are a disciple of Jesus is that you love your fellow Christian (John 13:35). In each of your relationships, make certain that your actions share the love and forgiveness that reflect what you received from God. Then you will not only speak the message of reconciliation, but you will live it as well.”

25. 2 Corinthians 5:21 – “He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.” From Oswald Chambers:

- “Sin is a fundamental relationship— it is not wrong doing, but wrong being— it is deliberate and determined independence from God. The Christian faith bases everything on the extreme, self-confident nature of sin. Other faiths deal with sins— the Bible alone deals with sin. The first thing Jesus Christ confronted in people was the heredity of sin, and it is because we have ignored this in our presentation of the gospel that the message of the gospel has lost its sting and its explosive power. The revealed truth of the Bible is not that Jesus Christ took on Himself our fleshly sins, but that He took on Himself the heredity of sin that no man can even touch. God made His own Son 'to be sin' that He might make the sinner into a saint. It is revealed throughout the Bible that our Lord took on Himself the sin of the world through identification with us, not through sympathy for us. He deliberately took on His own shoulders, and endured in His own body, the complete, cumulative sin of the human race. 'He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us...' and by so doing He placed salvation for the entire human race solely on the basis of redemption. Jesus Christ reconciled the human race, putting it back to where God designed it to be. And now anyone can experience that reconciliation, being brought into oneness with God, on the basis of what our Lord has done on the cross. A man cannot redeem himself— redemption is the work of God, and is absolutely finished and complete. And its application to individual people is a matter of their own individual action or response to it. A distinction must always be made between the revealed truth of redemption and the actual conscious experience of salvation in a person's life."

- "The modern view of the death of Jesus is that He died for our sins out of sympathy for us. Yet the New Testament view is that He took our sin on Himself not because of sympathy, but because of His identification with us. He was 'made...to be sin....' Our sins are removed because of the death of Jesus, and the only explanation for His death is His obedience to His Father, not His sympathy for us. We are acceptable to God not because we have obeyed, nor because we have promised to give up things, but because of the death of Christ, and for no other reason. We say that Jesus Christ came to reveal the fatherhood and the lovingkindness of God, but the New Testament says that He came to take 'away the sin of the world!' (John 1:29). And the revealing of the fatherhood of God is only to those to whom Jesus has been introduced as Savior. In speaking to the world, Jesus Christ never referred to Himself as One who revealed the Father, but He spoke instead of being a stumbling block (see John 15:22-24). John 14:9, where Jesus said, 'He who has seen Me has seen the Father,' was spoken to His disciples.

That Christ died for me, and therefore I am completely free from penalty, is never taught in the New Testament. What is taught in the New Testament is that 'He died for all' (2 Corinthians 5:15)— not, 'He died my death'— and that through identification with His death I can be freed from sin, and have His very righteousness imparted as a gift to me. The substitution which is taught in the New Testament is twofold— 'For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.' The teaching is not Christ for me unless I am determined to have Christ formed in me (see Galatians 4:19).

- From Henry T. Blackaby: "This verse should startle us and cause us to tremble. It is not a verse to be read quickly and passed over. As Christians we are grateful to be forgiven of our sins. We are thankful we have been adopted as God's children. Yet we will never comprehend the awesome price that Jesus paid to cleanse us of our sin and to give us His righteousness. How abhorrent was it for the sinless Son of God to have every sin of humanity placed upon Him? What love was required for the Father to watch His only Son bear the excruciating pain of our sin upon the cross? The prophet Isaiah summarized the human condition: 'We are all like an unclean thing; and all our righteous deeds are like filthy rags' (Isa. 64:6). Even the high priest, Joshua, in his exalted position among God's people, was clothed in filthy rags before God (Zech. 3:3). The apostle Paul, who labored arduously to be righteous before God, realized that his most strenuous efforts to please God were no more valuable than rubbish (Phil. 3:4-10). The plight of humanity is that nothing we could ever do could satisfy God's desire for righteousness. But the miracle of God's mercy is that God exchanges our 'filthy rags' for "rich robes' of righteousness (Zech. 3:4). In this awesome exchange, God placed the sin of humanity upon His righteous Son. Jesus became so identified with our sin that Scripture says God made Him to be sin on our behalf. The holy Son of God could not possibly do more for us than this! Experiencing the Father's wrath upon the sin He carried would have been more painful to endure than any human rejection or physical suffering. Never take the righteousness God has given you for granted. Never take the forgiveness of your sin lightly. It cost God a terrible price in order to forgive you and make you righteous. Walk in a manner worthy of the righteousness He has given you."

DBRP - WEEK 22, Day 3, Wednesday, 30 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+kings+7%2C+8%3B+Prov+30%3B+2+cor+4>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 30 May 18:

1. 1 Kings 7:1 – "Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished his entire house." Solomon built the House of God for seven years, but spent thirteen years building his own house. The message here is clear, but the Bible will restate the point later.

2. 1 Kings 7:2 – "He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon. Its length was a hundred cubits and its breadth fifty cubits and its height thirty cubits, and it was built on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars." Solomon built a bigger house for himself than he did for God.

3. 1 Kings 7 -- Solomon used unbelieving idol makers to build God's Temple. Solomon partnered with Hiram in many ways which likely contributed to Israel's syncretism and slide into idolatry. God wants us to do the right things for the right reasons in the right way at the right time. God decides what is right. Be careful not to compromise your integrity in order to produce results. The word integrity means truthfulness but also soundness or wholeness. For example, if a chair has integrity, you can sit on it confidently, but if it doesn't, it will collapse under the pressure of your weight. When we compromise our integrity, we compromise both our fidelity and our soundness. We will eventually collapse under the pressure, despite our early accomplishments. The foundation of your integrity is Jesus who is your firm foundation.

4. 1 Kings 7:8 -- "Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter whom he had taken in marriage." Solomon allowed in his own house what was forbidden in God's house – a double standard of holiness. Your character cannot be compartmentalized. You cannot be faithful in one area of your life while you are being unfaithful in another area of your life. You take the same character into every situation.

5. 1 Kings 8:3 -- "And the priests took up the ark." In this regard, Solomon learned from his father's mistakes.

6. 1 Kings 8:9 says there was nothing but two stone tablets in the ark. The jar of manna and Aarons staff mentioned in Hebrews 9:3,4; Exodus 16:33, 34; and Numbers 17:10 are not in the ark. Why not? There are many theories. I am uncertain, but I am certain that there is no contradiction between these verses. What do you think?

7. 1 Kings 8:18, 19 – “Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart. Nevertheless, you shall not build the house....” David’s plans, though well intentioned, were not God’s plans. Just because it sounds right doesn’t mean it is right for you. If you ask God from the right heart, He will show you the correct path.

8. 1 Kings 8:33 – “...your people Israel are defeated before the enemy because they have sinned against you....” Solomon, the wisest man on the planet, understood military defeat to be the consequence of sin.

9. 1 Kings 8:35, 37 -- Solomon, the wisest man on the planet, saw natural disasters as the consequence of sin, the consequence of ‘afflicted’ hearts.

10. 1 Kings 8:39 -- “... then hear in heaven your dwelling place and forgive and act and render to each whose heart you know, according to all his ways (for you, you only, know the hearts of all the children of mankind).” People do what they do for different motives. The outwardly charitable person might not have a truly charitable heart. The offensive person might be troubled beyond your imagination and might actually have a heart more desirous of a right relationship with God than the person who acts noble. Only God knows a person's heart. Don't assume you understand the motives behind other's words or actions. God commands us to judge actions as good or bad but not to presume to understand the heart of another; presuming to know another's standing with God is judgmental, prideful and offensive to God. If we view actions that are not consistent with God's word, we are to speak the truth in love with the intent of reconciling that person to Jesus, not to condemn them or to push them further away from Jesus.

11. 1 Kings 8:47-50 -- “...if they turn their heart... and repent and plead with you..., saying, ‘We have sinned and have acted perversely and wickedly,’ if they repent with all their mind and with all their heart... and pray to you... then hear in heaven your dwelling place their prayer and their plea, and maintain their cause and forgive your people who have sinned against you.” Forgiveness involves wholehearted repentance, prayer, and rededication to obedience. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” (1 John 1:9)

12. 1 Kings 8:50 – “...grant them compassion in the sight of those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them God can make your enemies show compassion towards you.” God controls the hearts of men as He desires, something only He can do.

13. 1 Kings 8:53 -- “For you separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be your heritage” The bride of Christ cannot flirt with our date the world.

14. 1 Kings 8:56-58 -- “Not one word has failed of all his good promise.... May he not leave us or forsake us, that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his rules, which he commanded our fathers.” Solomon understood that God does not fail the relationship, we do. God does not walk away from us; we walk away from Him when we incline our hearts towards another and stop following Jesus.

15. 1 Kings 8:57-61 -- "May he not leave us or forsake us, that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his rules, which he commanded our fathers.... that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other. Let your heart therefore be wholly true to the LORD our God, walking in his statutes and keeping his commandments, as at this day." Obeying Jesus is an all-or-nothing proposition – you are either obeying or you're not. Partial obedience is disobedience. However, we live by grace as we grow in love and obedience, which we cannot do naturally -- we need supernatural power from God and have access to it through the Holy Spirit. We obey Jesus to glorify Him. Our holy, obedient, wholehearted lives should represent Christ before the watching world.

16. Proverbs 30:1-6 -- You can't out-smart the word of God. Just obey. Don't muddy the waters of God's word by mixing in the teachings of man. God's word is pure. We need not add to it. There are many secular 'teachers' out there who can be very convincing. Always test what they are saying by the perfect, unchanging standard of God's word. Too often I see 'Christian' teaching materials that add to God's word and subtly drift from the truth.

17. Proverbs 30:8, 9 – "Remove far from me falsehood and lying; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me, lest I be full and deny you and say, 'Who is the Lord?' or lest I be poor and steal and profane the name of my God."

- God will not give you more than you can handle; if you choose to be unfaithful, it is not because you couldn't have remained faithful.

- God may be withholding from you what you want because He knows you cannot handle it faithfully.

18. Proverbs 30:24-28 -- Wise people succeed by accepting their current situation rather than using it as an excuse, and they learn to work around obstacles and limitations to exploit opportunities.

19. 2 Corinthians 4:1, 2 – "Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart. But we have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways. We refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God's word, but by the open statement of the truth we would commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God."

- When we lose heart before the world, we are tempted to compromise the word of God to accommodate our compromise and/or theirs. Don't compromise the word of God in an attempt to make it more acceptable or appealing. The reality of Jesus should cause us to not lose heart.

- False teachers always "tamper with God's word." By having thorough personal knowledge of God's word and by walking in God's word, you will not fall victim to them. By living out the simple truth and by holding firm to the Truth, you will be salt and light.

- From Oswald Chambers: "Have you 'renounced the hidden things of shame' in your life— the things that your sense of honor or pride will not allow to come into the light? You can easily hide them. Is there a thought in your heart about anyone that you would not like to be brought into the light? Then renounce it as soon as it comes to mind— renounce everything in its entirety until there is no hidden dishonesty or craftiness about you at all. Envy, jealousy, and strife don't necessarily arise from your old nature of sin, but from the flesh which was used for these kinds of things in the past (see Romans 6:19 and 1 Peter 4:1-3). You must maintain continual watchfulness so that nothing arises in your life that would cause you shame. "...not walking in craftiness..." (2 Corinthians 4:2). This means not resorting to something simply to make your own point. This is a terrible trap. You know that God will allow you to work in only one way— the way of truth. Then be careful never to catch people through the other way— the way of deceit. If you act deceitfully, God's blight and ruin will be upon you. What may be craftiness for you, may not be for others— God has called you to a higher standard. Never dull your sense of being your utmost for His highest— your best for His glory. For you, doing certain things would mean craftiness coming into your life for a purpose other than what is the highest and best, and it would dull the motivation that God has given you. Many people have turned back because they are afraid to look at things from God's perspective. The greatest spiritual crisis comes when a person has to move a little farther on in his faith than the beliefs he has already accepted."

20. 2 Corinthians 4:4 – "In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God." From Henry T. Blackaby: "When you are blinded, you cannot see things as they really are, even though others around you see them clearly. You cannot experience the full reality of all that is around you. You may feel you are experiencing all that there is to life, yet you may be unaware that you are missing what God desires for you. You may even be in danger because of your blindness and not know it. Paul warned that the "god of this age" can blind you to the reality of Jesus Christ. Christ's presence can make a significant difference in your life. However, if Satan convinces you to doubt that Christ can do what He promised, he will have blinded you to the reality of what your life is really like and to what it could become. Others may see what your unbelief causes you to miss, but you will be unaware of it. Your life may be steadily moving toward disaster, but you will be oblivious to it. Christ comes to you as light (John 1:4, 5, 9). He illuminates your sin so that you see its ugliness and destructiveness. He reveals Himself so that you can appreciate the glory of His person and the marvelous riches He brings. His presence lights your path so that you can see impending danger. Don't let the god of this age distort your spiritual vision. Don't be fooled into thinking that everything is as it should be when, in fact, you are missing out on so much that God wants to do in your life. Ask Christ to illuminate your life and let you clearly see your spiritual condition."

- The world, the flesh, and the devil blind people from seeing Christ.

21. 2 Corinthians 4:5 – "For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake." We proclaim Christ, not ourselves. We deny self and take up the cross of Jesus as we follow Him. As an ambassador for Christ, be very careful to never represent yourself in any situation.

22. 2 Corinthians 4:7 -- "But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us."

- Christians don't claim to be special of themselves but rather give all credit to Jesus. We are special only because we are His children. The Gospel message is all about what He did for us, not what we are capable of doing. Often Christians turn the Gospel message into a plan to achieve the American dream with God's help – "Follow the principles of the Bible and you can be successful in all areas of your life." The Gospel message is that God saved us despite us so that we could know Him. The Bible is not pointing us to principles; it is pointing us to a Person, Jesus! Principles won't necessarily lead you to the goal, which is Jesus. But when we follow Jesus, the principles occur naturally in our lives because His is the Author of the principles.

- Jesus called the Pharisees whitewashed tombs, looking good on the outside but unclean on the inside. We are the opposite, unimpressive on the outside but full of the Holy Spirit on the inside. The power of God does not depend on our outward appearance. We don't need new branding or a better marketing campaign.

- From Henry T. Blackaby: Knowing God and having Him reside within you is a treasure of infinite value. Jesus likened this value to that of a perfect pearl. The collector would readily sell everything he had in order to possess this one matchless pearl (Matt. 13:45-46). Your relationship with God places an immeasurable value on your life. The treasures of God's wisdom and knowledge are available to you through Christ (Col. 2:2-3). His love now fills you. His incomprehensible peace surrounds your heart and mind (Phil. 4:7). When Jesus dwells in your life, everything available to Christ dwells within you (Eph. 3:19). Paul was comparing our lives with the clay pots commonly used in his day. The contents of the earthen vessels, not the containers themselves, were of great value. The jars would become chipped and broken and would deteriorate over time, but nobody thought of the jar—they were interested in its contents. Paul noted that our great possession is that which God has placed within us. When people focus on us, they see a frail, imperfect, and deteriorating vessel. Nothing that comes from our flesh is worthy of praise. Our bodies are aging and losing strength (2 Cor. 4:16). Only as we allow God to fill us and renew our inner self will people see a treasure of immeasurable worth. Don't focus on outward appearances and physical strength, for these deteriorate. Rather, allow the Holy Spirit to convince you of the infinite treasure that is within you because of God's presence.

23. 2 Corinthians 4:10 – "...that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body." From Oswald Chambers: "We have to develop godly habits to express what God's grace has done in us. It is not just a question of being saved from hell, but of being saved so that "the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body." And it is adversity that makes us exhibit His life in our mortal flesh. Is my life exhibiting the essence of the sweetness of the Son of God, or just the basic irritation of "myself" that I would have apart from Him? The only thing that will enable me to enjoy adversity is the acute sense of eagerness of allowing the life of the Son of God to evidence itself in me. No matter how difficult something may be, I must say, "Lord, I am delighted to obey You in this." Instantly, the Son of God will move to the forefront of my life, and will manifest in my body that which glorifies Him. You must not debate. The moment you obey the light of God, His Son shines through you in that very adversity; but if you debate with God, you grieve His Spirit (see Ephesians 4:30). You must keep yourself in the proper condition to allow the life of the Son of God to be manifested in you, and you cannot keep yourself fit if you give way to self-pity. Our circumstances are the means God uses to exhibit just how wonderfully perfect and extraordinarily pure His Son is. Discovering a new way of manifesting the Son of God should make our heart beat with renewed excitement. It is one thing to choose adversity, and quite another to enter into adversity through the orchestrating of our circumstances by God's sovereignty. And if God puts you into adversity, He is adequately sufficient to "supply all your need" (Philippians 4:19). Keep your soul properly conditioned to manifest the life of the Son of God. Never live on your memories of past experiences, but let the Word of God always be living and active in you."

24. 2 Corinthians 4:13 -- "I believed, and so I spoke." If you truly believe in Jesus, you will naturally proclaim Jesus. Be bold and speak what you believe.

25. 2 Corinthians 4:16 -- "Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day." Renewal is a process, day by day.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

26. 2 Corinthians 4:16-18 -- "Do not lose heart.... For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal." The secret to endurance and perseverance is having an eternal perspective and spiritual awareness. You must be able to see past apparent circumstances to the larger, more relevant spiritual realities.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 30 May: Be bold, speak the truth in love, and say what you believe. (2 Corinthians 4:1-5,13) However, give people the benefit of the doubt. Show grace when people do something wrong or offend you. You do not really know the "why" behind their actions or what God might be doing in their lives. Remember, you have been given the ministry of "reconciliation"; how can you lead others closer to Jesus? (1 Kings 8:39; Proverbs 25:8)

DBRP - WEEK 22, Day 2, Tuesday, 29 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 29 May 18:

1. 1 Kings 5 -- Hiram king of Tyre. David's and then Solomon's relationship with Hiram, as with Solomon's relationship with Egypt, seemed wise according to the world's wisdom and brought initial prosperity to Israel, but this union with the ungodly sowed the seeds of compromise and destruction in Israel. Tyre was an opulent kingdom built on the backs of slaves whose idolatrous religious practices eventually crept into Israel; in fact, Solomon, through Hiram, hires the same craftsmen who crafted pagan idols to work on the Temple of God. In some way, you could compare Solomon's relationship with Tyre with America's relationship with China and other nations who have great wealth, resources, and cheap labor but also terrible ethics.

2. 1 Kings 5:13 -- "King Solomon drafted forced labor out of all Israel, and the draft numbered 30,000 men." According to 1 Kings 9:22, Solomon did not make forced laborers of the children of Israel in his building campaigns. However, 1 Kings 5:13 says Solomon raised up a labor force out of all Israel. Which one of these reports is correct? Both reports are correct. The reconciliation of these statements is found in the fact that there are different Hebrew words used of two different types of laborers in the building projects of Solomon. According to 1 Kings 5:13 (5:27 in the Hebrew text), Solomon raised up a "labor force" (mas or hammas) from all Israel. In this context, labor force was a group conscripted from the population to participate in the building project. It was apparently composed of both Israelites and non-Israelites. However, in 1 Kings 9:21 the author delineates those people from whom Solomon brought on as "slave labor." The word used here is mas-oved which indicates forced slave labor. Then, in 9:22 the author points out that Solomon did not employ any Israelites as "slaves" (aved). There is no contradiction here, because, although Solomon did draft young men of Israel to labor in the construction of the temple, a practice which brought him great trouble later in his reign, he did not make any Israelite a slave laborer.

3. 1 Kings 5:14-18 -- Solomon's wisdom included superior planning, organizational, leadership, and management skills along with great attention to detail. The foundation of these abilities is self-leadership, personal planning and organization, self-discipline, and personal attention to detail. You cannot lead great endeavors if you cannot first lead self.

4. 1 Kings 6:11-13 -- "Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon, 'Concerning this house that you are building, if you will walk in my statutes and obey my rules and keep all my commandments and walk in them, then I will establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father. And I will dwell among the children of Israel and will not forsake my people Israel.'" God's presence depended on obedience, not on a building or special acts of worship. While Solomon was focused on the work of building the Temple, God was focused only on obedience to Him. God dwells in the temple of His true disciples. Religious activities and gestures are not the same as obedience produced as the natural fruit of love.

5. 1 Kings 6:38 -- Wise Solomon finished what he started according to plan and on schedule. Godly character is timely, complete, and wholly reliable. Always do what you said you were going to do, when you said you were going to do it. Let your "yes" mean yes. The place most people lie is to themselves – they tell themselves they are going to do something (read their Bibles, exercise, call someone, etc) but they don't do it. If you can't trust yourself to follow through on commitments, no one else can trust you.

6. Proverbs 29:1 – "He who is often reproofed, yet stiffens his neck, will suddenly be broken beyond healing." There is a point when it can't be fixed. The Bible gives you this warning that you will not come to the point of no return.

7. Proverbs 29:5 – "A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet." If you refuse to tell sinners the truth, you are a party to their destruction, and, yes, God will hold you accountable for your part. (See Ezekiel 3 and 33)

8. Proverbs 29:9 -- "If a wise man has an argument with a fool, the fool only rages and laughs, and there is no quiet." You cannot reason with a fool, so don't waste your time. Speak the truth, if it is not received, move on, but continue in prayer. There is no sense in arguing with a fool. It only brings needless friction.

9. Proverbs 29:18 – "Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law." From Henry T. Blackaby: "The world operates on vision. God's people live by revelation. The world seeks grand and noble purposes and goals to achieve. People dream up the greatest and most satisfying things in which they can invest their lives. Institutions establish goals and objectives and then organize themselves to achieve them. God's people function in a radically different way. Christians arrange their lives based on the revelation of God, regardless of whether it makes sense to them. God does not ask for our opinion about what is best for our future, our family, our church, or our country. He already knows! What God wants is to get the attention of His people and reveal to us what is on His heart and what is His will, for God's ways are not our ways! (Isa. 55:8-9). Whenever people do not base their lives on God's revelation, they "cast off restraint." That is, they do what is right in their own eyes. They set their goals, arrange their agendas, and then pray for God's blessings. Some Christians are living far outside the will of God, yet they have the audacity to pray and ask God to bless their efforts! The only way for you to know God's will is for Him to reveal it to you. You will never discover it on your own. When you hear from the Father, you have an immediate agenda for your life: obedience. As the writer of Proverbs observed: 'Happy is he who keeps the law.'"

- The Bible helps us develop and maintain self-control through the continual counsel of the Holy Spirit.

- From Oswald Chambers: "There is a difference between holding on to a principle and having a vision. A principle does not come from moral inspiration, but a vision does. People who are totally consumed with idealistic principles rarely do anything. A person's own idea of God and His attributes may actually be used to justify and rationalize his deliberate neglect of his duty. Jonah tried to excuse his disobedience by saying to God, "...I know that You are a gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, One who relents from doing harm" (Jonah 4:2). I too may have the right idea of God and His attributes, but that may be the very reason why I do not do my duty. But wherever there is vision, there is also a life of honesty and integrity, because the vision gives me the moral incentive. Our own idealistic principles may actually lull us into ruin. Examine yourself spiritually to see if you have vision, or only principles. Ah, but a man's reach should exceed his grasp, or what's a heaven for? 'Where there is no revelation [or prophetic vision]....' Once we lose sight of God, we begin to be reckless. We cast off certain restraints from activities we know are wrong. We set prayer aside as well and cease having God's vision in the little things of life. We simply begin to act on our own initiative. If we are eating only out of our own hand, and doing things solely on our own initiative without expecting God to come in, we are on a downward path. We have lost the vision. Is our attitude today an attitude that flows from our vision of God? Are we expecting God to do greater things than He has ever done before? Is there a freshness and a vitality in our spiritual outlook?"

10. Proverbs 29:19 -- "By mere words a servant is not disciplined, for though he understands, he will not respond."

- Those who lack internal discipline require external discipline. Choose for yourself internal discipline by continuing in obedience to God's word through the power of the Holy Spirit.

- A servant responds to discipline in a relationship based on fear and duty. Jesus says, "I no longer call you servants.... I have called you friends (John 15:15) -- This is a relationship of love. Seek to obey God not merely out of fear or a sense of duty but out of love. Without love as the motivator, it is impossible to please God. Like children who obey their parents, we usually first obey out of fear or duty, but the mark of maturity is obeying because we have a heart to do so. At that point, rules or the law are no longer required.

11. Proverbs 29:23 -- "One's pride will bring him low, but he who is lowly in spirit will obtain honor." From Henry T. Blackaby: "Pride is the great enemy of the Christian. Pride is an overly high opinion of yourself. It motivates you to do things that you know are not Christlike, and it hinders you from doing what brings glory to God. Pride influenced Adam and Eve to try to become like God (Gen. 3:5). Pride motivated Cain to murder his brother (Gen. 4:5). Pride provoked Joseph's brothers to sell him into slavery (Gen. 37:8). Pride caused King Saul to resent David so deeply that he tried to murder him (1 Sam. 18:8). Pride led King Hezekiah to foolishly reveal his nation's wealth to his enemies (Isa. 39:2). Pride was at the root of the Pharisees' anger toward Jesus. Pride was the reason the disciples argued over rank in the kingdom (Luke 9:46). Pride is your relentless enemy. If you succumb to its influence, there will be consequences. You may know that you have offended someone, but pride holds you back from asking forgiveness. You may realize you need to reconcile a broken relationship, but pride will lead you to deny that need. The Spirit may convict you that you are living a sinful lifestyle, but pride will discourage your admitting it. Pride will convince you that you deserve better treatment. Pride will impede your serving others. Instead, pride will have you striving for places of prominence. Pride will have you listen to flatterers and ignore honest counselors. Pride will lead you to isolate yourself so that you are not accountable to others. Humility, on the other hand, is pleasing to God and places your life in a position where God will honor you. If pride has crept into some areas of your life, ask God to give you victory over it before it robs you of God's will for you."

12. 2 Corinthians 3:3 – "And you show that you are a letter from Christ delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts." Our transformed hearts and the love that overflows from us bears witness to the power of the Spirit within our lives. Jesus said, "By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another." (John 13:35). 1 John 4 expands upon the fruit of love: "Love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them. This is how love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment: In this world we are like Jesus. There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love. We love because he first loved us. Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen. And he has given us this command: Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister."

13. 2 Corinthians 3:12 – "Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, True faith and hope make you bold."

14. 2 Corinthians 3:14-17 – "But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom." You cannot understand God's word or will unless you are empowered by the Holy Spirit upon salvation through Jesus Christ and surrender to His leading day by day. Anyone can study the Bible; however only those empowered by the Holy Spirit can truly understand it. The Holy Spirit dwells in true disciples of Christ.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 29 May: Today, be particularly mindful of your pride. Where are your words and deeds still motivated by pride rather than humble, selfless love? Where is pride causing you to look down on others or denying them your very best? Where is pride causing you to isolate yourself from others who would hold you accountable? Where is pride causing you to surround yourself with those who will tell you what you want to hear? Where is pride holding you back from forgiveness? Where is pride keeping you from service? Where is your pride causing you to trust in yourself rather than God? Pray to God that He will help you overcome your strongholds of pride. (Proverbs 29:23)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 28 May 18:

1. 1 Kings 3:1 -- "Solomon made a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt. He took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into the city of David." Solomon began his reign by going against God's specific word not to entangle with Egypt, not to marry unbelieving women, and not to have many wives. (Exodus 34:12; Deuteronomy 17:16) Almost immediately, Solomon, the wisest ruler of all time, had sowed the seeds for his downfall -- "When Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other gods." (1 Kings 11:4) Solomon's disobedience to God, the ultimate leadership failure, left Israel permanently divided until its final destruction. Why would Solomon directly disobey God by marrying Pharaoh's daughter? Solomon was following a common practice used by rulers during that historical period in order to maintain peace between nations. His decision was likely celebrated by many as a great step forward for world peace. But there is no real peace apart from peace with God. Solomon chose worldly wisdom over true wisdom which comes only from God. True wisdom would have been to fear the LORD and obey His commands, defying worldly expectations. If only he had trusted the Lord and remained obedient to His commands for marriage and holiness. Today, many of God's commands are viewed as outdated and out of touch with how the world actually works, and Christians have compromised to keep the peace and to get along. As a result, the Church is more divided than ever before, and Christians suffer the same consequences of sin as everyone else.

2. 1 Kings 3:2 -- "The people were sacrificing at the high places, however...." A historic trend revealed as a warning in the Old Testament for future generations is that while a nation is heading down a path of destruction, it often continues proudly in religious practices, deceiving itself in believing that all is well with God. "God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him." (Acts 10:34, 35; see also Romans 2:11)

- Jeremiah 6:14 - They have healed the wound of my people lightly, saying, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.

- Ezekiel 13:10 -- Precisely because they have misled my people, saying, 'Peace,' when there is no peace, and because, when the people build a wall, these prophets smear it with whitewash....

- Ezekiel 13:16 -- ...the prophets of Israel who prophesied concerning Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for her, when there was no peace, declares the Lord God.

- Isaiah 56:10 -- His watchmen are blind; they are all without knowledge; they are all silent dogs; they cannot bark, dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.

3. 1 Kings 3:3 -- "Only he sacrificed and made offerings at the high places." David was in disobedience to Deuteronomy 12. Why? Again, probably because everyone else was doing it. Here is another incident where Solomon's compromise set the stage for his future idolatry that would cause him to lose the kingdom. This is the deceptive, destructive worldly 'wisdom' of "acceptance", "inclusion", and "tolerance", that is so widely proclaimed today. But not every idea or lifestyle is equally valuable or beneficial. God is the Author of ethics, right and wrong, and opposites cannot both be right. No one on earth was smarter than Solomon, yet intelligence cannot overcome pride and an unfaithful heart. Every person makes a choice to obey God or not. There are really only two kingdoms on earth. The Kingdom of God, and the kingdom of man, with its many warring factions. Jesus told us to seek the Kingdom of God. We will soon read Ecclesiastes where Solomon laments at the end of his days over his ultimate failure to simply obey God and serve the Kingdom of God on earth faithfully.

4. 1 Kings 3:7 -- "I do not know how to go out or come in." Humility is the path to greatness. Knowing that you don't know anything is key. God is very clear in his word. You cannot know how to make good choices without His guidance, and you cannot obtain the self-control required to resist temptation apart from the power of the Holy Spirit.

5. 1 Kings 3:11, 12 -- "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, behold, I now do according to your word." Wisdom comes through selfless sacrifice, seeking what is right in God's eyes and best for others over self. You have to decide if you want wisdom or rather comfort. There is no growth in the comfort zone, and there is no comfort in the growth zone.

6. 1 Kings 3:13 -- "I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that no other king shall compare with you, all your days." When you focus on God and others, God will take care of you better than you could take care of yourself by directing your efforts towards personal success and security. God gives His people abilities and success, not for their glory and comfort but rather for His glory. If you start to believe life is for you or about you, you have walked away from God.

7. 1 Kings 3:14 -- "And if you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days." Intelligence and talent are not enough. Obedience is essential.

8. 1 Kings 3:26 -- "Then the woman whose son was alive said to the king, because her heart yearned for her son, 'Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and by no means put him to death.' But the other said, 'He shall be neither mine nor yours; divide him.'" There is worldly 'love' and then there is genuine godly love. The worldly form of love is ultimately focused on self – getting what you want from someone else, approval, validation, pleasure, gifts, etc. Worldly love, which is not really love, will eventually hurt the object of affection. Godly love is selfless – wanting what is best for the other. True love is ready to surrender everything for the sake the one loved. King Solomon knew that true love would be self-evident by the choices made by the one who truly loves.

9. 1 Kings 4:29 -- "And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding beyond measure, and breadth of mind like the sand on the seashore." God can take you beyond your natural powers and abilities. He can empower you with "supernatural" (beyond natural) powers.

10. 1 Kings 4:34 -- "And people of all nations came to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and from all the kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom." Solomon had a unique opportunity to glorify God before all nations. Unfortunately, he compromised his witness and was ultimately more influenced by them than an influence.

12. Proverbs 28:1 – "The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion." Righteousness produces boldness.

13. Proverbs 28:3 – "A poor man who oppresses the poor is a beating rain that leaves no food." There is nothing worse than a poor sinner who condemns other poor sinners.

14. Proverbs 28:4 – "Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law strive against them." If you love flowers, you must hate weeds. If you love righteousness, you must fight against evil. The best way to counter culture and fight against the evils of this world is to personally obey God when others won't, refusing to compromise as others do.

15. Proverbs 28:8 – “Whoever multiplies his wealth by interest and profit gathers it for him who is generous to the poor.” We can profit from our excess by lending it with interest to those who do not have, or we can give our excess to the poor and build our wealth by producing more. Throughout the Bible we can see that God wants us to build wealth by increasing our productivity, through industry; and in our productivity, he wants us to give freely. God forbids accruing wealth by charging interest in lending to other believers. God's retirement plan is to create industry that remains productive in your latter years, not by hoarding your excess in “barns.”

16. Proverbs 28:9 – “If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.” Don't bring God your prayers in disobedience.

17. Proverbs 28:11 – “A rich man is wise in his own eyes, but a poor man who has understanding will find him out.” Wealth brings pride which brings destruction.

18. Proverbs 28:13 – “Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy.” Live in the freedom of honest, transparent humility. Be honest about your sin. Do not conceal it in fear and pride. Your confessed sin points to your Savior.

19. Proverbs 28:19 – “Whoever works his land will have plenty of bread, but he who follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.” God calls us to produce and grow daily, growth in character, competence, and contribution. Don't waste a day.

20. Proverbs 28:20 – “A faithful man will abound with blessings, but whoever hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.” Be faithful! This is the essence of character, the essence of life. People often ask, “What does God want for my life?” Often, they ask with a preconceived notion that God's will for them involves some version of worldly success – big, visible, proclaimed accomplishments. Many spend their entire lives chasing after big goals, believing this is what God wants for them. However, the Bible tells you what God wants for your life – “For this is the will of God, your sanctification.” (1 Thessalonians 4:3)

21. Proverbs 28:21 – “To show partiality is not good, but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.” People should be held accountable for sin, but we should not overlook their unfortunate circumstances that might have contributed to their sin.

22. Proverbs 28:26 -- “Whoever trusts in his own mind is a fool.” Questions?

23. Proverbs 28:27 – “Whoever gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.” Christians have the demand from God to give to the poor.

24. 2 Corinthians 2:7 -- “So you should rather turn to forgive and comfort him, or he may be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.” We must hold people accountable but with the goal of restoring them, not destroying them.

25. 2 Corinthians 2:14 -- “But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us... and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere.” We make the world better by spreading the knowledge of Christ everywhere.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

26. 2 Corinthians 2:17 -- "For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God's word, but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ."

- True Christians only desire to serve Christ as an Ambassador, despite great expense and personal sacrifice.

- Some people use God's word for personal gain. Some have peddled it. Christianity has proven highly marketable. More and more, people are being directed towards books about the Bible rather than the Bible itself, all for a price. A quick online search of some popular Christian names will reveal them to be some of the wealthiest people on earth. The wealthy pastor or preacher stands in stark contrast to the example given by Jesus. "You received without paying; give without pay." (Matthew 10:8)

- In many other ways, people approach God's word from a self-centered perspective in hopes of getting what they want. Many read God's word as a self-help book in order to live happy, comfortable, successful lives. However, God's word is not intended to teach you principles but rather to lead you to the Person of Jesus, to guide you into a very real and personal relationship. Jesus explained, "And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent." (John 17:3) Eternal life is not knowing "about" God; it is knowing God in real relationship. It is not about receiving blessings from God but rather about receiving the blessing of God's presence. God did not introduce you to concepts; He introduced you to Christ. The power of your testimony is that you bear witness to the reality of Jesus Christ, and the evidence of your genuine encounter with the Living God is apparent in how you have responded to that encounter. You cannot bear witness to what you do not know or haven't experienced. You won't be truly transformed by what you haven't experienced and aren't experiencing daily. Yes, God's word, being truth, does, if followed, offer paradigms and principles that can drastically improve anyone's life, even a non-believer. Yes, you can repackage God's word, market it, and make some money. However, if you stop at principles and simply knowing 'about' God rather than becoming truly intimate with God, you have missed the prize and joy of eternal life, and you might be leading others to a superficial form of religion. What has inspired so many martyrs over the centuries? It wasn't a story they read, it was a Person they knew. Jesus explained that God's word is essential in our walk with God, but the power comes from the Spirit of God working through His word. Seek the Living God with all your heart, nothing else. Don't view the Bible as a supernatural success book. See the Bible as your conversation with God to build your relationship with Jesus.

-- Matthew 22:29 -- But Jesus answered them, "You are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God.

-- Jeremiah 29:13 -- You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart.

-- John 4:29 -- "Come, see a man who told me all that I ever did. Can this be the Christ?"

-- Matthew 11:28 -- Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

-- Luke 9:23 -- And he said to all, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.

-- Romans 15:13 -- May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

-- 1 Corinthians 4:20 -- For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power.

DBRP - WEEK 21, Day 7, Sunday, 27 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+kings+1%2C+2%3B+Proverbs+27%3B+psa+62%2C+63>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 27 May 18:

1. 1 Kings 1:1-4 -- "Let a young woman be sought for my lord the king, and let her wait on the king and be in his service. Let her lie in your arms, that my lord the king may be warm." The Bible notes that, though this young woman was very beautiful, David did not have sex with her, addressing the obvious: why did David need a beautiful young woman to lie in his arms to "keep warm." It would appear David was still a womanizer, and even if he wasn't, this is still not the sort of thing an adulterer king should do because the perception alone is not good.

2. 1 Kings 1:5 -- "Now Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, 'I will be king.' And he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him." Adonijah did not consult God before assuming kingship. If your plan isn't God's plan, it is doomed from the start.

3. 1 Kings 1:6 -- "His father [David] had never at any time displeased him by asking, 'Why have you done thus and so?' He was also a very handsome man, and he was born next after Absalom."

- This chapter reveals David's 'fatal flaws,' things about him that he never mastered and that caused great heartache for him and for others. First, he was a womanizer; second, he did not hold himself or people close to him accountable for their actions, particularly, his sons and Joab. Do you have fatal flaws?

- Adonijah was very handsome like Absalom (and David). We are often enamored by the appearance, talents, personality, and popularity of those that would proclaim themselves as leader, rather than seeking to identify people of noble character and lifting them up.

- David lost the ability to lead, but did not effectively transfer authority to a capable leader, causing a leadership void. To whom will you transfer your responsibility (particularly your responsibility to proclaim Christ), and are you preparing them?

4. 1 Kings 1:7, 8 -- "He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest. And they followed Adonijah and helped him. But Zadok the priest and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and Nathan the prophet and Shimei and Rei and David's mighty men were not with Adonijah."

- There were priests on both sides of the "Adonijah" issue. Abiathar not only positioned himself against God, he counseled others against God. What a terrible place to be in life. Today we have many priests boldly proclaiming ungodly lies. They will face severe judgment.

- 1 Kings 1:7 -- Joab was a pragmatist who did what seemed right to him in his own eyes. His ways were not God's ways.

5. 1 Kings 1:9,10 -- "Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fattened cattle by the Serpent's Stone." Adonijah attempted to validate his kingship with religious ceremony, but he did not invite the faithful followers of God. We may act like our selfish deeds are being done for God's glory, but God sees through that and will not honor our actions. One indicator that your successes may not be God's successes is if they are not being celebrated with truly holy people within your church who recognize them as the clear activity of God in your life.
6. 1 Kings 1:15 -- "Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was attending to the king." In their old age, David and Bathsheba had grown apart, and this had a negative impact on their adult children.
7. 1 Kings 1:49-52 -- Under pressure, the character of Adonijah and his friends was revealed.
8. 1 Kings 1:52 -- "And Solomon said, 'If he will show himself a worthy man, not one of his hairs shall fall to the earth, but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die.'" Solomon chose justice and mercy over revenge. He was willing to give his brother a chance, but was also ready to hold him accountable.
9. 1 Kings 2:3 -- "Keep the charge of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and keeping his statutes, his commandments, his rules, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn." David's dying wish for his son was that he would obey God.
10. 14. 1 Kings 2:5, 6 -- "Moreover, you also know what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, how he dealt with the two commanders of the armies of Israel, Abner the son of Ner, and Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed, avenging in time of peace for blood that had been shed in war, and putting the blood of war on the belt around his waist and on the sandals on his feet. Act therefore according to your wisdom, but do not let his gray head go down to Sheol in peace." David asks Solomon to settle the score with Joab (and Shimei), something David never had the moral courage to do himself. Your inheritance to the next generation should not be problems you refused to solve.
11. 2 Kings 2:8, 9 -- "And there is also with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse on the day when I went to Mahanaim. But when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the Lord, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.' Now therefore do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man. You will know what you ought to do to him, and you shall bring his gray head down with blood to Sheol." David never really forgave Shimei the son of Gera, though outwardly he presented grace -- "And the king said to Shimei, 'You shall not die.' And the king gave him his oath." (2 Samuel 19:23) Have you ever offered forgiveness but inwardly harbored resentment? True forgiveness and grace are from the heart. God judges the heart.
12. 2 Kings 2:17 -- "Give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife." Adonijah's request revealed his ambition to be king over Solomon. Jesus said, "Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son." (John 14:13) Do your prayers reveal what God wants or what you want? Is your desire "thy will be done," or "my will be done"? When you want what God wants, God will absolutely give you what you want, your prayers will be answered in the affirmative. When your prayers are misaligned with God's will, He will use the conversation to change your heart. Either way, your prayers are essential to your relationship. Communication is key to any relationship.

13. 1 Kings 2:22 -- "And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also...." Adonijah, by asking for Abishag, was actually attempting to leverage more political power against Solomon. Solomon saw through this ploy, realizing that Adonijah could never be trusted.

14. 1 Kings 2:32 -- "The LORD will bring back his bloody deeds on his own head." Again, the biblical theme -- God treats you the way you treat others.

15. 1 Kings 2:32 -- "He attacked and killed with the sword two men more righteous and better than himself." Just because you are righteous doesn't mean God will protect you from persecution, even death. Your reward is fellowship with Jesus, now and forever more. Isn't that enough to make your joy complete?

16. 1 Kings 2:36-46 -- Again, Solomon did not just exact revenge on Shimei but rather sought justice and mercy, giving Shimei a chance to prove himself. Shimei failed the test. One might use this outcome to justify David's lack of forgiveness, but David had condemned Shimei prematurely.

17. Proverbs 27:1 -- "Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring." Don't put that big job off another day -- do it today. If God puts it on your heart, do it immediately. Delay is disobedience, sin. The Marine Corps definition of discipline is applicable -- Discipline: Instant, willing obedience to orders.

18. Proverbs 27:6 -- "Faithful are the wounds of a friend; profuse are the kisses of an enemy." Only a true friend will tell you what you need to hear. Others tell you what you want to hear for their selfish purposes -- they want to avoid conflict for their own comfort. Though many justify flattery by telling themselves that they don't want to hurt feelings, they are really setting someone up for more pain later. Most of the time the truth is hard on the messenger too. True love tells the truth in love.

19. Proverbs 27:13 -- "Take a man's garment when he has put up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for an adulteress." God wants you to intervene to protect others from their own sinful actions. Again, this is an act of love.

20. Proverbs 27:17 -- "Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another." You cannot sharpen yourself completely. You were made for relationships; your mission is all about relationships. God gave Eve to Adam and Adam to Eve for a reason. God's greatest commandment to us is to love. You cannot grow in love in isolation. If you fancy yourself as a loner, you have a heart problem.

21. Psalm 62:1 -- "For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation." Wait for God in silence before just acting on your own knowledge and perceived wisdom. True wisdom is a spiritual discernment, not just an intellectual exercise.

22. Psalm 62:9 -- "Those of low estate are but a breath; those of high estate are a delusion." Personal power is a very strong delusion.

23. Psalm 62:11 -- "Power belongs to God." Remind yourself of this daily, hourly!

24. Psalm 63:1 -- "O God, you are my God; earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land where there is no water." Do you thirst for God?

25. Psalm 63:1 -- "Because your steadfast love is better than life, my lips will praise you." The love of God is better than life -- it is eternal life. See John 17:3

DBRP - WEEK 21, Day 6, Saturday, 26 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 26 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 23:1, 2 – "Now these are the last words of David... 'The Spirit of the Lord speaks by me; his word is on my tongue.'" Will your last words be about God, from God?
2. 2 Samuel 23:2 -- "The Spirit of the Lord speaks by me; His word is on my tongue." The Bible is the inspired (God-breathed) word of God given to men to record. We were created by God in the physical form for the express purpose of translating (through word and deed) His Spiritual truth and will into the physical world for His purposes and for His glory. When David operated in the Spirit, he performed His purpose. As stated previously, Jesus only spoke and did what the Father told him to say and do. He is our example. We should seek to do the same.
3. 2 Samuel 23:3, 4 -- "When one rules justly over men, ruling in the fear of God, he dawns on them like the morning light, like the sun shining forth on a cloudless morning, like rain that makes grass to sprout from the earth." God called us to be the primary influence on earth. To govern world affairs through our influence that "thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." It is impossible to rightly govern world affairs, a household, or any situation apart from a "fear of the Lord" and the power of the Holy Spirit. When Christians obey God, and influence others to obey God, they are the light of the world, and they promote life.
4. 2 Samuel 23:5 -- "For does not my house stand so with God?" Is your house a house of God?
5. 2 Samuel 23:6, 7 -- "But worthless men are all like thorns that are thrown away, for they cannot be taken with the hand; but the man who touches them arms himself with iron and the shaft of a spear, and they are utterly consumed with fire." Some people will refuse to accept the authority of God or the truth of God's word. You will not be able to convince them because they have rejected the conviction of the Holy Spirit. In their rebellion, they have rendered themselves worthless, and they will only destroy themselves and influence others to follow the path of destruction. We will face inevitable conflict with such people as we seek to promote God's will on earth and as they seek to counter it. We must resist evil and counter the influence of evil people, but we must never condemn those trapped in evil, always praying and hoping for their salvation, not knowing what God might do with them.
6. 2 Samuel 23:8 -- "These are the names of the mighty men whom David had...." God ensured that the names of the faithful were recorded for eternity. Their reward was eternal.
7. 2 Samuel 23:12 -- "But he took his stand in the midst of the plot and defended it and struck down the Philistines, and the Lord worked a great victory." The faithful are willing to face impossible odds, trusting God with the outcome, which is hope.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. 2 Samuel 23:15-17 -- "And David said longingly, 'Oh, that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate!' Then the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate and carried and brought it to David. But he would not drink of it. He poured it out to the Lord and said, 'Far be it from me, O Lord, that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?'" David reflects on several leadership lessons in these verses. First, leaders must be very careful not to communicate in a self-centered way to others, even casually. Second, all good leaders are first great followers, willing to do whatever it takes to be obedient and to obey their leader -- our leader is Jesus who always seeks the perfect will of the Father. Finally, leaders must never put their own desires ahead of the needs of others. David refused to drink water that was not available to his troops. Leaders take care of themselves last. This, of course, is contrary to the example of worldly leadership. Do our politicians have more or less than those they presume to lead? Does your pastor have a bigger or smaller house than those with his congregation? Did Jesus have more or less than those who walked with him day by day? Note that coincident with the fall of David was his pursuit of materialism and comfort.

9. 2 Samuel 23:39 -- Uriah the Hittite was one of David's mighty men. Uriah's character, competence, and fidelity did not prevent him from becoming a victim in the worse possible way. His integrity did not guarantee His security. However, his reward is eternal. If our motivation or incentive for fidelity is earthly reward, we do not have real fidelity, we are deceiving ourselves, and we will be sorely disappointed. Uriah, Bathsheba's husband, was murdered by David who had taken from him the one thing he cared most about on this earth, his wife. Yet, God directed David, Uriah's murderer, to list Uriah in the honor roll of the faithful. Within God's eternal, public record, David's secret sin has been exposed as has the fidelity of David's victim. Only through complete humility, a total reliance and faith in the grace of God, and complete surrender could David write the name, Uriah.

10. 2 Samuel 23:1 -- "Again the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, 'Go, number Israel and Judah.'" This is a difficult Bible verse to understand, an apparent contradiction in God's word. Did God really force David to sin? 1 Chronicles 21:1 says, "Now Satan [rather than God] stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel." And James 1:13 says, "Let no one say when he is tempted, 'I am being tempted by God,' for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one." Simply stated, Satan does the tempting, and at times, God allows the temptation in order to expose the truth of people's hearts. The Father allowed the temptation of Jesus by Satan in the desert to expose the truth of Jesus's heart. Jesus was tempted externally by Satan, but He was not tempted internally, proving to be wholly faithful. On the contrary, God allowed Satan to tempt David, and David was tempted externally by Satan and internally within his own heart, exposing the pride that remained in both him and the Israelites. In fact, there was nothing sinful about conducting a census, God had directed it before. What was sinful was not the conduct of the census but rather David's motivation for conducting a census. God fully knew David's heart and the sinful pride of the people, but they could not see it in themselves, so God had to expose it. So, when David wanted to conduct a census for all the wrong reasons, God essentially said, "Do what is on your heart," turning David over to His own sinful desires that he would face the consequences. Both David and the Israelites are soon to get a God smack and learn a lesson.

11. 2 Samuel 24:3 -- "Why does my lord the king delight in this thing?" What was wrong with numbering the troops? Census-taking under the Law of Moses was not inherently evil. In fact, God actually commanded Moses to number the Israelite soldiers on two different occasions—once in the second year after deliverance from Egyptian bondage, and again about forty years later near the end of Israel's wanderings in the desert (Numbers 1:1-3,19; 26:2-4). It was wrong in David's case because of the motives behind the action. David was measuring his might in pride as if Israel's strength was a sign of his greatness rather than God's. God will not share the glory. It is interesting that ruthless, prideful, Joab could see the sin David could not see. Joab, yes, Joab, tried to convince David not to do this thing, but David would not listen. Have you ever been blinded by pride this way? What were the consequences?

12. 2 Samuel 24:10, 11 -- "But David's heart struck him after he had numbered the people. And David said to the Lord, 'I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, O Lord, please take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have done very foolishly.' And when David arose in the morning, the word of the Lord came to the prophet Gad, David's seer." In 2 Samuel 23, David received and recorded the direct word of God. However, now in his guilt, David could only feel the conviction of the Holy Spirit but could not hear God's word. This time, God spoke to David through a prophet.

13. 2 Samuel 24:11-16 -- Repentance doesn't mean you will escape God's discipline. God's discipline is not a form of revenge but rather God's chisel to shape a hard heart. The amount of discipline required depends upon the hardness of the heart. True repentance accepts God's discipline without resentment.

14. 2 Samuel 24:12 -- "Thus says the LORD, Three things I offer you. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you." Within His Sovereignty, God gives us freedom to choose, and He accomplishes His will regardless of our choices.

15. 2 Samuel 24:16 -- God does show mercy in discipline.

16. 2 Samuel 24:17 -- Other people do suffer because of your sins. Though God allows this suffering, it is not unjust. All are deserving of eternal death. In his discipline, God simply applies less grace to those who justly deserve none. And, He promises to bring all things together for good for those who love Him and are called according to His purpose. In discipline, even discipline unto death, one should remain grateful that any grace remains.

17. 2 Samuel 24:24 -- "I will not offer burnt offerings to the Lord my God that cost me nothing." True love is a true sacrifice.

18. 2 Samuel 24:25 -- God honors your prayer of intercession for the sufferings of others when you repent and obey Him.

19. Proverbs 26:3 -- "A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools." Animals lack moral attributes and only operate in the mode of stimulus-response. They seek comfort and avoid pain. Animals are motivated primarily by fear and a survival instinct. Humans that are not led by the Spirit and love essentially relegate themselves to the level of an animal. In fact, our popular "science" today now assumes we are nothing more than a higher form of animal, a descendant of the lower forms. Those who act like animals will be treated like animals by God. Even many Christians act like animals, approaching God merely to receive His blessings and to avoid His curses. They are like dogs who want treats and want avoid discipline. God wants His people to move past mere animal-like instincts into the spiritual realm, to approach Him in love, to worship Him in spirit and in truth.

20. Proverbs 26:12 -- "Do you see a man who is wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him." Wisdom is knowledge rightly applied. If you think you have wisdom, you are in big trouble. Wisdom can only come from God, and God says His thoughts are infinitely removed from yours. Wisdom only comes through revelation, not through human reason. Revelation only comes through the Holy Spirit working through much prayer and God's word. Do you want to know what you should do? You must pray, pour into God's word, walk in obedience, and listen for that still, small voice of the Holy Spirit.

21. Proverbs 26:18-28 -- Jesus said that we will be held accountable for EVERY careless word that comes out of our mouths. Our words have power, either impacting others in a positive way or a negative way. Jesus said that He only spoke what the Father told Him to speak which is what we are called to do too. If our words are not the product of the Spirit, they are ungodly and wrong, sinful. If you aren't speaking on behalf of Jesus, keep your mouth shut. If there is any agenda behind your words, that agenda had better be the Great Commission, the Great Commandment, and the mission of reconciliation.

22. Psalm 61:8 -- "So will I ever sing praises to your name, as I perform my vows day after day." True love for God causes you to praise Him and obey Him.

23. Psalm 61:8 -- Worship God, not just in song, ceremony, or sacrifice, but, more importantly, it is shown in humility and fidelity. Worship not just in spirit but in "truth," in deed. Decisions without action are lies to self and to God. Integrity comes from follow-through.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 26 May 16: Examine the motives behind your actions today. Why do you do what you do? You could be doing the right things for the wrong reasons, sinning against God in your apparently good deeds because of selfish motives. You may be motivated by fear, pride, ego, or a sense of duty, but above all of these, God wants you to motivated by selfless love. How many of your decisions are wholly selflessly loving? Of course, our motives are never wholly pure in love as we are not yet perfected in love through our sanctification. But make pure love your goal, search your heart, and pray that God will help you grow in pure love, which is closer fellowship with Him, The God who IS love (2 Samuel 24) "For this is the will of God, your sanctification." (1 Thessalonians 4:3)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 25 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 21:1-14-- For generations, Saul's family suffered the consequences of his sins, long after he had died. Compare with Exodus 20:5. We can't fully comprehend the seriousness of the sins we often treat so lightly. Even the sins we consider to be insignificant can have a devastation ripple effect, often beyond our awareness. But the unthinkable truth of our 'little' sins is that we have committed cosmic treason by defying the Lordship and Authority of the Sovereign God. If just for that moment, we have sought to remove Him from the throne in our lives. In that small sin, we have broken the First commandment in our idolatry (choosing something over God), and we have broken the Great Commandment (by not loving God enough to obey Him). As Hebrews 10:29 says, when we continue in the sins Jesus paid for at the cross, we "trample underfoot the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace?" Do not outrage, quench, grieve, or get out of step with the Spirit. Under grace, pursue righteousness and holiness as your act of love and worship. Many people ask, "What is God's will for my life. The Bible gives you the answer -- "This is the will of God, your sanctification." (1 Thess. 4:3)

2. 2 Samuel 21:2, 3 -- God will not allow you to go against your word, no matter the oath or to whom it was made.

3. 2 Samuel 21:3 -- God expects us to make atonement for the offenses we commit against others.

4. 2 Samuel 22:21-24 -- "The Lord dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he rewarded me. For I have kept the ways of the Lord and have not wickedly departed from my God. For all his rules were before me, and from his statutes I did not turn aside. I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from guilt." We are saved by grace and rewarded through obedience. God expects our obedience, holds us accountable for obedience, and blesses our obedience. Jesus commissioned us to go into the world and make disciples, "teaching them to obey ALL that [He] has commanded." All means all. Partial obedience is disobedience. When we lose sight of the holiness of God, and when we are no longer amazed by grace, we don't take obedience very seriously.

5. 2 Samuel 22:26 -- "With the merciful you show yourself merciful; with the blameless man you show yourself blameless" God treats you the way you treat others. Compare this with The Lord's Prayer (or disciple's prayer) -- "...forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors."

6. 2 Samuel 22:28 -- "You save a humble people, but your eyes are on the haughty to bring them down." The world views humility as weakness, but the truly humble have the power of God on their side. Jesus said, "Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 18:4)

7. 2 Samuel 22:30-51 -- Strength, security, and success are in the LORD's hands. Salvation comes only from God.

8. Proverbs 25:7, 8 -- "What your eyes have seen do not hastily bring into court, for what will you do in the end, when your neighbor puts you to shame?" Don't be too quick to judge. Your observations are very limited and clouded by preconceived notions and sometimes emotion. Be careful not to judge a situation or person from a position of self-interest. You represent Christ, not your own interests.

9. Proverbs 25:9 -- "Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not reveal another's secret." Settle matters one-on-one, quietly in order to preserve the dignity of both parties and to protect the relationship. Don't let an issue distract you or others from Jesus. Better to surrender your rights in a matter than to lose focus on your mission of reconciling yourself and others to Jesus. Life is not about you; it is about Him. You are just a humble servant and messenger. Whatever you give up for the sake of love, God can replace a thousand fold.

10. Proverbs 25:14 -- "Like clouds and wind without rain is a man who boasts of a gift he does not give." Don't make promises you don't intend to keep, even as a casual gesture, such as saying to someone you bump into who you haven't seen in a long time, "Let's keep in touch."

11. 2 Corinthians 1:1 -- "Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God..." How do you introduce yourself?

12. 2 Corinthians 1:2 -- "Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." Are you, first and foremost, a messenger of grace and peace to others in the Name of Jesus? Is this what you communicate in your words and deeds? Would others describe you as a minister of grace and peace as a representative of Jesus? Does your very presence in a gathering fundamentally change the environment and bring a spirit of grace and peace?

13. 2 Corinthians 1:3-5 -- "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. For as we share abundantly in Christ's sufferings, so through Christ we share abundantly in comfort too." Do you reveal God to others as a Father of mercies and comfort? Do you happily accept affliction from others so that you can reflect God's character of mercy? Do you understand that hurting people hurt others, and do you seek to provide comfort rather than to condemn? God comforts you in afflictions so that you can comfort others. God has tasked you with comforting others in affliction. How are you doing on that task day by day?

14. 2 Corinthians 1:12 -- "For our boast is this, the testimony of our conscience, that we behaved in the world with simplicity and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom but by the grace of God, and supremely so toward you." Another word for "simplicity" above is "holiness." The credibility of our message will be judged by the world and other Christians by the simple holiness of our daily behavior which stands out in stark contrast to the world around us. Our attitude and behavior as we face the same trials others face reveals what we really believe to be true about our God. Does your attitude, words, and behavior glorify God? If you have failed in the past (which we all have), today is a day of new beginnings.

15. 2 Corinthians 1:12 -- "We behaved in the world with simplicity and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom but by the grace of God..." We are not called to win people to Christ through crafty arguments but rather through the simple word of God and through simple, sincere godliness. The Holy Spirit convicts hearts, not us.

16. 2 Corinthians 1:17, 18 -- "Do I make my plans according to the flesh, ready to say 'Yes, yes' and 'No, no' at the same time? As surely as God is faithful, our word to you has not been Yes and No." God expects us to keep our promises and our word as earthly examples of His character. We must strive to be 100% reliable.

17. 2 Corinthians 1:20 -- "For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us." Comments from Henry T. Blackaby: "God keeps every promise He makes. When we walk in intimate fellowship with Christ, we have the assurance that every promise God has made in Scripture is available to us. This truth should motivate us to search the Scriptures for each promise in order to meditate upon its potential for our life. Jesus promised that when you ask for something in His will, He will give you what you ask (John 16:23b). This promise is available to every Christian. If you ask God if this promise applies to your life, His answer is yes. If you are not now experiencing this promise, it does not change the fact that God has said it. You may need to seek God's answer for why His promise has not yet reached maturity in you. Paul claimed he had tested each of these promises in his own life and found them all to be abundantly true. That's why he could speak of the "exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus" (Eph. 2:7b) and the "unsearchable riches of Christ" (Eph. 3:8b). Paul had found a wealth of God's promises and enjoyed them all in abundance. Don't become discouraged or impatient if you are not experiencing to the fullest all of God's promises in your life. God may want to prepare you to receive some of the great truths He has made available to you. Walk closely with your Lord and, in time, you will see Him bring His promises to fruition in your life."

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 24 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 19:1-8 – “So the victory that day was turned into mourning....” People will naturally look to leaders for encouragement, inspiration, and motivation. Leaders must be extremely careful to guard the morale of their people. It is important that leaders celebrate the victories of their teams. Don’t miss the opportunity to celebrate God’s blessings with those you have put their blood, sweat, and tears into the endeavor. Keep your personal disappointments to yourself.
2. 2 Samuel 19:3 -- Leaders can't send mixed signals.
3. 2 Samuel 19:6 -- People need to know they are loved and appreciated. Leaders must communicate their gratitude.
4. 2 Samuel 19:7 -- Victory can quickly turn to disaster without proper leadership. Organizations, groups, and teams are often most vulnerable immediately after a win.
5. 2 Samuel 19:23 -- "And the king said to Shimei, 'You shall not die.' And the king gave him his oath." This is an interesting story. When David was down, Shimei kicked him. Now Shimei wants forgiveness. David appears to give it, but later David will tell Solomon to ensure Shimei’s execution (1 Kings 2:8, 9). This event had all the outward appearance of reconciliation, but it was not genuine.
6. 2 Samuel 19:22 – “But David said, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be as an adversary to me? Shall anyone be put to death in Israel this day? For do I not know that I am this day king over Israel?” Times of celebration are not times to cause divisions or hard feelings. From a position of strength, seek reconciliation rather than revenge, thereby demonstrating Christ-like mercy and grace.
7. 2 Samuel 19:29 -- In 2 Samuel 16, when David flees Jerusalem after Absalom's conspiracy, Ziba comes to David with provisions, and claims Mephibosheth has broken faith with David. David responds by giving all that belonged to Mephibosheth to Ziba instead. Finally, in 2 Samuel 19, when David returns to Jerusalem, Mephibosheth tells David that Ziba had been lying. David responds by saying "You and Ziba shall divide the land." David seems not to know whom to believe, but most commentators have concluded that Ziba had previously lied to David in order to make himself appear to be the only loyal subject worthy of David's benefactions and entitled to Saul's property. The Bible is very clear that you cannot truly and fully know another person's heart or the true motives behind their actions. Also, you cannot know all the facts in a given situation. Sometimes we are forced to make decisions based upon limited information. In that place, we must pray and follow the principles of God's word as closely as possible. When we must decide a case between two opposing parties with limited situational awareness, we must compromise, perhaps giving more credit than is due one of the antagonists. As long as we are operating as best, we can under the principles of fairness, God will honor our decision.
8. 2 Samuel 19:35-37 -- People need to recognize their strengths and weaknesses.

9. 2 Samuel 19:41-43 -- Regaining unity among a divided people is very difficult if not impossible.

10. 2 Samuel 19:40-43; 20:2 -- The split between North and South has deep roots in history, across many civilizations.

11. 2 Samuel 20:9, 10 -- "And say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me and more also, if you are not commander of my army from now on in place of Joab....' (2 Samuel 19:13) "And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. But Amasa did not observe the sword that was in Joab's hand. So Joab struck him with it in the stomach and spilled his entrails to the ground without striking a second blow, and he died." (2 Samuel 20:9, 10) Competence vs character -- Joab was an incredibly competent warrior (perhaps the very best) with serious character flaws that proved devastating to the king. David relied on Joab due to his competence and loyalty (on Joab's terms), but David should have removed him early on due to his lack of character which made him ultimately untrustworthy and dangerous. Perhaps David was a bit fearful of attempting to challenge Joab's power and considered his relationship with him a necessary evil. Nonetheless, the longer David stayed with Joab, the more dependent he became on him and the more entangled he became with the consequences of Joab's behavior. As we saw in the story of Bathsheba and Uriah, David had completely abrogated his military commandship over to Joab, likely because, in part, Joab was very forceful, competent, and uncooperative in execution. David likely felt it best to avoid conflict with Joab and to let Joab run the army. In so doing, David surrendered one of his most important roles as king, strengthened Joab's hand, and contributed to Joab's demand for power. Today, David seeks to reconcile with Amasa by giving Amasa Joab's position as Commander of the Army, and Joab responds by murdering Amasa. One can only speculate about what David was thinking here, but Joab's actions should come as no surprise. Joab demonstrated this sort of violent expediency against David's wishes previously (E.G., Abner: 2 Samuel 3:27, and Absalom: 2 Samuel 18:14). David handled Joab poorly and it cost him dearly. We all have a tendency to admire competency and overlook character flaws in others – big mistake. Between character and competence, character must be supreme. A leader or employee MUST be good at what they do, but it is MUCH, MUCH more important that a leader or employee is a good person who can be trusted to do the right things in the right way at the right time. From BOTH character and competence, trust and confidence are earned.

12. 2 Samuel 20:10 -- "But Amasa did not observe the sword that was in Joab's hand." You may not recognize your enemies when you meet them.

13. 2 Samuel 20:13-15 -- Some tasks require a powerful, experienced leader. God may call you to be that leader even if you don't necessarily feel like you are very powerful and experienced.

14. Proverbs 24:10 -- "If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small." Strength is built before you need it. Adversity reveals what you have built over time. Challenges prove what you are really made of.

15. Proverbs 24:11, 12 -- "Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter. If you say, 'Behold, we did not know this,' does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will he not repay man according to his work?" We will be held accountable for not speaking out against sin.

16. Proverbs 24:16 -- "...for the righteous falls seven times and rises again, but the wicked stumble in times of calamity." Everyone falls, but God empowers His people to overcome.

17. Proverbs 24:19-20 -- "Fret not yourself because of evildoers, and be not envious of the wicked, for the evil man has no future; the lamp of the wicked will be put out." Oftentimes, the wicked seem to prosper, but God will bring all things into final judgement.

18. Proverbs 24:27 -- "Prepare your work outside; get everything ready for yourself in the field, and after that build your house." Prioritize productivity over leisure.

19. Proverbs 24:32 -- "Then I saw and considered it; I looked and received instruction." Truth is self-evident, it reveals itself. You can learn much by watching the consequences of others' actions.

20. 1 Corinthians 16:9 -- "For a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries." Comments from Henry T. Blackaby: "Open doors of service may also let in adversaries. Paul had many of both. As Paul wrote to the Corinthians from Ephesus, he was trying to determine where to go next. He chose to remain longer in Ephesus because of the open doors of service God granted him. Knowing that God had opened the doors of ministry, Paul was not going to leave, regardless of how many enemies he faced. We might assume that Paul would reach the opposite conclusion. In light of the opposition he faced, he could have concluded that it was best to serve in less hostile regions. Instead, Paul based his decisions on God's activity rather than on what people were doing. As you respond to God's invitations, don't be caught by surprise when adversaries try to thwart what you are doing. If you concentrate on your opponents, you will be sidetracked from God's activity. Don't base your decisions on what people are doing. They cannot prevent you from carrying out God's will (Rom. 8:31). Many times, the most rewarding spiritual work is done in the crucible of persecution and opposition. While Paul was in Ephesus, a riot broke out in reaction to his ministry. The city theater resounded with an angry mob who shouted for two hours in support of their god, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" (Acts 19:23-41). Despite this fierce rejection of the gospel, Ephesus became one of the chief cities from which the gospel spread throughout Asia. It takes spiritual discernment to see beyond human activity to God's will. As you seek places of service, look beyond what people are saying to find what God is doing."

21. 1 Corinthians 16:13 -- "Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love." We have too many weak-willed Christians who act defeated. "Stand firm, act like men, be strong!"

22. 1 Corinthians 16 -- Paul was committed to relationships and cared deeply about his many friends, encouraging all to support one another and to look out for each other. Relationships come first in the life of a Christian.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 24 May: Overlook all offenses today for the sake of the Gospel. When offended, respond with shocking love as a testimony to Jesus. Don't worry about what you will lose in the situation. What you gain in Christ will be much more valuable. (Proverbs 25:7-9)

DBRP - WEEK 21, Day 3, Wednesday, 23 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2Sam+17%2C+18%3B+Proverbs+23%3B+1+Cor+15>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 23 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 17:14 -- "And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, 'he counsel of Husham the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel.' For the LORD had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, so that the LORD might bring harm upon Absalom." God arranges circumstances and changes hearts to fulfill His will. How important is it for us to live aligned to God's will?

2. 2 Samuel 17:17 -- "A female servant was to go and tell them...." God will use seemingly insignificant people whose actions seem insignificant to accomplish great, even historic works. God may use people you hardly notice (or never notice) to have a tremendous impact on your life. Also, the small, unrecognized roles you play may not be small at all in God's economy.

3. 2 Samuel 17:23 -- "When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey and went off home to his own city. He set his house in order and hanged himself, and he died and was buried in the tomb of his father." Ahithophel lost all hope when his counsel was ignored. On what do you base your hope? "We rejoice in hope of the glory of God." (Romans 5:2)

4. 2 Samuel 18:33 -- "And as he went, he said, 'O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!'" The consequences of sin are devastating! To make light of sin is the worst kind of denial. The Bible describes those who do not consider the consequences of sin as "so nearsighted that [they are] blind." (2 Peter 1:9) Even more important than the practical consequences of sin is the fact that our sin is a direct affront to the KING, a direct challenge to, and rebellion against, His Lordship, an offense beyond measure. (Psalm 51:4) In our readings today, David, now facing the terrible consequences of his sin, wishes that he could exchange his life for Absalom's, but he can't -- Absalom is gone. If only David had "died of self" when God had first called him out and empowered him. David's choices to place his own desires over God's perfect will led to the death and victimization of many; it tore a nation apart. David's murderous adultery was a crime deserving of death; one cannot help but wonder how things would have been different if David had publicly confessed his sin and faced his own consequences. One of primary responsibilities of any leader is to take responsibility and to hold themselves fully accountable for their actions -- David did not do that at the expense of his family and the nation. Conversely, we see in our NT readings today that Paul takes a different approach. He very publicly admits his sin and in so doing proclaims the grace that he has received through Jesus Christ. Confession destroys false pride and also gives us freedom in our honesty. In grace, Paul has truly surrendered his life to the Lord and has chosen to work more diligently than anyone for the spreading of the Gospel. It was Paul's understanding of God's grace that gave him such passion to preach what was to him truly "Good News." The more we understand the magnitude of the mercy, grace, and love that we have received from our Father, the more we are inspired to conform to His will and to preach the Gospel to others. The greater we understand the implications of living outside of God's grace, the greater our urgency to proclaim the truth to a lost world.

5. 2 Samuel 18 -- David continually failed to hold himself and others accountable. He didn't hold Joab accountable, and he didn't hold his children accountable. Joab defied the king's orders and killed Absalom just as Joab had defied the king's intent in killing Abner. Joab did what he thought was right or expedient, regardless of what the king desired. David always knew about Joab's defiance but did not keep Joab in check; now it cost David his son. This was all a part of God's punishment of David for his own pride, compromise, adultery and murder. Though David was forgiven by God, David's sins cost him dearly for a lifetime.

6. Proverbs 23:1-3 – “When you sit down to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you.... Do not desire his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.” Gifts from the government always have strings attached.

7. Proverbs 23:4 – “Do not toil to acquire wealth; be discerning enough to desist.” Do not think that your security comes from wealth and so neglect your relationship with God in order to pursue riches. If you cannot find time to study the Bible, pray, fellowship with your church, raise your family as disciples, minister to the needs of others, etc, you are likely doing something wrong. People work too hard when they do not trust God for their future provisions or when they are not satisfied with what God has provided. Their insecurities and appetites cause them to toil to the point where they lose their peace and joy. They cannot even enjoy what they have.

8. Proverbs 23:15 -- All that godly parents want from their children is that they too live godly lives, surrendered wholeheartedly to Jesus.

9. Proverbs 23:17 – “Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day.” Obey and follow God; don’t just do what is popular.

10. Proverbs 23:20, 21 -- Bad company corrupts good morals.

11. Proverbs 23:26 -- “My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways.” Your heart guides what you choose to focus on, but what you choose to focus on also affects the condition of your heart. We must do as Job did and make a covenant not to gaze upon what we shouldn’t in order to guard the heart. (Job 31:1) This is a premeditated decision.

12. 1 Corinthians 15:9, 10, 33, 34, 58 -- “For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me.... Do not be deceived: ‘Bad company ruins good morals.’ Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.... Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.” Paul speaks to what should be our response to God’s grace. Paul, having previously persecuted Christians, was very aware of just how unworthy he was of the incredible gift of grace he had received through Jesus. With that perspective, he worked harder than all the others, not to re-earn what he had freely received but rather to glorify God out of love for Him and to “know” God more fully (as opposed to the continued sinner who has “no knowledge of God” to their shame) and to make him known. Certainly, Paul was “steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord.” Today people might call him fanatical, judgmental, ignorant, and close minded. You are what you are because of your relationship with Christ. You are saved by grace, and grace should drive you to loving, impassioned obedience. Grace doesn't make sin less of a concern to us; grace makes sin unthinkable to us. When it comes to your faith in Jesus Christ, would you be described by these words – “steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord”?

- Galatians 2:20 -- I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

- Proverbs 15:9 -- The way of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but he loves him who pursues righteousness.

- Proverbs 21:21 -- Whoever pursues righteousness and kindness will find life, righteousness, and honor.

- Isaiah 51:1 -- Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the Lord: look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug.

- 1 Timothy 6:11 -- But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness.

- 2 Timothy 2:22 -- So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

13. 1 Corinthians 15:12-19 -- Christ's resurrection is the foundation for Christian faith, preaching, and hope.

14. 1 Corinthians 15:14 -- "And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain." Proclaim the Resurrection. Our hope is in the Resurrection.

15. 1 Corinthians 15:22 -- Every person will experience resurrection but not everyone will experience salvation.

16. 1 Corinthians 15:26 -- Christ will destroy death.

17. 1 Corinthians 15:14, 20, 22-24 -- Love motivates all God's work. Do you have a love relationship with Him? Does this shine through in your relationships with others?

18. 1 Corinthians 15:33-34 -- "Do not be deceived: 'Bad company ruins good morals.' Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame." Avoid complacent Christians who use "grace" as a reason to make light of sin.

19. 1 Corinthians 15:55 -- "O Death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?" Comments from Henry T. Blackaby: "Over the centuries, death has been our relentless and unyielding enemy. No one, regardless of worldly rank, strength, or wealth has been able to escape death. As soon as we are born, death becomes our destiny. Many have tried, but no one has developed an antidote for death. The reality of the resurrection is that death has been defeated! It is no longer the impregnable enemy, for Christ marched through the gates of Hades and claimed decisive victory over death. He conquered death completely; now He assures His followers that we, too, will share in His victory. Christians need not fear death. Christ has gone before us and will take us to join Him in heaven. Death frees us to experience the glorious, heavenly presence of God. No illness can defeat us. No disaster can rob us of eternal life. Death can temporarily remove us from those we love, but it transfers us into the presence of the One who loves us most. God's glory is His presence. Death, our greatest enemy, is nothing more than the vehicle that enables believers to experience God's glory! Do not allow a fear of death to prevent you from experiencing a full and abundant life. Death cannot rob you of the eternal life that is your inheritance as a child of God. Jesus has prepared a place for you in heaven that surpasses your imagination (John 14:1-4). Death will one day be the door by which you gain access to all that is yours in heaven."

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 22 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 15:1-6 – In yesterday's readings, David and Absalom are finally reunited – “So he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.” However, there was never any real reconciliation between David and Absalom, and the relationship only continued to erode with inevitable and deadly consequences looming.

2. 2 Samuel 15:2, 3 -- "And Absalom used to rise early and stand beside the way of the gate. And when any man had a dispute to come before the king for judgment, Absalom would call to him and say, 'From what city are you?' And when he said, 'Your servant is of such and such a tribe in Israel,' Absalom would say to him, 'See, your claims are good and right, but there is no man designated by the king to hear you.'" It appears that David was not adequately fulfilling his responsibilities as the king, and Absalom was quick to take advantage of the leadership void. It also appears David's guilt and Absalom's animosity helped create an environment of division.

3. 2 Samuel 16:3 -- "And the king said, 'And where is your master's son?' Ziba said to the king, 'Behold, he remains in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will give me back the kingdom of my father.'" Not everyone will return your mercy, grace, and kindness. Don't be surprised, just do what you know you are supposed to do.

4. 2 Samuel 16:12 -- "It may be that the LORD will look on the wrong done to me, and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing today." In humility and repentance, David surrendered to the will of God and left his defense and fate to God. Surrendered to God, he responded to critics completely differently than the way he used to and the way others did. How do you respond to those who curse you?

- "David was guiltless of the crime of which Shimei accused him; but his conscience reminded him of other flagrant iniquities; and he, therefore, regarded the cursing of this man as a chastisement from heaven. His answer to Abishai's proposal evinced the spirit of deep and humble resignation--the spirit of a man who watched the course of Providence, and acknowledged Shimei as the instrument of God's chastening hand. One thing is remarkable, that he acted more independently of the sons of Zeruiah in this season of great distress than he could often muster courage to do in the days of his prosperity and power." (Robert Jamieson)

5. 2 Samuel 16:20 -- "Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, 'Give your counsel. What shall we do?'" Absalom trusted in the counsel of a godless man rather than seeking counsel from God. Ahithophel counseled Absalom to sin greatly.

6. 2 Samuel 15:21 -- Ittai was a model of love and faithfulness to David while David faced the consequences of his own infidelity and suffered from his son's unfaithfulness. Meanwhile, God brought David to rock bottom in order to deal with his prideful heart.

7. 2 Samuel 15:25, 26 – "...If I find favor in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me back and let me see both it and his dwelling place.... let him do to me what seems good to him." David recognized that his fate was totally in God's hands, regardless his actions or anyone else's. Previously, David was desperate to receive the Ark, not as much to be in the presence of God but in order to gain personal power. Now, finally, David's priorities are reversed. He now wants a renewed relationship with God rather than simply the blessings of God.

8. 2 Samuel 15:31 -- "O Lord, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness." David recognized that God influences the thoughts of people to bring good circumstances to His people.

9. 2 Samuel 16:3 -- Showing someone kindness does not guarantee they will return kindness.

10. 2 Samuel 16:5-14 -- Once again, David saw all circumstances within God's control and relied upon God for the outcome, for protection, and for vengeance. Notice how differently David responds to circumstances and to people after he has been truly humbled by God.

11. Proverbs 22:1 – "A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold." Your character is your most precious asset.

12. Proverbs 22:2 – "The rich and the poor meet together; the Lord is the Maker of them all." Riches mean nothing on Judgment Day.

13. Proverbs 22:4 – "The reward for humility and fear of the Lord is riches and honor and life." Riches and honor and life are in the hands of the LORD. He gives them to the humble.

14. Proverbs 22:6 – "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it." The formative years of a child's life are critical to life-long success.

15. Proverbs 22:9 – "Whoever has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor." Giving requires trust that God will richly provide. Generosity is a measure of faith.

16. Proverbs 22:10 -- "Drive out a scoffer, and strife will go out, and quarreling and abuse will cease." Strong teams, churches, or organizations cannot tolerate divisive people.

17. Proverbs 22:11 – "He who loves purity of heart, and whose speech is gracious, will have the king as his friend." Gracious speech comes from a pure heart; a pure heart is to be greatly valued.

18. Proverbs 22:14 – "The mouth of forbidden women is a deep pit; he with whom the Lord is angry will fall into it." Adultery is a punishment from God against the adulterer who has already been unfaithful to God in his heart. "...none who touches her will go unpunished." (Proverbs 6:29)

19. Proverbs 22:21 -- "...to make you know what is right and true, that you may give a true answer to those who sent you?" God's word will give you a true answer.

20. Proverbs 22:29 – "Do you see a man skillful in his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before obscure men." God expects you to be excellent in what you do. Your excellence will give you influence and magnify your testimony as you glorify God.

21. 1 Corinthians 14:1 -- "Pursue love, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy." Often those who are quickest to boast of their spiritual gifts are the most unloving. Love is the measure of the person.

22. 1 Corinthians 14:6 – “Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching?” Our spiritual gifts are meant to benefit others more than ourselves.

23. 1 Corinthians 14:37 -- "If anyone thinks that he is a prophet, or spiritual, he should acknowledge that the things I am writing to you are a command of the Lord." Many of God's commands seem foolish to people. Many have developed clever arguments to refute God's commands based on current cultural standards. You will have to choose what you will believe and upon what you will act. “And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the Lord, choose this day whom you will serve.... But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.” (Joshua 24:15, 16)

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 22 May: Don't respond negatively to criticisms, insults, slights, or other forms of unfair treatment. Bear the burden, and leave your defense to God. (2 Samuel 16:12)

DBRP - WEEK 21, Day 1, Monday, 21 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 21 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 13:3 -- "But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother. And Jonadab was a very crafty man." Real friends will encourage you to obey God, not to find creative ways to sin.

2. 2 Samuel 13:15 – “Then Amnon hated her with very great hatred, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, ‘Get up! Go!’” Lust is not love, though we often use the word ‘love’ to describe lust. Even our Bible translation uses the word ‘love’ for ‘ahab’ which in Hebrew can mean a good or bad affection. Love is selfless. Lust is selfish. Love grows more love. Lust always ends in hate. Often, people will pretend to love in order to satisfy their lust. But when their lust is satisfied, hate is revealed.

3. 2 Samuel 13:21 -- "When King David heard of all these things, he was very angry." He was angry, but he didn't do anything. Amnon raped his sister Tamar, and David did nothing – wow! Amnon's crime deserved death; David does not appear to even address the matter but rather seems to act as if it never happened. Could this be because David himself was guilty of sexual sin that was deserving of death? Was he concerned about the risk of Amnon's crime further exposing his hypocrisy? Or was he merely attempting to do damage control, wrongfully protecting his son Amnon from the consequences of his crime? Whatever the reason, David is perverting justice, failing to protect the victims of this sin, and setting the stage for increased pain and destruction. In his guilt and self-centeredness, David has failed to address the reality of sin within his family, and it has and will cost them dearly. Too often, for many reasons, we fail to address the sins of those we care about. Usually this decision to ignore sin motivated by pain avoidance, the desire to avoid the consequences of the confrontation. We cannot lovingly ignore the sin of a brother or sister, being a party to their destruction. Of course the Bible is VERY clear that confronting sin must be done “in a spirit of gentleness.” (Galatians 6:1) “My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back, let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.” (James 5:19-

20) "And have mercy on those who doubt; save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh." (Jude 1:22-24)

- Galatians 6:1 -- Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted.

- 2 Thessalonians 3:15 -- Do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

- 2 Timothy 4:2 -- Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching.

- 1 Timothy 5:20 -- As for those who persist in sin, rebuke them in the presence of all, so that the rest may stand in fear.

- 2 Timothy 3:16-17 -- All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work.

- Titus 1:9 -- He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it.

- 2 Thessalonians 3:6 -- Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from any brother who is walking in idleness and not in accord with the tradition that you received from us.

- 1 Thessalonians 5:14 -- And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all.

- Colossians 3:16 -- Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

4. 2 Samuel 13:30 -- "While they were on the way, news came to David, 'Absalom has struck down all the king's sons, and not one of them is left.'" Things are not usually as good or as bad as first reported. Stories are often inflated due to emotional excitement or minimized to avoid accountability. Don't be quick to judge a situation until the dust settles.

5. 2 Samuel 14:13 -- "And the woman said, 'Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in giving this decision the king convicts himself, inasmuch as the king does not bring his banished one home again.'" God's ways combine justice and mercy, holding people accountable while allowing for reconciliation. The world demands justice without mercy or no justice at all. (2 Samuel 14:10)

6. 2 Samuel 14:14 -- "But God will not take away life, and he devises means so that the banished one will not remain an outcast." The Father provided His Son, Jesus that we would not remain as outcasts.

7. 2 Samuel 14:24 -- "Let him dwell apart in his own house; he is not to come into my presence." Both David and Absalom desired reconciliation, but David could bring himself to offer total forgiveness. Partial forgiveness is not forgiveness and does not fulfill our mission of reconciliation.

8. 2 Samuel 14:27 -- "There were born to Absalom three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a beautiful woman." Absalom never got over what happened to his sister, and it affected his character development, his decision-making and the course of his life. It is a terrible thing to be driven by anger, bitterness, and by a quest for revenge.

9. 2 Samuel 14:32 -- "Now therefore let me go into the presence of the king, and if there is guilt in me, let him put me to death." Again, Absalom wanted to settle things with his father. Never be the barrier to reconciliation.

10. Proverbs 21:2 -- "Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the heart." God defines right and wrong not people.

11. Proverbs 21:13, 21 -- Pursue love today by seeing and meeting the needs of others around you. Love requires genuine sacrifice. Sacrifice your time, energy, and resources today for those who need some love today. Give from the abundance you have been given through Jesus.

12. Proverbs 21:27 -- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with evil intent." God examines the motives behind what you do. You can do the right things for the wrong reasons and receive God's disfavor.

13. 1 Corinthians 13:1-3 -- God sees the true motive behind the deed. All of our charity, all of our good deeds, all of our accomplishments are just vanities if they are done from a prideful "aren't I good" heart. You can make great sacrifices for all the wrong reasons and receive no credit from God. It is only genuine if it comes from a selfless heart of love. "If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing."

14. 1 Corinthians 13:2 -- "If I... have not love, I am nothing." Love is the measure of the person, nothing else.

15. 1 Corinthians 13:4-8 -- Our love is revealed by how we treat others in relationships, not by how well we accomplish tasks and projects or what deeds we do on behalf of a concept of love or religion.

16. 1 Corinthians 13:4-8 -- "Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends." This is a popular verse at weddings, but this one of those verses we should probably read to ourselves every morning and then use as a nightly debrief to ourselves at the end of every day to assess how we did. To be a person who truly displays these attributes is far more impressive, miraculous, and powerful than speaking in tongues, prophesying, preaching, teaching, or anything else. Some Christians boast about their spiritual gifts or simply natural gifts, but few can boast of this sort of love. Love like this is genuine proof of a close relationship with Jesus.

- Comments from Henry T. Blackaby -- Love has no limits. Love never says, "You've gone too far. I can't love you now." "All things" means everything is included. Christlike love leaves no doubt in the mind of another that you will continue to love steadfastly. Do those close to you know that they can fail and do foolish things, yet you will not falter in your love for them? Are others assured that, even when they hurt you, you still love them, holding nothing against them? Love assumes the best about others. If someone inadvertently offends you, you choose to believe the offense was unintentional. If someone seeks to harm you, you "bear all things," forgiving unconditionally. If a positive light can be shed on a difficult encounter, you grasp it. If someone continually provokes you, you "endure all things." You never lose hope in the ones you love. You practice the same unconditional love toward others that Christ gives to you. Paul said that he was nothing if he had the faith to move mountains, the tongue of an angel, and the gift of prophecy to understand all mysteries, yet did not have God's love. It is unacceptable to say, "Well, I just can't love people that way!" When God loves people through you, this is the only kind of love He has! Read 1 Corinthians 13 with gratitude that God has already expressed this complete and selfless love to you. Pray and ask Him to express it through you now, to others.

17. 1 Corinthians 13:11 -- "When I became a man, I gave up childish ways." It is time to grow up in love. God calls us to have a childlike faith, not a childish faith. When an adult acts immaturely, we might tell him to stop acting like a child. Likewise, those who should be spiritually mature might need to be reminded what is expected of them.

18. 1 Corinthians 13:13 -- "So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love." The requirements of knowledge change over time, but the demands of love have never changed. Smart people come and go, but a truly unconditionally loving person is a very rare treasure.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 21 May: Make 1 Corinthians 13:4-8 love your goal today. Display these verses somewhere prominently; memorize them; recite them to yourself throughout the day; practice them; pray about them; compare your thoughts, words, and deeds to them; and evaluate your behavior.

DBRP - WEEK 20, Day 7, Sunday, 20 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+sam+11%2C+12%3B+proverbs+20%3B+psalm+59%2C+60>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 20 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 11:1 -- "In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel.... But David remained at Jerusalem." To me one of the most shocking, tragic, and frightening stories in the Bible is that of David's adulterous and murderous deeds committed against his faithful warrior Uriah. How could this "man after God's own heart" do such terrible, terrible things (deserving of the death penalty), particularly against someone as faithful and dedicated as Uriah who was deployed in combat fighting for the king? If David, a man who had such a close relationship with God, could do such a thing, what does that suggest about the potential susceptibility to sin of ordinary people like us? There are countless lessons in this story which will continue to unfold as we read on, but when I look at the chain of events (or decisions) that led to this tragedy, 2 Samuel 11:1 jumps out at me – when David should have gone out with Israel to battle, he stayed home. Simply stated, David wasn't where he should have been or doing what he should have been doing. David set the conditions for his demise through his complacency towards personal responsibility. Complacency kills! He had let his personal guard down and had, as we say in the Marine Corps, "gone internal" or became "focused inward." His focus shifted from "He" (God) to "me." Self-gratification became the goal. Verse 11:2 expands upon David's mental/emotional state: "It happened, late one afternoon, when David arose from his couch and was walking on the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful." Why is the king, during a time of war, on his couch late in the afternoon or idly walking around the roof of the palace? As the saying goes, "An idle mind is the devil's playground." David's wandering mind led to wandering eyes which led to inappropriate inquiries which led to adultery and murder. Small decisions led to massive destruction (much of which we haven't read about yet). David should have stayed focused on his responsibilities and should have gone to battle with the rest of the men. You can imagine David telling himself, "I deserve a break; after all, I am the king, and look how hard I have been working all these years; Joab can handle it." Be very careful when you find yourself looking for an escape from the burdens of responsibility or commitment. During these times of weakness, you are very susceptible to sin. For most Americans the threat comes from where or how they seek entertainment or "amusement." In Latin the word "muse" means to think. In Latin, when you place the letter "a" in front of a word it means the opposite; so "a-muse" means to not think or to stop thinking. So, amusement involves letting your guard down intentionally, to "just relax and escape the concerns of life." Where do most Americans choose to stop thinking? In front of media devices or in front of TVs, which promote very destructive behaviors. Also, many choose to 'relax' at social establishments which promote excessive eating and alcohol. Does that make sense? "Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour." (1 Peter 5:8) We all need a break from work, but replace amusement with recreation, which is to 're-create' oneself. Do enjoyable, constructive things that refresh you, revive you, and contribute to a better you. Like your heart, your brain must never stop working. Have fun, but with a sober, fully engaged mind.

2. 2 Samuel 11:11 -- "Uriah said to David, 'The ark and Israel and Judah dwell in booths, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field. Shall I then go to my house, to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing.'" Uriah was a real leader. Uriah displayed the loyalty and fidelity one would have expected from God's anointed king. Uriah loved his wife more than anything, but he did not go to see her because the other soldiers in battle couldn't, and Uriah made this choice realizing that it could be his last chance to ever see his wife again since the battle continued. Uriah honored God through his noble character, yet God did not spare him from these tragic circumstances. The test of character is your willingness to do the right thing when no one is looking, regardless the outcome. Are you willing to be as faithful as Uriah even if it costs you everything?

3. 2 Samuel 11:15 -- "In the letter he wrote, 'Set Uriah in the forefront of the hardest fighting, and then draw back from him, that he may be struck down, and die.'" There is no limit to what a person enslaved by sin will do. Sin is selfishness. When a person becomes wrapped up in sin, others become expendable.

4. 2 Samuel 11:24 -- "Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall. Some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also." Many people needlessly died as part of the plot to cover up David's sins which, by law, warranted the death penalty for David. At this point, David made himself one of the greatest 'villains' of the Bible.

5. 2 Samuel 12:1 -- "And the LORD sent Nathan to David." God uses His messengers to communicate judgement. Nathan did not remain silent in the face of sin and, in fact, risked his life to confront David, the most powerful man in the nation who had already demonstrated his willingness to go to extremes to cover up his sin. What would you have done? How do you confront sin where you are?

6. 2 Samuel 12:2 -- "You are the man!" Perhaps no more powerful, more damning words were ever spoken to David. David often did the things expected of a godly, humble leader but from the wrong heart. However, Nathan has now exposed David's hidden hubris which has led David to tremendous, unthinkable sin. David's hubris was always there, and if you reexamine what we have read about David to date, you can trace the thread of this character flaw, this "fatal flaw," through many stories. Perhaps even Eliab had a sense of his younger brother David's pride when he rebuked him (seemingly unfairly) many years before – "Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, 'Why have you come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your presumption and the evil of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle.'" (1 Samuel 17:28, David and Goliath) Despite his moments of great faith, we have seen glimpses of David's pride, ambition, deceptiveness, sense of entitlement, and lack of self-control. David had a character flaw that grew over time, while simultaneously David grew more powerful, with fewer and fewer people holding him accountable -- a dangerous combination. Proverbs 18 says, "Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound judgment." (Proverbs 18:1) Perhaps, if David had remained in the company of people like Uriah and Nathan, he never would have sinned with Bathsheba. David had a weakness; so do you. Under what conditions are you most vulnerable to sin? Who is your Nathan? Who knows you well enough to see in you what you cannot or will not see in yourself, and who do you respect and trust enough to tell you the truth about yourself? Who have you placed in position to protect you against yourself? This person usually cannot be your spouse or a member of the opposite sex. This person should ideally be a senior mentor or trusted peer who shares your faith perspective, sees you perform your daily functions, and has the courage to speak candidly to you with the right mix of firmness and gentleness. Pray for a Nathan if you don't have one, and make a conscious effort to place protective barriers around yourself where you know you are weak.

7. 2 Samuel 12:3 -- "But the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb." David took Uriah's everything without blinking an eye. Bathsheba abandoned the one who loved her with his life. Shocking! Yet David and Bathsheba are in the genealogy of Jesus. In fact, Mathew 1:6 describes their roles in the genealogy this way – "And David was the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah." Bathsheba is not listed as the wife of David but rather Uriah! How are we to reconcile all this? As with all stories of the Bible, this story is a testimony to our total depravity and our total reliance on the grace of God. Take note that those who are often called "heroes" of the Bible fail greatly in their areas of strength. Abraham, known for his great faith, impregnated Hagar rather than waiting on God's promise. Moses, the humblest man of his time, lost his temper and sought to share glory with God at the rock. We will soon read that Solomon, the wisest man on earth, foolishly and permanently divided the kingdom. Courageous Peter will deny Jesus three times when confronted by a group of strangers. God will humble us in our pride and tear down our idols so we will understand our total reliance on Him and Him alone. If our hope is in our abilities, we have no hope at all. We must build our house on the rock of Jesus. "But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life." (Titus 3:4-7)

8. 2 Samuel 12:5, 6 -- "Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan, 'As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die, and he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.'" In the Name of The Lord, David imposed judgment on others he was not willing to impose upon himself. David's crimes deserved the death penalty, but he did not hold himself accountable to the same standard. The Lord's Prayer (which is really the disciple's prayer), says, "Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us." Do we not impart a curse upon ourselves when we don't show unmerited forgiveness and grace to others?

9. 2 Samuel 12:10 -- "Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife." No matter what David told himself about his sin. The truth was that he committed adultery because, in his heart, he really despised God. In his shocking sin, David had rejected the Almighty as Lord. The ripple effect of David's sin lasted for generations.

- Comments from Henry T. Blackaby on 2 Samuel 12:10 -- What is required for God to forgive sin? Repentance. But even repentance does not ensure the removal of the consequences of sin. The consequences often remain as a reminder of the terrible, destructive nature of sin. David was forgiven for his grievous sins of lust, adultery, robbery, and murder. God forgave him absolutely and removed his sin from him completely (Ps. 103:12). God did not, however, remove the pain that David would endure as a result of his transgressions. The child born of David's adultery died (2 Sam. 12:14). David's son Amnon raped David's daughter Tamar (2 Sam. 13:14). David's son Absalom murdered Amnon (2 Sam. 13:28-29). Absalom brought the kingdom into rebellion (2 Sam. 15). For the rest of David's reign, violence filled his home and his kingdom. Although David knew he was forgiven, he bore the painful consequences of his sin for the rest of his life. It is presumptuous to assume that God removes every consequence the moment you repent of your sin. Do not think that the instant you show remorse God will restore everything as it was. He may not. Some sins, such as adultery, come from a flawed character. God forgives sin immediately upon repentance, but it takes longer to build character. It is character, not forgiveness, that determines what God brings next to your life. Because we know the devastating consequences of our disobedience, let us diligently avoid every sin and "run with endurance the race that is set before us" (Heb. 12:1b).

10. 2 Samuel 12:11 -- "Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house. And I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.'" Throughout the Bible, God punishes by giving sinners a taste of their own medicine. What David did to Uriah secretly would now be done to David publicly. In fact, David's sin has been exposed and recorded for all eternity, which is why we are now reading about it.

11. 2 Samuel 12:13 -- "The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die." This is an example of "Amazing Grace" -- The Lord did not condemn David. However, grace did not free David from life-long punishment. Jesus was not done with David and would use discipline to sanctify Him. No one wants to be disciplined, but God's goal for us is not to comfort us but to draw us closer to Him. "My son, do not despise the Lord's discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the Lord reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights." (Proverbs 3:11, 12)

12. 2 Samuel 12:23 -- "Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me." There is no sense in lamenting the past. What is done is done. Be faithful with today, and trust God with the future. David knew he would see his son in the afterlife.

13. 2 Samuel 12:24 -- "Then David comforted his wife, Bathsheba, and went in to her and lay with her, and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him." David's sin did not detract from God's love for Solomon. Solomon was the child of adulterous parents, but that did not affect his relationship with God. It is not from where you came that matters; what matters is who you are with. With Jesus, you are a new creation. When He is with you, who can be against you? In Him, there is no condemnation.

14. 2 Samuel 12:28 -- "Now then gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called by my name." While David was wrapped up in personal issues, Joab was doing the work of the king. Slowly David was losing respect and credibility. A leadership void will be filled by someone, perhaps the wrong one. Leaders must lead. We are called to be leaders in love, to be the primary influencers in our environments for God's glory. If we don't lead people to Christ, someone else will lead them away from Christ.

15. 2 Samuel 12:28 -- David has allowed himself to become too dependent on Joab for his successes; this hindered David's willingness to hold Joab accountable later, which would eventually lead to the death of David's son. When you rely on someone else's strength, you promote your own weakness.

16. Proverbs 20:6 -- "Many a man proclaims his own steadfast love, but a faithful man who can find?" Truly faithful people are a very rare commodity.

17. Proverbs 20:11 -- "Even a child makes himself known by his acts, by whether his conduct is pure and upright." Our true character is eventually revealed by our habitual actions. What is in the well comes out in the bucket.

18. Proverbs 20:24 -- "A man's steps are from the Lord; how then can man understand his way?" Trust the path of your life to the LORD and focus on obedience

19. Psalm 59:7 -- "...for 'Who,' they think, 'will hear us?'" Sinners think they are getting away with something. Sometimes we think they are too. Check your perspective.

20. Psalm 59:9 -- "...you, O God, are my fortress." When God is your fortress, what worries should you have? Who can threaten you?

21. Psalm 59:11 -- "Kill them not, lest my people forget; make them totter by your power and bring them down, O Lord, our shield!" David's sins deserved death, and God could have delivered it, but God made an example of David that His people would never forget; and God used David to reveal the greater truth of His grace.

22. Psalm 60:11 -- "Vain is the salvation of man!" There is no strength, no peace, no success, no hope apart from God. Many people are striving today to create their own heaven on earth and to achieve their own salvation from sorrow, pain and death. They come to no lower point in life than when they eventually realize that they hoped in nothing. Salvation is only found in Jesus Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life. The Bible offers many practical steps to better living, but we must be very careful not to turn the Bible into a supernatural self-help book or to preach good advice to others rather than Jesus. The goal of the Bible is found in John 17 -- knowing Him and being one with Him. The goal is not comfort but rather Christ Himself.

23. Psalm 60:12 -- "With God we shall do valiantly; it is he who will tread down our foes." Victory is in the hands of The Lord.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 20 May: "God has spoken in his holiness...." Pray to God with your ears open. Prayer is a two-way conversation. Listen patiently for God's response to your prayers. Listening requires attentive silence. (Psalm 60:6-8).

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 19 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 9:8 -- "What is your servant, that you should show regard for a dead dog such as I?" The appropriate response to grace is humility.

2. Today in 2 Samuel 10, David sends a delegation to king Hanun to console him concerning the recent death of his father. Hanun, the young, inexperienced, poorly advised king of the Ammonites misinterprets David's gesture of kindness, believing it to be a trick, and responds by publicly humiliating and dishonoring David's envoys. The result is a pointless war between the Israelites, Ammonites and Syrians where over 40,000 people needlessly die. It is not at all hard to understand why Hanun acted the way he did: sending spies as envoys is a common tactic, and David's modus operandus included this sort of deception. Remember in 1 Samuel 27, king Achish trusted David while David was secretly massacring villages within his land, leaving "neither man nor woman alive to bring news to Gath." (1 Samuel 27:11) During the death of a king and the subsequent transition to new leadership, a kingdom is very vulnerable, and Hanun surely felt insecure and defensive. A wiser David would have recognized the sensitivity of the situation and would have dealt with Hanun more carefully; but David, rather than considering Hanun's perspective, assumed that Hanun would see things from his perspective, a big mistake we often make in our relationships. Hanun on the other hand reacted to David's poorly timed gesture rashly, likely due to his insecurity as a new king. Insecurity makes people defensive and often causes them to assume the worst in others. Insecurity can destroy relationships. Hanun did one of the worse things someone can do in a relationship, he belittled, embarrassed, humiliated and dishonored David and his men. He robbed them of their dignity. In this case, neither party had the maturity, self-confidence, or moral courage to seek forgiveness and reconciliation. It continued to escalate into great destruction. The first rule in relationships is to seek first to understand rather than be understood. We must be sensitive to the vulnerabilities and insecurities of others. If we have offended someone, we must quickly seek forgiveness, restitution and reconciliation, even if the other party is not wholly innocent. If we have been offended, we must quickly forgive and seek reconciliation. "If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all." (Romans 12:18) "Aim for restoration, comfort one another, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you." (2 Corinthians 13:11) Finally, we must NEVER dishonor or humiliate another person, but rather treat all people with dignity and respect.

3. 2 Samuel 10:5 -- "When it was told David, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, 'Remain at Jericho until your beards have grown and then return.'" Good leaders protect the dignity of others.

4. 2 Samuel 10:6, 7 -- "When the Ammonites saw that they had become a stench to David, the Ammonites sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zobah, 20,000 foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah with 1,000 men, and the men of Tob, 12,000 men. And when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the host of the mighty men." Misunderstandings can escalate into tremendous destruction. "The beginning of strife is like letting out water, so quit before the quarrel breaks out." (Proverbs 17:14)

5. 2 Samuel 10:9-15 -- Joab used the tactics of interior lines, forming a defensive circle in order to quickly maneuver within his interior to mass his forces against the more dispersed, thinner lines of his adversaries. He also exploited the weakness that forces of an alliance have in their inability to effectively reinforce one another. Much later in history, Napoleon would gain great success from implementation of these same tactics. Simply stated, Joab was good at what he did, and God used Joab's talents for God's purposes. God calls us to be excellent at whatever we put our hands to, and He will likewise use our talents for His purposes. When our talents bring us victories, make sure you give God all the glory. It is a terrible thing to try to share God's glory.

6. 2 Samuel 10:18 -- "David killed of the Syrians the men of 700 chariots, and 40,000 horsemen, and wounded Shobach the commander of their army, so that he died there." All this and much more because Hanun humiliated David's servants. Don't miss the lessons in this powerful story, which has been recorded in the bible for you -- "Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction." (1 Corinthians 10:11)

7. Proverbs 19:2 -- "Desire without knowledge is not good, and whoever makes haste with his feet misses his way." Think before you act.

8. Proverbs 19:3 -- "When a man's folly brings his way to ruin, his heart rages against the LORD." Don't blame God for your poor decisions and self-induced problems. Rather turn to God in repentance, and walk in obedience.

9. Proverbs 19:6, 7 -- "Many seek the favor of a generous man, and everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts. All a poor man's brothers hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him!" People often approach friendship selfishly, choosing friends based on what the friend can do for them. People often approach their relationship with God the same way. How would you be treated by your friends if you had nothing left to offer them (including emotional benefits)? How would you treat a friend who could no longer offer you anything, not even the benefit of encouragement? How much does the quality of your relationship with God depend upon His blessings upon you? If God removed the blessings, would you love Him just the same?

10. Proverbs 19:11 -- "Good sense makes one slow to anger, and it is his glory to overlook an offense." When offended, are you glorious or inglorious, sensible or senseless?

11. Proverbs 19:21 -- "Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the Lord that will stand." Such an important verse! Isaiah 55:8, 9 says, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts." The key to life success and fulfillment is to align our thoughts and ways with God's thoughts and ways, but contrary to popular secular humanist teachings which have crept into even much modern theology, we cannot do this on intellect alone. A better education won't do it. "The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned." (1 Corinthians 2:14) The key is to truly "know" Jesus, which was His final recorded prayer for us recorded in John 17 -- "'For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?' But we have the mind of Christ." (1 Corinthians 2:16) This is your goal in life. Know Jesus and make Him known.

12. Proverbs 19:21 -- Trust the LORD with all of your circumstances. Focus on walking in obedience and faith rather than worrying about what is going to happen next. Faith is trusting God now, enough to obey at the moment of decision; hope is trusting God with the future.

13. Proverbs 19:24 – “The sluggard buries his hand in the dish and will not even bring it back to his mouth.” Knowledge without action is worthless. True theology is not conceptual but rather applied. There may be much about the Bible you don’t understand, but if you apply what you do understand, you will have a tremendous impact on the world for God’s glory. Start with unconditional forgiving and giving and see what happens.

14. Psalm 58:3-6, 10 -- “Even from birth the wicked go astray, from the womb they are wayward and speak lies. Their venom is like the venom of a snake, like that of a cobra that has stopped its ears, that will not heed the tune of the charmer, however skillful the enchanter may be.... Break the teeth in their mouths, O God.... The righteous will be glad when they are avenged.” The Bible says that we are all born sinners, trapped in sin; in fact, dead in sin, powerless to escape sin and to have spiritual life. There is no human remedy to sin, and no amount of education or social engineering can solve our sin problem. Will power can’t overcome sin, nor can laws. Only God can free us from sin and give us spiritual life and salvation through His Son, Jesus Christ. We can only be saved by faith in Jesus Christ, not by any human action and not through any other religion. None of us deserved salvation, but God gave it freely, while we were still sinners. So, isn’t it ironic that while living in a state of grace, totally reliant on God’s mercy, we demand justice be imparted on those who have offended us or hurt us? We proclaim mercy while demanding personal justice – how can this be? When we start to mistake righteous through Christ for self-righteousness, we have a serious problem. Key to love, faithfulness, forgiveness and compassion is having a right perspective on the condition from which we have been saved and the love we have received from the God who saves us.

- “I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven – for she loved much. But he who has been forgiven little loves little (Luke 7:47).”

- “If anyone returns evil for good, evil will not depart from his house. The beginning of strife is like letting out water, so quit before the quarrel breaks out (Proverbs 17:13, 14).”

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 19 May: As you walk in the freedom and confidence of grace today, freely give grace to others today as an act of faith, gratitude, and worship. Deny self, take up your cross, and follow Jesus in spirit AND in truth. Practically apply your theology. Fully accept your life mission as Christ’s Ambassador and as His reconciler. It takes faith to freely forgive and freely give to others who don’t deserve it; it takes a humble spirit that appreciates having received the unmerited gift of eternal life through Jesus. As you respond to circumstances and to other people today, consider your perspective – who is Jesus really to you? How you respond reveals what you truly believe to be true.

DBRP - WEEK 20, Day 5, Friday, 18 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=2+sam+7%2C+8%3B+proverbs+18%3B+1+cor+12>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 18 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 7:3-5 -- "And Nathan said to the king, 'Go, do all that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you.' But that same night the word of the Lord came to Nathan, 'Go and tell my servant David, 'Thus says the Lord: Would you build me a house to dwell in?'" Nathan originally gave counsel to David based on what seemed right to him without actually asking God. However, God’s thoughts and ways are as far from our thoughts and ways as the heavens are from the earth. Our first response, based upon our own understanding, is often wrong. We need to be VERY careful to understand the difference between new revelation (extra-biblical revelation), Biblical revelation, human reasoning, intuition, and emotional (irrational) decision-making. By his own calculus, the prophet Nathan inappropriately advised David – “the Lord is with you.” God corrected him, and Nathan had to return to David with a different word. In fact, the Lord was not supportive of David’s intent to build the House of God. Though a genuine prophet, Nathan was speaking from his human perspective and reason. That’s ok as long as it is understood for what it is and not misrepresented as a word from God. Nathan knew that, in fact, God was generally “with” David, and Nathan was perhaps giving David general advice in lieu of specific direction from God. After all, Nathan did not say, “The Lord says....” However, Nathan’s first counsel, on no small matter, was presumptuous. Many today are far too careless speaking on behalf of God – “God told me....” or “God has revealed to me...,” when in fact they are speaking from their human perspective (hopefully at least informed by the Bible, prayer, and Christian counsel). Many self-proclaimed prophets and teachers announce new revelation from God that later proves to be false. This is why the Bible says, “Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world.” (1 John 4:1) How do you test the spirits? For one, follow the example of the Bereans who judged the merit of prophecy and teaching from the word of God – “Now these Jews were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so.” (Acts 17:11) God will not tell someone to do something that is contrary to God’s word. Second, consider the source by looking at the fruit of the life of the prophet or teacher. Those in the Bible who were appointed as apostles, prophets, and teachers were not self-appointed but rather appointed by God; were known for their holiness, humility, and love, and usually paid a heavy, heavy price for their position. Not a hint of pride should be found in them. Nathan was a true prophet; but not everything he said was prophetic. When God speaks; there is no doubt that it is God; God’s words will be very clear, and ALWAYS true. Most importantly, God’s revelation will never contradict His written revelation of the Bible.

- Jeremiah 27:15 -- I have not sent them, declares the Lord, but they are prophesying falsely in my name.

- Lamentations 2:14 -- Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive visions; they have not exposed your iniquity to restore your fortunes, but have seen for you oracles that are false and misleading.

- Ezekiel 13:9 -- My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions.

- Matthew 24:11 -- And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray.

2. 2 Samuel 7:7 – “...did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel.., saying, Why have you not built me a house of cedar?” David intended to do for God what God never desired from him. We can easily get wrapped up in activities, projects, or programs with good but misguided intentions. This is one of the reasons people are so harried and often burned out. “If only I had more time....” God has given you just enough time in the day to peacefully do what He intends for you to do, but no more. What are we doing that was never intended?

3. 2 Samuel 7:27-29 -- God’s promise of mercy and grace gives us courage to approach God in prayer and to count on His blessings forever.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Proverbs 18:1 – “Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound judgment.” Isolation is a form of self-centeredness. Our command to love demands a life of relationships. The evidence of how much we love God is primarily revealed in how much we love people. A Christian loner is an oxymoron.

5. Proverbs 18:2, 13 -- Wise people seek to truly understand another person’s point of view rather than just seeking to defend their own position.

6. Proverbs 18:6, 7 – “A fool’s lips walk into a fight, and his mouth invites a beating. A fool’s mouth is his ruin, and his lips are a snare to his soul.” A foolish mouth only gets you in trouble. Always consider your words very carefully. Why walk into a fight. Even still, how could you since you have been given by God the ministry of reconciliation and have been appointed by Him as His Ambassador? Consistently remind yourself, with each new encounter, that you have been crucified and no longer live, that you don’t represent yourself but rather Jesus, that as a follower of Jesus, you must deny self and take up your cross. Your goal for all conversations is that Christ be revealed and that the other party might be drawn, in some way, closer to Him.

7. Proverbs 18:9 -- “Whoever is slack in his work is a brother to him who destroys.” Everyone suffers when people don’t do their jobs well. Make no mistake, negligence is a sin. Before God gave Adam a helpmate, He gave Adam a job. Before sin, work was worship; it was productive and fruitful. After sin, work became burdensome, secular. God calls us to return to worshipful work that glorifies Him. Work is an act of love, providing the best, our best, to others. Be excellent in all you do, and in all you do, do it for His glory.

8. Proverbs 18:13 -- “If one gives an answer before he hears, it is his folly and shame.” Fools interrupt others while they are talking. If, while talking to someone, you find yourself calculating your next response while they are still talking, rather than listening fully and empathetically, you are also being foolish.

9. 1 Corinthians 12:3 – “No one can say ‘Jesus is Lord’ except in the Holy Spirit.” The truth of God can only be revealed by the Holy Spirit, human intellect cannot discern it.

10. 1 Corinthians 12:7 -- “To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.” Spiritual gifts are for the benefit of others, not for personal glory or gain. It is never about you.

11. 1 Corinthians 12:12 – “For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.” Our spirituality is intended by God to be communal, never intended to be administered independently from the body of believers.

12. 1 Corinthians 12:12 -- Body parts strewn about is just horrific gore. So is a divided, disconnected or unfeeling church. If a part of the body is injured and the rest of the body doesn’t react, that is a very sick body.

13. 1 Corinthians 12:18 -- “But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose.” God puts every person in a church for a specific purpose. Yes, even the ‘unmentionables,’ those annoying people who, in profane terms, might be called private parts of the body – “He’s a real” In fact, Paul says those people are essential to the body’s health and must be covered over in love, just as we do with the private parts of our human body. A church body can’t really learn to love without them.

Remember, part of what makes Christian love different than worldly love is that we love those who are hard to love, even enemies.

14. 1 Corinthians 12:14-20 -- God establishes unity in diversity. God created the universe -- a unity of diversity, many different things coming together in unity of purpose. People attend a university, providing many diverse, disparate classes in an organized curriculum for a complete, well-rounded education. The word universe combines two words – unity and diversity. People today like to talk about diversity in order to promote individualism (albeit a collective call to individualism); calls for greater diversity are often divisive. God calls for unity of diversity – university, or e pluribus unum – of many, one. When others proclaim diversity, you proclaim university. Read John 17 to see Jesus' prayer for us. Jesus' prayer for us was unity, but not unity around a political party, a nationalistic spirit, a social stratification, or any other concept, rather unity in Him.

15. 1 Corinthians 12:22-25 -- "On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it, that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another." As stated above, in popular culture, people who are hard to get along with are often profanely called names related to body parts which remain covered in modesty. God says these people are indispensable to your church and should be treated with special care. God uses these people to teach you how to love people who are hard to love. God calls you to bring out the best in them, to help them draw closer to Jesus. If you separate yourself from them, you will not mature as you should. Watch and see how your church treats these people. Help others understand the essential role these people play and the challenge to love them unconditionally.

16. 1 Corinthians 12:23-26 -- The body depends on the "unpresentable parts" to be healthy and to function as a body. A body that cannot feel the pain of all of its members is very seriously diseased.

17. 1 Corinthians 12:26 -- "If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together." A body that cannot feel the pain of its members has got a serious, life-threatening disease. If a church doesn't feel the pain of its members, that church is terminal.

18. 1 Corinthians 12:28 – "And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues." Administration is a spiritual gift, akin to working miracles. Miracle workers often receive honor from people, receiving their reward on earth; administrators often go unrecognized by people, receiving their reward in heaven.

19. Standby for the "Way of Love," presented by Paul tomorrow....

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 18 May: Today, endeavor to speak only the words God would have you speak. Do not give advice unless it is prayerfully considered and perfectly aligned with God's written word. Endeavor to speak only timely, uplifting words that promote peace, life, unity, and knowledge. (2 Samuel 7:3-5)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 17 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 5:10 -- "And David became greater and greater, for the LORD, the God of hosts, was with him." David was successful because the LORD enabled it. Success is in the hands of God.
2. 2 Samuel 5:12 -- "David knew that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel." It's not about you.
3. 2 Samuel 5:20 -- "The Lord has broken through my enemies before me like a breaking flood." David was successful while he was going to the LORD for instruction and following God's lead. God even gave David specific details as to how to be successful. (2 Samuel 5:17:25) During that time, David publicly gave God the credit for his successes.
4. 2 Samuel 6:5 -- "And David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before the Lord, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals." There was a great celebration, right up to the point where The Lord's anger kindled and He struck down Uzzah. True worship is not about great songs and much display; it is about a reverent, obedient heart.
5. 2 Samuel 6:6, 7 -- Uzzah assumed that his sinful hand was cleaner than the ground. He had no business being anywhere near the Ark, and he died "because of his error."
6. 2 Samuel 6:8 -- "And David was angry because the LORD had broken out against Uzzah." David was angry at God because God killed Uzzah, but ultimately it was David's fault as the leader. David set Uzzah up for failure. David led his men in flagrant violation of God's laws concerning the handling of the ark in accordance with the holiness of God. The Ark of the Covenant was most Holy, God's throne, and God was "above it" (Lev 16:2). The Ark was kept in the Most Holy Place in the temple where only the High Priest could enter, and only after much ceremonial cleansing. God gave very strict regulations for transporting the Ark. When the ark was moved, it was covered with at least 3 layers of cloth by the priests to protect others from seeing it (Num 4:5-6, 15, 18-20); the priests/Levites carried it and everyone else had to stay about a thousand yards away (Josh 3:4). These laws enforced the concept of God's holiness: sinful people couldn't be in his presence, not even the high priest. In his rush to receive the Ark, perhaps to reinforce his own power, David broke all of God's regulations. Following David's lead, Uzzah died from carelessly handling the Ark (1 Samuel 6:19). When God held Uzzah accountable for his complacency, David became angry with God rather than taking responsibility for his poor leadership. Perhaps, David did not know he was breaking God's commands concerning the Ark, but ignorance is no excuse for a leader. Bad leadership hurts others.
7. 2 Samuel 6:9 -- "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?" When your desire for God is all about "me" you miss the mark.
8. 2 Samuel 6:13, 14 -- "And when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six steps, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened animal. And David danced before the LORD with all his might. And David was wearing a linen ephod." All of this was unnecessary. All they had to do was obey the laws of Exodus 25. God desires obedience, not extravagant religious ceremony and sacrifice.

9. 2 Samuel 6:16-23 -- The marriage between Michal and David was never based on love and devotion. Michal had love for another and despised David. David's pride caused great pain. The relationship was never right.

10. 2 Samuel 6:20 -- "How the king of Israel honored himself today, uncovering himself today before the eyes of his servants' female servants, as one of the vulgar fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!" Michal knew David's prideful heart.

11. 2 Samuel 6:23 -- "And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death." Deep seated resentment destroys marriages.

12. Proverbs 17:1 -- "Better is a dry morsel with quiet than a house full of feasting with strife." God does not want us to work so much that we lose our joy or let stress affect our relationships.

13. Proverbs 17:3 -- "The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and the LORD tests hearts." God uses hard times to show you what you are really made of. He already knows.

14. Proverbs 17:9 -- "Whoever covers an offense seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates close friends." Love covers over offenses and seeks unity in Christ.

15. Proverbs 17:14 -- "The beginning of strife is like letting out water, so quit before the quarrel breaks out." In most cases, no one really wins an argument.

16. Proverbs 17:16 -- "Why should a fool have money in his hand to buy wisdom when he has no sense?" Wisdom is the key to success in life, not circumstances, resources, talents, or knowledge.

17. Proverbs 17:20 -- "A man of crooked heart does not discover good, and one with a dishonest tongue falls into calamity." A good life is cultivated by a good heart.

18. Proverbs 17:27, 28 -- Wise people are even-keeled and not easily angered.

19. 1 Corinthians 11:1 -- "Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ." We should be examples to others by imitating Christ, acting exactly like Jesus.

20. 1 Corinthians 11:2-16 -- Customs and courtesies are often helpful visual reminders and acts of respect for the system of social order established by God. They speak to positional authorities and responsibilities, not to personal worth or value. Many honorable captains have saluted less honorable majors out of respect for the position, despite the person. God commands us to honor our fathers and mothers, not because they are always right, but because their position demands it. God does not call us to be contentious against rules of social order. However, customs and courtesies must never supersede God's specific commands.

21. 1 Corinthians 11:3 -- "But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God." Jesus is just as much God as the Father and equally worthy of honor, praise, and worship; yet He remains subordinate to the Father positionally. Likewise, wives are called to subordinate to husbands, but are not any less valued or less used by God.

22. 1 Corinthians 11:10 -- "That is why a wife ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels." The Bible explains that marriage is intended to be a visible symbol/reminder/metaphor of the love relationship between Christ and the Church. (Eph 5) Head coverings were intended to be a part of that symbology.

23. 1 Corinthians 11:11 -- "Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not independent of man nor man of woman." Again, the man and woman are equally important and interdependent, though they have different roles and responsibilities ordained by God.

24. 1 Corinthians 11:17 -- "But in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse." In your relationships, are you making things better or worse? Are you reconciling or causing greater division?

25. 1 Corinthians 11:19 -- "...for there must be factions among you in order that those who are genuine among you may be recognized." Some division is inevitable due to sin, but Christians must be true to God while continually seeking, from a heart of love, to bring others closer to that truth, not allowing their own sinful behavior to stand in the way.

26. 1 Corinthians 11:22 -- "What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I commend you in this? No, I will not." In our worship, we should naturally be placing others ahead of ourselves, from the heart. Leaders of love do not have to be reminded to eat last.

27. 1 Corinthians 11:27-32 -- Jesus broke bread even with Judas, who he never kicked out of the group. Judas accepted the gift in an unworthy manner. We must continually offer peace and grace to sinners, regardless of what they do with it (which is their responsibility, not ours). We must continually search our own hearts to consider what we have done with God's grace.

28. 1 Corinthians 11:32 -- "But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world." The Lord disciplines His people in painful ways within His grace. Grace saves us but doesn't remove the demand for obedience of which we are still accountable.

29. 1 Corinthians 11:33 -- "So then, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another." Again, leaders eat last. Worship puts everyone else ahead of self.

30. 1 Corinthians 11:34 -- "...if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home—so that when you come together it will not be for judgment." If your heart is not right for the situation, best to remove yourself from the situation rather than add to your sin or misrepresent Christ before others. For example, when you start to become emotional during a disagreement, remain silent rather than say the wrong thing. Don't let your lack of self-control impact others in a negative way. As we continually partake in God's grace, we must always offer grace to others and put them over ourselves.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 17 May: Deny your rights, overlook insults, put sinners before yourself, and speak to others in a way that promotes healing and reconciliation, opening the way to the preaching of the gospel. Do this as an act of worship and in gratitude for the grace that you have received from God. Reference from today's readings: 1 Corinthians 11:34. Listen to others to truly understand them. Do not worry about making them understand you. Listen empathetically, seeking to promote love, unity, healing, and joy. Practice 1 Corinthians 13 love in your conversations today. Put everyone else ahead of yourself; submit to all authority, even if those in authority seem less mature than you (submission can be an act of leadership); obey God's commands. (1 Corinthians 11)

DBRP - WEEK 20, Day 3, Wednesday, 16 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 16 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 3:1 -- "There was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. And David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Saul became weaker and weaker." David was anointed king, but he did not become king overnight; success did not come quickly or easily for David. Even when he seemed close to his goal, obstacles seemed to always be in the way. His situation demanded faith and perseverance. God calls us to work for what He wills in our lives.
2. 2 Samuel 3:6,7 -- Ungodly ambitions are selfish, self-centered ambitions; therefore, others cannot ultimately trust an ungodly person. Sooner or later, "me" will win over "we."
3. 2 Samuel 3:6-11 -- Power struggles never end well and counter our mission of reconciliation.
4. 2 Samuel 3:6-11 -- Leaders who are inspired by selfish pride and ego will be divisive leaders, abusing their powers, overstepping their bounds, betraying trusts, and abusing others. Abner was not motivated by loyalty to the house of Saul (though that was his claim), he was motivated by a quest for personal power.
5. 2 Samuel 3:14-16 -- "Then David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, saying, 'Give me my wife Michal, for whom I paid the bridal price of a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.' And Ish-bosheth sent and took her from her husband Paltiel the son of Laish. But her husband went with her, weeping after her all the way to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, 'Go, return.' And he returned." David pursued his own rights without regard for the collateral damage inflicted upon others. David's actions were not motivated by love but rather by pride. He demanded his rights (which also served to legitimize his claim to the throne) at the expense of compassion and grace. David broke a man's heart to get what he wanted, and he never again had the respect of Michal, nor did Michal have respect for him. Much of the Christian life, is surrendering your rights for the sake of grace -- denying self, taking up the cross (accepting persecution for the sake of grace), and truly following the selfless, sacrificial example of Jesus.
6. 2 Samuel 3:18 -- Abner conveniently quoted from God's word when it suited his own desires. He knew God's word but ultimately did whatever he wanted to. Politicians often use God's word to rally support for their agendas, though they might have little desire to conform to God's word.
7. 2 Samuel 3:21 -- So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.... [Joab said] 'You know that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing.'" Joab made an assumption about the motives of Abner which was not based on fact but rather on his hatred for the man who killed his brother. Joab's counsel to his king was biased due to self-interest.
8. 2 Samuel 3:26-30 -- "Joab... sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Sirah. But David did not know about it." Joab acted upon his own self-interest, contradicting the king's desires and intent in order to fulfill his personal vendetta against Abner. David did nothing about Joab's insubordination, washing his hands of the whole affair. This is the beginning of a pattern of unchecked defiance which will eventually cost David his son.

9. 2 Samuel 3:29 -- "May it fall upon the head of Joab and upon all his father's house, and may the house of Joab never be without one who has a discharge or who is leprous or who holds a spindle or who falls by the sword or who lacks bread!" Despite his harsh words, David did not remove Joab as Commander of the army. He never really held him accountable. How often have you seen parents threaten and yell at their kids but never really discipline? How do those kids turn out?

10. 2 Samuel 3:36 -- "And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them, as everything that the king did pleased all the people." It appears that David's mourning may have merely been a show for the people.

11. 2 Samuel 3:39 -- "The Lord repay the evildoer according to his wickedness!" David declared Joab guilty of murder but did not punish Joab in accordance with the law. Essentially, Joab became above the law because of his value to David, a double standard was set counter to justice. David would later use that same double standard for himself, again defying justice. God is a just God. Justice belongs to God. To honor God, we must honor justice.

12. 2 Samuel 4 -- No one respects an opportunist or careerist.

13. 2 Samuel 4:1-6 -- When we partner with the ungodly, we set ourselves up for pain and destruction.

14. 2 Samuel 4:12 -- Again, David shows his double standard by executing the murderers of Saul's son after having washed his hands of Joab's crime.

15. Proverbs 16:1-3 -- "The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD. All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the spirit. Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established." If your plans aren't God's plans for your life, they are doomed to fail.

16. Proverbs 16:6 -- "By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil." The proof of your repentance is no longer desiring in your heart to continue in sin and by your changed behavior.

17. Proverbs 16:4 -- "The Lord has made everything for its purpose, even the wicked for the day of trouble." God has a plan for everything.

18. Proverbs 16:6 -- "By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the Lord one turns away from evil." The better our perspective of God, the easier it is to turn away from evil.

19. Proverbs 16:32 -- "Whoever is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city." The key to real strength is self-control.

20. Proverbs 16:33 -- "The lot is cast into the lap, but its every decision is from the LORD." Nothing is left to chance.

21. 1 Corinthians 10:4, 5 -- "For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness." Believing in God is not the same as following God, not the same as being a disciple. We are called to make disciples, not merely believers. James says that even the demons believe in God. Love of God naturally produces obedience to God. God is never pleased with disobedience and doesn't just accept it as ok. Grace is not a license to sin; it is the power to obey in love rather than in fear and obligation.

22. 1 Corinthians 10:6-22 -- "Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did.... We must not indulge in sexual immorality.... We must not put Christ to the test... nor grumble.... Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.... Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.... You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?" The entire Bible not only warns us to flee from sin but also reminds us that, through Christ, we are no longer slaves to sin. We like to make excuses for our sin and claim that we "can't help it" or "can't control ourselves." Some will even go so far as to proclaim that, "God understands." However, the Bible points out that there is no temptation to which we can't say "No." The problem is not that we can't say no to sin, it is that we really don't want to say no – we choose our desires over what God commands; this is idolatry (placing something ahead of God). The Bible warns us, not to avoid idolatry, but to "flee from idolatry." We must actively avoid all sin before it becomes tempting to us. We can't be in fellowship with the Lord and with sin at the same time. As Jesus said, "Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters (Luke 11:23)."

23. 1 Corinthians 10:7-10 -- All sins (defiance of God's will) from sexual immorality to grumbling, reveal rebellion in our hearts against the LORD-ship of God; they reveal a lack of love and render us guilty of the Greatest Commandment. This is idolatry, placing something ahead of God in our lives.

24. 1 Corinthians 10:11 -- "Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come." The Old Testament stories were recorded for our instruction. Dig deep into the Old Testament (which was quoted by Jesus regularly), and learn all that God wants to reveal to you.

25. 1 Corinthians 10:13 -- "No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it." Again, your temptations are no greater than those of others. You have the ability to resist if you want to.

26. 1 Corinthians 10:14-17 -- The blood of Christ SHOULD compel us to flee from all sin in our gratitude for the blessing bestowed upon us. It SHOULD compel us to likewise bless others.

27. 1 Corinthians 10:21, 22 -- We cannot love both God and the world. We cannot walk with God and continue to sin. Just as a married person cannot continue in sexual relations with others, the bride of Christ must be set apart as holy.

28. 1 Corinthians 10:23 -- "'All things are lawful,' but not all things are helpful. 'All things are lawful,' but not all things build up." You can act within the bounds of the law concerning a matter and still be immoral by doing "legal" things that will hurt others. In this case, you would be breaking the ultimate law of love. We must consider how our actions hurt others. We must remain on the mission of reconciliation.

29. 1 Corinthians 10:24 -- "Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor." We are called to do the most good for the most people, not what is best for us.

30. 1 Corinthians 10:32, 33 -- "Give no offense.... please everyone.... not seeking [your] own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved." Don't let your behavior stand in the way of the message of Christ. Beyond our actions, our motive must always be love. Doing the right things with the wrong motives is sin for you.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 16 May: Today, take time to truly consider the motives behind your actions. Were you motivated by fear, hope for reward, a sense of obligation, or by the greatest motivation of genuine, unconditional love? God calls us to be motivated by love, not just duty, and definitely not fear, pride, or greed. (1 Corinthians 10:31-33) Deny self, proclaim Christ. (1 Corinthians 10:24-33) Journal how many times you resist the temptation to defend yourself and how many times you proclaim "Jesus Christ" to others.

DBRP - WEEK 20, Day 2, Tuesday, 15 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 15 May 18:

1. 2 Samuel 1:1-16 -- The Amalekite's story differed than the account given in 1 Samuel. The Amalekite was merely an opportunist. He was driven by greed. Unfortunately for him, he misjudged David's motives and intent by projecting his own selfish motives upon David.

2. 2 Samuel 1:17-27 -- David did not rejoice but rather lamented over the death of his adversary.

3. 2 Samuel 2:1 -- "After this David inquired of the Lord, 'Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?' And the Lord said to him, 'Go up.' David said, 'To which shall I go up?' And he said, 'To Hebron.'" David didn't just do what seemed right to him; he waited for the Lord's specific guidance and direction. When David waits on the Lord's direction, he does well; when he trusts in his own understanding, he does poorly.

4. 2 Samuel 2:8 -- "But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, took Ish-bosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim." Ish-bosheth took matters into his own hands and only caused divisions. His plan was contrary to God's and ultimately futile.

5. 2 Samuel 2:8, 9 -- When God calls you to a task, He does not necessarily remove all the obstacles or opposition.

6. 2 Samuel 2:20-27 -- Meaningless quarrels can quickly get out of hand and cause irreversible pain, suffering, and enmity.

7. 2 Samuel 2:22 -- "Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I lift up my face to your brother Joab?" Pride and anger cause dangerous divisions between people who know each other very well, and they work against God's mission of reconciliation. If only Abner and Asahel had been obedient to God's command of forgiveness and reconciliation, healing and peace would have spread to many.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. 2 Samuel 2:26 -- "Then Abner called to Joab, 'Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that the end will be bitter? How long will it be before you tell your people to turn from the pursuit of their brothers?'" Abner wanted peace.

9. Proverbs 15:1 -- "A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger." A mark of wisdom is tact.

10. Proverbs 15:8 -- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, but the prayer of the upright is acceptable to him." God looks at the heart or motive behind the action. God is not impressed with empty or self-centered ceremony.

11. Proverbs 15:8-12, 25, 26, 33 -- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright is acceptable to him. The way of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but he loves him who pursues righteousness. There is severe discipline for him who forsakes the way; whoever hates reproof will die. Sheol and Abaddon lie open before the Lord; how much more the hearts of the children of man! A scoffer does not like to be reproved; he will not go to the wise.... The Lord tears down the house of the proud.... The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord.... Whoever ignores instruction despises himself, but he who listens to reproof gains intelligence.... The fear of the Lord is instruction in wisdom, and humility comes before honor." We cannot live in willful disobedience and expect God to honor our prayers and bless our lives. Rather, we can expect his harsh discipline. God despises even the thoughts of those who continue in unrepentant sin and act as if God doesn't really care. That person has made himself an enemy before God. God offers forgiveness and instruction; "whoever ignores instruction despises himself;" yet the proud will still blame God when consequences catch up to them. The trend in the church today is that "love" and "grace" are used as free passes for sin. However, what does the New Testament say?

- 1 Thessalonians 4:3-8 -- For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

- Hebrews 10:29 -- How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace?

- 1 Timothy 1:5 -- The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.

12. Proverbs 15:15, 16 -- "All the days of the afflicted are evil, but the cheerful of heart has a continual feast. Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble with it." Loving relationships with God and others is true life success.

13. Proverbs 15:33 -- "The fear of the Lord is instruction in wisdom, and humility comes before honor." The greatest leadership attributes are fear of the Lord, humility, love, and faithfulness.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

14. 1 Corinthians 9:12 -- "Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ." Paul did not demand his rights before others because he didn't want anything to detract from his preaching of the Gospel of Christ. He preferred to suffer maltreatment from others than to risk any conflict standing in the way of his message. Paul points out that self-control in our relationships and encounters with others takes great self-discipline, empowered by the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 9:25). Sometimes everything within us wants to "put people in their place," or "give them what for," but if we do, they may not hear another word we say. Are you willing to quietly and patiently suffer maltreatment from others, responding only with love and the Gospel message that you may glorify God? "Pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak (Matthew 26:41)." 1 Corinthians 9:13 -- "Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ." We are called to surrender our rights for sake of the Gospel.

15. 1 Corinthians 9:16 -- "Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!" Do you say this? Woe to Christians who do not preach the gospel.

16. 1 Corinthians 9:18 -- "What then is my reward? That in my preaching I may present the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel." Preach the Gospel without regard for any reward or credit. Remove self from the conversation. Take yourself out of the picture. It has nothing to do with you, only Jesus. Don't make a name for yourself through the Gospel. Just Jesus.

17. 1 Corinthians 9:24 -- "Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it." Keep your eyes fixed on the prize of Jesus. Running is hard; it takes every bit of your effort, sometimes you feel like you can't go any further, but you must keep pressing forward with all your might. You must run your best race, not getting distracted by the other runners, no comparison. When you are winning the race, you are often running alone. Don't be surprised if there are not many people who are willing or able to run with you. Find a running partner who can push you to new levels.

18. 1 Corinthians 9:25-27 -- "Every athlete exercises self-control in all things.... But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified." Self-control and discipline are key attributes of a disciple. It takes incredible self-control not to respond to abuse from others. Again, don't stand up for yourself. Read Galatians 6:1-3. Deny self; take up your personal cross of abuse, and follow the lead of Jesus through personal adversity as you love sinners unconditionally.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 15 May: Show shocking love by not defending yourself against maltreatment and by responding to evil with good. Do this as an act of worship and as a testimony to others for the Gospel. Think nothing of yourself, but preach the Gospel. Have the strength, courage, and faith to trust God to restore what is denied you by others. Don't let an issue of maltreatment stand in the way or be a distraction from the Gospel. Remember, when you defend yourself, you make yourself and the issue the center of attention rather than Jesus. Deny yourself and take up your cross in that situation, and bear the burden of the offense against you as a gift to God and as an act of fellowship with Jesus who suffered and died on the Cross for you (1 Corinthians 9:15-27).

DBRP - WEEK 20, Day 1, Monday, 14 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+sam+29-31%3B+proverbs+14%3B+1+cor+8>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 14 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 29:9 -- "And Achish answered David and said, 'I know that you are as blameless in my sight as an angel of God'." In his deceitfulness, David misrepresented God before an unbeliever. Tragic.
2. 1 Samuel 30:3 -- "And when David and his men came to the city, they found it burned with fire, and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive." God showed mercy on David who had been pillaging Amalekite villages.
3. 1 Samuel 30:8 -- "David inquired of the Lord." Only in a completely helpless situation did David again inquire of the LORD. God intends for us to always live by Revelation which guides us beyond our human knowledge to reveal God's will. It is impossible for us to determine the will of God strictly from our own intellect.
4. 1 Samuel 30:23 -- "You shall not do so, my brothers, with what the Lord has given us." Those who have received grace from God must, in turn, bestow grace upon others.
5. 1 Samuel 31:11-13 -- There remains a valiant few who will not do what the ungodly desire.
6. Proverbs 14:2 -- "Whoever walks in uprightness fears the Lord, but he who is devious in his ways despises him." How we live our lives reveals what we really think about God.
7. Proverbs 14:4 -- "Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean, but abundant crops come by the strength of the ox." If you are going to get anything done, you are going to have to be willing to get your hands dirty. You have to break a few eggs to make an omelet.
8. Proverbs 14:5 -- "A faithful witness does not lie, but a false witness breathes out lies." Liars lie as easily as breathing. Like the old saying goes, "I know he is lying because his lips are moving." You cannot trust a deceiver.
9. Proverbs 14:9 -- "Fools mock at the guilt offering, but the upright enjoy acceptance." Wise people seek to make restitution when they have offended others.
10. Proverbs 14:10 -- "The heart knows its own bitterness, and no stranger shares its joy." Everyone around you is going through challenges you know nothing about. Show them grace.
11. Proverbs 14:12 -- "There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death." If we rely on our own understanding rather than Divine revelation, we will surely fail. You must rely on the wisdom of God.
12. Proverbs 14:16 -- "One who is wise is cautious and turns away from evil, but a fool is reckless and careless." Christians are cautious, not reckless or careless, in their thoughts, words, and actions.
13. Proverbs 14:16, 17 -- "The simple believes everything, but the prudent gives thought to his steps. One who is wise is cautious and turns away from evil, but a fool is reckless and careless." The world is wicked and full of deception. Many teachers proclaim godless lies, leading many astray. You need godly discernment grounded in Scripture and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Compare every philosophy, theory, policy, or opinion you hear today with the standard of God's word. Judge customs and traditions from the standard of God's word. Obey God's word over popular opinion.

14. Proverbs 14:17 -- "A man of quick temper acts foolishly." If you get emotional during a disagreement or when offended, keep your mouth shut, and walk away so that you don't say or do a regrettable thing.

15. Proverbs 14:21 -- "Whoever despises his neighbor is a sinner, but blessed is he who is generous to the poor." Whenever we fail to love or care for others, even our enemies, we are sinning.

16. Proverbs 14:23 -- "In all toil there is profit, but mere talk tends only to poverty." Afghans have a saying, "Talk doesn't make flowers grow." There is no substitute for hard work.

17. Proverbs 14:27 -- "The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, that one may turn away from the snares of death." Stay under the spout where the blessings are coming out.

18. Proverbs 14:28 -- "In a multitude of people is the glory of a king, but without people a prince is ruined." Life is about relationships. Leadership is all about influencing others.

19. Proverbs 14:31 -- "Whoever oppresses a poor man insults his Maker, but he who is generous to the needy honors him." The way we treat people who can do nothing for us reveals the quality and content of our love.

20. Proverbs 14:34 -- "Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." God judges nations that condone sin.

21. 1 Corinthians 8:2, 3 -- "If anyone imagines that he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. But if anyone loves God, he is known by God." We cannot even comprehend how much we don't understand and how completely dependent we are on the love of God.

22. 1 Corinthians 8:2, 3 -- "This 'knowledge' puffs up, but love builds up. If anyone imagines that he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. But if anyone loves God, he is known by God." We have a tendency to be prideful in our "knowledge," considering ourselves better than others. However, in love we lift up others ahead of ourselves. The more we grow in love, the closer we get to God and the deeper our true knowledge and understanding. Paul said he desired to know nothing but Christ, and he desired to proclaim nothing but Christ. Is there any knowledge more important than the knowledge of Christ? How are you investing in your learning? How are you sharing the knowledge you have of Him?

23. 1 Corinthians 8:13 -- "Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I will never eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble." The entire chapter of 1 Corinthians 8 deals with how our actions affect others, particularly weaker Christians. Two points jump out at me from this chapter. First, within the church in Corinth, there were apparently some who still believed that there really were other gods -- "Yet for us there is one God.... But some, through former association with idols, eat food as really offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled." Though believing that there is no other god but God is an essential truth, Paul urges the church to go out of their way to be considerate of others' weakness and lack of true understanding -- "'knowledge' puffs up, but love builds up.'" How many churches have you seen divide over far lesser issues than that? Second, Paul encourages the church not to eat meat that had been previously sacrificed to idols (likely very good meat) for the sake of those who still had a weakness with idols. I have heard these verses used most in discussions concerning alcohol -- "Should Christians in America drink alcohol knowing that we have such a problem with alcohol in our nation?" It is clear from the Bible that drinking alcohol is not, in isolation, a sin; only drinking in excess is a sin.

However, 1 Corinthians 8 puts a greater burden on the decision to drink or not to drink – When you exercise your freedom to drink, does it influence others who cannot handle the freedom to drink to be tempted into sin? Should we condone alcohol use in a society that has such a problem with alcohol? This is a highly debated topic within the church. From our readings today, I would say that if you have any doubt about the impact of your potential decision to drink, don't drink. What does it cost you? Just a little pleasure. This is a small price to pay for your weaker brother or sister. Conversely, should we be overly critical of the Christian who does drink? I think today's verses would also tell us, "No." I have seen Christians ostracize other Christians who drank socially (not in excess). This is not how the Bible teaches us to handle disputable matters -- "'knowledge' puffs up, but love builds up.'" With disputable matters, we should approach others "with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (Ephesians 4:2, 3)." With non-disputable matters, such as blasphemous teachings or unrepentant sexual sin, the church must hold firm.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 14 May: Be patient with those who are less spiritually mature than you, and seek to lead them (through example and through gentle counsel) to greater love, closer to Jesus. Be a leader in love who embodies fear of the Lord, humility, love, and faithfulness. When offended, take up your cross and fellowship with Jesus in that moment. Return nothing but good for evil. Speak the truth, but speak the truth in love, without defending yourself in any way. (1 Corinthians 8:13)

DBRP- WEEK 19, Day 7, Sunday, 13 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 13 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 27:1 -- "Then David said in his heart, 'Now I shall perish one day by the hand of Saul'." David lost hope and made a questionable choice. Our decision-making is affected by our M-E-P-S strength – Mental, Emotional, Physical, and Spiritual. David was likely mentally, emotionally, and physically exhausted which affected him spiritually. We must be careful about decisions we make when we are weak mentally, emotionally, or physically. We must rely more on our spiritual strength which is cultivated over time (before you need it) through daily, genuine relationship with Jesus.

2. 1 Samuel 27:5-7 -- Relying in his own wisdom and strength (which seemed to work), David entangled himself in relationships with the ungodly. This reminds me of when Abraham went back to Egypt.

3. 1 Samuel 27:10 -- "When Achish asked, 'Where have you made a raid today?' David would say, 'Against the Negeb of Judah,' or, 'Against the Negeb of the Jerahmeelites,' or, 'Against the Negeb of the Kenites.'" Deception is an acceptable part of warfare, but in this case, David was violating a personal trust of hospitality which was unrighteous.

4. 1 Samuel 27:12 -- Having turned to the ungodly for sanctuary, David lived a deceitful, bloody life, returning evil for good – "And Achish trusted David." Though these were the enemies of Israel, they entered into a relationship of trust with David, yet David reduced himself to their practices which had been used to victimize the Israelites for years.

5. 1 Samuel 28:6, 7 -- "And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets. Then Saul said to his servants, 'Seek out for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her.' And his servants said to him, 'Behold, there is a medium at En-dor.'"

- Under pressure, Saul would rather reject God to save his own skin than be faithful. Saul also showed that, deep down, he had no integrity. It is also interesting to note that his servants were aware of lawbreakers acting behind Saul's back and only told him now.

- Against God's Law (see verses below), Saul sought a medium because "the Lord did not answer him." This is the same reason people today turn to other sources rather than God for answers. For most people, it's not a medium they go to but rather world philosophies, other people, "common sense," etc. They go to others for answers rather than God because they have never heard or no longer hear the voice of God. However, Jesus said, "The sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.... I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me.... they will listen to my voice." (John 10:3-5, 14, 14-16) Do you clearly hear, recognize, understand, and obey the voice of the Good Shepherd, and are you able to discern between His voice and the voice of the thieves that seek to steal the sheep?

- The Bible explains why God did not answer Saul: "Because you did not obey the voice of the Lord.... the Lord has turned from you and become your enemy (28:18, 16)." His disobedience had separated him from God and hardened his heart. In his sin, not only could he not hear God, God had stopped talking with him. As Proverbs tell us, "Those of crooked heart are an abomination to the Lord, but those of blameless ways are his delight (Proverbs 11:20)." Of course, most people with a crooked heart, don't believe they have a crooked heart – "I'm a good person." As the old joke goes: "What do all prisoners have in common? They are all innocent." In their pride, some refuse to acknowledge their sin, to repent, and to repent and to walk by God's word in humble obedience. They accept the consequential silence from God as "reality" and turn to other forms of "knowledge" for answers. Often, they tell themselves that their imagination is the voice of God.

- The Apostles would rebuke this kind of "Christian" -- "Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame (1 Corinthians 15:34).... For God, who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ (2 Corinthians 4:6).... destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ (2 Corinthians 10:5).... know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God (Ephesians 3:9)...., the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge (Colossians 2:2, 3).... come to the knowledge of the truth (1 Timothy 2:4).... Avoid the irreverent babble and contradictions of what is falsely called 'knowledge (1 Timothy 6:20)'.... "If we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins (Hebrews 10:26).... make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to confirm your calling and election, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ (1 Peter 1:5-11).... For if, after [you] have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, [you] are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first (2 Peter 2:20).... But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all have knowledge (1 John 1:20)."

- From today's readings, consider how different David's life and testimony is from Saul's: "This I know, that God is for me. In God, whose word I praise, in the Lord, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can man do to me? I must perform my vows to you, O God; I will render thank offerings to you. For you have delivered my soul from death, yes, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of life (Psalm 56:9-13). Despite his circumstances, David lived life in confidence knowing that God was "for him" because David praised the word of God and kept his vows before God. He gave thanks to God and "walked before God." Are you walking before God or men? Saul did not desire God but only the blessings of God. Saul's religion was all about Saul. God does not relate to us that way. Saul revealed his true heart when he didn't get what he wanted from God – he turned to a medium (forbidden by God) to get what he wanted. To do this he had to counter his own orders to Israel and completely compromise his personal integrity. When pressed in a corner, Saul revealed the truth of his character.

- If you want to hear from God, you must be careful to obey His written word which He has freely provided and which is not hard to understand. Don't look for a special revelation when you have ignored His general revelation.

- Leviticus 19:31 -- Do not turn to mediums or necromancers; do not seek them out, and so make yourselves unclean by them: I am the Lord your God.

- Leviticus 20:6 -- If a person turns to mediums and necromancers, whoring after them, I will set my face against that person and will cut him off from among his people.

- Leviticus 20:27 -- A man or a woman who is a medium or a necromancer shall surely be put to death. They shall be stoned with stones; their blood shall be upon them.

- Isaiah 8:19 -- And when they say to you, "Inquire of the mediums and the necromancers who chirp and mutter," should not a people inquire of their God? Should they inquire of the dead on behalf of the living?

6. 1 Samuel 28:10 -- "But Saul swore to her by the LORD, 'As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing.'" Saul made oaths in God's name while disobeying God.

7. 1 Samuel 28:16 -- "Why then do you ask me, since the Lord has turned from you and become your enemy?" When we disobey God, we are working against Him like an enemy. God, of course, will never bless that, no matter how 'sincere' we are in our desires and requests. God must be honored as God when we approach Him. In this case, Saul's fate was already determined. There was no escaping the consequences.

8. 1 Samuel 28:14 -- "And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and paid homage." Many commentators suggest that this was not really Samuel. The verse seems clear that it was. You decide.

9. Proverbs 13:4 -- "The soul of the sluggard craves and gets nothing, while the soul of the diligent is richly supplied." Dreams are not plans; plans are not actions. Nothing happens without a plan well executed. This is true in our spiritual development as well. Discipleship requires daily discipline.

10. Proverbs 13:7 -- "One pretends to be rich, yet has nothing; another pretends to be poor, yet has great wealth." It is not what you say you are that matters or what others think you are but rather what you really are, what you are in the dark, what you are in your heart.

11. Proverbs 13:8 -- "The ransom of a man's life is his wealth, but a poor man hears no threat." Life is easy when you have nothing left to lose. Discipleship is easy when you have already been crucified with Christ and no longer live, when you have truly died of self.

12. Proverbs 13:11 -- "Wealth gained hastily will dwindle, but whoever gathers little by little will increase it." There are no shortcuts to the things that matter most in life. Everything that matters takes daily, persistent, hard work over a lifetime. This applies to discipleship too.

13. Proverbs 13:13 -- "Whoever despises the word brings destruction on himself, but he who reveres the commandment will be rewarded." Do you revere the word of God?

14. Proverbs 13:18, 20 -- "Poverty and disgrace come to him who ignores instruction, but whoever heeds reproof is honored.... Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm." Many verses in today's proverbs speak to the wisdom of accepting sound, godly counsel, and the foolishness of ignoring godly counsel and being influenced instead by the ungodly. How important is it to surround yourself with godly counsellors and friends?

15. Proverbs 13:22 -- "A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the sinner's wealth is laid up for the righteous." God expects his people to think generationally, long-term, not short term. Abraham was promised to be the father of many nations and to receive the Promised Land, but that promise was not fulfilled until generations after his death. A theme through the Bible is that God's plan is generational. We have the burden of responsibility to pass the teachings of the Gospel on to the next generation, training them to do the same.

16. Proverbs 13:24 -- "Whoever spares the rod hates his son, but he who loves him is diligent to discipline him." Love and discipline go together. External discipline prepares the way for internal discipline.

17. Proverbs 13:25 -- "The righteous has enough to satisfy his appetite, but the belly of the wicked suffers want." The righteous have enough because they are satisfied with God's provision. The wicked are never satisfied, always wanting more because they are ruled by uncontrolled appetites.

18. Psalm 56:2 -- "...my enemies trample on me all day long, for many attack me proudly. Attacks are motivated by pride.

19. Psalm 56:3, 4 -- "When I am afraid, I put my trust in you. In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me?" The remedy for fear is trust in God. Fear is a trust problem, a faith problem. "Do not be afraid," is a command often repeated in the Bible. It is a command because, in our lack of faith, we must be reminded to practice trust, to do it even when we don't feel it. The more we do it, the more we will start feeling it. These verses tell us that an important process to learning to trust and no longer fear is to 'praise God's word.' It is very difficult to become fearless without impassioned Bible study. Put on the full armor of God BEFORE you begin the day's battle; praise God (even if you don't completely feel like rejoicing) for the truths you read in God's word and trust in them. What does "rejoice" mean? It means, essentially, to 'joy' again. When you feel doubtful or down, re-joy – praise God and be filled with joy, despite your apparent circumstances. Focus on the love and faithfulness of God and His promises for you. Obey the command to fear not. Don't allow yourself to be afraid or the worry. Replace your negative thoughts with the truth of Jesus. This is something you must decide to do.

20. Psalm 56:4 -- "In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me?" If you truly trust in God, you will not be worried. When you are worried, turn to Jesus. You won't trust someone you don't know very well. You can't know someone very well you haven't spent much time with and who you haven't seen to be trustworthy. Spend more time with Jesus and see His love and faithfulness in your life.

21. Psalm 56:8 – "You have kept count of my tossings; put my tears in your bottle. Are they not in your book?" God knows every bit of your sorrow, counting every tear you shed. The Psalmist is struggling with fear and doubt, and is reminding himself of God's perfect love and reliability. This is written as an example for us.

22. Psalm 56:10 -- "In God, whose word I praise, in the LORD, whose word I praise." How you feel about God's word reveals how you feel about God. A worn-out Bible usually belongs to someone who isn't.

23. Psalm 56:12 -- "I must perform my vows to you, O God; I will render thank offerings to you." Your level of obedience reveals your level of gratitude for Jesus' sacrifice for you.

24. Psalm 56:12 -- Fear is one of the biggest causes of sin. In your fear, remain obedient. In your obedience, God's fidelity will become more evident to you, you will trust more, and fear less.

25. Psalm 56:12, 13 -- "I must perform my vows to you, O God; I will render thank offerings to you. For you have delivered my soul from death, yes, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of life." God loves you so much that He gave his only Son so that you would not perish but would have eternal life. How then should you live your life on earth?

26. Psalm 57:2, 3 -- "I cry out to God Most High, to God who fulfills his purpose for me. He will send from heaven and save me; he will put to shame him who tramples on me. Selah. God will send out his steadfast love and his faithfulness!" God will fulfill His purpose for you. Even your trials are part of God's plan for your life, though you cannot understand why while you are going through them. Mary and Martha could not understand why Jesus delayed in healing Lazarus and allowed him to die, but Jesus wanted to bring Mary, Martha, and Lazarus into a much deeper understanding of Him and relationship with Him; He wanted them to truly experience that He is the Resurrection and the Life. God always shows you perfect love and faithfulness, and you might have to go through your own fiery furnace or lion's den in order to truly see it.

28. Psalm 57:7 – "I will sing and make melody!" In the midst of trials, praise God!

29. Psalm 57:9 -- "I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praises to you among the nations." What you say to others about Jesus reveals what you really think about Him.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 13 May: Today, make the decision to trust God completely with your trials and challenges. Trust that God knows exactly what is going on in your life and is fulfilling His plan for you which is based on His perfect love for you. Praise God today. Do not worry about anything, but pray about everything. You have to decide to trust -- today is the day (Psalm 56, 57).

DBRP- WEEK 19, Day 6, Saturday, 12 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+sam+25%2C+26%3B+proverbs+12%3B+psalm+55>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 12 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 25:9-13 -- David displayed hospitality to a stranger but expected reciprocation. When insults were returned instead, David's pride (with perhaps a root of insecurity) caused him to lose control of his temper, bearing, and self-control. He reduced himself to Nabal's level. David originally demonstrated gracefulness. Now he was acting very ungraceful.

2. 1 Samuel 25:13 -- "And David said to his men, 'Every man strap on his sword!' And every man of them strapped on his sword. David also strapped on his sword. And about four hundred men went up after David, while two hundred remained with the baggage." Treated poorly, David, in pride, acted emotionally and rashly. God expects us to be bigger than that. In his prideful rage, David also incited others. Don't let hot-headed people drag you into their fights.

3. 1 Samuel 25:17 -- "...he is such a worthless man that one cannot speak to him." Nabal was considered a worthless man in part because he would not listen to the concerns, requests, or advice of others. He lacked emotional intelligence.

4. 1 Samuel 25:18 -- "Then Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves and two skins of wine and five sheep already prepared and five seahs of parched grain and a hundred clusters of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys." Abigail was a reconciler who protected others from their own foolish behavior.

5. 1 Samuel 25:21 -- "Now David had said, 'Surely in vain have I guarded all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him, and he has returned me evil for good.'" If you do good deeds only to seek a future reward, you will only experience frustration which may tempt you to sin.

6. 1 Samuel 25:22 -- "God do so to the enemies of David and more also, if by morning I leave so much as one male of all who belong to him." David made a rash vow to God in pride and arrogance. He revealed a flaw in his character that will hurt him later. We need to be able to not only identify the flaws in our character but to also have the strength to correct those flaws.

7. 1 Samuel 25:23-25 -- Abigail took responsibility for Nabal's failures and appears to have established a practice of protecting both Nabal and others from the consequences of Nabal's shortcomings. Abigail models loyalty to a weak leader. She is a protector.

8. 1 Samuel 25:23-31 -- Abigail tactfully points out to David that he is in danger of bloodguilt, and rather than speaking to God's punishment for bloodguilt, she speaks about the blessings God bestows upon the faithful, all while offering David a gift.

9. 1 Samuel 25:24 -- "On me alone, my lord, be the guilt. Please let your servant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your servant." See Gal 6:1, 2 -- Abigail showed Christ-like love by bearing the burden of her husband's sins.

10. 1 Samuel 25:28 -- "Please forgive the trespass of your servant." See the Lord's Prayer -- "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Doesn't 1 Samuel 25:28 sound a lot like the Lord's Prayer?

11. 1 Samuel 25:32 -- "And David said to Abigail, 'Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me!'" David recognized that his encounter with Abigail was not a coincidence but was orchestrated by God. One of the primary ways God works in your life is by arranging circumstances and encounters with others to affect His purpose and impact your life at just the right time in just the right way. Don't think that anything in your life is accidental. Keep your eyes open for what God is doing.

12. 1 Samuel 25:33 -- "Blessed be your discretion, and blessed be you, who have kept me this day from bloodguilt and from working salvation with my own hand!" We have recently read and commented much on the Bible's many commands to us concerning how we are to respond to insults and abuse: Remember Romans 12:14-19 -- "Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse.... Do not take revenge;" and Romans 15:1 -- "We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves." Today we read about the value of having and giving sound counsel when emotions could lead to sin. Abigail prevented David from acting emotionally, rashly and in a way he would have always regretted. Abigail was not only beautiful, she was discerning (The opposite of the woman described in Proverbs 11:22 from yesterday's readings). She was a peacemaker. Jesus said, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons (daughter in Abigail's case) of God (Matthew 5:9)." Are you an Abigail? Do you have an Abigail in your life?

13. 1 Samuel 25:36 -- "Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk." Nabal was a drinker -- no surprise.

14. 1 Samuel 25:39 -- "The LORD has returned the evil of Nabal on his own head." David did not need to defend himself and stand up for his rights. Neither do you.

15. 1 Samuel 26:8 -- "Then Abishai said to David, 'God has delivered your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore, please, let me strike him at once with the spear, right to the earth; and I will not have to strike him a second time!'" Henry T. Blackaby's comments on this verse: "You will sometimes be tempted to take shortcuts to your destinations in life. David faced this temptation numerous times before he finally assumed the throne. Samuel, God's prophet, had anointed David and prophesied that he would be the next king of Israel (1 Sam. 16:12-13). Yet, while David waited on God's timing, he watched in frustration as a crazed King Saul brought the kingdom into jeopardy. Saul pursued David to murder him, forcing David to flee for his life. Then an incredible opportunity presented itself to David. David found Saul in a vulnerable position, sleeping with his army. Abishai, one of David's warriors, offered to kill Saul. It seemed to make perfect sense. Saul had tried to kill David on numerous occasions. God had said He intended for David to be the king. By taking matters into his own hands, David could bring an end to his exile and assume the throne as God's anointed servant. Yet he refused to compromise his integrity in order to become king, even though he wanted the position and it was rightfully his. Accomplishing God's will in any manner other than the way God prescribed was unthinkable. At times you may face similar temptations. Well-meaning friends advise you to hasten God's will for you rather than waiting upon Him. You may be sorely tempted to take control of your situation, assuming the end will justify the means. These are the times when you must trust God's perfect timing. God may plan for you to attain a certain position or take a new direction, but the timing may not be right. Watch over your heart. Don't allow others to persuade you to compromise your integrity as you follow God's will."

16. 1 Samuel 26:12 – "No man saw it or knew it, nor did any awake, for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the Lord had fallen upon them." God enabled David's actions in a supernatural way which was not observable to men.

17. 1 Samuel 26:21 – "Then Saul said, 'I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Behold, I have acted foolishly, and have made a great mistake.'" Note once again in today's readings Saul's false repentance. True repentance, a changed heart, does not return to sin.

18. 1 Samuel 26:24 – "Behold, as your life was precious this day in my sight, so may my life be precious in the sight of the Lord, and may he deliver me out of all tribulation." David recognized the expectation to treat others with the same mercy and grace he desired from God.

19. Proverbs 12:9 – "Better to be lowly and have a servant than to play the great man and lack bread." What matters is what you really are, not what you say you are.

20. Proverbs 12:16 – "The vexation of a fool is known at once, but the prudent ignores an insult." It is wise to overlook an insult in order to preserve peace. As stated previously, it takes the power of the Holy Spirit to have this kind of wisdom.

21. Psalm 55:6-8 – "And I say, 'Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest; yes, I would wander far away; I would lodge in the wilderness; Selah. I would hurry to find a shelter from the raging wind and tempest.'" Running away from problems won't solve your problems; turning to God will.

22. Psalm 55:12-14 – "For it is not an enemy who taunts me— then I could bear it.... But it is you, a man, my equal, my companion, my familiar friend.... The closer someone is to you, the greater they can hurt you.

23. Psalm 55:22 – "Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved." Trust your burdens to the Lord.

24. Psalm 55:23 – "But you, O God, will cast them down into the pit of destruction; men of blood and treachery shall not live out half their days. But I will trust in you. Make the decision to trust in the Lord, regardless the circumstances."

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 11 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 23:10-13 -- "Then David said, 'O Lord, the God of Israel, your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city on my account. Will the men of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? O Lord, the God of Israel, please tell your servant.' And the Lord said, 'He will come down.' Then David said, 'Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?' And the Lord said, 'They will surrender you.' Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah, and they went wherever they could go." This passage reveals some very important principles for our lives: We cannot make good decisions simply from our limited perceptions and understanding. We must go to God for answers to our important questions, questions that only He can answer. God gives us a choice to obey Him or not. Either way, there are definite consequences. If we trust in ourselves and ignore the counsel of God, it will lead to destruction. David sought answers from God concerning what might happen in Keilah. God tells David that Saul will come down and the people of Keilah will surrender David into Saul's hands. So, David leaves and lives. First, if David hadn't consulted God, he would have been killed -- "He will come.... They will surrender you." Second, David's fate was not predetermined but depended upon His response to God's word. Had David not listened to God, he would have died. David had decisions to make. The Bible is clear that there is predestination (God has a plan that will happen), but there is debate about what exactly is predetermined. It would appear that God's predetermined plan accommodates our freedom to choose as well as the consequences of our choices. Some believe that concepts of "free will" challenge the Sovereignty of God. I believe that, in His Sovereignty, God has given us freedom to choose, and our choices have consequences which don't alter God's overall plan. When I tell my kids to take out the trash, they have choices to make. One way or another though, the trash is going to get taken out. Consider what Mordecai said to Esther as she struggled with her perilous decision to approach the king or not on behalf of the Jews: "If you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this (Esther 4:14)?" God's plan is at work. We must choose whether or not we will listen to Him, obey Him, and follow Him or go our own way and suffer the consequences. If we choose to be a part of God's plan, we have to listen to what He is telling us through Bible study and prayer. We then have to do what He says, one decision at a time, day-by-day.

2. 1 Samuel 23:17 -- "And he said to him, 'Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you. You shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you. Saul my father also knows this.'" No man can alter what God has intended. Even Saul knew his fate was inevitable though he continued to pursue David in futility. Don't blindly follow your own dream or plan in pride. You will have to choose between what you want and what God wants for you.

3. 1 Samuel 23:21 -- "And Saul said, 'May you be blessed by the Lord, for you have had compassion on me.'" Those who oppose the will of God will still claim that they are being blessed by God in their sin. Jesus said that we must worship both in spirit and in truth.

4. 1 Samuel 23:26, 27 -- "As Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them, a messenger came to Saul, saying, 'Hurry and come, for the Philistines have made a raid against the land.'" God can arrange circumstances to protect His servants.

5. 1 Samuel 24:1-7 -- Even fellow believers may encourage you to compromise your standards or take short cuts in order to accomplish goals or achieve success. However, true success always requires that the right things are done for the right reasons, in the right way, and at the right time. It takes great faith to wait on God's timing, and it takes the leading of the Spirit to know how to rightly apply knowledge. Knowledge rightly applied is wisdom. Wisdom can come only from God.

6. 1 Samuel 24:6 -- "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD's anointed, to put out my hand against him, seeing he is the LORD's anointed." David's desire to honor the things of God outweighed his desire to overcome his adversaries, at least at this point in His life.

7. 1 Samuel 24:12-15 -- Wait on the Lord to avenge you when you are wronged. Only return good for evil. Again, it takes great faith to wait on the Lord. Consider your suffering to be a gift of love and sacrifice to God and to the offender.

8. 1 Samuel 24:16-22 -- David's act of faith and mercy convicted Saul and changed Saul's heart.

9. Proverbs 11:15 -- "Whoever puts up security for a stranger will surely suffer harm, but he who hates striking hands in pledge is secure." Avoid needless commitments and entanglements.

10. Proverbs 11:3-5 -- The wicked destroy themselves.

11. Proverbs 11:20 -- "Those of crooked heart are an abomination to the Lord, but those of blameless ways are his delight." Blameless ways come from a pure heart.

12. Proverbs 11:23 -- "The desire of the righteous ends only in good, the expectation of the wicked in wrath." The righteous truly desire what is good. They have no need to be controlled by the law because they are controlled by their hearts.

13. Proverbs 11:25 -- "Whoever brings blessing will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered." God will bless us in accordance with how we bless others.

14. Proverbs 11:30 -- "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and whoever captures souls is wise." Righteous people change hearts and lives.

15. 1 Corinthians 7:5 -- "Do not deprive one another, except perhaps by agreement for a limited time, that you may devote yourselves to prayer; but then come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control." Satan tempts us by targeting our lack of self-control. Self-control is a spiritual gift that must be empowered by the Spirit. Pray for self-control.

16. 1 Corinthians 7:12-15 -- God expects us to take responsibility for our decisions and to keep our vows, regardless of the personal cost. It takes faith to believe that God will bring good out of a bad situation.

17. 1 Corinthians 7:17-24 -- Our circumstances are not what matter most but rather what we do in our circumstances, how we respond. We should focus on being faithful and obedient right where God has placed us and walk by faith knowing that God will direct our obedient path. We cannot control our circumstances, but we can control our decisions. Often God will test you with circumstances, not so He can see what is truly in your heart but so that you can see what is truly in your heart. Pay attention to your responses.

18. 1 Corinthians 7:21 -- "But if you can gain your freedom, avail yourself of the opportunity." Seek as much freedom as you can in life that you can more freely serve The Lord. However, don't use a lack of freedom as an excuse for disobedience.

19. 1 Corinthians 7:21, 24 -- "Were you a bondservant when called? Do not be concerned about it. (But if you can gain your freedom, avail yourself of the opportunity....) So, brothers, in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God." We tend to worry too much about our circumstances and not enough about how we are responding to our circumstances. We tend to worry too much about where we are and not enough about why we have been placed there by God. No matter where we find ourselves or how we got there, we are surrounded by opportunities to both glorify God and enjoy His presence. Whether in a palace or a prison, we can testify to the glory of God. The Lord has placed us in our current situations for His purposes. If we can improve our conditions, then that is great. However, we need to make the most of the opportunities God has placed in front of us today, where we are now. If we are not careful, we can become so concerned with what we don't have or where we wish we were, that we fail to appreciate what we do have right in front of us in the place where God wanted us all along. Consider the lives of people like Noah, Joseph, Moses, David, and the many other people we have read about who God used mightily. None of them would have chosen the paths down which God led them; but if they had chosen their own paths, they would not have developed the character and competence that made them so usable by God, nor would they have experienced the close relationships with God that they enjoyed. It is exciting to know the God has placed you in your current circumstances on purpose. Remain faithful with today, and see what develops for tomorrow.

20. 1 Corinthians 7:25-40 -- As a general rule, we should seek to remain as free of contractual obligations or debts as reasonably possible. We should maintain as much personal freedom as possible and avoid entanglements with the world. We should live life as simply as possible, avoiding the temptation to make things complicated and stressful. "Perfection is achieved not when there is nothing more to add, but when there is nothing left to take away." (Antoine de Saint-Exupery)

21. 1 Corinthians 7:39 -- "A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives." Marriage is permanent, whether you, the government, or anyone else says otherwise.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 11 May: Wait on the Lord to avenge you when you are wronged. Only return good for evil. Have the faith to wait on the Lord. Consider your suffering to be a gift of love and sacrifice to God and to the offender. (1 Sam 24:12-15) Also, consider what commitments you have made that only hinder your ability to serve The Lord to your fullest potential. Free yourself of those commitments where you can. Avoid new commitments that don't support your ability to serve The Lord. (1 Cor 7:21-24)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 10 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 21 -- David deceived Ahimelech, and it would later cost the priest his life. David did not have to lie to the Priest. We must be very careful to be transparent in all of our dealings and consider how our actions might impact others. Most of us are far more deceptive, day-to-day, than we realize. Living honestly and transparently can be very difficult at first, but it becomes liberating, and it places you in the fast lane for growth.

2. 1 Samuel 21:7, 22:18, 19 -- The Chief of Saul's herdsmen was an Edomite. There are more Bible passages pronouncing judgment on the Edomites than on any other nation. Only the Edomite was willing to slaughter the priests upon Saul's command. Saul turned to the ungodly to do what the godly wouldn't on His behalf.

3. 1 Samuel 22:2 -- "And everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was bitter in soul, gathered to him. And he became commander over them. And there were with him about four hundred men." This is a great verse on leadership. David turned outcasts and losers into mighty men. Leaders bring out the best in people.

4. 1 Samuel 22:8 -- "...all of you have conspired against me... No one discloses to me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse. None of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day." Saul was a narcissist who was full of self-pity and thought everyone was out to get him. Self-centered people tend to define reality on their own terms to justify themselves. They are usually complaining through the process and blame everyone else for their problems.

5. 1 Samuel 22:13-15 -- In pursuit of faithful David, Saul accused everyone else of infidelity and conspiring against him. Guilty people often project their own sins upon others -- liars call other people liars, racists accuse others as being racists, etc.

6. 1 Samuel 22:18, 19 -- Godless people have no respect for the things of God and show no mercy. God does not always save His people from persecution, but He always brings out a greater good in every situation for those called according to His purpose (Romans 8:28).

7. 1 Samuel 22:20 -- "But one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David." God preserves a witness to continue His work and His ways. This is reminiscent of what happened with Gideon's sons.

8. 1 Samuel 22:22, 23 -- "I have occasioned the death of all the persons of your father's house. Stay with me; do not be afraid, for he who seeks my life seeks your life. With me you shall be in safekeeping." David took the blame for the slaughter of the priests. David took responsibility for his actions and errors, not in the world's way where you say you're sorry and then walk away from the consequences, rather by owning up to the consequences and seeking reconciliation and restitution (as the Bible commands). David personally and publicly took responsibility for Abiathar's welfare. How many others would have placed the blame on Saul or Doeg and simply walked away? True leaders take responsibility for their actions. Unfortunately, David will show us later what happens when leaders don't.

9. Proverbs 10:3 -- "The Lord does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked." God will bless your obedience but not your disobedience.

10. Proverbs 10:4 -- God expects you to work hard.

11. Proverbs 10:4 -- "A slack hand causes poverty, but the hand of the diligent makes rich." Proverbs mostly provides principles, fundamental truths, rather than tactics or specifics on what to do in a given situation. With experience and with the leading of the Holy Spirit, we learn to apply the principles to our daily lives. One of my favorite Bible principles is the “Principle of the Farm”: success in life comes from regular disciplined, daily effort. A farmer cannot expect to reap a bumper crop by being lazy for three months and then “cramming” to catch up. Similarly, the greatest successes in life are built slowly and deliberately through focused, consistent, high-quality efforts on a daily basis. Success is built upon the most basic building block of time — the day. Success comes not from sudden, sporadic bursts of activity but through the cumulative effect of disciplined, daily effort. Today, it seems like many people want instant wealth, wisdom, health, and success. They want the rewards of life, but don’t really want to put forth the effort and creativity it actually takes to become successful. But the Bible will tell you that there are no shortcuts in life. The Principle of the Farm applies to our spiritual growth as well. For a time, Christians wore WWJD (What would Jesus Do) bracelets with good intentions, but this Christian fad too often reflected a “get rich quick” spiritual mentality that set many Christians up for failure and disappointment. The idea was, when a situation arose, the bracelet would remind the Christian to ask themselves, “What would Jesus do?”, and then the Christian, having been reminded, would then follow Jesus’ example in the situation. However, more often than not, when the Christian failed to do what Jesus would have done, they would only walk away disappointed and frustrated. What happened? Well, in part, they didn’t consider closely enough what Jesus actually did — he spent a lifetime in diligent study, prayer, and obedient application preparing for the moment — countless hours with early mornings and late nights, sitting at the feet of elders, memorizing Scriptures, praying, observing the world from God’s perspective, getting out and about walking with God, meditating (the Biblical way, not the Buddha way). As Gen Mattis said when asked how he knew what to do in a critical situation during Operation Enduring Freedom, “I spent 33 years preparing for that decision which took me 30 seconds to make.” Why is it that successful people are so decisive, able to make rapid and sound decisions? Because they come to the point of decision fully prepared. We, with good intentions, because of shallow teaching, can dress the part of a Christian but fail to behave like a Christian. I can learn to act just like a professional football player and buy all the gear; I can talk and walk like a professional football player, and I can hang out with professional football players, but that doesn’t make me ready for the Super Bowl. In my spiritual life, If I want to even earn a place on the bench, I have to train. I have to do the work of a true disciple. I have to study, pray, meditate, memorize, rehearse, practice, and get dirty through daily application. Discipleship is the watering hole where God selects His “Gideon’s army.” Today’s Proverbs readings say, “The wage of the righteous leads to life, the gain of the wicked to sin. Whoever heeds instruction is on the path to life (Proverbs 10:16, 17).” The payment for the righteous comes through daily diligence and discipline, heeding instruction (that comes from the Bible) while on the “path to life,” a journey that takes time. It is many inglorious days that leads to glorious moments. Take time this morning to consider what Jesus actually did to be ready for Satan’s temptations in the desert, the challenges of the Pharisees and the Sadducees, the woman at the well, the beggars, the adulterous woman, Pontius Pilate, the cross. What Would Jesus Do with each quiet morning and night when no one was around? Are you willing to do the work of a true disciple?

12. Proverbs 10:5 — “He who gathers in summer is a prudent son, but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who brings shame.” You will either face the daily pain of personal discipline or the ultimate pain of regret. At the moment of need, you cannot make up for what you didn’t invest in. You must build up over time for the inevitable “rainy day” whether it be in finances, health, relationships, etc.

13. Proverbs 10:7 – “The memory of the righteous is a blessing, but the name of the wicked will rot.” You will be remembered for your character more than for your talent, personality, wealth, intelligence, or personal achievements.

14. Proverbs 10:12 -- "Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all offenses." A loving person covers over offenses and promotes reconciliation and unity. Do you love? Then let go of that issue and focus on fixing the relationship.

15. Proverbs 10:25-30 -- Life is hard for everyone, but the Lord sustains His faithful people.

16. Proverbs 10:19-21, 31, 32 -- Everyone has something to say, but very few are worth listening to.

17. 1 Corinthians 6: 1, 4, 5, 7 -- “When one of you has a grievance against another, does he dare go to law before the unrighteous instead of the saints...? So if you have such cases, why do you lay them before those who have no standing in the church? I say this to your shame.... To have lawsuits at all with one another is already a defeat for you. Why not rather suffer wrong? Why not rather be defrauded?” Christians are not to take disputes between one another to the secular court system – this is shameful and defeats our witness before the world. It is better to suffer wrong and be defrauded than to defame the Church and the Name of Christ with public, worldly disputes. Matters between Christians are to be settled within the church by church leadership; but how often have you seen Christians actually adhere to this teaching? Today we even see entire church denominations suing each other in public, secular courts, surrendering their authority as “Priests” to unbelievers. And how often do we see Christians going to secular counselors to solve their problems instead of church leaders? What does this say about the condition of the church?

18. 1 Corinthians 6:1-8 – Once again, disputes between Christians should be handled within the church. If two people can’t resolve a problem, they are already displaying spiritual immaturity.

19. 1 Corinthians 6:7 -- "Why not rather suffer wrong? Why not rather be defrauded?" Love often demands that you accept unfair treatment without defending your rights.

20. 1 Corinthians 6:9, 10 -- "Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God." The saved Christian will still sin through the sanctification process but will not be inclined to sin or controlled by their former habits of sin.

21. 1 Corinthians 6:12-20 -- It is unthinkable that a Christian indwelt with the Holy Spirit would commit adultery, homosexuality or any other sexual abomination. We are called not to just avoid sexual immorality but to “flee” from it.

22. 1 Corinthians 6:18 -- "Flee from sexual immorality." Sexual sin is considered especially egregious and is greatly condemned, in stark contrast to the world's complacency.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 10 May: Settle personal disputes in private, and be willing to accept a wrong in order to keep the peace and to preserve dignity rather than allowing strife to hinder your witness. Forgive, particularly when it is undeserved. Keep the peace with those who mistreat you. Respond to badness with goodness; respond to curses with blessings; respond to hostility with graciousness. Do this with thanksgiving as an act of worship to God. (1 Cor 6:7) Also, give freely to those in need from the bounty of your blessings from God. Trust God enough to give without worry about your future provision. Reference from today's readings: "One gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want. Whoever brings blessing will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered." (Pro 11:24, 25)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 9 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 19:6 – “And Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan. Saul swore, ‘As the Lord lives, he shall not be put to death.’” With a selfish, self-centered person, a vow made before God is easily broken. In the end, the idol of self is worshipped by this person more than God is, regardless of how much the name of God is used to justify ungodly decision-making.
2. 1 Samuel 19:17 – “Saul said to Michal, ‘Why have you deceived me thus and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?’ And Michal answered Saul, ‘He said to me, ‘Let me go. Why should I kill you?’” There was no trust in Saul’s house between Saul and his children, and deception went both ways.
3. 1 Samuel 19:18-24 -- Saul had lost all respect for the “church” and was prepared to use force against it.
4. 1 Samuel 19:18-24 -- God can easily control the hearts and souls of men in order to protect His servants. If He doesn’t, then there is a reason.
5. 1 Samuel 20:1, 2, 8 -- In a love relationship with God, you are willing and eager to admit your faults and try to correct them.
6. 1 Samuel 20:3 – “But David vowed again, saying, ‘Your father knows well that I have found favor in your eyes, and he thinks, ‘Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.’ But truly, as the Lord lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death.’” The human way is to cover up bad news and try not to hurt the other person's feelings.
7. 1 Samuel 20:4 – “Then Jonathan said to David, ‘Whatever you say, I will do for you.’” A covenant love relationship with God makes you want to do whatever another person wants or needs.
8. 1 Samuel 20:17 – “And Jonathan made David swear again by his love for him, for he loved him as he loved his own soul.” A covenant love relationship means loving another as yourself.
9. 1 Samuel 20:22 -- “...for the Lord has sent you away.” Jonathan understood that all circumstances were orchestrated by God for His purposes; we are not merely victims of uncontrolled events.
10. 1 Samuel 20:23, 31 -- A love relationship with God extends to an unselfish love relationship with believers in which you are willing give up life's dreams to help the other.
11. 1 Samuel 20:34 – “And Jonathan rose from the table in fierce anger and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had disgraced him.” A love relationship for God's sake may disrupt family relationships.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

12. Proverbs 9:1, 2 – “Wisdom has built her house; she has hewn her seven pillars. She has slaughtered her beasts; she has mixed her wine; she has also set her table.” Wisdom is orderly, productive, and bountiful.

13. Proverbs 9:8, 9 – “Do not reprove a scoffer, or he will hate you; reprove a wise man, and he will love you. Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser.” God calls us to avoid needless arguments.

14. Proverbs 9:12 – “If you are wise, you are wise for yourself; if you scoff, you alone will bear it.” We will bear the consequences of our actions, whether good or bad. We reap what we sow.

15. Proverbs 9:17 -- “Stolen water is sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.” What we do in secret reveals who we really are, and the truth of who we really are will determine our destiny.

16. 1 Corinthians 5:1, 2 – “It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father’s wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you.” To tolerate or make light of sexual sin, something God abhors and has strictly forbidden, is the very highest form of arrogance.

17. 1 Corinthians 5:1-3 -- Paul was surprised by sexual immorality within the church and expected that there would be great grief and shame.

18. 1 Corinthians 5:3, 12 -- “I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing.... Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge?” Paul judged the behavior of other Christians and expected judgement to occur within the church. This is not the form of judgment that Jesus condemned, which judgment with spite. This was a judgment that challenged the behavior in hopes that the sinner would repent and be brought to reconciliation with God and with others.

19. 1 Corinthians 5:8 – “Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.” We must worship God in “truth” by obeying His commands.

20. 1 Corinthians 5:9-13 -- God expects us to hold other Christians to a standard of obedience, purity, and holiness.

21. 1 Corinthians 5:11 -- “I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one.... Purge the evil person from among you.” How many Christians do you know who practice this guidance? Do you?

22. 1 Corinthians 5:11-13 -- “But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. ‘Purge the evil person from among you.’” One of the reasons the Church in America has lost much of its influence is because it has lost its integrity. While Christians are to expect (not approve of or condone) sin from unbelievers, Christians are not to tolerate unrepentant sin from those who call themselves believers and claim to be Christ’s ambassadors. We are not even to associate with unrepentant Christians. The Bible offers clear guidance for the appropriate way to administer church admonishment and discipline, but it is practiced very, very rarely. "Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge?" The church today is very confused about how to respond to sin, hence the deafening silence from the church during this latest sexual revolution. As a result of our confusion and syncretism, the church has largely lost its holiness, its power, and its witness. The problems we have in society are a reflection of a church whose "light" has dimmed and whose "salt" has lost its saltiness. The incredible loss of power did not occur over night but rather occurred over decades as the church allowed sin to creep in, it has been an erosion. As Paul explains today, our response to sin within the church, with those who bear the name of Christ, is to be far different than our response to unbelievers who, by virtue of their unbelief, are trapped in sin. Through compromise, the church has lost its moral authority, and we now worship largely in a state of anarchy, lawlessness. Today, not only does the church ignore internal sin, it is now starting to legitimize it. We desperately need revival and renewal within the church. Jesus began his public ministry, not with the population of unbelievers but rather to the "lost sheep" within the church, and his message was "Repent." He called the believers to return to God's authority as KING. Yes, Jesus ate with the "tax collectors," but a close examination of those verses reveals that these were tax collectors who had repented and who were ready and willing to make restitution for the sins that they had committed. Having repented, now they needed discipleship – "teach them to obey all that I have commanded." Review the Great Commission: "And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age (Matthew 28:18-20)." Many churches today are preaching to "all nations," and baptizing, but they are not discipling – "teaching them to observe all that [God] has commanded." Many within the church are lamenting over the state of our nation, but we need to be lamenting over the state of the church. How does your church deal with sin from within the congregation?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 9 May: Before you blame others, consider how you might have contributed to the problem, and do whatever you can to correct the issue (1 Sam 20:1, 2, 8).

DBRP- WEEK 19, Day 2, Tuesday, 8 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 8 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 17, 18 -- "Then he took his staff in his hand and chose five smooth stones from the brook and put them in his shepherd's pouch." Some have questioned why David chose five stones to kill Goliath instead of just one -- does this suggest that David lacked the faith to believe God would kill Goliath with just one stone? In no way did David demonstrate a lack of faith, quite the contrary; David demonstrated a willingness and readiness to fight a long fight. David did not presume of God that He would give David an easy victory, though David trusted God with the victory. Also, David may have recognized that the battle wouldn't be won simply by defeating the first giant. Jumping ahead in our readings, 2 Samuel 21:22 tells the rest of the story: "These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants." What 1 Samuel doesn't reveal is that there were four other giants, family members of Goliath. Not only was David facing Goliath, but he knew that when he picked a fight with this giant, he was picking a fight with four others too. David knew that when he stood up to Goliath, his life would never be the same and that the fight to bring glory to God would never end. There was no turning back; David was all in. Are you willing to face the giants for God even if it means your life will never be the same?

2. 1 Samuel 17:28 -- "I know your presumption and the evil of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle." David's oldest brother may seem unfair in his judgement, demonstrating mere sibling rivalry; but perhaps he saw in David a dangerous pride that would come back to haunt David later in life. People often have a fatal flaw in life that, if not checked, may grow to be disastrous. Often individuals are blind to their own flaws which are very apparent to others. You cannot change what you cannot see or refuse to see in yourself. You cannot fix what you aren't willing to be honest about. Pray that God will humble your spirit enough to be truly introspective.

3. 1 Samuel 17:34-37 -- David's faith in God came from real-world experiences. Faith is strengthened when it is used and tested. The more you are willing to walk in faith, the more your faith will be validated and the more you will grow in faith. If you are not willing to step out in faith, you will stay right where you are.

4. 1 Samuel 17:37 -- "The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." God used life events to prepare David for this significant assignment. The challenge you are going through today is preparing you for greater things. Be faithful with today, and tomorrow will be a better day.

5. 1 Samuel 17:39 -- "I cannot go with these, for I have not tested them." You cannot serve God by trying to be something you are not, and what works for others may not be right for you. God has equipped you uniquely. Be who God created you to be, and do what God has called you to do in the unique way He has called you to do it. Often, when you are leading the race, you are running alone. Keep running in such a way as to win the prize.

6. 1 Samuel 17:42-44 -- Others will mock your faith.

7. 1 Samuel 17:46, 47 -- "I will give the dead bodies of the host of the Philistines this day to the birds of the air and to the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the LORD saves not with sword and spear. For the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hand." God wants the world to see His power, not yours. We must not attempt to share any glory with God.

8. 1 Samuel 17:46, 47 -- David's faith caused him to consider the outcome as already determined, a done deal, without doubt. This is true faith and hope. Faith is trusting God at the moment of decision; hope is trusting God with the future.

9. 1 Samuel 17:51, 52 -- The Philistines, who put their hope in a man, were morally defeated when their hope proved futile. In an instant they went from a mighty army to a panicked mob.

10. 1 Samuel 18:1 -- "As soon as he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul." Jonathan desperately sought the friendship of someone as fully committed to God as he. True friendship is united in the purpose of serving God wholeheartedly. Finding a friend who is like-minded with you in their faith is difficult; a friend like that is a great treasure. Marriage should be such a friendship.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

11. 1 Samuel 18:8, 9 -- "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed thousands, and what more can he have but the kingdom?" And Saul eyed David from that day on." Envy is highly destructive, divisive, and sinful. It was the envy of religious leaders that incited the mobs to seek the crucifixion of Jesus. Envy is hating someone because God gave them something He didn't give you. So, in reality, envy is a direct offense against God, the giver of gifts. When you envy others, you set yourself against God.

12. 1 Samuel 18:8, 9 -- Popularity contests test the character of those being compared.

13. 1 Samuel 18:12 -- "Saul was afraid of David because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul." People will fear you if you are a Spirit-filled Christian. The power of God in your life may threaten others.

14. 1 Samuel 18:14 -- Success comes from God.

15. 1 Samuel 18:25 -- "Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines." Enemies may use what appears to be blessings and gifts in an attempt to undermine you. Be wary of negotiations with unbelievers.

16. Proverbs 8:1-5 -- Wisdom cries out to all; the truth is self-evident; it reveals itself through very observable consequences revealed in the lives of countless people around us. But pride can blind and deafens us. Pride is foolishness. Humility is honorable and leads to life.

17. Proverbs 8:10,11 -- "Take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold, for wisdom is better than jewels, and all that you may desire cannot compare with her. Wisdom is our most precious asset in life."

18. Proverbs 8:13 -- "The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate." To love God is to hate evil. If you don't hate evil, you have a love problem.

19. Proverbs 8:22-31 -- When we walk in wisdom, we tap into the power of all Creation and open ourselves up for the blessings of the Creator.

20. Proverbs 8:35 -- "For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the Lord." Wisdom, with its foundation of the Fear of the Lord, is the key to life.

21. 1 Corinthians 4:1-5 -- "This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found faithful.... I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me. Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God." This is how we must see ourselves -- "as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God." We have a sacred calling and requirement -- that we "be found faithful." We must diligently critique ourselves, but not by just considering our behavior, we must search our hearts to understand the motivations behind our behavior, seeking to eliminate pride, fear, self-centeredness, and guilt that would cause us to do the "right" things for the wrong (fleshy) reasons. We should also remember that we remain poor judges of our own character, often deceiving ourselves, thinking higher of ourselves than we ought. Spirit-enabled humility is key, particularly when we begin feeling confident in our actions. We must also remember that if we are poor judges of our own character, we are far worse judges of the character of others. We cannot see another person's heart and cannot understand what motives are behind the other actions of others. Only God knows the heart. Until God discloses the purposes of the hearts of ourselves and others, we can only hold each other accountable to behavior from the measure of the word of God, but with humility and gentleness, recognizing that we all sin and fall short of the Glory God, and that we are saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. Strive relentless but humbly to be found worthy of your sacred calling, and be prepared to proclaim why the Good News is so "good."

22. 1 Corinthians 4:1, 2 -- We are stewards of truth. God expects us to be faithful in our responsibility to communicate God's truth. We do not do the convicting, He does. God expects you to be faithful with the Gospel message. Who has God used you to bring to Christ? Will you be faithful with the message today?

23. 1 Corinthians 4:4, 5 -- "Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God." Only God knows the motives of another person's heart, and it is God who will judge a person based upon the truth of that person's heart. Again, we can judge to outward actions of a person, but only God knows a person's heart and true motives. Many people do the right things for the wrong reasons. Many don't do the right things but still have a heart for God. Only God is the judge of the person.

24. 1 Corinthians 4:7 -- "What do you have that you did not receive? If then you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it?" Don't be impressed by your own intellect, talents, or abilities, and don't seek to impress others, rather proclaim Jesus and draw all attention away from self. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. We think that we have earned knowledge, and therefore, are tempted to get prideful in it. Love is received and given as a gift. Therefore, there is no boasting.

25. 1 Corinthians 4:11-12 -- "We are poorly dressed and buffeted and homeless, and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure." Who do you know that serves Jesus to this level? Do you?

26. 1 Corinthians 4:12, 13 -- When reviled, bless; when persecuted, endure; when slandered, entreat.

27. 1 Corinthians 4:15 -- Many churches are full of believers but few disciple makers. Again, how many people have become Christians because God used you to lead them to Christ? How many people are growing in Christ due to your direct teaching and coaching? Jesus spent three years walking day-by-day with 12 believers (focusing especially on three) in order to prepare them to serve Him with power. In whom are investing in this way?

28. 1 Corinthians 4:20 -- "For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power." Many people have Bible knowledge and can even parrot theology, but real faith is powerful and changes lives.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 8 May: When reviled, bless; when persecuted, endure; when slandered, entreat. (1 Corinthians 4:12, 13)

DBRP- WEEK 19, Day 1, Monday, 7 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+sam+15%2C+16%3B+proverbs+7%3B+1+cor+3>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 7 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 15:1-4 -- God reminds Saul from where Saul came and what God had done for him before God gives him the command to totally destroy the Amalekites. Don't lose perspective on who it is that commands you.
2. 1 Samuel 15:9 -- Saul and the people devoted to the Lord only gave what they didn't really care about but kept for themselves what they really valued. The best they saved for themselves. Have you ever seen Christians do that?
3. 1 Samuel 15:11 -- "I regret that I have made Saul king, for he has turned back from following me and has not performed my commandments." Following means obeying. Jesus told us to deny self, take up our cross, and "follow" Him. This requires obedience.
4. 1 Samuel 15:13 -- Saul set up a monument for himself, disobeyed God and yet had still convinced himself that he was godly -- "I have performed the commandment of the Lord." How often do people use religion in an attempt to validate their pride?
5. 1 Samuel 15:14 -- "What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears and the lowing of the oxen that I hear?" Having chosen his own desires over obedience, Saul still attempted to claim obedience and fidelity to God though his disobedience was plainly obvious.
6. 1 Samuel 15:15-16 -- "Saul said, 'They have brought them.... the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen to sacrifice to the LORD your God, and the rest we have devoted to destruction.' Then Samuel said to Saul, 'Stop!' Instead of humbly confessing His sins, Saul blamed other people and said his actions were for The Lord -- good intentions. Samuel couldn't listen to Saul's pathetic denial and deflections any longer.
7. 1 Samuel 15:20 -- Partial obedience is disobedience.
8. 1 Samuel 15:21 -- Like Adam, Aaron, and countless others, Saul blamed his disobedience on someone else -- "But the people took of the spoil...." No one can make you sin. You own it.
9. 1 Samuel 15:22, 23 -- "Has the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the Lord, he has also rejected you from being king." True worship is obedience to God's word, not just ceremony, displays of emotion or sacrifice. Disobedience is a rejection of God's Lordship and makes an idol of ourselves as we place our selfish desires over God's commands. Partial obedience is disobedience, and like Saul, we have a tendency to hold something back from God, often telling ourselves, "God is OK with it; he understands." As you consider your life and your fidelity to God can you hear the "bleating of the sheep... and the lowing of the oxen?" What sins have you been holding on to that you need to surrender this moment? "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel (Mark 1:15)."
- James 4:7 -- Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
10. 1 Samuel 15:23 -- "For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king."

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

We reject the word of The Lord when we make ourselves idols and serve ourselves instead of God. We might not practice witchcraft or worship statues, but the Bible says that rebellion and presumption are essentially the same thing, prioritizing something over the LORD.

11. 1 Samuel 15:24-28 -- There are basically three levels of motivation (from worse to best): fear/pride, duty, and love. We should always consider why we do what we do. Saul was motivated by fear. He disobeyed in fear, and he only obeyed in fear. God commands us to love and only accepts obedience which comes from love, not from fear, greed, or duty.

12. 1 Samuel 15:25 -- "Please pardon my sin." Being sorry and being repentant are not the same thing. A person can be sorry because they don't want to suffer the consequences of their sins without having a heart that is genuinely sorrowful for having sinned, regardless of consequences, and that earnestly desires to never sin again.

13. 1 Samuel 15:32, 33 -- The pain Agag's loved ones would feel due to his death was not Samuel's concern. Agag himself bore the burden of the consequences of his crimes even though those consequences would continue past his death. The consequences did not transfer to another.

14. 1 Samuel 16:1 -- We should not grieve over the Lord's decisions, His perfect will.

15. 1 Samuel 16:6-13 -- The Lord chooses who He desires and provides the Holy Spirit to whom He desires. We cannot know who God is calling and who He has rejected unless God reveals it.

16. 1 Samuel 16:7 -- "For the LORD sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart." The Lord does not look at what we display to others but rather what is really in our heart. God is looking for the faithful to lead his people, not just the talented.

17. 1 Samuel 16:18 -- "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a man of good presence, and the LORD is with him." David was very talented, but what set him apart was that The Lord was with him.

18. 1 Samuel 16:18 -- "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a man of good presence, and the Lord is with him." -- quite a resume. David was known to have not only competence but also character, someone who could be trusted.

19. 1 Samuel 16:21 -- "And David came to Saul and entered his service. And Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer." Again, God arranges circumstances to prepare His faithful servants to accomplish His purposes. With God's people, there are no coincidences.

20. Proverbs 7:6, 7 -- The truth is evidenced by the consequences of sin in the lives of those who reject the truth.

21. Proverbs 7:18 -- The sinful call lust love.

22. 1 Corinthians 3:1-3 -- You will either act spiritually or carnally (like an animal) in any given situation. Selfishness reduces you to the same motivators to which animals and infants respond.

23. 1 Corinthians 3:1-4 -- "But I, brothers, could not address you as spiritual people, but as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for it. And even now you are not yet ready, for you are still of the flesh. For while there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not of the flesh and behaving only in a human way?" God's word says, "Grow up!" An adult can't help but be an adult, but they can still act like a child. Certainly you have known adults who failed to mature in some area of their lives as expected of an adult and subsequently limited the effectiveness of their lives and robbed themselves of the fullness of life. Similarly, a Christian can't help but be spiritual but can act worldly, failing to mature in sanctification, and remaining an "infant in Christ," incapable of experiencing the life of an adult in Christ. We know that adults experience far more in life than children do. Are you living a full, mature, spiritual life, or are you letting worldliness get in the way? One of the easiest tests of your spiritual maturity is the quality of your relationships with others, particularly with those closest to you. If there is strife or separation, immaturity remains.

24. 1 Corinthians 3:2, 3 -- "And even now you are not yet ready, for you are still of the flesh. For while there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not of the flesh and behaving only in a human way?" The Corinthians were not maturing in their faith because they were still acting worldly.

25. 1 Corinthians 3:4 -- "For when one says, 'I follow Paul,' and another, 'I follow Apollos,' are you not being merely human?" You may say you are "naturally" impatient, cynical, or (insert negative trait here), but God works in the supernatural realm. We are not called by be "merely human."

26. 1 Corinthians 3:7 -- "Only God who gives the growth." We are but messengers of God's word. The Holy Spirit does all the convicting and convincing.

27. 1 Corinthians 3:10-15 -- Everything we do outside of genuine, selfless service for Jesus Christ, as a true disciple, is worthless. All that we do for self is meaningless, regardless of how much we say it was really for Jesus.

28. 1 Corinthians 3:19 -- "For the wisdom of this world is folly with God." Just obey and teach God's simple word. You don't need to be clever, just faithful.

29. 1 Corinthians 16:21 -- "So let no one boast in men." It is VERY tempting for Christians to focus on popular preachers and pastors more than Jesus, to proclaim their pastor's name more than Jesus, and to identify with a church rather than with Jesus. Don't tell people about your pastor; tell them about Jesus. Don't just invite people to your church, invite them to know Jesus.

30. 1 Corinthians 3:16-22 -- Don't build with the world's wisdom.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 7 May: Pay attention to your first responses to crisis, conflict, or strife. Do you at times think or act negatively and then say, "Well I am not really like that; I just got caught off guard." How you first respond is a better reflection of what is in your heart than your calculated response. C.S. Lewis said it this way: "When I come to my evening prayers and try to reckon up the sins of the day, nine times out of ten the most obvious one is some sin against charity; I have sulked or snapped or sneered or snubbed or stormed. And the excuse that immediately springs to my mind is that the provocation was so sudden and unexpected: I was caught off my guard, I had not time to collect myself. Now that may be an extenuating circumstance as regards those particular acts: they would obviously be worse if they had been deliberate and premeditated. On the other hand, surely what a man does when he is taken off his guard is the best evidence for what sort of a man he is? Surely what pops out before the man has time to put on a disguise is the truth? If there are rats in a cellar you are most likely to see them if you go in very suddenly. But the suddenness does not create the rats: it only prevents them from hiding. In the same way, the suddenness of the provocation does not make me an ill-tempered man: it only shows me what an ill-tempered man I am. The rats are always there in the cellar, but if you go in shouting and noisily they will have taken cover before you switch on the light." Pray that God will help you exterminate the rats that remain hidden in the dark. (1 Cor 3:4)

DBRP- WEEK 18, Day 6, Saturday, 5 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+sam+11%2C+12%3B+proverbs+5%3B+psalm+52>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 5 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 11:6 -- "And the Spirit of God rushed upon Saul." The world is full of leaders but very few Spirit-led leaders.
 2. 1 Samuel 11:6 -- "...and his anger was greatly kindled." Not all anger is bad. There is a righteous anger that stands against evil for God's glory and for the sake of others. Righteous anger is never motivated by selfishness or self-preservation. Righteous anger is not absent of love but rather inspired by love, love for God and love for others. Similarly, though we are accustomed to self-centered jealousy, there is a righteous jealousy that defends those we love from things we know will only lure them away from the path of love. Key to handling your emotions well is to understand the true source of the emotion or the "heart" behind to emotion. Is it truly selfless or selfish?
 3. 1 Samuel 11:12-13 -- "'Who is it that said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring the men, that we may put them to death.' But Saul said, 'Not a man shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has worked salvation in Israel.'" Saul began his reign showing mercy and grace and leading with a heart of reconciliation. He did not seek revenge or use the power plays most political leaders used. He sought to bring unity. Unfortunately, his heart will change over time. As you continue to read, see if you can identify what causes Saul's downfall after such a great start. The Bible has something to teach us all from the life of Saul.
 4. 1 Samuel 12:3, 4 -- "Here I am; testify against me before the Lord and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose donkey have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? Testify against me and I will restore it to you. They said, 'You have not defrauded us or oppressed us or taken anything from any man's hand.'" Samuel lived a blameless life with no debts and no secrets, always willing to confess his sins publicly and always willing to make full restitution. This is the sort of person God uses mightily. Samuel understood that the way he lived his life before others affected his ability to perform his primary mission as God's messenger. Samuel lived with such integrity, that he could confidently stand before everyone and challenge them to name a wrong he had committed. He also adhered to God's command to make restitution to anyone you have wronged (see Exodus 22, Leviticus 5, Numbers 5). The principle of restitution is something that has largely been forgotten in the modern church, but Proverbs 14:9 says only "fools mock at making restitution." To whom do you need to make restitution today?
- Of the two attributes of leadership, character and competence, character is of primary importance. Yet the world honors competence over character to its detriment. Originally, the people wanted a king who possessed the competencies they felt necessary to compete with the kings of their enemies. At first, they rejected Saul as king because he appeared unconfident and weak. However, after his victory in battle the people were quite anxious to accept Saul as king because he had proven himself competent.

However, Samuel emphasized from the beginning that it would be the character of the king that would make or break the nation. Therefore, as Samuel surrendered the primary leadership role to the new king, he asked: "Where have I done wrong?" Where have I not proven myself to be honorable and faithful?" There is a reason why the motto of the Marine Corps (an organization that prides itself on competence) is Semper Fidelis – Always Faithful, rather than always skilled. Character is primary.

5. 1 Samuel 12:14 -- "If you will fear the LORD and serve him and obey his voice and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, and if both you and the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God, it will be well." Following a human leader is only helpful if that leader is following Jesus. Better to follow Jesus than any human. Many ask whether a politician believes in the Bible or not. What matters is whether or not they are wholehearted disciples of Jesus. If not, they will lead people astray with a different 'gospel', a man-made path to 'salvation' that eventually leads only to destruction.

6. 1 Samuel 12:20 -- "Do not be afraid; you have done all this evil. Yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart." Don't worry about your past mistakes. Obey today!

7. 1 Samuel 12:21 -- "And do not turn aside after empty things that cannot profit or deliver, for they are empty." Nothing but the blood of Jesus.

8. 1 Samuel 12:23 -- "Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you, and I will instruct you in the good and the right way." Samuel prayed for sinful people and also instructed them – he prioritized prayer first. Many are ready to instruct, but few are willing to pray. When we instruct, we are tempted to think that our abilities will make the difference. Prayer acknowledges that it is the Spirit that must affect the change.

9. 1 Samuel 12:24 -- "Only fear the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart. For consider what great things he has done for you." When you truly appreciate Jesus, you have a heart to follow Him regardless of circumstances. Serve God wholeheartedly today, one thought, one word, one decision at a time. At the end of each hour, take a moment to consider how you did through that hour, and note your trends. Each hour, take a moment to listen to your Coach, the Holy Spirit. Pray for God's strength to grow you in faithfulness.

10. Proverbs 5:1-6 -- Wisdom enables discretion which gives us the self-control to resist the temptation for instant gratification now in order to preserve our greatest possible future. Wisdom is never short-sighted but rather can see the long-term implications of even the smallest decisions.

11. Proverbs 5:11, 12 – "...and at the end of your life you groan, when your flesh and body are consumed, and you say, 'How I hated discipline, and my heart despised reproof!'" You will either suffer the pain of discipline (self-control) now, or the pain of regret later.

12. Proverbs 5:22, 23 – "The iniquities of the wicked ensnare him, and he is held fast in the cords of his sin. He dies for lack of discipline, and because of his great folly he is led astray." Sin, is a dangerous, deadly trap that exploits a person's lack of self-control. The Way of life is Jesus and following Him. Disciples are those who truly follow Him and obey Him. The life of a disciple is, by definition, a disciplined life, a life of wholehearted obedience. Joy is found in obedience. The Christian who uses "grace" as an excuse for half-hearted obedience (or disobedience) is demonstrating an incredible lack of understanding and is dishonoring our Holy LORD. The more we truly appreciate our LORD, the more natural obedience becomes.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Psalm 52:1-5 -- "The steadfast love of God endures all the day.... But God will break you down forever." God who IS Love cannot tolerate sin because of His love. We can only see the tip of the iceberg of the pain and destruction our sins cause, but God understands the full ramifications of our sins which are far beyond our comprehension. God who IS Love HATES sin because He loves His children perfectly. Those who "love evil more than good" (Psalm 52:3) make themselves enemies of God, though they don't see it that way.

- James 4:4 -- You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore, whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

14. Psalm 52:7 -- "See the man who would not make God his refuge, but trusted in the abundance of his riches and sought refuge in his own destruction!" Those who seek security in anything other than Jesus will face destruction. Man's efforts apart from God are futile.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 5 May: If you have not done so already, make a list of your family, church members, friends, neighbors, and coworkers for whom you should pray. Pray for them by name today -- "Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the Lord by ceasing to pray for you (1 Samuel 12:23)." Also, make every effort to settle your debts today. If you have offended someone, seek forgiveness from them today and reconcile. Return what you have borrowed, repay what you have taken, and as much as possible, fix what you have broken. "Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another." (Romans 13:8) You may not be able to do it all today, but at least make the commitment and take the first steps.

DBRP- WEEK 18, Day 5, Friday, 4 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 4 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 9:15, 16 -- "Now the day before Saul came, the Lord had revealed to Samuel: 'Tomorrow about this time I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over my people Israel.'" God arranges circumstances and relationships to accomplish His purposes. If God calls you, you need only obey and let Him do the rest.

2. 1 Samuel 9:21 -- "Am I not a Benjaminite, from the least of the tribes of Israel? And is not my clan the humblest of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then have you spoken to me in this way?" Those chosen by God don't need political power, social status, prestige, or anything else to accomplish God's will. Christians can do anything with God's power as God wills.

3. 1 Samuel 10:6, 7, 10, 11 -- "The Spirit of the Lord will come upon you in power... and you will be changed into a different person. Once these signs are fulfilled, do whatever your hand finds to do, for God is with you.... God changed Saul's heart... the Spirit of God came upon him in power.... 'What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?' Saul was not searching for God, he was searching for donkeys; but God had chosen him, and God changed his heart and filled him with the Holy Spirit in order to fulfill God's purposes. Saul's life was forever changed. Only through the power of the Holy Spirit could Saul accomplish the work God had in store for him, not through his own wisdom and might (see today's 1 Cor readings for more on the Holy Spirit). When the people looked at Saul (from their human perspective) they said, "How can this fellow save us?" They could not understand the power of the Spirit. Were you ever surprised by God while you were searching for proverbial lost donkeys? How is the Holy Spirit working in your life to fulfill God's purposes?

- Those who are saved are filled with the Holy Spirit and live by the Spirit, not by flesh. We rely on the power of God, not on our own power – apart from God, we can do nothing. As our readings from 1 Corinthians tell us today, we should not put any faith in the wisdom of man but rather place ALL of our faith in the power of God (1 Corinthians 2:5). It is only through the Holy Spirit that we can understand God's word and His direction for our life (1 Corinthians 2:10-13). The Bible says the God's thoughts are farther from our thoughts than Heaven is from the earth (it is impossible to measure how far). Only through the Holy Spirit can God's thoughts be revealed to us – it is vital that we continually seek the counsel of the Holy Spirit in our worship, prayer, Bible study, and fellowship, and that we follow the Spirit's direction. Those without the Spirit (the unsaved) cannot accept God's truth and view God's word as foolishness (1 Corinthians 2:14). However, 1 Thessalonians 5:19-22 warns that even Christians can "quench" or "grieve" the Holy Spirit through disobedience, warning us to "abstain from every form of evil." How important is it to receive the counsel of the Holy Spirit through the study of God's word and through prayer, remaining receptive and obedient?

4. 1 Samuel 10:9 -- "God gave him another heart." Only God can give you a new heart. No one can fix your old heart.

5. Proverbs 4:1-9 -- God's commands don't rob you of joy and life, they enable joy and protect life.

6. Proverbs 4:5, 7 -- Anyone, regardless of intelligence, background, or experience can get wisdom. It starts with obeying God's commands.

7. Proverbs 4:23 -- "Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it." Whatever is in the well will come out in the bucket. Said another way, whatever is in the glass, spills out when it is bumped. Said still another way, no good tree bears bad fruit, and no bad tree bears good fruit. What is really in your heart will determine the product of your life. Above all else guard your heart.

8. 1 Corinthians 2:1 -- "And I, when I came to you, brothers, did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified." Our faith does "not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God (1 Corinthians 2:5)." It wasn't logic and reason that brought you to your knees and transformed you, it was the power of the Holy Spirit working in a real, personal, one-on-one love relationship with you. Likewise, logic, reason, science, and well thought out arguments are not going to bring anyone else to Jesus. "No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him (John 6:44)." Today, Paul reminds us, "The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned (1 Corinthians 2:14)." When God is working on the heart of a person, God may invite you to serve as Christ's Ambassador to that person through the process. The most powerful testimony you can offer someone is to proclaim the Jesus you know personally, to tell of what God did in your life, to be a first-hand witness to the real power of God – "You are witnesses of these things (Luke 24:48)." As you proclaim the power of God in a real and personal way, the evidence of God's power should also be very observable to others by the fruit of your life. Much like Gideon and his army, you will not win the battle for the soul, you will only participate in what God is doing. God prepares hearts to receive your testimony, and you might not realize the impact your testimony has – seeds planted in soil that have yet to sprout. A fisher of men has no control over the fish, but the Creator does.

9. 1 Corinthians 2:2-5 -- "For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.... so that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God." Again, people aren't convinced by clever arguments to accept Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior; they are moved by the Holy Spirit. Getting caught up on pointless debates only cheapens the Gospel. Also, many Christians try to find clever ways to share their faith without ever mentioning Jesus – "I don't want to scare them off." I'm not sure how you share Jesus without sharing Jesus. The Holy Spirit will do the convicting.

10. 1 Corinthians 2:10 -- "...these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit." Today we read that Samuel told Saul, "Then the Spirit of the LORD will rush upon you, and you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man." (1 Samuel 10:6) Only through the Spirit could Saul understand the truths of God and prophesy, not through intellect. Today Paul explains that wisdom can only be revealed through the Spirit, not through human reasoning. (1 Corinthians 2:10) Therefore, Paul did not attempt to convince the Corinthians to believe through clever, intellectual arguments. People come to Christ only through the Spirit as the Father draws them. People only rightly interpret God's word as instructed by the Spirit. (1 Corinthians 2:12) How important is it to be in tune with the Spirit? How important is it to not only have God's word but also the "mind of Christ"?

11. 1 Corinthians 2:11 -- "So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God." It is dangerous in a relationship to assume what another person is thinking because we tend to misinterpret. This is one reason why open communication is so important to a relationship. Similarly, it is very dangerous to presume the thoughts of God in a particular situation, beyond what has been clearly revealed in the Bible. This is one reason prayer (communication) is so important. God reveals truth to us via the Spirit. Also, the Spirit convicts the heart. We cannot know what God is doing in the heart of another person. Be very careful not to presume you do. We don't know which "Saul" we know God is about to make a "Paul." Proclaim the truth in love to all without showing partiality, and let God do the rest.

12. 1 Corinthians 2:14 -- "The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned." A person cannot receive God's word and truth without aid of the Spirit. Do not be surprised when what seems so obvious to you is rejected as folly by unbelievers.

13. 1 Corinthians 2:16 -- "But we have the mind of Christ." If everyone has the mind of Christ, there is unity. Unity is found only in Christ. Today, many seek to unify around something other than Christ in order to bring peace, order, and progress; perhaps the common bond is a philosophy, a cause, a political party, an ethnicity, a gender, etc. However, all these identifiers fall short in 'saving' people from themselves, more importantly from the wrath of God. The Bible says, God is love, and Jesus is The Way, The Truth, and The Life – no one gets to The Father (who is the source of love, peace, and wisdom) but through Jesus. Be truly united through Jesus (see John 17)

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 4 May: Seek to only communicate what is put on your heart by the Spirit, rather than speaking from your own knowledge. Are you proclaiming Jesus Christ to others or just morals based on the Bible – there is a difference. We are not called to make “good, moral people,” we are called to make disciples of Jesus Christ. If you aren’t proclaiming the Name, you are not proclaiming Jesus. The name of Jesus will divide a room quicker than anything else. Jesus said this is exactly what would happen. Have the moral courage to be judged a fanatic. Simply proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ today without adding to it (1 Corinthians 2).

DBRP- WEEK 18, Day 4, Thursday, 3 May 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 3 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 7:3 -- "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart.... direct your heart to the LORD and serve him only, and he will deliver you." You cannot serve God and your own personal interests. Serve the Lord wholeheartedly, Him only.
2. 1 Samuel 7:5 -- "I will pray to the LORD for you." God wants you to pray for other Christians who need to return to The Lord.
3. 1 Samuel 7:14 -- "The cities that the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel." God can restore what you lost in your sin.
4. 1 Samuel 8:3 -- "Yet his sons did not walk in his ways but turned aside after gain." Faith remains a personal decision. Parents must raise their kids to follow God, but they must ultimately choose to follow God or not. Samuel's sons made the very common choice of serving self over God.
5. 1 Samuel 8:5 -- "Now appoint for us a king to judge us like all the nations." It is very tempting for Christians to want to do what seems to be working for the world instead of doing what God wants. God's ways usually don't make sense to the world. It takes faith to choose God's ways.
6. 1 Samuel 8:7 -- And the LORD said to Samuel, "Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them." From Henry T. Blackaby: "The Israelites were to be a nation unlike any other. Every other nation had a king or ruler, but Israel's king was to be God Himself! Still, the Israelites complained that they wanted to be like other nations and have an earthly ruler! As we read about the Israelites, we marvel at their foolishness. Yet we are prone to make the same mistake, choosing our human wisdom over God's leadership. There is much discussion these days about leaders and managers. According to popular teaching, leaders have the vision and set goals for people or organizations to follow. Managers handle the day-to-day marshaling of resources under their charge. In the Christian life, God is the leader of our lives, our families, and our churches. God sets the direction; He establishes the priorities; He provides the resources. We are the managers. We take what He gives us and do with it as He directs. The biblical term for leader is Lord. As our Lord, Christ has the authority to reveal the direction for our lives. As Lord, He chooses our careers, leads us to our marriage partners, and helps us set our daily priorities. We are to be good managers of the mind, body, and spiritual life He gives. He is the Lord of our families. He knows what is best for our children. He knows how to make marriages strong. Our responsibility is to obey Him as He leads our families to Christlikeness. Christ is the Lord of our church. He takes responsibility for expanding it (Matt. 16:18; 1 Cor. 12:18). Only He knows what is best for our church. Our task is to faithfully perform the role He assigns us. Do not foolishly trust in human wisdom and leadership as the Israelites did. Follow your Lord and trust Him alone."

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

7. 1 Samuel 8:11-18 -- "These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen and to run before his chariots. And he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots. He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers. He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive orchards and give them to his servants. He will take the tenth of your grain and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and to his servants. He will take your male servants and female servants and the best of your young men and your donkeys, and put them to his work. He will take the tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves. And in that day, you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD will not answer you in that day." Nothing has changed with politics. Our hope is in God and God alone. In the Book of 1 Samuel, God's people put their trust in government rather than in God and offered their allegiance to a king rather than the KING. Therefore, God turned them over to the leaders they chose over Him. Today, we have placed the laws of man over the Law of God, and we have allowed ourselves as Christians to become offensive to no one but God in an era (and error) of "political correctness." As a nation, God will turn us over to what we have preferred. Christians must remain faithful to the Kingdom of God. While everyone else is talking politics, proclaim the Gospel, and pray for repentance and revival.

- God warned his people of abuses of power that would come from government officials who are chosen by those who have rejected God and who have placed their trust in government rather than God.

8. 1 Samuel 8:22 -- "Go every man to his city." God gives the rebellious what they want, turning them over to the consequences of their choices.

9. Proverbs 3:3 -- "Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck." Love and faithfulness go hand-in-hand.

10. Proverbs 3:7 -- "Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord, and turn away from evil." Human wisdom leads only to sin; true wisdom can only come from God and is beyond human reasoning.

11. Proverbs 3:12 -- "...for the Lord reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights." God disciplines those He loves.

12. Proverbs 3:19 -- "The Lord by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding he established the heavens." God's wisdom is the foundation of all Creation. How important is it to live by God's wisdom?

13. Proverbs 3:35 -- "The wise will inherit honor, but fools get disgrace." Only godly wisdom brings honor in the end.

14. 1 Corinthians 1:1 -- "Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus." Paul was called by God's will, not by his will.

15. 1 Corinthians 1:2 -- "To the church of God..., to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ...." You have been set apart and called to be a saint. How are you doing with your calling in life?

16. 1 Corinthians 1:7, 8 -- "Jesus Christ... will sustain you to the end, guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ." Jesus makes you guiltless, not your efforts.

17. 1 Corinthians 1:10 -- "I appeal to you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment." Christ unifies. Where there are divisions there is a lack of godliness because there is not unity in Christ. When everyone has the mind of Christ, everyone has the same mind, unity. Read John 17.

18. 1 Corinthians 1:17 -- "For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with words of eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power." We need not attempt to use wisdom to convince others that Jesus is The Lord and Savior. Disbelief is a spiritual issue, not an intellectual issue. The word of God is what the Holy Spirit uses to convict people of the need for repentance and Salvation. Proclaim God's word, and let the Holy Spirit do the rest through the Power of God.

19. 1 Corinthians 1:20 -- "Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?" Don't get wrapped up in pointless debates over the Gospel with unbelievers. No one comes to the Son but the Father draw Him.

20. 1 Corinthians 1:22, 23 -- "For Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles." Those who demand proof of Jesus have the same problem as those who demand miraculous signs: their hearts aren't really seeking God. Jesus said that proof will never satisfy the unbeliever. Many people who trust in their own understanding negate what they cannot see. Therefore, they remain out of touch with the Spirit which is unseen but the source of all wisdom. How foolish is it for people to think that reality is defined by their perceptions and limited intellect?

21. 1 Corinthians 1:29 -- "...so that no human being might boast in the presence of God." If it were possible to convince others to surrender to Jesus, we would take the credit. God intends to leave no doubt that it was His power that changed the heart.

22. 1 Corinthians 1:31 -- "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord." We share no glory with Jesus; He does it all and gets all the credit. Paul was saved when He was not seeking Jesus; so were you.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 3 May: Truly consider your thoughts, words, choices, and deeds today. Question the motivations behind them. Are they motivated by unconditional love for God and love for others? Does selfishness remain? Do temptations remain? Identify the dark closets in your heart where you need the Holy Spirits help to do some cleaning. Be honest with yourself today and do some real soul searching. Share the word of God with others and your testimony without trying to appeal to others with clever arguments. Trust God to do the convicting and convincing. (1 Corinthians 1:20-31)

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+sam+5%2C+6%3B+proverbs+2%3B+romans+16>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 2 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 5:3 -- "Dagon had fallen face downward on the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and put him back in his place." Could the Philistines actually believe that Dagon falling down was coincidental? Unbelievers are blind to the spiritual realities occurring around them.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

2. 1 Samuel 5:7 -- "The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, for his hand is hard against us and against Dagon our god." The Philistines were suffering greatly because of the presence of the Ark of God. What was their solution? Separate themselves from the Ark so that they could be restored to their gods and their lives apart from The God. The Philistines saw the power of God and "believed in" God but did not have a heart for God to "believe" Him and to worship Him as God. The Philistines preferred to remove the presence of God rather than conform to it. Many people ask for more evidence from God, but evidence won't solve a heart problem. In the New Testament, the Jews demanded of Jesus a sign that they might have proof that He was in fact the Son of God, but Jesus new their hearts and said that only a wicked and perverse generation demands a sign. It wasn't due to a lack of evidence that they refused to believe in him, it was due to a lack of desire.

3. 1 Samuel 6:9 -- "If it goes up on the way to its own land, to Beth-shemesh, then it is he who has done us this great harm, but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us; it happened to us by coincidence." The Philistines knew that God controlled nature and would more powerfully influence the milk cows than their natural desire to be with their calves. The cows would obey God over instinct. Only man rebels against the Creator; only man requires salvation. The power of God in a person's life overpowers all other desires.

4. Proverbs 2:9, 10 -- "Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path; for wisdom will come into your heart." How do you gain wisdom, and how do you understand the purpose of your life and your direction in life? Proverbs says, "if" you receive God's word and truly "treasure up" His commandments within you, truly inclining your heart to understand them; "if" you cry out to God Himself from your heart to understand them, "then" you will "understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God." It won't be a set of rules or a doctrine that you find, it will be a relationship with God Himself. The word of God will point you to the Word of God, Jesus Christ. "For the Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding." (Proverbs 2:6) The Holy Spirit will speak personally to you through Scripture to reveal the truth of God that cannot be understood solely through human reasoning or intellect. But it is critical to our understanding and to our relationship with God that we "walk in integrity." (Proverbs 2:7) Jesus said it like this: "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." (Matthew 16:24) You can't get to know someone simply by reading about them. To know God, you must walk with God, live life with God. You cannot just step out each day on your own course, living your own life, accomplishing your personal goals, living the best life you know how; you must wait on God, let Him show you where He is going, and then follow. (Psalm 52:9) It is important to remember that the Bible is not a holy self-help book, a super-powered book on ethics or a guide to living a "successful life." The Bible is a guide to a relationship with Jesus. If your goal in Bible study is to merely receive blessings from God, you are missing the mark. The goal is to know Jesus personally, to experience Him day-by-day. How will you experience God today?

5. Romans 16:3-16 -- These verses are often overlooked, but they reveal how important relationships were to Paul. Paul's heart was for his brothers and sisters in Christ. How many people in your church do you consider to be the closest, most trusted people in your life?

6. Romans 16:17 -- "I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles." Paul considered divisive people to be a threat to the church and to the mission of reconciliation.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

7. Romans 16:18 -- "For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites." Divisive people are self-serving, self-absorbed, selfish, and ungodly, though they often vocalize Christian intent in their self-righteousness.

8. Romans 16:19 -- "For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil." Are you known by everyone for your obedience to the Lord? Are you wise to what is good and innocent to what is evil? What a great way to live life.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 2 May: Today, make a list of your closest Christian friendships, and take definitive steps to cultivate those relationships. Invest in your family members and in your church relationships to build up your Christian family. Romans 12:10 – "Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor." (Proverbs 27:10, Romans 16:3-16)

DBRP- WEEK 18, Day 2, Tuesday, 1 May 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+sam+3%2C+4%3B+proverbs+1%3B+romans+15>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 1 May 18:

1. 1 Samuel 3:1 -- "And the word of the LORD was rare in those days; there was no frequent vision."

2. 1 Samuel 3:1 -- "And the word of the Lord was rare in those days; there was no frequent vision." Samuel 3 begins with the above ominous statement. The people had stopped hearing from God, and without God's leading, they are doomed. The Book of Amos makes a similar statement -- "Behold, the days are coming," declares the Lord God, "when I will send a famine on the land— not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord (Amos 8:11). Today's readings reveal not only that the "branch" had been separated from the "Vine" and was withering and dying, but the readings also reveal that the people were not aware of their condition – they felt that they were in a normal relationship with God. Why had they ceased to hear God? Simple: Iniquity! (1 Samuel 3:13, 14) They had walked away from God and expected Him to follow them down their unholy path. So, when they were being defeated by the Philistines, they asked, "Why has the Lord defeated us today before the Philistines (1 Samuel 4:3)?" Then, in desperation, they turned to the idol of religion and the ark of God (which had become for them an idol), believing that their salvation rested in it rather than God -- "Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord here from Shiloh, that it may come among us and save us from the power of our enemies (1 Samuel 4:3)." Remember that similarly, Samson believed that his strength came from his uncut hair rather than from his relationship with God. Eli fell dead when he had heard that the Philistines had captured the ark of the covenant, the wife of Phinehas died in child birth "because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband." Her dying words were, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured." She did not understand that the glory of God departed long before the ark of God had been captured; it departed when the people departed from God. Too many Christians have grown comfortable both with iniquity and with not hearing from God or experiencing his presence in their lives. They believe that the "distance" from God they feel, along with the silence, is normal – "From a distance God is watching (Bette Midler)." To fill the void, many turn to religious activities, but religion is no substitute for relationship and fellowship with God that comes through obedience. Self-serving, self-justifying, presumptuous, and prideful religion has no real power. God does not honor ritual without love and obedience. Only those who have a true relationship with God hear from God. Even Bible study can become an empty ritual. We must study God's word, which is our primary source of revelation from God, but we must also walk with God in spirit and truth.

- James 4:8 -- Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

3. 1 Samuel 3:13 -- "...his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them." God expects His people to challenge sin, both within the family and in other relationships.

4. 1 Samuel 3:18 -- "And he said, 'It is the LORD. Let him do what seems good to him.'" Eli's response to God's malediction could be interpreted two different ways: 1) Eli's statement could be taken positively as a demonstration of Eli's respect and trust in God's sovereignty through his punishment, Eli subjugating all else to God's glory. 2) On the other hand, Eli's statement could be seen as a complacent fatalism -- "It doesn't matter what I do, God is going to do what God is going to do, so why try?" The Bible does not reveal a concerted effort on the part of Eli to repent and to plead for mercy from God, contrary to the response we see from so many others when God pronounced judgment against them. What do you think?

5. 1 Samuel 4 -- "The glory has departed from Israel!" If God is not with a person or nation, their plans are futile. Proclaiming that God is with you doesn't mean He is. If you are not with God, He is not with you.

6. Proverbs 1:2 -- "To know wisdom...." There is a difference between knowledge and wisdom. Wisdom is knowledge rightly applied and understanding beyond experience. There are many knowledgeable people in the world, but few with wisdom. Wisdom can only come from God, and the Holy Spirit uses God's word to give wisdom. How much you value God's words reveals how much you care about wisdom and truly knowing Him.

7. Proverbs 1:7 -- "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction." Both true knowledge and wisdom require a proper respect for God. How tragic it is that schools in America start with the premise that God is not required to obtain knowledge and wisdom. The decision to take God out of our schools has sown the seeds for national destruction.

8. Proverbs 1:8, 9 -- Hear, my son, your father's instruction, and forsake not your mother's teaching, for they are a graceful garland for your head and pendants for your neck.

9. Romans 15:1 -- "We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves." You must be patient with immature Christians who act inappropriately. When someone offends you, you want to defend yourself and get gratification, but the Bible says not to, but rather to respond to abuse with love and kindness. As we read previously, "Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse.... Do not take revenge... (Romans 12:14-19)." Of course this is really, really hard and goes against everything we are taught by the world. Yes, you will likely mess this up almost daily. If you doubt that you will, ask the people closest to you how often you get it right. God knows how hard this is and commands us to have "endurance" but also to be encouraged by Jesus' perfect example which ultimately resulted in the Cross -- he knows better than anyone what you are going through: "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me (Romans 15:3)." You must take up your personal cross to follow Jesus, and this starts with denying self and considering others, particularly those who offend you as more valuable than yourself, the lost sheep that consume the mind of the Shepherd. Try this experiment for a while: stop defending yourself; respond to everyone who lashes out at you with love, kindness and blessings. See what happens.

10. Romans 15:5 -- "May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus." God wants you to suffer maltreatment from others with endurance so that you can promote unity and reconciliation.

11. Romans 15:18 -- "...bring the Gentiles to obedience." The goal is obedience. Look at your great godly commission at the very end of Matthew 28.

12. Romans 15:30, 31 -- "I appeal to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea." Paul's words teach us much about prayer: First, Paul greatly valued to prayers of fellow believers, appealing to or begging them to pray. Obviously, he understood the prayers of the righteous are powerful. Second, he had in mind prayer that was akin to striving, a true struggle. This was earnest, persistent prayer that was effective and powerful, more powerful than any physical power. Third, he recognized the unique power of communal prayer, hoping that they would "strive together." Fourth, he asked for prayer for requests he believed were aligned with God's purpose and will, not for selfish ambitions or desires. Finally, Paul was not certain his prayers would be answered in the affirmative by God (as often they weren't), but this did not hinder his understanding of the importance of prayer. We all need a deeper understanding of the power of prayer. The best way to grow in prayer is to pray, pray, pray.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 1 May: Overlook offenses committed against you, remembering that people are weak and need mercy and grace just as you do. Don't satisfy your own desire to defend yourself or to stand up for your 'rights' but rather consider how you can transmit the peace of God. References from today's readings: "We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written, 'The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me.'" (Romans 15:1-3) Strive in prayer today -- committed, hard, tiresome prayer. (Romans 15:30)

DBRP- WEEK 18, Day 1, Monday, 30 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=1+sam+1%2C+2%3B+proverbs+30%3B+romans+14>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 30 Apr 18:

1. 1 Samuel 1:14 -- "How long will you go on being drunk? Put your wine away from you." Eli made judgements based upon outward appearances. Generally, Eli will prove to be a poor judge of character.
2. 1 Samuel 2:7 -- "The LORD makes poor and makes rich; he brings low and he exalts." Every person's faith is in God's hands. In your lowest state, God has greatness in store for you.
3. 1 Samuel 2:12 -- "Now the sons of Eli were worthless men. They did not know the LORD." A person's character is defined by their relationship with God.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. 1 Sam 2:20 -- "Those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be lightly esteemed." God does not honor those who dishonor Him. The New Testament confirms this:

- Revelation 2:5 -- Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.

- Revelation 2:16 -- Therefore repent. If not, I will come to you soon and war against them with the sword of my mouth.

- Revelation 2:22 -- Behold, I will throw...those who commit adultery...into great tribulation, unless they repent of her works.

- Revelation 3:1-3 -- I know your works. You have the reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God. Remember, then, what you received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come against you.

- Revelation 3:15-19 -- I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were either cold or hot! So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth. For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing, not realizing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked. I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, so that you may be rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness may not be seen, and salve to anoint your eyes, so that you may see. Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent.

5. 1 Samuel 2:22, 23 -- "Now Eli was very old, and he kept hearing all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who were serving at the entrance to the tent of meeting. And he said to them, 'Why do you do such things?'" Though Eli's sons were sinning in unimaginable ways, Eli only scolded them without holding them accountable. Proverbs 19:18 says, "Discipline your son, for there is hope; do not set your heart on putting him to death." Eli's failure to discipline his sons led to their deaths.

6. 1 Samuel 2:26 -- "Now the boy Samuel continued to grow both in stature and in favor with the LORD and also with man." Compare this verse with Luke 2:52: "And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and man." God's people have strong vertical and horizontal relationships, having been given the mission of reconciliation. Your relationships with others is a reflection of your relationship with God.

7. 1 Samuel 2:29 -- "Why then do you scorn my sacrifices and my offerings that I commanded for my dwelling, and honor your sons above me." When Eli chose not to hold his son's accountable, he chose his sons over God. When you overlook sin in order to maintain relationships, you dishonor God.

8. Proverbs 30:1-3 -- "The man declares, I am weary, O God; I am weary, O God, and worn out. Surely I am too stupid to be a man. I have not the understanding of a man. I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One." Life outside of a genuine relationship with God and a life lived outside of His guidance will wear you out. Like so many before and after him, Agur discovers this late in his days. Now he is starting to gain wisdom. The more you know, the more you know what you don't know.

Socrates said, “The only true wisdom is in knowing you know nothing.” Proverbs says, the Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, understanding our total reliance on Him.

9. Proverbs 30:4 – “Who has ascended to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son’s name? Surely you know!” Too many people reject the word of God and the leading of the Holy Spirit, preferring instead to seek wisdom from their own understanding, rejecting the guidance of the One who created all things and who is the actual source of all wisdom – how incredibly foolish! Trust in the Lord and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways, follow His leadership as Lord, and He will make your paths straight.

10. Proverbs 30:6 – “Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you and you be found a liar.” Many cults and false leaders add to God’s word.

11. Proverbs 30:7-9 – “Two things I ask of you; deny them not to me before I die: Remove far from me falsehood and lying; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me, lest I be full and deny you and say, ‘Who is the Lord?’ or lest I be poor and steal and profane the name of my God.” Agur understood the limits of his own integrity and character. So, he prayed to God for strength of integrity. Wisely, Agur understood that the most important thing in life was the quality of his character before the Lord. Reputation is what others say about you, but character is what God knows to be true about you. What sins are struggling with? Are these issues at the center of your prayer life? The things that hinder your relationship with God (sin) should be your greatest prayer concern. Remember, self-control, the power to do what you ought, is a fruit of the Spirit, not of the intellect. For the most part, people know what they should do; they just fail to do it because the sinful desires within them (the flesh) has not been surrendered to the Holy Spirit. Pray for God to reveal the truth of you and to strengthen your faith, hope, and love that you would be “one” with God in thought, word, and deed. This was Jesus’ prayer for you before His crucifixion. (see John 17)

12. Proverbs 30:10 – “Do not slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.” Be very careful what you think and say about a fellow Christian. You don’t know what God is doing with them and within them. We are quick to see the faults of others, but we cannot know from where they have come and to where they are going. In God’s economy, He may view them as worthier to be praised than you. For example, the one who grew up in a good environment might act better than the one who grew up in a bad environment, but the latter might still have a more receptive heart for the Lord than the former.

13. Proverbs 30:11-14 – “There are those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers. There are those who are clean in their own eyes but are not washed of their filth. There are those—how lofty are their eyes, how high their eyelids lift! There are those whose teeth are swords, whose fangs are knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, the needy from among mankind.” Once again, the Bible reminds us that character is formed in the home. The way people treat their parents is how they will treat others. The respect they have for their parents reflects the respect they have for God. If parents allow their children to speak disrespectfully to them, they will grow to be disrespectful, unloving people. The power of the Holy Spirit can heal old wounds and change old habits that were forged during childhood, but it will also take much effort on the part of the person who learned the bad habits.

14. Romans 14:1 -- "As for the one who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions.... So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding." How incredible would it be if Christians and their respective churches put Romans 14 into practice? The body of Christ suffers from tremendous disunity and consequential disempowerment because of irreconcilable quarrels over how to worship God -- "One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike." Divisions between denominations and even churches within denominations can become quite worldly and hostile, destroying the witness of those involved. Some church denominations even forbid certain Christians from participating in communion, not because those Christians aren't committed believers in Christ, but because they aren't members of that particular denomination; this is contrary to the teachings of the Bible -- "decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother (Romans 14:13)." Scriptural interpretations also divide denominations. But why can't we disagree without being disagreeable? Why can't we disagree about some of the more complex theological issues while remaining united in the love of Christ? Can't we trust God to reveal truth to His faithful servants? "Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand (Romans 14:4)." In Corinth, Paul encouraged knowledgeable Christians to show gentleness and understanding to new believers who, get this, still did not understand that there is only one God -- "not all possess this knowledge. But some, through former association with idols, eat food as really offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled (1 Corinthians 8:7)." Rather than ridiculing these new believers for their tremendous lack of understanding, Paul encouraged the enlightened Christians not to eat meat sacrificed to idols in order to remove that stumbling block from the spiritual development of those baby Christians. Be gracious to those who are misguided in their faith but love God. One of the best methods of restoring unity within the Body is by getting Christians back into the word of God. I am very thankful for the Defenders Group with representation across the denominations, studying God's word together with a heart for the Lord and for each other.

15. Romans 14:12 -- "So then each of us will give an account of himself to God." God is Judge, not man. Everyone will give account of their actions before The Lord.

16. Romans 14:13 -- "Therefore let us not pass judgment on one another any longer, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother." Everything we say and do to others should be intended to bring people closer to Jesus and to each other.

17. Romans 14:15 -- "For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love." If others are offended by what you say or do, change your ways if possible, within the bounds of godliness to accommodate them, even if your actions aren't ungodly. Don't let an issue distract others from Jesus. If you choose your rights over love, your actions are ungodly. Seek reconciliation first.

18. Romans 14:18, 19 -- "Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding." Compare this verse with 1 Samuel 2:26 and Luke 2:52. If you are serving Christ and showing grace to others, you will receive favor from others who need to be loved.

19. Romans 14:21 -- "It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble." Good things become bad if they cause issues or problems for others.

DBRP- WEEK 17, Day 7, Sunday, 29 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Ruth+3%2C+4%3B+proverbs+29%3B+psalm+50%2C+51>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 29 Apr 18:

1. Ruth 3:11 -- "My fellow townsmen know that you are a worthy woman." Ruth's reputation of honor was well known despite her poverty. Boaz spoke of her integrity above her beauty -- "All my fellow townsmen know that you are a woman of noble character (NIV)". "...for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman (KJV)."

- Though not wealthy, famous, or equipped with any particular skill or talent, Ruth had a reputation of possessing noble character. God cares about our character. The Bible says that noble character is worth more than great riches (Pro 31:10). Luke 2:52 points out that, "Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men." But the world honors talents, skills, and appearance over character. Those lifted up by society are those who are good at something (or just good looking), regardless of whether or not they are good people. In fact, the world is quite willing to overlook major character flaws of those who have enough talent or beauty. However, God calls His people to have character and competence -- character first. So how does a Christian develop character? The character development process is a perpetual cycle -- your thoughts turn into decisions; your decisions turn into actions; your actions become habits, which solidify into your character (who you are); and the cycle continues as your character guides your thoughts. To develop a Christ-like character, the Bible will instruct you to target all areas of the character development cycle through a changed heart, changed mind, changed thoughts, changed decisions, changed habits, and a changed character (be the new you that you already are). In other words, the perpetual cycle of change is not linear (one step to another), it is interdependent, mutually supportive, synergistic, and continuous. The secular world sees character development as a wholly human endeavor, a product of the human will. Many religions hold the same viewpoint. However, though the Christian understands the importance of willpower in the process of sanctification, the Christian realizes their total dependence of the power of the Holy Spirit for both salvation and for sanctification (Christ-like character development -- oneness with Christ). Without Christ, character development is a house built on a foundation of sand. Without Christ, one can obtain the appearance of character without the true power of character; a person can act out character (hypocrite is the Greek word for stage actor), and become a whitewashed tomb -- outwardly impressive but dead inside. The worldly version of character can produce results in life, but not eternal results. It is easy for Christians to be deceived by the many popular secular teachings on character development, placing their faith in the inherent goodness of people, which only needs to be unleashed through proper education and practice, but the Bible teaches that "self-control" is a fruit of the Spirit, not a fruit of human willpower (Galatians 5:23). "Let no one deceive you with empty words (Ephesians 5:6)." Christian character development is not building up a better you but rather sacrificing you for Him -- being crucified with Christ and no longer living for self but for Christ alone. As stated above, the Bible gives many instructions on how to personally develop Christ-like character, instructions which demand daily discipline (disciples require discipline) and long-term perseverance, but we must recognize these as disciplines as acts of denying self rather than self-denial. Jesus said the first step was to "deny self" (Matthew 16:24), while the secularist says the key to success is self-denial. Self-denial has been described as giving up something you want now in order to get something you want more later – making daily sacrifices to achieve long-term goals. For example, you don't eat that cheese cake so you can look good at the beach this summer, and you motivate yourself by saying things like, "Nothing tastes as good as being thin feels." Ultimately though, the focus is on self, self-control for self-glorification. Denying self is putting an end to self-seeking, self-serving, self-justifying, self-glorifying, self-centered and self-confident living. It is no longer living, but Christ living in us. Instead of resisting what you want now for sake of what you want later, it is no longer wanting what you wanted but rather wanting Him, appreciating that you have Him, walking in fellowship with Him, and sharing Him with others. It is an end to chasing after the worries of this world. Ask yourself this question: "Why do I what you do?" What is your true motivation behind your actions? What is the foundation of your character? Jesus said that eternal life was knowing Him (John 17:3). Are you experiencing eternal life today to the fullness of joy? What might be standing in the way?

2. Ruth 4:17 -- "A son has been born to Naomi." They named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David." God used the humblest of people and foreigners to raise the lineage of Jesus. Naomi and Ruth certainly could never imagine that God would use them in such an important way just as we cannot possibly imagine how God is using us for eternal purposes.

3. Proverbs 29:26 -- "Many seek the face of a ruler, but it is from the LORD that a man gets justice." If only we sought the favor of God the way we seek the favor of influential people.

4. Psalm 50:7-9. 16, 17, 23 -- "Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, I will testify against you. I am God, your God. I will not accept a bull from your house or goats from your folds.... What right have you to recite my statutes or take my covenant on your lips? For you hate discipline, and you cast my words behind you.... The one who offers thanksgiving as his sacrifice glorifies me; to one who orders his way rightly I will show the salvation of God!" You cannot remain in right fellowship with God while sin remains, and you cannot expect God to honor your prayers and worship while you continue to dishonor Him. I read this story about Norman Vincent Peale: "When Peale was a boy, he found a big, black cigar, slipped into an alley, and lit it up. When he saw his father approaching, he quickly put the cigar behind his back and tried to act casual. Desperate to divert his father's attention, Norman pointed to a billboard advertising the circus. "Can I go, Dad? Please, let's go when it comes to town." His father's reply taught Norman a lesson he never forgot. "Son," he answered quietly but firmly, "I learned long ago never to approach my Father with a petition while at the same time trying to hide a smoldering disobedience." In today's readings, Psalm 50 gives God's perspective on the disobedience of His people. In Psalm 51, David gives us a model of repentance as he pleads with God to "restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit (Psalm 51:12)." David understood God's perspective: "For you will not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it; you will not be pleased with a burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise (Psalm 51:16, 17)." While through Christ we have eternal fellowship with God (Romans 8:38, 39), our sins hinder our temporal fellowship with Him (1 Corinthians 3:3). Daily we must practice 1 John 1:9:

- 1 John 1:9 -- If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

5. Psalm 50:14 -- "Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and perform your vows to the Most High." Your daily attitude and actions are your worship to God more than your religious activities.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. Psalm 50:16-18 -- "But to the wicked God says: 'What right have you to recite my statutes or take my covenant on your lips? For you hate discipline, and you cast my words behind you. If you see a thief, you are pleased with him, and you keep company with adulterers.'" Studying, memorizing and reciting the Bible is pointless if you aren't intent on living the words of God with the desire of unifying with God in love. A true Christian will walk the talk. Some false Christians can be very deceptive in their religious speech, perhaps even deceiving themselves. Beyond our words, our attitudes, choices, and deeds often reveal the truth of what is in our hearts. But "good deeds" are nothing but "filthy rags" if not done from a heart of selfless, genuine love for God. Sometimes people will use religious activity, charitable activity, and Bible knowledge to conceal or attempt to compensate for a wicked, self-centered heart. Sometimes people will justify to themselves their self-centered behavior by claiming it to be acts of "service." But virtue only comes from a truly virtuous, selfless heart. Everything else is a façade. God always knows the difference between genuine selflessness and disguised selfishness, and usually other people figure it out over time. Watch out for the Christian that frequently uses the words "I" and "me." Check yourself too. Why do you do what you do? Honestly, is it for you or only for Him? In honesty, we can all say that our motives are mixed – there is always a bit of selfishness in there, but recognizing, acknowledging, and addressing that with the Lord is key – it is humility. None of us are perfected in love, but we must genuine love our endeavor.

7. Psalm 50:18 -- "If you see a thief, you are pleased with him, and you keep company with adulterers." Contrary to popular misinterpretations of the Bible, Jesus did not 'hang out' with unrepentant sinners, and He doesn't want you to either. He certainly engaged and challenged the unrepentant sinner (in love), but He fellowshiped with those who sought Him. Jesus ate with the repentant sinners and tax collectors, those sinners who sought a right relationship with Him, though very imperfectly. Who do you prefer to hang out with? How often do you talk about Jesus, in regular conversation, with your good friends? What you discuss with your close friends says much about the foundation of your friendship.

8. Psalm 50:21 -- "These things you have done, and I have been silent; you thought that I was one like yourself. But now I rebuke you and lay the charge before you." God's apparent silence before your sin does not signal His indifference or acceptance. He will hold you accountable. God will not be mocked.

9. Psalm 50:22 -- "Mark this, then, you who forget God, lest I tear you apart, and there be none to deliver!" When you choose to sin, you have forgotten or disregarded God in that moment. You have defied the KING. You have committed cosmic treason. Fortunately, God's fidelity does not depend on our fidelity, and His love is not limited by the limits of our love, but in our reliance on and confidence in grace, we must not lose perspective on the seriousness of sin; we must not take grieving the Spirit lightly. Our love and appreciation for Christ should make sin horrific to us.

10. Psalm 50:23 -- "The one who offers thanksgiving as his sacrifice glorifies me; to one who orders his way rightly I will show the salvation of God!" Are you living out thanksgiving? A thankful heart is an obedient heart. Obedience is a demonstration of gratitude, love, and an act of worship.

11. Psalm 51:1-9 – When we understand the difference between who God is and who we aren't, when we have a glimpse of the gravity of our sin in defiance of the Almighty, we approach God in complete humility, acknowledge our complete reliance on His mercy and grace, and respond to other sinners accordingly.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

12. Psalm 51:10 -- "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me." When your goal in life is to be right with God and close to Him, you are on the right path, and He will not deny you your desires. Considering the comments above on character development, notice that the psalmist recognizes that he cannot fix his own heart, only God can create a clean heart and renew a right spirit.

13. Psalm 51:13 -- "Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you." A person who truly has been saved has a natural passion for telling others how to be saved too. It is not a hard thing to get people to talk about what they care most about.

14. Psalm 51:17 -- "The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise." God seeks genuine, humble love. Unlike our human relationships, you can't mask your true feelings with God. He knows the truth of you, your motives, desires, and emotions. Walk with the Spirit as He searches your heart.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 29 April: "My fellow townsmen know that you are a worthy woman." (Ruth 3:11) Today, consider what the people in town would say about you. Would you primarily be described as a faithful follower of Jesus or just a 'good' person? Next, consider what God knows about you that others don't. If others knew about you what God knows, would your reputation change? Strive to be a genuine person with no secret self. Seek the truth of you to be nothing but Christ in you. Be honest with God, yourself, and with others, and be transparent. The grace of God eliminates guilt, shame, and fear and brings freedom. "Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed (James 5:16)."

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Ruth+1%2C+2%3B+proverbs+28%3B+psalm+49>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 28 Apr 18:

1. Ruth 1:16, 17 -- "For where you go I will go, and where you lodge I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God. Where you die I will die, and there will I be buried. May the LORD do so to me and more also if anything but death parts me from you." True love is a commitment to fidelity for life. Ruth demonstrated this sort of commitment not only in her marriage but also in her extended relationships. To whom do you show this sort of commitment? These words are often recited in weddings, but many don't really mean what they are saying. Some have said these words truly believing they meant it, but they really didn't have the heart for them. Peter said similar words to Jesus during the time of the Last Supper -- "Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you." I believe Peter really meant what he said, but Jesus knew his true heart. Jesus knew Peter had not yet been perfected in love, but Jesus had a plan for Peter, to grow Peter in love. We have all failed in love and continue to fail in love. Jesus has a plan to make us leaders in love. In God's grace, strive for greater love. Where you are still a Saul, Jesus has a plan to make you a Paul. Can you also see a Paul in the Sauls around you?

2. Ruth 2:5-7 -- Ruth's story was known by others who watched her actions and thereby formed an opinion about the kind of person she was. She was known as uncommonly faithful and hardworking. What do people who don't really know you say about you because of your reputation and deeds?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

3. Ruth 2:12 -- "The LORD repay you for what you have done, and a full reward be given you by the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge!" Boaz saw himself as an instrument through which God might repay Ruth for her fidelity. He treated Ruth with kindness on behalf of God. Do you serve others in the name of God?
4. Ruth 2:20 -- "The man is a close relative of ours, one of our redeemers." God arranges circumstances for His purposes and brings the right people together at the right place at the right time to bless His people.
5. Ruth 2:22 -- "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, lest in another field you be assaulted." The Book of Ruth reminds us of what we read in Judges that, during that time, sexual sin and violence was common.
6. Proverbs 28:2 -- "When a land transgresses, it has many rulers, but with a man of understanding and knowledge, its stability will long continue." A nation full of people with selfish, disobedient hearts is divided and unstable. Wisdom, which can only come from a right relationship with God, brings order and stability.
7. Proverbs 28:4 -- "Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law strive against them." The wicked will unite in their wickedness with disobedience as their banner. Those who desire to live by the law and justice must be willing to strive against them.
8. Proverbs 28:8 -- "Whoever multiplies his wealth by interest and profit gathers it for him who is generous to the poor." Some people make money off the backs of others, and some people are true producers who provide tangible resources to others. Many super-wealthy people have actually produced nothing but rather have manipulated currency to their benefit. Be a producer.
9. Proverbs 28:9 -- "If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination." Don't presume that God will give you what you want while you are refusing to obey Him in what He has clearly told you to do. Settle the matter first.
10. Proverbs 28:12 -- "When the righteous triumph, there is great glory, but when the wicked rise, people hide themselves." The wicked can rise. When they do, the Christians, who have been given the power and authority of God to make disciples in the world, have only themselves to blame. If you don't like the current state of affairs, look at the condition of the church -- the darkness is because the light is not very bright.
11. Proverbs 28:19, 20 -- "Whoever works his land will have plenty of bread, but he who follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty. A faithful man will abound with blessings, but whoever hastens to be rich will not go unpunished." Stable wealth is obtained slowly over time through faithful production. You don't get something for nothing.
12. Proverbs 28:25 -- "A greedy man stirs up strife, but the one who trusts in the Lord will be enriched." All fights are the product of selfishness -- someone wants something that God did not give them, and they blame someone else. James said it this way: "What causes quarrels and what causes fights among you? Is it not this, that your passions are at war within you? You desire and do not have, so you murder. You covet and cannot obtain, so you fight and quarrel. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions. You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God." (James 4:1-4) No one can withhold from you what God intends for you. Don't waste your time or harden your heart fighting with others. Live in peace, obey God, and wait patiently on Him to provide your every need.

13. Proverbs 28:26 -- "Whoever trusts in his own mind is a fool, but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered." You will either walk in your own understanding or by the God's word and the counsel of the Holy Spirit. How foolish is it for us to think that our very small minds, informed by some decades of limited experience, could serve as a substitute for the mind of God? God warns, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts." Proverbs says, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord, and turn away from evil. It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones (Proverbs 3:5-8)." If you want to live the life God intended for you, if you want to stay on the straight path, if you want to experience the fullness of joy and the peace that transcends all understanding, you will have to obey God's word and follow His lead even when it doesn't seem profitable or beneficial to you.

14. Psalm 49:5 -- "Why should I fear in times of trouble, when the iniquity of those who cheat me surrounds me." If you are serving God faithfully, you having nothing to worry about even if everyone is against you.

15. Psalm 49:7 -- "Truly no man can ransom another, or give to God the price of his life" Only Jesus in His perfection is worthy to pay the price of our sin and give us salvation.

16. Psalm 49:10 -- "For he sees that even the wise die; the fool and the stupid alike must perish and leave their wealth to others." Knowledge and wealth can't bring you salvation.

17. Psalm 49:13 -- "This is the path of those who have foolish confidence; yet after them people approve of their boasts." Popular opinion favors humanism over submission to God.

16. Psalm 49:15 -- "But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me." Only Jesus can save you.

18. Psalm 49:15-20 -- "... Be not afraid when a man becomes rich, when the glory of his house increases. For when he dies, he will carry nothing away; his glory will not go down after him. For though, while he lives, he counts himself blessed —and though you get praise when you do well for yourself— his soul will go to the generation of his fathers, who will never again see light. Man, in his pomp yet without understanding is like the beasts that perish." The psalmist points out the foolishness and blindness of pursuing blessings and praise on earth rather than the blessings and praise of God. Jesus said, "For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his soul (Mark 8:36)?" It is quite easy to get caught up in the worries of the world and lose the eternal perspective. However, when our daily pursuit is nothing but Jesus Christ, when our eyes remain affixed to Him, we will not be distracted or deceived.

- James 4:14 -- What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes.

- Job 14:1, 2 -- Man who is born of a woman is few of days and full of trouble. He comes out like a flower and withers; he flees like a shadow and continues not.

- Psalms 90:12 -- So teach us to number our days, That we may present to You a heart of wisdom.

- Psalm 89:47 -- Remember what my span of life is; For what vanity You have created all the sons of men!

- 1 Peter 1:24 -- All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls.

19. Psalm 49:20 -- "Man in his pomp yet without understanding is like the beasts that perish." Without spiritual rebirth through salvation in Jesus, a person is not much different than an animal.

DBRP- WEEK 17, Day 5, Friday, 27 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Judges+21%3B+proverbs+27%3B+romans+13>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 27 Apr 18:

1. Judges 21:4-12 -- The people went through the proper religious rituals but still pursued their own solution to the problem that they had originally caused by doing things their own way.

2. Judges 21:17-24 -- Israel failed to reach its goals with one immoral act; so they tried another.

3. Judges 21:19 -- During a time dedicated to the worship of God, Israel executed an immoral, ungodly plan in order to achieve the worthy purpose of restoring a tribe – a good thing done a bad way. God expects His people to do the right things for the right reasons in the right way at the right time. The ends do not justify the means.

4. Proverbs 27:1 -- “Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.” Make today count.

5. Proverbs 27:5, 6 -- It is unloving not to rebuke someone who needs it.

6. Proverbs 27:7, 8 -- "One who is full loathes honey, but to one who is hungry everything bitter is sweet. Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man who strays from his home." A person starving for love is more susceptible to sin.

7. Proverbs 27:18 -- "Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who guards his master will be honored." If you can protect him from his mistakes, you will only benefit from it.

8. Romans 13:1, 2 -- God demands that you obey human authorities and says that disobeying human authorities is the equivalent of disobeying Him.

9. Romans 13:1 -- “For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God.” How should a Christian prepare for the next election cycle? “Put on the Lord Jesus Christ.” Our national problems are spiritual problems. Seek first the Kingdom of God, and all the other issues become non-issues (Romans 13:14). The only hope for the nation is collective repentance among God's people and revival.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

10. Romans 13:3-5 -- "For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but too bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval.... But if you do wrong, be afraid.... Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience." While the topic of the above verses is respecting governing authorities, how much more does it apply to respecting the authority of God in our own lives? How much better would life be if we would simply obey all of God's commands? How much easier and more joyful would life be if we had a heart that truly wanted to obey God's commands? And if Christians made economic decisions based upon God's commands, entertained themselves in ways that honored God, and chose politicians who truly honored God, how would that change the political and socioeconomic landscape? God's commands are a product of His perfect love and are intended to give us fullness of life, that our joy might be complete. God's commands are not hard to understand but difficult to follow when our hearts are selfish and unloving. "For rulers are not a terror to good conduct (Romans 13:3)." Stated in 1 John 4:18: "There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love." When we are living in love, we are obedient; there is no need to fear. Jesus said, "Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them (John 14:21)." John adds to Jesus' words in 1 John 5:3 -- "In fact, this is love for God: to keep his commands. And his commands are not burdensome." When we truly love God, it isn't burdensome to obey His commands because we genuinely desire to do it, and it is our focus. Obedience is love that produces peace, not fear. Romans 13:5 -- "One must be in subjection.... for the sake of conscience." 1 Timothy 1:5 says, "love, which comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith." We cannot adequately love God or others without a clear conscience. Guilt, particularly hidden guilt, puts up walls and separation between relationships. It generates feelings of vulnerability and defensiveness. It creates fear and doubt. It is an unpaid debt that hangs over us. The debt must be settled, either paid or forgiven. God offers forgiveness, as should we. Let no debt remain but the debt of love.

11. Romans 13:5 -- "Therefore, it is necessary to submit to the authorities, not only because of possible punishment but also because of conscience." God cares about our obedience, but even more about the motives behind our obedience. In immaturity, we might obey God out of motives of fear, guilt, self-interest or even pride – much the same motives as a small child obeys a parent. As we grow in maturity, obedience comes more and more from a genuine, heartfelt desire to please, honor and love God – similar to the motives that cause young adults to still obey their parents, not "because of possible punishment," but from a heart of love and respect." The highest quality of character and maturity is selflessness; small children are naturally selfish, and even their obedience is self-centered – "What's in it for me?" If you are motivated to obedience based on the potential for rewards or punishments, you are in one sense not much different than a small child or even an animal who responds to "stick and carrot" discipline. However, the children of the God of Love should be inspired by love to do what is right and true. It is the Spirit that overpowers the natural (flesh). Paul encourages us, "Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature (Romans 13:14)."

12. Romans 13:7 -- "Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed." God expects you to gladly pay taxes and to respect governing authorities.

13. Romans 13:8 -- "Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law." Settle your debts immediately.

14. Romans 13:9, 10 -- In today's readings, Paul naturally transitions his conversation from obeying authorities to love, saying, "any... commandment [is] summed up in this word: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law." James said it this way: "If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, 'Love your neighbor as yourself,' you are doing right (James 2:8)." If we are disobedient or if we struggle to be obedient, it is a heart issue; it is a love issue.

15. Romans 13:14 -- "But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires." God wants you to live like Jesus and to stop trying to be something you're not. You are not an independent agent in life. The world will tell you, "Be yourself." The Bible says, "Be Jesus," the embodiment of his Spirit and character. Your life is over. You are now living His life on earth.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 27 April: Settle your debts today. If you owe someone $1.25, pay them back today. If you owe someone a letter, send it today. If you promised to lend something to someone or give them something, do it today. If you are behind on a deadline, finish it today. If you owe someone an apology, wait no longer. (Romans 13:8)

DBRP- WEEK 17, Day 4, Thursday, 26 Apr 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 26 Apr 18:

1. Judges 19:12 -- "And his master said to him, 'We will not turn aside into the city of foreigners, who do not belong to the people of Israel, but we will pass on to Gibeah.'" The Levite believed that God's people would be more trustworthy than unbelievers, but he was wrong. Today in America, the statistics on destructive and anti-social behaviors is almost identical within the church as within the secular society. What does the book of Judges have to say to us today?

2. Judges 19:22 -- "Bring out the man who came into your house, that we may know him." There is no limit to the depths to which people can sink when they turn from God. Sexual perversion is one of the most mentioned traits of the ungodly.

3. Judges 19:24 -- "Behold, here are my virgin daughter and his concubine. Let me bring them out now. Violate them and do with them what seems good to you, but against this man do not do this outrageous thing." The man was willing to sacrifice the women, even his daughter, to the sexual perverts in order to protect the Levite. Morality had come to a point in society where God's people were willing to compromise on one horrific sin in order to prevent another horrific sin. Today, we run the risk of giving in to sin after sin without realizing that it will never be enough to appease the ungodly. There is no compromising with the ungodly.

4. Judges 19:30 -- "Such a thing has never happened or been seen from the day that the people of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day; consider it, take counsel, and speak." The Levite had to do something shocking enough to get the nation's attention. To that point, no one seemed to care that the land had become so depraved.

5. Judges 20:5 -- "They meant to kill me, and they violated my concubine, and she is dead." The Levite didn't mention that he actually gave the concubine to the mob to save his own skin. This is like a child saying, "The lamp broke," rather than, "I broke the lamp." Adam demonstrated the same lack of acceptance of responsibility -- "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree...." (Genesis 3:12) The first step to growth is humility and a willingness to be honest with yourself, God, and others about your sin.

6. Judges 20:13 -- "'Now therefore give up the men, the worthless fellows in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and purge evil from Israel.' But the Benjaminites would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the people of Israel." The Benjaminites violently defended their sexually perverse and lawless lifestyle. Perhaps, they defended the perverse under the notion that people should have the right to live life however they want to live it. When the laws of man override the Laws of God, society is doomed to destruction. Today, our Nation has established and celebrates laws that directly defy God's laws. Watch and see what happens next.

7. Judges 20:16 -- "Among all these were 700 chosen men who were left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair and not miss." Many talented people are terrible sinners, and many will seek to validate sin by pointing to how talented the sinner is. For example, many people who openly practice sexual sins today, such as promiscuity, adultery, homosexuality, pornography, etc, are very talented and very personable; so, people will point to their talents to legitimize their sinful lifestyle. Regardless of shifting public opinion, sexual sins remain an abomination before God which will be judged.

8. Judges 20:19-48 -- Tens of thousands had to die to address normalized perversion in the land.

9. Proverbs 26:3 -- "A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools." If you don't live by the spirit, you will like an animal that only responds to pain or pleasure.

10. Proverbs 26:6-9 -- "Whoever sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks violence. Like a lame man's legs, which hang useless, is a proverb in the mouth of fools. Like one who binds the stone in the sling is one who gives honor to a fool. Like a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools." We are the messengers of Christ, and we must be very careful to be worthy of the calling. The Bible can be used improperly if not used in the Spirit. Bible knowledge is not Bible wisdom. Wisdom is knowledge rightly applied. A proverb in the mouth of a fool is hurtful. Often God's word is misused in ungracious and inappropriate ways by people with self-centered, self-serving, self-righteous motives. We are commanded to speak the truth – in love. When truth and love go together, this is true love.

11. Romans 12:1 -- "I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship." Real worship is to surrender your life to God in holiness.

12. Romans 12:2 -- "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect." The message of the world is not acceptable to God and competes with and distracts from the message of the Bible. You must be deep in the word and empowered by the Holy Spirit to be able to discern right and wrong in daily decisions.

13. Romans 12:3 -- "For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned." If you catch yourself singing your own praises, check yourself.

14. Romans 12:9 -- "Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil." To truly love is to hate evil; it is impossible to love while accepting evil which is always wholly contrary to love. God, who is Love, hates, "abhors" evil; therefore, we must hate evil also. God says that to truly worship Him, we must "present [our] bodies as... living sacrifice[s], holy and acceptable to God," and He warns us that the world's concept of love (along with concepts such as "acceptance" and "tolerance") are contrary to His -- "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect (Romans 12:2)." As we read in Judges today, the world loves evil and will violently oppose those who live by the love of God, but Paul encourages us, "Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good (Romans 12:21)."

15. Romans 12:9-21 -- This section of Romans 12, often entitled "Marks of the True Christian" is worth re-reading every day: Abhor evil; strive for goodness; love everyone as a brother or sister; work hard in service to God; persevere and pray; go out of your way to help other Christians; be uncommonly kind to those who are unkind to you; empathize with others; be equally kind and hospitable to everyone; do not think yourself wise.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 26 April: Today, consider everyone around you as far more important than you, and serve them accordingly. References from today's readings: "Outdo one another in showing honor." (Romans 12:10) Note: the word used for "honor" here is the same used to describe the value of an object or the money paid to acquire something -- worth. Consider everyone around you worthier than you today. Treat them that way and see what happens.

DBRP- WEEK 17, Day 3, Wednesday, 25 Apr 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 25 Apr 18:

1. Judges 17:2 -- "And he said to his mother, 'The 1,100 pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse, and also spoke it in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it.' And his mother said, 'Blessed be my son by the LORD.'" Micah stole from his mother who, in return, blessed him rather than holding him accountable for his actions, which helps us understand why Micah developed wanting character.

2. Judges 17:3, 4 -- "'I dedicate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a carved image and a metal image. Now therefore I will restore it to you.' So when he restored the money to his mother, his mother took 200 pieces of silver and gave it to the silversmith, who made it into a carved image and a metal image. And it was in the house of Micah." Not only did Micah's mother make a carved image, she also short-changed the promise by only dedicating 200 of the 1100 pieces. Integrity and fidelity were absent in Micah's home, while the family lived idolatrous lives 'for the Lord' -- more on this below....

3. Judges 17:5, 6 -- "And the man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and household gods, and ordained one of his sons, who became his priest. In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes." In a lawless land, Micah created his own rules for worship in complete disregard of God's commands, all the while believing God accepted his abominable worship. It is not uncommon to hear people tell themselves and others that God has blessed their idol or abomination; it is not uncommon to see people defy God's laws 'in the name of the lord.' Many examples of such practices are obvious to us, but Judges is written so we all would examine ourselves carefully to see where we are doing what seems right to us (in the name of the lord) rather than what God truly commands.

4. Judges 17:6 -- "Everyone did what was right in his own eyes." This verse, which is repeated several times in Judges, can be considered the theme of the book, and the modern reader often misses the power of this verse because we do not understand how shocking these chapters were to the Jewish reader -- let's review the chapter: A man steals 1,100 pieces of silver from his mother (unthinkable), and when he confesses to this crime, his mother doesn't scold him but rather blesses him (absurdity) and promises to use all this money for idolatry (though calling it worship to the Lord). As shocking as all that is, she then dedicates only 200 of the 1,100 pieces (not what she had vowed), to carve an idol, yes, an idol. Micah "ordains" the idol and makes one of his sons the priest (today you can become an ordained minister online) until a Levite comes along who agrees to be Micah's personal priest (instead of serving God's Temple, supported by the people, as God requires). In the midst of all this incredible, shocking sin which in God's Law is all punishable by death, Micah says, "Now I know that the Lord will prosper me, because I have a Levite as priest (Micah 17:13)." Then some Danites, on a mission of pillage, visit Micah's house and the Levite actually blesses their evil journey: "Go in peace. The journey on which you go is under the eye of the Lord (Judges 18:6)." [Do you not see this sort of false blessing all the time today?] When the Danites return later to Micah's house with a raiding party to attack a peaceful, unsuspecting village, they rob Micah's house of its idols and take the Levite with them, whose "heart was glad" because he considered being the priest of the Danites a more prestigious position (again, shocking). Micah pleads with the Danites: "You take my gods that I made and the priest, and go away, and what have I left (Judges 18:24)?" However, the Danites show no mercy. "But the people of Dan took what Micah had made, and the priest who belonged to him, and they came to Laish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, and struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire (Judges 18:27)." The Nation had drifted into shocking lawlessness, completely rejecting God's commands while all the while, maintaining their religion and claims of godliness. They were both religious and heartless, abominable to the Lord. They conformed religion to their evil hearts rather than conforming their evil hearts to the holiness of God. How did they get to this place? "Everyone did what was right in their own eyes." Note that they didn't think they were doing wrong, but in their own eyes, they thought they were doing right. However, to anyone who knows God's word, all of this should have been utterly shocking. Do you see any comparisons with what is going on in America today? What should be shocking to us is what is no longer shocking to us. Have you not noticed that the more the church drifts into sin the less we talk about sin? "Everyone did what was right in their own eyes."

5. Judges 17:10 -- "And Micah said to him, 'Stay with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year and a suit of clothes and your living.'" God gave specific instructions to the Israelites on how to care for the Levites who were also given specific instructions on when, where, and how to lead worship. However, by this point in Judges, the Levites have become traveling Priests for hire. Turning religion into a profession can be a dangerous thing. Today, there are many talented people profiting from the Gospel message. Matthew 10:8 -- "You received without paying; give without pay."

6. Judges 17:12 -- "And Micah ordained the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah." Micah thought he could ordain priests. Lawless brings highly presumptuous religious activity which does not honor the holiness of God.

7. Judges 17:13 -- "Then Micah said, 'Now I know that the LORD will prosper me, because I have a Levite as priest.'" Deep in religious activity, Micah was completely out of touch with The Lord. Many claim to hear from God and presumptuously assume God is ordaining what they have chosen to do. However, their focus is self-serving rather than Christ-serving. God is not deceived. Spiritual talk is not the same as spiritual walk. Jesus said, if you haven't started with denying self, and if you haven't taken up your cross, you are not truly, wholeheartedly following Him, and God has not ordained it, regardless of how many Bible verses you attach to it out of context (Matthew 16:24). In the Old Testament, God condemns the defiled and lame sacrifices offered to Him by the people -- "You offer defiled food on My altar, But say, 'In what way have we defiled You?' By saying, 'The table of the LORD is contemptible.' And when you offer the blind as a sacrifice, Is it not evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, Is it not evil? Offer it then to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Would he accept you favorably?" Says the LORD of hosts (Micah 1:7, 8)." Don't offer to the Lord what is acceptable to you, offer what is acceptable to Him.

8. Judges 18:5, 6 -- "And they said to him, 'Inquire of God, please, that we may know whether the journey on which we are setting out will succeed.' And the priest said to them, 'Go in peace. The journey on which you go is under the eye of the LORD.'" The Levite had not heard from God, and God was not with the Danites, but the Levite, who led unauthorized worship, told these ungodly marauders what they wanted to hear. Again, the Bible warns that we must not presume to speak for God in order to please ourselves or others -- "But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts (1 Thessalonians 2:4)." We cannot proclaim "peace" to others when they do not have "peace" with God through repentance and obedience -- "They have healed the wound of my people lightly, saying, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace (Jeremiah 6:14, 8:11)." Throughout the Bible, God has called His ambassadors to speak the truth in love, particularly to those who do not want to hear it -- "For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth (John 18:37)." However, too many have distorted God's word to "keep the peace" by telling people what they want to hear rather than what they need to hear, a sign of end times -- "For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. As for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry (2 Timothy 4:3-5)." Our readings from Proverbs warn us continually not to be a messenger who is unfaithful with the message.

9. Judges 18:20 -- "And the priest's heart was glad. He took the ephod and the household gods and the carved image and went along with the people." The Levite proved himself to an opportunist with no loyalty.

10. Judges 18:24 -- "And he said, 'You take my gods that I made and the priest, and go away, and what have I left?'" Micah placed all of his hope in false religion. Though he claimed that his false religion was honoring to God, it was powerless. If you place your hope in anything but Jesus, you will discover that you built the house of your life on sand. The house of cards will crumble, and the bigger the house, the harder it falls.

11. Judges 18:27 -- "...and they came to Laish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, and struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire." The Danites, blessed by their illegitimate priest, were ruthless and took advantage of the weak. Some of the most ruthless people claim to be the most righteous. Moralism is often the excuse for lawlessness.

12. Judges 18:30, 31 -- "And the people of Dan set up the carved image for themselves, and Jonathan the son of Gershom, son of Moses, and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land. So they set up Micah's carved image that he made, as long as the house of God was at Shiloh." Once again, the Danites used man-made religion to validate their sinful lifestyles as many do today. Today's most popular religion is secular humanism supported by a fake science that starts with the premise that there is no God. Judges 17 and 18 mark a transition point in the Book of Judges, the third, final section of the book. In this section, no foreign oppressors are mentioned, no judges identified, and the many shocking sins of the protagonists are not called out (it is left to reader to identify them). Most specifically, there are no longer accusations of idolatry – their syncretism was so complete that they thought that, in some strange way, their idol worship was actually acceptable to God, and it had become totally integrated into their worship. Note that there are no prayers to God, only blessings proclaimed in the name of God to validate sinful behavior. This section in the Book of Judges reveals a disintegrated, lawless society where every important societal institution has been totally corrupted – the family, the church, the government, the economy. To paint this picture, the book artfully guides the reader to follow a thread that leads from 1,100 pieces of stolen and cursed silver to a permanent idol set up in an unauthorized and ungodly "church" on bloody stolen soil not far from both the land that had been allotted to the tribe of Dan by God through Joshua and the town of Shiloh, the place of worship authorized by God. Again the numerous, appalling sins throughout the story are only mentioned, not specifically addressed. At this stage in the Book of Judges, the writer merely repeats the phrase, "In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes (Judges 17:6)." To drive the point home concerning the depths at which the nation had fallen, the author reveals at the end of chapter 18 who the "young Levite" was: "Jonathan the son of Gershom, son of Moses!" While scholars debate today over whether or not "Moses" should really read "Manasseh," the point remains that this unfaithful, ungodly, idolatrous priest for hire had come from a once great and noble lineage – everything had been ruined. I believe in this stage of the game, God has turned them over to their own desires to face the consequences, no Judges, no rebukes, no protection from themselves. At this stage, their worship is utterly worthless – keep in mind that we are talking about God's chosen people, not pagans. They are now on an inevitable path of terrible destruction. This is a terrifying place to be. The situation described in Judges is very similar to what Paul describes in Romans 1. How does this story apply to us today?

-- Matthew 16:3 -- "And in the morning, 'It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times."

-- 2 Timothy 4:2-4 -- "Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths."

-- Matthew 24:11-13 -- "And many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved."

13. Proverbs 25:2 -- "It is the glory of God to conceal things, but the glory of kings is to search things out." The old adage says, "Knowledge is power." Knowledge can be very valuable, but not when knowledge is used to build up pride, to achieve personal power for self-centered ends. Many subconsciously seek knowledge as a substitute for faith, an effort to free oneself from dependency on God, an effort to worship the god of self. Of End Times, Daniel says, "Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase." Also, Jesus said, "because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold." (Matthew 24:12) Today, society is in a frenzied pursuit of knowledge in order to save themselves and to eliminate the need for the Savior. As a result, the love of most is growing cold. As Paul said, "This 'knowledge' puffs up, but love builds up. (1 Corinthians 8:1) Read Romans 1:18-32 (written prior to Rome's fall) to see an accurate description of what is happening in society today. Seek knowledge in a selfless, humble way, and glorify God with your faith.

14. Proverbs 25:15-16 -- "With patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue will break a bone. If you have found honey, eat only enough for you, lest you have your fill of it and vomit it." A key principle in God's word is that lasting success is achieved little by little, step by step, overtime, and that patient restraint is vital. As the pastor says, "People always overestimate what they can do in a day and underestimate what they can do in a lifetime." Said another way, "Persistence overcomes the resistance." The mantra of society today is, "more, faster, better." People want quick fixes, quick answers, and instant success. Resist the temptation to "get rich quickly." Patiently obey and watch God work over time -- "The mighty oak does not grow over night."

15. Romans 11:4-5 -- Israel's failure to believe did not surprise God.

16. Romans 11:17-24-- God is both good and stern. You should trust and fear Him.

17. Romans 11:33-36 -- God's wisdom is beyond human understanding.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 25 April: Today, search yourself to see where you might be presuming that God will bless your idolatry. "Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry." (Colossians 3:5) "For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry." (1 Samuel 15:23)

DBRP- WEEK 17, Day 2, Tuesday, 24 Apr 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 24 Apr 18:

1. Judges 15:6 -- "Then the Philistines said, 'Who has done this?' And they said, 'Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion.' And the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.'" Samson's revenge resulted in the death of his wife. Had he handled it differently, she would have lived.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

2. Judges 16:1 -- "Samson went to Gaza, and there he saw a prostitute, and he went in to her." Samson, though called by God to serve Him mightily, completely defied God's commands, something for which God will certainly hold him accountable. Likewise, God will not tolerate any unrepentant sin in your life.

3. Judges 16:5 -- "Seduce him, and see where his great strength lies...." Samson's relationships were not godly or loving; therefore, he was not treated with love and faithfulness by those to whom he made himself vulnerable.

4. Judges 16:15 -- "And she said to him, 'How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me?'" The ungodly talk about love, but they have no idea what love really is. Love can only emanate from the Source, which is God Himself. We don't create love, we only share the love that flows from God through us. He is the Vine, we are but branches.

5. Proverbs 24:27 -- Do the hard things first.

6. Proverbs 24:32 -- "Then I saw and considered it; I looked and received instruction." Wisdom is revealed all around you if you will consider what is going on around you from the perspective of God's word. God's truths have predictable and visible consequences. You can learn much by watching how others apply or ignore God's commands to their lives.

7. Romans 10:1-4 -- "Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved. For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. For, being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes." I suspect most Christians would not say that their heart's desire (their truly earnest desire), their impassioned prayer is for the salvation of those who have hurt them or are hurting them. Paul's example is convicting.

8. Romans 10:3 -- "For, being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness." There is absolutely nothing we can do to make ourselves righteous or "right" with God, though many, even many who claim Christianity, seek to establish their righteousness by virtue of their good deeds. Many become prideful in their behavior and look down on others who appear, in their eyes, to be more sinful than they are. However, righteousness can only come through faith in Jesus Christ and the free gift of salvation that comes through Him and Him alone as He imparts his righteousness upon us. It is by faith that we are saved and not by anything we do. None of our efforts contribute to our salvation. Will you "submit to God's righteousness" rather than attempting to "establish [your] own?"

9. Romans 10:2 -- "For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge." Sincerity and conviction are not enough. Being devout is not enough either. Many people are devout in many religions, but there is no way to salvation but through faith in Jesus Christ.

10. Romans 10:9 -- "If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." How is one saved? "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." (v13) Calling upon His name is not merely a verbal act, it is a matter of the heart.

11. Romans 10:14, 15 -- "How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, 'How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!'" Do you have beautiful feet? Does your love for God and your love for others (the Great Commandment) compel you uncontrollably to preach the Good News?

12. Romans 10:17 -- "So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ." Does your love for God and others arouse in you a passion to study God's word so that you will be "prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you (1 Peter 3:15)?"

- Mathew 28:19, 20 -- Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

- Proverbs 24:11-12 -- Rescue those being led away to death; hold back those staggering toward slaughter. If you say, "But we knew nothing about this," does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who guards your life know it? Will he not repay everyone according to what they have done?

13. Romans 10:21 -- "All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people." The sceptic will often ask, "What about those in foreign lands who have never heard of Jesus?" This question is often an attempt by the sceptic to shift attention away from their own burden of responsibility to deal with the Truth presented to them. There is not enough evidence or logic in the world to convince someone to believe what they really don't want to accept – it is not an issue of intellect; it is an issue of the heart, the spirit.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 24 April: Today, earnestly pray for the salvation of those who you find most offensive. If this is hard for you, pray that God will change your heart. (Romans 10:1-4)

DBRP- WEEK 17, Day 1, Monday, 23 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Judges+13%2C+14%3B+proverbs+23%3B+romans+9>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 23 Apr 18:

1. Judges 13:1 -- "The LORD gave them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years." God's discipline of the nation lasted for decades.

2. Judges 13:4 -- "Therefore be careful and drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean." God expects parents to prepare themselves to raise godly children and then guide them in godliness at the earliest of age.

3. Judges 13:8 -- "Then Manoah prayed to the Lord: 'O Lord, I beg you, let the man of God you sent to us come again to teach us how to bring up the boy who is to be born.'" Oh, what a different world it would be if more parents sought the Lord's guidance and direction in raising their children as did Manoah. The Bible says that a primary purpose of marriage is to raise up godly children (Malachi 2:15). Parents are accountable before God for how they raise their children. Proverbs tell parents, "Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it (Proverbs 22:6)," and the key to parenting is to teach children "so that [their] trust may be in the Lord (Proverbs 22:19)." Parents have no greater responsibility in life.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Judges 14:2 -- "I saw one of the daughters of the Philistines at Timnah. Now get her for me as my wife." Hebrews 11 lists Gideon, Jephthah, and Samson in the "Hall of Fame of Faith," as men who "were made strong out of weakness (Hebrews 11:34)." These were all men who had been uniquely and mightily empowered by God but let pride, lust, and self-centeredness get the best of them. They failed to guard their hearts -- "Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life (Proverbs 4:23)." An uninspired book written by men for the sake of a false religion would have made these "heroes" out to be both mighty and noble in character, but the word of God intentionally reveals the truth of these men to reveal the truth of our sinful condition, the truth of God's holiness, mercy, grace, love and righteousness, and the truth of our need to walk by the Spirit in obedience and not by the flesh. Samson was set apart as a Nazarite (Numbers 6) for a great mission, and he was mightily empowered by God for God's purposes. However, although empowered by the Spirit, Samson did not walk by the Spirit but rather walked in the flesh, (Galatians 5:16-26) recklessly pursuing self-gratification, never asking God, "What is to be [my] manner of life, and what is [my] mission (Hebrews 13:12)?" He stubbornly and irrationally pursued his own passions. Notice in our readings today that, while his parents had personal, powerful encounters with God, there is no recorded dialogue between Samson and God, no prayer life, no concern for God's word. It wouldn't be long before Samson broke every vow of the Nazarite and committed many other sins too. In today's readings, he marries a Philistine woman (forbidden by God in Deuteronomy 7) because he was attracted to her (Judges 14:3). He eats honey out of the carcass of a dead lion, even offering honey to his parents, blatantly defying the Nazarite requirement not to touch the dead, and he is driven by fits of rage and "hot anger" (see Galatians 5:20). Though God would still accomplish His purposes through Samson, despite Samson's blatant infidelity, the consequences of Samson's behavior would be needlessly devastating to him. Already, Samson has lost his first wife -- "And Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man (Judges 14:20)." What can be confusing in our readings is the fact that Samson's improper marriage was "from the Lord" (Judges 14:4) and that despite Samson's incredible sin, the Spirit continued to empower him. Is God condoning or overlooking sin? Did God intend for Samson to sin? No. The Bible is clear that "God cannot be tempted with evil, and He Himself tempts no one (James 1:13)." God used the truth of Samson's bad character and the inevitable fruit of Samson's bad character to reveal truth and expose sin. Notice that when the Spirit empowers Samson it is either to protect Samson or to bring destruction upon the Philistines, not to enable sin. As we shall see, God doesn't overlook Samson's sin at all -- Samson will soon be driven to his knees. The truth can be revealed in a positive way or a negative way. I pray that we will walk by the Spirit, not by the flesh, that the Truth will be revealed to a watching world through our lives in a very positive way.

5. Judges 14:3 -- "Get her for me, for she is right in my eyes." What is right in our own eyes is not what matters but rather what is right in God's eyes.

6. Judges 14:20 -- "And Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man." Samson's closest relationships with unbelievers were unreliable. God is love. Those who do not know God cannot truly love others.

7. Proverbs 23:1-3 -- "When you sit down to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you.... Do not desire his delicacies, for they are deceptive food." The American Founding Fathers had a healthy distrust of government for good reason. As the saying goes, power corrupts, and absolute power corrupts absolutely. God gives authority to government, and we are to submit to it. Government is necessary as a means to protect life and property. But any government of man will reflect man's fallenness and shortcomings, and government often empowers sin. There is no such thing as a Christian nation. There are only Christian people who may influence a nation and its processes. Christians in America are given a unique access to government, which we should use wisely; but it is important that we maintain perspective on the realities of government. When we start to think that our hope is in government, we are in danger. Political leaders promise many delicacies, but it is deceptive food. There are no gifts from the government that don't have a string attached.

8. Proverbs 23:4 – “Do not toil to acquire wealth; be discerning enough to desist.” Do not think that your security comes from wealth and so neglect your relationship with God. If you cannot find time to study the Bible, pray, fellowship with your church, raise your family as disciples, minister to the needs of others, etc, you are doing something wrong.

9. Proverbs 23:17 – “Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day.” Obey and follow God; don't just do what is popular.

10. Romans 9:1, 2 -- “I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience bears me witness in the Holy Spirit— that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.” Paul loved his people so much that he was willing to confront them with the truth, even at the expense of his relationship with them, even at the expense of his own life. He sought peace – peace between them and God, not peace with them (a truce) while they remained in sin. On the contrary, he was willing to cause conflict in order to promote love, true love, love that can only come from fellowship with God. He would rather be hated than that they might learn the love of Christ. John the Baptist had the same heart for Herod when he challenged Herod on his adultery. Do you have the heart for those around you to tell them the truth, to call them to repentance in love?

11. Romans 9:8 -- "This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring." God has spiritual children on earth but no grandchildren. Spiritual birth is strictly between God and the individual and has nothing to do with earthly heritage. Galatians 3:29 -- "And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise."

12. Romans 9:18 – “So then he has mercy on whomever he wills, and he hardens whomever he wills.” It is impossible for us to understand what God is doing in the lives of others or who God will draw to His Son. At one point, Paul, still known as Saul, actively persecuted Christians; would you have maintained hope in his salvation at that time, prayed for him earnestly from the heart, and sought opportunity to proclaim the Gospel to him? Or would you have viewed him as the enemy, seeking ill will towards him? The Bible reminds us that people are not the enemy; Satan who controls them is the enemy. People separated from God are the goal of our mission. Prayer is our primary weapon. It might have been wise to avoid Paul when he was still Saul, but during that time praying for him and remaining prepared to proclaim the Gospel to him in word and deed remained essential. Check your perspective and your heart very carefully when dealing with ungodly people, particularly ungodly people who threaten you in some way. Pray for them with a genuine heart for their reconciliation; and if you find any resentment in your own heart, pray that God will conform your heart to that of Jesus' who died for those who persecuted Him.

13. Romans 9:32 -- Faith without works is dead. Works without faith is also dead. Salvation comes through faith. Obedience is the natural result of faith. Jesus is very clear, those who truly love Him obey

Him because they love Him and are compelled to care deeply about what He cares about. Those who love Jesus need not be constrained by the Law. The Law is still valid, reflecting the character and desires of God, but no longer something one struggles over.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 23 April: Today, always speak the truth in love when others need to hear it (Romans 9:1, 2). Remember that you are an ambassador for Christ, and your goal is to bring others to peace with God (reconciliation), not necessarily to keep the peace when sin abounds. Consider the words of Jesus -- "For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth (John 18:37)."

DBRP- WEEK 16, Day 7, Sunday, 22 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Judges+11%2C+12%3B+proverbs+22%3B+psalm+47%2C+48>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 22 Apr 18:

1. Judges 11:2, 3 -- "...they drove Jephthah out and said to him, 'You shall not have an inheritance in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman.' Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob, and worthless fellows collected around Jephthah and went out with him." How often do we judge others without considering the circumstances that contributed to who they have become and that helped to influence their behavior? If we had experienced their circumstances, are we certain that we wouldn't have made the same mistakes in life if not worse? And how often does our response to sinners merely drive them into deeper sin rather than lead them toward repentance, reconciliation, and a right relationship with God? God has given us a message of reconciliation before a sinful world. Does our behavior draw sinners towards Jesus Christ or repel them?

- 2 Corinthians 5:17-19 -- Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

2. Judges 11:31-39 – Did Jephthah sacrifice his daughter? Jephthah may not have actually killed his daughter, though this is what is usually preached. Jephthah may have committed his daughter to celibate service to the Lord (a living sacrifice). Human sacrifice was forbidden to a Jew (Leviticus 20:2; Deuteronomy 18:10), and the Bible offers substitute (or redemption) for human sacrifice -- "And all the firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem." (Exodus 13:13) Many believe that Jephthah and his daughter did not mourn her looming death but rather the fact that she would never have children:

- "Several contextual indicators support this conclusion. First, the two-month period of mourning that Jephthah granted to his daughter was not for the purpose of grieving over her impending loss of life, but over the fact that she would never be able to marry. She bewailed her virginity (bethulim)—not her death (11:37). Second, the text goes out of its way to state that Jephthah had no other children: "[S]he was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter" (11:34). For his daughter to be consigned to perpetual celibacy meant the extinction of Jephthah's family line—an extremely serious and tragic matter to an Israelite (cf. Numbers 27:1-11; 36:1ff.). Third, the sacrifice is treated as unfortunate—again, not because of any concern over her death, but because she would not become a mother. After stating that Jephthah "did with her according to his vow which he had vowed," the inspired writer immediately adds, "and knew no man" (11:39). This statement would be a completely superfluous and callous remark if she had been put to death. Fourth, the declaration of Jephthah's own sorrow (11:35) follows immediately after we are informed that he had no other children (11:34). Jephthah was not upset because his daughter would die a virgin. He was upset because she would live and remain a virgin. Hannah made a similar sacrifice when she turned her son over to the priestly direction of Eli for the rest of his life (1 Samuel 1:11). How many are willing to make such sacrifices? Actually, however, these tremendous acts of devotion were no greater than that which God requires of all Christians: to offer ourselves as spiritual burnt-offerings in service to God (Romans 12:1)." -- Apologetics Press

- On the other hand, if Jephthah did kill his daughter, it would be no more shocking than other stories we are about to read in Judges. As previously mentioned, Gideon's personal ephod was a direct affront to God that should jump out as scandalous to the highest degree; the Bible does not specifically call out the point, assuming the reader would clearly understand the nature of the offense. Human sacrifice was common among the Baal worshippers, and we know that God punished the Israelites for practicing child sacrifices as the Baal worshippers did. Archeology has also confirmed that the Jews slipped into child sacrifice associated with Baal worship. There is no limit to the evil of people who have rejected God. Where God reigns in the hearts of men, we have a reflection of Heaven – "Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven (Matthew 6:10)." Conversely, were God has been rejected, we will see a reflection of Hell. The Book of Judges is a warning to future generations as to what happens when society turns from God; it is appalling. "Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near." (Luke 10:11)

3. Judges 11:35 -- "I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot take back my vow." Take your promises to God very seriously -- He does, and He demands that you fulfill them, holding you accountable if you don't. Be very careful not to make promises to God in haste. Having said that, if you have made a vow to sin against God, you must not keep it. You will simply have to bear the burden of your careless words, rather than also the guilt of the act. Remember, Jesus said that we will be held accountable for every careless word that comes out of our mouth.

4. Judges 11:36 -- "My father, you have opened your mouth to the LORD; do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth." Jephthah's daughter demonstrates incredible faith, surrendering her fate to God while honoring the promises of her father.

5. Judges 12:1 -- "Why did you cross over to fight against the Ammonites and did not call us to go with you?" People will hate you simply because God has blessed you. People will also hate you when you receive the reward for doing what was right when they didn't choose to do what was right. Gideon previously faced the same envy that Jephthah does in this chapter, but Gideon handled it better. The 42,000 Ephraimites who are about to die are a reminder of how destructive envy is and why one should avoid a quarrel before it gets out of hand.

6. Judges 12:6 -- "Then say Shibboleth." This may be the first recorded example of racial profiling. Ephraimites could not pronounce "Shibboleth" but rather said, "Sibboleth." Anyone trying to escape the battle by crossing the river who was an Ephraimite died that day. This was a real tragedy. Discrimination is not always a bad thing. The word "discrimination" has two definitions: one simply means to distinguish one thing from another by identifying exposed differences, such as distinguishing men from women, tall people from short people, adults from children. This form of discrimination is used by everyone every day, including law enforcement. For example, if a man commits a crime, it would likely be a waste of time and resources to question women too, simply out of some self-induced “fairness” rule. However, men should not be presumed guilty or treated differently simply because they are men. The other definition for discrimination is to make a difference in treatment or favor based upon anything other than individual merit. The Bible strictly forbids favoring or treating people differently by virtue of their natural physical attributes or cultural attributes. However, it is foolish to act as if physical attributes and cultural attributes aren’t used to distinguish one person from another. Observe how many times the Bible mentions that someone was known for a physical or cultural attribute. God made us able to see the difference. The main issue is how you treat people who are different.

7. Proverbs 22:10 -- "Drive out a scoffer, and strife will go out, and quarreling and abuse will cease." Strong teams, churches, or organizations cannot tolerate divisive people.

8. Proverbs 22:21 -- "...to make you know what is right and true, that you may give a true answer to those who sent you?" God's word will give you a true answer.

9. Psalm 47:5-9 -- “God has gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet. Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises! For God is the King of all the earth; sing praises with a psalm! God reigns over the nations; God sits on his holy throne. The princes of the peoples gather as the people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God; he is highly exalted!” If we don’t feel overwhelmed with a desire to praise God today, despite circumstances, it is because we have a wrong perspective of God and the reality of the situation at hand. Joy is an issue of perception and understanding.

10. Psalm 48:13, 14 -- "Tell the next generation that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will guide us forever." One of our greatest responsibilities is to pass our knowledge of God to the next generation.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 22 April: Pray that God will reveal Himself to you in a way that will naturally make praising Him your passion. Throughout the day, recount your many blessings today. Share with others the joy you have in Jesus. Proclaim the goodness of God to as many as you can today but especially to your own family.

DBRP- WEEK 16, Day 6, Saturday, 21 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Judges+9%2C+10%3B+proverbs+21%3B+psalm+46>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 21 Apr 18:

1. Judges 9:3-5 -- "...their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, 'He is our brother.'... Abimelech hired worthless and reckless fellows, who followed him. And he went to his father’s house at Ophrah and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone." When greed and prejudice dominate politics, corrupt and heartless leaders are chosen who will destroy.

2. Judges 9:14, 15 -- “Then all the trees said to the bramble, ‘You come and reign over us.’ And the bramble said to the trees, ‘If in good faith you are anointing me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade.’” The first parable recorded in the Bible is about the consequence of raising up corrupt leaders, professional politicians: Abimelech (meaning: "my father is king"), an illegitimate son of Gideon’s, born of a concubine who was in Shechem, convinced the leaders of Schechem, appealing to their racism (Shechem was a Canaanite city), to make him King. With the money that he was paid, Abimelech hires “worthless and reckless fellows, who followed him,” and he eliminates his legitimate opposition, the rightful successors of Gideon – he kills “his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, for he hid himself.” At Abimelech’s inauguration ceremony as King before the people of Schechem, Jotham stands on top of a distant hill and shouts out the “Parable of the Trees.” In the parable, the trees decide to elect a king, and they ask first the Olive tree, then the fig tree, and then the grape vine, but they all refuse to be king because they are all successful, important contributors to society and have no desire to leave their industry to “hold sway over the trees.” So, finally, they go to the bramble (thorn bush), and ask the bramble to reign. The bramble who serves no productive value in society, produces nothing, but only feeds off of the labors of others gladly accepts leadership, promising to give all the other trees “refuge” in his “shade,” as if a thorn bush offers any shade. The parable accurately predicts that the bramble will “devour the cedars of Lebanon.” This story in Judges goes far beyond revealing the consequences of Gideon’s sin (an important lesson in itself), it sends an important message/warning about politicians. There is a terrible consequence of electing worthless leaders, lacking character and competence, men and women who make empty promises and rally rabble to political action in order to remain in power, who feed off of the productivity of others. These career politicians, brambles offer refuge and shade but only destroy. Our Founding Fathers had a healthy distrust of government that came from not only their own experiences but also from their knowledge of the Bible:

- “These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen and to run before his chariots. And he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots. He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers. He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive orchards and give them to his servants. He will take the tenth [you wish it was just a 10th] of your grain and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and to his servants. He will take your male servants and female servants and the best of your young men and your donkeys, and put them to his work. He will take the tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves. And in that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the Lord will not answer you in that day.” (1 Samuel 8:11-18)

- How important is it to elect men and women of true character and competence to office? I don’t believe this can be done without a concerted effort on the part of Christians who have always served as the conscience of America. Like the olive tree, the fig tree, and the grape vine, we can get so focused on contributing to society that we miss that the thorn bushes are slowly devouring us. Christians must re-discover their voice in the social dialogue in order to influence change.

3. Judges 9:56, 57 -- "Thus God returned the evil of Abimelech, which he committed against his father in killing his seventy brothers. And God also made all the evil of the men of Shechem return on their heads, and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal." God will judge both corrupt leaders as well as those who chose them.

4. Judges 10:8 -- "For eighteen years they oppressed all the people of Israel who were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead." It takes a long time to change the character of a people so that they will again seek The Lord.

5. Proverbs 21:2 -- "Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the heart." God defines right and wrong not people.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. Proverbs 21:27 -- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with evil intent." God examines the motives behind what you do. You can do the right things for the wrong reasons and receive God's disfavor.

7. Psalm 46:10, 11 -- "Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!" The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress." Relax. God is God, and He is with you and will protect you.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 21 April: Resolve not to get worried about news, politics, and the craziness of life around you. Rather, "be still," and trust God. When others start talking about politics and politicians, talk about Jesus and the Ways of God. Proclaim the truth in love and remain calm. Remind people that only Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, the only true hope for peace and unity.

DBRP- WEEK 16, Day 5, Friday, 20 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Judges+7%2C+8%3B+proverbs+20%3B+Romans+8>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 20 Apr 18:

1. Judges 7:2 -- "The people with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel boast over me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.'" God intends to eliminate your pride in your accomplishments and your idol of self. He doesn't just want you to experience your full potential; He wants you to experience Him.

2. Judges 7:4 -- "The people are still too many. Take them down to the water, and I will test them for you there." There is a difference between being willing and being worthy. God sifted 32,000 to find 300 who were both willing and worthy. Within the original 32,000 who formed for battle with Gideon, only 10,000 were willing to stay when given a choice. However, at the watering hole, only 300 proved to have the character to participate in God's great battle. Desert thirst revealed the discipline, self-control, and fortitude of the troops (or lack thereof). Most of the troops, inwardly focused, abandoned their security posture and bearing and essentially dove in the water; meanwhile, 300, who were just as thirsty as the others, knelt at the water, likely with weapons in hand and, in a controlled, disciplined manner, drank. These 300 revealed the strength of character required for God's service. God wanted his people to understand that it was His power, not theirs, that would bring victory, but He would use their discipline, courage, and obedience in the process, giving them the opportunity to experience Him in a way few others would. The 300 took the signaling devices (trumpets and torches) of 30,000+ troops and surrounded the Midianites in the middle of the night. When Gideon's 300 broke the jars concealing the torches, shouted, and blew their trumpets, the Midianites and their allies believed they were being attacked on all sides by 30,000; in their panic they turned on each other and fled. Gideon's army then pursued the enemy as far as they could. Over 120,000 enemy were killed. This bold and daring shock attack required perfect execution on the part of every member of the 300. They had to be wholly reliable. They had to have uncommon discipline, courage, and commitment. They had to be more than willing to serve God, they had to be worthy. The difference was discipline. The discipline of a true disciple. Discipline is the force multiplier and game changer that separates the strong from the weak. Discipline (self-control) is the fruit of the Spirit that draws from your true passions, your desire to love Jesus rather than to seek comfort. Discipline is developed day-by-day but pays off when the hard times or big challenges come. If you don't develop your discipline today, you won't have it when you really need it. "If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small." (Proverbs 24:10)

3. Judges 7:14 -- God can cause the hearts of your adversaries to melt without you doing a thing.

4. Judges 7:19 -- It is easy to exploit the weakness and complacency of those who are undisciplined.

5. Judges 7:19-22 -- God uses tactics. Gideon's plan involved surprising the enemy in the middle of the night, using trumpets and horns (signal devices for large troop formations) to give the enemy the impression that they were surrounded by 30,000 troops without warning. This caused the enemy to melt in panic and fear. God's plan for Gideon's army required perfect execution with every single person doing exactly what they were told to do exactly when and how they were told to do it. When God gives you a plan and instructions, you have to follow the plan and obey. Can you imagine what would have happened if Noah decided to skip some of God's directed steps for building the ark? Can you imagine what would have happened if the Israelites decided to only march six times around Jericho rather than seven? Follow-through is also an act of faith, hope, love, and discipline.

6. Judges 8:1 -- "Then the men of Ephraim said to him, 'What is this that you have done to us, not to call us when you went to fight against Midian?' And they accused him fiercely." God's blessings in your life will cause others to be jealous of you and hate you.

7. Judges 8:1-4 -- "What have I done now in comparison with you?" Though wrongly accused and scorned, Gideon acted wisely by swallowing his pride and responding to criticism with gracious words in order to prevent a needless fight -- "A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger (Proverbs 15:1). A hot-tempered man stirs up strife, but he who is slow to anger quiets contention (Proverbs 15:18). It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife, but every fool will be quarreling (Proverbs 20:3)."

8. Judges 8:6 -- "And the officials of Succoth said, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?'" Most people only stand for what is right when it is safe to do so. Things that matter require courage and the willingness to take risks. Without faith it is impossible to please God.

9. Judges 8:23 -- "Gideon said to them, 'I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the LORD will rule over you.'" Gideon had a false humility which is a common character flaw of which the Bible warns. He said he didn't want to be king yet he names his son "son of a king" -- his words did not match his true heart, motives, and actions. Most shockingly, he uses some of the gold to make for himself an ephod (Judges 8:27) which was only to be worn by the high priest -- the leader. His approbation (desire for recognition, praise and attention -- Matthew 23:5) lust turned into power lust and materialism (Isaiah 14:13-14; 1 Timothy 6:10). In his self-centered leadership, Gideon wanted to rewards and honor of a King without the responsibilities. Gideon used God's gifts to make himself rich and famous. Though he said he didn't want to be king, his son's name means "son of the king." His pride and greed would literally destroy His family, about which we will soon read. One key message we can't miss in the Bible is that we are not heroes but mere sinners. ALL glory and honor go to God. We have important lessons to learn from Gideon who was uniquely empowered by God and was incredibly successful, up to the point where he thought himself worthy of honor; then the house of cards fell.

- The story of Gideon's Army is one of my favorite stories in the Bible which reveals how God takes simple people with the willingness and discipline to follow and obey Him and uses them in mighty ways to do the seemingly impossible, not for their glory but rather for His glory; and not using their might, talent and skills, but rather using His power through them that the world may see His power rather than what men can do. The story of Gideon's Army' victory in Judges 7 offers powerful life lessons, but so does the rest of Gideon's story, which starts in Judges 8, describing Gideon's tragic and destructive failure. Gideon, the simple farmer, was used mightily by God, but pride got the best of him, and he sought to glorify himself rather than God. Though he claimed to be humble and to put God first, he used God's blessings to make himself rich and bring himself prestige. Gideon did a shocking thing by making for himself an ephod. He made himself to be an idol before the people and caused great sin in the land due to his presumptuous arrogance. Have you ever been to a church that was quite proud of their very talented and well-known pastor? As we will read tomorrow, Gideon's pride not only brought great destruction to his family, it also proved tragic to his community. How often have you seen blessed people bring honor to themselves? How many fortunate people have you seen name things after themselves – buildings, hospitals, foundations, institutions, even churches? How about us? How have we used the blessings God has bestowed upon us? Have we sought to gain comfort and status for ourselves, or have we sought to use what God has given us for His glory and honor? Do you want people to honor you or Jesus?

10. Proverbs 20:1 -- "Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler, and whoever is led astray by it is not wise." The Bible does not forbid the drinking of alcohol, just drinking in excess. However, the Bible gives us a higher calling to "walk" in love and not to do anything that would cause another to stumble -- "If your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love.... For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.... it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble.... (Romans 14:13-23)." America has an alcohol problem, and many people around you struggle with alcohol. Is your employment of your freedom to drink alcohol normalizing or promoting a behavior that leads others astray? Yes, you are your brother's keeper.

11. Proverbs 20:3 -- "It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife, but every fool will be quarreling." Don't be a fool and get involved in quarrelling. Have you ever, through sound wisdom and gifted speech convinced a fool of anything? Fools are people who refuse to hear and learn, who are controlled by emotions and passion. Stay away from pointless arguments that only distract people from the Gospel. You are an ambassador for Christ, not for good ideas, current standards of morality, social customs, or politics. Proclaim Jesus and stay above the fray.

12. Proverbs 20:5 -- "The purpose in a man's heart is like deep water, but a man of understanding will draw it out." Understand what a person really cares about, what is at the center of his life, and what is the primary source of his motivation, and you can predict very accurately what he will say and do. And you can discern if the path he is on is taking him to where he really needs to go, which is closer to Jesus. Most people are unconsciously and subtly deceptive (to themselves and others) in their words and behavior, saying, displaying, and often doing things that they don't really mean -- smiling when inside they are upset, asking others how they are doing when really, they don't care, saying they want to do something when they really don't, or saying they don't want to do something when they really do. Many communicate deception because in their hearts they believe the truth is unacceptable. It takes patient discernment to see beyond the façade or masks people wear to understand the deep waters of a person's heart, and ultimately, only the Holy Spirit can show you something about a person that is impossible for you to see through human discernment. So, the first step is to pray for Holy Spirit enabled discernment and to love others enough to move past the superficial.

13. Romans 8:5 – “For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit.” Living by the Spirit causes a completely different way of thinking and acting. It is impossible to think and act the same after genuine salvation.

14. Romans 8:12, 13 – Mature Christians no longer live by the flesh. Mature Christians obey God, not just because they have to or are afraid not to but because they really want to.

15. Romans 8:26, 27 -- Pray continuously and remember that the Spirit is helping you with your prayers.

16. Romans 8:28 -- All things don't work together for good for everyone, just for those who truly love God and are called according to His purpose. See John 17 to understand His purpose for you.

17. Romans 8:31-35 -- No matter what anyone says or how you might feel during times of failure, nothing can hinder God's love for you as a Christian.

18. Romans 8:39 -- When the Bible says nothing can separate you from the love of God, it doesn't mean few things can separate you; it means NOTHING.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 20 April: Today, examine your humility. What is Christ-like humility? Are you humble? Are you proud of how humble you are? Humility is the product of a true appreciation of who God is and of our total dependence on His mercy and grace. Humility is a produce of Spirit-empowered love. Humility results in selflessness and is revealed in how we treat others and how we respond to situations. Too often we act humble (for personal approval or for the approval of others -- self-righteousness) when we are not really humble at heart. Too often, like Gideon, we speak and act humbly when our actual motives are prideful. Consider your humility today. Will you value God and others today more than yourself and totally surrender yourself to the love?

DBRP- WEEK 16, Day 4, Thursday, 19 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Judges+5%2C+6%3B+proverbs+19%3B+Romans+7>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 19 Apr 18:

1. Judges 5:4 -- "Yes, the clouds dropped water." God uses things only He can control to determine circumstances and to accomplish His purposes. Rain storms are not normally viewed as miraculous events, but when God uses them to bog down chariots at just the right time, God's people see His power in action.

2. Judges 5:4, 21 -- "...yes, the clouds dropped water.... The torrent Kishon swept them away, the ancient torrent, the torrent Kishon." Sisera had 900 iron chariots while the Israelites had largely disarmed themselves. For 20 years Sisera oppressed the Israelites as God allowed because the nation had turned away from God. Under impossible circumstances, God called His people to join Him in what He was going to do. This required faith to believe God would do the impossible. Some believed and went to battle and some did not. Those who did not live by faith missed an encounter with God, and now their rebuke is recorded in God's word for eternity. The faithful experienced the power of God in their lives and are forever praised in God's word. God revealed Himself to his people by doing only what He can do: He "lured" Sisera's chariots to the Kishon River and then brought heavy rains causing the river to flood. Iron chariots don't provide much mobility in water and mud. God then orchestrated the meeting of Sisera and Jael. God brings the victory; we just need to be willing to show up and obey. God will always ask us to do the impossible because He intends to show the world His power, not ours. If we refuse to step into the impossible, we cannot experience God and be used by Him. What is God telling you to do that is impossible? Are you ready to obey?

3. Judges 5:9 -- "My heart goes out to the commanders of Israel who offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless the Lord." Some people offer themselves willingly to serve the Lord, others don't. God knows the difference and favors the willing and faithful servant.

4. Judges 5:15-18 -- "In the districts of Reuben there was much searching of heart. Why did you stay among the campfires to hear the whistling of the flocks? In the districts of Reuben there was much searching of heart. Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan. And Dan, why did he linger by the ships? Asher remained on the coast and stayed in his coves. The people of Zebulun risked their very lives; so did Naphtali on the heights of the field." Deborah the prophetess was called at a time when God's people lacked leadership and, as a result, evil reigned. Deborah had to cajole Barak to stand up against God's enemies. Among the tribes, only Zebulun and Naphtali and some other stragglers (10,000 foot-mobile men in total) had the courage to fight Sisera's 900,000 iron chariots. The vast majority of "God's people" were more impressed with the seemingly impossible odds than God's message to them -- "Has not the Lord gone ahead of you (Judges 6:14)?" For the majority, at the moment of decision, when it really mattered, "there was much searching of heart." Today there is a major spiritual war underway, and the Church lacks leadership. Will you be among the faithful willing to stand up and be counted, or will you remain "in the rear with the gear?" Don't be mistaken, if you are not getting shot at, you are not in the fight. As a Christian, you don't want to end up on the wrong side of eternal history for not serving when you had the chance.

5. Judges 5:23 -- "Curse Meroz, says the angel of the Lord, curse its inhabitants thoroughly, because they did not come to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty." Again, don't be that person, stuck with a story like this for eternity. Your once-in-a-lifetime opportunity is today.

6. Judges 6:11 -- "Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress to hide it from the Midianites." Gideon was in a winepress because He was hiding. He needed courage only God could enable. "The Lord is with you, O mighty man of valor." (Judges 6:12) God saw the Gideon that Gideon himself could not see. The angel of the Lord could see beyond current realities to future realities and addressed Gideon as the man he would be rather than who he was currently. Similarly, we must see people not just as they are but as who they could become in faith in Jesus Christ. Treat people like they are the person they could be and watch what happens.

7. Judges 6:14 -- "Go in this might of yours and save Israel from the hand of Midian; do not I send you?" Once again, God calls us to do what is impossible for us of our own strength so that the world can see the power of God operating through His people, bringing glory to Him and not to the people. Today, the angel of the Lord appears to Gideon, a man of social insignificance who is hiding out from the Midianites in a winepress (a hole), and the angel addresses him as "mighty man of valor (Judges 6:11)." The irony of this address is as clear to the reader as it is to Gideon, and the angel's charge to Gideon to "Go in this might of yours and save Israel from the hand of Midian" is from all observations downright absurd. The Midianites were heavily armed, highly trained, ruthless, camel-riding marauders who fought for a living and who significantly outnumbered the Israelites ("both they and their camels could not be counted"). The Israelites had succumbed to subjugation – "Was shield or spear to be seen among forty thousand in Israel (Judges 5:8)?" Like Gideon the rest of the Israelites had gone to hiding in dens and caves in the mountains. Gideon was not only weak, he was lacking in faith. Even after the angel of the Lord appeared to him, Gideon asked for a series of "signs" that might prove his calling. Apart from God, there was no mighty warrior in Gideon, and he was powerless before the Midianites, but God was not asking Gideon to do what Gideon could do, God was commanding Gideon to OBEY in faith because God could work through him to accomplish His purpose with His power for His glory. This command to Gideon caused a crisis of belief. It doesn't take faith to do what we know we can do with our own abilities. It always takes faith to do what God is asking us to do because God always asks us to do the impossible – "And without faith it is impossible to please him (Hebrews 11:6)." What made Gideon a "mighty man of valor," and what was the "might of yours" to which the angel referred? God's answer to Gideon is the same answer God gives us: "The Lord is with you.... do not I send you?" (Judges 6:12-14) The question is, what will we do when God's call to us to do the impossible causes a crisis of belief for us? Will we have the faith to step into the Red Sea, fiery furnace, or the lion's den to put our lives on the line for the Lord? Or will we be like the districts of Reuben, Gilead, Dan, and Asher who refused to stand and be counted for the fight (see Judges 5:15-18). What will be recorded of you in the Book of Life?" We need only take ownership of the might God has given us.

- Henry T. Blackaby offers the following: "In Gideon's mind, victory over the Midianites was an impossibility, and he was absolutely right! The Midianites, along with their allies, overwhelmed the feeble Hebrews. Yet the moment God told Gideon to fight them, victory was no longer an impossibility! When Jesus commanded His small group of followers to make disciples of all nations, was that possible (Matt. 28:19)? Certainly, if Jesus said it was! When Jesus told His disciples to love their enemies, was He being realistic? Of course, because He was the One who would achieve reconciliation through them (2 Cor. 5:19–20). Do you treat commands like these as implausible? Do you modify God's word to find an interpretation that seems reasonable to you? Don't discount what is possible with God (Phil. 4:13). When God gives an assignment, it is no longer an impossibility, but rather it is an absolute certainty. When God gives you a seemingly impossible task, the only thing preventing it from coming to pass is your disobedience. When God speaks, it can scare you to death! He will lead you to do things that are absolutely impossible in your own strength. But God will grant you victory, step by step, as you obey Him. How do you respond to assignments that seem impossible? Do you write them off as unattainable? Or do you immediately adjust your life to God's revelation, watching with anticipation to see how He will accomplish His purposes through your obedience? God wants to do the impossible through your life. All He requires is your obedience."

8. Judges 6:15, 16 -- "'Behold, my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.' And the Lord said to him, 'But I will be with you, and you shall strike the Midianites as one man.'" God chooses you in your weakness intentionally that He can reveal His strength through you. He will always ask you to do what is impossible for you without total reliance on Him.

9. Judges 6:34, 35 -- "But the Spirit of the LORD clothed Gideon, and he sounded the trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called out to follow him. And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, and they too were called out to follow him. And he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they went up to meet them." God can give you the support you need.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

10. Proverbs 19:2 -- "Desire without knowledge is not good, and whoever makes haste with his feet misses his way." God expects you to think before you act.

11. Proverbs 19:9 -- "A false witness will not go unpunished, and he who breathes out lies will perish." All lies are destructive.

12. Proverbs 19:10 -- "It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury, much less for a slave to rule over princes." You have to earn the right through character development to achieve success and to lead. There are no shortcuts to character development.

13. Proverbs 19:19 -- "A man of great wrath will pay the penalty." Anger hurts the angry more than anyone else.

14. Romans 7:6 -- "But now we are released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old way of the written code." The more you live by the Spirit, the less your earthly desires need to be controlled by the Law. The Law is not required where the Spirit reigns. There are three levels of motivation -- the lowest is fear (pride is the other side of that coin); the second lowest form of motivation is duty (doing something because you know you are supposed to). The Law threatens the fearful with punishment and gives rules to the dutiful to control behavior, but in the end, the Law will never be enough to constrain the heart. The highest form of motivation is love, doing something because you really want to, despite the personal cost. When the heart is controlled by love, no law is required. The Law is not abolished, it still exists, but it is no longer a concern because it comes naturally. Jesus said, "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them." (Matthew 5:17) Jesus called us to fulfill the law out of love rather than fear or duty. When you are lacking in love, you must still fulfill the law of love, though your motivation of fear or duty are impure. However, you must use the mirror of the law to see that in yourself, to search your heart, and to pursue love. And remember, we are not just seeking to be good people, we are seeking to be one with Jesus in love. God searches the heart, seeing beyond words and deeds to motivations.

15. Romans 7:7 -- "For I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, 'You shall not covet.'" The Law is a guide, a curb, and a mirror. It shows you the way to go, keeps you on the road, and as a mirror, the Law reveals your sinful desires.

16. Romans 7:14, 15 -- "For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh, sold under sin. For I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate." Self-control is a fruit of the Spirit. There is no self-control in the flesh.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 19 April: Today, practice trusting in God's strength rather than yours. Be willing to do what God says, even if it seems impossible, simply because God commanded it -- this is faith and hope. Today, search your heart for the motivations behind your actions. Seek to do what God has commanded you simply out of love, not out of fear, a hope for reward, or out of a self-righteous sense of honor and duty.

DBRP- WEEK 16, Day 3, Wednesday, 18 Apr 2018

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 18 Apr 18:

1. Judges 3:1 -- "Now these are the nations that the Lord left, to test Israel by them, that is, all in Israel who had not experienced all the wars in Canaan." God will leave you with adversaries to test you and to develop your ability to handle adversity.

2. Joshua 3:2 -- "It was only in order that the generations of the people of Israel might know war, to teach war to those who had not known it before." War is a terrible thing. It is a consequence of unchecked sin. God knew that there would be war and He ensured that His people were ready for it. Much of the Book of Numbers deals with the conscription and training of a military force for Israel. The call to arms, "whoever was able to go to war," appears fourteen times in the first chapter. God brought the Jews of Exodus out of Egypt for a purpose – to seize the land He promised them. Chapters 1-4, 10, 13, 26, and 31 delineate their mobilization plan: an order of battle (2:1-32); an alert system (10:7-8); an order of march (10:14-28); reconnaissance, intelligence gathering (13:1-21), and debriefing (13:26-33); a roll call of eligible males (26:1-51); a deployment for battle (31:3-6); and the division of plunder (31:11-54). A military establishment and a battle plan were crucial to the survival of Israel (as they are today). A godly nation not only has an inalienable (it cannot be transferred) right to self-defense, it has an inalienable responsibility to be prepared for war. Preparing for war comes at a price, and as we will read in the Bible, there has always been an internal resistance to pay that price – "In Judah it was said, 'The strength of those who bear the burdens is failing. There is too much rubble. By ourselves we will not be able to rebuild the wall (Nehemiah 4:10 – complaints about military mobilization while attempting to rebuild the defensive wall).'" We will see in our readings that failure to prepare for warfare has devastating consequences. Already in Judges, we have seen that the Israelites did not drive out the Canaanites who had superior military technology (iron chariots – Judges 1:19), and in today's readings the people of "Israel cried out to the Lord for help, for [the Canaanites] had 900 chariots of iron and... oppressed the people of Israel cruelly for twenty years (Judges 4:3)." Also, often the consequences of not going to war are far worse than the consequences of war itself. Of course, there are wrong times to go to war, further highlighting to requirement to have godly leadership -- "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time for war, and a time for peace (Ecclesiastes 3:8)." In developing our national doctrine for defense, our Founding Fathers were guided by their knowledge of the Bible. From that knowledge, they understood that just as a nation has an inalienable right and responsibility to self-defense, so does a person. They understood that a person could not abrogate that right/responsibility or transfer it, especially not to the government, hence the right to bear arms. Remember when Lot was captured during a battle in Sodom, Abram rescued him with 318 men that he had personally trained (Genesis 14:14). No person can take away another person's God-given right to self-defense; no person can abrogate their God-given responsibility to self-defense.

- Psalm 144:1 -- Blessed be the Lord, my rock, who trains my hands for war, and my fingers for battle.

3. Judges 3:4 -- "They were for the testing of Israel, to know whether Israel would obey the commandments of the Lord," The test is whether or not, in the face of personal adversity, you will obey God, not whether or not you can get what you want. Sometimes you will have to lose the human contest of wills in order to remain faithful to God's commands.

4. Judges 3:6 -- "And their daughters they took to themselves for wives, and their own daughters they gave to their sons, and they served their gods." The primary purpose of marriage is for two people to learn to have unity in Christ and to raise up godly children. (Malachi 2:15) God commands His people to marry other believers who will walk with them in fellowship with Christ and who will partner in Christian parenting. Marrying an unbeliever contradicts God's plan for marriage, hinders the Spirit's work in the life of the believer, and sets the next generation up for failure.

5. Judges 3:7 -- "And the people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the Lord. They forgot the Lord their God and served the Baals and the Asheroth." The spiritual decline of the nation started in the homes when parents turned from God and did not teach their children to obey God. As the family goes, so goes the nation.

6. Judges 3:8 -- "Therefore the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia." God will intentionally use other people, often bad people, to teach you a lesson.

7. Judges 3:10 -- "The Spirit of the Lord was upon him, and he judged Israel." Holy Spirit power is required for real leadership. If the leader isn't following Jesus and being guided by the Spirit, the people are in trouble. A leader led by the Spirit will have to take people not led by the Spirit where they don't really want to go because they don't know any better. If you are going to be a leader, you will need to learn to lead difficult people. You can't be a shepherd if you can't stand the smell of sheep.

8. Judges 3:12 -- "And the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done what was evil in the sight of the Lord." God uses politics, economics, ecology, and circumstances to punish those who stray from Him.

9. Judges 3:14 -- "And the people of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years." God's discipline may be long-lasting. It will take as long as it takes to make the change needed in your heart.

10. Judges 4:4 -- "Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at that time." Women play significant roles of leadership in the Bible.

11. Proverbs 18:1 -- "Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound judgment." Prideful and selfish people avoid close relationships. Loving Christians put relationships first and don't keep others at a distance.

12. Proverbs 18:22 -- "He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from the Lord." Increasingly, popular culture has a negative view of marriage, and more and more people are giving up on marriage. However, God says marriage is good. Marriage is ordained by God as the most important institution on earth and to serve as a model of Christ's love for His church. Marriage is the schoolhouse for Christian character development, the primary place where people learn to bear another's burdens in love. You will have to learn to deny self, take up your cross, and follow Jesus to make a marriage thrive. When two people choose to obey Jesus' command of love in a home, there is unity in Christ, fulfillment, and the fullness of joy.

13. Romans 6:1, 2 -- "What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it?" True Christians don't debate about obedience to God because obedience is the natural response to salvation. The love of Christ compels them to obedience. They don't use grace as an excuse to continued sin or to make light of sin; quite the opposite, grace empowers them to obey and makes sin much weightier -- "How could I trample upon the blood of Jesus?"

14. Romans 6:2 -- "How can we who died to sin still live in it?" If Christ is our Lord and savior, we absolutely cannot allow sin to reign over us, obeying ungodly passions (Romans 6:13). God has given us freedom from sin, and calls us to present ourselves to Him as "instruments for righteousness; to do anything else would be the greatest treason and an unspeakable offense before the Creator (Romans 6:14). As Jesus said, it is impossible to serve two masters. We are either slaves to Christ or slaves to sin. "But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:22, 23)."

15. Romans 6:12-14 -- "Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace." Genuine love has the restraint on us that mere laws never could. Those who proclaim that they don't live by the law but rather by grace, as a means of justifying their sin, might question whether or not they were ever really overcome by grace and crucified with Christ. We are not saved by works, but faith without works is dead.

16. Romans 6:15 -- "What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!" Paul is desperate to make the point.

17. Romans 6:19 -- "Having been set free from sin, [you] have become slaves of righteousness." Before you were a Christian you were a slave to sin. You were trapped in sin and unable to do otherwise but sin (Rom. 7:15–24). When God saved you, He freed you from sin, but you now remain a slave, bound to righteousness. With salvation through grace alone comes an obligation to do what honors God. Contrary to what some preach, grace does not mean that you are free to do whatever you want. You have become a "bondservant" of Christ, and your life is no longer your own (Rom. 1:1). When you accepted forgiveness and grace from God through Christ, you forfeited the right (you never really had) to live a self-guided life based upon your own "natural" desires and understanding. You forfeited your right to demand justice for offenses committed against you. As a slave to righteousness, you can no longer act selfishly. You are obligated to live a holy life, honoring your Master. Righteous living is not optional for a Christian.

- Sin has no control over a corpse. Temptation can present itself enticingly and persistently, yet a corpse will not succumb! Before you were a Christian you were keenly susceptible to sin. Sin held you in its grip. When you became a Christian, your old self died (Gal. 2:20). Sin now has no more control over you than temptation has over a cadaver.

- God's grace is a further motivation for us to resist sin. It was God's grace that enabled Jesus to endure mocking, beating, and crucifixion at the hands of those whom He had come to save. It was grace that led God to forgive our sin despite our rebellion against Him. It is this same grace that God expresses toward us each time we sin against Him. Knowing this grace, we cannot continue to practice sin (Rom. 6:1–2). We cannot presume upon God's forgiveness by committing further offenses.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- You are no longer the helpless victim of your sin. The victory has already been won. God does not have to win a victory over your sin; He already has! You only need to apply His victory to each area of your life. If there is a sinful habit, an ungodly attitude, or an unrighteous relationship that you need to put to death, claim the victory of Christ's resurrection today. Then you will be free to experience the abundant life that God intends for you."

18. Romans 6:22 -- "But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life." How should this reality impact the way you live today and every day?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 18 April: Today, check your heart -- is it hard for you to obey God in certain areas? What does that say about your heart? Do you obey because it is your passion or because you know you are supposed to? Pray for a heart that obeys out of love and not out of fear of consequences or out of a sense of duty. Love does not need rules to control behavior. Love fulfills the law of God naturally, producing the fruit of love. If you are struggling with obedience, you are struggling with your heart and your relationship with Jesus. For example, if forgiving is difficult for you, you have not fully realized the significance of the price Jesus paid for you and the significance of the grace you have received. If giving freely is a problem for you, you have not learned to fully appreciate what Christ has given to you and what He has promised for you. If anger is a problem for you, you have not learned to appreciate God's mercy. If fear is a problem, you haven't learned to trust God enough because you don't know Him well enough as trustworthy. Read John 17 again. Jesus wants you to "know Him" and to be "one" with Him -- this is eternal life. Check the motives behind your actions today. Are you motivated by love or by fear, pride, and duty?

DBRP- WEEK 16, Day 2, Tuesday, 17 Apr 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 17 Apr 18:

1. Judges 1:1 -- "After the death of Joshua, the people of Israel inquired of the Lord, 'Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?'" The Israelites begin the book of Judges well by inquiring of the Lord before making important decisions. After verse 1 in Judges, the Israelites do not "inquire of the Lord" again until the end of the book: "The people of Israel arose and went up to Bethel and inquired of God, 'Who shall go up first for us to fight against the people of Benjamin (Judges 20:18)?'" The Book of Judges reveals what happens when God's people disobey God and compromise their holiness. It also reveals what happens when a nation rejects God's commands. Judges is highly relevant to us today – consider carefully what you read. At the beginning of the book, God's people, from a position of great national strength, are inquiring of the Lord as to how to have dominion for His glory. By the end of the book, in a state of complete lawlessness, they are asking God how to massacre each other – spoiler alert: The Book of Judges does not end on a high note. Today we read how after a long period of triumph under the leadership of Joshua (because the Lord was with them), the Israelites disobey God by allowing the Jebusites, Canaanites, and Amorites to live among them rather than driving them out completely as the Lord had commanded. As soon as God's people chose to be led by their own desires and wisdom rather than the "voice of God," God no longer supported their efforts (Judges 2:3). At that point, all of their religious activities were meaningless (Judges 2:5). After just one generation, the people "did not know the Lord." The national decline was shockingly fast – "And the people... did what was evil in the sight of the Lord... and they abandoned the Lord, the God of their fathers.... And they provoked the Lord to anger..., and he gave them over to plunderers, who plundered them. And he sold them into the hand of their surrounding enemies, so that they could no longer withstand their enemies. Whenever they marched out, the hand of the Lord was against them for harm, as the Lord had warned, and as the Lord had sworn to them. And they were in terrible distress (Judges 2:11-15)." God in His mercy and grace raised up leaders (Judges) to steer the people back on the course of obedience to God, but "they did not listen to their judges...; they did not drop any of their practices or their stubborn ways." Therefore, the nation remained under God's judgment. Of the Old Testament, the New Testament says, "Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did.... these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come (1 Corinthians 10:6, 11)." What will we learn from Judges? How will we apply what we learn?

2. Judges 1:7 -- "As I have done, so God has repaid me." The Bible repeats the theme that God judges you the way you judge others.

3. Judges 1:27, 29, 30, 31, 33 -- "Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants.... And Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites.... Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants.... Asher did not drive out the inhabitants.... Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants." The Israelites did not complete the task God had given them, a sin that would rob them of the peace and blessings God had intended for them. Partial obedience is disobedience. God does not accept half measure.

- "Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple (Luke 14:27-33)."

4. Judges 2:1-3 -- "Now the angel of the Lord went up from Gilgal to Bochim. And he said, 'I brought you up from Egypt and brought you into the land that I swore to give to your fathers. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you, and you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall break down their altars.' But you have not obeyed my voice. What is this you have done? So now I say, I will not drive them out before you, but they shall become thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare to you.'" Though the Jews were in a covenant relationship with God with the promise of His protection and blessings, there remained a terrible and permanent consequence for their disobedience. Rather than remaining obedient, holy, and pure, the Jews chose the easy, and likely profitable (temporarily), path of compromise with the sinful culture around them. They thought erroneously that they could control and contain the sin that they permitted in their land -- "Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants.... When Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not drive them out completely.... the Canaanites lived among them, but became subject to forced labor." (Judges 1:27, 28, 30) However, as is always the case, when God's people attempt to compromise with sin, they are ultimately destroyed by it. As Proverbs says, "Can a man carry fire next to his chest and his clothes not be burned?" (Proverbs 6:27) "The little foxes spoil the vineyards." (Song of Solomon 2:15) "Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.” (Proverbs 25:26) When we compromise with sin, our light is dimmed, and our salt loses its saltiness. We become unusable in some ways and deny ourselves the blessings of God. We all have allowed wickedness into our homes. Have we torn down the alters in our lives, or have we found convenient ways to keep them there? We must repent and remove the wickedness from our tents.

- “Agree with God, and be at peace; thereby good will come to you. Receive instruction from His mouth, and lay up his words in your heart. If you return to the Almighty you will be built up; if you remove injustice far from your tents, if you lay gold in the dust, and gold of Ophir among the stones of the torrent-bed, then the Almighty will be your gold and your precious silver. For then you will delight yourself in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you, and you will pay your vows. You will decide on a matter, and it will be established for you, and light will shine on your ways. For when they are humbled you say, ‘It is because of pride’; but he saves the lowly. He delivers even the one who is not innocent, who will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands (Job 22:21-30)

5. Joshua 2:2, 3 -- "But you have not obeyed my voice. What is this you have done? So now I say, I will not drive them out before you, but they shall become thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare to you." Disobedience has consequences that might be permanent. We are warned over and over in the Bible to not take sin lightly but to respect the holiness of God and to obey wholeheartedly. We must not presume upon God's mercy and grace.

6. Judges 2:4 -- "As soon as the angel of the Lord spoke these words to all the people of Israel, the people lifted up their voices and wept." Be sorrowful because you are being punished is not the same as being repentant. God knows the difference and knows your heart.

7. Judges 2:10 -- "And there arose another generation after them who did not know the Lord or the work that he had done for Israel." It is critical that Christians effectively disciple the next generation. This is the primary role of parents but also of senior Christians to junior Christians.

8. Judges 2:11, 12 -- "And the people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the Lord and served the Baals.... They went after other gods, from among the gods of the peoples who were around them.... And they provoked the Lord to anger." The Israelites compromised with the pagan culture and became more influenced than an influence. The greatest risk to God's people is syncretism, the blending of belief systems. God is Holy and demands holiness from His people. We cannot allow popular culture to tarnish our fidelity.

9. Judges 2:15 -- "Whenever they marched out, the hand of the Lord was against them for harm, as the Lord had warned, and as the Lord had sworn to them. And they were in terrible distress." When we join with the world, we make ourselves practical enemies of God, fighting against His will – “Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters (Luke 11:23). God cannot support sinfulness.

10. Judges 2:17 -- “...for they whored after other gods and bowed down to them.” The Bible calls the church (us) the bride of Christ. Likewise, the Bible compares our unfaithfulness to God with adultery and prostitution. Do you see your sin this way? Do you see God’s forgiveness from the perspective of an adulterer? Do you understand the magnitude of grace you have received? How do you respond to such love?

11. Judges 2:18 -- "For the Lord was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who afflicted and oppressed them." In His anger, God still has a heart for the sinner and seeks reconciliation.

12. Judges 2:19 -- "But whenever the judge died, they turned back and were more corrupt than their fathers." There are two types of discipline: internal discipline (self-control), and external discipline (law and authority). God expects Christians to have internal discipline (self-control being the last fruit of the Spirit), not requiring external laws and authority to control them. When people lack internal discipline, they require external discipline to keep them in line. Remove external discipline and you will discover what is truly in someone's heart. The Israelites revealed their rebellious hearts whenever external disciplines were removed, proving that God could not trust them to obey from the heart. God disciplined the Israelites with foreign enemies to draw them back to Him. What does God have to do to keep you focused on Him and to keep you disciplined?

13. Proverbs 17:1 -- "A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who acts shamefully and will share the inheritance as one of the brothers." It is what is inside that counts (what is in your heart), not your circumstances or any other external factors which will determine the impact of your life. It is not what others believe to be true or even what you say is true about you that matters but what is really true – the truth of your character. And it doesn't matter if you are rich and talented or have a great personality, ultimately your character will determine your future. The pre-Socratic Greek philosopher Heraclitus said it this way: "ethos anthropos daimon," - "Character is destiny." The character that Heraclitus spoke of, "ethos", from where we get the word "ethics," which involves the collection of one's virtues, with virtues being measured by something Heraclitus spoke of, something of which Christians should be well familiar: "logos" – "that which governs everything." Heraclitus, the "Weeping Philosopher," did not have the advantage of the revelation of God's Word – "In the beginning was the Word (Logos), and the Word (Logos) was with God, and the Word (Logos) was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it (John 1:1-5)." Heraclitus did not know that "that which governs everything" is Jesus, but he still understood that our conformity with the "Logos" determined our fate. The Bible calls living by the Logos, "wisdom," and, "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." (Psalm 111:10; Proverbs 1:7, 4:7, 9:10) Today's Proverbs point out that wisdom prevails over any situation.

- The ancient Greek philosophers had another imperfect perception of the truth which Jesus made clear: you must be born again. The Greek philosophers understood that acting (the Greek word for stage actor is hypocrite) virtuous doesn't make a person virtuous, rather a person had to truly be virtue, virtuous in their soul. To them, a virtuous person consistently does virtuous things because virtue is who they are inside. To them, the law was merely to contain the unvirtuous and had no purpose for the virtuous which are self-controlled from their souls. But the Greeks did not understand the power of the Holy Spirit and believed that consistent hard work could slowly transform an unvirtuous person into a virtuous person. However, the Bible reveals that we can only be set free from sin through Jesus Christ. (Romans 8:2) When Christ is in us, we are virtue, and the law is no longer required to govern our once wild spirits. Our minds are now controlled by the Spirit (Romans 8:5) The Holy Spirit within us now obligates us to live by the Spirit which puts to death the misdeeds of the body (Romans 8:12-15). Even so, the Bible points out that we must take hold of what we have already received. We must live by the Spirit and not quench the Spirit, grieve the Spirit, or get out of step with the Spirit. We struggle with the flesh and rely on God's grace as we grow up in faith. As children, we must learn from the Father. The children of God naturally act like their Father. Don't act godly; be godly.

14. Proverbs 17:2 – "A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who acts shamefully and will share the inheritance as one of the brothers." How does this proverb relate to the Gentiles receiving the Good News? See Romans 11.

15. Proverbs 17:6 – "Grandchildren are the crown of the aged, and the glory of children is their fathers." God intends family to be a blessing.

16. Proverbs 17:10 – "A rebuke goes deeper into a man of understanding than a hundred blows into a fool." Wise people learn without having to suffer the consequences of their foolishness.

17. Romans 5:1 -- "We have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Do you feel a peace that transcends all understanding today? Is your peace evident and bewildering to others?

18. Romans 5:2 -- "We rejoice in hope of the glory of God." Are you rejoicing in your hope today?

19. Romans 5:3-5 -- "We rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us." A person of noble character is developed through adversity. There is no easy path to character. There is no comfort in the growth zone, and there is no growth in the comfort zone. It has also been said that the life of ease will ruin a person. Resolve to be willing to pay the price for character and to trust God through the process -- that is faith. Faith trusts God now; hope is faith projected forward, trusting God with your future. As you grow in character (trusting God now), you will grow in hope, trusting God with tomorrow. Are you rejoicing in your sufferings today, knowing that God is using your sufferings to develop you?

20. Romans 5:6-11 -- "While we were still weak... Christ died for the ungodly.... God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.... while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son.... we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation." Are you ready to show the love of Christ to others by giving your life to your weak, sinful, ungodly enemies in pursuit of their reconciliation? The Bible says, "Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation..., entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us (2 Cor 5:18-20)." God expects you to bear the burden and suffering of maltreatment in relationships (your cross to bear) in order to reveal the grace of Jesus to others. Yes, it is completely unfair (from an earthly perspective). But aren't you glad Jesus didn't deal with you on the basis of fairness? Love is not about fairness or fair exchange – good for good, bad for bad. Love is about grace, mercy, and peace – giving to give, not giving to get. When you are abused for His Name's sake, while on the mission of reconciliation, you fellowship with Jesus and truly worship Him. This is the type of suffering that builds your Christ-like character. Deny self, take up your cross, and follow Jesus. You will not be disappointed.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 17 April: Today, memorize Romans 5:3-5. Say it to yourself whenever you face challenging circumstances or challenging people.

- "We rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us."

DBRP- WEEK 16, Day 1, Monday, 16 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Joshua+23%2C+24%3B+proverbs+16%3B+Romans+4>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 16 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 23:10 – "One man of you puts to flight a thousand, since it is the LORD your God who fights for you, just as he promised you." Physical power is no match for spiritual power. The power of God makes all other power meaningless.

2. Joshua 23:11 – "Be very careful, therefore, to love the LORD your God." Your relationship with God is your strength and your purpose. Be very careful not to let sin get between you and God.

3. Joshua 23:14 -- "And now I am about to go the way of all the earth, and you know in your hearts and souls, all of you, that not one word has failed of all the good things that the LORD your God promised concerning you. All have come to pass for you; not one of them has failed." Joshua's dying wish was that none of his people would fall away from the Lord.

4. Joshua 24:13 -- "I gave you a land on which you had not labored and cities that you had not built, and you dwell in them. You eat the fruit of vineyards and olive orchards that you did not plant." God owns it all and controls it all. He can give you whatever He wants to give you, and many people who are laboring against God don't realize that they are really laboring for God. God works all things for His purposes.

5. Joshua 24:14 -- "Now therefore fear the Lord and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness. Put away the gods that your fathers served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the Lord." A theme that is repeated over and over again in the Bible is that you cannot serve God half-heartedly. By definition, a casual response to God is really to deny Him as God. You cannot be partially committed to God and honor Him as God, and you cannot expect God to honor your partial obedience which is really just disobedience. Nor can you expect to wander from God and stay close to Him at the same time. Love of God results in obedience. Unity with God requires obedience. Only in God's presence is there fullness of joy (Psalm 16:11). Today, Joshua tells the people to stop kidding themselves. Either serve God or stop pretending to. If we are using grace as an excuse to continue in sin, we are denying that we ever truly accepted grace in the first place – "For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace?" (Hebrews 10:26-29)

- Joshua 14:14 – Caleb.... wholly followed the Lord.

- 2 Kings 20:3 -- “Now, O Lord, please remember how I have walked before you in faithfulness and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in your sight.”

- 2 Chronicles 19:9 -- And he charged them: “Thus you shall do in the fear of the Lord, in faithfulness, and with your whole heart:

- 2 Chronicles 25:2 -- And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, yet not with a whole heart.

- Psalm 119:2 -- Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with their whole heart,

- Luke 11:23 -- Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

- Proverbs 25:26 -- Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.

- Revelation 3:16 -- So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth.

6. Joshua 24:15 -- “Choose this day whom you will serve.... But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.” Everyone on earth chooses who they will serve, God or an idol. Some will verbally proclaim the Lordship of God and may even back their oaths up with religion, but in reality, their hearts are not with God. Jesus said, “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?’ And then will I declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness (Matthew 7:21-23).’” A person can do “many mighty works” in the name of God and still lack a saving faith. Even born-again Christians can drift comfortably out of fellowship with God into a “me’-ology” that plays by the religious “rules” and uses “good works” to legitimize to themselves and others what has been termed approbation lust – the desire to be recognized, to promote oneself. The desire for recognition or approval can become a powerful, all-encompassing motivator in life that can cause us to do our will for self-glorification while proclaiming the will of God. We can do “right” things for the wrong reasons and in the wrong way. Only you and God know what motivation is behind your daily actions. Pray that God will continually incline your heart more and more toward him and less and less toward self. And be introspective. Whenever you hear yourself saying or thinking “I”, ask yourself if that “I” is not for “idol.”

- Isaiah 10:15 -- Shall the axe boast over him who hews with it, or the saw magnify itself against him who wields it? As if a rod should wield him who lifts it, or as if a staff should lift him who is not wood!

- Luke 18:14 -- I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

- Romans 15:18 -- For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed,

- Galatians 6:14 -- But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

- Jeremiah 9:23 -- Thus says the Lord: “Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, let not the mighty man boast in his might, let not the rich man boast in his riches,

- Proverbs 27:2 -- Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips.
- 1 Corinthians 4:7 -- For who sees anything different in you? What do you have that you did not receive? If then you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it?
- 2 Corinthians 11:30 -- If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.
- Ephesians 2:8-9 -- For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.
- 1 Timothy 6:10 -- For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs.
- Mark 8:35 -- For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it.

7. Joshua 24:19 – “But Joshua said to the people, ‘You are not able to serve the LORD, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins.’ Following God requires complete humility to see that you have no hope apart from the grace and power of God. God convicts the proud of their moral bankruptcy that they will turn to Him for mercy, grace, and power.

8. Joshua 24:31 – “Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the work that the LORD did for Israel.” Good leaders have a preserving effect on society by keeping people in compliance with God’s laws.

9. Proverbs 16:1, 2 – “The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the Lord. All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the Lord weighs the spirit.” Key to success in life is making sure your plans are God’s plans for you. Don’t expect God to bless what you want to do. Receive God’s blessings by doing what He wants you to do.

10. Proverbs 16:4 – “The Lord has made everything for its purpose, even the wicked for the day of trouble.” No matter what you choose to do, God will be glorified by your life and His truth will be revealed in your life. He will either use you to reveal His truth in a positive way or a negative way. Either way, God is glorified. Better to reveal to others the blessings of God rather than the curses. God says, “I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore, choose life, that you and your offspring may live....” (Deut 30:19)

11. Proverbs 16:7 – “When a man’s ways please the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.” God can control people in ways you can’t.

12. Proverbs 16:17 – “The highway of the upright turns aside from evil.” Those on the fast-track in life stay far from evil. Sin always drags you down and keeps you from getting to where you need to go.

13. Romans 4:11 – “He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised.” We are not saved by our obedience; our obedience is evidence that we were actually saved, empowered by the Holy Spirit to overcome our sinful nature and obey. We are not saved by obedience, but we are sanctified through obedience. Do not grieve the Spirit, quench the Spirit, or get out of step with the Spirit through disobedience.

14. Romans 4:16 – “That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all....” The children of Abraham are children in faith, not children in blood.

DBRP- WEEK 15, Day 7, Sunday, 15 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Joshua+21%2C+22%3B+proverbs+15%3B+psalm+44%2C+45>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 15 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 21 -- Everyone was called upon to provide for the priests.
2. Joshua 21:43-45 -- “Thus the Lord gave to Israel all the land that he swore to give to their fathers. And they took possession of it, and they settled there. And the Lord gave them rest on every side just as he had sworn to their fathers. Not one of all their enemies had withstood them, for the Lord had given all their enemies into their hands. Not one word of all the good promises that the Lord had made to the house of Israel had failed; all came to pass.” God fulfilled all of His promises after many generations. God’s plan is generational, and God intends for His people to think generationally and plan for generations. It is a very modern and destructive phenomena that so many Christian parents are shortsighted, thinking merely about getting their kids out the door (usually in separate directions) so the parents can retire and occasionally visit the grandchildren. There is great strength in family. The Bible demonstrates building families for generations, dynasties, families that stay together, support one another, raise godly children together, and glorify God together for hundreds of years. We should plan for a godly legacy. Today, this is very hard but not impossible.
3. Joshua 22:5 -- “Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, to love the Lord your God, and to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments and to cling to him and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.” All relationships are based upon trust. Joshua explained to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh that the foundation of their relationship of trust would be each party’s obedience to God. You can trust the godly neighbor.
4. Joshua 22:12 -- “And when the people of Israel heard of it, the whole assembly of the people of Israel gathered at Shiloh to make war against them.” The Israelites feared that the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh would drift into rebellion due to their geographical separation, so the Israelites looked for evidence to validate their fears. They viewed these tribes with undeserved mistrust and started a fight based upon false assumptions. Have you ever done that?
5. Joshua 22:20 -- “Did not Achan the son of Zerah break faith in the matter of the devoted things, and wrath fell upon all the congregation of Israel? And he did not perish alone for his iniquity.” Sin always hurts others, whether intentional or not.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. Joshua 22:24 -- "We did it from fear that in time to come your children might say to our children, 'What have you to do with the Lord.'" Parents must have a plan to ensure that their children's children don't forget the Lord.

7. Joshua 22:31 -- "Today we know that the Lord is in our midst, because you have not committed this breach of faith against the Lord. Now you have delivered the people of Israel from the hand of the Lord." The Israelites had misjudged the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh and almost acted rashly which would have been a great sin. Fortunately, they communicated their concerns and resolved the matter, discovering that what they once viewed as sin was actually an act of good faith. We too, acting from fear or envy, might view the actions of others as sinful when in actuality their behavior is reasonable. Best to give others the benefit of the doubt and communicate gracefully any concerns you might have. Open, honest, humble, communication is key. Christians should be masters at resolving conflict or potential conflict. We are all about peace.

8. Proverbs 15:1 – "A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger." Again, Christians should be masters of relationship, experts at conflict resolution. Unlike the worldly, Christians enter into relationships as ambassadors to Jesus (not representing self), on a mission of reconciliation. Christians should not see people as others do but rather see them as Jesus does. Christians should enter into relationships intent on administering grace even to the point of great personal suffering (taking up the cross) and should remain in a state of perpetual forgiveness. Christians don't regard others as the enemy but rather regard the dark spiritual forces controlling them as the enemy. Guided by the Spirit, Christians enter into relationships with the power and perspective of the Holy Spirit to see and understand what is impossible for others to see and understand. Christians should enter into relationships as leaders in love, intent on taking others where they cannot go by themselves – leaders know The Way (Jesus) and show The Way. Christians listen in order to hear beyond the words, to truly understand the heart and hurt behind words. Christians strive to always return love and blessings for hate and curses. Christians have nothing to lose in an encounter with others because they have already died in Christ and are already living eternal life in Christ. A Christian who is secure in Christ should have peace and never lose it. Christians radiate peace and love and light when others are trapped in hate, anger, and bitterness. Practice your Christianity today; don't just contemplate it. Make your every word and deed intentional and for God's glory. You were purposefully made by God in physical form and placed intentionally on this earth to communicate God's truth and to translate God's invisible truth into tangible, visible reality for His glory – this is your earthly purpose. Reveal to others the Spirit that they cannot see through your reconciling words and acts of kindness.

9. Proverbs 15:4 – "A gentle tongue is a tree of life, but perverseness in it breaks the spirit." Even when Christians have to tell people things they may not want to hear, they always do it in a way that is receivable by them, that lifts them up rather than tears them down, that heals rather than hurts, that potentially draws them closer to Jesus rather than pushing them farther away. Christians never make the "issue" the focus but rather Jesus.

10. Proverbs 15:7 – "The lips of the wise spread knowledge; not so the hearts of fools." The wise understand and accept that knowledge and wisdom come from God, and they have the requisite humility to submit to the will of God, not so the foolish.

11. Proverbs 15:8 – "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright is acceptable to him." A gift (a sacrifice or act of admiration) can be given as an act of genuine love or selfishly, hoping to get something in return such as favor or a special blessing. Two people could give the exact same gift, but the gifts could be valued completely differently in God's sight based upon the true heart of the giver. People cannot truly know the heart of another and can be deceived by a gift. However, God knows the heart of all people and is never deceived. Be careful not to deceive yourself by your own 'sacrifices.' Effort is not always love. In their relationships with God and with others, many people go through the motions, doing all the things they know they are supposed to do in relationship but for all the wrong reasons. Before you make the sacrifice of time, resources, work, etc, ask yourself, "Why am I really doing this?" Is it out of selfless love or because of an outcome you are hoping to achieve for yourself? Jesus said that, "denying self," was key to following Him, not "self-denial." The dictionary defines "self" as, "A person's essential being that distinguishes them from others." Popular psychology lifts up and finds hope in self-esteem, self-realization, self-actualization, self-respect, etc. This teaching has crept into Christian thinking. Self-denial is a struggle against our "self," against our independent will, placing restrictions on self in an attempt to control self. It sees self as the problem but also self as the answer. However, denying self is seeing our essential being as Christ, with no distinction between ourselves and Him. We seek perfect oneness with Him. We seek the mind of Christ and the perfect will of Christ. And we seek the power of Christ (which is already ours) rather than our own strength. We become crucified with Christ, self dies, and we are resurrected in Him – the new life is Christ, the body His vessel. The last-mentioned fruit of the Spirit is self-control, something that is impossible for man, but possible with Christ. The key to self-control is denying self, becoming nothing that Christ in you would be everything.

12. Proverbs 15:14 – "The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge, but the mouths of fools feed on folly." Why haven't increased education, increased information, and incredible technological advances made the world a better place? Because wisdom is a heart issue not a head issue. Information is not transformation. The beginning of wisdom is the fear of the Lord. As the world gets smarter and smarter while walking farther and farther away from God, people merely get more capable of spreading evil and destruction. Jesus' final prayer was for our unity, but unity in Him. The world wants unity too, but unity in man. Globalized technology has become the new Tower of Babel, and the secular unity being created will lead the global heard to a cliff. The message of the Gospel is the hope of the world.

13. Proverbs 15:16 – "Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble with it." Christianity has become less appealing in America because people, more and more, seem to be getting the results they are looking for through the knowledge of man. You can have a large screen TV and two cars in the garage without ever reading your Bible, going to church, or walking with Jesus. But while the world seeks to build mini kingdoms on earth, the Christian seeks the Kingdom of God. The more you value Jesus, the less you value earthly treasures and the less you are impacted by the worries of the world.

14. Proverbs 15:17 – "Better is a dinner of herbs where love is than a fattened ox and hatred with it." Joy is found in love, not in pleasures. God is love. Joy is found in God. The love we share with others must be the love we have received from God, transferred over through us to them. Be one with God and with others in God, and experience the fullness of joy.

15. Psalm 44:3 -- "For not by their own sword did they win the land, nor did their own arm save them, but your right hand and your arm, and the light of your face, for you delighted in them." Christians understand their total dependence upon God and NEVER take credit for their own success but give ALL glory to God.

16. Psalm 44:6 -- "For not in my bow do I trust." It is not your own talents and abilities that will ultimately determine your success but rather your relationship with God and His mercy and grace bestowed upon you. Your future is solely in His hands. Eternal life is "knowing Him," being truly one with Him (John 17:3). Don't wait until you die to experience eternal life.

17. Psalm 44: 9, 17 -- "But you have rejected us and disgraced us and have not gone out with our armies.... All this has come upon us, though we have not forgotten you, and we have not been false to your covenant." God does use circumstances to discipline His people, and during trials, we should search our hearts, minds, and actions as the psalmist does to ensure that we are aligned with God and that we haven't hidden forbidden booty in our hearts that has caused our own "defeat at Ai" (Joshua 7). How foolish and dishonorable it is for a Christian to suffer needlessly due to the consequences of personal sin (Hebrews 10:29; 1 Peter 4:15)! However, as Job and his friends learned, you cannot explain every problem you have as a punishment for sin. Nor is crisis an indication that God has abandoned you, rejected you, or fallen asleep. God may be preparing you for greater things or to use you in a very mighty way. In any case, you can always trust God with your circumstances, even if you are partly to blame for them (Romans 8:8). Consider the lives of the protagonists in the Bible -- how do you think Joseph felt having been left forgotten in prison with a life sentence, having previously been sold into slavery by his brothers? How do you think Moses felt before his burning bush experience, wandering in the desert as a deposed prince, a fugitive murderer? In their seemingly helpless situations, they could not understand that God was preparing them for great leadership. God has placed us in service to Him to reach the lost in a sinful world that is both corrupted by sin and full of sinners. He knows that this calling will often involve pain while we operate in this world of destruction and hurt. In the battlefield which we fight, the wounded are all around us; sin has corrupted even the cells of our bodies; and hurting people hurt people -- God knows as you reach out to the wounded, you are going to get hurt too. The Bible says that when we suffer trials in the name of Jesus, we actually have cause to rejoice because we are experiencing a special and unique fellowship with Jesus as we "share Christ's sufferings" (1 Peter 4:13). Paul would encourage us: "Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus (2 Timothy 2:3)." However, it gets lonely and sometimes terrifying deep in enemy territory, and what do you do when you appear surrounded and are receiving no communications from the Commander? Trust and Obey! And Pray! We see today that, in silence, the psalmist recounts that God has always been more than faithful -- the evidence upon which faith is based (Psalm 44:1-8). In dark, silent times, remember that God is always faithful even when we are not, and trust in Him; wait on Him; be still and know that He is Lord (Psalm 46:10). Don't let your pride stand in the way of allowing others to minister to your needs. In your times of strength and confidence, remember how you suffered, and empathetically minister to the needs of others going through trials -- God never intended for us to go it alone.

- 1 Peter 4:19 -- Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good.

- 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 -- Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- Philippians 4:4-13 -- Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice.... The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.... I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

18. Psalm 44:24 -- "Why do you hide your face? Why do you forget our affliction and oppression?" Faith is tested when God appears to have forgotten you during your trials. During the exam, the professor remains silent. God is faithful to see you through.

19. Psalm 45:7 -- "You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness." If you love righteousness, you have to hate wickedness. How much do you hate wickedness? Are you prepared to "ride out victoriously for the cause of truth and meekness and righteousness (v4)?"

20. Psalm 45:17 -- "I will perpetuate your memory through all generations; therefore the nations will praise you for ever and ever." Our readings have much to say about God's desires for the Christian family. First, Christian families recognize their total reliance on the grace and blessings of God (Psalm 45:2). They are led by honorable, mighty men who fight for "truth, humility, and justice," who "love righteousness and hate wickedness (Psalm 45:4, 7)." These families are led by noble matriarchs who have committed fully to their husbands (never looking back) and honor them in every way (Psalm 45:10, 11). Through wisdom, these women build secure homes for their families (Proverbs 14:1). Together, these parents lead a house that flourishes because they don't just hope for good but rather are diligent enough to "plan for good (Proverbs 14:11, 22, 23)," working very hard, and investing in the capabilities required for future productivity (Proverbs 14:4). The Christian family is characterized by love and faithfulness (Proverbs 14:22). The Christian home is a sanctuary (Proverbs 14:26), a place where everyone feels safe. A Christian home is led by noble parents who raise generations of noble Christian leaders after them (Psalm 45:16). As the Bible says, "Did he not make them one, with a portion of the Spirit in their union? And what was the one God seeking? Godly offspring (Malachi 2:15)." Every Christian parent can recount countless parental failures. Today is a new day. Trust God with the past and the future. Seek to parent today like your Father in Heaven would, walking in His grace, which is sufficient in your constant failure. Demonstrate the love and ways of God to your family today.

DBRP- WEEK 15, Day 6, Saturday, 14 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Joshua+19%2C+20%3B+proverbs+14%3B+psalm+43>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 14 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 19:14-21 -- God used Joshua, Eleazar and the tribal leaders to give out land when rulers usually try to take land away from people for their own use.
2. Joshua 19:47 -- As God told the tribes of Joseph to work for their land, so He made Dan fight for theirs. (see 17:14-48)

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

3. Joshua 20 -- Many times the Bible describes the system God put in place to protect both victims and the accused until a fair trial could occur. The system also protected the innocent from retaliation.

4. Proverbs 14:1 -- "The wisest of women builds her house, but folly with her own hands tears it down." It is much easier to tear something down than to build it. It is harder to save up money than it is to spend it. It takes a longtime of consistent performance of behavior to build a good reputation, but it doesn't take much bad behavior to lose it. Trust is hard to gain but easily lost. Things that matter most in your life require daily diligence and perseverance. What you did yesterday won't make up for what you don't do today. Each day, above all else, guard your heart.

5. Proverbs 14:2 -- "Whoever walks in uprightness fears the Lord, but he who is devious in his ways despises him." What you do reveals what you really think about God. Particularly revealing are the things you do when no one is looking. If no one sees, to whom is it being revealed? You. God already knows.

6. Proverbs 14:9 -- "Fools mock at making amends for sin, but goodwill is found among the upright." Christians make amends for sin when it is within their power to do so. Exodus 22, Leviticus 24, and Numbers also speak to the principle of restitution.

7. Proverbs 14:14 -- "The faithless will be fully repaid for their ways, and the good man rewarded for his." The deceiver is deceived. Throughout the Bible you will see a pattern where God allows sinners to get a taste of their own medicine (Galatians 6:7, 8; Job 4:8; Hosea 8:7; Luke 6:38; Mark 4:24). Jacob deceived by pretending to be someone else, and he was subsequently deceived in the exact same way -- "Why have you deceived me?" How do you think Jacob interpreted these circumstances? Do you think Jacob saw himself as an innocent victim? Do you think he asked himself, "Where is God?" Do you think Jacob asked for forgiveness from God for his deception while simultaneously asking for justice concerning Laban's deception against him?

8. Proverbs 14:30 -- "Tranquil heart gives life to the flesh, but envy makes the bones rot." Most health issues start out as heart issues.

9. Psalm 43:5 -- "Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God." In hard times, have you ever felt like God had rejected you, abandoned you, forgotten about you? Take note and comfort that the Bible reveals to us in Psalms that David often felt this way and, like us, had to remind himself to "Hope in God," to "praise Him," and to rejoice in salvation, even when he didn't really feel like it. Sometimes we all need to counsel and coach ourselves not to lose hope in God. This is a normal part of spiritual development. This is also why it is important for you to have strong Christian friends and family who can gird you up while you are weak. Sometimes, when you feel like you need Him the most, God is silent -- He is building your faith, trust, and hope. Trust God in His silence and rest in faith and hope. For the true follower of Christ, God's silence always ends in a greater revelation and a greater relationship with Him than previously known. Consider what happened to Mary and Martha when they petitioned Jesus to heal their brother Lazarus -- in Jesus' deliberate delay, Lazarus died. This "silence" from Jesus was in fact Jesus preparing to respond to Mary, Martha, and Lazarus in a way that they never could have imagined; Jesus intended to take them to a new place in their relationship with Him, to reveal to them something about Himself that they did not previously grasp -- Jesus is the Resurrection! God's silence is not absence. Quite the contrary, God is preparing you for greater things.

DBRP- WEEK 15, Day 5, Friday, 13 Apr 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 13 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 17:4 – “So according to the mouth of the Lord....” The word of God is sufficient authority to call for obedience without any further evidence or conditions. Many leaders have been frustrated subordinates who question their orders because they simply don't understand them or don't really like them – “But why?” This challenge of authority ultimately comes down to a lack of trust in the leader (often due to a lack of understanding), and it delays progress and success. Perhaps there is good reason to question an imperfect human leader, though perhaps not always good justification – as the adage goes, “Leaders have the right to be wrong.” However, there is no good reason to doubt our perfect God or to delay in our obedience, even without understanding. Again, delayed obedience is disobedience, which only robs us of God's best for us and for others. The word disciple is related to the word discipline. Discipline has been defined as, “instant and willing obedience to all orders and respect for authority.” Are you a disciplined disciple, or is your delay robbing you of God's best?

2. Joshua 17:11, 14 -- God gave Joseph's sons a strong portion including places inside other tribes' territories, but Joseph was not satisfied. We are challenged enough to be faithful simply with what God has already given us. When you are faithful with little, God can give you more. He knows what you can handle better than you do. Often, we are so worried about what we don't have, we fail to see and appreciate what we do have. Leading small teams can often produce more fruit than leading big teams because the leader can dedicate more attention to those being led. The Father gave Jesus 12 to facilitate global change – “While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled (John 17:12).” Contentment is the mark of faith and the attitude of gratitude that pleases our Lord and produces fruit.

3. Joshua 17:13 -- “Now when the people of Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.” A small compromise in your obedience to God that seems like no big deal to you, is always a big deal to God. Even small acts of disobedience reveal what you care about is more important to you than what God cares about, that something other than God has become your priority. All disobedience is you saying, “God, you are not Lord here.” Rather than driving out the Canaanites, the Israelites made a comfort-based decision and put them into forced labor, avoiding conflict while promoting financial gain. No big deal, right? I wonder how the Israelites justified this defiance of God? Have you ever told yourself that you could control the apparently small sin in your life or keep it in a box? “I know the words of this song are bad, but I just like the music....” Have you ever said something like this: “Other than the profanity and sex scenes, that was a pretty good movie.”? Proverbs 6:27 asks, “Can a man carry fire next to his chest and his clothes not be burned?” Don't strive to control sin in your life – drive it out. Accept no compromise with sin. Trust and obey.

4. Joshua 17:14, 15 -- “‘Why have you given me but one lot and one portion as an inheritance, although I am a numerous people, since all along the Lord has blessed me?’ And Joshua said to them, ‘If you are a numerous people, go up by yourselves to the forest, and there clear ground for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.’” Once again, God expects us to be thankful for what we have, not complain about or make excuses based upon what we don’t have. God wants us to make the most of what He has given us, under the conditions in which He has placed us. Circumstances don’t determine our success but rather how we respond to those circumstances. One of the easiest and most common copouts is to claim that we don’t have the resources (time, abilities, materiel, people, etc.) to get done what needs to get done. However, if God called us to do it, He will provide the resources. But God expects us to work diligently, persistently, and obediently. (Proverbs 10:4, 5) Proverbs remind us, “The blessing of the Lord makes rich, and He adds no sorrow with it.” (Proverbs 10:22) The people of Joseph were not satisfied with God’s blessings and commands and made excuses for their lack of obedience. As a result, they induced sorrows with the blessings they had received. Work joyfully, thankfully, contently, diligently, persistently, faithfully, and confidently with what God has given you and be blessed. Don’t make excuses. Don’t add your own sorrows.

5. Joshua 17:17-18 – “For you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong.” God calls you to accomplish what is impossible for you to accomplish without His power so He will be glorified rather than you. It doesn’t take faith to do what you already know you can do.

6. Joshua 18:4-6 – “Provide three men from each tribe, and I will send them out that they may set out and go up and down the land. They shall write a description of it with a view to their inheritances, and then come to me. They shall divide it into seven portions. Judah shall continue in his territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall continue in their territory on the north. And you shall describe the land in seven divisions and bring the description here to me. And I will cast lots for you here before the Lord our God.” God gives us instructions for how to deal with the realities of human nature in order to keep peace and unity. People often struggle with rules of equality and fairness, particular when concerned with who gets what. Politics has been described as the process of deciding who gets what. God’s plan for dividing the land fairly was to send out teams of three (three witness are required for big decisions) to survey and record (putting the agreement in writing) the portions of land. Since the surveyors had no idea which portion of land they would ultimately get, they were incentivized to make equal portions. Casting lots takes the human out of the process, thereby eliminating any perceptions of bias. This God-given approach to negotiations should serve as a model for us today in order to preserve unity.

7. Joshua 18:6 – “And I will cast lots for you here before the Lord our God.” What we call chance is never chance to God. God is in total control. God gives the final answer. If you ever feel that you are the victim of circumstances, you fail to fully appreciate the sovereignty of God.

8. Proverbs 13:25 -- “The righteous has enough to satisfy his appetite, but the belly of the wicked suffers want.” This is a very interesting Proverb. The appetite of the righteous is satisfied, but why? Perhaps it is because the appetite of the righteous is content with “enough” rather than “just a little more.” The righteous have learned to be content with what God has provided while the wicked are never satisfied in their empty cravings. The choice of the word “enough” in this Proverb is significant – it doesn’t say

“plenty,” or “an abundance.” Jesus taught us to pray, “Give us this day our daily bread,” rather than “give us this day bread for a lifetime.” Learning to walk in daily dependence on and confidence in God is where we find peace, contentment, and joy. In this position, we are like the “poor man” who “hears no threat (Proverbs 13:8).”

9. Romans 3:2 -- To be entrusted with God's word is a great advantage. What are you doing with God's word?

10. Romans 3:3 – “What if some were unfaithful? Does their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God?” God is faithful even when we are not faithful. And a lack of faith does not change the truth of God's word or the consequences of living or not living by God's word. Without faith it is impossible to please God because faith trusts God's faithfulness to receive what He has already given us. In unfaithfulness, we don't use what we have been given and act as if we had never received it. Our failure to take hold of what God has given us does not change the fact that He freely gave but merely demonstrates our lack of appreciation for the giver and the gift and robs us of the joy that comes from receiving.

11. Romans 3:5, 6 – “But if our unrighteousness serves to show the righteousness of God, what shall we say? That God is unrighteous to inflict wrath on us? (I speak in a human way.) By no means!” Our sin only further reveals the truth of God's word, the truth of His Righteousness, and the need for salvation through Jesus Christ.

12. Romans 3:5-8 – “And why not do evil that good may come?” The reality of our sinfulness and the reality of God's grace for those who rely on Jesus does not in any way lighten the seriousness of sin or provide a license for continued sin.

13. Romans 3:9-18 -- All people are subject to God's judgement and need salvation through Jesus.

14. Romans 3:10-18 -- Your thoughts, words, and deeds continually reveal your dependence on God's mercy and grace and your need for continued sanctification.

15. Romans 3:19 – “...so that every mouth may be stopped....” The reality of our sin should eliminate all pride and boasting. Most people feel that they are generally good people. “For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin (Romans 3:20).”

16. Romans 3:22-26 -- “For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.” God is a God of love, but He is also a God of justice. In fact, love and justice go hand-in-hand. A loving God cannot accept injustice. God in His character of love and justice cannot simply overlook or excuse any sin – that would be unjust, unloving. The penalty must be paid. God has shown His righteousness through Jesus Christ by demanding the full penalty for sin, and penalty that we could not bear. And He has shown His love through the sacrifice of His One and Only Son on our behalf. Through Christ, God reveals that He is “just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.” God Himself offers to pay the penalty for our sins “as a gift.” Said another way, “For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:23).” However, a person doesn't own a gift until they accept it from the giver. Who do you know who hasn't accepted the gift of grace through Jesus Christ? Do you love that person enough to patiently lead them to Christ and to freedom? We have all fallen short, and justice demands our eternal death, but through the grace of God, Jesus paid the price for our sins that we can have freedom from God's judgment and the gift eternal life. Having received grace and forgiveness from God through Jesus, God expects us to live our lives lovingly but also justly, and He holds us accountable for our sins and disciplines us, though not unto eternal death. Of God, the Bible says – "The Rock, his work is perfect, for all his ways are justice. A God of faithfulness and without iniquity, just and upright is he (Deuteronomy 32:4); of a truth, God will not do wickedly, and the Almighty will not pervert justice (Job 24:12). Shall one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty (Job 34:17)? But the Lord sits enthroned forever; he has established his throne for justice (Psalm 9:7); He loves righteousness and justice (Psalm 33:5). Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne; steadfast love and faithfulness go before you (Psalm 89:14). Let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the Lord who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. For in these things I delight, declares the Lord (Jeremiah 9:24). But the Lord of hosts is exalted in justice, and the Holy God shows himself holy in righteousness (Isaiah 5:16). It is from the Lord that a man gets justice (Proverbs 29:26)." The God of love hates injustice: "A false balance is an abomination to the Lord, but a just weight is his delight (Proverbs 11:1). For I the Lord love justice; I hate robbery and wrong; I will faithfully give them their recompense (Isaiah 61:8). But woe to you Pharisees! For you... neglect justice and the love of God (Luke 11:42)." God calls justice light and injustice darkness (Isaiah 59:9). God says that His disciples are to be a light in the world, modelling the attribute of God's justice. The God of love who hates injustice demands that people not only live justly but also fight against injustice -- "You shall not pervert justice (Deuteronomy 16:19). Justice, and only justice, you shall follow (Deuteronomy 16:20). You shall not pervert the justice (Deuteronomy 24:17). Cursed be anyone who perverts the justice (Deuteronomy 27:19). He who justifies the wicked and he who condemns the righteous are both alike an abomination to the Lord (Proverbs 17:15). The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy (Psalm 111:7). "So you, by the help of your God, return, hold fast to love and justice, and wait continually for your God (Hosea 12:16). Hate evil, and love good, and establish justice in the gate (Amos 5:15)." Can you imagine a world totally without any justice? How dark would that be? How unloving? How evil? Have the courage to stand up against injustice in the Name of Jesus and under the authority of Jesus. Matthew 12:18 -- Behold, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved with whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the Gentiles.

17. Romans 3:22 -- Ultimately, righteousness cannot come from living a "good" life but only through total dependence on Jesus, His righteousness imputed to the unrighteous. Salvation depends on God's accomplishments, not yours. Having been made righteous through Jesus, our only worthy response is to strive to live righteously in accordance with His character and will. We were paid for with the ultimate price of the blood of Jesus. The thought of trampling on the blood of Jesus should horrify you.

18. Romans 3:22-24 -- Salvation in Jesus is available to every person who will believe and surrender their lives to Jesus.

19. Romans 3:31 -- Grace does not nullify the law but gives us freedom to obey Jesus without fear.

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 12 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 15 -- God blessed by providing His presence, His protection, family, and land. Concerning the latter two, God's commands are very intentional in the protection of the family, their rightful inheritance, and property rights. When a government establishes laws and policies that threaten family and robs people of inheritance and rights to property, that government is operating against the will of God.
2. Joshua 15:8 -- Jerusalem is not part of Judah's inheritance but Benjamin's. Interesting....
3. Joshua 16:10 -- "However, they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, so the Canaanites have lived in the midst of Ephraim to this day but have been made to do forced labor." You must obey ALL of God's commands and be willing to go the distance to receive the full blessings of God. There are always consequences for disobedience, and some consequences may be tangibly significant, but always spiritually significant. Often the consequences are not realized until many years later, perhaps not for generations, but the roosters always come home to roost. In this case, the Israelites chose to disobey God by not driving out the Canaanites -- this was the easy thing to do and didn't seem to result in many problems for them. However, we will soon read that this decision to disobey God would prove extremely costly over time. In Joshua, chapter 6, God gave strange and very specific instructions to bring down the walls of Jericho -- "You shall march around the city, all the men of war going around the city once. Thus shall you do for six days. Seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. On the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. And when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, when you hear the sound of the trumpet, then all the people shall shout with a great shout, and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people shall go up, everyone straight before him." March around the city for seven days and march around the city seven times on the seventh day. Imagine how the people must have felt marching around the city on days 1 (nothing happens), day 2 (nothing happens), day 3 (nothing happens), etc. What if the people simply stopped marching on the sixth day or only marched around once on the seventh day, giving up when no results were observed? It takes faith to be totally obedient to God, particularly when it doesn't appear to make any sense or produce positive results. However, unconditional obedience is required to receive the blessings God intends for you. Don't quit on day six -- keep marching in fidelity!
4. Proverbs 12: Today's proverbs speak of the wise person's approach to building economic security. First, a wise person does not make deceptive wages and does not get rich taking advantage of others (Proverbs 12:2). A wise person's integrity produces stability in all areas of life. (Proverbs 12:3). I wise person marries well (Proverbs 12:4). The wise don't just jump from one thing to the next; they do long-range planning and follow their plan without distraction, though remaining ready to follow God's unexpected redirection (Proverbs 12:5). The wise person is guided by sound thinking that comes from years of Spirit-led character development, and because of his/her outstanding character, (s)he gains a great reputation. (Proverbs 12:8). The wise person does not spend money to impress others or pretend to be wealthy; rather, the wise person uses money to provide for self and others and to build (Proverbs 12:9). The wise person has a giving heart and uses growing resources to further provide for others (Proverbs 12:10). The wise do not pursue get rich quick schemes and are not driven by the need for instant gratification. Rather, the wise work diligently day by day to build wealth little by little over time.

His wealth is built the old-fashioned way – with his hands (Proverbs 12:11, 12). The wise person learns to work well with others, deals patiently and honestly in all relationships, and accepts the counsel of other wise Christians (Proverbs 12:13-19). The wise pursue peace, knowing that conflicts destroy (Proverbs 12:20). The wise mind their own business and do not get entangled in worthless arguments (Proverbs 12:23). A wise person works hard, does not worry, and avoids friendships with the ungodly (Proverbs 12:24-27). The wise person stays on the path of life.

5. Romans 2:1 -- “Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things.” We all expect mercy from God but demand justice for others. We are quick to defend our rights and honor but expect God not to demand His. We are quick to proclaim, “That’s not fair!” However, we certainly don’t want God to judge us based upon rules of fairness. We are quick to claim “grace”, but we don’t live by grace and give grace freely to others. If we are truly living by grace, we are driven to humility, repentance, forgiveness, holiness, selflessness, surrender, and servitude (to God and others). “God’s kindness is meant to lead you to repentance.” (Romans 1:2) Those who claim grace as their excuse to continue in willful disobedience (which includes partial obedience) only fool themselves as they demonstrate the reality of their prideful self-centeredness (lack of genuine repentance). (Romans 2:8) And the church-goer is cautioned that more Bible knowledge does not make you anymore virtuous; only doing God’s will has value. (Romans 2:13) Information is not transformation. The modern grace movement within church culture today tends to disrespect the holiness of God and condones compromise. In fact, if you attend a popular church today, you will likely hear a lot about grace, but you may never hear the word repent. Even “sin” is a word rarely used in churches today. Grace, repentance, and obedience go together.

6. Romans 2:3 -- “Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who practice such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God?” We are all sinners and, by faith, rely on the mercy and grace of God through Jesus Christ for salvation. We all have a debt that cannot be paid, but Jesus paid the price for our sins on the cross. Only the One who had no debt of His own (from sin) could pay the debt of others. Only Jesus is worthy. Therefore, “there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved (Acts 4:12).” Since while you were still a sinner Christ died for you, how now will you threaten those who are still sinning against you? Will you extend sacrificial grace? Will you ‘wash the feet’ of those who you know will betray you?

7. Romans 2:4 -- “Do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God’s kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?” Yesterday we observed that Paul had committed his entire life (and gave his life) to the spreading of God’s “Good News,” a message he felt obligated to share with tremendous urgency to all that he could. Paul began to explain that the importance of this message (more important than life itself), the greatness of this message, and the urgency of this message, the reason why this “Good News” is so good, is because it is the answer to the greatest problem facing every living person. This is far more critical than a matter of life or death; it is a matter of ETERNAL life or death for all humanity! No greater issue has faced, or ever will face, mankind. The issue: before The One and Only Holy and Righteous God, every person will stand totally guilty, without excuse, of sins that demand the righteous wrath of God and the penalty of death, everlasting punishment -- Hell. The more one truly understands the reality of what it means to deserve the total wrath of Almighty God, the more this situation should instill a sense of utter terror, the kind of terror that leaves you “undone.” Conversely, the greater the understanding of the problem, the more magnificent the solution, which turns unthinkable terror into unimaginable joy, thankfulness, freedom, and peace. Jesus Christ paid the penalty of sin and has accredited to us righteousness before God as well as total access to God. The greater the appreciation of this "Good News," the greater the love for God and love for others, the greater the sense of urgency to get the Good News to those who don't have it. Hence, the reason Paul gave his all for the "Good News." You would think that the messenger who gave up everything to bring this message of unsurpassed import, free of charge with no strings attached, would be more than well received. Of course we know that Paul and countless other martyrs throughout history were viciously persecuted for the message of mercy, grace, peace, and reconciliation. The problem for the messenger is that the audience has no terror but rather, for various reasons, lives in denial (not the river in Egypt). In various ways, forms, or fashions, these self-righteous, self-seeking people (both the religious and unreligious), attempt to have God dethroned (whether they admit it or not). Treason! To place themselves in authority over God and to justify their disobedience to the KING for the sake of their own passions, they have suppressed the truth of God and replaced the truth of God with lies intended to nullify His Lordship. Paul's audiences are quick to demand "justice" from others, quick to defend their own rights or stand up for themselves when they feel they have been slighted by others (even though their judgment is myopic and flawed); they somehow think that they can continually disobey and dishonor God, and God will simply do nothing (Romans 1:1-4). It makes no difference who Paul is addressing. The Jews who had been given special access to God, unimaginable blessings from God, divine revelation, and every detail of His Law disobeyed God anyway; or they followed the commands of God only to prop themselves up before men (place themselves on a throne), thereby disobeying the Great Commandment of love. They stared Jesus in the face, watched him perform miracles of mercy, and then crucified him. The Gentiles who could not obey their own consciences revealed that they were just like the Jews, simply without as much information. For everyone, the issue is with the heart -- "Because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself... the work of the law is written on their hearts... a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God... God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus." (Romans 2:5, 15, 29, 16) The inability of people to obey God's Law or even their own consciences reveals that our hearts are rebellious and wicked. We don't want God in reality to be God; we want to be the god of our lives. This was true for Adam and Eve ("when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God" (Genesis 3:5)), and it remains true today. We come up with all sorts of belief systems or excuses to justify (just-as-if-I'd never sinned) our rebellion or to convince ourselves that our defiance of God does not really matter so that we can continue to build our own kingdom on earth. Why such a violent response to the Good News throughout history until today? Because it threatens the kingship of man and exposes the truth of our great treason. It reveals the truth of ourselves, our secret heart. It strips us of our self-righteous garments exposing our nakedness. The Good News demands repentance and surrender. The Good News reveals the LORDSHIP of the KING. Jesus began his proclamation of the Good News like this: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand (Matthew 3:2)." This message he intentionally presented first to the "religious." How does the church today present the Gospel?

8. Romans 2:8 -- "For those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury." Disobedience is selfishness, in direct contrast to the selflessness of love.

9. Romans 2:16 -- "God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus." There are no secrets with God.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

10. Romans 2:24 -- "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you." How terrible is it to give God a bad name due to bad behavior as an unfaithful Christian?

11. Romans 2:28, 29 -- "For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly.... But a Jew is one inwardly... a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God." Likewise Christianity is about the heart, not just outward appearances.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 12 April: Today, vow to extend to everyone around you, the same level of grace you are counting on from God. (Romans 2:1-3) Meditate upon the below verses:

- Matthew 6:12 -- Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

- Ephesians 4:32 -- Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

- Matthew 5:23-26 -- So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Come to terms quickly....

- Hebrews 12:14 -- Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord.

- Colossians 1:20 -- And through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

- Luke 23:34 -- And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." And they cast lots to divide his garments.

- 1 Peter 4:8 -- Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins.

- Luke 6:27-42 -- But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them.

- Romans 12:14-21 -- Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them.... Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

- Matthew 18:33 -- And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' (Review the Lord's Prayer)

- Galatians 6:1-3 -- Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- Philippians 2:1-8 -- So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.... Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

DBRP- WEEK 15, Day 3, Wednesday, 11 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Joshua+13%2C+14%3B+proverbs+11%3B+Romans+1>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 11 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 13:1, 6 -- "Now Joshua was old and advanced in years.... allot the land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you." God inspired Joshua to make plans for the next generation. God's plan has always been generational. God calls us to plan for generations to come too.

2. Joshua 13:13 -- "Yet the people of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites, but Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day." God's plan will require you to do what you cannot do without Him or under your own strength. "I can't" is often an excuse for disobedience that robs you of God's blessings and a genuine experience of His power in your life. Don't short change yourself by obeying only those commands you can do easily. Faith boldly dives into impossible odds. It doesn't take faith to do what you know you can do. It takes faith to do what God told you to do when you don't know how you possibly can.

3. Joshua 13:14 -- "To the tribe of Levi alone Moses gave no inheritance." Today's readings reiterate four times that Levi received no earthly inheritance. As today's "priests," we too should anticipate no earthly rewards. Our inheritance is Jesus.

4. Joshua 14:5, 9 -- God honors obedience.

5. Joshua 14:10-12 -- "And now, behold, the Lord has kept me alive, just as he said, these forty-five years since the time that the Lord spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness. And now, behold, I am this day eighty-five years old. I am still as strong today as I was in the day that Moses sent me; my strength now is as my strength was then, for war and for going and coming. So now give me this hill country of which the Lord spoke on that day, for you heard on that day how the Anakim were there, with great fortified cities. It may be that the Lord will be with me, and I shall drive them out just as the Lord said." Caleb is a great example for older people (and for anyone else). He had no desire or plan for "retirement". He didn't ask Joshua for a bass boat or a membership to a golf country club; rather he asked for the greatest challenge, to secure the hill country and the fortified cities in the Name of the Lord. He volunteered for this challenge in the hope that "the Lord will be with me." Caleb remained healthy, vibrant, and influential in his later years because he chose to stay in the fight, to remain active and committed for God. He did not consider his age a drawback but rather a testimony and an attribute. God will use a faithful servant of any age to do great things in His name and through His power. In 1 Timothy 4, Paul encourages Timothy not to be concerned about his young age, but rather to serve God with confidence to the best of his ability. Naturally, young people lack a degree of experience, and older people lack a degree of vitality, but they both have equal access to the power of the Holy Spirit.

Proverbs 20:29 -- "The glory of young men is their strength, but the splendor of old men is their gray hair." God calls us to use what we have, and He warns that if you don't use it, you will lose it (see Luke 16:10, and Matthew 25:14-30).

6. Joshua 14:12 – God's most faithful followers desire the hardest assignments and trust God's provision for success.

7. Proverbs 11:18b -- "But he who sows righteousness will have a sure reward." From Henry T. Blackaby -- "There are many ways to invest our lives, but none offers greater reward than devoting ourselves to the pursuit of righteousness. Every area of our lives should reflect the holiness of God that is ours by salvation: our thoughts, so that nothing we think about would be inappropriate for a child of God; our actions, so that our lives demonstrate that we serve a holy God; our integrity, so that we are above reproach in all our relationships. Are you taking God's righteousness in your life for granted? Righteousness is something you must allow the Holy Spirit to work in your life. Instead of sowing holy thoughts, are you allowing evil and sinful thoughts to grow in your mind? Are you allowing lust to grow unchecked within you? Does enmity, bitterness, jealousy, or unforgiveness remain in your life? Jesus said if we seek first God and His righteousness, everything else will follow (Matt. 6:33). There is great reward in sowing righteousness. What are you presently doing to plant holiness in your life? (1 Pet. 1:15). How are you putting righteousness in your mind so that your thoughts are holy? How are you cultivating righteousness in your relationships so that you maintain your integrity? Are you instilling righteousness in your activities so that your life is above reproach? If you want to harvest righteousness in your life tomorrow, you must plant seeds of righteousness today."

8. Romans 1:1 – "Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God...." Paul realized that salvation set him apart for the Gospel. His identity was "servant of Christ Jesus." How do you introduce yourself to others? For what are you most known?

9. Romans 1:1 -- "Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God...." Paul uses the word "gospel" four times in the first chapter of Romans, a word that is used over 90 times in the New Testament. Paul says that he has been set apart for the gospel, that he serves with his spirit "in the gospel," that he is eager to preach the gospel, and certainly not ashamed of the gospel which is "the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes." Jesus preached the gospel and then called us to preach the gospel to "all creation." So, what is the gospel? Without digging into the entire word study (though recommended if you have the time), the word "gospel" means "good news." So, what is this good news for which Paul and so many others have been willing to give their very lives to share? Most Christians will say that the good news is that God has provided the way to salvation through faith in Jesus Christ. But salvation from what? From what are we saved? Today, many, if not most Christians will answer, "saved from our sins." However, we are not saved from our sins, we are saved from the wrath of God --

- "The gospel is called the 'good news' because it addresses the most serious problem that you and I have as human beings, and that problem is simply this: God is holy and He is just, and I'm not. And at the end of my life, I'm going to stand before a just and holy God, and I'll be judged. And I'll be judged either on the basis of my own righteousness—or lack of it—or the righteousness of another. The good news of the gospel is that Jesus lived a life of perfect righteousness, of perfect obedience to God, not for His own well-being but for His people. He has done for me what I couldn't possibly do for myself. But not only has He lived that life of perfect obedience, He offered Himself as a perfect sacrifice to satisfy the justice and the righteousness of God. The great misconception in our day is this: that God isn't concerned to protect His own integrity. He's a kind of wishy-washy deity, who just waves a wand of forgiveness over everybody. No. For God to forgive you is a very costly matter. It cost the sacrifice of His own Son. So valuable was that sacrifice that God pronounced it valuable by raising Him from the dead—so that Christ died for us, He was raised for our justification. So, the gospel is something objective. It is the message of who Jesus is and what He did. And it also has a subjective dimension. How are the benefits of Jesus subjectively appropriated to us? How do I get it? The Bible makes it clear that we are justified not by our works, not by our efforts, not by our deeds, but by faith—and by faith alone. The only way you can receive the benefit of Christ's life and death is by putting your trust in Him—and in Him alone. You do that, you're declared just by God, you're adopted into His family, you're forgiven of all of your sins, and you have begun your pilgrimage for eternity." (R.C. Sproul)

- Paul offers greetings and reviews the gospel which "is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes," the gospel of "Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom we have received grace," he immediately turns to "the wrath of God [being] revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men." It is the awfulness of God's wrath that warrants the urgency for salvation and that displays the true magnitude of God's mercy, grace, and love through Jesus Christ. Unfortunately, too many have lost perspective of the Holiness of God and the seriousness of God's wrath. God's wrath doesn't preach well today. Sinners are often characterized as merely misguided "victims" of circumstances, and sins are just "mistakes", no longer something for which a person can be held totally accountable. Today's more popular God has little if any wrath, rather affection all the time; He is now accepting and tolerant of anyone and everyone because "He understands that we are just human". However, the Good News is only as good as the potential bad news -- the looming wrath of God. Where there is no sin, there is no need of a savior, the good news becomes seemingly less relevant, certainly not worth sticking your neck out for. Remember, the first recorded word preached by both John the Baptist and Jesus was "Repent," a word used 65 times in the Bible but less and less from pulpits.

-- Revelation 4:8 -- Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!

-- Revelation 8:13 -- Then I looked, and I heard an eagle crying with a loud voice as it flew directly overhead, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth."

10. Romans 1:5 – "...we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations..." Christ's Ambassadors were saved to call others to saving faith and obedience empowered by faith in and love for Jesus.

11. Romans 1:7 – "To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints...." Rome was an ethically corrupt society. Those who are loved by God are called to be saints in a fallen world.

12. Romans 1:8 – "First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed in all the world." Is your faith being reported all over the world?

13. Romans 1:9, 10 – "For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you always in my prayers, asking that somehow by God's will I may now at last succeed in coming to you." The love of Christ compels Christians to love others earnestly, pray for them continually, and do all they can to draw them closer to Jesus.

14. Romans 1:11, 12 – "For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you— that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine." God wants Christians to earnestly seek to encourage one another and strengthen each other in their faith. Is this a top priority in your life?

15. Romans 1:14, 15 – You are obligated to preach the Gospel to all people, eagerly without favoritism.

16. Romans 1:16 – “For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.” Paul realized that some would be ashamed to preach the Gospel, but Paul reminds us that faith in God and love for others should overcome any shame.

17. Romans 1:18 – “For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth.” World events reveal God’s wrath and a suppression of the truth of the Gospel.

18. Romans 1:19 – “For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them.” Unbelievers have enough evidence to believe in God if they want to.

19. Romans 1:21 – “...their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened.” The more you reject the truth, the less likely you will ever accept it.

20. Romans 1:22 – “Claiming to be wise, they became fools....” Unbelievers believe they are wiser than believers.

21. Romans 1:24 -- “Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts.” As the old preachers says, whenever you see the word “therefore” in the Bible, you should ask, “What is it there for?” This word points to a relationship of causation and signals that you can’t understand what is going to be said next without understanding what precedes it. So, “God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts” for a specific reason that is critical to our understanding: “For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools.” Paul reiterates the point – “they exchanged the truth about God for a lie.... since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done.... Though they know God’s righteous decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them.” God turned them over to their lusts because they rejected Him as God. Having chosen to reject God and disobey Him, their thinking became futile until their hearts lost all desire for God. This is a pride that God hates. (Proverbs 8:13) They became completely desensitized to their sin and went from bad to worse. Paul says that in observing this, the discerning can see the “wrath of God” being revealed. Ultimately, all sin is a rejection of God (even but for just a moment); it is treason, it is subversion, an affront to the Lordship of God. Knowing that God is God, knowing that Jesus Christ paid for our sins through His blood, we willing continue in that which He abhors – unthinkable! Fortunately, the Good News, as Paul points out, is that God gives us grace and peace through the Lord Jesus Christ, but this gift is certainly nothing to take lightly. With grace comes apostleship (or discipleship) “to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of His name among all nations.” (Romans 1:5) Having received grace, we now “belong to Jesus Christ.” Just as rejection of God has a consequence of destruction, grace and salvation through faith has an obedience consequence, driving us to follow God in love (rather than fear or mere duty). The saved don’t just “believe in God” they surrender their lives to Him, becoming disciples, intent on making more disciples who “obey” all that God commands – this is the Great Commission. The goal of salvation is not that God will bless our lives and that we go to Heaven; the goal of salvation is that we glorify God and enjoy Him forever, that we grow in love and unity with Him and encourage others to do the same. We deny self, take up the Cross of Christ, and follow Jesus. In opposition to the world, the follower of Christ can only hate evil. (Proverbs 8:13) The one who hates evil won't take it lightly, make light of it or overlook it. To do so, by definition, would be to make light of grace, or as Paul says, to trample underfoot the Son of God, to profane the blood of the covenant, and to outrage the Spirit of grace. (Hebrews 10:29) Today, the vast majority of Christians in America will entertain themselves with various forms of media which glorify that which God abhors, slowly desensitizing themselves to the horrors of sin. This should never be! It is time for repentance. Pray for revival (which must come from God).

22. Romans 1:24 – Unbelief is often revealed by sexual sin.

23. Romans 1:26, 27 – “For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions.” Homosexuality as with all other sexual sins (promiscuity, pornography, adultery, etc.) is the consequence of rejection of God's truth.

24. Romans 1:29-31 – “They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless.” Like homosexuality, many other sins are the consequence of rejection of God's truth.

25. Romans 1:32 – “They not only do them but give approval to those who practice them.” Approving of sin, tolerating it, or accepting it is also unacceptable to the Lord.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 11 April: Today, resolve to no longer focus on what you don't have (youth, experience, talent, money, time, etc.) but rather to use what you do have to love and serve the Lord with all your "heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind." (see Joshua 14:10-12 and Luke 10:27)

DBRP- WEEK 15, Day 2, Tuesday, 10 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Joshua+11%2C+12%3B+proverbs+10%3B+mark+16>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 10 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 11:5, 6 -- "And all these kings joined their forces and came and encamped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel. And the Lord said to Joshua, 'Do not be afraid of them, for tomorrow at this time I will give over all of them, slain, to Israel.'" While Christians find unity in the love of Jesus, the world will find unity in hatred toward Jesus and His disciples. God says not to worry as more and more people turn against Jesus and His followers. Victory is in His hands.

2. Joshua 11:15 -- “Just as the Lord had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the Lord had commanded Moses.” God honors obedience. Like Moses, Joshua understood that partial obedience is disobedience. Joshua was wholly obedient and God worked far beyond Joshua's obedience to reveal Himself by doing only what God can do: “For it was the Lord's doing to harden their hearts that they should come against Israel in battle, in order that they should be devoted to destruction and should receive no mercy but be destroyed, just as the Lord commanded Moses.” (Joshua 11:20) Only God can work in the hearts of people and control circumstances. As we walk in obedience, we will see God working far beyond our activities to accomplish His purposes, to reveal Himself, and to bring glory to Himself. Our job is to be obedient, regardless the personal cost, for reasons we cannot even understand. If we are simultaneously attempting to fulfill our own personal agenda, we will end up being partially obedient which, again, is disobedience. Disobedience is working through the flesh, not the Spirit. Disobedience is why the churches lose their lampstands and real spiritual power, operating on the talents and abilities of men which is ultimately meaningless. Pray for repentance and revival in the church.

3. Joshua 11:20 -- "For it was the Lord's doing to harden their hearts that they should come against Israel in battle, in order that they should be devoted to destruction and should receive no mercy but be destroyed, just as the Lord commanded Moses." God hardens hearts by giving the wicked what they really want, along with the inevitable consequences, all for His good purpose. The practical implication for us is that we will face opposition and persecution from the wicked as God's plan for both the righteous people (righteous through the blood of Jesus) and the unrighteous people unfolds over time. This calls for perseverance and persistent fidelity. Trust and obey through your circumstances. God knows what is happening to you and will work it all together for a greater good you cannot possibly imagine.

4. Joshua 12:6, 7 -- "Moses, the servant of the Lord, and the people of Israel defeated them.... And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the people of Israel defeated...." God works generationally, over time. Christians are often shortsighted, wanting immediate results. However, God wants us to leave results in His hands and to focus on obedience in the moment. If we are faithful and obedient with what God has placed in front of us, we are fulfilling our purpose and living successfully, regardless of outward appearances. Part of our mission is preparing to handover fidelity to the next generation so they can continue to serve God's eternal plan. Moses prepared Joshua, and Joshua continued in the mission. Who are you preparing to receive the torch of fidelity from you?

5. Proverbs 10:8 -- Fools debate about commands rather than simply obeying.

6. Proverbs 10:12 -- "Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all offenses." We have been given the mission of reconciliation. This involves covering over all offenses with love, bearing the burden of others' sins as a gift of grace and an act of worship before the Lord.

7. Proverbs 10:19 -- "When words are many, transgression is not lacking, but whoever restrains his lips is prudent." When you feel slighted, offended, and emotional, hold your tongue.

8. Mark 16:1 -- "When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him." The disciples played lead, visible roles in Jesus' ministry, but it was others behind the scenes, unlikely protagonists, who remained faithful to the end. It was Joseph of Arimathea (previously unmentioned) who "went boldly to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body," no doubt at great personal risk and definitely at great personal cost. John records that Nicodemus claimed Jesus' body with Joseph, again at great personal risk. While many watched Jesus' trial from a distance (spectator believers), the Bible says that the two Marys and Salome "cared for [Jesus'] needs in Galilee. It was these same three who chose to anoint Jesus' body while the disciples remained in hiding (John 20:19), and because of their quiet faithfulness, these women were the first to be given the Good News -- "He has risen!" At one point the disciples were very enthusiastic about their leadership roles within the Kingdom, even arguing about which among them was the greatest, but now they remained fearful behind closed doors. Of course we know that this isn't the end of the story for them, and after a personal encounter with the Risen Jesus, they are transformed into men of valor. However, I think this story has much to tell us about leadership – too much to discuss here but worth pondering today as we mediate on our readings. Often those most enthusiastic about leading are the last people who should lead. "False" leaders are like false prophets, pursuing their own appetites. Jesus said "you will recognize them by their fruits (Matthew 7:16)." Galatians 5:22-23 says, "the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." If a leader or teacher lacks these qualities, then there is a problem. Another test of leadership is selfless sacrifice – real leadership always comes at a tremendous personal cost, not profit or fame. Finally, I believe that true Christian leadership always lifts up the name of Christ and Christ alone. The Marys, Salome, Joseph and Nicodemus were focused on one thing – serving Jesus despite the personal cost. They served quietly, behind the scenes and modeled the foot-washing type of leadership that Jesus taught. Something to consider today.

9. Mark 16:15, 16 -- "And he said to them, 'Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.'" Jesus commanded his disciples to proclaim the gospel, not just to a select few or to who were likely to accept it, but to the "whole creation." The Christian's responsibility is to boldly proclaim the Gospel to everyone; how others respond to the Gospel is their responsibility. Question: have you chosen not to share the Gospel with someone because of how you feel about them or because of how you think they will react? Can you withhold the truth of the Gospel and remain obedient to God?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 10 April: Resolve today to be a willing behind the scenes leader, someone who simply remains faithful to God's word, without recognition, regardless the personal cost. Endeavor to be a nobody that Christ might recognized rather than you. Don't seek credit or reward. Simply serve Jesus with all of your heart, be a leader in love, and lead people to Jesus. Someone once said, "Leaders know the way and show the way." Know and show Jesus, the Way, the Truth, and the Life. If you are leading people to something else (good ideas, morals, ethics, philosophy, etc.) or showing them something else (your talents and skills, a more practical way of living, etc.), you are leading them astray, presenting a false gospel which is no gospel at all. (see notes above on Mark 16)

DBRP- WEEK 15, Day 1, Monday, 9 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Joshua+9%2C+10%3B+proverbs+9%3B+mark+15>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 9 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 9:14 -- "So the men took some of their provisions, but did not ask counsel from the Lord." Against God's will, the Israelites were deceived into a covenant with the Gibeonites which resulted in a war between Israel and five kingdoms. This happened because the Israelites did "whatever seem[ed] good and right in [their] sight" rather than asking for "counsel from the Lord." (Joshua 9:25) Christians have full access to the power of God, and God's promises to empower us mightily in order to perform His will (not ours) for His purposes (not ours), for His glory (not ours), and through His power (not ours). God will always ask His people to accomplish what is impossible for them so that the world will see the power of God through them rather than merely the power of talented people. We see throughout the Bible how God works beyond human abilities to bring His people victory and to reveal Himself to a watching world: He knows the hearts of people (we cannot), He controls the hearts of people (we cannot); He orchestrates circumstances and the timing of events to produce amazing effects (we cannot do that); He controls nature (we cannot), and He directs the course of all activities on Heaven and Earth for His glory (we cannot even fathom that). God does not intend for His people to operate within the narrow constraints of their own extraordinarily small perceptions and abilities but rather He expects His people to operate with total faith and reliance in the unmatched wisdom and power of God. How foolish is it for us to trust ourselves rather than God? As God's servants, we are on very dangerous ground if we are making decisions apart from God's leading and walking along our own path under our own power. As God warns, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts." (Isaiah 55:8-9) With the Israelites facing seemingly impossible odds, God says to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands. Not a man of them shall stand before you." (Joshua 10:8) If we are walking with God, we have ABSOLUTELY nothing to fear. If we are leaning on our own understanding, we have good reason to be concerned; life will be far harder and less joyful than God intended.

- Matthew 10:24 -- A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master.

- Jeremiah 29:11 -- For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.

2. Joshua 9:14, 15 -- "...but did not ask counsel from the Lord. And Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them, to let them live, and the leaders of the congregation swore to them." Failing to ask counsel from the Lord, rather trusting in their own reasoning, the Israelites became entangled in commitments with the ungodly which resulted in tremendous conflict for the Israelites (war against a coalition of five kingdoms). The Bible warns us time and time again not to establish dependencies with the ungodly or to establish covenants with them. Proverbs say that if we have become "ensnared" in a pledge to a "stranger," we should seek to save ourselves "like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter." Our faith teaches that unrepentant sinners are trapped in sin. What partnership can the godly have with the ungodly, the servants of God with the servants of Satan? "Do two walk together, unless they have agreed to meet?" (Amos 3:3) How do we agree with both God and man? The Christian is on a mission of reconciliation (reunion with God) that by definition requires God at the center of all agreements – it is impossible to achieve unity and peace without this essential. As slaves to Christ, we have no authority to make covenant with the world. Even among believers, promises are often made falsely, with the wrong motives. Commitments always involve promises based on trust; trust is based upon an assumption about the heart or character of the other party. The Bible says that no one can really know the thoughts, heart, and character of another person -- only God knows. (1 Corinthians 2:11; Proverbs 15:11) Often all we have to go on is reputation. As someone once said, "Reputation is what others say about you; character is what God knows about you." Only God can reveal another person's true motives and character to you. So, the first place to start when you are considering a partnership with another is in earnest prayer. If the partnership clearly doesn't conform to the Bible standard, your prayer has already been answered. Beyond that, God can reveal through the Holy Spirit what you do not see through His written word. Key is to not rush into a promise but to wait on the Lord. Another point the Bible drives home is that God expects His people to honor their commitments and promises, even the ones made rashly. Once you have made a decision, you own that decision – your "yes" must be a yes, and your "no" must be a no. The importance of avoiding entanglements with the ungodly and waiting upon to Lord in decision-making cannot be overstated. We can only do what God has told us to do. Does God want you to make that promise?

3. Joshua 9:19 -- "We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we may not touch them." Again, God expects you to keep your commitments even if you made those commitments without the right information or if the commitment is later discovered to be unfair. We are called to demonstrate godly fidelity despite the infidelity of others.

4. Joshua 9:26 -- "So he did this to them and delivered them out of the hand of the people of Israel, and they did not kill them." God expects you to show mercy to others while still holding them accountable.

5. Joshua 10:6 -- "And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal, saying, 'Do not relax your hand from your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the hill country are gathered against us.'" Getting entangled with the world will cause you many unneeded conflicts.

6. Joshua 10:8 -- "Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands." God will honor your willingness to honor even your misguided commitments.

7. Joshua 10:14 -- "There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD heeded the voice of a man, for the LORD fought for Israel." God will work through you in a way that reveals Himself -- it's not about you.

8. Joshua 10:19 -- "Pursue your enemies; attack their rear guard. Do not let them enter their cities, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand." God's plan involves thoroughly defeating enemies of the Kingdom, and often He uses strategy to do it.

9. Joshua 10:27 -- "But at the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, and they set large stones against the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day." Joshua made a public example of God's enemies but did not desecrate their bodies, remaining faithful to God's commands. (see Deut 21:22, 23)

10. Proverbs 9:1 -- "Wisdom has built her house...." Wisdom is organized, prepared, and purposeful.

11. Proverbs 9:8, 9 -- "Do not reprove a scoffer, or he will hate you; reprove a wise man, and he will love you. Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser; teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning." Wise people get wiser every day, and foolish people get more foolish every day because they refuse to listen and learn.

12. Proverbs 9:13, 14 -- "The woman Folly is loud; she is seductive and knows nothing. She sits at the door of her house; she takes a seat on the highest places of the town." Foolish people are loud and proud, live by their passions, and consider themselves better than everyone else, always pursuing places of honor.

13. Mark 15:2 -- "And Pilate asked him, 'Are you the King of the Jews?' And he answered him, 'You have said so.'" Some have legal authority to lead, and others have the moral authority to lead. By law, Pilate was the ruler, but by God, Jesus is the KING of kings, and Pilate could not deny the true leadership of Jesus. Before imparting the Great Commission to the disciples in Matthew 28, Jesus reminds them that all power and authority had been given to Him, and under that authority, the disciples were commissioned to lead the world to Him. He then reminded them that they would not lead solely on their own power. You may not have much legal authority, but you have been given the moral authority and the power to change the world one heart at a time.

14. Mark 15:10, 15 -- "For he perceived that it was out of envy that the chief priests had delivered him up.... " Religious envy and selfish politics condemned Jesus to death. What destructive impact have you seen from envy in your own life and in the lives of others?

15. Mark 15:18 -- "And they began to salute him, 'Hail, King of the Jews!'" The guards callously mocked and abused Jesus, The Truth. There is no limit to what the godless will be willing to do in defiance of the truth and those who proclaim it. God's plan includes allowing His people to suffer for His glory. Whatever you are going through, remember what Christ went through on your behalf -- He is not one who doesn't understand your suffering. And remember, there is a big difference between persecution and prosecution. Too often, Christians suffer because of their own foolish behavior and then call it martyrdom in order to justify themselves. Most of our problems in life are self-induced.

16. Mark 15:28 -- See Isaiah 53:12 -- God had a plan for even the robbers to fulfill prophecy.

17. Mark 15:30-32 -- Self-preservation is the human way; the cross is God's way.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 9 April: Consider carefully who you are choosing with which to partner, in relationships, in business, in activities, etc. Are you surrounding yourself with people who share in your commitment to draw closer to Jesus every day, to follow Jesus wholeheartedly? Are you fully united to your fellow Christians as the body of Christ? Is Jesus at the center of all of your important relationships? Concerning your relationships with your ungodly friends, ask yourself how many times you have mentioned the name of Jesus to them. Is your primary focus for them reconciliation to God? How many others are you discipling daily? Fully commit to the Body of Christ and temple of God, God's people. Partner with God's people and engage everyone else with the goal of their reconciliation with God. Remember, a body must be fully connected to stay healthy, and the stones of a temple must be completely joined and in place to have strength. (See today's readings)

DBRP- WEEK 14, Day 7, Sunday, 8 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=josh+7%2C+8%3B+prov+8%3B+psalm+41%2C+42>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 8 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 7:1 – “But the people of Israel broke faith.” All sin is breaking faith with God.

2. Joshua 7:1 – “...for Achan the son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things. And the anger of the Lord burned against the people of Israel.” Achan's sin affected everyone. God held the people of Israel accountable until the people of Israel held Achan accountable. God's discipline was to protect the holiness of his people. One bad apple can spoil the bunch.

3. Joshua 7:6 – “Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the Lord until the evening, he and the elders of Israel.” In times of crisis, where do you turn? Joshua went straight to the Lord, and he didn't go alone but took the elders with him. God responded to Joshua, and He will respond to your fervent prayer.

4. Joshua 7:7 – “And Joshua said, ‘Alas, O Lord God, why have you brought this people over the Jordan at all, to give us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would that we had been content to dwell beyond the Jordan!’” We ere when we assume the motives or intent of God (or of other people). From our myopic perspective, we tend to underestimate God and others, while thinking more highly of ourselves than we should. Joshua could not understand God's behavior and assumed the worst, while implying the issue at hand was God's behavior rather than the sins of the Israelites. “When a man's folly brings his way to ruin, his heart rages against the Lord.” (Proverbs 19:3) But Joshua approached God in all honesty as we see done so often in the Psalms. God accepted Joshua's candor. God wants you to approach Him honestly in your prayers too.

5. Joshua 7:9 – “For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it and will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. And what will you do for your great name?” Joshua understood a couple of things – Reputation (and trust) takes a long time to establish but can be ruined by one major failure; and, more important than what people think about us is what they think about our God, the One we have been called to glorify. The name “Christian” means, “little Christ.” We represent the character of Christ before others. What do we do to the Name of Jesus when we destroy trust and establish a bad reputation? We must guard our character carefully.

6. Joshua 7:10 -- “Get up! Why have you fallen on your face?” – First pray, then obey. When God gives you a work, don't delay – step out.

7. Joshua 7:11, 12 – “Israel has sinned.... Therefore the people of Israel cannot stand before their enemies.” Good parents to give defiant children gifts. Often God has to deal with your sin before He can bless you. The Israelites had “stolen and lied,” yet expected God to reward them with victory against their enemies. God will not bless disobedience. Are their sins of which you still need to repent that your holding you back? “...let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us.” (Hebrews 12:1) “I will be with you no more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you.” (Joshua 7:12)

8. Joshua 7:20,25 -- “And Achan answered Joshua, ‘Truly I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I did'.... And all Israel stoned him with stones.” Being sorry doesn't excuse you from prosecution or punishment.

9. Joshua 8:1-9 – God's ways may involve the use of tactics and even tactical deception in warfare to defeat enemies.

10. Joshua 8:30 – “At that time Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal.” The proper response to God's salvation is worship.

11. Proverbs 8:8 – “All the words of my mouth are righteous; there is nothing twisted or crooked in them.” Your Teacher, Counsellor, Coach, and Guide should be the Holy Spirit, not a person. Don't let any person or philosophy be a substitute in your life for the Holy Spirit and God's word, the only source of truth that is not partially crooked. Even your favorite pastor, priest, preacher, or Bible scholar sees the truth from a limited perspective -- 1 Corinthians 13:12 – “For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known.” It is amazingly tragic how many Christians turn to others to filter and interpret God's word for them rather than getting it first hand from the Holy Spirit. Commentaries and commenters can be helpful, but always be like the Bereans – "Now these Jews were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so." (Acts 17:11)

12. Proverbs 8:13 – "The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil." Do you hate your own pride like God does? Are you proud of your humility – think about it....

13. Proverbs 8:17 – "I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me." Knowing God more and more each day is your life purpose and goal. It is not what you do or where you end up, it is who you know and who you are with – Jesus.

14. Proverbs 8:34 – "Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors." Practically applying this proverb involves being immersed in God's word, applying it, keeping your eyes open to see what the Holy Spirit is doing and obediently serving Him in the moment.

15. Psalm 41:1 – "Blessed is the one who considers the poor!" Again, give freely! God gave you all, at the expense of His One and Only Son, when you deserved nothing at all, in fact, when you deserved death. How you give displays how you truly feel about what God has given you. It also reveals how much you really trust God to take care of you in the future – "If I give away what little food I have, God may use it to miraculously feed thousands, but what will I eat?"

16. Psalm 41:9 -- "Even my close friend in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted his heel against me." Having just read in Mark 14 the story of the Last Supper and Jesus' betrayal, the similarities with David's betrayal described in Psalm 41 are not missed: "one of you will betray me – one who is eating with me... one who dips bread into the bowl with me... you will all fall away." (Mark 14:18, 20, 27) However, David highlights a significant difference between his situation and that of Jesus: David was not innocent. Jesus displayed mercy and grace from a position of perfection and complete holiness. Jesus was the only soul who has ever walked on earth who could have demanded justice, yet he didn't for our sake. Conversely, David, in his persecution, recognized that he could not stand simply on justice; he too relied upon forgiveness, mercy, and grace from God – "As for me, I said, 'O Lord, be gracious to me; heal me, for I have sinned against you!'" (Psalm 41:4) Towards the end of Psalm 41 David says, "But you have upheld me because of my integrity, and set me in your presence forever (Psalm 41:12)." What integrity could the sinner David be talking about? I believe it is the truth of his statement in Psalm 41:4 – David has truly acknowledged that he is a sinner who relies totally upon God's grace for salvation. David understood Ephesians 2:8-9: "For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast." I believe he also had some level of understanding and put his hope in the promise of John 3:16: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life." While Jesus certainly had the right in his perfection to demand justice from others, we, total sinners relying totally on God's grace, certainly do not have the right to demand justice for ourselves from others. Jesus points this out throughout his teachings. He taught us to pray to God, "forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us (Luke 11:4)," and his famous parable about the "Unforgiving Servant" in Matthew 18 points out that we stand in no position to offer anything but forgiveness mercy and grace to others being totally dependent on the same so wonderfully provided to us by God through His Son, Jesus Christ. To live in integrity is to acknowledge our total dependence on God's grace and to treat others accordingly. The more we truly understand what God has done for us, the easier it is to treat others graciously.

17. Psalm 42:2 – “My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God?” Do you thirst for God’s presence? He will not deny you.

18. Psalm 42:4 – “How I would go with the throng and lead them in procession to the house of God with glad shouts and songs of praise.” Are you leading many to God with shouts of praise?

19. Psalm 42:11 -- “Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God.” Are you ever doubtful, fearful, or depressed when you know that, through faith, you shouldn’t be? It is comforting to know that the Bible records that all of God’s servants struggle with these feelings and that God understands them. Remember last week when we read in Mark 9 of the man who begged Jesus to heal his son? When Jesus questioned the father’s belief, “the father of the child cried out and said, ‘I believe; help my unbelief (Mark 9:24)!’” Perhaps you feel that way sometimes – you have faith but desperately want more complete faith. Be grateful that God knows your limitations and can provide all the strength you need in your weakness. Pray that God will build up your faith and help you in your unbelief.

20. Psalm 42:11 – “Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God.” Sometimes you have to remind yourself and coach yourself to trust in God and to praise Him.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 8 April: Commit to radical, shocking forgiving and giving as an act of worship and celebration.

DBRP- WEEK 14, Day 6, Saturday, 7 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=josh+5%2C+6%3B+prov+7%3B+psalm+40>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 7 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 5:13, 14 -- "Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went up to him and asked, 'Are you for us or for our enemies?' 'Neither,' he replied, 'but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.' Then Joshua fell facedown to the ground in reverence, and asked him, 'What message does my Lord[d] have for his servant?'"

- "Neither" ("No" in some translations) is not what you would have expected the commander of the army of the LORD to say just prior to Joshua's attack on Jericho. Why was the commander there, and why did he say what he said? Perhaps, in part, he was there to remind Joshua and the Jews that this great moment was not about them and what they wanted in life, but rather about God's purposes and His glory. The victory belongs to God as does all the glory. We all have a tendency to be self-centered and to judge circumstances and other people with an egocentric perspective. We also have a predisposition to interpret God's words and God's activity myopically, always asking, "What does this mean for me and my life?" We like to place ourselves at the center of the universe, and interpret the 'goodness' or 'godliness' of a particular situation based upon how it impacts our lives. It is hard for us to accept that God's goodness may require that which we desire least, that which seems most "evil" to us. Relationships, including our relationship with God, can become transactional, loving the gifts more than the giver. Our good deeds can come from a desire to be rewarded rather than a desire to serve the LORD out of love. Our prayers can become, "Lord give me what I want," rather than, "Thy will be done.... Hallowed be thy Name." Why did God deliver Jericho into Joshua's hands? "... that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth." (Ex 9:16) Our command is to love God with all that we are and to glorify Him on earth, though this might cost us all that we have on this earth. As someone once said, the person who has everything on earth plus Jesus has nothing more than the person who has Jesus – nothing else matters. "I have not hidden your deliverance within my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation. (Psalm 40:10) Joshua had two major decision points before Him – How would he act going into battle, and how would he act coming out of battle? What would he do in crisis, and what would he do in victory? The Commander of the Army of the LORD put the crisis and the victory into right perspective – there was nothing to fear, and there was nothing about which to boast but God. How would you act if God gave you success beyond your wildest imagination? Would God get all the honor and glory?

2. Joshua 5:14, 15 – "And he said, 'No; but I am the commander of the army of the Lord. Now I have come.' And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped and said to him, 'What does my lord say to his servant?' And the commander of the Lord's army said to Joshua, 'Take off your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy.' And Joshua did so." I currently believe this is a "Christophany," an appearance of Jesus in the Old Testament ((distinct from a theophany – other forms of the presence of God on earth). Why? While angels are God's messengers, this is no ordinary angel, but the Commander of the Lord's Army, and what is significant here is that Joshua is not rebuked for worshipping Him. Angels never allow someone to worship them, and angel worship is specifically forbidden in the Bible. (Rev 22:8, 9; Romans 1:25; Matthew 4:8-10) There are arguably other Christophanies in the Old Testament, distinct from visits by angelic messengers. Today, Jesus speaks to us through the Holy Spirit within us, using the word of God as His primary instrument.

3. Joshua 6:3 -- "You shall march around the city...." God's ways are not our ways. He will have you accomplish impossible tasks in impossible ways to reveal Himself to the world rather than your talents. Again, it is never about us. It is always about Him. Our mission on earth is to glorify Him not to glorify ourselves. Check yourself every time you use the personal pronouns of "I" and "me" to ensure you are not drifting into the role of kingship rather than ambassadorship.

4. Proverbs 7:6-7 -- "For at the window of my house I have looked out through my lattice, and I have seen among the simple, I have perceived among the youths." God wants you to learn from the mistakes of others. As the Founding Fathers said, God's truth is "self-evident." It is not hard to see the consequences of rebellion against the Lordship of Jesus if you have eyes to see.

5. Proverbs 7:10 -- "And behold, the woman meets him, dressed as a prostitute, wily of heart." How you dress reveals much about your character. Your clothing is a public display that always makes a statement, whether intentional or not. In everything you do, do it for God's glory, including getting dressed to meet the world as God's messenger.

6. Psalm 40:3-- "He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust in the LORD." A real relationship with God changes your perspective on everything and changes your attitude. A changed life gets everyone's attention and brings glory to God.

7. Psalm 40:6-8 -- "In sacrifice and offering you have not delighted, but you have given me an open ear. Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required. Then I said, "Behold, I have come; in the scroll of the book it is written of me: I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart." God doesn't want your empty sacrifices; He wants your loyalty, love, and obedience. Become a living sacrifice. (Romans 12:1)

8. Psalm 40:9, 10 -- "I have told the glad news of deliverance in the great congregation; behold, I have not restrained my lips, as you know, O LORD. I have not hidden your deliverance within my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation." God expects you to proclaim His salvation to everyone. How many times a day do you proclaim salvation through Jesus Christ to those with whom you come in contact? How many conversion experiences have you witnessed this week?

9. Psalm 40:16 -- "May those who love your salvation say continually, 'Great is the Lord!'" It is an amazing and incredibly powerful thing when God saves a person and the Holy Spirit transforms them. That person is "a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come." (2 Corinthians 5:17). God gives them a new heart -- "And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh (Ezekiel 36:26)." Having received the unmerited gift of grace from God through faith in Jesus Christ, that person is truly humbled, gracious, and joyful to the point of being uncontrollably merry (Psalm 40:16, 17). Bought with the price of the blood of Jesus, that person is no longer a slave to sin but rather a servant of Christ putting off the "works of the flesh" (see Galatians 5:19-21 below) and displaying the "fruit of the Spirit" (see Galatians 5:22-23 below). That person is not just "religious;" that person walks with the Lord in continual, natural worship and obedience, delighting in God's word which is written on their hearts (Psalm 40:6-8; also see 2 Corinthians 3:3 below). The saved simply cannot shut up about their love relationship with Almighty God who they can now call "Abba", "Daddy" -- "I have told the glad news of deliverance in the great congregation; behold, I have not restrained my lips, as you know, O Lord. I have not hidden your deliverance within my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation (Psalm 40:9, 10)." Though this person faces the same life challenges as others, their confidence in their God, their persistent joy, their strength and courage, and God's provision in their life stands out like a beacon in the darkness. The power of God in that person's life will be so remarkably evident and real that "many will see and fear, and put their trust in the Lord (Psalm 40:3)." How is the awesome power of Almighty God revealed in your life?

- Galatians 5:19-21 -- Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

- Galatians 5:22-23 -- But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.

- 2 Corinthians 3:3 -- And you show that you are a letter from Christ delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- 1 Peter 2:9 -- But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

- Matthew 5:14 -- You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.

10. Psalm 40:16-- "May those who love your salvation say continually, 'Great is the LORD!'" How much you proclaim God's salvation reveals how much you really love Him.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 7 April: Today, endeavor not to see things from your own perspective but rather from God's perspective. Don't judge things as "good" or "bad" based upon how they make you feel or from your very limited ability to understand the whole picture. Remember Romans 8:28 – "And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose." If you are faithfully serving in the "army of the Lord [or Marines]" (Joshua 5:14), it is ALL good.

DBRP- WEEK 14, Day 5, Friday, 6 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=josh+3%2C+4%3B+prov+6%3B+Mark+14>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 6 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 3:7 -- "Today I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you." God validates His leaders by working miraculously through their lives.

2. Joshua 3:15, 16 -- "...and as soon as those bearing the ark had come as far as the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the brink of the water (now the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest), the waters coming down from above stood and rose up in a heap very far away." God expects you to step out in faith, then He will respond miraculously to your faith. God will use your fiery-furnace, loin's-den, Red-sea, Jordan-river experiences to reveal Himself to you and to others in a way that leaves no reasonable doubt that it was Him at work. Unbelievers will always try to find 'natural' explanations for God's supernatural acts. Countless theories have been promulgated on how the Israelites crossed the Red Sea, how Manna was produced, how power came from the Ark of the Covenant, how Jesus rose from the dead, etc. The truth of God has always been self-evident. How has it been revealed in your life?

3. Joshua 4:6 -- "When your children ask in time to come, 'What do those stones mean to you?...' " The first thing the Israelites did when they entered the Promised Land was set up a monument to the Lord so that generations would never forget what God had done. How will you memorialize God's blessings in your life for generations to come?

4. Joshua 4:8 -- "And the people of Israel did just as Joshua commanded." God's plan involves God's people diligently and faithfully obeying God's appointed leaders.

5. Proverbs 6:6-11 -- Laziness, idleness, and failure to work reveal a lack of godly wisdom and only lead to poverty.

6. Proverbs 6:13-15 -- People you should stay away from are easy to spot in most cases.

7. Proverbs 6:17-19 -- God judges you by how you treat others.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. Proverbs 6:24-35 – You cannot completely escape adultery’s destruction.
9. Proverbs 6:7, 8 -- "Without having any chief, officer, or ruler, she prepares her bread in summer and gathers her food in harvest." External discipline is no substitute for internal discipline. You must be willing to do what others aren't willing to do in order to fulfill your purpose in life. No one can live your life for you, and no one is responsible for your life but you.
10. Proverbs 6:16 -- "There are six things that the Lord hates, seven that are an abomination to him...." Do you know the seven things that God hates and considers an abomination?
11. Proverbs 6:19 -- "...one who sows discord among brothers." If you cause discord, you are committing an abomination before the Lord.
12. Proverbs 6:23 -- "For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching a light, and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life." God's word is your guide. How deeply are you studying it, and how closely are you following it? Take a moment and re-read Psalm 119 – "... I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you.... In the way of your testimonies I delight as much as in all riches. I will meditate on your precepts and fix my eyes on your ways. I will delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word.... Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law.... Your testimonies are my delight; they are my counselors.... The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.... I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your testimonies are my meditation.... Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path...." (119:11, 14-16, 18, 24, 72, 99, 105)
13. Proverbs 6:30, 31 -- "People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his appetite when he is hungry, but if he is caught, he will pay sevenfold." Contrary to popular belief, there is never an excuse for doing the wrong thing. The application of justice includes room for mercy and grace, but all are held accountable for their actions.
14. Mark 14:5 – “For this ointment could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor.” John adds an important detail to this story: “He said this, not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief, and having charge of the moneybag he used to help himself to what was put into it.” (John 12:6) Self-righteousness is motivated by selfishness.
15. Mark 14:19 – “They began to be sorrowful and to say to him one after another, ‘Is it I?’” Deep down, the disciples knew their hearts were deceitful and weak.
16. Mark 14:27 -- And Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away.” Can you imagine how Jesus must have felt knowing that all of His closest friends would betray Him when he needed them the most? From the Scriptures, Jesus had been prepared for this betrayal (“for it is written”), and Jesus knew His disciples better than they knew themselves; but nonetheless, their unfaithfulness undoubtedly hurt Jesus more than we can imagine. Though one by one they all proclaimed, “Surely not I,” even Peter failed Jesus miserably. Note by the way that before the infamous rooster crows, Peter had already “fallen away” by failing to “keep watch” and by “following at a distance” (Mark 14:37, 54). Christian brothers and sisters, let’s take note: following at a distance is un-commitment that only lacks enough heat and pressure to become total betrayal. The silent or chameleon Christian is the one described by James and the Psalmist as double-minded, “unstable in all his ways,” and by Jesus as “lukewarm,” uncommitted, unsuitable, unprepared to stand the test (Psalm 119:113; James 1:8, 4:8; Revelation 3:16). What is truly amazing is that despite knowing that his disciples would all betray him, Jesus never quit on them or distanced himself from them. Rather, He humbly washed their feet! Concerning Judas, the most infamous betrayer who “having charge of the moneybag he used to help himself to what was put into it,” Jesus never kicked him out of the small, intimate group, never fired him from his role as treasurer, but rather continued to break bread with him as a close friend (John 12:6). Knowing their weakness, Jesus still took Peter, James, and John to Gethsemane. Would you take relationship advice from Jesus? Is this how you would treat your unfaithful friends? I think most Christians would call a person foolish if that person were to model Jesus’ behavior today. We would be quick to take Matthew 10:16 out of context “be wise as serpents and innocent as doves,” and we would justify putting up relational walls by quoting from theological sea lawyers who say, “Forgiveness is a gift, but trust is something you earn.” After all, God doesn’t want us to be doormats, right? By continuing to remain vulnerable to His unfaithful friends, Jesus wasn’t being naïve or foolish, nor was He engineering the fulfillment of the Scriptures, He was modeling true love as is described in 1 Corinthians 13:7, 8 – “It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.” When Jesus told the disciples to forgive their brothers “not seven times, but seventy-seven times (Matthew 18:22),” He understood that this implied a level of sustained vulnerability that would potentially enable continued mistreatment but that would also allow for continued closeness in relationship and the display of Christ-like love which involves selfless sacrifice. Jesus understood that the closest relationship would often hurt the most. There is a famous story about the childhood of Thomas Aquinas which highlights the trusting heart: His classmates, who mocked his trusting spirit, decided to play a joke on him. They all got together in the classroom and stared excitedly out the window. Thomas asks what they are looking at so intently. “Thomas, come quickly,” the students responded, “there are pigs—FLYING!” Thomas rushes to the window, only to be met by the uproarious laughter of his fellow students. As the laughter dies down, Thomas gently but potently exposes their sin by saying simply, “I would rather believe that pigs could fly than that my friends would lie to me.” By remaining loving (and trusting) to the disciples, Jesus exposed to them the truth of themselves that previously they could not see in themselves. His costly display of love to them convicted all but Judas to change their lives forever. How much different would their lives had been if Jesus demanded that they earn his trust and if Jesus kept up protective relational barriers between them and him until they did?

17. Mark 14:33 – Jesus knew Peter would deny Him, yet chose Him to go to Gethsemane.

18. Mark 14:35 -- “And going a little farther, he fell on the ground and prayed....” Someone once reminded, “When you are winning the race, you are running alone.” Remaining faithful to God is often a lonely place – very few will remain. Noah obeyed God with tremendous sacrifice while the entire world around him remained oblivious to God, and Jesus said the situation would be the same at the End. Mark 14 is a powerful chapter that demonstrates the tremendous insensitivity people had for the heart of God and for the climactic events that God was preparing. At the most critical time, ultimately no one was in tune to the heart of Jesus. While Jesus prayed in Gethsemane, most were so indifferent to Jesus that they were unaware He was even in the garden; meanwhile, some like Judas were actually plotting against Jesus; the disciples were willing to join Jesus in the garden, and there was still the inner circle (Peter, James, John) who were ready to begin prayer with Jesus, but only for a short while. The disciples appear unaware of or unmoved by the deep anguish in the heart of Jesus and are disoriented to the tremendous events looming that would test them to their breaking points. Jesus knew that the decisive point of His ministry was at hand, that the legions of hell were marshalling their forces in an attempt to defeat Him. He knew that events soon to follow would be so intense, they would cause the disciples to do the unthinkable, deny the Son of God. In the Garden, Jesus told His disciples that He was deeply distressed, even to the point of death, yet at this pivotal moment in human history, the disciples were not moved enough to stay awake. They missed it! They missed out on the tremendous opportunity to serve their Lord and to minister to Him. They didn't have the eyes (heart) to see things from God's perspective; therefore, they simply slept. In the end, Jesus prayed alone. Do you have the eyes to see what is going on right now? Can you see the world through the eyes of Jesus? How far are you ready to go with Jesus? Are you ready to run alone if necessary?

19. Mark 14:38 – Prayer is the only prevention for temptation.

20. Mark 14:47, 67, 68 "But one of those who stood by drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear.... and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, 'You also were with the Nazarene, Jesus.' But he denied it, saying, 'I neither know nor understand what you mean.'" The life of Peter is a great study of Christian courage. Was Peter a courageous man or not? Certainly, there are many examples of Peter demonstrating courage where others had none. Today, we read that at one point he was willing to take on the guards with a sword, risking his life (John 18:10 says Peter is the one who cut off the ear), but then Peter denies Jesus before a servant girl warming herself at the fire. Peter was known for courageous acts, but God had to show Peter that he lacked a true, Spirit-led heart of courage. Daniel Webster's original definition of courage: "that quality of mind which enables men to encounter danger and difficulties with firmness, or without fear or depression of spirits; valor; boldness; resolution." I think it is safe to say that Peter was a leader, a tough guy, and not afraid of a fight. At times, Peter certainly encountered difficulties with firmness (courage), but often that "courage" was misguided, out of place, short-lived, or simply not there at all. Peter took an ear but when he shouldn't have – Jesus' submission and surrender was more courageous than Peter's sword wielding. Matthew points out that "he sat with the guards to see the end (Matthew 26:58)," and because in that huddle, over the period of some hours, "he invoke[ed] a curse on himself and [swore], 'I do not know the man.'" (Matthew 26:74). So, Why the inconsistency in his courage? I would submit that it was not inconsistent with Peter's character, only inconsistent with God's will – it is this latter inconsistency that results in the poor quality of Peter's courage. Misplaced "courage" can be far more destructive than open cowardice. In fact, outwardly "courageous" acts may actually reveal an inward or moral cowardice, an unwillingness to NOT do the wrong thing for the right reasons due to risk of personal cost (often a cost of reputation). Peter's courage fell short when his heart was not aligned with the heart of God, when "self" overcame surrender to God. Peter would have to die to self to become the Peter that would preach with power and humble himself to take the Gospel to the Centurion and thus to the Gentiles." The issue is not with a willingness to act courageously, the issue is with the motives and the heart behind the display. When God told Joshua and the Israelites to be "strong and courageous" the strength and courage was to come from God, not self, and was to be aligned with God's will for His purposes. God always tied courage to obedience. Why did Peter deny Jesus at the moment of decision? I believe it wasn't that he didn't have the guts to die, I believe he didn't have the heart to die. Jesus remained faithful to Peter through Peter's infidelity and transformed Peter's heart to the point where Peter would later have the heart to be crucified upside down, not considering himself worthy to die as his Savior did.

21. Mark 14:49 -- Priests thought they had control when God really did.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

22. Mark 14:54 – Following at a distance is the same as not really being there. Many Christians like to keep a comfortable distance from where the action is, where God is actually working. This is not really following but rather spectating.

23. Mark 14:71 – “But he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, ‘I do not know this man of whom you speak.’” Our words often reveal our heart’s true condition. A profane mouth reveals a bitter spirit. “From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so.” (James 3:10)

24. Mark 14:72 – Peter wept too late for the moment. But God wasn’t done with Him.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 6 April: Today, commit to not just be an observer to what God is doing around you but rather to be an active and obedient participant in what God is doing. Don't fall asleep when God has asked you to serve Him. Don't act prematurely when God has told you to wait. Don't deny Jesus or remain silent when God has given you the opportunity to proclaim Jesus. Don't follow Jesus at a distance, be about His business, today, at every moment, from this day forward. (see today's readings)

DBRP- WEEK 14, Day 4, Thursday, 5 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=josh+1%2C+2%3B+prov+5%3B+Mark+13>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 5 Apr 18:

1. Joshua 1:5, 6 -- “No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you or forsake you. Be strong and courageous (Joshua 1:5, 6).” Moses, Joshua, and all the heroes of faith had one thing in common: they were all ordinary people with no real power of their own. Their power came from God, the Creator, the Source of all power. No other power can stand before the power of God. Their God is GOD, your God, who lives within you and who has given you the power and authority to make disciples throughout the world. Facing seemingly insurmountable odds, Joshua could be “strong and courageous” because he could rely totally on the power of the Creator who loved (loves) him immeasurably and promised to protect him. You too can step out with strength and courage. Your God IS GOD! When commissioning His disciples, Jesus said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me....” What does “all” mean? He then said, “Behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.” If the One with all authority is with you, who can be against you? Does the way you live your life each day reveal to a watching world the Mightiness of GOD?

2. Joshua 1:6-8 -- "Be strong and courageous, for you shall cause this people to inherit the land that I swore to their fathers to give them. Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law that Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go." God told Joshua what was going to happen: "No one will be able to stand up against you all the days of your life." However, God gave specific instructions for Joshua to follow nonetheless. He commanded Joshua to obey the Book of the Law which was to be on his mind at all times." Why? So that he would be "prosperous and successful." But more importantly, "Have I not commanded you?" Finally, Rahab pointed out that everyone was watching what God was doing with and through His people. What does it mean to you when God commands you? Who is watching you? What are they learning about God from your life?

3. Joshua 1:8 -- "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success." God expects you to fully immerse yourself in God's word. All of our readings today point out the criticality of daily, dedicated Bible study, Scripture memory, and Bible application. It is key to our success, God's primary instrument for providing us strength in times of trouble, the message for our witness to others, and our primary means for understanding reality and truth. All of our readings point out that we cannot understand what is going on around us or what God would have us do apart from constant meditation on God's word. The World, the flesh, and the Devil are great deceivers. We cannot trust in our own understanding or wisdom (Proverbs 3:5-7), nor can we trust anyone else for understanding (Mark 13:12); things are not what they seem, and apart from being "on guard" with the knowledge of God's word, even the "elect" risk being deceived (Mark 13:9, 22) -- "Let the reader understand." (Mark 13:14). Only the wise men who truly knew and understood God's word knew where and when to worship the baby Jesus, and Jesus warns that only through the Bible will we be able to understand "the signs of the times." (Matthew 2; Matthew 16:3; Mark 13:14) Just as we cannot understand apart from God's word, we cannot and must not advise others apart from God's word; note that Jesus always responds to others from God's word; even today he quotes from Isaiah. How much can you quote from Isaiah? Most people my age could not quote any of the book of Isaiah from memory, but without thinking, they could recite the old McDonalds commercial -- "two all-beef patties, special sauce, lettuce, cheese, pickles, onions on a sesame seed bun" (McDonalds commercial from 1975) -- not at all helpful! The word of God is the "sword of the Spirit" God provides you for the battle of life, whether you find yourself on the offensive or defensive. (Ephesians 6:17) You must be a skilled swordsman to be effective. 2 Timothy 2:15 -- "Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth."

4. Joshua 1:9 -- "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go." We are commanded to be "strong and courageous" by God Almighty, not because of who we are or out of self-confidence but rather because of who our God is and from the confidence we have in Him. It takes great courage and strength to walk in faith and obedience in the face of uncertainty and when God's ways contradict human wisdom. The greater we know our God personally, the greater our confidence in Him. Strength and courage are conditions of the heart that come from genuine relationship with the Father. "Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life (Proverbs 4:23)."

- 2 Timothy 2:15 -- Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth.

5. Joshua 2:8-11 -- "I know that the Lord has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you. For we have heard how the Lord dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings.... And as soon as we heard it, our hearts melted, and there was no spirit left in any man because of you, for the Lord your God, he is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath." God's power in your life will be your testimony to the world. Again, Rahab was convicted by the observable power of God in the lives of the people of God. By seeing what God had done for His people, Rahab was ready to say, "the Lord your God, He is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath." What power do people see emanating from the church today? Is the work of God in your life so evident that it causes people around you to want to know God?

6. Proverbs 5:11-12 -- "And at the end of your life you groan, when your flesh and body are consumed, and you say, 'How I hated discipline, and my heart despised reproof!'" You will either endure the daily discomfort of self-discipline or the deep pain of regret. You will reap what you sow. You cannot make up for a lack of investment. However, as the Chinese proverb says, "The best time to plant a tree is twenty years ago; the second best time to plant a tree is today." Today is a great day to start doing what you should have been doing. Don't worry about the past – it's over. Don't worry about tomorrow – it is out of your control. Today, is in your hands – make the most of it, joyfully, thankfully, energetically, courageously, and obediently. This is your best way to correct what has been done and promote a positive tomorrow.

7. Proverbs 5:15 -- "Drink water from your own cistern, flowing water from your own well." Much sin starts with dissatisfaction over the gifts God has given you. Be grateful and content with what God has given you, and do not compare your situation with that of others.

8. Proverbs 5:19 -- "Be intoxicated always in her love." The most important institution established by God on earth is the institution of marriage. Husbands and wives reveal their love for God mostly by how they love each other. The primary testimony and witness of a married Christian is their relationship with their spouse.

9. Proverbs 5:23 -- "He dies for lack of discipline, and because of his great folly he is led astray." True disciples of Christ are known for their discipline, because self-control is a fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5), the natural product of a Spirit-filled person who loves Jesus above all. If you have a self-discipline problem in your life, search your heart, and pray that God will reveal to you what you cannot see in yourself that is quenching or grieving the Holy Spirit.

10. Mark 13:9 – "...and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them." The reality of end times gives greater opportunity for testimony.

11. Mark 13:10 – "And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations." World evangelism precedes end times.

12. Mark 13:13 – End times call for endurance and perseverance.

13. Mark 13:13, 18 – Worry is never in order for end time – faith and prayer always are.

14. Mark 13:14 – "...let the reader understand...." Scripture is the only basis for understanding end time.

15. Mark 13:9-37 – God prepares us for end time. He tells you what you need to know so that you will recognize it when you see it and so that you can have confidence in your circumstances that God remains in control and is working all things together for His great purposes.

16. Mark 13:32 – Not even Jesus knew the dates of end time. If a preacher claims this knowledge, have nothing to do with him.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 5 April: Today recommit to making Bible study and application your top daily priority, before exercise, before entertainment, even before eating. If you are having difficulty finding time for Bible study, make the commitment to eat nothing before you have studied your Bible. Proverbs 16:26 -- "A worker's appetite works for him; his mouth urges him on." (See today's readings)

DBRP- WEEK 14, Day 3, Wednesday, 4 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=deut+33%2C+34%3B+prov+4%3B+Mark+12>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 4 Apr 18:

1. Deuteronomy 33:8-11 -- Obedience to God brings both responsibility and blessings.
2. Deuteronomy 33:24-29 -- God is ready to help you. He has given you a unique position in all the world as one He has saved and called to the mission of reconciliation.
3. Deuteronomy 34:4 -- God is faithful to the ways He has shown to His people whether they be realized as blessings or curses.
4. Deuteronomy 34:9 -- God prepares new leaders for His people. God expects you to obey the leaders He has placed in authority.
5. Proverbs 4:18, 19 -- "But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day. The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know over what they stumble." Faithful Christians grow more Christ-like every day -- the change may be gradual but very apparent. Meanwhile the ungodly remain trapped in their sin. How has God changed you over the years? Some things to consider: How has your forgiving changed? How has your giving changed? How has your attitude and behavior towards your enemies changed? How has your disciple-making changed? How has your self-control changed? How has your peacefulness and thankfulness changed? Are you now a brighter light in the world, a more radiant beacon of God to others around you? Would those around you say that about you?
6. Proverbs 4:20-21, 23 -- "My son, be attentive to my words; incline your ear to my sayings. Let them not escape from your sight; keep them within your heart.... Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life." Key to life is protecting your heart from sin; critical to protecting your heart from sin is remaining in God's word and storing it up in your heart.
7. Mark 12:7-11 -- "'Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' And they took him and killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.... this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?" How could a loving God let bad things happen to good people? Well, there was only ever one good person, Jesus, and God used His persecution to bring about our salvation. We judge 'good' and 'bad' based upon our perceptions of the situation. But from God's perspective, He is working all events for a greater good for those who love Him and who are called according to His purpose, and this should be marvelous in our eyes. The Lord will absolutely allow us to go through suffering, but as a loving Father who is preparing His children for great things. Parents hurt their infant children when they have them inoculated against deadly disease, and there is no way for them to explain the reason to their infant children. Yet, in pain, the infant children always reach out to their parents. We too, in suffering, must trust on our Father and reach out to Him.
8. Mark 12:17 -- "Jesus said to them, 'Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's.'" -- All things are God's and in God's control; He allows government to control some things for a time, but never outside of His ultimate control. Jesus was challenged by others on His obedience and respect to the government. He then challenged others in their obedience and respect to God, the ultimate authority. If we had proper respect for God, governmental authority would not be required. Only through God's mercy and grace do governments even continue to exist, and only by God's ethical standard do they govern well. Yet, we are concerned, in practice, far more about obeying the government than obeying God, because the consequences of disobeying the government are more obvious to us – fines, imprisonment, even death. However, the consequences of disobeying God have an eternal impact. "And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell." (Matthew 10:28) When we disobey the government, we have something to worry about. When we disobey God, we have much, much more to be concerned about.

9. Mark 12:24 -- "Are you not in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God?" The Sadducees had two problems: they did not know the Scriptures (they were missing the point of what they diligently studied), and they did not know the power of God. You cannot understand God's Word if you don't know God's Word which requires continual study. But you also cannot understand God's Word without the context of Jesus and the power and counsel of the Holy Spirit, which is only available to those who are born again, as Jesus explained to Nicodemus in John 3. Jesus said to the Pharisees, "You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, yet you refuse to come to me to have life." The whole Bible is the revelation of Jesus Christ, only revealed through Jesus. The goal of the Bible is our "knowing" of God, our unity with Him (see John 17). Without life in Jesus a person is spiritually dead and cannot understand the things of God. There are some who know the content of the Scriptures inside and out yet do not know the power of God. They study the Scriptures like a text book, a history book, a self-help book, or a philosophy book with the goal of living a better life or understanding more "about" God. They miss the ultimate goal of truly "knowing" God, walking with Him, following Him, becoming one with Him. These 'scholars' miss the blessings of eternal life that come from knowing Jesus – "And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent." (John 17:3) There are also others who feel that they are very 'spiritual' or close to God yet lack desire to study the Scriptures, God's word. But how we feel about God's word is a direct reflection of how we truly feel about God. John 1 says, Jesus is the embodiment of the word of God. The Psalmist describes an intense hunger and thirst for God's word which cannot be quenched – a passion driven by an intense passion for God. Jesus told His disciples to consume God's word with greater import than food for the body. And the Bible tells us that through God's word, we are enabled to follow God. Knowledge of the "message" is, of course, essential to the messenger, or Ambassador. Again, in our readings today, Jesus counters challengers through his mastery of God's word. Proverbs 1 reminds us that God's word is for both the "simple" and the "wise," the young and the old. (Proverbs 1:1-7) Complacency in Bible study is an issue of the heart. One of the natural results of a relationship with God is a natural thirst for His Word. The Bible is not a self-help book designed to equip you to achieve your personal goals in life. The Bible is a guide to drawing closer, day-by-day to Jesus. I pray that we will have a greater and greater passion for God's word and that it will equip us to experience the true power of God in our lives as we draw closer and closer to Jesus Christ.

10. Mark 12:25 -- "Jesus said to them, 'Is this not the reason you are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God?'" You cannot truly understand the Scriptures unless you have received the Holy Spirit.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

11. Mark 12:28-31 -- "Which commandment is the most important of all?" Jesus answered, "The most important is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." One thing I observe is that, whether they admit it or not, everyone picks their teachers in life. Everyone picks people they have chosen to trust (for whatever reasons) to help guide them through life, to help form their personal world view or paradigm about the meaning and purpose of life. Often, people pick teachers who say in sophisticated ways what they want to hear. Observe who people quote or reference in their comments on life issues. Aren't you blessed! Your teacher is God! God has given you the Holy Spirit and His word to reveal the Truth. If you began your month in His word, you have heard from Moses, Solomon, and Jesus as they taught truth as received directly from the Father. You certainly can't do better than that! What did you learn from them today through the counsel of the Holy Spirit? Moses reminded us how truly blessed we are that our Eternal Father, the Creator, the Ruler of All, loves us and is our refuge (Deuteronomy 33:27-29). Because God loves us, He gave us His word as our source of instruction as our King (Deuteronomy 33:3-4). In His love, God will personally teach us through His word, and we are blessed when we obey Him (33:8-11). Solomon explains that if we diligently search God's word with all of our heart and seek to walk in it, we will "then... understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God," true wisdom which can only come from God, not men. Solomon reminds us that, in His love, God has given you His directions for "every good path." Jesus explains that we must know the word of God, but we cannot understand God's word apart from the power of God which comes from a genuine love relationship with Him (Mark 12:24, 29-31). In fact, the key to everything is loving God with all that we are and loving others as an outpouring of our love for God. Our love must be without limits (Deuteronomy 33:9, Mark 12:43, 44). Jesus explains that, in a supreme act of love, God sent His Son, but sadly for some, this loving solution will become a cause for final destruction (Mark 12:6-9). God's judgment is certain. In our love, we must pray for people to find a love relationship with Him before it is too late, and we must be fully committed to the Great Commission.

12. Mark 12:38-40 -- False religion lifts up self and mistreats others for personal gain. Be wary of any "teacher" that seeks personal recognition or honor. Watch out for those who use the personal pronouns "I" or "me" a lot.

13. Mark 12:42, 43 -- Love knows no limits.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 4 April: Work on you discipline today. Disciples of Jesus are willing to do, in fact are impassioned to do, what mere believers in Jesus aren't willing to do. True disciples of Jesus are able to do what others aren't able to do because they are empowered by the Holy Spirit with self-control. Pray that God will reveal to you where you are limiting the power of the Holy Spirit in your life do to self-centeredness. (Mark 12:24)

DBRP- WEEK 14, Day 2, Tuesday, 3 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=deut+31%2C+32%3B+prov+3%3B+Mark+11>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 3 Apr 18:

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

1. Deuteronomy 31:3 – “The LORD your God himself will go over before you. He will destroy these nations before you, so that you shall dispossess them.” When the Lord sends you, He will bring the victory. Caution: His victory might not be your idea of victory.
2. Deuteronomy 31:5 – “...according to the whole commandment that I have commanded you.” God expects obedience in every area of life. How many times now has the Bible repeated this point?
3. Deuteronomy 31:6 – “Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be in dread of them, for it is the LORD your God who goes with you. He will not leave you or forsake you.” Strength and courage come from knowing and trusting God.
4. Deuteronomy 31:9-11 – “Then Moses wrote this law and gave it to the priests... you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.” In Old Testament times, God’s word was given to the priests, and they were charged with teaching it to the people and administering God’s laws. The Bible says that now, all Christians are priests, charged with knowing God’s word, living by God’s word, proclaiming God’s word, and teaching God’s word. We should endeavor to be experts on God’s word and the embodiment of God’s word.
5. Deuteronomy 31:12-13 – “Assemble the people, men, women, and little ones, and the sojourner within your towns, that they may hear and learn to fear the Lord your God, and be careful to do all the words of this law, and that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the Lord your God, as long as you live in the land that you are going over the Jordan to possess.” God wanted everyone to be instructed on God’s word, including visiting strangers, but particularly the small children. God desires that children learn to obey and honor God as soon as possible. God has given parents the responsibility to make sure children know and obey His expectations so they may serve Him and Love Him.
6. Deuteronomy 31:16 – “Then this people will rise and whore after the foreign gods among them in the land that they are entering, and they will forsake me and break my covenant that I have made with them.” God knows your temptation to make things a higher priority and influence in your life than Him, idols that cause you to break God’s commands, to stray away from Him, and to quench His Spirit in your life. Whenever we sin, it is because we have dethroned God in our hearts, at least for a moment – we still want Him as Savior, but we reject Him as Lord, committing cosmic treason. The Bible calls us spiritual whores at that point, worthy of stoning. If only we could see our sins the way God sees them, we would truly be “amazed by grace,” and start living accordingly.
7. Deuteronomy 31:20 – Prosperity can lead to complacency, dissatisfaction with God and departure from Him to substitutes for God -- idols.
8. Deuteronomy 31:23 – Knowing you will often fail Him, God still fulfills His promises.
9. Deuteronomy 31:26 – God’s word witnesses against you when you depart from Him.
10. Deuteronomy 31:21, 29 – Departing from God brings evil, not prosperity.
11. Deuteronomy 32:6 – God does not receive from you the treatment He deserves.
12. Deuteronomy 32:6, 15, 18 – You exist only because God loves you and bestows His unmerited grace upon you.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Deuteronomy 32:27 – God’s work is done so you and those who do not worship Him may recognize Him at work.

14. Deuteronomy 32:30 – God allows the punishment that comes to you.

15. Deuteronomy 32:47 -- “For it is no empty word for you, but your very life, and by this word you shall live long in the land that you are going over the Jordan to possess.” For so many, the Bible is just empty words. But for the Christian, the Bible is the word of life which teaches the fear of the Lord which in turn produces wisdom (Proverbs 2:2-6), but most importantly, greater unity with Him. God uses His word to transform your heart (Proverbs 2:10) and to guide you along the right path in life (Proverbs 2:13-15). God’s word should be more valuable than silver, and its insights should excite you more than would finding a hidden treasure. Do you feel that excitement?

16. Deuteronomy 32:47 -- “They are not just idle words for you—they are your life.” Moses had come to the end of his service as leader of the people of Israel and to the end of his life. He gathered all the people to the edge of the Promised Land to give them his final words of wisdom as they prepared to embark upon their long-awaited historic conquest without him. It is impossible to imagine the emotion he must have felt at this moment. He had spent his whole life preparing to lead or leading his people, building them into a mighty nation. He had watched an entire generation perish in the desert through the process. He had given his all to his people; he had a genuine heart for his people, and there is no way to measure how deeply he cared for his people. So, from all of his experience and with all of his love, what were the final words Moses wanted to leave with his people -- “Be strong and courageous,” and “be careful to do all the words of this law. For it is no empty word for you, but your very life.” Of course this is the same message repeated throughout the Book of Deuteronomy -- “Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates (Deuteronomy 6:4-9).” Jesus reiterated the importance of God’s word by reciting Deuteronomy 8:3 -- “Jesus answered, ‘It is written: ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God (Matthew 4:4).’” Of course, Jesus modelled dedication to the study and practice of God’s word. I believe that our nation, our world, desperately needs to see God’s people return to God’s word. The Defenders Reading Plan, and associated website and Facebook Group, was created for the sole purpose encouraging Christians to do just that. What a blessing that people are reading the Bible together and sharing with each other from across to globe! For those reading along this year, let me congratulate all of you who finished ¼ of this year’s readings. “They are not just idle words for you....”

- Thoughts from Henry T. Blackaby on Deuteronomy 32:47 -- "It's puzzling that so many Christians try to live the Christian life without reading their Bible, except for sporadic perusals of God's Word, seeking a pithy thought for the day. The Word of God is not merely a source of helpful suggestions, preventative warnings, or inspirational thoughts: It is life itself! God gathered the children of Israel at the edge of the Promised Land to review their pilgrimage with Him. They had spent forty years in a desert because their parents had not trusted God's word. Their parents died without seeing the Promised Land because they had not believed God's word. Even the revered Moses was soon to leave them because he had not shown proper reverence for God's word. Many of them knew those who had been put to death as a consequence of their disobedience to God's word. Over the years God's word had become the most important thing in the life of the Israelites. God commanded His people to bind His words on their hearts, to teach them diligently to their children, and to regularly discuss them in their homes (Deuteronomy 6:4–9). So essential was His word that it was to hold a prominent place in the daily lives of His people. Our reverence for God's Word is revealed not only by what we say but also by what we do. Spending more time reading and studying the words of people rather than the Word of God, reveals our hearts' condition. To blatantly disregard God's Word is to reject life itself. To obey God's Word is the surest way to experience all that God has in store for us." (Henry T. Blackaby)

17. Proverbs 3:3, 4 -- "Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart. So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man." Both God and man value love and faithfulness. Love and faithfulness go hand-in-hand. Are you known for your love and faithfulness? Have you remained faithful before God and man?

18. Proverbs 3:5 -- "Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding." Trusting in the Lord will require you to go against your own judgment.

19. Proverbs 3:11, 12 -- "My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the LORD reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights." Accept God's discipline with trustful thanksgiving.

20. Proverbs 3:27 -- "Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it." If you can meet someone's need, meet it -- trust God to meet your future needs. It takes faith to give.

21. Mark 11:1-10 -- Christ revealed His Kingship by obeying Scripture, not by appealing to popular demand.

22. Mark 11:15-17 -- "And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons." There is a time for everything -- a time for peace and a time for war. What determines the right response, what determines the validity of a person's behavior, is God's will. Fear and pride get in the way of righteousness. We like to think of Jesus as always peaceful, but in many places throughout the Bible, He is very confrontational, and this temple scene is the most well-known example of Jesus' righteous anger. Jesus was at the center of God's will. Avoiding conflict is often motivated by self-interest and fear. Jonathan Edwards said that there were two places in which we should never yield to others -- if integrity is at stake, or if truth is at stake. Yet, Christians today often prefer to yield in these areas in order to avoid conflict; there is often a false humility attached to this pacifism, but in truth they are motivated by fear and pride (I'm above this). Jesus was certainly not afraid to challenge the well-established, culturally accepted, corrupt practices of the day, even those that had been tacitly sanctioned by all other religious leaders. How about you?

23. Mark 11:18 -- "And the chief priests and the scribes heard it and were seeking a way to destroy him, for they feared him, because all the crowd was astonished at his teaching." Human religion, motivated by fear, leads us to hostility towards God's plan.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

24. Mark 11:25 -- "And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins." Do you think Jesus meant this literally? How does this relate to The Lord's Prayer, "Forgive us of our sins, as we forgive others who sin against us?"

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 3 April: Before you pray to God, thanking Him for the unmerited grace that you have received and asking for His unmerited blessings in your life, give unmerited grace and blessings to those in your life who have somehow offended you. Forgive everyone unconditionally as you are far less worthy of justice than Jesus who gave up His rights to be justified that you would receive everlasting life. While you were still sinning, Christ died for you. Forgive, forgive, forgive. Don't wait another moment. Forgive, and do it personally, face to face if possible. (Mark 11:25)

DBRP- WEEK 14, Day 1, Monday, 2 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=deut+29%2C+30%3B+prov+2%3B+Mark+10>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 2 Apr 18:

1. Deuteronomy 29:25 – “Then people will say, ‘It is because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers...” God will reveal Himself to the world through your life either in a positive way as you obey Him or in a negative way as you disobey Him. God saves through grace, not because of our deeds; however, God holds us accountable to obedience on earth and will not be mocked. We are called to be Ambassadors of Christ on earth and demonstrate His will and authority to others. He will not tolerate someone misrepresenting Him before the world.

2. Deuteronomy 29:29 -- “The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.” Many people spend much time, energy, and effort worrying about what God’s word doesn’t explicitly tell us rather than focusing on merely obeying God’s unambiguous commands. Much worry over mysteries is often an excuse for failing to simply submit. As the old hymn says, “Trust and obey, for there’s no other way, to be happy in Jesus but to trust and obey. But we never can prove the delights of His love until all on the altar we lay; for the favor He shows, for the joy He bestows are for them who will trust and obey.” Have you ever prayed to God to tell you what to do in a particular situation only to hear no clear response? Have you ever asked God to reveal to you what He was doing in your life only to get no clear response? Have you ever asked, “God, what do you want me to do?” What do you do when He doesn’t provide a specific answer? When you are unsure of what specifically God wants you to do, continue in what God has clearly told you to do through His written word; remain in God’s word and in prayer; seek godly counsel from respected Christians, and make the best decision you can. Perhaps the big decision your struggling over doesn’t really matter so much – God will take you where you need to go in either direction. There is much God doesn’t intend to reveal to us for His purposes, but there is so much, much more that He has already revealed in the Bible by which He intends for us to live. When we are faithful with the little things, He will give us more. Most of the real issues of life aren’t about whether you took job A or job B but rather how faithful you were to God wherever you ended up. Often our quest for answers is the product of a desire to live by sight and not by faith. We want God to tell us exactly what He is doing because, really, we don’t trust Him. We like to be in control, and we don’t like the uncertainty that comes with not really believing God is in complete control. Faith, Hope, and Love -- Faith is believing, trusting, and obeying God now; and hope is trusting God in the Future. Faith and Hope are the product and proof of love. Will you remain faithfully obedient and joyful during God’s silence?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Isn't it true that during exams the teacher remains silent? Can you walk one day at a time responding faithfully to whatever God places in front of you? When there are no apparent answers, will you hold fast to Him? Finally, it is not where God is taking you that matters most, it is the journey along the way. God's purpose for you is not some big accomplishment in the future, it is oneness with Him right now. If your only goal and pursuit is to be one with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, you are accomplishing your life purpose.

-Ecclesiastes 12:13 -- The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.

3. Deuteronomy 30:2 – “Return to the LORD your God, you and your children, and obey his voice in all that I command you today, with all your heart and with all your soul, then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes and have mercy on you, and he will gather you again from all the peoples where the LORD your God has scattered you.” God's call is not just for individuals but for families. God wants to restore families and to bring them back together. God does not desire families to be scattered. Family is the building block of society and the primary schoolhouse for discipleship. Today's society makes it hard for families to stay united, but God has a heart for family, and His plan has always been generational. “And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers.” (Malachi 4:6)

4. Deuteronomy 30:5 – “And the LORD your God will bring you into the land that your fathers possessed, that you may possess it. And he will make you more prosperous and numerous than your fathers.” God's plan is that parents leave inheritance to godly children who build upon it for generations.

5. Deuteronomy 30:11-14 -- “For this commandment that I command you today is not too hard for you, neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will ascend to heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ But the word is very near you. It is in your mouth and in your heart, so that you can do it.” Again, you do not need to search for answers to great mysteries, and you don't need the confirmation of miraculous signs. Simply obey God's word, and great truths will be revealed to you more and more each day. God has given you the power of the Holy Spirit and His word. He is with you. You need nothing else. Simply obey.

6. Deuteronomy 30:11 – “For this commandment which I command you today is not too mysterious for you, nor is it far off.” Comments from Henry T. Blackaby -- The Christian life is not difficult. The same Christ who lived a perfect, obedient, and sinless life stands prepared to live it again through you (Gal. 2:20). God's will is not hard to discern. He has given us the Scriptures, which reveal His will, and He has placed His Holy Spirit within us to guide us to His perfect will in every situation (John 16:13). Our greatest challenge will be to wholly commit our lives to follow God's will obediently as He reveals it. Moses gathered the Israelites around Mount Ebal and Mount Gerizim before they were to enter the Promised Land. There, God described what they had to do in order to obey Him. God gave detailed instructions so there was no mistaking what was expected of them. Then God asked them to make a choice. If they chose to disobey His commands, they would face His wrath. If they chose to obey, they would receive His blessing. God's Word comes to you in the same way. It is not too complex to understand. You don't have to struggle to discern God's will about adultery or forgiveness or honesty. God's word is perfectly clear. The question is, how will you respond? Nowhere in Scripture did God excuse disobedience because His instructions were too vague or complex. Condemnation came because they knew exactly what God wanted them to do, yet they chose not to do it! God, through His Holy Spirit, will always give you sufficient revelation and strength to take the next step with Him. If you are uncertain about what God is asking of you, make sure that you are obeying all that you do know, and through your obedience, God's next instruction will become clear. (Henry T. Blackaby)

7. Proverbs 2 -- "If you accept my words.... Then you will understand.... (Proverbs 2:1, 9)." In Proverbs 2, God establishes the conditions under which we can grow in our fear of the Lord, knowledge of God and true wisdom (Proverbs 2:5, 6) – this is a good chapter upon which to spend time meditating:

- First, Proverbs 2 says we must "accept" God's words and commands; many have a hard time with this because God's word says what we don't want to hear (though in our hearts we know it is true), and we don't want to be commanded to let go of sins which are so pleasurable at the moment. (Hebrews 11:25) Often, we go through all sorts of mental gymnastics and justification matrices in an attempt to make God's word fit our behavior ("Did God really say...?"). Psalm 119:160 reminds us: "All your words are true; all your righteous laws are eternal."

- Next we must "store up" God's commands within us (Proverbs 2:1). We must read God's word, diligently study God's word, and commit to memory God's commands. I am humbled when I consider the countless hours I have spent studying the teachings of men as compared with how much time I have spent studying the Bible. Never before has the Bible been so accessible to us. Study and research materials that were once only available to scholars are now at your fingertips. As Christ's Ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20) and as royal priests (1 Peter 2:9; Revelation 1:6), we have an obligation to be well versed in the Bible so that we can "correctly handle the word of truth (2 Timothy 2:15)," and so that we will be prepared "to give an answer to everyone who asks [us] to give the reason for the hope that [we] have (1 Peter 3:15)."

- Next we must "[apply] our heart to understanding... call out for insight... cry aloud for understanding." Study the word of God humbly from your heart and pray that the Holy Spirit will further reveal truth to you (John 14:26; 1 John 2:27; 1 Corinthians 2:6-16). Study and prayer are inseparable – "If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him (James 1:5)."

- Proverbs goes on to say that, after studying God's word and applying God's word to our hearts, we must then apply God's word to our lives – we must put God's word into action when we step out into the world. We must "walk with God (Genesis 5:22, 6:9; Micah 6:8)" in the word which is a "lamp unto our feet (Psalm 119:105)." Not only does obedience to God's word keep us "under the spout where God's blessings are pouring out," as described in verses 2:7, 8, but it is the practice of God's word that brings true knowledge, understanding, and wisdom (Proverbs 2:9, 10). To use a simple sports analogy, you can read all you want about football, you can watch a million games and memorize a million statistics; but until you have played the game, until you have received your share of scrapes and bruises, victories and defeats, you don't really understand football, and you don't really appreciate football. Proverbs points out that when you put God's word to practice, "wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul (Proverbs 2:10)." When we walk with God, we grow closer to Him, and we learn to love Him more and more.

- When we walk in God's ways, we develop discretion or sagacity (Proverbs 2:11) – the ability to accurately predict consequences without having to experience them. An old adage says, "Good judgment comes from experience, and experience comes from bad judgment.” Well, God’s word can give you good judgment that prevents bad experiences. To reiterate, “Godly wisdom is understanding what you haven’t experienced.” Regardless, when we genuinely, humbly and introspectively seek to obey God’s word, we learn from our successes and from our failures as the practical realities of truth are revealed to us. Wisdom and discretion, developed along our walk with God, will guard us against unneeded pain and suffering – that’s a good thing (Proverbs 2:11).

- Finally, Proverbs 2:20-22 tells us that if we walk in the light of God’s word, we will be walking in good company. God’s word becomes a natural filter to relationships. Not many will be interested in the narrow path, but those that are will encourage and strengthen one another along the way.

-- Matthew 7:14 -- But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

-- 1 Corinthians 15:33 -- Do not be misled: “Bad company corrupts good character.”

-- Proverbs 27:17 -- As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another.

8. Mark 10:2 -- “What did Moses command you?” Jesus starts His teaching with God’s commands.

9. Mark 10:6-9 – “But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’ ‘Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate.” Jesus reconfirms the sanctity of marriage between one man and one woman. God defines marriage, not the government or popular opinion.

10. Mark 10:11, 12 – “And he said to them, ‘Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her, and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.’” If we are ever going to see real revival in the church, we are going to have to have corporate repentance over the church’s rejection of God’s commands concerning sex outside of marriage and divorce.

11. Mark 10:15 – “Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it.” Children accept their total dependence on their parents and don’t doubt the provision from their parents.

12. Mark 10:21, 22 – “‘You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.’ Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.” Following Jesus requires total commitment and total dependence. Possessions will never provide the joy and security found in Jesus. We were made for God. Without God, life is pointless.

13. Mark 10:26, 27 -- “Who then can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but not with God; all things are possible with God.” Deuteronomy 29:19 -- “When such a person hears the words of this oath, he invokes a blessing on himself and therefore thinks, ‘I will be safe, even though I persist in going my own way.’ This will bring disaster on the watered land as well as the dry.” It is impossible for man to earn salvation through obedience to the law. We are saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, and the faith we do have also comes from God, not from ourselves. However, God calls us to obedience as an act of love and worship; to glorify God before a watching world, and so that our joy in the Lord might be complete. Disobedience does not threaten our salvation but does have destructive consequences. It hurts us and others, hinders our fellowship with the Lord, and robs us of our joy and peace.

14. Mark 10:43-45 – “But it shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.” Do you really believe this? Surrendering all to Jesus, total commitment to Jesus means surrendering all to those around you, becoming a slave before people, rejecting all claims to position and rights. Are you willing to truly live this way in the name of Jesus? Are you willing to empty yourself?

15. Mark 10:51 – “And Jesus said to him, ‘What do you want me to do for you?’” Jesus knows what you need and want but expects you to ask in faith.

16. Mark 10:52 – “And Jesus said to him, ‘Go your way; your faith has made you well.’ And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him on the way.” Genuine faith leads to both healing and following. Jesus gave the man the option to go where he wanted, and the man chose to follow Jesus. Though you are saved by grace, you still have to make a choice about how you will respond to your salvation. Will you go your own way or follow Jesus on “the” way?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 2 April: Today, resolve not to worry about the past or the future. Love, trust, and obey God today, and trust God with the future. Live today wholeheartedly for the Lord. Walk in unity with Jesus today, and seek to draw others closer to Him. If you have truly committed all that you think, say, and do to the Lord, you have nothing to worry about; even your mistakes will be used by God for your good (Romans 8:28). Your purpose in life is to be one with God and to help others be one with God too. Accomplish your life purpose today with excitement and joy.

Extra credit: Practice being a true servant or slave to everyone around you today. Put everyone else ahead of yourself today. Do not claim the benefits of title or position; do not seek your own recognition and accept no praise for yourself. Consider none of your possessions your own. Do not seek to defend your “rightness” before others, do not seek to defend yourself or your honor. See what happens. (Mark 10:43-45)

DBRP- WEEK 13, Day 7, Sunday, 1 Apr 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=deut+27%2C+28%3B+prov+1%3B+psalm+38%2C+39>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 1 Apr 18:

1. Deuteronomy 27:1 -- “Keep the whole commandment that I command you today.” Partial obedience is disobedience. Jesus, who quoted Deuteronomy more than any other book of the Bible, commanded us in Matt 28 to teach others to obey “all” that He commanded. We Christians need to do some deeper thinking about obedience, a word that carries much baggage for us. For some, the word obedience is a killjoy; it conjures up notions of legalism, judgmentalism, guilt, shame, and confinement. Many view obedience as antonymous to grace, but this misunderstanding is based on a false assumption that the purpose of obedience is to earn God’s love (which is impossible by definition) rather than to display God’s love, to live out God’s love, and to unite with God in love. The foundation of “all” of God’s commands is love. The first and greatest commandment is love, and the others are practices of love. Love is required to obey, and obedience is required to love – “Love [comes] from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (1 Timothy 1:5) If we seek to obey the practices of love from anything other than a heart of love (motivated by selfish desire rather than selflessness), we remain disobedient, failing to obey the commandment of love. Jesus called this hypocritical (the word hypocrite means actor), pretending to be loving. Nonetheless, our practices of love, though often poorly motivated, can produce positive external effects on others and can (with the counsel of the Holy Spirit) produce positive internal results, conditioning our hearts to a more genuine love. So, in practice, we often obey out of a sense of duty (“I don’t really want to, but I know I am supposed to.”) while seeking to obey out of genuine love. Certainly, if we waited for a perfect heart to obey, we wouldn’t obey much at all; and that is where God wants us to walk in His grace, not a grace-based living that takes comfort in hopeless disobedience or in dutiful works of obedience, but a grace-based living that celebrates the righteousness we have in Christ, which enables us to freely and fearlessly pursue lives of righteousness and genuine love. Ephesian 4:23 and Romans 12:2 reminds us that our behavior starts with our thoughts. What we choose to focus our attention on will guide our thoughts. The key to sanctification is not focusing more on ourselves (identifying our weaknesses and seeking greater will-power) but rather focusing more on Jesus. The more we appreciate the love of Christ, the more naturally love will flow from us Him and to others (Him and others always goes hand-in-hand). Fix your eyes on Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith. (Hebrews 12:2)

2. Deuteronomy 27:6 -- "You shall build an altar to the LORD your God of uncut stones." The altar focused all attention on the works of God rather than the works of man. There was no human pride attached to the sacrifice or to worship.

3. Deuteronomy 27:9-10 -- “Keep silence and hear,... you have become the people of the LORD your God. You shall therefore obey the voice of the LORD your God, keeping his commandments and his statutes, which I command you today.” Talk less; obey more. “Many a man proclaims his own steadfast love, but a faithful man who can find?” (Proverbs 20:6)

4. Deuteronomy 27:12-13 -- “When you have crossed over the Jordan, these shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. And these shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.” The mountains and the tribes selected for the proclamation of blessings or curses are intentional. Concerning the mountains, some have suggested that when the people faced Mount Gerizim, which was very green, they faced Jerusalem, but when they faced Mount Ebal, which was without vegetation or bald, they turned their backs on Jerusalem – a physical contrast representing the consequences of good and evil. Concerning the selected tribes, there have been many suggestions. Those on Gerizim, the mount of blessing, are children of Jacob’s lawful wives, Leah and Rachel (Gen 35:23-26). Reuben and Zebulun (children of Leah) are the exceptions— Reuben was cursed because he had sexual relations with Bilhah, his father’s concubine (Gen 35:22; 1 Chron 5:1). It is still unclear to me as to why Zebulun makes the list of cursers.

5. Deuteronomy 27:15-27 -- Life and obedience to God is all about relationships.

6. Deuteronomy 28 is one of the most gruesome chapters in the entire Bible, describing in horrific detail the physical manifestation of God’s wrath inflicted on a nation that rejected Him as God. One cannot help but see the ominous warning for our country today. However, if from these warnings we start searching for political solutions for our nation’s ailments, we have seriously missed the point. Individual repentance and collective revival are the only hope for our nation. Our mission is the Great Commission – making disciples, baptizing them, and teaching them to obey. If the church fails at its mission, no politician or policy, no financial system or military can save us. Note, repentance and revival happen among God's people. The problem is not that sinners are sinning; the problem is the light of the church has dimmed in its infidelity.

7. Deuteronomy 28:9, 10 -- "The LORD will establish you as a people holy to himself... if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in his ways. And all the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of you." God's people obey Him and are recognized by unbelievers because of their obedience.

8. Deuteronomy 28:15-68 -- God will be glorified by your life in a positive way, through your obedience, or in a negative way, through your disobedience. Either way, the truth of His holiness and righteousness will be revealed to the world. Choose obedience and its subsequent blessings.

- "If you are not careful to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awesome name, the Lord your God, then the Lord will bring on you and your offspring extraordinary afflictions, afflictions severe and lasting, and sicknesses grievous and lasting."
(Deuteronomy 28:58, 59)

9. Proverbs 1:5 -- "Let the wise hear and increase in learning." Developing wisdom is a life-long endeavor involving daily study of God's word. Those who truly want wisdom are willing to do what the unwise (or fools) aren't willing to do.

- Thoughts from A. W. Tozer on Proverbs 1:5 -- "When a very young minister, I asked the famous holiness preacher, Joseph H. Smith, whether he would recommend that I read widely in the secular field. He replied, 'Young man, a bee can find nectar in the weed as well as in the flower.' I took his advice (or, to be frank, I sought confirmation of my own instincts rather than advice) and I am not sorry that I did. John Wesley told the young ministers of the Wesleyan Societies to read or get out of the ministry, and he himself read science and history with a book propped against his saddle pommel as he rode from one engagement to another. Andy Dolbow, the American Indian preacher of considerable note, was a man of little education, but I once heard him exhort his hearers to improve their minds for the honor of God. 'When you are chopping wood,' he explained, 'and you have a dull axe you must work all the harder to cut the log. A sharp axe makes easy work. So sharpen your axe all you can.'" (Tozer, The Size of the Soul, 33.)

10. Proverbs 1:8 -- "Hear, my son, your father's instruction, and forsake not your mother's teaching." God intended for children to be raised by a father and a mother. This is not always possible, but we must make every effort to promote and protect the sanctity of marriage and the holiness of the home, which is the schoolhouse for character development -- "Did he not make them one, with a portion of the Spirit in their union? And what was the one God seeking? Godly offspring. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and let none of you be faithless to the wife of your youth." (Malachi 2:15)

11. Proverbs 1:28, 29 -- "Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me. Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD." There is a point of no return where change is no longer possible. Only God knows the point of no return, but we should heed God's warning and not presume upon God's patience.

12. Psalm 38:3 -- "There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; there is no health in my bones because of my sin." Sin affects your health.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Psalm 38:11 -- "My friends and companions stand aloof from my plague, and my nearest kin stand far off." Sin affects your relationships.

14. Psalm 38:13, 14 -- "But I am like a deaf man; I do not hear, like a mute man who does not open his mouth. I have become like a man who does not hear, and in whose mouth are no rebukes." Sin hinders your ability to hear God and to pray effectively.

15. Psalm 39:1-3 -- "I said, 'I will guard my ways, that I may not sin with my tongue; I will guard my mouth with a muzzle, so long as the wicked are in my presence.' I was mute and silent; I held my peace to no avail, and my distress grew worse. My heart became hot within me. As I mused, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:" It is extremely hard to control your emotions and hold your tongue. You will not be able (or willing) to do it from a worldly perspective.

16. Psalm 39:4 -- "O LORD, make me know my end and what is the measure of my days; let me know how fleeting I am!" Life is too short to be bitter.

17. Psalm 39:8 -- "Deliver me from all my transgressions. Do not make me the scorn of the fool!" Understanding your own sinfulness and dependency on grace will help you control your temper and impatience with others.

18. Psalm 39:9 -- "I am mute; I do not open my mouth, for it is you who have done it." Understanding that God knows what is happening and remains in complete control will help you control your emotions.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 1 April: "O LORD, make me know my end and what is the measure of my days; let me know how fleeting I am!" (Psalm 39:4) Today, prayerfully take an account of your life. Psalm 90 says, The years of our life.... are soon gone, and we fly away.... So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom." (Psalm 90:10-12) So, start by counting your days, estimating the number of days you have left on earth, assuming the best case. Write down how you will serve and glorify God in your remaining days. Don't worry about what you haven't done to date, focus on what you are going to do. Based on the average life expectancy of a male in America, I have about 10,220 days remaining (assuming no untimely death). There is not time to waste doing things God never asked me to do.

DBRP- WEEK 13, Day 6, Saturday, 31 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=deut+25%2C+26%3B+prov+31%3B+psalm+37>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 31 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 25:3 – "Forty stripes may be given him, but not more, lest, if one should go on to beat him with more stripes than these, your brother be degraded in your sight." Luther said the Law serves us today as a curb, a mirror, and a guide – "First, the Law helps to control violent outbursts of sin and keeps order in the world (a curb). Second, the Law accuses us and shows us our sin [and total reliance on God's grace] (a mirror). Third, the Law teaches us Christians what we should and should not do to live a God-pleasing life (a guide). The power to live according to the Law comes from the Gospel." In Deuteronomy 25:3, the law of forty stripes is intended to provide restraint and to prevent inappropriate overreaction fueled by unbridled emotion. The law also seeks to preserve the dignity of people, even guilty people. And the law maintains mercy in justice, reflecting the character of God. This law specifically applies to the punishment of whipping, but the principle of restraint and compassion applies universally. The letter of the law was no more than forty lashes, but the intent was to prevent cruelty, to preserve human dignity, and to preserve merciful justice. However, hard-hearted people, who had lost sight of the intent of the law, learned how to stick to the letter of the law while still being cruel and merciless by making more destructive whips. The flagellum, used to scourge Jesus, was a whip with several (at least three) thongs or strands, each perhaps as much as three feet long, and the strands were weighted with lead balls or pieces of bone. Many did not survive scourging with this instrument. The letter of the law is not enough – it cannot do the work of the Holy Spirit to change the heart. We need the power of the Holy Spirit which uses the law, God's word, to convict our hearts and to coach us along the way to develop an increasingly Christ-like heart, increasingly united with Him in genuine love and purpose. Apart from the Holy Spirit, the heart is wicked beyond imagination and will always find a way to do evil despite the law. The heart of a man's problem is the problem with his heart.

2. Deuteronomy 25:11, 12 – Throughout the Old Testament, there are very strict laws to protect the production and reproduction capacities of both people and animals. God protects livelihood and future growth.

3. Deuteronomy 25:16 – "...all who act dishonestly, are an abomination to the Lord your God." Dishonesty is an abomination to the Lord. Do we take dishonesty that seriously?

4. Deuteronomy 26:2-9 – God wants us to put worship first, worship which professes God publicly and often recounts the history of salvation.

5. Deuteronomy 26:13 – "I have removed the sacred portion out of my house, and moreover, I have given it to the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all your commandment that you have commanded me. I have not transgressed any of your commandments, nor have I forgotten them." The tithe honors God by giving Him the first and best, and it is given to Him by giving it to others in need. Remember, we show our love for God primarily through obedience to His commands, and His greatest commandment is love – we love God by loving others. If you don't love the brother you can see, you cannot love the God who you can't see (1 John 4:20)

6. Deuteronomy 26:17 – To profess God as your God is to commit yourself to obey Him as your Lord (and Savior). The demons believe in Jesus, but they don't follow Him – they know He exists and who He is, but they don't love Him. Do you have a saving faith that desires to love, trust, and obey? Do you have a faith that desires to truly "know" Jesus (to become one with Him) as your life ambition?

7. Proverbs 31:1 -- "An oracle that his mother taught him..." A wise mother desperately wants her son to find a wise, godly wife. A wise mother carefully instructs her children on God's plan for marriage.

8. Proverbs 31:6-7 – "Give strong drink to the one who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress; let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more." Various forms of escapism are for the weak and not appropriate for a Christian who faces the responsibilities and opportunities God has set before them with courage and strength. Some turn to drink, others turn to food, still others turn to entertainment, and there are many other ways people seek to avoid responsibility. Christians seek wholehearted devotion, practicing the disciplines of discipleship.

9. Psalm 37:1 -- "Fret not yourself because of evildoers; be not envious of wrongdoers (Psalm 37:1)!" Psalms 37 is an acrostic Psalm with verses for each letter of the Hebrew alphabet, and it is written as the verses of music. This indicates to me that God inspired the Psalmist to write this Psalm in such a way that it could easily be remembered and recited by God's people. Why? Because God knew His people would face many trials and times when it would seem like evil was prevailing. Today, God's people need to sing the song of Psalm 37. Do not fret and do not be influenced by evil doers who seem to be winning the culture war. Trust in God and become more faithful to Him than ever (Psalm 37:3). Delight in the Lord; make your heart's desire Him, and He will give to you Himself – you will have joy regardless the chaos around you (Psalm 37:4). As you draw closer to God while the world moves farther away from Him, you will be a shining light in the darkness (Psalm 37:6). Don't get upset, fret, or get angry because that will only cause you to act foolishly and wrong. Rather, have faith in God and wait patiently on Him – He is in control (Psalm 37:8). What power do the wicked have over God? None! (Psalm 37:12-15). Remaining faithful during these times might cost us some worldly comforts, but our comfort is in the Lord (Psalm 37:16). If we remain faithful in the midst of the unfaithful, the Lord will sustain us and our families through the inevitable trials (Psalm 37:24, 25). Again, when the world turns towards evil, we need to intentionally turn away from it and draw closer to the Lord – we need to do good. (Psalm 37:27) We must walk more and more by the word of God which we have on our hearts, and we must communicate to the world only what God's word says (Psalm 37:30, 31). God knows that you will be hated for standing for the truth and that the wicked will use the law to persecute you. However, God will not abandon you, and we must remember that our justice is in the hands of the Lord, not men (Psalm 37:32, 33; see also Proverbs 29:26, 27). In conclusion, the Psalmist reminds us again – "Wait for the Lord and keep his way (Psalm 37:34). Don't fret! Walk with God in delight, joy, and confidence as described in Psalm 23. Be a beacon of light to the world around you. Light always overpowers darkness.

10. Psalm 37:3, 4 – "Trust in the LORD, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness. Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart." If you truly trust in the Lord you will obey Him; contentment and fulfillment come when all you want out of life is Him.

11. Psalm 37:7 – "Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way." A lack of faith often causes us to do too much, to act prematurely, to over-react, or to do things God never intended.

12. Psalm 37:8 – "Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath! Fret not yourself; it tends only to evil." Don't chase the poisonous snakes that bite you; just let it go, and let God handle it. Whatever was taken from you, God can replace ten-fold. Again, "Fret not yourself; it tends only to evil." Focusing on what the evil are doing will only tempt us to sin. Focus rather on what God has called us to do, one day at a time with what God has given you. Trust and delight in the Lord today and serve Him wholeheartedly. Don't get upset. "Turn away from evil and do good.... Wait for the Lord and keep his way." Remember, "The salvation of the righteous is from the Lord; he is [our] stronghold in the time of trouble;" our hope is not in governments, institutions, or economies.

14. Psalm 37:21 – "The righteous is generous and gives." Your righteousness is revealed, in part, by your generosity. It takes faith to give, particularly when you have little for yourself. If you are not generous, you have a faith problem, a problem with loving God and trusting that He will truly provide for your needs.

15. Psalm 37:23, 24 -- "The steps of a man are established by the LORD, when he delights in his way; though he fall, he shall not be cast headlong, for the LORD upholds his hand." Let God be your guide by obeying Him unconditionally.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

16. Psalm 37:25, 26 – “I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread. He is ever lending generously, and his children become a blessing.” Once again, giving is an act of faith, believing that God will provide for your future so you don’t have to hoard today. Mother Theresa said that she never saw anyone go into poverty from giving too much. Trust God and give. See what happens.

17. Psalm 37:34 – “Wait for the LORD and keep his way,” – The command to “wait” is repeated several times today. This is patient, faithful obedience that perseveres in times of hardship. In times of crises, the world says, “Don’t just stand there; do something!” God says, “Don’t just do something, stand there and wait for the Lord to lead and then follow Him one step at a time.” In Ecclesiastes, Solomon says, “See, this alone I found, that God made man upright, but they have sought out many schemes.” (Eccl 7:29) We Christians are far too busy doing things, often in the Name of the Lord, that God never intended us to do. So many other Bible verses speak to this point. Don’t be consumed by the worries of the world. “I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread.” (Psalm 37:25)

18. Psalm 37:39, 40 – “The salvation of the righteous is from the Lord; he is their stronghold in the time of trouble. The Lord helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him.” Perhaps these verses should be committed to memory so that we can recite them to ourselves and others over and over again every day in order to help us fight the constant temptation to seek refuge in ourselves, in others, or in things.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 31 April: Today, let God’s word be your curb, mirror and guide. Show your love for God today by being obedient beyond the mere letter of the law, with a heart of genuine, sacrificial love. Love God by loving others. Remember, the law establishes rules of fairness (an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth), but Christians, having received unmerited grace, live above and beyond rules of fairness – we no longer demand fairness for ourselves. We wash the feet of those you would betray us to death (see John 13 and 14). Just as God’s love for us does not depend on our faithfulness, so our love for others is unconditional – it is not a fair exchange but rather a sacrificial gift. Trust God by making yourself vulnerable in giving and in grace. Watch God work in your loving obedience.

DBRP- WEEK 13, Day 5, Friday, 30 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=deut+23%2C+24%3B+prov+30%3B+mark+9>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 30 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 23:2 -- “No one born of a forbidden union may enter the assembly of the LORD. Even to the tenth generation, none of his descendants may enter the assembly of the LORD.” A few points for consideration from this verse:

- The Old Testament Commands give us specific requirements/restrictions from God as well as enduring principles from God that reflect His character. Some of the commands are “Old Covenant,” meaning that, if one is in the New Covenant of Christ, they are fulfilled in Christ (not abolished but fulfilled). By the Law, a person born of an unholy union is not allowed to enter the assembly of the Lord, nor are his descendants. This restriction may have applied to both the assembly of worship and to marriage. However, the New Testament tells us, “If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation.” (2 Corinthians 5:17)

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Jesus did not abolish the Law for us, He fulfilled it. (Matthew 5:17) Through Jesus, we can now enter the most holy places. (Hebrews 10:19) However, God's commands also give us enduring principles that reflect God's holiness and remain relevant to the church today:

- Principle: Respect for God's holiness take precedence over respect for the desires of people. For example, throughout the Bible, God places restrictions on who can serve in certain positions of leadership, and He also establishes restrictions and requirements on how they should serve. God also establishes His standards for worship. Exclusion from position or from certain ways of doing things does not imply a lack of love from God or individual worth in God's eyes. Many people take exception to these principled restrictions and reject them, often calling them obsolete or case specific. Those who reject God's enduring standards create complex arguments explaining why those canons don't apply to them, but a close examination of motive will reveal that, ultimately, they want to do what they want to do and want to approach God on their own terms – deny self is not part of the calculus. Ultimately, God will not honor a misrepresentation of His character. If you don't meet the biblical standard for becoming a deacon, for example, don't let that hinder your relationship with God, your relationship with others, or your willingness to serve God in other capacities within the church body. Serve with humble thankfulness within your capacity. Churches today debate on which commands in the Bible are enduring ethical laws, civil laws (obsolete or still relevant), or obsolete ceremonial laws. However, the Bible is very clear, if we have to deny ourselves certain freedoms in order to keep others from stumbling, we should.

- As we continue to study the Laws of the Old Testament, it might be valuable to consider the thoughts of the late R.C. Sproul concerning which laws apply:

-- "To this day, the question of the role of the law of God in the Christian life provokes much debate and discussion....

-- The law, in its first use, reveals the character of God, and that's valuable to any believer at any time. But as the law reveals the character of God, it provides a mirror to reflect to us our unholiness against the ultimate standard of righteousness. In that regard, the law serves as a schoolmaster to drive us to Christ.... The law remain[s] valuable to the Christian... because the law constantly drives us to the gospel....

-- Second, the law functions as a restraint against sin.... Paul says in Romans 7 that in a sense the law prompts people to sin—the more of the law unregenerate people see, the more inclined they are to want to break it. Yet despite that tendency of the law, there still is a general salutary benefit for the world to have the restraints upon us that the law gives. Its warnings and threats restrain people from being as bad as they could be, and so civil order is preserved.

-- Third, and most important, is that the law reveals to us what is pleasing to God. Technically speaking, Christians are not under the old covenant and its stipulations. Yet, at the same time, we are called to imitate Christ and to live as people who seek to please the living God (Eph. 5:10; Col. 1:9–12). So, although in one sense I'm not covenantally obligated to the law or under the curse of the law, I put that out the front door and I go around the back door and I say, "Oh Lord, I want to live a life that is pleasing to You, and like the Old Testament psalmist, I can say, 'Oh how I love Thy law.'" I can meditate on the law day and night because it reveals to me what is pleasing to God.

-- Let me give you a personal example. Several years ago, I was speaking in Rye, N.Y., at a conference on the holiness of God. After one of the sessions, the sponsors of the conference invited me to someone's house afterward for prayer and refreshments. When I arrived at the house, there were about twenty-five people in the parlor praying to their dead relatives. To say I was shocked would be an understatement. I said, "Wait a minute. What is this? We're not allowed to do this. Don't you know that God prohibits this, and that it's an abomination in His sight and it pollutes the whole land and provokes His judgment?" And what was their immediate response? "That's the Old Testament." I said, "Yes, but what has changed to make a practice that God regarded as a capital offense during one economy of redemptive history now something He delights in?" And they didn't have a whole lot to say because from the New Testament it is evident that God is as against idolatry now as He was then.

-- Of course, as we read Scripture, we see that there are some parts of the law that no longer apply to new covenant believers, at least not in the same way that they did to old covenant believers. We make a distinction between moral laws, civil laws, and ceremonial laws such as the dietary laws and physical circumcision. That's helpful because there's a certain sense in which practicing some of the laws from the Old Testament as Christians would actually be blasphemy. Paul stresses in Galatians, for example, that if we were to require circumcision, we would be sinning. Now, the distinction between moral, civil, and ceremonial laws is helpful, but for the old covenant Jew, it was somewhat artificial. That's because it was a matter of the utmost moral consequences whether they kept the ceremonial laws. It was a moral issue for Daniel and his friends not to eat as the Babylonians did (Dan. 1). But the distinction between the moral, civil, and ceremonial laws means that there's a bedrock body of righteous laws that God gives to His covenant people that have abiding significance and relevance before and after the coming of Christ.

-- During the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, theologians said that God legislates to Israel and to the new covenant church on two distinct bases: on the basis of divine natural law and on the basis of divine purpose. In this case, the theologians did not mean the lex naturalis, the law that is revealed in nature and in the conscience. By "natural law," they meant those laws that are rooted and grounded in God's own character. For God to abrogate these laws would be to do violence to His own person. For example, if God in the old covenant said, "You shall have no other gods before Me," but now He says, "It's OK for you to have other gods and to be involved in idolatry," God would be doing violence to His own holy character. Statutes legislated on the basis of this natural law will be enforced at all times.

-- On the other hand, there is legislation made on the basis of the divine purpose in redemption, such as the dietary laws, that when their purpose is fulfilled, God can abrogate without doing violence to His own character. I think that's a helpful distinction. It doesn't answer every question, but it helps us discern which laws continue so that we can know what is pleasing to God.

2. Deuteronomy 23:5, 6 – "But the Lord your God would not listen to Balaam; instead the Lord your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the Lord your God loved you. You shall not seek their peace or their prosperity all your days forever." People may try to curse you, but God can turn curses into blessings. You don't depend on the favor of people, you depend in the favor of God – never forget that.

3. Deuteronomy 23:6 -- "You shall not seek their peace or their prosperity all your days forever." God does not seek peace with everyone.
4. Deuteronomy 23:7 -- "You shall not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother. You shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you were a sojourner in his land." God expects His people to be leaders in reconciliation, to be kind and conciliatory in difficult relationships. The Israelites were continually treated harshly by both the Egyptians and the Edomites, but God called His people to seek reconciliation.
5. Deuteronomy 23:9 -- "When you are encamped against your enemies, then you shall keep yourself from every evil thing." Your holiness impacts your outcomes.
6. Deuteronomy 23:12-14 -- "You shall have a place outside the camp, and you shall go out to it. And you shall have a trowel with your tools, and when you sit down outside, you shall dig a hole with it and turn back and cover up your excrement. Because the Lord your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you and to give up your enemies before you, therefore your camp must be holy, so that he may not see anything indecent among you and turn away from you." Many are quick to point out that the adage, "Cleanliness is next to godliness," is not found in the Bible; however, the principles of cleanliness and order have practical value and also show deference to the holiness of God. God desires His people to be clean and organized, demonstrating godly order and holiness in all that we do. You can learn a lot about someone's character by looking at how they live, how they keep their things, and how they take care of themselves. God is a God of order.
7. Deuteronomy 23:19 -- "You shall not charge interest on loans to your brother, interest on money, interest on food, interest on anything that is lent for interest. You may charge a foreigner interest." Christians don't lend money to other Christians with interest, period. Christians are called to give openly to other Christians, taking care of their every need. You might be withdrawing inside as you read this because it defies common sense. Check your heart and your faith in God's provision.
8. Deuteronomy 23:24 -- "If you go into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes, as many as you wish, but you shall not put any in your bag." God expects Christians to show generosity to others and also to not take advantage of another's hospitality. Today, many people have so much stuff, not only can they not easily fit it all in their garages and basements, they are renting storage sheds to hold the rest. This is not godly behavior.
9. Deuteronomy 24:5 -- "When a man is newly married, he shall not go out with the army or be liable for any other public duty. He shall be free at home one year to be happy with his wife whom he has taken." God is greatly concerned about the welfare of families and sees marriage as a national security issue.
10. Deuteronomy 24:6 -- "No one shall take a mill or an upper millstone in pledge, for that would be taking a life in pledge." God forbids taking away another person's livelihood.
11. Deuteronomy 24:10, 11 -- "When you make your neighbor a loan of any sort, you shall not go into his house to collect his pledge. You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you make the loan shall bring the pledge out to you." God expects you to respect the dignity of others and honor their personal sanctuary.

12. Proverbs 30:1-3 – “The man declares, I am weary, O God; I am weary, O God, and worn out. Surely I am too stupid to be a man. I have not the understanding of a man. I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.” Life outside of a genuine relationship with God and a life lived outside of His guidance will wear you out. Like so many before and after him, Agur discovers this late in his days. Now he is starting to gain wisdom. The more you know, the more you know what you don’t know. Socrates said, “The only true wisdom is in knowing you know nothing.” Proverbs says, the Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, understanding our total reliance on Him.

13. Proverbs 30:4 – “Who has ascended to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son’s name? Surely you know!” Too many people reject the word of God and the leading of the Holy Spirit, preferring instead to seek wisdom from their own understanding, rejecting the guidance of the One who created all things and who is the actual source of all wisdom – how incredibly foolish! Trust in the Lord and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways, follow His leadership as Lord, and He will make your paths straight.

14. Proverbs 30:6 – “Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you and you be found a liar.” Many cults and false leaders add to God’s word.

15. Proverbs 30:7-9 – “Two things I ask of you; deny them not to me before I die: Remove far from me falsehood and lying; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me, lest I be full and deny you and say, ‘Who is the Lord?’ or lest I be poor and steal and profane the name of my God.” Agur understood the limits of his own integrity and character. So, he prayed to God for strength of integrity. Wisely, Agur understood that the most important thing in life was the quality of his character before the Lord. Reputation is what others say about you, but character is what God knows to be true about you. With what sins are struggling? Are these issues at the center of your prayer life? The things that hinder your relationship with God (sin) should be your greatest prayer concern. Remember, self-control, the power to do what you ought, is a fruit of the Spirit, not of the intellect. For the most part, people know what they should do; they just fail to do it because the sinful desires within them (the flesh) has not been surrendered to the Holy Spirit. Pray for God to reveal the truth of you and to strengthen your faith, hope, and love that you would be “one” with God in thought, word, and deed. This was Jesus’ prayer for you before His crucifixion. (see John 17)

16. Proverbs 30:10 – “Do not slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.” Be very careful what you think and say about a fellow Christian. You don’t know what God is doing with them and within them. We are quick to see the faults of others, but we cannot know from where they have come and to where they are going. In God’s economy, He may view them as worthier to be praised than you. For example, the one who grew up in a good environment might act better than the one who grew up in a bad environment, but the latter might still have a more receptive heart for the Lord than the former.

17. Proverbs 30:11-14 – “There are those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers. There are those who are clean in their own eyes but are not washed of their filth. There are those—how lofty are their eyes, how high their eyelids lift! There are those whose teeth are swords, whose fangs are knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, the needy from among mankind.” Once again, the Bible reminds us that the character is formed in the home. The way people treat their parents is how they will treat others. The respect they have for their parents reflects the respect they have for God. If parents allow their children to speak disrespectfully to them, they will likely grow to be disrespectful, unloving people. The power of the Holy Spirit can heal old wounds and change old habits that were forged during childhood, but it will also take much effort on the part of the person who learned the bad habits.

18. Mark 9:2 -- "And he was transfigured before them." Peter, James, and John were given a brief glimpse of a spiritual reality or realm that was always there but not discernible with the normal human senses.

19. Mark 9:3 -- "...and his clothes became radiant, intensely white, as no one on earth could bleach them." Color is caused by the absorption of certain wavelengths of light by a substance. Nothing could absorb the brilliance of Jesus.

20. Mark 9:24 -- "I believe; help my unbelief!" Jesus can help you with your unbelief if that is what you really want and you ask Him.

21. Mark 9:30, 31 -- "They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And he did not want anyone to know, for he was teaching his disciples." Jesus prioritized His trusted disciples over the crowds.

22. Mark 9:35, 29 -- "If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.... This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer." Few Christians actually accept and live out this teaching. Being led by the Spirit rather than the flesh and denying self is a daily effort that only comes through a deep, intimate relationship with Jesus. It must be empowered by the Spirit, through unity with the Spirit. Ultimately, what is Spiritual is not obtained through the physical. Our greatest battle is against the flesh, and "this kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer." However, prayer often seems to be our last resort – we say, "All we can do now is pray." However, Jesus says that prayer is absolutely vital, a 'first thing.' A primary indicator that we are not living by the Spirit is selfishness which is marked by pride, boastfulness, greed, envy, rudeness, self-seeking, anger, slothfulness, etc. Also, a lack of prayer is indicative of a distant relationship with God. Flesh-led selfishness promotes fear, disunity, and isolation (from God and from others). (Mark 9:32, 34) It causes us to 'hide in the garden' from both God and others. It causes us to focus on earthly kingdoms rather than the Kingdom of God. Today, in Mark 9, the disciples immediately demonstrate why they were powerless to drive out demons (though Jesus had given the authority to do so) by arguing about who among them would be the greatest and then by criticizing someone who was not part of their group – they were allowing themselves to be guided by the flesh rather than by the Spirit. Though they were walking with Jesus as believers, they, ultimately, remained focused on self. Pray!

23. Mark 9:38, 39 -- "'Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.' But Jesus said, 'Do not stop him....'" God, not people, validates the faith and works of people. People have a tendency to compete over the favor of God like children compete for the parent's attention, contrary to God's desires.

24. Mark 9:42-50 -- God takes sin very, very seriously. Do you?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 30 March: Make a conscious effort to place everyone above yourself, to be the true servant of all. Also, take a hard look at your prayer life. The vitality of your prayer life is an indicator of how much you are prioritizing your relationship with God and walking in the Spirit. It reveals what you think has the most power in your life and what you truly value most. Consider dedicating one full, uninterrupted hour to prayer in solitude today. (Mark 9:29, Mark 9:35)

DBRP- WEEK 13, Day 4, Thursday, 29 Mar 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 29 Mar 18:

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=deut+21%2C+22%3B+prov+29%3B+mark+8>

Observations from today's readings, Thursday, 29 March 2017:

1. Deuteronomy 21:10-14 – Captives were spared from death in war, submitting to terms of surrender that were designed to ultimately integrate them into the society without them having a negative impact on the culture. Even captives were given certain rights, protections, and comforts, such as the right to mourn the deaths of their loved ones after battle. God did not allow captives to be dehumanized.
2. Deuteronomy 21:18-21 – God expects parents to hold their children accountable to the law. God expects parents to take the lead in demanding civil justice, preferring right and wrong over familial loyalties.
3. Deuteronomy 22:1-4 – “You shall not see your brother’s ox or his sheep going astray and ignore them. You shall take them back to your brother.” God expects you to go out of your way to help another Christian when you see a need, at your own expense, expecting nothing in return. You cannot ignore the needs of others and still claim loyalty to Jesus.
4. Deuteronomy 22:5 – “A woman shall not wear a man’s garment, nor shall a man put on a woman’s cloak, for whoever does these things is an abomination to the Lord your God.” God expects people to maintain identity markers for male and female and prohibits transvestitism. To be clear, it is an “abomination to the Lord.”
5. Deuteronomy 22:6 – “If you come across a bird’s nest in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs and the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young.” God wants you to protect production capacity while consuming – show enough restraint to avoid killing geese that lay golden eggs. In verses such as this one, God is commanding a specific action while also teaching a general principle by which to live.
6. Deuteronomy 22:8 – “When you build a new house, you shall make a parapet for your roof, that you may not bring the guilt of blood upon your house, if anyone should fall from it.” God expects you to go out of your way and use your own resources to ensure that others are not hurt by what you do.
7. Deuteronomy 22:9-11 – “You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest the whole yield be forfeited, the crop that you have sown and the yield of the vineyard. You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together. You shall not wear cloth of wool and linen mixed together.” God wanted to instill habits of holiness in all that His people did.
8. Deuteronomy 22:14 – God knows the human tendency to blame and condemn others in order to avoid social responsibility.
9. Deuteronomy 22:16 – “And the father of the young woman shall say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man to marry, and he hates her.’” Parents have a responsibility to protect the purity of their children. The behavior of children affects the honor of the parents.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

10. Deuteronomy 22:18 – “Then the elders of that city shall take the man and whip him.” Those who would publicly humiliate others were to be publicly humiliated. A major theme throughout the Bible is God often punishes by treating people the way you treat others.

11. Deuteronomy 22:21 – “...they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done an outrageous thing in Israel by whoring in her father’s house.” God takes fornication far more seriously than society does. As Christ’s Ambassador, how do you address fornication? Why did John the Baptist lose his head? Are you willing to speak out against socially accepted sin and to proclaim the need for repentance and faith in Jesus for salvation?

12. Comments on Deuteronomy 22:21b from Henry T. Blackaby: “So you shall put away the evil from among you.” It is a dangerous and costly mistake not to take temptation seriously. The sad testimony of many who have succumbed to sin’s enticements is that they thought they were strong enough to remain in the midst of temptation and resist it. God requires that His people remove evil from their midst (Deut. 21:21). One way to do this is to remove anything in your environment that may tempt you to sin. When wickedness surrounds you, you are in danger of becoming anesthetized to its destructive potential. Never assume that you are immune to temptation. Do not underestimate the craftiness of the evil one. God does not tolerate evil, for evil cost the death of His Son. Sin causes untold pain and destruction to everyone it touches. Treating evil lightly shows foolish disregard for God’s redemptive work. An honest evaluation of your life will reveal temptations that you should remove, such as some forms of entertainment or ungodly relationships. When God convicts you of evil in your midst, remove it.

13. Proverbs 29:5 – “A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.” The Bible strongly condemns flattery.

14. Proverbs 29:11 – “A fool gives full vent to his spirit, but a wise man quietly holds it back.” God will test your temper and self-control to test your wisdom. Again, God doesn’t test for His benefit but for yours. He knows your heart; you don’t.

15. Proverbs 29:18 – “Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law.” You must study and follow God’s law in order to build your self-control.

16. Proverbs 29:25 – “The fear of man lays a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD is safe.” In a particular situation, you will either be influenced by God or by man, depending on who you fear the most.

17. Mark 8:3 – Do you desire God’s word more than eating?

18. Mark 8:6 – Jesus allows us to participate in His miraculous works so that we can experience Him first-hand.

19. Mark 8:11, 12 – Most who demand evidence of Jesus don’t really want evidence but merely seek to justify their own rebellion. More evidence wouldn’t change a thing because the barrier is within their hearts, not their minds.

20. Mark 8:29 -- “But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?” This is the defining question of any person’s life. See Matthew 10:34; Matthew 25:31-33; Luke 12:49-53; and Acts 4:12.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

21. Mark 8:33-38 – “You are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man.” One of the biggest mistakes we make, one of the most dangerous things we do, is interpret God’s word and will from a self-centered perspective. This incites Jesus’ most emphatic rebuke, and He calls it satanic. We cannot truly walk with Jesus until we deny self.

22. Mark 8:34 -- “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.” In the above verse, Jesus describes the continuing actions or endeavors that mark the “way of the disciple” or the “way of the cross”: deny self, take up the cross, follow Jesus -

-- Deny Self: Denying self is far more than self-denial -- depriving yourself or denigrating yourself. Denying self involves setting your mind on the things of God rather than the things of man and walking on a revealed path for His purposes rather than by our own understanding for our own purposes. Denying self is a continuous, ongoing, inward act. Only you and God know if your being is centered on Jesus or focused on self. The opposite of the discipleship way is putting self before God – that is what Satan does; and when we do it, we are essentially following the devil’s lead as Peter discovered when Jesus rebuked him, “Get behind me, Satan! You do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns (Mark 8:33).” Peter was likely focused on the prospect of his personal loss and his personal pain that would be caused by Jesus’ death, and Jesus’ death did not fit the plan for victory that Peter had envisioned. His worldly thinking was in opposition to the plan of God, hence one of Jesus’ most emphatic rebukes. Denying self is to “have the mind of Christ (1 Corinthians 2:16, Philippians 2:5).”

-- Take Up The Cross: This is much, much more than simply patiently enduring trials or bearing up under affliction. It is not about what is happening to us in the world but rather it is about accepting who we are in Christ. Taking up the cross is accepting and proclaiming our new identity in Christ saying, “I am in Him, and He is in me.” It is about identifying and uniting with the Crucified One, not just outwardly with our mouths but inwardly in our hearts and minds with all that is within us. It is the personal recognition that we not only died with Christ but were also made alive with Christ to live our lives solely for God (Romans 6:8, 10). We joyfully take on the name of Christ, and in union with Jesus, we willingly choose the Father’s destiny for our lives regardless the personal cost. As Paul described: “I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me (Galatians 2:20).” Taking up the cross in relationships is not just turning the other cheek, displaying grace, returning good for evil, it is doing so with a heartfelt goal of reconciliation for the offender, with genuine love for your “enemy,” who, through the love of Christ, we no longer see as others would.

-- Follow Jesus: This is an inward act before it is an outward one. It is not just about conforming our outward behavior to God’s standards (something Jesus tried to explain to the Pharisees), but continually and humbly and personally responding to the conviction of the Holy Spirit to transform our hearts and minds. This is not about rote religious rituals or traditions. This is your one-on-one discipleship with Jesus where you personally respond to him, where you remain connected to the Vine. Only you and God know if, in your inmost being, you are truly following Jesus. This is a relationship; it’s not a program, it’s the person of Jesus. This is about “abiding” in Jesus and obeying his commands out of genuine love for Him – “As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing (John 15:4, 5).

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

In our natural minds, we tend to define and reduce the “way of the disciple” based on the physical, “persevere through the trials of life and do good things.” However, “The Way” deals with the inside, the spirit, the heart, your authentic self. “For the Lord sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart (1 Samuel 16:7).” Pray that God will give you the heart of a disciple.

* Note: Christianity was often referred to as “The Way”. (Acts 9:2; 19:9; 19:23; 22:4; 24:14; 24:22).

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 29 March: Today, really focus on denying self rather than just self-denial. Seek genuine “oneness” with Jesus, in heart, mind, and soul. Seek to step outside of self to see things as God sees them. Seek only His will, not yours, and endeavor to follow Him, not out of a sense of duty, but genuine love. The key is receiving His love and letting it flow through you rather than trying to work harder to create your own love. (Mark 8:33-38)

DBRP- WEEK 13, Day 3, Wednesday, 28 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Deut+19%2C+20%3B+pro+28%3B+Mark+7>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 28 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 19:9 – “...provided you are careful to keep all this commandment, which I command you today, by loving the Lord your God and by walking ever in his ways....” God wants you to love Him. You show your love by obeying Him.
2. Deuteronomy 19:11 – “But if anyone hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him and attacks him and strikes him fatally so that he dies, and he flees into one of these cities, then the elders of his city shall send and take him from there, and hand him over to the avenger of blood, so that he may die.” Notice that cities of refuge were not sanctuary cities for murderers.
3. Deuteronomy 19:14 – “You shall not move your neighbor’s landmark, which the men of old have set, in the inheritance that you will hold in the land that the Lord your God is giving you to possess.” God established clear rules for protecting property rights. Property rights protect a person’s ability to produce and to transfer productive ability to descendants. God strictly protects the livelihood of the family. Note the seventh commandment protects marriage (you shall not commit adultery), and the eight commandment protects property (you shall not steal). People can steal, and governments can steal; God will hold both accountable.
4. Deuteronomy 19:15 – “A single witness shall not suffice against a person for any crime or for any wrong in connection with any offense that he has committed. Only on the evidence of two witnesses or of three witnesses shall a charge be established.” As was discussed yesterday, one witness is not enough. Today, in many cases, all it takes is for one person to accuse another in order to ruin the career and reputation of the accused. This is not Biblical.
5. Deuteronomy 20:1 – “When you go out to war against your enemies, and see horses and chariots and an army larger than your own, you shall not be afraid of them, for the Lord your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.” God knows His people will have to fight battles. God expects His people to have courage in Him.
6. Deuteronomy 20:1-4 – God has proven His presence and power in the past and will do so again.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

7. Deuteronomy 20:17,18 – “...but you shall devote them to complete destruction, the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, as the Lord your God has commanded, that they may not teach you to do according to all their abominable practices that they have done for their gods, and so you sin against the Lord your God.” God has no tolerance for those who would lead His people astray, whether they are believers or unbelievers (see chapter 13)

8. Deuteronomy 20:18 – Worship that imitates pagan worship or involves pagan substitutes for God is a chief sin.

9. Deuteronomy 20:19-20 – ““When you besiege a city for a long time, making war against it in order to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an axe against them. You may eat from them, but you shall not cut them down. Are the trees in the field human, that they should be besieged by you? Only the trees that you know are not trees for food you may destroy and cut down, that you may build siegeworks against the city that makes war with you, until it falls.” Resources are not inherently good or evil and can be used for either good purposes or bad ones. God wants His people to use resources formerly used to support evil to support good for the future. The same resources that supply bad people can also supply good people. God’s people can destroy institutions or take them over. Why not take them over for God’s glory?

10. Proverbs 28:5 – “Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand it completely.” Understanding grows with proximity to Jesus.

11. Proverbs 28:7 – “The one who keeps the law is a son with understanding, but a companion of gluttons shames his father.” With understanding comes obedience; obedience is self-control. Gluttony is a lack of self-control, revealing a disobedient heart which reveals a relationship problem.

12. Proverbs 28:13 – “Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy.” Be radically but gently honest with yourself and with others. It can be very painful at first but is instantly freeing and opens the door for radical integrity. Someone once said, “Never say anything you wouldn’t want to see published in the paper.” Christians should be an open book with no fear of open publication.

13. Proverbs 28:26 – “Whoever trusts in his own mind is a fool, but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered.” Why would anyone trust in their own understanding and reject God’s unchanging word?

14. Proverbs 28: 27 – “Whoever gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.” Do you believe this? It takes radical faith to give radically. Today, personally and tangibly give to the poor, not just via internet, a third party, or an organization, but with your own hands and directly to someone in need. Do this in the name of Jesus Christ.

15. Mark 7:5-13 – The Bible leads you to self-examination and self-correction, not a critical spirit towards others. We only address the sins of others with a legitimate heart of reconciliation. If your aim is something else, best to keep your mouth shut as you will not be Christ’s good ambassador.

16. Mark 7:6, 7; see also Isaiah 29 -- ““This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”” When the Pharisees criticized Jesus’ disciples for failing to wash their hands before eating, Jesus called them hypocrites (fakers or actors) and referenced the above verse from Isaiah. It wasn’t that Jesus didn’t understand the value of cleanliness or care about hygiene; the elaborate hand washing ritual practiced by the Pharisees was not about cleanliness, it was a traditional symbol of holiness and spiritual purity. Jesus was not challenging the cleanliness of the Pharisees, he was challenging their holiness and the condition of their hearts. Jesus said that the Pharisees were pretending to serve God in their religious practices but in actuality were serving self; they were inspired by selfishness rather than love and compassion, and their defense of law and traditions was not about glorifying God but rather about glorifying self. They were more interested in demonstrating self-righteousness than in proclaiming the righteousness of God. Even the “good” things the Pharisees did in the name of God they did for the wrong reasons. Christians must continually examine their hearts to ensure that their motivations are truly pure and Christ-centered rather than self-centered – we all tend to drift towards selfishness. Even our religious practices can be motivated by self-interest rather than love for God and others. A simple question to ask yourself – “Why do I do what I do?” I pray that more and more, our motivation will be Christ. Jesus quoted Isaiah 29 when he rebuked the Pharisees; below is the conclusion of Isaiah 29 which should give us hope:

- “In that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see. The meek shall obtain fresh joy in the Lord, and the poor among mankind shall exult in the Holy One of Israel. For the ruthless shall come to nothing and the scoffer cease, and all who watch to do evil shall be cut off.... Jacob shall no more be ashamed, no more shall his face grow pale. For when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they will sanctify my name; they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and will stand in awe of the God of Israel. And those who go astray in spirit will come to understanding, and those who murmur will accept instruction (Isaiah 29:18-24).”

17. Mark 7:8-13 – The Bible trumps church tradition.

18. Mark 7:14-23 – “Do you not see that whatever goes into a person from outside cannot defile him, since it enters not his heart but his stomach, and is expelled?” (Thus he declared all foods clean.) And he said, “What comes out of a person is what defiles him. For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, coveting, wickedness, deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride, foolishness. All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person.” (Mark 7:20-23)

- As mentioned previously, based on many Bible verses such as Ephesians 2:1-3 and 1 John 2:16 (provided below), church tradition teaches about three enemies of the soul, what has been called the trinity of temptation – the world, the flesh, and the devil (mundus, caro, et diabolus). Today, Jesus confirms that the greatest threat of the three is “the flesh” because the other two are external threats, while “the flesh” is “inside the wire” or an “insider threat”. This is the traitor within. This is where we become the problem, where we now have responsibility for the temptation. When we are tempted externally by the world and the devil, we may not have sinned; but when we start tempting ourselves, we are now guilty of thought sins. Jesus remained without sin when He was tempted externally by Satan in the desert but was not tempted internally, within His heart. The issue is not your circumstances, your environment, or your past; the issue is your heart. Your heart is what God searches, tests, and convicts. Oftentimes, when we are tempted internally, we seek to blame the person or thing that tempted us externally -- “The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate.” (Genesis 3:12) This is like when my kids say, “The lamp broke,” vice “I broke the lamp.” This deflection ignores to heart of the problem – your heart. Have you ever said something like, “You make me so angry!" Does someone have more power over you than the Holy Spirit? One of the fruits of the Spirit is the power of self-control. Proverbs says, "Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.... A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls." (Proverbs 25:26, 28) We would benefit from spending more time considering our own hearts.

- Ephesians 2:1-3 -- And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body[a] and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind.

- 1 John 2:16 -- For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride of life[a]—is not from the Father but is from the world.

19. Mark 7:21 – External acts begin with internal thoughts and values.

20. Mark 7:27 – "And he said to her, 'Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs.'" Jesus sought to teach Israel their mission before expanding the mission outward.

21. Mark 7:29, 32 – Jesus responded to faith wherever He found it.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day): 28 Mar -- Make the effort today to, literally, take note of your thought life: journal the conditions under which you were tempted internally, when your thoughts did not mirror the heart of Jesus, when you became angry, bitter, jealous, greedy, selfish, lustful, prideful, impatient, unkind, envious, boastful, defensive, worrisome, etc. At the end of the day, review your journal and prayerfully consider the condition of your heart. References from today's readings: Reference from today's readings: "For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, coveting, wickedness, deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride, foolishness. All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person." (Mark 7:21-23)

DBRP- WEEK 13, Day 2, Tuesday, 27 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=deut+17%2C+18%3B+prov+27%3B+mark+6>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 27 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 17:1 -- "You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep in which is a blemish, any defect whatever, for that is an abomination to the LORD your God." The level of your sacrifice for God reveals how much you value God. A real sacrifice costs you something you care about. A gift that is highly valued by the giver displays genuine love.

- Comments on today's readings by Henry T. Blackaby: Deuteronomy 17:1 – "God's love moved Him to sacrifice that which meant the most to Him—His only Son. Our response, if we truly understand His love for us, is the desire to give back to God that which means the most to us. The Old Testament reveals that God set forth high standards for the sacrifices He required of His people. A worthy sacrifice had to cost the people something. As their hearts shifted away from God, the people began struggling to give God costly offerings. They would bring blind, lame, and sick animals, assuming God could not tell the difference (Mal. 1:8). God saw what they were doing and declared their offerings to be in vain (Mal. 1:10). Throughout the Old Testament period, God was setting the stage for the ultimate, perfect, and sinless sacrifice of His Son for the sins of humanity. The offerings we give back to God reveal our hearts' condition. A heart that overflows with gratitude for God's love will respond in selfless devotion. If we are unwilling to sacrifice our time, our possessions, our money, or our energy, we indicate that we do not love God as He desires. God takes delight in the person who gives to Him cheerfully out of a loving heart, a person who understands that God is the source of everything he has and who knows that God will more than compensate for whatever is sacrificed for Him (2 Cor. 9:8). If you struggle in giving your best offerings to God, pause and reflect on what God sacrificed for you. Trust Him and give Him the best that you have because you love Him with all your heart.

2. Deuteronomy 17:7 – “The hand of the witnesses shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.” Jesus used this law to exonerate the woman caught in adultery in John 8 – “He who is without sin, cast the first stone.” Jesus was asked to judge a ‘kangaroo court’, a mob-led trial with no real evidence and with a pre-determined outcome. Though caught in the act of adultery, the woman stood accused alone – where was the other adulterer? Jesus called for the “two or three witnesses” (Deut 19:15; Numbers 35:30; 2 Cor 13:1; 1 Tim 5:19; John 8:17; 1 John 5:7) who observed the act of adultery to cast the first stones, knowing as likely would everyone else, that whoever through the first stone would have condemned themselves to stoning as a false witness. Jesus was not making light of adultery or excusing sin as some have suggested. In fact, Jesus ends His conversation with the woman to “sin no more.” How would things be different in our legal system today if criminal allegations required at least two witnesses, and the witnesses faced the penalty of the accused if found to be perjuring?

3. Deuteronomy 17:11 – “According to the instructions that they give you, and according to the decision which they pronounce to you, you shall do. You shall not turn aside from the verdict that they declare to you, either to the right hand or to the left.” God knows we have a tendency to obey the laws and legal decisions we like and to disobey the ones we don't like. We are called to obey all of the law, unless a law demands disobedience to God who is the Source of all justice. God also knows that any human system for handling disputes or complicated decisions between stakeholders is not perfect, and He expects his people to accept the outcome of the decision-making process.

4. Deuteronomy 17:16, 17 – “Only he must not acquire many horses for himself or cause the people to return to Egypt in order to acquire many horses, since the LORD has said to you, ‘You shall never return that way again.’ And he shall not acquire many wives for himself, lest his heart turn away, nor shall he acquire for himself excessive silver and gold.” God does not want leaders to get rich from their positions of leadership. Deuteronomy 17:18-20 gives further instruction on the matter: “And when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write for himself in a book a copy of this law, approved by the Levitical priests. And it shall be with him, and he shall read in it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God by keeping all the words of this law and these statutes, and doing them, that his heart may not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he may not turn aside from the commandment, either to the right hand or to the left, so that he may continue long in his kingdom, he and his children, in Israel.” God wants leaders who are not selfishly motivated but rather motivated by love for Him and for others. True leadership comes a great personal expense. Don't you wish we had more politicians and civic leaders today who selflessly led with their eyes affixed on Jesus? Solomon, ignored these commands and permanently divided Israel. As our nation gets more and more divided, our leaders seem to get wealthier and wealthier. And as for our most well-known religious leaders, look online to see their net worth.

- I assume kings are pretty busy, busier than me. Yet God expected them to read/study their personal copy of God's word every day of their lives, being careful to OBEY every bit of it. People who lived in centuries past, had no more time than us, they just had fewer options for their time. We must make the choice to read, study, and obey God's word every day of our lives. God's word is a lamp unto our feet. (read all of Psalm 119) How different would our leaders be today if they were committed to reading, understanding, and obeying God's Word? What impact would they have on the Nation and the world?

5. Deuteronomy 18:2 – “They shall have no inheritance among their brothers; the LORD is their inheritance, as he promised them.” The Bible says that we are all priests; so, we claim no inheritance on earth, but the Lord is our inheritance.

6. Deuteronomy 18:18-20 – “And I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him. And whoever will not listen to my words that he shall speak in my name, I myself will require it of him. But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in my name that I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die.” True prophets only speak the word of God given by God. False prophets speak presumptuous words that God never intended.

7. Proverbs 27:1 – “Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.” Make today count. You cannot do anything about the past, and you have no idea what tomorrow may bring. Today is your opportunity to trust God, obey God, and glorify God, one decision at a time. Today is your mission field. If you are faithful with just today, God will show you a future for which you never would have planned. Just one faithful moment today could change the course of your life forever. If God puts something on your heart, act on it today; don't wait until tomorrow. And don't worry about tomorrow either. God is in control of tomorrow. Faith is trusting God today; hope is trusting God with tomorrow; and love is our goal, our motivation, and our vocation (which means calling).

- Luke 9:62 -- Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

- 1 Corinthians 9:10 -- Does he not certainly speak for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the plowman should plow in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of sharing in the crop.

- Hebrews 3:13, 15 -- But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called “today,” that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.... As it is said, “Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.”

- Luke 5:26 -- And amazement seized them all, and they glorified God and were filled with awe, saying, “We have seen extraordinary things today.”

- Luke 12:28 -- But if God so clothes the grass, which is alive in the field today, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith!

- Proverbs 3:28 -- Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it”—when you have it with you.

- Matthew 6:34 -- "Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

- James 4:13, 14 -- Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and make a profit" — yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes.

- Ephesians 5:16 – [make] the best use of the time, because the days are evil.

- Colossians 4:5 -- Walk in wisdom toward outsiders, making the best use of the time.

8. Proverbs 27:5, 6 -- It is unloving not to rebuke someone who needs it.

9. Proverbs 27:7, 8 -- "One who is full loathes honey, but to one who is hungry everything bitter is sweet. Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man who strays from his home." A person starving for love is more susceptible to sin.

10. Proverbs 27:4 -- "Wrath is cruel, anger is overwhelming, but who can stand before jealousy?" Jealousy is worse than anger. Jealousy despises another not because of an offense but because of blessings they have received. Jealousy is purely an internal temptation that reveals an ungrateful heart. Jealousy is outwardly directed at a person but inwardly directed at God who gave someone else something He didn't give the jealous person, which makes the jealous person resentful. Jealousy reveals a deep relationship problem a person has with God. Treating people poorly out of jealousy only makes the problem worse.

11. Proverbs 27:18 -- "Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who guards his master will be honored." If your boss is wrong, and you can protect him from his mistakes, you will only benefit from it. Yes, there is a concern about enabling bad behavior, but with wisdom, your influence can change a leader over time. Most change takes a long time, but consequences for bad behavior are immediate and can have devastating consequences. Much of leadership from the bottom up is about damage control while influencing by example and subtle counsel.

12. Mark 6:7 – "And he called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits." God sends His people out under His authority and power. That includes you.

13. Mark 6:12 – "So they went out and proclaimed that people should repent." The salvation message starts with the demand for repentance. Here's a message you don't hear preached much these days -- repent. It has become unsophisticated to preach about sin and the wrath of God, causing many to wonder why people need a savior. Even from the pulpits, we hear the message that people don't need a savior, they need a psychologist, and Jesus merely provides us the example of how to live or how to 'save' ourselves from the consequences of bad behavior. Too many have turned the Bible into a supernatural self-help book rather than a message of reconciliation with God through Jesus. We might still hear someone ask, "Are you saved?", but saved from what, from the consequences of our bad behavior? No, saved from the wrath of The Almighty, Holy, Just God – Saved from God by God, through faith in His grace, not our good deeds. We are not communicating clearly that we need salvation from the wrath of God and that we are incapable of saving ourselves. John the Baptist lost his head, ultimately, because he condemned adultery. Remember when preachers once condemned adultery and other sexual sins, not merely because of the obvious consequences of such behavior but because of its offense to a Holy God? Perhaps part of our problem is that we have lost the art of condemning the sin without condemning the sinner, of pointing past the sin to the Savior. Are you proclaiming to people that they must repent, not to turn from bad behavior but to turn to Jesus?

14. Mark 6:18 – “For John had been saying to Herod, ‘It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.’” As stated above, John lost his life because He challenged adultery in a corrupt society with corrupt leaders. His words were offensive and negative, but his aim was positive, reconciliation. Today, John the Baptist would have been labelled a hater. But if you truly love God and others, you must hate sin and speak out against it, again, not to make more agreeable sinners, but rather to promote reconciliation with God through Jesus. “O you who love the Lord, hate evil!” (Psalm 97:10)

15. Mark 6:26 -- “And the king was exceedingly sorry, but because of his oaths and his guests he did not want to break his word.” Pride, lust, power, and rash decision-making drove Herod to hideous sin he did not intend. The Bible says that Herod gladly heard God’s word through John the Baptist and “feared John,” but nonetheless beheaded him (Mark 6:20). The Bible points out that Herod “was exceedingly sorry,” but sorrow is not the same as repentance. Herod demonstrated “worldly grief” rather than “godly sorrow.” Godly sorrow leads to repentance and reconciliation with Jesus: John the Baptist’s message was one of repentance – “In those days John the Baptist came... saying, ‘Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near (Matthew 3:1, 2).’” Jesus began his public ministry with a call to repentance – “Jesus began to preach, ‘Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near (Matthew 4:17);’” and Jesus sent his disciples with a call to repentance in our readings today – “They went out and preached that the people should repent (Mark 6:12).” Repentance comes from “godly sorrow” (genuine, spirit convicted sorrow) and involves the decision (followed by action) to seek the forgiveness of God, to turn away from sin, and to do the will of God, to “walk” with Him. Repentance involves 180-out decisive change with tangible results, the “fruit of repentance.” (Matthew 3:8) Both worldly grief and godly sorrow are deeply felt but produce opposite results. Consider the difference between the sorrow felt by Judas and the sorrow felt by Peter, both of whom betrayed Jesus. Peter returned to Jesus with a strong reaffirmation of his love for Jesus (John 21:15-17) and a truly changed life. Even to the point of torturous death, Peter never denied Christ again. Conversely, Judas carried his worldly grief to his suicidal death, refusing to turn to God for restoration. Many live in pain, misery, regret, and perhaps bitterness over mistakes that they have made in life and perhaps continue to make. However, God does not want us to live in worldly grief that leads to death, but rather God wants us to respond to the godly sorrow that comes from the conviction of the Holy Spirit, repent, live in obedience by the grace of God, and have life to its fullest with godly joy.

- 2 Corinthians 7:10 -- For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret, whereas worldly grief produces death.

16. Mark 6:27, 28 – “And immediately the king sent an executioner with orders to bring John’s head. He went and beheaded him in the prison and brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.” Jesus commended John for being the most honorable and faithful of His day, yet John was not spared a brutal, seemingly dishonoring death. Jesus’ most faithful are most hated by the world. They receive no honor on earth but unimaginable reward in Heaven.

17. Mark 6:31 -- “And he said to them, ‘Come away by yourselves to a desolate place and rest a while.’” God knows the importance of rest and spiritual renewal for His servants.

18. Comments on Mark 6:45-52 from Oswald Chambers: -- "And straightway He constrained His disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side...." We are apt to imagine that if Jesus Christ constrains us, and we obey Him, He will lead us to great success. We must never put our dreams of success as God's purpose for us; His purpose may be exactly the opposite. We have an idea that God is leading us to a particular end, a desired goal; He is not. The question of getting to a particular end is a mere incident. What we call the process, God calls the end. What is my dream of God's purpose? His purpose is that I depend on Him and on His power now. If I can stay in the middle of the turmoil calm and unperplexed, that is the end of the purpose of God. God is not working towards a particular finish; His end is the process - that I see Him walking on the waves, no shore in sight, no success, no goal, just the absolute certainty that it is all right because I see Him walking on the sea. It is the process, not the end, which is glorifying to God. God's training is for now, not presently. His purpose is for this minute, not for something in the future. We have nothing to do with the afterwards of obedience; we get wrong when we think of the afterwards. What men call training and preparation, God calls the end. God's end is to enable me to see that He can walk on the chaos of my life just now. If we have a further end in view, we do not pay sufficient attention to the immediate present: if we realize that obedience is the end, then each moment as it comes is precious.

19. Mark 6:53-56 – "When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored to the shore. And when they got out of the boat, the people immediately recognized him and ran about the whole region and began to bring the sick people on their beds to wherever they heard he was." Remember, Jesus told the man He had cleansed of demons (chapter 5) that he could not go with Jesus but must stay and testify to others. Now Jesus returns to huge crowds. Do crowds want to know Jesus because of your testimony? Your salvation is a personal experience, but it is intended to also be very public, your witness to the world of the power of the Gospel. Read John 14-17 – Jesus wants you know Him and make Him known – the two endeavors are inseparable and symbiotic.

DBRP- WEEK 13, Day 1, Monday, 26 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=deut+15%2C+16%3B+prov+26%3B+mark+5>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 26 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 15:1, 2 – "At the end of every seven years you shall grant a release. And this is the manner of the release: every creditor shall release what he has lent to his neighbor. He shall not exact it of his neighbor, his brother, because the Lord's release has been proclaimed." God's system is designed to keep people from getting into long-term debt and to keep people from profiting on the debts of others. In case you missed it from yesterday's readings, God did not want His people to profit from the debts of others. The seventh year is also a reminder of the freedom of the debt of sin we receive through Jesus.

2. Deuteronomy 15:3, 4 – "Of a foreigner you may exact it, but whatever of yours is with your brother your hand shall release. But there will be no poor among you; for the Lord will bless you in the land that the Lord your God is giving you for an inheritance to possess.” God gave His people permission to charge interest to non-believers but not to take advantage of them or to let them get in over their heads. By allowing this, God was essentially allowing His people to control more and more of the ungodly world. National power is often measured in D.I.M.E – Diplomacy, Information, Military, and Economics. Economics is the most powerful weapon. God intended for His people to grow powerful economically but never through unfair or inhumane ways. Debt slowly robs people of their resources. Essentially, by allowing His people to charge debt to foreigners, He was enabling His people to “subdue” more and more of the earth; by forbidding them to be in debt or to charge debt among the believers, He was protecting them from loss of economic power. More on this below:

3. Deuteronomy 15:6 -- “For the Lord your God will bless you, as he promised you, and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow, and you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you.” God commanded His people to cancel all debts among other believers every seven years (and in other verses He forbids any interest on debt among fellow believers), but He also says, “of a foreigner you may exact it.” God understands and teaches His people that “the rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is the slave of the lender (Proverbs 22:7).” He did not intend for His people to be in debt or enslaved by the world but to depend on each other to take care of each other’s needs that “there will be no poor among you (Deuteronomy 15:4).” So, when you need money you don’t have for a major expenditure where do you go? Do you go to the church for an interest free loan or do you go to a bank or credit agency owned by a secular institution or a worldly kingdom? God’s commands for economics were designed for His people to be the most powerful ‘Kingdom’ on the planet, a nation among the nations for His glory. Is that what we are? Or have we unfunded the work of the church by surrendering income to worldly kingdoms through debt? It has been reported that churches in America spend more money on building debt than they do on missionaries.

4. Deuteronomy 15:7, 8 -- “If among you, one of your brothers should become poor, in any of your towns within your land that the Lord your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart or shut your hand against your poor brother, but you shall open your hand to him and lend him sufficient for his need, whatever it may be.” God expects you to give you fellow Christians in need, whatever they need. The Bible warns not to harden your heart. Most people harden their hearts when they tell themselves that the poor brother doesn’t deserve help because their plight is their own fault. No one deserves grace. Give grace as God has given you.

5. Deuteronomy 15:9-12 -- “Take care lest there be an unworthy thought in your heart and you say, ‘The seventh year, the year of release is near,’ and your eye look grudgingly on your poor brother, and you give him nothing, and he cry to the Lord against you, and you be guilty of sin. You shall give to him freely, and your heart shall not be grudging when you give to him, because for this the Lord your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake. For there will never cease to be poor in the land. Therefore I command you, ‘You shall open wide your hand to your brother, to the needy and to the poor, in your land.’” You have no excuse for not helping the poor. Not helping the poor is a sin. God judges your heart. Interestingly, we just read that God had a plan to prevent any of His people from being poor (Deut 15:4), yet we read that, despite His plan, there would still always be poor. Why? Is it because God’s plan was flawed? No, it is because God’s people were disobedient and didn’t follow the plan. In many cases, people likely caused their own poverty through irresponsible living. Nonetheless, God expected (and expects) His people to give generously to the poor, not coming up with justifications not to – “It’s their fault.... If I help them, they will just do it again.” Remember, no one deserves a gift, and gifts are never earned or reclaimed by the giver. Aren't we glad Jesus didn't just pay for the sins of those who were "worth it," or who were sure not to fail again?

6. Deuteronomy 15:14 – "As the Lord your God has blessed you, you shall give to him." How you give to others reveals how appreciative you are of how God has blessed you. How you give to others reveals your true level of confidence in God's provision. How you give to others reveals your love and compassion. "Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." (2 Corinthians 9:7)

7. Deuteronomy 16:12 – Worship remembers poverty.

8. Deuteronomy 16:13-15 -- "You shall keep the Feast of Booths seven days.... You shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow who are within your towns. For seven days you shall keep the feast to the Lord your God at the place that the Lord will choose, because the Lord your God will bless you...." During the time of the feast, each Israelite family was supposed to construct a booth (a temporary shelter), or sukkah, and live in it for a week (Leviticus 23:42-43). This week served many purposes: it reminded the people how God had provided for them when they had nothing; it reminded them that if they had nothing again, God would provide for them; it reminded them that their joy did not depend on their many possessions; it reminded them that life is often more joyful and memorable when they live simply; it brought everyone together into greater fellowship; it focused their thinking on the Lord; it sustained their collective skills to camp and to survive and to live in austerity; and it strengthened community. Christians would benefit from reviving this annual community camping feast.

9. Deuteronomy 16:16, 17 -- "Three times a year all your males shall appear before the Lord your God at the place that he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Booths. They shall not appear before the Lord empty-handed. Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord your God that he has given you." Three times a year, ALL of God's people came together in one place for huge feasts for worship, fellowship, and praise to celebrate the redemption and salvation God provided. Everyone contributed to these feasts. These events lasted for days, and all work stopped. They were joyful celebrations, and aliens were invited to participate (Deuteronomy 16:14). What a powerful display of unity under the LORD-ship of God and to each other as fellow believers; what a powerful witness to the watching world. Does your church do anything like this? Does your church have such a powerful sense of community?

10. Deuteronomy 16:18-19 -- "You shall appoint judges and officers in all your towns that the Lord your God is giving you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. You shall not pervert justice." How do you settle disputes with other believers? Do you go to the church leadership or do you go to the secular court system? "When one of you has a grievance against another, does he dare go to law before the unrighteous instead of the saints? Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to try trivial cases? Do you not know that we are to judge angels? How much more, then, matters pertaining to this life! So if you have such cases, why do you lay them before those who have no standing in the church? I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is no one among you wise enough to settle a dispute between the brothers, but brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers? To have lawsuits at all with one another is already a defeat for you. Why not rather suffer wrong? Why not rather be defrauded? But you yourselves wrong and defraud—even your own brothers (1 Corinthians 6:1-8)!" Is your church prepared to handle disputes between members, and do the members of your church trust and accept the authority of the leadership of your church to settle disputes or would they rather go to Judge Judy?

- From what you have read today, how closely do churches today reflect what God intended for His people? What role do you personally play in strengthening your community church?

11. Proverbs 26:7 – “Like a lame man’s legs, which hang useless, is a proverb in the mouth of fools.” Knowing God’s word is not the same as understanding God’s word. The Bible says that the fool can’t understand God’s word (Psalm 92:6). Fools are those who do not really seek the fear of the Lord or true wisdom (Proverbs 1:7); they are scoffers, arrogant and prideful (Proverbs 1:22; 21:24); they are self-righteous and wise in their own eyes. (Pro 12:15; 18:2; 28:26) Many fools are well-versed in the Bible but lack wisdom and only cause division vice reconciliation.

12. Proverbs 26:7 -- “Like a lame man’s legs, which hang useless, is a proverb in the mouth of fools.” The majority of Proverbs 26 deals with knowledge poorly applied. Our problem is often not knowing what to do, our problem is not doing what we know. Having the word of God and not doing the word of God (for whatever excuse we use) is like having food in your hands but refusing to put it in your mouth. Jesus said that He is the Bread of Life. He tells us to deny self, take up the cross and follow Him. Proverbs says, to have that knowledge and continue to pursue our own agendas in life is to feast on a daily meal of vomit (Proverbs 26:11)

13. Proverbs 26:7-9 – “Like a lame man’s legs, which hang useless, is a proverb in the mouth of fools. Like one who binds the stone in the sling is one who gives honor to a fool. Like a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools.” If you are living your life foolishly, God cannot use you as His messenger.

14. Proverbs 26:13-16 – God despises both foolishness and laziness.

15. Proverbs 26:28 – “A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth works ruin.” Lying and flattery are both forms of deception for selfish, self-centered purposes. Flattery selfishly tells people what they want to hear rather than what they need to hear. Flattery comes with a hidden agenda. It is deceptive and destructive.

16. Mark 5:14 – “The herdsmen fled and told it in the city and in the country. And people came to see what it was that had happened.” The herdsmen were witnesses who personally experienced the power of God and, therefore, could not help but tell everyone. Witnesses testify to what they have personally experienced, not simply what they have heard about. The herdsmen’s story would have been hard to believe, but they were not worried about what others might say. Witnessing is only hard when the experience isn’t real, personal, and powerful.

17. Mark 5:18-20 -- “As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed with demons begged him that he might be with him. And he did not permit him but said to him, ‘Go home to your friends and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you.’ And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him, and everyone marveled.” Salvation is not just so we can enjoy Jesus for the rest of our days; it is so we can glorify God before others, fulfilling God’s purpose for our lives of glorifying Him.

18. Mark 5:23-35 -- "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well and live." And he went with him.... And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years.... and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment.... And he looked around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. And he said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.' While he was still speaking, there came from the ruler's house some who said, 'Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?'" In context with what we have read in the Old Testament, this is an especially amazing account. Jesus, a rabbi, was called to the home of Jarius to save his dying daughter. Along the way he was touched by a bleeding woman. After her act of faith, the woman was afraid, likely, in part, because she had just made the Rabbi unclean (preventing him from entering anyone's home according to the Law). This would have placed Jesus in a predicament as he journeyed to Jarius' home (and I suspect the crowd was none too pleased with the woman); however, along the way, Jarius' daughter dies (a corpse is also unclean). Jesus could now enter house without risk of rendering the house unclean (it was already unclean) and without concern of choosing to become unclean (the woman has already made him unclean). Now Jesus could enter the home without breaking the law. Interesting.

19. Mark 5:30 -- "And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone out from him." The Levitical Laws forbade a bleeding woman from touching a Rabbi. While one could speculate that these laws were largely symbolic or for medical reasons, here we can see that there is also a spiritual implication we cannot understand (power had gone out from him).

20. Mark 5:37 -- "And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James." Among the 12, Jesus had an inner circle of three. These three had greater opportunity to see the wonders of Jesus. Are you fulfilling the Great Commission of making disciples? Who are your three and twelve? Are you one of the three and twelve of a more senior Christian who is personally discipling you?

21. Mark 5:43 -- "And he... told them to give her something to eat." Jesus is concerned with your most basic needs.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 26 March: Plan a week-long camping trip with your family and Christian friends to fellowship and to worship together. Consider making it an annual tradition. (Deuteronomy 16:13-15)

DBRP- WEEK 12, Day 7, Sunday, 25 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Deut+13%2C+14%3B+proverbs+25%3B+psalm+35%2C+36>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 25 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 13:1-4 -- "If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder... and if he says, 'Let us go after other gods,' ... you shall not listen.... For the LORD your God is testing you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. You shall walk after the LORD your God and fear him and keep his commandments and obey his voice, and you shall serve him and hold fast to him." Today, more than any other time in history, people are being bombarded with "evidence" to counter the word of God, all false evidence, but enough to lead many astray. Are you firm in your faith?

2. Deuteronomy 13:4, 5 -- "You shall walk after the Lord your God and fear him and keep his commandments and obey his voice, and you shall serve him and hold fast to him.... So you shall purge the evil from your midst." Obedience to God means removing those things in your life that dishonor Him. Does your entertainment honor God? Does what you read, watch, and listen to strengthen your purity or hinder it? Are your best friends Christ followers working with you to glorify God? "Agree with God, and be at peace; thereby good will come to you. Receive instruction from his mouth, and lay up his words in your heart. If you return to the Almighty you will be built up, if you remove injustice far from your tents, if you lay gold in the dust, and gold of Ophir among the stones of the torrent-bed, then the Almighty will be your gold and your precious silver. For then you will delight yourself in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you, and you will pay your vows. You will decide on a matter, and it will be established for you, and light will shine on your ways. For when they are humbled you say, 'It is because of pride'; but he saves the lowly. He delivers even the one who is not innocent, who will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands." Make God your absolute treasure; purge the evil from your life; and live as a powerful Christian. (Job 22:21-30)

3. Deuteronomy 13:11 -- "And all Israel shall hear and fear and never again do any such wickedness as this among you." Punishment is not just for the person being punished but also for others in order that they may learn and not do the same thing the one who was punished did. Part of wisdom is understanding what you haven't experienced -- learning from observing consequences (good and bad) in the lives of others. The accounts in the Bible were provided that we might gain wisdom -- "Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come." (1 Corinthians 10:11) But note, that ultimately, the Bible is not just pointing us to instructions for better living but to the One "on whom" all outcomes rest, "on whom" we have faith and hope. "For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. (Romans 15:4) The whole Bible points to Jesus.

4. Deuteronomy 14:2 -- "The LORD has chosen you to be a people for his treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth." Are you still amazed by grace? Do you understand the incredible thing God has done for you and the great fortune you have that so many others don't have?

5. Deuteronomy 14:3 -- "You shall not eat any abomination." There are many theories for why God told His people not to eat the certain animals and foods He told them not to eat. Some talk about health reasons; some think because the pagans ate these foods, God used dietary laws as a way to separate His people from other people, to keep them focused on their holiness. Likely these reasons are both true, along with other reasons, some we might never understand. Safe to say, we should never put anything in our bodies that does not honor God or that hurts the body. We should take care of our temples as an act of worship and demonstrate thanksgiving and the character of God in the way we eat. Many Christians know the way they eat is unhealthy, yet they do it anyway. For other Christians, "proper" nutrition has become an idol. This too is an abomination. "So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God." (1 Cor 10:31)

6. Deuteronomy 14:23 -- "And before the Lord your God, in the place that he will choose, to make his name dwell there, you shall eat the tithe of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and flock, that you may learn to fear the Lord your God always." The tithe facilitated an environment where the people ate together and all were fed together, resulting in fellowship, camaraderie, unity, and charity. How often does your church feast together?

7. Deuteronomy 14:23 -- "...that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always." God's commands are intended to teach you how to love and respect Him as God.

8. Deuteronomy 14:24-26 -- "And if the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry the tithe, when the Lord your God blesses you, because the place is too far from you, which the Lord your God chooses, to set his name there, then you shall turn it into money and bind up the money in your hand and go to the place that the Lord your God chooses and spend the money for whatever you desire—oxen or sheep or wine or strong drink, whatever your appetite craves. And you shall eat there before the Lord your God and rejoice, you and your household." Money was created to be a substitute for goods in order to facilitate trade across great distances. God's word has much to say about the sin of manipulating the value of currency because it essentially robs people of their goods; currency manipulation is a form of stealing, and the people most affected are the poor. Jesus flipped the tables and drove out the moneychangers in the Temple because they were manipulating the currency and stealing from the poor and from the church. God forbade his people from earning wealth on the interest applied to money and loans because it is money for nothing and a way to take advantage of others. (Deut 23:19; Proverbs 28:8; Psalm 15:5; Ezek 18:12, 13; Deut 23:20; Leviticus 25:36-37; Nehemiah 5:7; etc) All personal finance advice today encourages people to "make your money make money" by lending it to others with interest, rather than merely selling or trading the fruit of your honest labor at fair market value. This is a trap. This is why bankers are so rich and the poor are so poor. Abraham's plan for retirement was much different than the rich fool's plan condemned by Jesus in Luke 12. Abraham built an industry (sheep) that would continue to produce in order to sustain him in his unproductive years (which were few). The rich fool's plan was to hoard resources in order to have something to live off of in his unproductive years. The rich fool's plan looks a lot like most retirement plans today. God's plan for his people is not to hoard golden eggs but to raise geese that lay golden eggs. (Proverbs 27:23-30)

9. Deuteronomy 14:28-29 -- "At the end of every three years you shall bring out all the tithe of your produce in the same year and lay it up within your towns. And the Levite, because he has no portion or inheritance with you, and the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your towns, shall come and eat and be filled, that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands that you do." The tithe is intended, in part, to provide for those in need. Today, most give less than 3% of their income, and charity has largely been turned over to the government and to private secular organizations. God intended a far different plan.

10. Proverbs 25:4 -- "Take away the dross from the silver, and the smith has material for a vessel." Does your holiness render you usable by God for special assignments?

11. Proverbs 25:26 -- "Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked." How much pollution do you want in your drinking water? How much sin does God want in your life?

12. Proverbs 25:28 -- "A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls." A lack of self-control leaves you defenseless.

13. Proverbs 25:6, 7 – “Do not put yourself forward in the king’s presence or stand in the place of the great, for it is better to be told, ‘Come up here,’ than to be put lower in the presence of a noble.” Don’t be a self-promoter. Let your reputation speak for itself. Margaret Thatcher once said, “Power is like being a lady... if you have to tell people you are, you aren’t.” What you are should be so apparent that you don’t have to promote it artificially. Some people become great at writing resumes, conducting job interviews, collective awards, accreditations, etc, all to get important positions, but they are only “empty suits” who overpromise and underdeliver. Of course politicians are known for doing what it takes to get elected and then failing to be all that they said they would be or failing to do all that they said they would do. Proverbs 25:14 says, “Like clouds and wind without rain is a man who boasts of a gift he does not give.” Instead, Christians should let their actions, rather than their words, earn them an invitation to the party and a seat at the table. Do whatever you do so well that everyone demands more.

14. Proverbs 25:9 – “Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not reveal another’s secret.” God gives very specific instructions for conflict resolution that is often ignored by Christians who should be experts on conflict resolution because we have been given by God the ministry of reconciliation. In this verse, God tells us to first seek to handle matters with others 1-on-1 and privately, not sharing the issues with others. Is that what you do?

15. Proverbs 25:15 – “With patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue will break a bone.” Patience is very powerful. Instant gains are usually quickly lost. Things that matter take time. Patience is the first virtue mentioned in the Great Love Verse, 1 Cor 13:4 – “Love is patient and kind....”

16. Proverbs 25:26 – “Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.” Jesus is the Pure, Live Giving, Living Water. Always let His pure water flow through you to others by remaining faithfully obedient and pure.

17. Psalm 35:10 -- "All my bones shall say, 'O LORD, who is like you, delivering the poor from him who is too strong for him, the poor and needy from him who robs him?'" The Lord reveals Himself in our lives by doing what we cannot do for ourselves. Trusting in God is trusting beyond ourselves, relying on the character and strength of God rather than our own. Do you have the faith to do that?

18. Psalm 36:11 -- "Let not the foot of arrogance come upon me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away." The psalmist's fear was his own tendency towards pride and arrogance that opened the door to temptation and sin. So, the psalmist prayed for protection from arrogance. Are you praying likewise?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 25 March: Today, figure out what percentage of your income you gave specifically in the name of Jesus, tithes, gifts, alms, etc. last year. Was it 10% or more? (Deuteronomy 14:22-29) Consider what your level of giving reveals about your heart and your faith.

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 24 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 11:1, 2, 8, 13, 16, 17, 18, 26-28 -- “You shall therefore love the Lord your God and keep his charge, his statutes, his rules, and his commandments always. And consider today.., consider the discipline of the Lord your God.... You shall therefore keep the whole commandment that I command you today.... And if you will indeed obey my commandments that I command you today, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.... Take care lest your heart be deceived... the anger of the Lord will be kindled against you.... You shall therefore lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and you shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.... See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse: the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the Lord your God, which I command you today, and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the Lord your God, but turn aside from the way that I am commanding you today.” We are saved by faith, not by works. Yet, God still demands obedience, still disciplines, still holds His people accountable for their actions, and still allows the natural consequences of sin to occur. His Name remains Holy. God does not desire for us to suffer the consequences of disobedience, and so He gives us clear warning. “Take care lest your heart be deceived.” Do you want to experience blessings or curses in life? In John 17, before His crucifixion, Jesus prayed for our “oneness” with Him. Sin hinders that oneness, it quenches the Spirit, grieves the Spirit, and gets us out of step with the Spirit. Our sin doesn’t separate us from the love of God, but it does rob us of the fullness of joy Jesus wants us to have in His love. God’s greatest commandment for us is love. Jesus said if you love Him, you will obey Him. 1 Timothy 1:5 says, “The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.” Love emanates from 1) a pure heart, 2) a good conscience, and 3) a sincere faith. Sin, all sin, is unloving. One last time: Deuteronomy 11:1 – “You shall therefore love the LORD your God and keep his charge, his statutes, his rules, and his commandments always.” To love God is to obey Him.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

2. Deuteronomy 11:8 – ““You shall therefore keep the whole commandment that I command you today.” Partial obedience is disobedience.

3. Deuteronomy 11:13 -- “And if you will indeed obey my commandments that I command you today, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, he will give the rain for your land in its season.” Most people today would consider it absurd for you to believe that natural occurrences or that seemingly random circumstances were actually orchestrated by God to bless or to punish, but the Bible says that God punishes nations with weather, foreign armies, corrupt governments, financial crisis, plaques, etc. The same God and made and controls the natural laws to reflect His character also made the moral laws to reflect His character and His requirements. Defying either set of laws has devastating consequences.

4. Deuteronomy 11:16, 18-20 – “Take care lest your heart be deceived.... You shall therefore lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and you shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall teach them to your children, talking of them when you are sitting in your house, and when you are walking by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.” The word of God is our best defense against deception. Not only must we be continuously immersed in it, we must be careful to teach our children who are easily deceived and who need to be grounded in the word at an early age. God calls all Christians to think not just about the next generation but about many generations to come.

5. Deuteronomy 11:26 -- “See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse.” Obedience is your choice, but consequences belong to God – you do not choose your consequences. Obey God and be blessed.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. Deuteronomy 12:19 – “Take care that you do not neglect the Levite as long as you live in your land.” The Levites were not given an inheritance of land that they would be fully dedicated to their roles of spiritual leadership. Therefore, they depended economically on the faithfulness of the people. We will read later, unfortunately, that the people do end up neglecting the Levites. Of course, God knew that would happen, but He called the Levites into their dependent positions nonetheless. God is faithful when no one else is. He calls us to reflect His character by making our fidelity unconditional too. Love others who don’t love you back. Forgive the unforgiving. Give to the ungrateful. Display the love and faithfulness of Jesus. It won’t be easy, but it will be joyous if you are motivated by love.

7. Deuteronomy 12:2-3 – God wants you to remove every obstacle to total devotion to Him.

8. Deuteronomy 12:10-11 – God wants to give you rest and joy which comes from obediently following Him.

9. Deuteronomy 12:30 – Victories bring new temptations. Be careful not to become prideful. God has a plan to remove all pride from your life. Notice in the Bible that God allows people to fail in their strength areas in order to humble them, to help them see their total dependence on God’s grace. Abraham was known for his faith, but he lied about his wife being his sister and had Ishmael with Hagar. Moses was the humblest man of his day, but his pride and anger kept him out of the Promised Land. David was known for his integrity, but then Bathsheba. Solomon was known for his wisdom, but he destroyed the kingdom and ended his day writing of his woes in Ecclesiastes. Peter, known for his courage, denied Jesus three times. You get the point. Our best will never be good enough. God will tear down our pride idols so that we can learn to rest in Him and Him alone.

10. Deuteronomy 12:29, 30 – “When the Lord your God cuts off before you the nations whom you go in to dispossess, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land, take care that you be not ensnared to follow them.” Christians, living as ambassadors for Christ in a foreign land, must be very, very careful not to conform to the morals and habits of society. In most matters, the faithful Christian will stand in stark contrast to the general population, as a bright light. But the unfaithful Christian will look and act like the world around them.

11. Proverbs 24:1 -- “Be not envious of evil men, nor desire to be with them, for their hearts devise violence, and their lips talk of trouble.” Be very careful who you admire, who you seek to emulate, who you partner with, and who you befriend. Don’t let personality, popularity, prestige, talent, or skill blind you to the character flaws in others. If Jesus isn’t the center of their life and their priority, they will lead you astray. How many times have you heard a Christian say about an ungodly friend, “...but (s)he is really nice.”? “Do not be deceived: “Bad company ruins good morals.” (1 Cor 15:33) 1 Timothy 1:5 says, “The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.” A person with an impure heart, a guilty conscience and an insincere faith cannot love you as you would desire, no matter how fun or interesting they are to be around for a time.

12. Proverbs 24:5 -- “A wise man is full of strength, and a man of knowledge enhances his might.” Intellectual strength is greater than physical strength; emotional strength is greater than intellectual and physical strength; and spiritual strength is greater than them all.

13. Proverbs 24:10 -- “If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.” Strength is developed over time when you don’t need it but revealed when you do need it. If you didn’t invest in your strength during peace, you won't have it when you need it in crisis. When your faith is tested, then you will reveal how much you have invested in personal spiritual development.

14. Proverbs 24:11, 12 -- "Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter. If you say, 'Behold, we did not know this,' does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will he not repay man according to his work?" God has given you the responsibility to intervene in the lives of those around you to help keep them from the destructiveness of sin. If you do nothing, God will hold you accountable.

15. Proverbs 24:16 -- "...for the righteous falls seven times and rises again, but the wicked stumble in times of calamity." The righteous fall too, but their response glorifies God by revealing His strength in them.

16. Proverbs 24:17, 18 -- "Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles, lest the Lord see it and be displeased, and turn away his anger from him." If want those who in some way offend you to "get what's coming to them," you have lost sight of the grace you have received and have made the Cross a small thing; you have denied your mission of reconciliation; and you have placed yourself in opposition to God.

17. Proverbs 24:19 -- "Fret not yourself because of evildoers, and be not envious of the wicked." From the beginning of the Bible through the end, God warns us not to be concerned by or enamored with the ungodly -- treat people with the respect that they deserve, but fear and respect God first and foremost.

18. Proverbs 24:21, 22 -- "My son, fear the Lord and the king, and do not join with those who do otherwise, for disaster will arise suddenly from them, and who knows the ruin that will come from them both?" God expects you to obey the law, unless that law would cause you to disobey Him.

19. Proverbs 24:24, 25 -- "Whoever says to the wicked, 'You are in the right,' will be cursed by peoples, abhorred by nations, but those who rebuke the wicked will have delight, and a good blessing will come upon them." Do not compromise the truth simply to get along with others. Be willing to rebuke those who are wrong.

20. Proverbs 24:26 -- "Whoever gives an honest answer kisses the lips." The loving thing to do is to tell the truth in love -- this is "true love".

21. Proverbs 24:27 -- "Prepare your work outside; get everything ready for yourself in the field, and after that build your house." A biblical principle is to do the hard thing first. Always do what you have to do before what you want to do. This is a good rule to live by and helps avoid procrastination. Have you ever considered procrastination is unbiblical?

22. Proverbs 24:29 -- "Do not say, 'I will do to him as he has done to me; I will pay the man back for what he has done.'" Leave your personal justice to God. Be a minister of mercy and grace. As the recipient of mercy and grace, you have no right to do otherwise. Civic justice is another matter.

23. Proverbs 24:32 -- "Then I saw and considered it; I looked and received instruction." Be wise enough to learn from the mistakes of others rather than having to learn the hard way from your own bad decisions. Wisdom, in part, is understanding what you haven't personally experienced.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

24. Psalm 34:1 – “I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth.” Try doing this today and every day, regardless your apparent circumstances. Rejoice in the Lord is a command. As someone once said, “It is impossible to play a sad song on a banjo.” It is really hard to be miserable or to make other miserable if you are constantly, vocally praising God.

25. Psalm 34:3 – “Oh, magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together!” God wants you to worship in relationship, with other like-minded Christians, again, every day and continually.

26. Psalm 34:4, 5 – “I sought the Lord, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears. Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces shall never be ashamed.” You must seek the Lord from your heart to get the answers for which you are seeking, and when you experience the Lord, you will live life with an obvious joy. If you are not radiant, there is a reason.

27. Psalm 34:13, 14 – “Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit. Turn away from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.” Following God and remaining close to God includes changing what you look at, what you think, what you say, and what you do.

28. Psalm 34:15-17 – “The eyes of the LORD are toward the righteous and his ears toward their cry. The face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth. When the righteous cry for help, the LORD hears and delivers them out of all their troubles.” God does play favorites.

29. Psalm 34:18 – “The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit.” Relationship with God requires constant humility.

30. Psalm 34:19-22 – “Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all.... Affliction will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned. The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.” Everyone goes through life’s afflictions, but God delivers and saves the Christian while all who reject Jesus are ultimately destroyed and condemned.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 24 March: Consider what remains in your life that might be limiting your total devotion to God and eliminate it. Remove the idols from your life. (Deuteronomy 12)

DBRP- WEEK 12, Day 5, Friday, 23 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Deut+9%2C+10%3B+proverbs+23%3B+mark+4>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 23 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 9:1, 2 -- God's purpose doesn't include many easy tasks. Are you ready to be challenged for God's glory?

2. Deuteronomy 9:2 – “Who can stand before the sons of Anak?” Anak and his sons were Nephilim (Numbers 13:33), giant, ungodly people. “The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of man and they bore children to them. These were the mighty men who were of old, the men of renown.” (Genesis 6:4) Goliath, who was from Gath (one of the towns of the Anakim – see Joshua 11:21, 22) might have been one of the Nephilim. The Nephilim had been feared throughout history, but God warned His people to not fear what everyone else had feared throughout the generations. What seemingly reasonable but limiting fears have been passed down to you, from generation to generation? If you remain in God's will, you have nothing to fear. The apparent size of your 'giants' are irrelevant.

3. Deuteronomy 9:3 -- You can do anything God tells you to do because He will empower you. It is when you are operating outside His will that you have reason to be concerned.

4. Deuteronomy 9:4-6 -- We deserve none of God's blessings and can take no credit for our successes. We can only rejoice in and proclaim God's mercy and grace.

5. Deuteronomy 9:20, 25, 26 -- "And the Lord was so angry with Aaron that he was ready to destroy him. And I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.... So I lay prostrate before the Lord for these forty days and forty nights, because the Lord had said he would destroy you. And I prayed to the Lord, 'O Lord God, do not destroy your people and your heritage, whom you have redeemed through your greatness, whom you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.'" Aaron and the Israelites made Moses' life miserable due to their stubborn sinfulness, and they incited Moses to sin enough to keep him out of the Promised Land, yet Moses never stopped praying for them and interceding on their behalf before God. Is that what you do for those who make your life hard, those who never seem to change? Who have you continued to pray for over the last 40 years?

6. Deuteronomy 10:12, 13 -- "What does the Lord your God require of you, but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments and statutes of the Lord, which I am commanding you today for your good?" Love and daily obedience go hand-in-hand.

7. Deuteronomy 10:15, 16 -- "Yet the Lord set his heart in love on your fathers and chose their offspring after them, you above all peoples, as you are this day. Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stubborn." The meritless love God has shown you should compel you to love and obedience. Surrender to God's love.

8. Deuteronomy 10:19 -- "Love the sojourner, therefore, for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt." With a grateful heart, love others the way God has loved you.

9. Deuteronomy 10:21 -- "He is your praise. He is your God, who has done for you these great and terrifying things that your eyes have seen." Is the reality of God in your life so great that He is your praise? Is Jesus what you are excited about and talking about most?

10. Proverbs 23:4 -- "Do not toil to acquire wealth; be discerning enough to desist." Acquiring too much wealth can be a sign of a lack of faith in God's future provision and only leads to needless suffering. Acquiring excessive wealth is also evidence that a person has failed to meet God's commandments of love and has failed to understand their God-given mission in life:

- Luke 12:13-21 -- And he said to them, "Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions." And he told them a parable, saying, "The land of a rich man produced plentifully, and he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?' And he said, 'I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry."' But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So is the one who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."

11. Proverbs 23:4 -- "Do not toil to acquire wealth; be discerning enough to desist." The first test for God's people was whether or not they would honor the Sabbath.

12. Proverbs 23:10, 11 -- "Do not move an ancient landmark or enter the fields of the fatherless, for their Redeemer is strong; he will plead their cause against you." Jesus protects the weak. When people work against the weak, they are challenging Jesus.

13. Proverbs 23:13, 14 -- "Do not withhold discipline from a child; if you strike him with a rod, he will not die. If you strike him with the rod, you will save his soul from Sheol." God disciplines you to keep you from destruction. Be grateful for His discipline.

14. Proverbs 23:22 -- "Listen to your father who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old." God's plan is for a man and woman, a father and mother, to raise up godly children. A man and a woman each represent different attributes of God. They are made intentionally different. Together, as one, they provide balanced life direction to the next generation.

15. Mark 4: 10 -- "And when he was alone, those around him with the twelve asked him about the parables." Get alone with Jesus so He can teach you.

16. Mark 4:11, 12 -- " And he said to them, 'To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but for those outside everything is in parables, so that 'they may indeed see but not perceive, and may indeed hear but not understand, lest they should turn and be forgiven.'" Only through the Holy Spirit can you truly understand the word of God. Humans cannot naturally understand the Kingdom. They need God's revelation.

17. Mark 4:18-21 -- "'And others are the ones sown among thorns. They are those who hear the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold.' And he said to them, 'Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket, or under a bed, and not on a stand?'" I pray that the worries of the world won't keep us from keeping "the main thing the main thing," won't cause us to neglect the Great Commission, won't cause us to get distracted and miss our life's purpose. I pray that we won't put our lamp under a basket for sake of career or sociability. I pray that every one of us will bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold. If the world around us is very dark, it might be that our light is not very bright.

18. Mark 4:41 -- "And they were filled with great fear." Nothing was more fearful to the disciples than the power of Jesus. If you don't have a healthy fear (respect and awe) of the Lord, it is because you haven't experienced Him as you ought. Walk with Jesus by abiding in His word, and watch Him work in a way that overwhelms you.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 23 March: Dedicate one hour today to solitude with Jesus. (Mark 4:10)

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Deut+7%2C+8%3B+proverbs+22%3B+mark+3>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 22 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 7:2 -- "...you must devote them to complete destruction." God does not compromise with sin. When God forgives you and frees you from sin, He expects you to completely remove that sin from your life; this involves removing, as much as possible, those things in your life that would tempt you to sin. You might actually need to turn that TV off. You might have to choose Christian friends. You might have to limit your social media viewing. You might have to change habits in your life that you know are destructive. None of it is hard to do, but sometimes your divided heart makes these things seem impossible. The jelly doughnut doesn't cause you to break your diet; it is the desire within you that does. Until you get better control of your desires, don't bring home the jelly doughnut. When you get control of your desires, you no longer want to bring home the jelly doughnut.
2. Deuteronomy 7:3, 4 -- "You shall not intermarry with them, giving your daughters to their sons or taking their daughters for your sons, for they would turn away your sons from following me, to serve other gods. Then the anger of the Lord would be kindled against you, and he would destroy you quickly." The purpose of marriage is to raise up godly children. (Malachi 2:15) Since a person's primary purpose in life is to know Jesus (be one with Him) and make Him known (John 17), since the marriage is intended to represent to the world Christ's love for His church, since God calls a man and woman to be "one" in marriage, and since the marriage is to serve as God's primary institution for discipleship of the next generation, a Christian must marry a person who will partner with them wholeheartedly, in mutual support, to know Jesus, make Him known, and to raise up godly children.
3. Deuteronomy 7:6-8 -- "For you are a people holy to the Lord your God. The Lord your God has chosen you to be a people for his treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth. It was not because you were more in number than any other people that the Lord set his love on you and chose you, for you were the fewest of all peoples, but it is because the Lord loves you." God chose you to be holy, not because of who you were but because He loves you. So, in response to His unmerited love, be holy.
4. Deuteronomy 7:9, 8:6, 8:11 -- "Know therefore that the Lord your God is God.... So you shall keep the commandments of the Lord your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him.... Take care lest you forget the Lord your God by not keeping his commandments and his rules and his statutes." Notice how much emphasis the Bible places on the criticality of obeying God's commands, a mandate repeated over and over again. God knows our weaknesses and gives us clear guidance and direction, along with the power of the Holy Spirit to overcome sin. We give in to temptation and sin when our "Yes" is bigger than our "No", when the thing in front of us is bigger, more real, more powerful in our minds than the awesome reality and power of God. At the moment of decision, we make God small, insignificant, irrelevant, distant, or non-existent. We dethrone the LORD and worship the idol of our passions. For at least a moment, we forget God. The last "fruit of the Spirit" is self-control which comes from the reality of Christ in our lives. The power of self-control comes from truly knowing that the Lord our God IS God, from truly knowing Jesus, by glorifying (magnifying) Him in our hearts, by making Jesus bigger than any temptation or idol out there. We must walk in the Spirit, not in the flesh, practicing the presence of God. We must truly understand the implications of having the Spirit within us, of being the Temple of God. You are holy ground. God's love is not determined by our obedience, but our obedience reveals our love for Him. God knows we are not perfected in love, and gives us His commands, in part, to reveal to us

(not to Him – He already knows) where our hearts are still not right. God's commands are intended to draw you closer to Him, not further away. Grace enables us to fail forward, always confident in God's unchanging love for us.

5. Deuteronomy 7:13 -- "He will love you, bless you, and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your wine and your oil, the increase of your herds and the young of your flock, in the land that he swore to your fathers to give you." Blessings are the natural result of obedience to God.

6. Deuteronomy 7:21 -- "You shall not be in dread of them, for the Lord your God is in your midst, a great and awesome God." One of the most, if not the most, repeated commands in the Bible is, "Don't be afraid." Fear is the opposite of faith. Without faith, it is impossible to please God.

7. Deuteronomy 7:22 -- "The Lord your God will clear away these nations before you little by little. You may not make an end of them at once, lest the wild beasts grow too numerous for you." The challenges you are experiencing are there for a bigger reason you cannot understand, working together for good (Romans 8:28). Trust God's plan through personal crisis. When life gets hard, get closer to Jesus, and keep your spiritual eyes open. God is doing something big in your life.

8. Deuteronomy 7:25 -- "The carved images of their gods you shall burn with fire." God does not respect other religions, nor should you. Yes, we treat people with respect, and respect a person's right to have a viewpoint, but we don't respect false claims. We should always treat everyone with love, but that doesn't mean we placate false narratives from false gospels. If you truly love someone, you must speak the truth to them in love.

9. Deuteronomy 8:2 -- "And you shall remember the whole way that the Lord your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not." God uses challenges to test your heart, not that He doesn't know your heart (He knows it through and through) but so that the truth of your heart would be revealed to you. When faced with challenges, examine your heart from the integrity of your behavior. Do you act less loving when you are stressed? Do you become more selfish when resources seem limited? God wants you to see the truth of you so that you can grow to be more like Jesus and closer to Him. You cannot fix what you refuse to see; honesty with self and with others (humility) is the first step to change.

10. Deuteronomy 8:3 -- "And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord." With grace, God gives you Holy Spirit power that you did not have before to empower change. When we see the truth of our sin, we can rejoice knowing that we are no longer trapped by our sin, that God gives us the power to change, supernatural power, far beyond mere will power. Ultimately, you cannot change yourself. Though you must work to change, it is the Holy Spirit within you that enables change.

11. Deuteronomy 8:5 -- "Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the Lord your God disciplines you." Often, God is using circumstances to discipline you, to show you something you refused to see merely through reading, understanding, and applying His clear word. For example, if you simply refuse to obey God's clear command to forgive unconditionally, He may place you in a situation where you need unconditional forgiveness.

12. Deuteronomy 8:11-13 -- "Take care lest you forget the Lord your God by not keeping his commandments and his rules and his statutes, which I command you today, lest, when you have eaten and are full and have built good houses and live in them, and when your herds and flocks multiply and your silver and gold is multiplied and all that you have is multiplied." Christians are tested through hard times, but perhaps tested even more through easy times. We can turn blessings into curses through complacency and disobedience. Do you pray to God more during hard times than good times? Do you grow closer to God through hard times than good times? If so, perhaps God needs to keep you in difficult circumstances for you to accomplish your life purpose of knowing Jesus and being one with Him. If you want good times, be reliable in good times.

13. Deuteronomy 8:17, 18 -- "Beware lest you say in your heart, 'My power and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth.' You shall remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your fathers, as it is this day." A very common mistake made by Christians is growing prideful in God's blessings. When you succeed, don't think it is because of how great you are. Don't take any credit for your accomplishments -- always point to Jesus.

14. Proverbs 22:7 -- "The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is the slave of the lender." God does not want His people to be enslaved by debt.

15. Proverbs 22:9 -- "Whoever has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor." God blesses the giver -- it's a promise.

16. Proverbs 22:9, 16 -- How many times does the Bible tell you to take care of the needy?

17. Proverbs 22:11 -- Gracious speech is the mark of a pure heart.

18. Proverbs 22:26 -- Avoid getting entangled in commitments to the ungodly. Don't make promises you cannot keep.

19. Mark 3:4 -- "And he said to them, 'Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to kill?' But they were silent." Since you have just read in Deuteronomy (the book most quoted by Jesus) about the Sabbath, you understand that the intent of the Sabbath was to stop work to acknowledge in faith that God was the provider. It was not intended for a day to stop serving others or ministering to their needs. A day of not working for self gives you even more time to simply love God and others.

20. Mark 3:14 -- "And he appointed twelve (whom he also named apostles) so that they might be with him and he might send them out to preach." We are not called to simply know Jesus, we are also called to make Him known to others.

21. Mark 3:30 -- "And when his family heard it, they went out to seize him, for they were saying, 'He is out of his mind.'" Does your family think you are crazy because of your love and fidelity to Jesus? Are you a Jesus fan or a Jesus fanatic?

22. Mark 3:33-35 -- "'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking about at those who sat around him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers! For whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother.” The real children of God are the ones who do the will of God, who remain faithful and obedient in thought, word, and deed. What you think, desire, and do reveals who you really are. Anyone can say they are a Christian, but God knows the heart, and actions reveal the truth of the heart.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 22 March: Today, clean house. Eliminate from your life the things that are unholy or impure -- the things that might misrepresent God's character and truth or that might tempt you to sin. Set the conditions in your life for fidelity and holiness. If you are like most today, you will have to change your habits of entertainment. (Deuteronomy 7:2)

DBRP- WEEK 12, Day 3, Wednesday, 21 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Deut+5%2C+6%3B+proverbs+21%3B+mark+2>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 21 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 5:1 -- "And Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, 'Hear, O Israel, the statutes and the rules that I speak in your hearing today, and you shall learn them and be careful to do them.'" Hear them, learn them, and then carefully do them. Some don't hear; some don't learn; and some don't do. Your job on earth is to first, obey by doing what you have heard and learned. Solomon's conclusion from life sums it up: "The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man." (Ecclesiastes 12:13) Salvation is not through the Law but through faith. In fact, the Law reveals our need for grace. However, the Law nonetheless reflects the character of God, and we glorify God in obedience. Whereas obedience was once motivated by a sense of fear or duty, it should more and more be motivated by genuine love for the Lord.

- Psalm 119:30 -- I have chosen the way of faithfulness; I set your rules before me.

- Psalm 119:60 -- I hasten and do not delay to keep your commandments.

- John 14:15 -- "If you love me, you will keep my commandments."

- John 14:31 -- But I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go from here.

- 1 John 5:3 -- For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.

- John 3:36 -- Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

- Luke 6:46 -- "Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell you?"

- Acts 5:29 -- But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men."

- 1 John 3:24 -- Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God, and God in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- James 1:22-25 -- But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.

2. Deuteronomy 5:2 – “The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. Not with our fathers did the Lord make this covenant, but with us, who are all of us here alive today.” God’s commands are for you, and He will hold you accountable. It is personal, between Him and you. None of God’s commands are outdated. He met you where you were, and now He expects you to obey. This is not about salvation but about sanctification. You are God’s child. Children are supposed to grow and mature. Parents discipline their children in order to mature them. Better to have discipline than to need to be disciplined. Obedience is a product of love. We are not perfected in love or obedience, but this should be our pursuit.

3. Deuteronomy 5:2, 3 -- "The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. Not with our fathers did the LORD make this covenant, but with us, who are all of us here alive today." Faith is not passed down from one generation to the next, nor is relationship. Faith, hope, love, and obedience is a personal matter. God speaks to you personally, and you must choose how you will respond.

4. Deuteronomy 5:7, 6:5 -- “You shall have no other gods before me.... You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.” All other commandments rest on this foundation: Love God completely and let nothing hinder that total love. Obeying all the other commands from the wrong heart or wrong motives is still disobedience and, perhaps, a more dangerous form of disobedience than obvious sin because these “deeds” breed pride and convince the practitioner their self-righteousness has made them truly united with God. God is love; unity can only come through love, not mere deeds. So, you didn’t lie, cheat, or steal – why? What was the motivation? Was it fear of punishment? Was it to get some sort of blessing or reward? Was it to be honorable before men, to have a good reputation? Was it to make your family proud? Was it merely out of a sense of obligation? These are defiled sacrifices at the altar (Malachi 1:6-14), certainly nothing to brag about. Fortunately, the perfect sacrifice was provided for us so that we do not have to humiliate ourselves with our pathetic offerings, so that we can have intimate relationship with “Daddy” despite our wicked hearts. Now we are free to grow into love without fear. Certainly, we must strive with all of our might to obey all of God’s commands, but those commands must be truly on our hearts rather than just in our minds and in our actions. As long as our goal is blessings rather than the One who blesses, we are missing the mark (sinning). If there were no reward at all but merely the sufferings of Job to look forward to, would you still love and obey God just the same? Humbling to consider. “And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.” (Deuteronomy 6:6)

5. Deuteronomy 5:8 -- “You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.” The Glory of God is unfathomable. The moment we think we can shape or mold God from our perceptions or imagination, we have committed an unthinkable act of presumption, have greatly insulted the Almighty, and having greatly limited God in our minds. Subconsciously, we begin to focus on the image we have created of God rather than the True Almighty in all His Wonder. As innocent as it might seem, the carved image is our feeble attempt to bring God down to our level, to worship Him on our terms. Have you missed the fact that when people attempt to paint or carve images of God, the created object usually looks like the artist? Someone once said, "In the beginning, God created man, and man has been trying to create God ever since. You may never have created an image of God, but also be careful not to limit God from the perspective of your own understanding, by what you have personally experienced, or by what you can see, touch, smell, taste, or hear. The created thing can never completely understand that which created it. God is Spirit and must be worshiped in Spirit. God's commands protect His character from the deceptive thoughts of people.

6. Deuteronomy 5:8 – "I the Lord your God am a jealous God." God's character does not change. Oprah Winfrey made headlines when she said that she stopped believing in God when she read this verse. She doesn't (or didn't) understand that God knows that He is what we ultimately need for total joy and peace; He is the source of love; He is the source of order; He is the source of justice. In love and justice, He cannot tolerate anything that would further drive what He loves away from Him. God's jealousy is not like man's jealousy. God's jealousy is perfectly loving and just, and only seeks our very best interest. Be very grateful your God is a jealous God.

7. Deuteronomy 5:11 "You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain." Similar to Deuteronomy 5:8, this verse warns that we must never make light of God, to speak of Him in a casual sense. The thought of God's Holiness and Majesty should leave us undone, totally overwhelmed. To use the Name of God carelessly is to depreciate the LORD. Do you understand who you are talking about?

8. Deuteronomy 5:12, 15 -- "Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you.... You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day." Much like tithes, offerings, and gifts, the Sabbath makes no sense from the human perspective -- a whole day of being totally unproductive. Imagine how the Israelites must have felt about the Sabbath day while living in the desert where food and water was hard to acquire. When God commanded the Sabbath, he reminded His people of His provision. The Sabbath day is a weekly choice to acknowledge that God is in control, not us; that our survival and success depends on Him, not on our own efforts; that we trust Him rather than in our own abilities. It is more than a day off from work, it is an act of faith and a proclamation of faith before the world. Deuteronomy 5:14, 15 -- "...that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm." God knows that you need rest and that you need to be reminded that your provision comes from Him, not from your efforts. He also knows that He has to make you rest through a command. Also, He expects you to enable others to rest. So, you taking the Sabbath means that others will too. If no one went to restaurants on Sunday, restaurant employees would be forced to take that day off. Also, everyone would know that God was the source of that rest. Some believe that the Sabbath is no longer something God expects because Jesus "fulfilled" the Law. However, I would be willing to bet that you are not getting your rest, allowing others to get their rest, or glorifying God as well as you could if everyone knew you didn't work on Sunday.

-- Nehemiah 13:19-20 -- "As soon as it began to grow dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut and gave orders that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. And I stationed some of my servants at the gates, that no load might be brought in on the Sabbath day. Then the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice. But I warned them and said to them, "Why do you lodge outside the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath. Then I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves and come and guard the gates, to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember this also in my favor, O my God, and spare me according to the greatness of your steadfast love." What a powerful international testimony. Israel was the cross-roads of trade within the global region. When the Israelites honored the Sabbath, all trade stopped. Everyone knew why – God's people were honoring God.

9. Deuteronomy 5:16 -- "Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God commanded you, that your days may be long, and that it may go well with you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you." The most important earthly institution established by God is the family, and God has given special responsibility and authority to family. The purpose of marriage is to raise up Godly children (Malachi 2:15), and God has built His Kingdom on earth from families. God also said that the marriage is the earthly model of Christ's love for the church. God intends for both parents and children to learn about obedience to authority through the family. The family is the school house for character development. A person who doesn't respect and honor their parents (despite their imperfections) is a dishonorable person.

10. Deuteronomy 5:17-21 -- "You shall not murder. And you shall not commit adultery. And you shall not steal. And you shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. And you shall not covet your neighbor's wife." The majority of the Ten Commandments (six of ten) deal with how we treat others. We love God primarily through loving others. Christians should be masters of love. Jesus said that if you love Him, you will obey His commandments, and His primary commandment is to love others. How you treat others reveals how much you really love God.

11. Deuteronomy 5:29 -- "Oh that they had such a heart as this always, to fear me and to keep all my commandments, that it might go well with them and with their descendants forever!" Religious moments in your life will not bring you joy, peace, and fulfillment. We cannot simply court God, we must be married to Him and totally faithful to Him. The Bible describes disobedience as spiritual adultery.

12. Deuteronomy 5:32, 33 -- "You shall be careful therefore to do as the Lord your God has commanded you. You shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. You shall walk in all the way that the Lord your God has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may go well with you, and that you may live long in the land that you shall possess." Salvation is a free gift from God that cannot be earned, but it must be taken and then used to obey Him. Obedience is our opportunity to experience the joy of God. God only wants the very best for you, but you must do what He says to have the very best. This is not hard to understand. Why throw away God's gifts for you through disobedience?

13. Deuteronomy 6:2 -- "...that you may fear the LORD your God, you and your son and your son's son, by keeping all his statutes and his commandments, which I command you." Proverbs 9:10 says, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight." We learn to fear the Lord and to know Him by obeying His commands, even if we don't understand the "why" behind them and even if we have not yet obtained the wholehearted desire to follow them. Obedience shapes your character to learn to love and appreciate God. Obedience also protects you from what you don't yet understand. As we grow in love more and more, obedience goes from being easier and easier to being something we truly want to do from the heart, regardless of how hard or easy it is. When we are truly motivated by love, we no longer need to be commanded to do what God wants because it is what we want; the Law does not end; it is just no longer needed to keep us on path. Jesus did not abolish the Law; He just fulfilled it. It wasn't an issue for Him because He was one with the Father.

14. Deuteronomy 6:4-8 -- "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes." All that you are must be focused on loving and serving God in them moment. Parents must model this and discuss this with their children continuously. How focused are you on Jesus today, loving Him, serving Him, and proclaiming Him in all that you do?

15. Deuteronomy 6:6-9 -- "And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates." You must love God to obey Him, but your love for Him grows as you work to obey Him. When you obey out of a sense of duty, you learn to obey out of love. You must teach kids to learn how to love God by teaching them to first obey. Disciples learn discipline. Disciple your children first.

16. Deuteronomy 6:16, 17 -- "You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested him at Massah. You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies and his statutes, which he has commanded you." Don't take God's grace for granted and be complacent in your fidelity. You have been forgiven that you might be renewed to a right relationship with God, not so that you could continue to disgrace the Name of Christ through bad behavior.

17. Proverbs 21:1 -- "The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of the Lord; he turns it wherever he will." God uses all leaders for His purposes, to bless or discipline people. If you don't like your leadership, ask yourself why God allowed them to lead.

18. Proverbs 21:17 -- "Whoever loves pleasure will be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil will not be rich." Too many Christians are in debt, have no savings, fail to tithe, and fail to give generously to others because they buy things they should never buy in the pursuit of comfort, entertainment, and prestige.

19. Proverbs 21:30 -- "No wisdom, no understanding, no counsel can avail against the Lord." Our society is full of all sorts of secular humanist theories that purport to explain and offer solutions to mankind's problems. However, without Jesus as the solution, they are all just complicated lies, false gospels, anti-Christ. Some Christians have been tempted to merge these theories into Christian doctrine, replacing clean living water with muddy water trampled by men. Others have tried to turn the Bible into a self-help book that competes with these other theories. However, the goal of the Bible is not earthly comfort or success. The goal is knowing Jesus and being one with the Father and the Son. (see John 17)

20. Mark 2:10, 11 -- "But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—he said to the paralytic— 'I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home.'" The purpose of healing, charity, and ministry is not mainly to take care of temporary temporal needs but rather to proclaim the Gospel in authority. Don't just help people with their immediate needs. Address their eternal spiritual needs by proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

21. Mark 2:15 – “And as he reclined at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who followed him.” Many seek to justify their continued sin by saying that Jesus hung out with sinners. However, Jesus was not just hanging out with sinners, He was fellowshiping the repentant sinners that had committed to following Him. There is a big difference.

22. Mark 2:27, 28 – “And he said to them, ‘The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. So the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.’” Again, God knows we need the Sabbath.

23. Mark 2:9 -- “Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Rise, take up your bed and walk’?” Even unbelievers, for selfish reasons, can preach the gospel from a knowledge of the Bible, but the power of God revealed in the life of the messenger validates the messenger and confirms the Truth of God.

24. Mark 2:20 -- “The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.” Jesus anticipated the church would fast until his return. Is fasting a part of your prayer life?

25. Mark 2:23, 24 -- “One Sabbath he was going through the grainfields, and as they made their way, his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. And the Pharisees were saying to him, ‘Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?’” How do you treat other people when you are famished? How do you treat people who criticize you when you are starving, really tired, sick, pressured, or when you are just having a really tough day? Jesus and his disciples were so hungry, having invested everything they had in service to others, that they were plucking heads of grain to eat -- a lot of work for very little food, something poor people would do. It was that moment that the Pharisees, who lived luxurious lives in their lack of service to others, criticized Jesus and His disciples. How would you have responded? Jesus, the embodiment of love, responds calmly with God's word, seeking to teach and positively influence his attackers. Jesus modelled conflict management for us.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 21 March: Treat the Pharisees in your life as Jesus did -- See comments above on Mark 2:23, 24

DBRP- WEEK 12, Day 2, Tuesday, 20 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Deut+3%2C+4%3B+proverbs+20%3B+mark+1>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 20 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 3:18, 19 – “All your men of valor shall cross over armed before your brothers, the people of Israel. Only your wives, your little ones, and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall remain in the cities that I have given you....” God’s plan did not use women and children for battle. Not only were they more vulnerable, they were the source of future generations.

2. Deuteronomy 3:21, 22 – “Your eyes have seen all that the Lord your God has done to these two kings. So will the Lord do to all the kingdoms into which you are crossing. You shall not fear them, for it is the Lord your God who fights for you.” How can you have fear if God Almighty is with you, doing the fighting for you? It takes faith to believe in what we cannot see and completely understand. We do not have ‘blind faith.’ Our trust and hope are based upon what God has already done and continues to do. He has always proven Himself faithful.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

3. Deuteronomy 3:24 – “O Lord God, you have only begun to show your servant your greatness and your mighty hand.” Do you have this sort of excited expectation of what God is going to do next in your life?

4. Deuteronomy 3:28 – “But charge Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, for he shall go over at the head of this people, and he shall put them in possession of the land that you shall see.” God called Moses to prepare his replacement. Are you preparing the next generation to fulfill the Great Commandment and Great Commission in the next generation?

5. Deuteronomy 4:5 – “See, I have taught you statutes and rules, as the Lord my God commanded me, that you should do them in the land that you are entering to take possession of it.” Moses only taught what God had commanded him, nothing more and nothing less. He taught the people to obey. Jesus has given us the Great Commission – “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.” (Matthew 28:19-20) Obedience has always been central to God’s plan for His people. Is that what you are teaching others?

6. Deuteronomy 4:9 – “Only take care, and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things that your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life. Make them known to your children and your children’s children.” Fidelity not only requires great personal diligence but also a commitment to teach the next generation.

7. Deuteronomy 4:15 -- “Therefore watch yourselves very carefully. Since you saw no form on the day that the Lord spoke to you at Horeb out of the midst of the fire.” Living spiritually is not ‘natural’, it is ‘supernatural’, it is beyond the natural and beyond our six senses. We are called to be led by the Spirit, not our own understanding. However, we have a tendency to hang onto the natural, physical world and our own knowledge. We have a tendency to define God in a way that makes sense to us rather than conforming our senses to the ultimate reality of Him. We must be very careful not to plot our own course while telling ourselves that course is where God is leading us. We must be careful not to find an idol (a substitute for God) that seems to meet our temporal needs.

8. Deuteronomy 4:19 – “And beware lest you.... be drawn away and bow down to them and serve them, things that the Lord your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole heaven.” Your idols will control you. Following idols makes you unspiritual, just like all the unbelievers.

9. Deuteronomy 4:30 – “When you are in tribulation, and all these things come upon you in the latter days, you will return to the Lord your God and obey his voice.” God’s plan involves allowing you to learn from your own mistakes. You have to learn to choose Him and to be faithful to Him, casting out all substitutes.

10. Deuteronomy 4:35 – “To you it was shown, that you might know that the Lord is God; there is no other besides him. Out of heaven he let you hear his voice, that he might discipline you.” God gave you His commands, knows you will disobey them, and will discipline you that you will grow in Christ-like character. Do not despise the Lord’s discipline.

11. Proverbs 20:3 – “It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife, but every fool will be quarreling.” You only dishonor God and yourself (His ambassador) when you fight with others. A Christian should never quarrel. If you fight with others, you are seeing your own selfishness and self-centeredness being revealed. It is hard to defend yourself when you are dead, dead to self, crucified with Christ. Don’t convince yourself that you are only expressing “righteous anger,” unless you get absolutely nothing out of winning, and only Jesus is glorified.

12. Proverbs 20:4 – “The sluggard does not plow in the autumn; he will seek at harvest and have nothing.” Everything that matters in life is subject to the Principle of the Farm—you reap what you sow. You don’t get stronger, wiser, richer, more skilled, and more Christ-like unless you are willing to work hard every day for a future harvest. People always overestimate what they can do in a day and underestimate what they can do in a lifetime. Spend every day working your personal life farm in order of priority. If you aren’t first investing in Bible study and prayer, your priorities are out of order, and you will not end with the harvest you desired. There are no shortcuts on a farm.

13. Proverbs 20:11 -- “Even a child makes himself known by his acts, by whether his conduct is pure and upright.” Eventually, your actions will reveal what you really believe about God and how much you really love Him.

14. Proverbs 20:16 -- “Take a man’s garment when he has put up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for foreigners.” God wants us to protect others from themselves when we can.

15. Mark 1:8 – “I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.” God’s people are those who have the Holy Spirit.

16. Mark 1:12 – “The Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. And he was in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan. And he was with the wild animals, and the angels were ministering to him.” The Spirit knows you will be tested, but the Spirit does not leave you alone in temptation.

17. Mark 1:17, 18 -- “‘Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men.’ And immediately they left their nets and followed him.” We all have a choice to make: will we surrender our careers and lives to follow Him, or will we continue to seek what pagans pursue hoping that God will bless us while we subordinate His Kingdom agenda for the American dream? In Acts 28, we read that Paul worked in order support the spreading of the Gospel, sacrificing all in the process. We cannot serve both God and self. It’s time to leave the nets and follow. Surrendering your careers and live to the Lord does not mean to stop working and living. After all, God gave Adam a job before God gave him a helpmate; and then they worked together. There wasn’t a problem until Adam and Eve started working and living for self rather than for God. You were created to work for and glorify God in partnership with others, to love God in love relationship with others. In most cases throughout the Bible, when God called people to work for Him, to join Him in what He was doing, those people had to stop doing what they were doing in order to join Him and serve Him. Are you willing to go where God leads?

18. Mark 1:18 – “And immediately they left their nets and followed him.” Obedience is instantaneous. Jesus will call you out of your comfort zone, away from the plan you had for your life. You must be ready to “go” immediately, no looking back. The word immediately is used nine times in Mark 1.

19. Mark 1:23, 24 – “And immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, ‘What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?’” Sometimes the demons are more responsive to Jesus than we are. James says that the demons believe in Jesus and “shudder”, do you?

20. Mark 1:31 – “...she began to serve them.” A genuine encounter with God leads to service.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

21. Mark 1:35 – “And rising very early in the morning, while it was still dark, he departed and went out to a desolate place, and there he prayed.” For a while it became very popular for people to wear bracelets, shirts, and other clothing items with the acronym, “WWJD,” which stood for, “What would Jesus do?” The general idea was this message would be a visible reminder to help people stop and think at a point of decision, helping them choose to act more like Jesus rather than the way they normally would. The intent was good, but unfortunately, the visible reminder cannot make up for what should have been done before the point of decision. What would Jesus do? He would consistently, throughout his whole life, rise up early in the morning, while it is still dark, to pray. Is that what you habitually do? Do you want to experience Christian power without Christian disciplines? Let Jesus counsel you. Remember the Principle of the Farm mentioned above. What you do at the moment will be the product of what you did consistently before the moment. As Proverbs 24:10 says, “If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.” You will not trust the Jesus you don’t know that well. You will not obey the Jesus you don’t really trust. Dedicate the “first fruits” of your day to growing in your love and trust in Jesus so that you will be ready to obey when the time comes, and it is coming – today.

22. Mark 1:38 -- “Let us go on to the next towns, that I may preach there also, for that is why I came out.” Jesus did not lead small group in a comfortable living room with snacks and comfortable conversation about biblical ideas. He led them into the streets, one day at a time, and showed them how to spread the word. What do you do in your small group? How many people has your group ministered to, led to Christ, disciple?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 20 March: Don’t hesitate to preach the Gospel to others while you minister to their needs. Tell people about Jesus today. (Mark 1)

DBRP- WEEK 12, Day 1, Monday, 19 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Deut+1%2C+2%3B+proverbs+19%3B+acts+28>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 19 Mar 18:

1. Deuteronomy 1:3 – “Moses spoke to the people of Israel according to all that the Lord had given him in commandment to them.” Moses led the people by leading them in obedience to all of God’s commandments. This is what God called us to do in Matthew 28 (...teaching them to obey....). Are you fulfilling your calling on this earth? Your first leadership responsibility is leading yourself (which is actually following Jesus wholeheartedly); your next leadership responsibility is to your family, then within your church, then within your community and place of employment. Make sure you keep your priorities in order.

2. Deuteronomy 1:8 -- "See, I have given you this land. Go in and take possession of the land that the Lord swore he would give to your fathers...." Faith and obedience involve claiming God's promises.

3. Deuteronomy 1:11 – “May the Lord, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are and bless you, as he has promised you!” God’s first command to His people was to “be fruitful, multiply, and subdue the earth.” God wants His people to grow in numbers and godly influence within the world. Healthy churches grow in both numbers and in holiness, and healthy churches have a dramatic impact on their communities and nation. Healthy churches are built from healthy families. The church must disciple its members to be strong followers of Jesus, strong leaders within their families, strong church members, and strong community leaders.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Deuteronomy 1:12-15 – “How can I bear by myself the weight and burden of you and your strife? Choose for your tribes wise, understanding, and experienced men, and I will appoint them as your heads.’... So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and experienced men, and set them as heads over you, commanders of thousands, commanders of hundreds, commanders of fifties, commanders of tens, and officers, throughout your tribes.” Churches must organize for growth around a hierarchy of faithful leaders, down to small teams.

5. Deuteronomy 1:16, 17 -- “And I charged your judges at that time: Hear the disputes between your brothers and judge fairly, whether the case is between brother Israelites or between one of them and an alien. Do not show partiality in judging; hear both small and great alike. Do not be afraid of any man, for judgment belongs to God.” Justice is defined by God and applies to all equally. God’s justice supersedes all bias or preference.

6. Deuteronomy 1:17; Acts 28:30, 31 -- “You shall not be intimidated by anyone, for the judgment is God’s.... He lived there two whole years at his own expense, and welcomed all who came to him, proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.” I fear that the church has largely lost its voice, having surrendered much of its authority to execute its Great Commission. The average Christian now lacks the competence, confidence, and/or conviction to boldly proclaim Christ in the community. The world has told us that it is inappropriate and offensive to speak about Jesus in public, so we don’t much. We don’t want to cause problems that could threaten our comfort and security. In our political correctness, we have become offensive to no one but God. God not only gave us the Great Commission -- go into our respective communities and make disciples (disciplined followers of Christ), baptize them, and teach them to obey all the Jesus commanded (not some, but “all”) -- He also gave us the authority in His Name and the power (He is with us and in us). The daily priority for a Christian, the measure of a day’s success, should be the proclamation of the kingdom of God and the teaching of Jesus while serving as Christ’s Ambassador. Work merely provides the means to support the teaching so that the spreading the Gospel can be at our own expense. However, when work becomes the end rather than the ways and means, we lose sight of our actual mission. Too many Christians today are focused on productivity rather than effectiveness, replacing the Gospel for the American Dream. There are basically four motivations behind all that we do: fear, greed, duty, and finally love. The least honorable motivations are fear and greed; the greatest is love. Too often, we are motivated by fear over love – fear of failure, fear of men, fear of punishment. We need to return to our mission of reconciliation, motivated by love, empowered by the Holy Spirit. What I find most striking today is that as the church rapidly recedes and surrenders ground, while most Christians rarely use the name “Jesus Christ” in public, most Christians still feel that they are doing well.

7. Deuteronomy 1:26 -- “But you were unwilling to go up; you rebelled against the command of the Lord your God.” Courage is a choice not to be controlled by fear. Courage is the choice to live by faith rather than fear, to trust God at His word regardless of outward appearances. If a person chooses to surrender to fear, that is their choice. Fear is not an excuse for disobedience.

8. Deuteronomy 1:27 – “And you murmured in your tents and said, ‘Because the Lord hated us he has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to give us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.’” Your fear, greed, anger, and ungratefulness reveal what you really think of God and about God. Courage, forgiveness, generosity, and contentment are the product of trust, faith, hope, and love.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

9. Deuteronomy 1:30, 31 – “The Lord your God who goes before you will himself fight for you, just as he did for you in Egypt before your eyes, and in the wilderness, where you have seen how the Lord your God carried you, as a man carries his son, all the way that you went until you came to this place.” Have you trusted the Lord enough to experience Him fight for you and carry you? Has that experience increased your faith and obedience? You have to trust Him to experience His power in your life, and that experience should only increase your trust that you can experience even more.
10. Deuteronomy 1:36 -- "He will see it, and I will give him and his descendants the land he set his feet on, because he followed the Lord wholeheartedly." You cannot follow God partially -- it's all or nothing.
11. Deuteronomy 1:37 -- "Because of you the Lord became angry with me also and said, 'You shall not enter it, either.'" Even Moses, like Adam, had trouble accepting full responsibility for his own sin. No one can cause you to sin. You must acknowledge sin and accept full responsibility for your sin in order to grow spiritually and closer to Jesus day by day. This is the humility that comes before honor.
12. Deuteronomy 1:43 -- "So I told you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the Lord's command, and in your arrogance you marched up into the hill country." Arrogance can lead you to do what God never wanted to do. Just because you claim it is for Him doesn't mean He asked you to do it. If He is not behind it, it is meaningless and doomed.
13. Deuteronomy 1:45 -- "You came back and wept before the Lord, but he paid no attention to your weeping and turned a deaf ear to you." God knows the difference between true repentance and mere sorrow over being punished. Are you sorry because you suffered or sorry because you let your Lord down?
14. Deuteronomy 2:4 -- "They will be afraid of you. So be very careful." Fear can be a very dangerous thing in relationships, and the Christian must be the bigger person and rise above it, understanding potential fear induced responses from others.
15. Deuteronomy 2:7 -- "These forty years the LORD your God has been with you. You have lacked nothing." Trust in The Lord to make up for what others don't do for you.
16. Deuteronomy 2:19 -- "I will not give you any of the land of the people of Ammon as a possession, because I have given it to the sons of Lot for a possession." Remember that God is also caring for others, not just you. Be careful not to resent or covet God's gifts to others He hasn't given you.
17. Deuteronomy 2:30 -- "But Sihon the king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him, for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, that he might give him into your hand." God may allow conflict in your life for His purposes. He will not always reveal to you what He is doing, but often it is not mostly about you.
18. Proverbs 19:1 – “Better is a poor person who walks in his integrity than one who is crooked in speech and is a fool.” Satan is the father of lies. When your words are crooked or deceptive, you become an ambassador for Satan rather than Jesus.
19. Proverbs 19:2 – “Desire without knowledge is not good, and whoever makes haste with his feet misses his way.” You must have a plan for success, and you must have a plan for peace. “...those who plan peace have joy.” (Proverbs 12:20)

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

20. Proverbs 19:3 – “When a man’s folly brings his way to ruin, his heart rages against the LORD.” Don’t blame God for the consequences of your actions.

21. Proverbs 19:11 – “Good sense makes one slow to anger, and it is his glory to overlook an offense.” Do you respond to offenses in an honorable and glorifying way?

22. Proverbs 19:16 – “Whoever keeps the commandment keeps his life; he who despises his ways will die.” God’s grace will not always protect you from the consequences of your actions. God expects you to obey, particularly after having already received forgiveness.

23. Proverbs 19:21 – “Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the LORD that will stand.” If your plan is not God’s plan, you are wasting your time and effort. Apart from the counsel of the Holy Spirit, you can do nothing of value.

24. Proverbs 19:22 – “What is desired in a man is steadfast love, and a poor man is better than a liar.” Did you catch the only thing that is really desired of you? Did you catch that lies are always unloving and counter to your life purpose?

25. Acts 28:2 -- “The native people showed us unusual kindness, for they kindled a fire and welcomed us all, because it had begun to rain and was cold.” Christians don’t have a monopoly on hospitality. Don’t let the unbeliever outdo your kindness.

26. Acts 28:4 -- “Justice has not allowed him to live.” Even unbelievers have a sense of eternal justice. However, they don’t understand that justice can only come from God, the only Just One, the source of all justice and wisdom.

27. Acts 28:11 -- “After three months we set sail in a ship that had wintered in the island, a ship of Alexandria, with the twin gods as a figurehead.” God can use ungodly resources and systems to spread the Gospel. Paul was not overly offended by these figureheads because he knew they meant nothing at all. Pay no regard and give no credit to idols and superstitions. Remember, all power and authority on earth has been given to Jesus by the Father. That means that Satan has none.

28. Acts 28:14 -- “There we found brothers and were invited to stay with them for seven days.” God wants you to seek out fellow believers wherever you go. God wants you to care for and support fellow believers.

29. Acts 28:23 -- “From morning till evening he expounded to them, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets.” How hard are you willing to try to convince others about Jesus?

30. Acts 28:24 -- “And some were convinced by what he said, but others disbelieved.” Some will believe and some won’t. You are not called to do the sifting, just the preaching.

“Cross” Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 19 March: Go out of your way to find and fellowship with other Christian believers today. (Acts 28:14, 15)

DBRP- WEEK 11, Day 7, Sunday, 18 Mar 2018

Observations from today’s readings and today’s S-WOD, Tuesday, 18 Mar 18:

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

1. Numbers 35:2, 3 – “And you shall give to the Levites pasturelands around the cities. The cities shall be theirs to dwell in, and their pasturelands shall be for their cattle and for their livestock and for all their beasts.” The Levites were provided with enough cattle, flocks, livestock, land, and crops to be self-reliant. They had priestly duties, but they still had to work their land and cattle.
2. Numbers 35:12 – “The cities shall be for you a refuge from the avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the congregation for judgment.” God was concerned about protecting the accused from revenge and ensuring that they received a fair trial. Cities of refuge were not intended to protect people from justice but rather to ensure justice. Those who went to cities of refuge were still held accountable.
3. Numbers 35:16 -- “But if he struck him down with an iron object, so that he died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall be put to death.” Murderers could not flee to cities of refuge.
4. Numbers 35:17 – “And if he struck him down with a stone tool that could cause death, and he died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall be put to death.” God does not treat one murder different from another. Murder is murder and the same capital punishment applies.
5. Numbers 35:18 – “The murderer shall be put to death.” In God’s eyes, there is just and unjust killing. Murderers are to be held accountable with the penalty of death.
6. Numbers 35:20, 21 – “And if he pushed him out of hatred or hurled something at him, lying in wait, so that he died, or in enmity struck him down with his hand, so that he died, then he who struck the blow shall be put to death. He is a murderer.” God forbids someone punishing someone else out of emotion or for selfish purposes. The goal must be godly justice, not revenge. God used avengers of blood to represent the interests of the victim in order to protect the victim from acting out of vengeance. The avenger of blood was protected by the law and had the authority to put the criminal to death.
7. Numbers 35:28 -- “...after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.” The death of the Priest brought restoration and freedom to the accused. The high priest was a model of Christ: and so, this release was a shadow of our freedom and redemption by the death of Christ.
8. Numbers 36:7 – “The inheritance of the people of Israel shall not be transferred from one tribe to another, for every one of the people of Israel shall hold on to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.” God’s laws protected the property and production capacity of families for generations.
9. Numbers 36:10 – “The daughters of Zelophehad did as the Lord commanded.” The daughters of Zelophehad were strong women, but most importantly, they were faithful and obedient.
10. Proverbs 18:1 – “Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound judgment.” God intended you for community and for strong, mutually supportive relationships.
11. Proverbs 18:4 – “The words of a man’s mouth are deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is a bubbling brook.” Everyone has an opinion, but very few are worth hearing. People are talking all the time, without much genuine thought behind their words. Words of wisdom are very rare. And now, technology has given everyone a global voice. In two days, we put out more information than the rest of human history combined. Technology has also enabled advanced techniques for information manipulation, weaponized information. So, in these deep waters of words, it is even more important for you to go to the bubbling brook of God's word.

12. Proverbs 18:9 – “Whoever is slack in his work is a brother to him who destroys.” When people don't do their jobs well, it makes everything harder for everyone else. In how many different ways have you seen this play out? Christians should be diligent in all that they do.

13. Proverbs 18:13 – “If one gives an answer before he hears, it is his folly and shame.” Our greatest commandment is love. One of the primary ways we show our love for others is in how we communicate with them. God gives very specific instructions on how we should communicate with others, and He says He will hold us all accountable for how we communicate. This verse is one such example. God is telling you, that not only is it shameful for you to ever interrupt someone, it is shameful to really not listen empathetically before responding. If you find yourself already crafting your response before the other person is done talking, you are not really listening and are being foolish. One helpful technique is to summarize back to the person what you heard them say and to ask them to clarify their feelings behind their statement before you respond with your viewpoint. Try doing this every time and see what happens. Also, remember that if you are an Ambassador for Christ, you have no personal opinion, you only represent the position of Jesus. Take self out of the equation.

14. Proverbs 18:18 – “The lot puts an end to quarrels and decides between powerful contenders.” See Numbers 33:54 – The lot eliminates perceptions of unfairness or biases by removing the human element from the decision-making process. In this “game of chance,” God remains in complete control.

15. Psalm 32:1-5 – “Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Blessed is the man against whom the Lord counts no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit. For when I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long. For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer. I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not cover my iniquity; I said, ‘I will confess my transgressions to the Lord,’ and you forgave the iniquity of my sin.” Christians should never live with the burden of guilt. You can never “cover” your “iniquity,” but through Jesus, your “sin is covered.” 1 John 1:9 tells you, “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” There is no higher authority than God. When He has forgiven you, there is no condemnation.

16. Psalm 32:6, 7 – “Therefore let everyone who is godly offer prayer to you at a time when you may be found; surely in the rush of great waters, they shall not reach him. You are a hiding place for me; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with shouts of deliverance.” These verses come after the ones on the importance of confession (and repentance). Offer prayer “at a time when (God) may be found.” Often people pray to God for salvation from the consequences of their sin, without a contrite, repentant heart and confession of the sin that caused their crisis. God will not be found bailing out the unrepentant sinner. Many times, God does not seem to answer prayers because we ask with the wrong heart and motive. “Seek the Lord while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.” (Isaiah 55:6, 7)

17. Psalm 32:8-11 – “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you. Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle, or it will not stay near you. Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds the one who trusts in the Lord. Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!" God made man in His image – a spiritual image. He gave man spirituality that He didn't give animals, and ability to understand the will of God. When you are led by the Spirit, you will obey God with joy. When you disobey God, you not only betray God, you also deny your human endowment and become like an animal. God will use a bit, a bridle, a spur, and a whip to keep you moving on course. Why not obey and avoid all that needless pain?

18. Psalm 33:5-8 -- "For the word of the Lord is upright, and all his work is done in faithfulness. He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the steadfast love of the Lord. By the word of the Lord the heavens were made, and by the breath of his mouth all their host. He gathers the waters of the sea as a heap; he puts the deeps in storehouses. Let all the earth fear the Lord; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him!" God's spiritual laws are as real and relevant as God's natural laws (even more real and relevant). An attempt to operate outside God's natural laws will have obvious and predictable consequences; attempts to operate outside of God's spiritual laws also has obvious and predictable consequences. Conversely, just as people can harness the power of nature to accomplish amazing things, so can people thrive under God's spiritual laws. Perhaps through scrapes and bruises you have learned to respect the Law of Gravity. Perhaps through emotional scrapes and bruises God has taught you to respect His spiritual laws too. Today's readings in Proverbs and Psalm speaks repeatedly on the consequences of sinning against God who establishes the order of things as well as on the blessings that come from living in harmony with God's word. The Bible really wants us to get the point.

19. Psalm 33:10-22 -- The Lord brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples. The counsel of the Lord stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom he has chosen as his heritage! The Lord looks down from heaven; he sees all the children of man; from where he sits enthroned he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth, he who fashions the hearts of them all and observes all their deeds. The king is not saved by his great army; a warrior is not delivered by his great strength. The war horse is a false hope for salvation, and by its great might it cannot rescue. Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine. Our soul waits for the Lord; he is our help and our shield. For our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name. Let your steadfast love, O Lord, be upon us, even as we hope in you." Personal security and national security depend on fear of the Lord. God will hold all nations and all people accountable to His word.

20. Psalm 33:17, 18 -- "The war horse is a false hope for salvation, and by its great might it cannot rescue. Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love." Be very careful not to place your hope in anything but God. Everything and everyone on this earth is perishable, unpredictable, questionable, movable, unreliable, etc. Only God is steadfast and wholly (Holy) reliable.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day): 18 Mar -- Listen, listen intently to others before speaking. Listen not just to collect the facts or information being imparted but to seek to understand the underlying feelings and needs behind what is being said. Listen empathetically with a genuine desire to bring peace and reconciliation, all before you begin organizing in your mind how you will respond. Just listen in love. DBRP- WEEK 11, Day 6, Saturday, 17 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+33%2C+34%3B+proverbs+17%3B+psalm+31>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 17 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 33:2 – “Moses wrote down their starting places, stage by stage, by command of the Lord.” God wanted Moses to keep a historic record of what He did for His people so that generations would know.
2. Numbers 33:3 – “...the people of Israel went out triumphantly in the sight of all the Egyptians....” God will use your life to reveal Himself to others.
3. Numbers 33:54 – “You shall inherit the land by lot according to your clans. To a large tribe you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a small inheritance. Wherever the lot falls for anyone, that shall be his. According to the tribes of your fathers you shall inherit.” Casting lots is God’s way of removing human biases or perceptions of human biases from decisions that impact the interests of many people. If two or more people want the same thing, casting lots can quickly settle the matter without generating hard feelings between the stakeholders. God ensured everyone was treated fairly in land apportionment by casting lots and by ensuring that everyone got a fair amount based upon the size of their clans.
4. Numbers 33:55, 56 – “But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those of them whom you let remain shall be as barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall trouble you in the land where you dwell. And I will do to you as I thought to do to them.” God knew how easily His people could be tempted by the ungodly. Who or what tempts you to compromise your fidelity and purity?
5. Numbers 34:23, 24 – “Of the people of Joseph: of the tribe of the people of Manasseh a chief, Hanniel the son of Ephod. And of the tribe of the people of Ephraim a chief, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan.” Joseph’s family became two tribes. He was doubly blessed.
6. Proverbs 17:1 – “Better is a dry morsel with quiet than a house full of feasting with strife.” This has application to national politics. We are so wealthy as a nation and yet so divided. This is a reality of human nature, revealed in homes and in nations and throughout the Bible. When people are doing well, they tend to forget God, become self-centered and selfish, and cause strife with others. Often, God doesn’t give people comfort and security because He knows it will ruin their character.
7. Proverbs 17:2 – “A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who acts shamefully and will share the inheritance as one of the brothers.” Salvation came to the Gentiles. “...through their (Jews) trespass salvation has come to the Gentiles, so as to make Israel jealous.”
8. Proverbs 17:3 – “The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and the Lord tests hearts.” God puts you through hard times to make you more precious.
9. Proverbs 17:5 – “Whoever mocks the poor insults his Maker; he who is glad at calamity will not go unpunished.” If you show contempt for others, you are convicting yourself. Your heart is not right with God, and you are failing to accomplish your life’s mission of reconciliation. 1 Corinthians 5:17-20 – “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God."

10. Proverbs 17:9 – "Whoever covers an offense seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates close friends." Our primary command is to love. Do you cover over offenses?

11. Proverbs 17:27 – "Whoever restrains his words has knowledge, and he who has a cool spirit is a man of understanding." How you handle contention reveals to true level of your knowledge and understanding.

12. Psalm 31:1 – "In you, O Lord, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame; in your righteousness deliver me!" The message of the Gospel is that we are saved by the righteous on Jesus (God), not our own righteousness, which is not righteous at all. A simple way to think of the meaning of righteousness is to think of it as being 'right with God,' to be reconciled, to have all matters or debts settled. Jesus paid our debts on the cross and made us eternally right with God, righteous. Of our own account, we are unworthy. Jesus made us worthy.

13. Psalm 31:5 – "Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O Lord, faithful God." Redeem means to buy back, or to make something that was once bad good again. Note that the Psalmist says, God does the redeeming. Again, Jesus made us righteous, redeemed. God is faithful though we are not faithful, our salvation rests securely on His unconditional love for us, not on our imperfect, always failing love for Him. Nothing can separate you from the love of Christ.

14. Psalm 31:7, 8 – "I will rejoice and be glad in your steadfast love, because you have seen my affliction; you have known the distress of my soul, and you have not delivered me into the hand of the enemy; you have set my feet in a broad place." Bible verses like this are here to remind us to rejoice when we don't feel like it, during hard times; to remind us that God's love for us is unconditional, enduring, everlasting, and overpowering. God is the Creator. God is Sovereign and Almighty, and God is love. When the God who made and controls everything and who is love loves you, what does that say about what you are going through? God is loving you through your challenges, drawing you closer to His love, and using your circumstances for an ultimate good that exceeds your wildest imaginations. "...you have not delivered me into the hand of the enemy..." Sometimes you might be tempted to think God has abandoned you, turned you over to your circumstances. No, He will never leave you or forsake you. Trust in Him.

15. Psalm 31:6 – "I hate those who pay regard to worthless idols, but I trust in the Lord." The more you love God, the more you hate what He hates.

16. Psalm 31:9 – "Be gracious to me, O Lord, for I am in distress." Distress is inevitable in this broken world. But when hard times come, we should draw closer to the Lord who will guide, protect, comfort, and love us through them. Philippians 4:4-7 – "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

17. Psalm 31:12 – “I have been forgotten like one who is dead.” Your friends might abandon you, like the disciples abandoned Jesus during his darkest hour, but God will never abandon you.

18. Psalm 31:14, 15 – “But I trust in you, O Lord; I say, ‘You are my God.’ My times are in your hand....” You can rest easy knowing your times are in God’s hands. Jesus rested in the boat while the disciples panicked in the great storm, fearing death. Jesus knew who was in control. We just read about how Paul remained confident through a shipwreck because he knew who was in control. Jesus said, “Peace I give you.” Rest easy, be confident, rejoice. Your God has you in the palm of His hand. He is in complete control and loves you immeasurably.

19. Psalm 31:24 – “Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord!” The strength of your courage is dependent upon your actual faith in God. Faith makes you courageous.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 17 March: Be at peace today. Demonstrate peace today. Explain your peace through Jesus today to anyone who asks why you are so different. (Psalm 31)

DBRP- WEEK 11, Day 5, Friday, 16 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+31%2C+32%3B+proverbs+16%3B+acts+27>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 16 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 31:15, 16 – “Moses said to them, ‘Have you let all the women live? Behold, these, on Balaam’s advice, caused the people of Israel to act treacherously against the Lord in the incident of Peor, and so the plague came among the congregation of the Lord.’” God’s commands for total annihilation of Israel’s enemies in the Bible seem extreme and heartless, but God knew these totally corrupt foreign cultures would negatively influence His people (at a time when the nation was very vulnerable) and threaten their holiness. While we tend to value the temporal life above all else, God values the eternal lives of all generations. Only God could justly and lovingly give such a command. We get offended when God, who is completely sovereign, holy, righteous, and loving, does not show mercy. We sometimes lose sight of mankind’s depravity and guilt before God (and the destructiveness of sin upon generations) and ask how a loving God could allow certain people to die, instead of asking why a just and holy God allows anyone to live at all. We tend to think mercy and grace is something He owes us, and when we don’t receive mercy or grace, we think Him to be unjust. Justice is us getting what we deserve; mercy is us not getting what we deserve; and grace is God giving us what we don’t deserve. It is God’s prerogative, in His righteousness, to provide mercy – not giving someone what they deserve. When He doesn’t give mercy, He remains Just and Righteous.

2. Numbers 32:13 – “And the Lord’s anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the Lord was gone.” God’s people could not go the next level until they were purified of unfaithful people. Special assignments require special people. God is Holy; His ambassadors must in turn be holy.

3. Proverbs 16:1 -- "The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the Lord." What matters is not what you want to do but rather what God wants you to do. You can plan to do your own thing, but you might find yourself working against God, despite how good you think your intentions are.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Proverbs 16:2 -- "All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the Lord weighs the spirit." It is very tempting for us to tell ourselves that our plan is also God's plan for us in order to validate inwardly self-centered motives. Pray that the Holy Spirit will reveal to you where your motives are not really God-centered. Be careful that when you say, "God has put on my heart to [do x or y]," He really has and you are not just convincing yourself you heard what you wanted to hear from God when you really didn't.

5. Proverbs 16:21 -- "The wise of heart is called discerning, and sweetness of speech increases persuasiveness." Wise Christians know how to use gentle, gracious words to persuade others rather than arguing with them.

6. Proverbs 16:32 -- "Whoever is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city." God designed His people to be a "kingdom of priests... [to] reign on the earth (Exodus 19, 6; Revelation 5:10)." However, before a ruler is worthy to rule anything else, he must be able to rule over self. In fact, it is an inability to rule self that disqualified God's people for positions of leadership within His Kingdom throughout the Bible. To have and maintain the right to lead in the Kingdom, one must first demonstrate sustained personal self-control, discipline, obedience, holiness. The Kingdom of God submits to the authority and will of the King ("thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven). Our first responsibility is to submit ourselves to the Lordship of Christ in our own lives and then model that life to others. Jesus modeled obedience for us and then told us that if we truly loved Him, we would obey him completely; He then commanded, from our position of total obedience, "Go make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." Clearly, self-control is not accomplished of our own power but through the power of the Holy Spirit within us. Key though is to recognize that Christians already have been equipped with that power. Now we have the responsibility to live by the Spirit rather than selfishness (deny self), pick up our crosses (see ourselves as crucified with Christ), and choose to truly follow Jesus rather than asking Jesus to follow us (Matthew 16:24; Luke 9:23). The problem we have with self-control is that we have not yet fully committed to live for God rather than self. However, we were created with the specific purpose of serving and loving God; apart from our purpose, our lives are meaningless and dead. Isn't it time to choose to serve the Lord wholeheartedly and "rule our spirits" for His glory?

- Galatians 2:20 -- I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

- 2 Timothy 2:11, 12 -- The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him

- Numbers 32:11, 12 -- Because they have not followed me wholeheartedly, not one of those who were twenty years old or more when they came up out of Egypt will see the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob— not one except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they followed the Lord wholeheartedly.

7. Acts 27:9-12 -- "Paul advised them, saying, 'Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.' But the centurion paid more attention to the pilot and to the owner of the ship than to what Paul said." Led by the Spirit, God's people will often contradict experts and the majority. God knows more than the experienced majority. The majority is often wrong.

8. Acts 27:21 – When God’s faithful servant speaks, you should listen.

9. Acts 27:21-26 – God’s purpose is guaranteed.

10. Acts 27:25 – “So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told.” Paul had a very unique witness because of his evident receptivity to God’s word and because of His absolute confidence in it. Do you? Paul also became the leader in crisis, despite his lack of technical competence, because of his godly courage. When the façade of man’s control is removed, the one who truly knows the One who is in control is the only person who can lead. Paul said to them, “Take heart,” much like Jesus said to the disciples in John 14 before Jesus’ arrest, when Jesus knew the disciples would lose heart in their circumstances. If God is on your side, you have nothing to worry about.

11. Acts 27:31, 32 – “Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, ‘Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved.’ Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the ship’s boat and let it go.” The passengers and the crew on the ship had to decide whether to trust their experienced instincts or the man of God. This was a life or death decision, and one person’s decision would affect them all.

12. Acts 27:35 – “And when he had said these things, he took bread, and giving thanks to God in the presence of all he broke it and began to eat.” When everyone else was in complete despair, Paul gave thanks to God, an incredible testimony to everyone else. Again, this reminds me of Jesus sleeping in the boat during the storm when the disciples feared for their lives. A faith that demonstrates peaceful trust through all circumstances is a powerful thing. At some point, we will all come to a time when all appears lost, at least on our death beds. What sort of faith will we reveal?

13. Acts 27:37 – “We were in all 276 persons in the ship.” The author knew exactly how many were on the ship. A Christian leader keeps accountability of everyone – every single person is precious in the eyes of God. Are you keeping account of everyone God has placed in your life?

14. Acts 27:42 – “The soldiers’ plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any should swim away and escape. But the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from carrying out their plan.” A soldier would be executed for losing a prisoner. The centurion was ready to risk his life to save this Jew. What an impact Paul had on this natural enemy of the Jews and in such a short time. The power of God tears down all social barriers.

15. Acts 27:43 – God uses relationships to save Paul. God often uses ungodly people to support His people.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 16 March: Today, demonstrate thankfulness under all circumstances in order to glorify God before others. (Acts 27:35)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 15 Mar 18:

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

1. Numbers 29 – A whole month dedicated to worshipping the Lord. Can you imagine? Four times in this chapter, God says, “You shall not do any work.” How incredibly unproductive in the world’s view of economy. Today, we don’t take this much time to worship corporately (perhaps we should), but certainly, just taking one day of rest each week seems to most unreasonable. Don’t we have too much to do? And is it really reasonable to give dedicated time each day to pray and to study God’s word? Does it make practical sense to tithe? Time and money are our most precious commodities. Dedicating both to the Lord is an act of faith, and it is a personal and public statement that reminds us that our provision, security, and success depend on the Lord, not our efforts. It is an act of trust. God had his people do this every year because, though we have belief, we also have unbelief and need to be reminded.

2. Numbers 29:12 – “.... you shall keep a feast to the Lord seven days.” During the Feast of Booths, all the Israelites essentially camped out for a whole week, with each day being dedicated to worship. In Israel, they would all, the entire nation, leave their homes and live in huts. In the cities they even had to put these huts, booths, on their rooftops. Can you imagine? Each year this was a reminder to the people of God’s provision and salvation in the desert; it reminded the people that even if they lost everything, God would still be there for them and see them through; it brought all the people together for a week of fellowship, away from work and distractions; it taught them that their joy did not depend on the comforts of life; and practically, it kept them proficient at camping, in the event they were ever required to live on the land again. It has been said that nothing brings a family together quite like camping. Perhaps, Christians should revive the Feast of Booths. What if your entire church spent a week each year camping together, seven days away from distractions in worship and fellowship?

3. Numbers 30:1, 2 -- "Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the people of Israel, saying, 'This is what the Lord has commanded. If a man vows a vow to the Lord, or swears an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he shall not break his word. He shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.'" God takes your promises to Him very seriously.

4. Numbers 30:5 -- "But if her father opposes her on the day that he hears of it, no vow of hers, no pledge by which she has bound herself shall stand. And the Lord will forgive her, because her father opposed her." Parents have authority over their children in God's eyes along with a responsibility to protect them and guide them. Parents will be held accountable by God.

5. Numbers 30:8 -- "But if, on the day that her husband comes to hear of it, he opposes her, then he makes void her vow that was on her, and the thoughtless utterance of her lips by which she bound herself. And the Lord will forgive her." In a marriage, promises made to God are a joint decision -- "The two shall become one."

6. Proverbs 15:1, 18 -- "A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.... A hot-tempered man stirs up strife, but he who is slow to anger quiets contention." Christians should be masters at bringing peace into every situation, at being able to de-escalate conflict and to promote unity. Look at every conflict or potential conflict as an opportunity to demonstrate the love of Christ. Challenge yourself to be a peacemaker at all times and critique yourself with each event.

7. Proverbs 15:4 -- "A gentle tongue is a tree of life." Do your words refresh others and make them feel more alive?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. Proverbs 15:7 -- "The lips of the wise spread knowledge; not so the hearts of fools." Are people smarter after talking with you?

9. Proverbs 15:8, 9, 29 -- "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright is acceptable to him. The way of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but he loves him who pursues righteousness.... The Lord is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous." Your true worship is loving others. No amount of Sunday services can make up for an unloving heart and unloving behavior. Yes, God forgives the repentant person, but with genuine repentance comes a changed heart and changed behavior.

10. Proverbs 15:16 -- "Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble with it." Life fulfillment comes from your relationship with God, not from your possessions or personal accomplishments.

11. Proverbs 15:16 -- "Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble with it." Be thankful for what God has given you, and be faithful with it. In fidelity, He will give you more.

12. Proverbs 15:18 -- "The way of a sluggard is like a hedge of thorns, but the path of the upright is a level highway." Lazy people seek a life of ease, not realizing that they are actually making their lives much, much more difficult.

13. Proverbs 15:27 -- "To make an apt answer is a joy to a man, and a word in season, how good it is!" Wisdom includes not just knowing what to say but also when and how to say it. A sense of timing is critical to relationships.

14. Acts 26:9 -- "I myself was convinced that I ought to do many things in opposing the name of Jesus of Nazareth." When Paul was still called Saul, he was a Pharisee among Pharisees. He had been trained by the most respected teachers and had committed his whole life to serving God faithfully. He diligently studied God's word, worshipped day and night, and led efforts to keep the faith pure. It is safe to say that he was genuine in his convictions. In all his human efforts to be righteous, he got it wrong: "I myself was convinced that I ought to do many things in opposing the name of Jesus of Nazareth." It was his personal encounter and subsequent relationship with Jesus that changed everything. Jesus opened the eyes of Paul's heart to see the same word in a completely different way. Jesus once said to the Pharisees, "Is this not the reason you are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God (Mark 12:24)?" Paul (Saul) was well versed in the Bible but did not know the "power of God" which comes through rebirth through saving faith in Jesus Christ. Jesus said the Nicodemus, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God (John 3:3)." Many people know the words of the Bible inside and out but don't know the power of God. Likewise, many born again Christians are stuck in spiritual infancy because they don't know God's word. God's intent for his people is to know the Shepherd and the Shepherd's voice.

15. Acts 26:12 -- "I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests." Paul was once commissioned under the authority of the chief priests, but now acted under the power and authority of Jesus Christ. Jesus reminds us in Matthew 28 that we are also commissioned under His authority to make disciples of all nations.

16. Acts 26:16-18 -- "I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you as a servant and witness to the things in which you have seen... to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me." God's witnesses testify to what they have personally experienced with God, not simply what they have heard about. God's revelations to you are not for you alone but that others might believe from your testimony. God's purpose for your life is for you to be His instrument to bring others to Him.

17. Acts 26:19, 20 – "I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, but declared... to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God." Salvation requires repentance. To communicate anything else is to directly disobey God and to work against the Gospel.

18. Acts 26:22, 23 – "I stand here testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would come to pass: that the Christ must suffer and that, by being the first to rise from the dead, he would proclaim light both to our people and to the Gentiles." Paul, an Ambassador of Christ had only one message. You also are called to proclaim one message. How are you doing?

19. Acts 26:29 -- "Whether short or long, I would to God that not only you but also all who hear me this day might become such as I am." Paul's life focus was bringing others to Jesus Christ. What is your life focus? God gave you your purpose: "Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation." (2 Corinthians 5:18) Have you accepted your mission yet?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 15 March: Follow Paul's example and proclaim Jesus to others today. (Acts 26)

DBRP- WEEK 11, Day 3, Wednesday, 14 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+27%2C+28%3B+proverbs+14%3B+acts+25>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 14 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 27:1, 2 -- "The names of his daughters were: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. And they stood before Moses and before Eleazar the priest and before the chiefs and all the congregation, at the entrance of the tent of meeting...." Zelophehad raised strong daughters, mentioned by name in the Bible, who not only knew how to stand up for themselves and their family but who changed national policy permanently.

2. Numbers 27:3 – All people sin. The result of sin is death.

3. Numbers 27:5-7 -- "Moses brought their case before the Lord. And the Lord said to Moses, 'The daughters of Zelophehad are right.'" Moses turned to God for answers to tough questions. What do you do?

4. Numbers 27:4-11 – God honors the rights of women even in a male-dominated society.

5. Numbers 27:5-11 -- God's laws support the protection of families and protects their inheritances.

6. Numbers 27:14 -- "... because you rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin when the congregation quarreled, failing to uphold me as holy at the waters before their eyes." Don't let the bad behavior of others influence you to stoop down to their level and sin. Moses lost his temper and acted foolishly, losing his moral authority to lead. As a result, he did not enter the Promised Land (in his physical life). Stay above the fray. Remain holy because God is Holy, and you are an Ambassador for Christ.

7. Numbers 27:15-17 -- "Moses said to the LORD, 'May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all mankind, appoint a man over this community to go out and come in before them, one who will lead them out and bring them in, so the LORD's people will not be like sheep without a shepherd.'" Moses had the heart of a true leader. He had just been told by the Lord that it was his time to die -- he would not lead his people into the Promised Land. Moses' immediate concern was for the people and their welfare. How hard is it to find leadership like that?

8. Numbers 27:17 – God is looking for ministers who will be shepherds.

9. Numbers 27:18 -- Numbers 27:18 -- "Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him." Joshua was God's choice to lead the Israelites into the Promised Land; Moses didn't choose Joshua, God did. Joshua was uniquely qualified for the job. First, he was filled with the Spirit. True leaders are led by the Spirit and lead by the Spirit. His name means, "The Lord is Salvation," and is the Hebrew version of "Jesus." For 40 years he served as Moses' faithful aide, and was one of the two spies (Caleb the other) that encouraged the Israelites to enter the Promised Land in faith, despite the strength of their enemies. He served the Lord wholeheartedly and was a great example of character and competence. A nation needs mighty, faithful leaders such as Joshua. Of whom do you know who is a Joshua leader today?

10. Numbers 27:20 – "You shall invest him with some of your authority, that all the congregation of the people of Israel may obey." Moral authority to lead comes from a leader's pursuit of obedience to God and his intent to teach others how to obey God.

11. Numbers 28:1-15 – God wants ministers who will help people find His atonement.

12. Proverbs 14:2, 7 -- "Whoever walks in uprightness fears the Lord, but he who is devious in his ways despises him.... Leave the presence of a fool, for there you do not meet words of knowledge." Godly people have no partnership with the world.

13. Proverbs 14:4, 23 -- "Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean, but abundant crops come by the strength of the ox... In all toil there is profit, but mere talk tends only to poverty." To accomplish our purpose, we are going to have to get dirty, get out of our comfort zones, take risks, and work very hard, consistently for a long time, not requiring instant payoffs to stay motivated. To be successful, we have to be willing to do what the unsuccessful are not willing to do. We are going to have to be willing to sacrifice pleasure for purpose, for a time. This requires perseverance, a critical character trait for Christians. As Psalms say today, "Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord!" (Psalm 31:24)

14. Proverbs 14:5, 25 -- "A faithful witness does not lie, but a false witness breathes out lies.... A truthful witness saves lives, but one who breathes out lies is deceitful." Lying is cosmic treason for an Ambassador of Christ. There are obvious lies and less obvious lies. When you point people to a "truth" other than Jesus, such as modern ethics, morals, or common sense, you are lying far worse than when you misrepresent yourself or a situation.

15. Proverbs 14:12 -- "There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death." Follow the instruction of God's word through the Holy Spirit rather than your own intellect.

16. Proverbs 14:26 -- "In the fear of the Lord one has strong confidence, and his children will have a refuge." If we are walking with the Lord, we can walk confidently into the battles and through the storms of life. One thing to notice in the Bible is that God rarely keeps His people from the battles and storms but rather guides and protects them through the battles and storms, revealing Himself to His people and the watching world in the process. God didn't keep Noah from the flood but through it. Today we read in the Old Testament that God's people had to face the Midianites and in the New Testament that Paul had to endure terrible storms and catastrophe on the high seas. Yet, in both cases, God worked miraculously to bring glory to Himself through His servants. No Israelites were lost in the battle against the Midianites, and as God had promised, no one died when Paul's ship was destroyed. In both cases, God was glorified before a watching world, and the faith of God's people was only strengthened for greater challenges ahead. In his prayer to the Father, Jesus said, "I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one (John 17:15)." It is in the battle and storms of life that we bring glory to God when the watching world sees the power of God working through our lives making all the difference.

17. Acts 25:19 – Paul was guilty only of belief in Jesus' resurrection. Who could witness against you on such a charge.

18. Acts 25:22 – Paul had created such a stir that important people wanted to hear him testify. What have you done to create enough interest that people want to hear your testimony?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 14 March: Leave no doubt about what, rather who you are about – share Jesus as your top priority. Get people talking. (Acts 25:19-22)

DBRP- WEEK 11, Day 2, Tuesday, 13 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+25%2C+26%3B+proverbs+13%3B+acts+24>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 13 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 25:1-3 -- "While Israel lived in Shittim, the people began to whore with the daughters of Moab.... So Israel yoked himself to Baal of Peor." When God's people partner with the world, God view this as whoredom. Syncretism is perhaps the biggest threat to the church today. Have you partnered with the world in any way? Do you see this compromise as God sees it?

2. Numbers 25:7, 8 -- "When Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose and left the congregation and took a spear in his hand and went after the man of Israel into the chamber and pierced both of them, the man of Israel and the woman through her belly. Thus the plague on the people of Israel was stopped." God expects His people to take a stand against sin within the church.

3. Numbers 25:10-11 -- "And the Lord said to Moses, 'Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my wrath from the people of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I did not consume the people of Israel in my jealousy.'" Perhaps no sin is addressed more in the Bible than sexual sin. Perhaps nothing is more destructive to a person, a people, or a nation than sexual sin. From the very beginning (Genesis) God placed His standards on sexual activity to be between one man and one woman in one life-long marriage. Marriage is a spiritual union, far beyond the physical, and reveals not only the love we have for our spouse, but also the love we have for God. Marriages are meant to emulate the love Christ has for his Church, and are intended to raise godly children. God takes sexual sins VERY seriously, calling them abominations, despite the fact that our society rejoices in them. Today, to commit adultery is to “have an affair.” To “whore around” is to be sexually free. Acceptance of homosexuality is “enlightened tolerance.” Today’s OT readings offer a shocking story of how seriously God takes sexual sin. In case it is lost in translation, God honors Phinehas’ commitment after Phinehas, seeing a man taking a Moabite woman into his tent to have sex, enters into the tent and runs a spear through both of them while they were having sex. While this may seem like a cruel act, consider how much pain and suffering you have seen over your lifetime directly caused by sex outside of marriage – divorce, abortion, STDs, crimes of passion, destroyed families, child abuse, pornography, sexual assault, etc. Now that our Nation has dissolved most historic standards related to sexual conduct, where do you think our nation is going – to a better condition? I pray that more Christians will be bold enough to stand up for God’s standards on sex and marriage, regardless of what the “culture of death” says is the “enlightened” answer.

4. Numbers 25:11 -- “Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my wrath from the people of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy.” God’s people care about what God cares about and hate what God hates.

5. Numbers 25:11 -- “...he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I did not consume the people of Israel in my jealousy.” A very famous pop culture celebrity once said that she stopped being a Christian when she read that God was a jealous God. There is an ungodly jealousy and a godly jealousy. There is a selfish jealousy and an unselfish, righteous, loving jealousy. Both forms of jealousy are motivated by a desire to protect or defend. Selfish jealousy is akin to envy and greed and promotes suspicion, distrust, resentment, hostility, degradation, tension, and discord. Godly jealousy zealously protects out of love. God knows that the hope of His people is Him, and He cannot tolerate anything that might get in the way of His people and Himself. Phinehas was commended for His jealousy because he was jealous with God's jealousy, not his own jealousy. Phinehas was protecting the people from destruction, not seeking his own self-interest. It is very rare that people are jealous with God's jealousy. Don't confuse godly jealousy with envy.

6. Proverbs 13:3 – “Whoever guards his mouth preserves his life; he who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.” As Christ’s Ambassador, only say what Jesus would say. If you find yourself wanting to express your own thoughts, to speak your mind rather than the mind of Christ, best to keep your mouth shut. Just say nothing. If your words don’t encourage someone to draw nearer to Jesus, you are actually working against Jesus.

7. Proverbs 13:17 – “A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a faithful envoy brings healing.” If you are a faithful witness, your words will only bring healing. If you speak hurting words, you are committing cosmic treason against Jesus. Do you take your words that seriously?

8. Proverbs 13:20 – “Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm.” Your best friends should be wise, wholehearted Christians who are helping you become closer to Jesus every day. If this doesn’t describe your closest companions, you are compromising your sanctification.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

9. Proverbs 13:23, 25 – “A good man leaves an inheritance to his children’s children, but the sinner’s wealth is laid up for the righteous.... The righteous has enough to satisfy his appetite, but the belly of the wicked suffers want.” Godly people plan to leave an inheritance for generations, in part by not living greedy, excessive lives in the present. Most of America is upside down with more debt than savings, largely because they are not satisfied to live simply and frugally. Americas are the richest people in the world, but usually have nothing to show for it in the end. The mindset now from most parents seems to be that their responsibility is to get the kids out of the house so they can take care of themselves; therefore, their kids go into debt to make “make ends meet” – it becomes a vicious cycle. God’s people should not be in debt to the world.

10. Acts 24:2 -- “Since through you we enjoy much peace, and since by your foresight, most excellent Felix, reforms are being made for this nation....” Christians may betray God and God's people by seeking earthly peace through compromise rather than eternal peace through fidelity to Jesus. Today, the church is largely silent on social issues because they don't want to cause trouble with the ungodly.

11. Acts 24:5 – “For we have found this man a plague, one who stirs up riots among all the Jews throughout the world and is a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.” Paul upset the peace to bring ultimate peace through Jesus. When Paul spoke the truth, he caused trouble not only for himself but also for all other Christians, much like Moses caused trouble in Egypt for the Israelites. Not only Paul but the whole Christian church stood on trial. Paul demonstrated great moral courage through his faith, hope, love, and the power of the Holy Spirit.

12. Acts 24:6 -- “He even tried to profane the temple, but we seized him.” The ungodly are not compelled by truth and justice, though they claim to be. In the end, the ungodly will do whatever they think it takes to get what they want. Jesus promised that His followers would face persecution from the ungodly because the ungodly, content and comfortable in the darkness, will not bear the light of truth and will be compelled to extinguish it.

13. Acts 24:10 -- “I cheerfully make my defense.” Christians disagree without being disagreeable, always demonstrating humility in their boldness. And Christians rejoice in the opportunity to share Jesus, regardless to personal cost.

14. Acts 24:14 – You must choose: There is only one true religion, one true path to God, Jesus. This ‘unacceptable, close-minded, primitive, uneducated belief’ is the Gospel, the truth, the Good News. Are you prepared to be a fool for Jesus?

15. Acts 24:15 -- “...there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust.” The Good News is the answer to Bad News, all are sinners who will face final judgment before the LORD. You hardly hear this message anymore, even out of the church. Salvation requires repentance from sin.

16. Acts 24:16 – “So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man.” Maintaining a clear conscience is an act of discipleship and sanctification that takes work, striving to walk in fidelity and obedience while continually confessing your sins to God and to others.

17. Acts 24:18-20 -- “While I was doing this, they found me purified in the temple, without any crowd or tumult. But some Jews from Asia— they ought to be here before you and to make an accusation, should they have anything against me. Or else let these men themselves say what wrongdoing they found when

I stood before the council...." Paul understood the law of the land and was ready to use it in his defense. Christians today need to be ready to do the same.

18. Acts 24:25 -- "And as he reasoned about righteousness and self-control and the coming judgment...." In light of the coming judgment, all should be incentivized to seek righteousness and self-control. Felix had good reason to be "alarmed": "None is righteous, no, not one," and apart from salvation through Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit, willpower cannot free someone from the slavery of sin. (Romans 3:10; Romans 6:18) Only Christ can free us from sin. Like love, self-control is a fruit of the Spirit, not something man-made. Ironically, control of self requires surrender of 'control', submitting control to Christ -- "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." (James 4:7) Only through submission can we resist the devil. Only through our connection to the vine does the branch have any life. Apart from the vine, that branch has no chance. If you lack self-control, check your submission.

19. Acts 24:25 -- "Felix was alarmed and said, 'Go away for the present. When I get an opportunity I will summon you.'" Many respond to the Gospel by choosing not to decide, but this is still a choice. You may be ignored or discounted, but you are called to proclaim, not to convince. Speak the truth in love, and let the Holy Spirit do the rest.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 13 March: Clear your conscience by confessing your sins and by seeking forgiveness. Make restitutions when required. (Act 24:16)

DBRP- WEEK 11, Day 1, Monday, 12 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+23%2C+24%3B+proverbs+12%3B+acts+23>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 12 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 23:5 -- "And the Lord put a word in Balaam's mouth." Balaam's job was to proclaim God's word, not his own thoughts or opinions. The same applies to us today.

2. Numbers 23:9, 24 -- "Behold him; behold, a people dwelling alone, and not counting itself among the nations...! Behold, a people! As a lioness it rises up and as a lion it lifts itself; it does not lie down until it has devoured the prey and drunk the blood of the slain." (Numbers 23:9, 24) We are a nation among the nations. We are the true "nation under God." No nation can overcome the Kingdom of God. "And God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion (Genesis 1:28)."

3. Numbers 23:11, 12 -- "And Balak said to Balaam, 'What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have done nothing but bless them.' And he answered and said, "Must I not take care to speak what the Lord puts in my mouth?" Balak wanted Balaam to work for him, but Balaam could only work for God. As an ambassador or Christ, for whom are you working?

4. Numbers 23:27 -- "And Balak said to Balaam, 'Come now, I will take you to another place. Perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.'" Changing your environment or your approach does not change God's will for you. God's plan stands. Denying God's will is futile.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

5. Numbers 24:17 – "I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near: a star shall come out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel; it shall crush the forehead of Moab and break down all the sons of Sheth." Balaam is given a glimpse of Jesus. Jesus is the goal of all God's Revelation.

6. Proverbs 12:1 -- "Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid." Do not hate the Lord's reproof -- that is just stupid.

7. Proverbs 12:2 -- "A good man obtains favor from the Lord, but a man of evil devices he condemns." Is this hard to understand? Even under grace, God cannot tolerate your sin. He will deal with it, in love but with firmness.

8. Proverbs 12:5 -- "The thoughts of the righteous are just." The Holy Spirit uses God's word to transform your mind so that just thoughts produce righteous deeds, evidence of your faith.

9. Proverbs 12:10 -- "The mercy of the wicked is cruel." Your ability to be merciful is in direct proportion to your closeness to Jesus. The more you genuinely appreciate the mercies of God, the more you will be merciful. The more you are connected to Jesus (the Vine), the more you will embody mercy and the more mercy will flow through you to others.

10. Proverbs 12:11 -- "Whoever works his land will have plenty of bread, but he who follows worthless pursuits lacks sense." God is Author of both the natural laws and the moral laws. One theme that is constantly repeated in the Bible is, "You reap what you sow." God's natural and moral laws are simple and produce obvious results. We complicate things and do pointless things when we attempt to work around God's laws. Don't waste your time, energy, and efforts by doing things God never intended.

11. Proverbs 12:16 -- "The prudent ignores an insult." Did you get that? Ignore insults and be prudent.

12. Proverbs 12:18 -- "There is one whose rash words are like sword thrusts, but the tongue of the wise brings healing." Are all of your words healing? Remember your role as Christ's Ambassador and your message of reconciliation. Every word that comes from your mouth should draw people closer to Jesus, not farther away.

13. Proverbs 12:20 -- "Those who plan peace have joy." You have to have a plan for peace.

14. Proverbs 12:25 -- "Anxiety in a man's heart weighs him down, but a good word makes him glad." You can help take a load off of others by giving them a good word to ease their anxiety.

15. Proverbs 12:26-28 -- "One who is righteous is a guide to his neighbor, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.... In the path of righteousness is life, and in its pathway there is no death." A good leader guides people to where they need to go. They know the way and show the way. The Bible says that Jesus IS the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Good leaders lead people to Jesus. Leading people anywhere else is to lead them astray, wickedness. So, all those secular gurus out there are, in fact, wicked.

16. Acts 23:1 – Paul was true to the revelation he knew both as a Jew and as a believer in Christ.

17. Acts 23:3 – The high priest violated the rules of a fair trial as he condemned Paul before the evidence was given.

18. Acts 23:5 – Paul respected the office, not the person.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

19. Acts 23:17-35 – Paul had gained the trust of the officer in charge.

20. Acts 23:16 – “Now the son of Paul’s sister heard of their ambush, so he went and entered the barracks and told Paul.” God can put the right people in the right place at the right time to assist you.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 12 March: Today, do not offer your own advice or opinions on a matter but only speak as an Ambassador for Jesus Christ. What does God’s word say? If you are not certain, say nothing. (See today's readings)

DBRP- WEEK 10, Day 7, Sunday, 11 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+21%2C+22%3B+proverbs+11%3B+psalm+29%2C+30>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 11 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 21:2 – God is the only one who can defeat your enemies.
2. Numbers 21:4-5 – Constant unbelief and complaining angers God.
3. Numbers 21:7 – God wants leaders who pray for a troubled people.
4. Numbers 21:9 – John 3:14-15 shows you need to look to the lifted-up Jesus.
5. Numbers 21:10-35 – Finally Israel followed God without complaining. God does not lead you through safe paths but through paths where you can experience Him and His deliverance.
6. Numbers 22:5 – Balaam was a prophet from Moab who was also used by God.
7. Numbers 22:18 -- Balaam could not go against the word of God, no matter what the outcome.
8. Numbers 22:27 – “When the donkey saw the angel of the Lord, she lay down under Balaam.” We may be totally unaware of the spiritual reality around us, with less spiritual awareness than an animal.
9. Numbers 22:29 – “And Balaam said to the donkey...” Perhaps what is even more amazing than the donkey speaking is Balaam answering and gets into a conversation with the donkey.
10. Numbers 22:32, 33 -- "And the angel of the Lord said to him, ‘Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to oppose you because your way is perverse before me. The donkey saw me and turned aside before me these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, surely just now I would have killed you and let her live.’” The Lord was angry with Balaam because he was on a "reckless" path. On this reckless path, Balaam's donkey was more aware of the presence of the angel of the LORD than was Balaam. When God opens Balaam's eyes, Balaam recognizes that it was his sin that had blinded him (v34). Balaam is on his way to confront the leadership of an unbelieving kingdom and has now been shown his sinfulness, blindness, and unpreparedness for such a task. So, how is he to proceed forward? “Go with the men, but speak only what I tell you.” When Balaam meets Balak the king, he says to him, “But can I say just anything? I must speak only what God puts in my mouth.” I think we can learn something from this: As we confront the sinful culture in our sinful condition, we must be avoid pursuing that mission recklessly; do not quench or grieve the Holy Spirit, and be prepared to answer every man from the Word of God, not from worldly opinion or tradition. As messengers of God, we must know God's Word and be prepared to apply God's Word to our daily interactions. The Bible reminds us that we cannot trust our own understanding and must live by the Word of God which we meditate on all day long every day. How well do we know and understand God's Word? Are you prepared to share God's Word with others?

- "Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word of Christ. (Romans 10:17)

11. Numbers 22:34 – "I have sinned, for I did not know that you stood in the road against me." Being unaware of God's presence leads to sin.

12. Numbers 22:38 – "I have come to you! Have I now any power of my own to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that must I speak." Again, God's prophet and Christ's Ambassador has no commission, power, right, or authority to speak anything other than the words that God puts into his mouth. Jesus said, "For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak." (John 12:49) Likewise, Jesus did nothing apart from what God commanded -- "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise.... I can do nothing on my own. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just, because I seek not my own will but the will of him who sent me. (John 5:19, 30) A person cannot serve two masters, both God and self. If an Ambassador mixes the interests and messages of two competing parties, that Ambassador becomes wholly unreliable and unworthy of the position. If Balaam, motivated by self-interest, had spoken a single word against the Israelites, he would have been cursed by God (see Gen 12:1-3). Proverbs says the God hates perverted speech, words contrary to God's will (Proverbs 8:13). Christ's Ambassador must never speak words that God hates, words He did not put into the Ambassador's mouth. Jesus said, "I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak." (Matthew 12:36) The Ambassador must consider very seriously the great responsibility he has been given to represent God before people. If you don't know what God would say, say nothing. The world could use a lot less chatter anyway. As Proverbs say, "The words of a man's mouth are deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is a bubbling brook." (Proverbs 18:4)

- The "angel of the Lord" stopped Balaam from going down a "perverse" path, perhaps one of comprising God's word. In 2 Timothy 4:2-4 we are reminded to "preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. More and more, God's commands conflict with the values of our society. Many will ask you to endorse the sinful practices of this world in the name of "tolerance." Will you reply with the word of God or go down a perverse path?

13. Proverbs 11:1 – "A false balance is an abomination to the LORD." God abhors unfairness.

14. Proverbs 11:6 – "The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the treacherous are taken captive by their lust." Lust is a prison to those taken captive by it.

15. Proverbs 11:11 – "By the blessing of the upright a city is exalted, but by the mouth of the wicked it is overthrown." Wicked messages and popular opinion can destroy society. Proverbs warns against it.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

16. Proverbs 11:24, 25 – “One gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want. Whoever brings blessing will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered.” God gives richly to those who give freely.

17. Psalm 30:5 – “Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.” Your trials won’t last forever.

18. Psalm 30:6, 7 – “As for me, I said in my prosperity, ‘I shall never be moved.’ By your favor, O Lord, you made my mountain stand strong; you hid your face; I was dismayed.” God will give you challenges to remind you of your total dependence on Him.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 11 March: Say whatever God convicts you to say today, in accordance with His word and His love. Avoid saying anything that isn’t inspired by the Holy Spirit. Remember, you are Christ’s Ambassador, speaking for Him, not yourself. Ambassadors cannot represent themselves but only the KING. (Numbers 22:38)

DBRP- WEEK 10, Day 6, Saturday, 10 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+19%2C+20%3B+proverbs+10%3B+psalm+28>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 10 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 19:12 -- “And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, ‘Because you did not believe in me, to uphold me as holy in the eyes of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them.’” There wasn’t any water for the Israelites, and they were turning against Moses and Aaron; but God told Moses that He would bring water out of the rock for the people. If you recall, this wasn’t the first time that God allowed this miracle to be performed through Moses; the first time was in Numbers 17 – the accounts from Numbers 17 and Numbers 19 are almost identical, with one major exception, in today’s readings, Moses takes partial credit for the work of the Lord – “shall we bring water for you out of this rock (Numbers 19:20)?” God shares His glory with no one, and His response to Moses makes that clear -- “Because you did not believe in me, to uphold me as holy in the eyes of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them (Numbers 19:20).” Our purpose is to glorify God, not ourselves. Fear of man, selfishness, and lack of faith in God’s provision often causes us to seek reverence or honor from others as a defense mechanism or for self-gratification. We take pride in the gifts, talents and opportunities that God alone gave us, failing to uphold Him as Holy. When we are secure in God’s love, we have no need to be justified by others. When we act out of insecurity or pride, we dishonor the LORD. I pray that I won’t worry about what others think about me but rather about what others think about God when they observe His works in my life.

2. Numbers 20:2 -- “Now there was no water for the congregation. And they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.” Based on many Bible verses such as Ephesians 2:1-3 and 1 John 2:16 (provided below), church tradition teaches the three enemies of the soul or the “trinity of temptation” – the world, the flesh, and the devil (mundus, caro, et diabolus). Arguably the greatest threat of the three is “the flesh” because the other two are external threats while “the flesh” is “inside the wire” or an “insider threat.” This is the traitor within. This is where we become the problem and where we now have responsibility for the temptation. When we are tempted externally by the world and the devil, we have not yet sinned; but when we start tempting ourselves, we are now guilty of thought sins. In the wilderness for 40 days, hungry and thirsty, Jesus was tempted externally by the devil, but not internally. In His hunger, He did not sin in His heart. Contrarily, when the Israelites in the desert became thirsty (tempted by the lack of external provisions), their internal temptations caused them to sin and turn against God and Moses. How you act under pressure reveals what is really in your heart. Jesus was led by the Spirit. The Israelites were led by the flesh. Such as in Proverbs 7, the Bible gives us many practical steps to help us fight the insider threat -- specifically, remaining saturated in God's word and physically avoiding sinful environments. However, we are dead without the Spirit and the fruit of the Spirit, which includes love and self-control (Ephesians 5). The saved in Christ have the Spirit, but as mentioned previously, we often "grieve" the Spirit; "quench" the Spirit; and get out of step with the Spirit. Fortunately, we are justified through Christ as we seek to become more and more compelled by the love of Christ. "For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God." (Ephesians 3:14-19) Leave no room in your "bottle" for sin by being filled fully with the Spirit -- "Being filled with the fullness of God is like a bottle in the ocean. You take the cork out of the bottle and sink it in the ocean, and you have the bottle completely full of ocean. The bottle is in the ocean, and the ocean is in the bottle. The ocean contains the bottle, but the bottle contains only a little bit of the ocean. So it is with the Christian." (Tozer) 1 John 2:16, 17 – "For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride of life[a]—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever."

3. Numbers 20:10 -- "Hear now, you rebels: shall we bring water for you out of this rock?" It is hard to understand what happened at Meribath. Moses struck the rock first time in Exodus 17 – no problem. This time, however, it cost him entry into the Promised Land. What happened? True, Moses was not supposed to strike the rock this time but rather "speak" to it. True, Moses seems to lose His temper. However, it would appear to me that the key issue was that Moses gave himself credit for the miracle of the water rather than God – "shall WE bring water...." God said this to Moses -- "Because you did not believe in me, to uphold ME as HOLY in the eyes of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them (Numbers 20:12)." It is unthinkable for God's servant to share glory with God. One thing we do know is that God can see past our actions and words to understand what is in our hearts. Clearly, God saw something in Moses that was not trustworthy enough to keep Moses in leadership. God held Moses accountable, though Moses was forgiven and actually did make it to the Promised Land -- "And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus (Mark 9:4)." While Moses was forgiven, he had forfeited his right to lead. Christians have a hard time understanding the difference between forgiveness and accountability. Also, I believe that at this point in the journey, God was more interested in the greater refinement of Moses than in Moses reaching a temporal goal. God's standard for Moses was much, much higher than His standard for everyone else, because Moses was at a different place in his relationship with God than anyone else, and God intended to take Moses to the next level by exposing Moses' hidden pride that He would understand His total reliance on the love and grace of God. Eternal life is not found in accomplishment but rather in "Knowing the Father and the One He has sent, Jesus." (John 17:3) God causes us to fail in the areas of strength we tend to rely on and take pride in. Moses was the humblest man of his time, and he had to fail through pride to understand the sufficiency of God's grace. Abraham was known for his faith, yet time and time again, God had to expose his lack of faith. David was known for his integrity; so God had to humble him through Bathsheba. Solomon was the wisest man of his day, and God had to bring him to the place where he would see that his wisdom and unapparelled accomplishment was ultimately "meaningless." Peter was courageous, yet he had to fail through cowardice, denying Christ three times in order to come to a place where he truly was ready to die for Him. Righteous Saul had to facilitate the stoning of Stephen to eventually understand, "'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me." Where might you still be trying to share glory with God in your pride and efforts? What personal 'strengths' will God have to expose as idols in your life, that you may learn to understand the total sufficiency of God's grace?

4. Numbers 20:11 – "Water came out abundantly." Despite their sin, God still provided for His people.

5. Numbers 20:14-21 – God's people still face many obstacles. People will treat you unfairly, and God won't stop it or tell you why He is allowing it to happen. You must trust God while being treated unfairly by others. Move on. Let God deal with them. Romans 8:28 tells us that God allows and uses all adversity for the greater good and ultimate goal of drawing us closer to Him while glorifying Himself through it all.

6. Proverbs 10:22 – "The blessing of the Lord makes rich, and he adds no sorrow with it." Whatever we achieve outside of God's will only causes unwanted sorrow in the long run. God gives blessings without sorrows, but in our lack of faith, we add sorrows. God promised Abraham a son, yet in his lack of faith, Abraham chose to have Ishmael in his own way, cause generations of sorrow. God promised Jacob the inheritance, yet in a lack of faith, Jacob tried to steal it, causing generations of sorrow. Don't add sorrow to God's blessings through fearful, prideful disobedience.

7. Proverbs 10:25 – "When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous is established forever." Everyone goes through the storm, but only the righteous make it through, because the righteous (right with God) have placed ALL of their hope in the righteousness of Jesus. Jesus said it this way -- "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it." (Matthew 7:24-27)

8. Psalm 28:3 – You cannot tell what is really in a person's hearts simply by what they say. People disguise selfishness with pleasing words. People also disguise pain with happy words, fear with confident words, and guilt with prideful, self-righteous words. None of us know the heart of another person – God does. Our commanded response to all is to offer the message of reconciliation.

9. Psalm 28:8 -- "The Lord is the strength of his people." If the Lord is your strength, what could possibly stand against you?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 10 March: Be sure to give God ALL the glory today. Take credit for nothing; give God credit and public praise for all that He has done in your life.

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 9 Mar 18:

* Important contextual verses before reading from Numbers this morning:

 Hebrews 6:20 – “Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.” (see all of Hebrews 6 and 7 for the Priesthood of Christ)

 Exodus 19:6 – “...you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.”

 1 Peter 2:5 – “...you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.”

 1 Peter 2:9 -- But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

 Romans 15:15, 16 – “...because of the grace given me by God to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God....”

 Revelation 1:5, 6 -- Jesus Christ.... loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood 6 and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

 Revelation 5:10 – “...you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth.”

 Revelation 20:6 – “...they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him for a thousand years.”

1. Numbers 17:3 -- "For there shall be one staff for the head of each fathers' house." The building block of the nation was the family. Family leadership set the foundation for generations.

2. Numbers 17:5 – “The staff of the man whom I choose shall sprout.” God chooses His leaders, not men. People may attempt to lift up leaders of their own choosing, but in the end, they will accomplish nothing good.

3. Numbers 17:5, 8 -- ““And the staff of the man whom I choose shall sprout’.... On the next day Moses went into the tent of the testimony, and behold, the staff of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted and put forth buds and produced blossoms, and it bore ripe almonds.” If God is in it; it will grow, unnaturally, miraculously. If God did not commission it, all labor is in vain: Psalm 127:1 – “Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain.” Authority and power come from Christ and is given to those who have been appointed by Him to do His work on earth. If you are a true Christian, that authority and power has been given to you to accomplish the Great Commission and the Great Commandment. (see Matthew 28:18-20) The word "key" in the Bible (as well as in earthly tradition) symbolizes both access and authority. Jesus was given by the Father, the "key of the house of David" (Isaiah 22:22; Revelation 3:7), and the keys of Death and Hades," (Revelation 1:18) and Jesus has given the "keys of the kingdom of heaven" to His disciples (Matthew 16:19). With this special access and authority comes great responsibility on earth.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Numbers 17:10 -- "And the Lord said to Moses, 'Put back the staff of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept as a sign for the rebels, that you may make an end of their grumbings against me, lest they die.'" The evidence of the power of God in the life of a true disciple, priest, ambassador for Christ is a sign for the rebellious in order to lead them away from death.

5. Numbers 18:1 -- "You and your sons and your father's house with you shall bear iniquity connected with the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you shall bear iniquity connected with your priesthood." The priests had a sacred responsibility to keep holiness. To maintain their personal holiness and the holiness of the "church." To emphasize a point in literature, the Jews would repeat a word. For example, when Jesus said, "Verily, verily I say unto you...." He was saying, "Though everything I say is true and worth your attention, this is really, really true and important." There is only one attribute of God repeated three times: "Holy, Holy, Holy." As the priests of this age, we must not lose sight of the Holiness of God or the demand for our holiness.

6. Numbers 18:5 -- "And you shall keep guard over the sanctuary and over the altar, that there may never again be wrath on the people of Israel." Priests have a responsibility to protect people from their own sinful nature.

7. Numbers 18:6 -- "And behold, I have taken your brothers the Levites from among the people of Israel. They are a gift to you, given to the Lord, to do the service of the tent of meeting." Priests are a gift to the people which is given to the Lord for service.

8. Numbers 18:8 -- "Then the Lord spoke to Aaron, 'Behold, I have given you charge of the contributions made to me, all the consecrated things of the people of Israel. I have given them to you as a portion and to your sons as a perpetual due.'" The priests lived off of the gifts and tithes given by the people to the Lord. The gifts and tithes were also used to create a storehouse to meet the needs of the people and the work of the "church". (Nehemiah 10:38, 13:12; Malachi 3:10)

9. Numbers 18:20 -- God's priests had nothing but God which is really everything. We are God's priests.

10. Numbers 18:32 -- "And you shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have contributed the best of it. But you shall not profane the holy things of the people of Israel, lest you die." Priests are strictly warned not to misuse the gifts and tithes.

11. Proverbs 9:1, 2 -- Wisdom is characterized by structure and order.

12. Proverbs 9:6 -- Wisdom involves leaving your old ways.

13. Proverbs 9:9 -- "Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser; teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning." Wise people are open and receptive to instruction.

14. Proverbs 9:14 -- "She sits at the door of her house; she takes a seat on the highest places of the town." Folly is characterized by presumptuous pride and arrogance.

15. Acts 22:3 -- "...being zealous for God..." Bible knowledge is misapplied and dangerous without the love of Christ compelling you, both in your understanding and in your execution. This is why Paul said that if you have all the power in the world but don't have love, you have nothing. This is why Proverbs tells you, "Like a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools." (Proverbs 26:9)

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

16. Acts 22:4-7 -- "I persecuted this Way to the death... I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'" Paul's testimony started with a confession of his sinfulness and total depravity. Paul's message was clear, "I was a worthless sinner saved by God through Jesus Christ, not because of anything that I had done or because of who I had become, but merely because of God's mercy and grace." Isn't that our message too? But yet we still have a tendency to act prideful in our own 'righteousness,' wanting others to think highly of us. We hide our sins from others because we don't want others to see who we really are. Not Paul, he wanted everyone to know exactly how unworthy he was so that the grace of God and the glory of Jesus Christ could be magnified before men, rather than Paul. Paul wanted all attention, honor, glory, and praise to go to Jesus, and he wanted all other sinners like him to know that it is faith in Jesus Christ that saves, not good works done on earth. Do you want people to see goodness in you or greatness in God?

17. Acts 22:7 -- 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' When someone persecutes a Christian, they are really persecuting Jesus.

18. Acts 22:8 -- 'Who are you, Lord?' Jesus reveals Himself to whomever He pleases for His purposes. God's chosen people are often the most unlikely candidates in our eyes. Paul (Saul) was not seeking Jesus when called but, rather was at war with Him. This persecutor of Christians would have been difficult to receive in a congregation after his conversion. Is there someone you could not embrace if they stepped inside your church this Sunday? (More on this point below)

19. Acts 22:7, 8 -- God's work left no choice for Paul but to believe in Jesus.

20. Acts 22:10 -- 'What shall I do, Lord?' When Jesus is really revealed to you, you are ready to serve Him, your old priorities are no longer priorities at all.

21. Acts 22:10 -- "Go into Damascus, and there you will be told all that is appointed for you to do." God expects you to be obedient one step at a time without being told what happens next. Our obedience is not conditional upon the outcome. When God says step, we step, without knowing why. Asking God for a sign or revelation of the future is usually an indicator of a lack of faith and trust in Him. It can be a form of disrespectful disobedience -- "Lord, if you really want me to do what you have said, prove it."

22. Acts 22:13 -- 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' God's plan involves us working with other brothers in our spiritual development. God forces us into relationships because relationship is where we learn how to love.

23. Acts 22:15 -- "For you will be a witness for him to everyone of what you have seen and heard." A witness testifies to what he has seen and heard personally, not second-hand. Tell people your personal story about Jesus Christ.

24. Acts 22:19, 20 -- "And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that in one synagogue after another I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you. And when the blood of Stephen your witness was being shed, I myself was standing by and approving and watching over the garments of those who killed him.'" Paul did not choose God, God chose Paul while he was actively persecuting the Body of Christ -- "And [Ananias] said, 'The God of our fathers appointed you to know his will, to see the Righteous One and to hear a voice from his mouth (Acts 22:14).'" Perhaps no one was more surprised by this appointment than Paul himself -- "And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that in one synagogue after another I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you. And when the blood of Stephen your witness was being shed, I myself was standing by and approving and watching over the garments of those who killed him (Acts 22:19, 20).” Paul learned that “one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God (Romans 5:7-9).” God forgave and appointed Paul, this most unlikely servant; now Paul had to forgive himself and accept his appointment; those he had previously sinned against had to forgive Paul and accept his appointment too. Can you imagine if you were Stephen’s brother? How would you have acted if Paul came to preach in your church? The Bible says, “All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation (2 Corinthians 2:5:18).” To resist forgiveness (both in the giving and the receiving) is to deny our ministry. Paul had to accept grace which is hard to do – “Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3:12-14).” Paul trust God and changed the world for God’s glory (joyfully surrendering his life in the process). What about you? Will you accept grace and walk in grace? Will you step out in faith to commit your life to the Lord? “And now why do you wait...? Go, for I will send you.... (Acts 22:16, 21)”

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 9 March: “For you will be a witness for him to everyone of what you have seen and heard.” (Acts 22:15) Again, a witness testifies to what they have seen and heard personally, not second-hand. Today, tell people your personal story about Jesus Christ, how He saved you, and what He has done in your life.

DBRP- WEEK 10, Day 4, Thursday, 8 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+15%2C+16%3B+proverbs+8%3B+acts+21>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 8 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 15:2 – “When you come into the land you are to inhabit, which I am giving you...” God’s fulfilled promise was never in question or threatened by the faults of the people. It wasn’t “if” but “when.”
2. Numbers 15:22-23 – God’s word remains the standard that defines sin.
3. Numbers 15:29 --- God’s seeks to unify His people.
4. Numbers 16:1-12 – People depart from God when they demand a “higher” work than He gives them.
5. Numbers 16:4-5 -- “You have gone too far! For all in the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the Lord?” When Moses heard it, he fell on his face, and he said to Korah and all his company, ‘In the morning the Lord will show who is his, and who is holy, and will bring him near to him. The one whom he chooses he will bring near to him.’” Again, we must be very careful not to project our own sinful motives onto others, judging their actions from the context of our own sinful motivations. Korah, Dathan, and Abiram judged Moses as ‘self-seeking’ because they were self-seeking -- they projected their own faults on him. They evaluated Moses’ actions based upon how they made decisions, selfishly. They automatically assumed that Moses had to be lifting himself up and empowering himself for personal gain, because that's what they would have done and were, in fact, now doing in their challenge. As is so often the case, they were calling their selfishness spiritual – "all in the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them." In their selfish defensiveness, they caused a problem that should not have occurred and incited others to disunity. We often assume the worse in people because we see them from our own frailties. We are often ungracious to other sinners because in them we see our own sin and feel threatened. In our relationships, we often take things as personal attacks when, in fact, the behavior of others may have nothing to do with us. We must stop and remember the attributes of love: "Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends." Seek first to understand before being understood. Before we judge another person and their behavior, before we search our Bibles for verses to prove their sins, perhaps we should seek to humbly understand what motivates them to do what they are doing, getting to the heart of the problem. Remember, we are called to a mission of reconciliation.

- At the heart of this conflict was that Korah, Dathan, and Abiram were not getting what they wanted quickly enough (because of their own failures) and blamed the leadership – "Moreover, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards (Numbers 16:14)." James had this to say, "What causes quarrels and what causes fights among you? Is it not this, that your passions are at war within you? You desire and do not have, so you murder. You covet and cannot obtain, so you fight and quarrel. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions. You adulterous people!" How many times have selfish passions divided churches, families, friends? Our hearts are deceptive, and we are all susceptible to self-centered, passion-based sin. Best, therefore, to be overly gracious and let God recover what you think you may have lost in the process.

-- "For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.... Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.' To the contrary, 'if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head.' Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good (Romans 12:3, 9-21)."

6. Numbers 28:1-15 – God wants ministers who will help people find His atonement.

7. Proverbs 8:13 – "The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate." Love requires hate -- hatred of evil, pride, arrogance, and deception. If you love flowers, you must hate weeds.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. Proverbs 8:17 -- "I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me." Obtaining wisdom is not a casual endeavor, something that falls into place over time or happens naturally. The pursuit of wisdom requires diligence. This is the way of the disciple.

9. Proverbs 8:33, 34 -- "Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it. Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors." The wise dig deeply into God's word daily, hear God's word, and diligently obey it.

10. Proverbs 8:36 -- "...but he who fails to find me injures himself." There are natural and very predictable consequences of disobeying God's word, whether it is out of ignorance for defiance. God has given us His word, so ignorance is usually negligence. Why injure yourself? Diligent study God's word and obey it.

11. Acts 21:4 – “And having sought out the disciples, we stayed there for seven days.” God intends for His people to seek out and prefer one another. Arriving to a new town, Paul found other Christians, and they took him in and cared for him. This is the way God intended Christians to be. On travel, do you seek out local Christian fellowship? Do you welcome and support Christian travelers?

12. Acts 21:4, 14 -- “And through the Spirit they were telling Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.... And since he would not be persuaded, we ceased and said, ‘Let the will of the Lord be done.’” Through the Spirit, the disciples told Paul not to go to Jerusalem, two separate groups, two separate times. Yet, Paul would not be swayed, eventually resulting in his death. Both Paul and the disciples had access to the Holy Spirit. Why wouldn’t Paul listen to the community of believers? Why would God warn Paul had He not wanted Paul to change course? The Bible doesn’t state whether Paul was right or wrong in going to Jerusalem, and much debate continues in the church today on the matter. While avoiding speculation, we can take away a few clear points: God uses a community of believers to reveal more truth than an individual can obtain on his own. God often uses more than one believer to confirm a word. God calls us to “test the spirits.” God may warn you in order to prepare you rather than to hinder you. God’s plan for your life is ultimately between you and God. Others might provide sound counsel, but you must decide. Finally, if you are wholeheartedly committed to serving God with your life, He will honor your decisions and use you to glorify Himself.

13. Acts 21:8, 9 – “Philip the evangelist... had four unmarried daughters, who prophesied.” Young girls were prophets in a time when young girls were not expected to speak in public. The Holy Spirit breaks down common social barriers. What impact can an evangelistic father have on his daughters?

14. Acts 21:29 – When you are mad at someone, it is easy to misinterpret their actions and to assume the worst. One of the greatest biblical stories to drive home this point is found in 2 Samuel 10, where David’s attempted act of kindness towards another king is misinterpreted as a trick, resulting in the needless deaths of tens of thousands of people.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 8 March: Give people the benefit of the doubt today. Don’t make assumptions about the motives behind their actions. Seek to truly understand them and their perspectives. Begin with a cooperative spirit. (Numbers 16:13; Acts 21:29)

DBRP- WEEK 10, Day 3, Wednesday, 7 Mar 2018

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 7 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 13:1, 9 -- "Send some men to explore the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites.... Only do not rebel against the LORD. And do not be afraid of the people of the land, because we will swallow them up. Their protection is gone, but the LORD is with us. Do not be afraid of them." God had given the Israelites the land of Canaan so His people would dominate and control the most strategic piece of terrain in the region for His glory. However, the people sinned and rebelled by failing to trust God and face the enemy. They failed to act because they were afraid. Due to their lack of faith and lack of action, the Canaanites would control the crossroads of international trade and cultural influence for another 40+ years, and the Jews would continue to wander the desert. Arguably, we have largely ceded control of society's major institutions of influence (schools, media, government, art, entertainment, science, etc) to unbelievers due to fear and rebellion against the King who called His people to be fruitful, multiply and subdue the earth -- to make disciples among all nations, baptizing them and teaching them to obey. "How long will these people treat me with contempt? How long will they refuse to believe in me, in spite of all the miraculous signs I have performed among them?"
2. Numbers 13:2 – God made the promise before He demanded a commitment.
3. Numbers 13:21-25 – God’s people follow God’s instructions.
4. Numbers 13:25 – God protected the spies.
5. Numbers 13:26-33 – Carrying out God’s mission is not enough if you do not learn faith in it.
6. Numbers 13:28-33 – God wants you to look at what He can do, not what the enemy can do.
7. Numbers 14:1, 4 -- "Then all the congregation raised a loud cry, and the people wept that night.... And they said to one another, 'Let us choose a leader and go back to Egypt.'" Jesus gave us the Great Commission – "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age (Matthew 28:19, 20)." Will you obey the Lord fully and wholeheartedly? Or will you be like so many others who see the enormity of the challenge, the risk, and the personal sacrifice required and then reject God’s call, choosing comfort and conformity to the world instead? There really isn’t any middle ground (see Matthew 7:21; Matthew 12:30; Luke 6:46; Luke 11:23; Revelation 3:16). You will either step out in faith, regardless of apparent circumstances, or you won’t. You will either be wholehearted or double-minded. Partial obedience is disobedience. God’s path leads to the Promised Land. The world’s path leads to death in the desert or a return to slavery in Egypt. How will you respond to the Great Commandment and the Great Commission? Paul is a model for us all: "But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God. And now, behold, I know that none of you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom will see my face again. Therefore, I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God (Acts 20:24-27)." Paul committed his all to the proclamation of the gospel, recognizing that, as a "priest" for God, he would be held accountable to God for how well he performed his duties. If you are a Christian, you are also considered by God to be one of His priests – "But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light (1 Peter 2:5, 9).” Are you known by all as a wholehearted priest? Do you consider the measure of your life success how well you fulfilled the Great Commission? What will be the motive behind your actions today?

- James 1:6-8; 4:8 -- The one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.... Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

8. Numbers 14:8-9 – Victory depends on God’s will, not human power.

9. Numbers 14:9 – “Only do not rebel against the Lord. And do not fear the people of the land.” Fear of man rather than fear of God leads to rebellion.

10. Numbers 14:10 – God’s presence protects His faithful people.

11. Numbers 14:11-12 – Rebellion makes God angry.

12. Numbers 14:13-16 – God protects His reputation.

13. Numbers 14:19 – “Please pardon the iniquity of this people, according to the greatness of your steadfast love, just as you have forgiven this people, from Egypt until now.” Moses continued to intercede for the people though they continually turned against Him. Is there someone for whom you have stopped praying?

14. Numbers 14:20-38 -- A lack of faith can cause you to miss out on God’s blessings for you.

15. Numbers 14:24 -- “But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me fully, I will bring into the land into which he went, and his descendants shall possess it.” Of all the original Israelites that left Egypt, only Joshua and Caleb would enter into the Promised Land because they fully committed with all of their hearts to follow the Lord and to trust Him in all circumstances. When we don’t follow the Lord unconditionally, we are rebelling against the Lord by definition -- the Lord must in fact lord over our lives completely. Our lives must be lived in full submission and surrender to the Almighty King. God forgave those who refused to follow His lead into the Promised Land, but He also disciplined them for their behavior -- “The Lord is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but he will by no means clear the guilty (Numbers 14:18).... none of the men who have seen my glory and my signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have put me to the test these ten times and have not obeyed my voice, shall see the land that I swore to give to their fathers (14:22, 23).” Disobedience robs us of the fullness of joy we should receive in Christ. Jesus said, “If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full (John 15:10, 11).” Live joyfully in obedience today.

16. Numbers 14:25 – God still shows His work to His people even when He must discipline them.

17. Numbers 14:27-37 – God’s forbearance with sin has its limits.

18. Numbers 14:39 – God’s discipline brings mourning.

19. Numbers 14:40-41 – God does not always forego punishment when people repent.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

20. Numbers 14:42 – You must see God’s work today.

21. Proverbs 7:2, 3 -- "...keep my commandments and live; keep my teaching as the apple of your eye; bind them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart." God's word, empowered by the Holy Spirit, changes what you care about (heart), what you think about or gaze upon (eyes), and what you choose to do (fingers). There are three levels of motivation: fear (the lowest form of motivation), duty (works), and love (the greatest form of motivation). At first, we might obey God because we are scared not to obey; then we might obey God because we know we should; but as we grow, we begin to obey God because we truly desire to, because of our love. Despite how you might feel, obey, and grow. Note that these verses introduce a warning against adultery. There are many books out there on how to affair-proof your marriage. What does the Bible say?

22. Acts 20:21 – "...repentance toward God and of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ." Repentance and faith go together and are continuous.

23. Acts 20:24 – "But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God." Are you ready to give your life for the Gospel?

24. Acts 20:26-27 – "Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God." We only fail if we fail to proclaim the Gospel.

25. Acts 20:28 – "Care for the church of God, which he obtained with his own blood." We must not forget that God cared enough for others to give His life for them – we love Him when we love them.

26. Acts 20:32 – Ministers need to feed on God’s word.

27. Acts 20:36 – Prayer had a central place in Paul’s ministry. How is prayer prioritized in your life and ministry? BTW, if you think you don’t have a ministry, re-read 2 Corinthians 5:18 – "All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation." For whose reconciliation with God are you fervently praying?

DBRP- WEEK 10, Day 2, Tuesday, 6 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+11%2C+12%3B+proverbs+6%3B+acts+19>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 6 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 11:1 – "And the people complained in the hearing of the Lord about their misfortunes, and when the Lord heard it, his anger was kindled..." God had miraculously freed, saved, and sustained His people, but they complained nonetheless. How does God view our ungratefulness? Psalm 50:23 – "The one who offers thanksgiving as his sacrifice glorifies me."

2. Numbers 11:2 – "Then the people cried out to Moses." Leaders look out for the welfare of their followers even when they don’t deserve it. Leaders intercede in prayer for their followers before God.

3. Numbers 11:4, Acts 19:32 – "Now the rabble that was among them had a strong craving. And the people of Israel also wept again and said, 'Oh that we had meat to eat!'.... Now some cried out one thing, some another, for the assembly was in confusion, and most of them did not know why they had come together.” The rabble instigated ungodly behavior among the people. The rabble was controlled by cravings and self-centeredness. Christians run the risk of being caught up and consumed by the worries of the world, influenced more by the unbelieving community (the rabble) than by the presence of God in their lives. This is particularly true as media captivates our attention and drives the social discourse. We worry all day long about a million issues across the globe, from nuclear proliferation to local domestic issues, but we can’t see the suffering person two cubicles down from our work station. Bird flu (2006), Ebola (2014), global warming (current), how were/are all these “global crisis” relevant to the person next door whose life is falling apart? Did you get whipped up into a frenzy during the last political season? Politicians are not our main problem, nor are the various forms of ‘Canaanites’ in the world. Our problem is our infidelity to what God has commanded His people to be and to do. Consider the issues of the day during Jesus’ time under Roman occupation. The political, social, and economic situation was certainly worse for the original believers than it is for us. While many wanted Jesus to lead a political uprising and conquer using the ‘weapons of the world’, what did Jesus focus His attention on? What did He talk about? What did He do? His battle plan, His strategy was the Sermon on the Mount. His approach was to remain “one” with the Father and to draw those with whom He had personal relationships into greater unity with the Father, with Him, and with each other. Global change, revolution, starts with personal change (repentance, transformation, sanctification – vertical relationship and vertical love) and then horizontal relational change (forgiveness, reconciliation, and love). Perhaps one of the best things you could do today is go on a media fast, and intentionally stop talking about what everyone else is talking about. Focus on Jesus, and share Him with those around you. The most revolutionary thing you could do today in order to change the world is represent or ‘re-present’ Christ today in the place that God has put you, in the relationships He has given you. The worldly powers are absolutely no match against the power of God in the lives of the faithful. Where evil prevails is where we have failed to display and project God’s power due to our own infidelity. Our answers are not of this world.

- God’s people are guided by the Spirit, not by passions, cravings, and worldly desires. The “rabble” are those who are not living by the Spirit but rather are driven by self-interest and self-gratification. In today’s readings, the rabble complained about not having meat to eat, but God said that their real issue was that they had “rejected the Lord who [was] among [them].” These are the sort of people described by Paul in Philippians 3:19 – “Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things.” Both in Numbers and in Philippians, we are dealing with people on the inside – people within the congregation who aren’t really seeking God but rather the gifts of God. They are no better than Demetrius, the silversmith for the shrines of Artemis, who incited the riot in Ephesus on behalf of “great goddess Artemis,” not really for the sake of Artemis but because, “there is danger... that this trade of ours may come into disrepute.” The real danger is when the “rabble” starts to influence the rest of the church as occurred with the Israelites in the desert. Paul also warned against this. Proverbs warns us, “Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of the evil (Proverbs 4:14).” Proverbs says that the key is to hold fast to the word of God, obey the commands of God, and “Keep your heart with all vigilance.” Many today who call themselves Christians have rejected the word of God in order to accommodate their own desires. Of this rabble the Bible says, “For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths (2 Timothy 4:3, 4).” In response, the Bible tells us to “preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching (2 Timothy 4:2), and to have nothing to do with those who pursue false teachings (1 Timothy 4:7, 2 Timothy 2:23, Titus 3:10).

- These weak-willed rabble preferred comfort over freedom and God's provision. They were ready to return to slavery for the sake of a piece of meat. Don't they remind you of Esau who was willing to sell his inheritance for a bowl of soup? Don't they remind you of so many today who want to be spoon fed by the government? The above verses remind me of a quote from Samuel Adams: "If ye love wealth greater than liberty, the tranquility of servitude greater than the animating contest for freedom, go home from us in peace. We seek not your counsel, nor your arms. Crouch down and lick the hand that feeds you; and may posterity forget that ye were our countrymen." How often as Christians do we surrender the best of what God had to offer for instant gratification. How often are we tempted to return to the slavery of sin for fleeting pleasure. Better to suffer with God than to take comfort without Him. Walk in freedom and in truth today.

4. Numbers 11:21-23 -- "Is the Lord's hand shortened?" No problem is too big for God. God will do the impossible in order to glorify Himself.

5. Numbers 12:3, 7 -- "Now the man Moses was very meek, more than all people who were on the face of the earth.... He is faithful in all my house." God's chosen leader was most known for meekness, humility and faithfulness. For what are you most known?

6. Numbers 12:8 -- "With him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in riddles, and he beholds the form of the Lord." Moses' fidelity enabled a very special relationship with God. The Christian is empowered by the Holy Spirit, but the Bible warns that we can "quench" the Spirit, "grieve" the Spirit, and get out of "step" with the Spirit through sin -- "For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh...." (Galatians 5:17) Sin hinders your unity with God and your ability to hear His word in clarity. The Bible says, "Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded." (James 4:8) Nearness to God is not a matter of time and space, but rather a matter of love, displayed in fidelity and obedience. - Draw nearer to Jesus today and hear His voice more clearly -- "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me." (John 10:27)

7. Numbers 12:13 -- "And Moses cried to the Lord, 'O God, please heal her—please.'" Moses prayed fervently for those who opposed him. Do you?

8. Proverbs 6:6-11 -- Self-disciplined people diligently do what needs to be done without needing any external motivation or immediate payoff.

9. Proverbs 6:9 -- "How long will you lie there, O sluggard?" There are many forms of procrastination. One form is to think about doing something for eternity. Successful people spend most of their time, 70-90% in execution, learning as they go. You learn the most by doing. It is important to read and think, but this too can be a form of procrastination. We often overthink it. Read God's word and then do it. You don't really understand it until you have experienced it.

10. Proverbs 6:16 -- "There are six things that the Lord hates, seven that are an abomination to him...." As a servant of Christ, you should know what God hates, and you should hate these things too.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

11. Acts 19:15 – “And the evil spirit answered and said, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?” There is no secondhand spirituality. No one else can develop Christian maturity on your behalf. A strong Christian heritage is an asset, but it cannot take the place of your own vibrant, growing relationship with Christ. Paul had a powerful walk with God. God used him so mightily that extraordinary miracles occurred through his life. Cloths that touched Paul were taken to the sick, and the sick were healed (Acts 19:10-12). Evil spirits were cast out. Paul’s preaching and teaching were instrumental in building a strong church in Ephesus. Paul’s ministry was so impressive, in fact, that others tried to duplicate it. Seven sons of the chief priest, Sceva, attempted to cast out demons the way Paul did. They confronted an evil spirit and attempted to exorcise it “by the Jesus whom Paul preaches.” These men were trying to use a spiritual power that Paul had acquired after years of walking closely with his Lord. They could imitate Paul’s words, but they could not duplicate the power that was his through his personal relationship with God. The evil spirit retorted, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?” The demon then viciously attacked them and humiliated them. The evil spirits were fearfully aware of Jesus (James 2:19); they were familiar with Paul’s influence over the powers of darkness. But the demons had no knowledge of the seven sons of Sceva. You can duplicate the words and deeds of a spiritually mature Christian, but you cannot inherit his or her walk with God. Christian maturity takes effort; it comes over time. If you ignore the place of prayer and if you neglect your relationship with Christ, you will not grow in your faith. Imitating the faith of others will not give you victory. Only as you nurture your own relationship with Jesus will your life be filled with spiritual maturity and power. (Henry T. Blackaby)

12. Acts 19:18-20 – Revival came when people repented and confessed their sins in the church.

13. Acts 19:20 – “So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.” Paul’s world worshiped idols. No idol was more revered in Ephesus than the goddess Diana. The great statue was housed in a magnificent temple and was recognized as one of the wonders of the world. An idol-making industry, providing a livelihood for many people, developed in Ephesus to support the widespread idolatry of the day. Paul did not go to Ephesus to condemn those worshiping idols but to unashamedly proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ. As Paul shared the truths of God, and as people were set free from their sins, idol worship began to decline. The contrast between stone carvings and God’s power to change lives became obvious. The righteous lives of the Christians stood in stark contrast to the hedonistic practices of the idol worshipers. The victorious Christian witness was so compelling that the economy of the entire city was thrown into upheaval as idolatry diminished in favor of Christianity. An idol is anything that diverts our devotion from God. Our society is as idolatrous as Paul’s was. Rather than worshiping statues, we choose possessions, pleasures, or careers as our gods and pour our time, finances, and energy into these things. Each of us is called, as Paul was, to live a victorious, joyful, and purposeful Christian life in the midst of an idolatrous society. We do not have to seek out and condemn today’s idols. Rather, as we live out our Christianity, enjoying the abundant life God gives, our lives will discredit the idols around us. We may face opposition and hostility from those who are angered at the contrast between our God and theirs. People do not like to have their idols dethroned! Yet as we uphold Christ, others will see a difference and be drawn to Him and the life that He offers. (Henry T. Blackaby)

14. Acts 19:23-41 – Revival stirred up opposition among unbelievers.

15. Acts 19:26 – Revival came when God alone was recognized as God.

16. Acts 19:27 – Revival threatened all other religions.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 6 March: Today pray for your enemies and those who treat you unfairly. (Numbers 12:13)

DBRP- WEEK 10, Day 1, Monday, 5 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+9%2C+10%3B+proverbs+5%3B+acts+18>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 5 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 9:8 -- "And Moses said to them, 'Wait, that I may hear what the Lord will command concerning you.'" How do you make decisions? Yesterday, Psalm 27 concluded with these words: "Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!" Today, we read that Moses waited for revelation from the Lord to make decisions rather than simply trusting in his own reason and judgment. We read of the Israelites: "At the command of the Lord they camped, and at the command of the Lord they set out (Numbers 9:23)." In Proverbs we are reminded, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding (Proverbs 3:5)." Finally, today in Acts we read that Paul was guided by visions from God (Acts 18:9). Jesus said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise (John 5:19)." It is very hard to wait on the Lord. However, the Bible demonstrates time and time again that to walk with the Lord, we must give Him the lead. We see that throughout the Bible, God's people get in huge trouble when they don't wait for the Lord – remember Abraham and Jacob? God promised Abraham children and Jacob the inheritance, but they both grew impatient and took matters into their own hands – we are still suffering today for their sins. It takes great faith to wait on the Lord. Because God's timing is not our timing, and it often feels like we are being indecisive or doing nothing. However, in reality we are deciding to do the most important thing: trust in the Lord. The world says, "Don't just stand there; do something!" God says, "Don't just do something; stand there, and wait for my word." It is impossible for us to know the path God has in store for us – His thoughts and ways are infinitely removed from ours. And God seldom reveals where He is taking you when He says, "Go." Also, God will usually tell you to go where you had never intended in order for you to do things that are impossible (of your own strength). Again, it takes great faith to wait and to walk only when and where God tells you to. However, to walk in our own understanding is to walk away from the blessings God intends for us. But what does waiting on the Lord look like in practical, daily decision-making? After all, God will not likely to tell you what job to take, what car to buy, or whether or not to go on that trip through a vision. It starts with humbly turning to God for wisdom (knowledge rightly applied); then, remaining prayerfully immersed in God's word, which will give you godly perspective on circumstances; remaining obedient to God's word, regardless the apparent cost of fidelity – not cutting corners for expediency's sake; seeking the counsel of mature Christians, always remembering to "test the spirits," for consistency with God's written word; and making the most faithful decisions you can while trusting God with what you didn't understand. Faith is trusting God enough to obey Him in the present; and hope is trusting God with the future. Love, God's love for you, ensures that even your failures cannot thwart God's perfect will for you in your life. Who has the lead in your life?

2. Numbers 9:10, 11 – God made special provision for those who could not worship on schedule.

3. Numbers 9:14 – God is available to everyone.

4. Numbers 9:15-16 – God intends to be in the midst of His people.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

5. Numbers 9:20-23 – “Sometimes the cloud was a few days over the tabernacle, and according to the command of the Lord they remained in camp; then according to the command of the Lord they set out.... Whether it was two days, or a month, or a longer time, that the cloud continued over the tabernacle, abiding there, the people of Israel remained in camp and did not set out, but when it lifted, they set out. At the command of the Lord they camped, and at the command of the Lord they set out. They kept the charge of the Lord, at the command of the Lord by Moses.” God determines the timing, and we are called to obey. We wait when God says wait, and we move when God says move, all according to His timing. It is impossible for us to understand God’s timing, and we should not get overly concerned about understanding His plan for us. We should focus on obedience today, trusting God with the future. We can plan for the future, and the Bible says we should, but our plan is only as good as its alignment with God’s plan. Delayed obedience is disobedience. When God calls you to obey His word, do not hesitate! Conversely, don’t get ahead of God, as discussed above.

6. Numbers 10:8, 9 – “The trumpets shall be to you for a perpetual statute throughout your generations. And when you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, that you may be remembered before the Lord your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies.” God’s plan is that all of God’s people would be ready to respond to the call to support one another through adversity. How well is the global church today working together to protect the global body from adversaries?

7. Numbers 10:12 – “...and the people of Israel set out by stages from the wilderness of Sinai.” Millions of God’s people moved in a very organized fashion, based upon the plan that they had established under God’s direction. The church cannot function with unity of effort and action if it doesn’t have a plan to do so, if every person doesn’t understand their specific duties and responsibilities as part of the larger whole.

8. Numbers 10:31 – “And he said, ‘Please do not leave us, for you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you will serve as eyes for us.’” The people followed the cloud of the Lord, but God also used Moses’ father-in-law to instruct the people in some specifics. God leads us in many ways, often through other godly people who have knowledge and skills that we do not have. God intentionally made us relational, to rely on Him and others.

9. Proverbs 5:22 – “The iniquities of the wicked ensnare him, and he is held fast in the cords of his sin.” Do not let sin ensnare you!

10. Acts 18:2, 3, 18-26 – Priscilla and Aquila apparently became bi-vocational missionaries, and Paul joined them for a time. Priscilla and Aquila had a big impact on the early church as a husband/wife business/ministry team.

11. Acts 18:2, 3 – “And he went to see them, and because he was of the same trade he stayed with them and worked, for they were tentmakers by trade.” Paul worked to finance his ministry. His job was not his identity or life aim but merely a way to resource his real mission of spreading the Gospel.

12. Acts 18:4 – “And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and tried to persuade Jews and Greeks.” Paul was diligently faithful to his calling to reach all with the Gospel. Paul did use his work as an excuse for not fulfilling the Great Commission, nor did he use his ministry as an excuse for not working – he worked hard both in industry and ministry.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Acts 18:5, 6 -- “When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul was occupied with the word, testifying to the Jews that the Christ was Jesus. And when they opposed and reviled him, he shook out his garments and said to them, ‘Your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles.’” Paul dedicated himself to relentlessly testifying about Jesus from the word of God to anyone who would listen. He understood that he was responsible for preaching the Gospel, not for how others chose to respond to God’s word. Preach the truth of Jesus to anyone who will listen. Don’t worry about how they will respond – God knows. When someone comes to see you, hopefully they will find you “occupied with the word, testifying... that the Christ was Jesus.”

14. Acts 18:9 -- “Do not be afraid, but go on speaking and do not be silent.” Are you afraid to proclaim the Gospel? Do not be afraid or silent. If your message does not start and end with the person of Jesus Christ, your message is NOT the Gospel. It is impossible to reconcile others to Jesus if you don’t tell them about Jesus, not just vague notions of goodness or sentimental thoughts of God – Jesus Christ! When Jesus gave us the Great Commission, he did so under all authority and promised that He would be with us always and that we would be empowered by the Holy Spirit. He has appointed us as His Ambassadors. Do not be afraid, but go on speaking and do not be silent. God is with you; what else matters?

15. Acts 18:9, 10 -- “Do not be afraid, but go on speaking and do not be silent, for I am with you.” When Jesus gave us the Great Commission, he did so under all authority and promised that He would be with us always and that we would be empowered by the Holy Spirit. He has appointed us as His Ambassadors. Do not be afraid, but go on speaking and do not be silent. God is with you; what else matters?

16. Acts 18:26 – “He began to speak boldly in the synagogue, but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.” Apollos was a powerful preacher who still needed spiritual mentorship, both Priscilla and Aquila (husband and wife) took him under their wing, encouraging him and supporting him. They disciplined him. Who is disciplining you, and who are you disciplining? Note that Priscilla and Aquila corrected him in private, not damaging his pride or reputation. They also encouraged him and supported him. Too often Christians fail to instruct one another graciously and tactfully.

17. Acts 18:27 – “When he arrived, he greatly helped those who through grace had believed.” Only through the grace of God can anyone believe. People believe through the grace of God, not through our efforts, though God uses us as His instruments in the process. God calls us to proclaim the Gospel to all, but only the Holy Spirit can convict a heart.

18. Acts 18:28 – “he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, showing by the Scriptures that the Christ was Jesus.” All of the Scriptures, OT and NT, proclaim Jesus; the Gospel is Jesus; we are Jesus’ Ambassadors entrusted with the Gospel. Are you ready to publicly proclaim Jesus Christ using the Bible as your guide?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 5 March: Commit today to your true life’s mission as a Christian – proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ and advancing the Kingdom of God one heart at a time. Consider your earthly job, not as your purpose in life, but rather as the means to accomplish your purpose, the method of resourcing your Ambassadorship. When people ask what you do, tell them you are an Ambassador of Jesus Christ. If your ‘profession’ hinders your witness, find another profession, even if it is just making tents. (Acts 18)

DBRP- WEEK 9, Day 7, Sunday, 4 Mar 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 4 Mar 18:

<https://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+7%2C+8%3B+proverbs+4%3B+psalm+26%2C+27>

1. Numbers 7:6-9 -- "Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites. Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service. And four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because they were charged with the service of the holy things that had to be carried on the shoulder." Moses distributed the resources among the Levites according to the work and responsibilities of the Levites: Gershon received two carts and four oxen to support their work of transporting the fabrics of the tabernacle (Numbers 4:25-26). However, Merari received four carts and eight oxen because they had the job of transporting the boards and framework of the tabernacle (Numbers 4:31-32). Kohath received no carts or oxen because they were instructed to carry the holy furniture of the tabernacle on their shoulders (Numbers 4:4). Had Kohath received a cart they did not need for their service to God, it might have been a temptation for them to disobey God's instructions to them. So, Moses did not give them one. God has given what you need to serve Him in the assignments He has for you. There is no sense in comparing your "carts and oxen" with anyone else's sin. God has a different purpose for each of us. And, don't expect God to give you what you don't need that you might be tempted to cut corners.

2. Numbers 7:12-88 – These were large, generous offerings, but each tribal leader's offering was exactly the same, and the Bible makes that clear by restating the offering from each leader. This exact accounting prevented any special honor being attributed to any tribal leader. Repeating the offering in detail over and over with each leader also demonstrates that, though identical, God recognizes each offering individually and specifically, without favoritism. A group of faithful people are honored by God corporately and also individually.

3. Numbers 8:8, 12 – Ministers are sinners too who need atonement.

4. Numbers 8:13 – God sees ministers as an offering to Him – see Romans 12:1.

5. Proverbs 4:7 – "The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight." The beginning of wisdom is to understand that you don't have it. Socrates said, "Wisdom is knowing you know nothing." The moment you think you have achieved wisdom, you have stopped growing in wisdom and have begun to drift away from it, like a boat on the ocean that has lost power. God is the source of all wisdom. To grow in wisdom is to grow closer to Him, more obedient to Him, more responsive to His Spirit. Our pursuit of "knowing Jesus" and growing in wisdom is never-ending. When you are far from an object, it may appear very small; but the closer you get the bigger it becomes and the smaller you feel. As we grow closer to God, He only gets bigger from our perspective, and we only get smaller, driving us to greater and greater humility. Humility and wisdom go hand-in-hand. The wisest people are the humblest people, not the most prideful. Many take great pride in their education, their professional status, their degrees, titles, etc. But not only are these things not wisdom, they threaten your humility and your potential ability to obtain wisdom. The world is full of smart people but very lacking in wise people.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. Proverbs 4:18 – “But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day.” We were made righteous (right with God) through the blood of Jesus Christ the moment we were born again, but we grow into that righteousness for the rest of our lives, the light in us shining brighter and brighter every day.

7. Proverbs 4:19 – “The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know over what they stumble.” Jesus said it like this on the cross: “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.” (Luke 23:34)

8. Psalm 26:1-3 -- “Vindicate me, O Lord, for I have walked in my integrity, and I have trusted in the Lord without wavering. Prove me, O Lord, and try me; test my heart and my mind. For your steadfast love is before my eyes, and I walk in your faithfulness.” Psalm 26 is fascinating, coming from David who murdered a great warrior to cover up David’s adulterous relationship with the warrior’s wife. Scholars speculate as to whether Psalm 26 was written pre-Bathsheba or post-Bathsheba, but perhaps it doesn’t matter for our consideration of these powerful, inspired verses:

- David understood he was a sinner before Bathsheba. However, David confidently walked in “[his] integrity but in “[God’s] faithfulness,” with his eyes fixed on God’s “steadfast love.” David is not asking God to vindicate him on his personal righteousness, but rather to vindicate him on his faith in God and heart for God. David loves God and seeks to live a life of loving obedience, but David knows that his integrity is limited. David knows his love and fidelity are imperfect but trusts in God’s perfect love and fidelity, in God’s grace.

- “Prove me, O Lord, and try me; test my heart and my mind.” David was a man after God’s own heart; he wanted a pure heart for God. David understood that his heart was deceptive and God would need to reveal to David the hidden sin in his heart. Perhaps, this is where God allowed Bathsheba to enter into the picture. It is painful when God exposes the truth of you, but the pain does not compare to the “immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.” (Ephesians 2:7)

- In Psalm 26:4-8, David describes his integrity in action. Personal holiness was important to David because he loved God and knew it was important to God. David avoided the company of sinners (26:4, 5), remained innocent, frequented church, and constantly proclaimed his faith (26:6-8) because his focus was on pleasing the Lord, not on pleasing others or gratifying self. In Psalm 27, David reveals the source of his motivation for holiness: “One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the Lord and to inquire in his temple.... I believe that I shall look upon the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living (27:4, 13)!” David’s actions revealed the bent of his heart. Why do you do what you do? What is your motivation? Is it to “look upon the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living?”

- Still, David knew his integrity wasn’t enough – “But as for me, I shall walk in my integrity; redeem me, and be gracious to me.” He relied on God’s grace and redemption. To David vindication (the word he started this psalm with) and redemption go hand-in-hand.

9. Psalm 27:1 -- “The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?” Fear is a lack of perspective of who God is and what He has done for you. It takes the right perspective on God to have the right perspective on life’s trials. What then shall we say to these things? “If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?... No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 8:31-39).” How does the love of God change everything in your life?

10. Psalm 27:14 – “Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!” Waiting for the Lord takes strength and courage, but it is essential.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 4 March: Once again, wait on the Lord today. Seek God’s guidance before acting. Don’t get wrapped up in business, activities, even good deeds, but seek to only do or say what God tells you to do our say. (Psalm 27:14)

DBRP- WEEK 9, Day 6, Saturday, 3 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+5%2C+6%3B+proverbs+3%3B+psalm+25>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 3 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 5:3 – “You shall put out both male and female, putting them outside the camp, that they may not defile their camp, in the midst of which I dwell.” God is in the midst of His people and does not distinguish between race, gender, or ethnicity.

2. Numbers 5:4 – God expects immediate obedience to the work He gives His people.

3. Numbers 5:6, 7 -- “Speak to the people of Israel, When a man or woman commits any of the sins that people commit by breaking faith with the Lord, and that person realizes his guilt, he shall confess his sin that he has committed. And he shall make full restitution for his wrong, adding a fifth to it and giving it to him to whom he did the wrong.” Sin is against God, and God takes it very seriously, even if you didn’t realize you were sinning when you were doing it. God commands His people to not only confess their sins to those who they have offended, but he also expects them to make restitution as much as possible. Jesus reiterated this responsibility: “So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift (Matthew 5:23, 24).” Unresolved sin between you and others affects your worship. Some have suggested that restitution is not required because sins are ultimately committed against God, and we are under grace; however, this is not Jesus’ teaching. In fact, Jesus says that we are to confess and make restitution immediately, urgently. In Luke 19, Zacchaeus offers a great example of immediate confession and restitution regardless the personal cost. The problem with confessing sins to others is that they are generally not as forgiving as God (Psalm 25 speaks eloquently to the grace and mercy God offers the repentant sinner). However, we are to trust God to work on the heart of the offended. Trust God with the consequences. Delay is disobedience. Today is the day to settle matters “as far as it depends on you.”

- Romans 12:18 -- If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Numbers 5:11-31 – To deal with jealousy issues and hidden sins, God included oaths given to the priest with visual symbolism to solidify the commitment. The adultery test essentially turned an unresolvable matter over to God. The ceremony described signified the accused's oath to God before the priest.

5. Numbers 6 – Remember this chapter when you read about Samson in the future – he was intended to be a Nazarite.

6. Numbers 6:1-21 – God calls certain people to a special commitment which demands extraordinary devotion and focus. Abstinence from strong drink ensured the person under vow would not lose self-control and unintentionally do something to break the vow. Breaking the vow required atonement from God.

7. Numbers 6:4-26 – Peace is a wholeness and completeness of life (not the absence of life challenges) which comes from closeness to God.

8. Proverbs 3:1 -- "Let your heart keep my commandments." Obey God starts with the heart and is not just about activities.

9. Proverbs 3:5 -- "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding." Faith is an issue of trust, and you won't trust who you do not know. Jesus said, knowing Him was "eternal life." (See John 17) Your faith is evidence of your relationship with Jesus. Obedience to God is evidence of your faith and love.

10. Proverbs 3:7 -- "Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord, and turn away from evil." Faith means that you have to do what doesn't make sense to you at the time, simply because God commanded it.

11. Proverbs 3:9, 10 -- "Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the first fruits of all your produce; then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine." Abraham gave the tithe before the written Law, and Jesus commended tithing in the New Testament. Tithing comes with a promise. It is an act of faith that often doesn't seem to make sense from a human perspective.

12. Proverbs 3:11, 12 -- "My son, do not despise the Lord's discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the Lord reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights." Faith trusts the Lord through discipline, understanding that His discipline, though painful, is an act of love.

13. Proverbs 3:19 -- "The Lord by wisdom founded the earth...." God made the natural laws and the ethical laws that govern all creation. He holds us accountable to both. There are basic principles for living that hold true because God made them. If you choose to disobey either His natural laws or His ethical laws, you will suffer needlessly. For example, if you don't take care of your physical body, you will suffer needlessly; if you don't live by love, you will suffer needlessly. Though God gives us grace, He also holds us accountable for the word He has given us, particularly since He has given us access to the Holy Spirit for supernatural strength and self-control.

14. Psalm 25:2 – "O my God, in you I trust." Really? Obey Him then. Proclaim Him! Surrender all the Him!

15. Psalm 25:3 – "Indeed, none who wait for you shall be put to shame." Waiting is one of the hardest things to do. God's promises are not on our timeline. Are you willing to wait and continue to obey day-by-day without apparent results? Consider the Bible stories you have already read about those who waited and were blessed and those who couldn't wait anymore and were cursed.

16. Psalm 25:27 – “Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for the sake of your goodness, O Lord!” We count on God's goodness, not ours.

17. Psalm 25:9 – “He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.” Humility is the prerequisite as discussed previously.

16. Psalm 25:15 – “My eyes are ever toward the Lord, for he will pluck my feet out of the net.” Focus is everything. With focus comes power. A 50-watt lightbulb can barely light up a room, but 50-watt lasers are used to cut through bone in medical surgery. The difference is focus. To live a powerful, purposeful life, focus all of your energy on Jesus.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 3 March: Focus all of your energy today on obeying Jesus and serving Him. Make the most of every opportunity today to proclaim Jesus to others. Strive to view everything around you from Jesus's perspective. Walk with Him today, and wait for His lead. Don't just get busy with all sorts of activities today. Wait for the Holy Spirit to guide you. (See today's readings)

DBRP- WEEK 9, Day 5, Friday, 2 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+3%2C+4%3B+proverbs+2%3B+acts+17>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 2 Mar 18:

1. Numbers 3:12 -- “Behold, I have taken the Levites from among the people of Israel instead of every firstborn who opens the womb among the people of Israel. The Levites shall be mine.” The priests of God are living sacrifices, their earthly lives are essentially over as they devote everything to God – “I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.” (Romans 12:1) “You yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.” (1 Peter 2:5)

2. Numbers 3:25 – Guard duty was an act of worship. All that we do should be an act of worship before the Lord, dedicated to Him and His purposes, motivated by love for Him rather than motivated by fear, pride, or obligation.

3. Proverbs 2:6 -- “For the Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.” Who are you listening to?

4. Proverbs 2:10 – “Wisdom will come into your heart.” God's word will change your heart.

5. Acts 17:1-3 -- True preaching focuses on the person of Jesus Christ.

6. Acts 17:11, 12 -- “Now these Jews were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so. Many of them therefore believed, with not a few Greek women of high standing as well as men.” The Bereans were nobler than the rest because they did not just accept the teachings of Paul, despite his credentials, but rather diligently studied the word of God for themselves, testing Paul's teachings by going to the source.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

This is a model for us. As a “kingdom of priests,” we should all strive to be Biblical scholars. One of the primary challenges we face in the church today is that most Christians are biblically illiterate despite the incredible access we enjoy to the Bible and to study resources. Ironically, many Christians are being “taught” the Bible by agenda-driven humanists through universities, television, and other media. Many other Christians simply rely on their pastors to feed them the word. While we all need strong pastors and teachers, they are no substitutes for personal, diligent Bible study. We should be like the Bereans. Finally, note from today’s readings how while Paul taught the Bible and “reasoned with them from the Scriptures,” he was violently attacked by “some wicked men of the rabble” who were not interested in reasonable debate but rather were only interested in shutting down the dialogue with force if necessary. We will see the more and more today. Be bold and well-read.

7. Acts 17:23 – Most people are searching for God in some way.

8. Acts 17:27-28 – God makes it easy to find Him if you are looking.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 2 March: Whatever you are holding back from the Lord, surrender it today. (Numbers 3:12; Romans 12:1; 1 Peter 2:5)

DBRP- WEEK 9, Day 4, Thursday, 1 Mar 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=numbers+1%2C+2%3B+proverbs+1%3B+acts+16>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 1 Mar 18:

1. Number 1:2, 2:2, 2:34 -- “Take a census of all the congregation of the people of Israel, by clans, by fathers' houses, according to the number of names, every male, head by head.... The people of Israel shall camp each by his own standard, with the banners of their fathers' houses. They shall camp facing the tent of meeting on every side.... According to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so they camped by their standards, and so they set out, each one in his clan, according to his fathers' house.” God built his nation on families with fathers leading their families and taking responsibility for their families. God started from scratch with Abram (Abraham) and slowly built from him 12 tribes, now 603,550 fighting men (not counting families and Levites). The nation organized in families, clans, and tribes, with the senior father (elder) maintaining responsibility for their tribe which would number in the tens of thousands (fighting men). What united the families, clans, and tribes was their faith and commitment to God. The “tent of meeting” was at the center and was where all business occurred. I believe this is a model for the Kingdom of God on earth. We need to rebuild families in the church, and Christian families should be united in effort and action by their faith and commitment to the Great Commandment and Great Commission. We need revival among fathers to return to positions of leadership within their homes, and we need to reestablish in them a sense of generational responsibility and accountability. How many men today lead their families with a vision of building a clan or tribe, organized to glorify God with great effect on earth?

- The family unit is the foundation of society, the place where character is established and competencies are taught from which culture and society is established. Strong families make a strong nation. Weak families make a weak nation. God's most important institution is marriage, from which strong families are established and character and competence are passed from generation to generation. As the family goes, so goes the nation.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- Malachi 2:13-16 – “You cover the Lord’s altar with tears, with weeping and groaning because he no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favor from your hand. But you say, ‘Why does he not?’ Because the Lord was witness between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been faithless, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant. Did He not make them one, with a portion of the Spirit in their union? And what was the one God seeking? Godly offspring. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and let none of you be faithless to the wife of your youth. ‘For the man who does not love his wife but divorces her, says the Lord, the God of Israel, covers his garment with violence, says the Lord of hosts. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not be faithless.’”

2. Numbers 1:46 -- “All those listed were 603,550.” Throughout the Bible, we see that God expects His leaders to keep accountability of every person for which they have been given responsibility, to know their condition and to have a plan for them. Today, our readings deal with accountability of the warriors. In places like Ezra chapter 2, and Nehemiah chapter 7, the people of Israel are counted by families down to the individual. God cares about every person individually, knowing every hair on every person’s head. God has given us the mission of loving others, caring for them as He does. God has placed people in your family, in your church, in your community, in your life intentionally and has entrusted you to care for them. Do you have accountability of all the people God has intentionally placed in your life so that you could care for them? Are you fulfilling your responsibility for them? The Bible says that God has also placed you intentionally within a body of believers with each member of that body fulfilling a very specific role, much like the parts of a human body serve specific purposes and work in unison. But what does it mean when one part of a body is hurting and the rest of the body doesn’t feel that hurt? What would it mean if your foot was broken but you couldn’t feel it? That would be the symptom of a very serious, life threatening disease. But how often have we lost sensitivity to the pains of those who God has intentionally connected with us? What does that say about our condition? If you haven’t already done so, make a list of those God has intentionally placed in your life and make the commitment to begin praying for them weekly by name. Yes, your list will likely be in the hundreds and will take some serious thought. But start with an inside-out approach. Start with your immediate family, then your extended family, then your church family, your neighbors, your friends, etc. Keep accountability of your relationships, and as you commit to pray for people individually, you will begin to increase or revive your sensitivity to their needs, and you will grow in love for them.

3. Numbers 1:1-54 – God prepared His people for action rather than stagnation.

4. Proverbs 1:7, 28-31 -- “The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.... Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me. Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof, therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way, and have their fill of their own devices.” True wisdom and knowledge are not obtainable apart from God, nor is self-control, which is fruit that is of the Spirit. The godless “seek” wisdom, knowledge, and self-control “diligently,” but it will elude them because they lack “fear of the LORD.” Therefore, they will condemn themselves by choice. People cannot create wisdom and knowledge; they can only be filled with it. The Bible says, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.” (John 1:1-5) The Greek word used in these verses for “Word” is

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

“Logos.” Concerning logos, R.C. Sproul says, the Greeks used this word to describe the cause of purpose and order in the universe, the source of logic:

-- “All attempts to translate the word Logos have suffered from some degree of inadequacy. No English word is able to capture the fullness of John’s Logos when he declared that the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. Attempts have been made by philosophers to translate Logos as logic, act, or deed—all of which are inadequate definitions.” Only through Christ can anyone be filled with wisdom, knowledge, and self-control. Christians are to reveal, reflect, and project wisdom in the world by virtue of their connection with Christ as “branches” connected to the “vine.” We should not cheapen logos by attempting to package it in a worldly fashion, by dumbing it down to make it more acceptable to the sinner. Logos is holy – “I wash my hands in innocence and go around your altar, O LORD, proclaiming thanksgiving aloud, and telling all your wondrous deeds.” (Psalm 26:6, 7)

5. Proverbs 1:20 – “Wisdom cries aloud in the street, in the markets she raises her voice.” Wisdom is available to anyone who really wants it, but wisdom starts with submitting to God.

6. Proverbs 1:23 – “If you turn at my reproof, behold, I will pour out my spirit to you.” Receiving the Spirit starts with repentance.

7. Acts 16:1-3 – You might have to go the extra mile, do more than should reasonably be expected, even bending over backwards in order to maintain fellowship with others. Christians should always be ready to be the bigger person.

8. Acts 16:6-7, 9 – The Spirit’s means of communication is not always described. The Spirit speaks to different people in different ways. Don’t worry about how God is speaking to others. Just listen and pay attention to what God is doing in your life. Be patient. During the exam, the professor is silent. Often God will test you with silence to see if you will keep doing what He has already told you to do through His word. Trust and obey.

9. Acts 16:10-13 – Paul waited for a sure sense of God’s direction and then acted immediately. How many times have we already seen in the Bible the trouble that comes to those who refuse to wait on God? How many times have we also seen the trouble that comes to those who, when given direction from God, hesitate in obedience or partially obey? Remember, partial obedience is disobedience.

10. Acts 16:14 – “The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul.” God must open a person’s heart for them to receive Jesus. You cannot open a person’s heart; you can only proclaim Christ to all and trust the Holy Spirit to handle the rest.

11. Acts 16:17 -- “These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation.” Satan can speak the truth for evil purposes. So can people.

12. Acts 16:25 – “About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.” Paul and Silas were placed in prison for a reason, and their joy captured the attention of the people God wanted to reach.

13. Acts 16:31 -- “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved.” Yes, it is that simple.

of Jesus Christ. (Acts 16:25-31) Take an accounting. God has given you the mission of love and reconciliation; the focus of your mission is people, specific people, and God cares dearly about every person He has placed in your life intentionally. Take the time today to make a list of all the people God has placed in your life intentionally for you to care for. Start with your family, then those within your church body, then within your community. Make the commitment to pray for everyone on that list by name at least once per week. DBRP- WEEK 9, Day 3, Wednesday, 28 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+26%2C+27%3B+proverbs+28%3B+acts+15>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 28 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 26:17 – “I will set my face against you, and you shall be struck down before your enemies. Those who hate you shall rule over you, and you shall flee when none pursues you.” All that matters in life is whether or not you are right with God. If God is with you, who can be against you? If God is against you, everything for you is cursed.
2. Leviticus 26:40-42 – God leaves room for forgiveness, which begins with humble repentance.
3. Leviticus 26:43 – God says you sin because you hate the teachings and expectations He has set before you.
4. Leviticus 26:45 – God keeps His commitments, 100%.
5. Leviticus 27:3-8 -- A shekel was believed to be the value of a worker for an entire month. Males were more expensive to dedicate than females, based not on their value or worth in the eyes of God, but rather on the person's ability to work in an agricultural society and on how many years that person could work. A male aged 20 - 60 was seen as someone who could perform the best labor, therefore resulting in the highest price. Those over 60 and under 20 could do some work, but not as much, generally speaking. Those 5 years old and under required the lowest payment, as they would have been unable to work much or at all. While they have different roles and responsibilities, men and women have equal value in the eyes of God (see Gen 1:27 and Galatians 3:28)
6. Leviticus 27:10 – Go will not accept substitutes.
7. Leviticus 27:12, 17 – God sets the value of the object, not markets based on shifting social values.
8. Leviticus 27:30 – Tithing is not optional.
9. Proverbs 28:27 -- “Whoever gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.” Did you notice how many verses in today's Proverbs readings deal with the stewardship of wealth? Consider them together:
 - Proverbs 28:3 -- A poor man who oppresses the poor is a beating rain that leaves no food.
 - Proverbs 28:6 -- Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity than a rich man who is crooked in his ways.
 - Proverbs 28:7 -- The one who keeps the law is a son with understanding, but a companion of gluttons shames his father.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- Proverbs 28:8 -- Whoever multiplies his wealth by interest and profit gathers it for him who is generous to the poor.
- Proverbs 28:10 -- The blameless will have a goodly inheritance.
- Proverbs 28:11 -- A rich man is wise in his own eyes, but a poor man who has understanding will find him out.
- Proverbs 28:16 -- A ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor, but he who hates unjust gain will prolong his days.
- Proverbs 28:19 -- Whoever works his land will have plenty of bread, but he who follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.
- Proverbs 28:20 -- A faithful man will abound with blessings, but whoever hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.
- Proverbs 28:21 -- To show partiality is not good, but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.
- Proverbs 28:22 -- A stingy man hastens after wealth and does not know that poverty will come upon him.
- Proverbs 28:24 -- Whoever robs his father or his mother and says, "That is no transgression," is a companion to a man who destroys.
- Proverbs 28:25 -- A greedy man stirs up strife, but the one who trusts in the LORD will be enriched.
- Proverbs 28:27 -- Whoever gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.
- Wealth and resources provide us with capacity to do good or evil. Of course God calls us to use whatever we have to do His will – it isn't intended simply for our comfort and pleasure. We should work hard and acquire wealth in a God-honoring way so that we have something to give as an instrument of love, which is our primary command. We should use our wealth as an instrument of worship. If we do, we will be blessed in the process. What we do with our money reveals the condition of our hearts. We must not act like we don't see the needs around us out of selfishness. We ALL live in excess. Start giving it away out of love right now. See if it doesn't instantly bring you more joy and peace. Don't let your possessions possess you.
- 10. Proverbs 28:9 – "If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination." Sin affects our relationship with God and how He responds to us.
- 11. Acts 15:6 – "The apostles and the elders were gathered together to consider this matter. And after there had been much debate, Peter stood up...." A godly church congregation knows how to disagree in love, to disagree without being disagreeable. The effect of the Holy Spirit always draws people to unity not disunity.
- 12. Acts 15:1, 10 – "But some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brothers, 'Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.' Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?" No one can obey their way to salvation. Salvation is a gift from God which comes through faith in Jesus. In these verses, the brothers were saved, but legalists were telling them they weren't saved because they hadn't done the right deeds. God expects obedience but as a product of salvation rather than a requirement for salvation.

13. Acts 15:11 -- "Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will." Interestingly, men from Judea were trying to make Gentiles earn their salvation at the same time God was offering salvation as a gift through Jesus -- "And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith (Acts 15:8,9)." How do you think it made God feel when these men tried to exclude God's children from the family? In their defense, the Judeans were undoubtedly very concerned that the Gentiles would bring ungodly immorality into the body, causing disorder and destruction while misrepresenting the holy character of God. It is understandable that in that pagan culture with its vile practices, the Jews would be very resistant to join hands with the Gentiles. However, I think Paul makes a distinction between spiritual birth and spiritual maturity. We are "born" spiritually by grace through faith in Jesus Christ -- no process of human effort. We are born babies. Empowered by the Holy Spirit new believers are called to grow in spiritual maturity, being "perfected" in love. This is where church discipleship comes to play ("teaching them to obey"). This is a life-long endeavor that is impossible apart from the continual work of the Holy Spirit but also requires much human effort. The Judeans wanted the Gentiles to be born grown up already. Instead, Paul offers some very broad guidelines for the saved Gentiles for church membership so they can join the body and be disciplined further. Interestingly, everyone was expected to sustain from sexual immorality immediately.

14. Acts 15:12 -- "The assembly fell silent, and they listened." How many people actually, truly listen? So many disputes would end if people would only listen, and listen beyond the words to capture the true heart and motives behind the words. The word "listen" and the word "silent" are spelled with the same letters; perhaps that is not accidental.

15. Acts 15:19, 20 -- "Therefore my judgment is that we should not trouble those of the Gentiles who turn to God, but should write to them to abstain from the things polluted by idols, and from sexual immorality, and from what has been strangled, and from blood." The Apostles agreed upon how to deal with the new Christian who was just stepping out on the road of sanctification. This is not an all-inclusive list of Christian behavioral expectations but rather a place from which to start as the new believer draws closer to Jesus one day at a time. Note that what was considered obvious was abstaining from idolatry and sexual immorality. Verse 21 explains that the new Christians need teachers will walk with them over time, day-by-day and who are teach them more and more over continually -- this is discipleship/disciple-making. There remains and expectation of spiritual growth for all of us. Who is discipling you, and who are you discipling?

16. Acts 15:39-41 -- "And there arose a sharp disagreement, so that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus, but Paul chose Silas and departed, having been commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord. And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches." Once again, Christians must know how to disagree without damaging relationships. In this case, Barnabas and Paul were at an impasse, so they cordially agreed to separate, and God used this separation to spread the Gospel even further. Note that this separation was not a “church split”, it was not an ungodly broken relationship. It was merely de-confliction with continued collaboration. They retained their relationship and unity of purpose. They will join together again later.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 28 Feb: Today, build and sustain (repair if needed) relationships that might be threatened by disagreements. Don't let disagreements hinder relationships. Disagree without being disagreeable. Stay on the mission Jesus gave you of reconciliation. Continue to speak the truth in love, but don't burden people with truths they cannot handle. With whom are you in disagreement? Make sure you are still cordial with that person. "If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all." (Romans 12:18) Also, see a need; meet the need. If you are aware of someone who has a need that you have the power to fill, just do it. References from today's readings: "Whoever gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse." (Proverbs 28:27)

DBRP- WEEK 9, Day 2, Tuesday, 27 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+24%2C+25%3B+proverbs+27%3B+acts+14>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 27 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 24:14 – “...let all who heard him lay their hands on his head.” Witnesses of a crime that carried the penalty of death had to participate in the execution of the convicted offender so the witness would feel the burden of responsibility for their testimony. The intent was to deter innocent blood being shed by false witnesses. If the witnesses proved false, they would be guilty of murder.
2. Leviticus 24:15-16 – Blasphemy is not forgiven.
3. Leviticus 24:16 – “Whoever blasphemes the name of the Lord shall surely be put to death.” Blasphemy carried the same penalty as murder. Times certainly have changed.
4. Leviticus 24:16 – “The sojourner as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.” God's laws applied to all.
5. Leviticus 24:17 -- “Whoever takes a human life shall surely be put to death.” Those who protest capital punishment with signs that say, “Though shalt not kill,” seem to miss the OT penalty for murder.
6. Leviticus 24:17-21 – God's ways bring punishment equal to and corresponding with the crime.
7. Leviticus 25:2-11 – God protects the poor families' claims to land and freedom.
8. Leviticus 25:17 – “You shall not wrong one another, but you shall fear your God, for I am the Lord your God.” Reverent worship of God changes the way you deal in business with other people.
9. Leviticus 25:23-28 – God's standards keep the land equally divided among the people with no one able to gain control and exploit others.
10. Leviticus 25:35 -- “If your brother becomes poor and cannot maintain himself with you, you shall support him as though he were a stranger and a sojourner, and he shall live with you.” God has a very high expectation of how we should treat the poor around us.
11. Leviticus 25:36-37 – “Take no interest from him or profit, but fear your God, that your brother may live beside you. You shall not lend him your money at interest, nor give him your food for profit.” There are several verses in the Bible which state that God's people should not earn money from lending money with interest.

12. Proverbs 27:1 – “Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.” Be faithful with today. Be faithful one day at a time.

13. Proverbs 27:2 – “Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips.” Do not allow praise from others to become a part of your motivation. It is a trap to start caring about what sort of praise you receive from others. Don't seek praise from anyone but God.

14. Proverbs 27:7 – “One who is full loathes honey, but to one who is hungry everything bitter is sweet.” What you desire the most changes your perspective on everything else. When your heart's desire is Jesus, all the little things that once bothered you, concerned you, or influenced you seem to vanish. When you begin to take for granted all that God has provided you, He may give you times of need so that you once again appreciate the simple blessings of life.

15. Proverbs 27:17 – “Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another.” You are not designed to grow alone. God made you for relationship. Friends should make you better, not worse; they should draw you closer to Jesus, not further away. If you don't have friends like this, you need new friends.

16. Acts 14:2, 3 – “But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. So they remained for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who bore witness to the word of his grace.” In response to opposition God's people became bolder and more resolute.

17. Acts 14:5-7 – “When an attempt was made by both Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to mistreat them and to stone them, they learned of it and fled.... and there they continued to preach the gospel.” The disciples stayed until their lives were at peril and then fled but continued to spread the Gospel. Do you have that kind of commitment?

18. Acts 14:15 – “We also are men, of like nature with you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to a living God.” Christians always point to Jesus Christ, giving Him all glory, not to themselves a particular denomination or church or to anything other than Jesus Christ.

19. Acts 14:19 – “But Jews came from Antioch and Iconium, and having persuaded the crowds, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.” There are only two recorded stonings in the Bible: Stephen's, facilitated by Paul (Saul), and now Paul's. God treats you the way you treat others.

20. Acts 14:21, 22 – “When they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned... strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God.” Christians go through tribulations for sake of the name of Jesus. If your proclamation of the Gospel has not caused you many tribulations, you might want to consider whether or not you are actually fulfilling your mission.

21. Acts 14:23 – “And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed.” Once again, Christian assignments are made through prayer and fasting.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 27 Feb: Don't let anyone stop you from boldly preaching the Gospel today, and if you take a beating, move on and keep preaching. (Acts 14)

DBRP- WEEK 9, Day 1, Monday, 26 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+22%2C+23%3B+proverbs+26%3B+acts+13>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 26 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 22:1-9 – God expected all His ministers to obey all purity laws and not function as a priest if they were for any reason unclean.
2. Leviticus 22:9, 31-33 -- “They shall therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby when they profane it: I am the Lord who sanctifies them.... So you shall keep my commandments and do them: I am the Lord. And you shall not profane my holy name, that I may be sanctified among the people of Israel. I am the Lord who sanctifies you, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am the Lord.” God made it very clear to His people that He expected them to honor His Holiness and Sovereignty, and that disobedience was to profane His Holy Name. Half-hearted worship and followership are unacceptable to the Lord because it underemphasizes the “worthy-ship” (meaning of worship) of The Almighty (Leviticus 22:17-33). Jesus reiterates this point in the Book of Revelation: “So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth (Revelation 3:16).” And as mentioned in Leviticus 22:32, God’s reputation is based on how His people represent Him to the world. In Old Testament times, God’s demands for reverence, holiness, and obedience were even greater on the priests for what should be obvious reasons. In the New Testament, all Christians are considered priests (1 Peter 2:5-9, Revelation 1:6; Revelation 5:10). Our New Testament readings today reaffirm God’s call to obedience – “I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will (Acts 13:22).” Revival in the church requires repentance and a return to reverence, holiness, and obedience – none of this is an affront to grace but rather a validation.
3. Leviticus 22:14 – “And if anyone eats of a holy thing unintentionally, he shall add the fifth of its value to it and give the holy thing to the priest.” God’s plan for restitution is that you give back more than you took, even if your act was unintentional. This is a practice that applies to all relationships.
4. Leviticus 22:18 – God expects and invites aliens to worship Him.
5. Leviticus 22:19-20 – God expects His people to give him the first and the best, not the leftovers and unwanted of their offerings.
6. Leviticus 22:30-33 – Knowing who God is should change the way you give offerings to Him.
7. Leviticus 23:10 – Festivals are connected with work cycles and give opportunity to celebrate the fruits of one’s labor and share these fruits with God.
8. Leviticus 23:42, 43 – “You shall dwell in booths for seven days. All native Israelites shall dwell in booths, that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.” Living in booths reminded the people of their history experiencing God’s miraculous provision under seemingly impossible circumstances, and it reminded them that both their history and their future was in God’s hands. Living in booths for a week reminded God’s people that they didn’t need many comforts to experience the blessings of God; it brought the people closer together in supporting relationships, and it kept their camping skills up in preparation for crisis. Church communities today should consider annual celebration of the Feast of Booths.

9. Proverbs 26:3 – “A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.” Some people live like animals. Those who are not led by the Spirit act merely like smarter animals. They will only respond to pain and pleasure.

10. Proverbs 26:4, 5 – “Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest you be like him yourself. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.” These verses apparently contradict each other, though we know they don’t. They are written together intentionally and likely mean we should seek to counter the foolishness of others, for their sake, while being very careful not to act foolish ourselves in the process. Don’t stoop to their level or parrot their behavior. Don’t lose sight of your mission of reconciliation, of bringing them closer to Jesus through your words and deeds. If your words, tone, mannerisms, and behavior aren’t leading them towards Jesus, you are being foolish too.

11. Proverbs 26:6 – “Whoever sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.” You are Christ’s messenger – don’t be foolish as mentioned above.

12. Proverbs 26:7 – “Like a lame man’s legs, which hang useless, is a proverb in the mouth of fools.” Fools are prideful. You cannot approach God’s word with pride.

13. Proverbs 26:7 – “Like a lame man’s legs, which hang useless, is a proverb in the mouth of fools.” Don’t be a lame messenger for Jesus by being foolish in your dealings with others.

14. Proverbs 26:9 – “Like a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools.” A foolish Christian can hurt people with God’s word.

15. Proverbs 26:11 – “Like a dog that returns to his vomit is a fool who repeats his folly.” When a Christian continues to repeat the sins for which he has been forgiven, it is putrid.

16. Proverbs 26:28 – “A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth works ruin.” Both lying and flattery are signs of an ungodly heart, both motivated by selfishness. Flattery is telling people what they want to hear for personal gain.

17. Acts 13:2 – The Holy Spirit’s call to Barnabas and Saul came out of fasting and prayer. God speaks in fasting and prayer – it is not a one-way conversation. If you do not have a strong prayer life, you cannot hear what God would have you hear.

18. Acts 13:5 – Preaching the Scriptures is an essential missions activity. You should strive to be an expert of God’s word.

19. Acts 13:22 – “He raised up David to be their king, of whom he testified and said, ‘I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will.’” God is always looking for servants who will obey all that He commands. David was far from perfect and made huge mistakes, but he was humble in repentance and sought to grow past his sinfulness.

20. Acts 13:23, 29, 32-33 – All Scripture points to Jesus as Savior.

21. Acts 13:29-37 – The Bible had prepared God’s people for the Messiah’s death and resurrection.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

22. Acts 13:36 -- "David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep." What a great epitaph! David served the purpose of God, and then he died. What greater thing can be said of a person? Our motivation in life should be to serve God and God alone, to pursue God's purposes rather than selfish ambition, and to seek first the Kingdom. The more we truly know God and who He is, the more motivated we are to serve Him and to bring Him glory. If we drift or lose focus, it is a relationship problem. Leviticus 22:31-33 says, "So you shall keep my commandments and do them: I am the LORD. And you shall not profane my holy name, that I may be sanctified among the people of Israel. I am the LORD who sanctifies you... I am the LORD." We serve and obey God wholeheartedly, lovingly, faithfully, passionately, and joyfully because He is the LORD! We are not like the one spoken of in Proverbs who chases after earthly desires. (Proverbs 23) We don't "envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day." (Proverbs 23:17) Make today and every day thereafter your day of worship. Do all things for the glory of God. Deny self; take up your cross; follow Jesus. Don't worry about the rest.

23. Acts 13:39 – Religion, religious activities, or good deeds cannot save a person. Only through Jesus can there be salvation. Charity may ease a person's discomfort on earth, but only when you draw people towards Jesus do you satisfy their eternal need.

24. Acts 13:40 – To know what the Bible says is not the same as knowing what it means or responding as God expects. Biblical knowledge is not the same as godly wisdom. Wisdom comes from living God's word through the power of the Holy Spirit – true wisdom can come only from God. We do not have the capacity to create wisdom of ourselves.

25. Acts 13:44 -- "On the next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord." Paul and Barnabas (still honoring the Sabbath) spoke boldly before the synagogue about Jesus, taking their lives into their hands. They weren't worried about offending anyone, but neither did they force their message upon the Jews. They were invited to speak, and when they did speak, they held nothing back. The result was likely not what they expected – the next week, the whole city gathered to hear the Good News. Eventually, after successfully preaching the Gospel to the city, the disciples were persecuted and kicked out of town. However, "the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit (Acts 13:52)" because they were faithful to glorify God without compromise. Are you boldly proclaiming the Gospel to those who ask? Are people seeking you out to hear about Jesus? How great would it be if you were given the opportunity to preach the Gospel before your whole town? Would you be ready?

26. Acts 13:46-47 – God's plan has always included both Jews and Gentiles. The world is always talking about race, gender, etc. God does not show favoritism along these social stratifications, and Christians should rise above this divisive conversation.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 26 Feb: Prepare yourself to be usable by God by starting the day in deep prayer, even fasting, and by committing to total, unconditional obedience. (Acts 13:2, 22)

DBRP- WEEK 8, Day 7, Sunday, 25 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+20%2C+21%3B+proverbs+25%3B+psalm+23%2C+24>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 25 Feb 18:

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

1. Leviticus 20:1-5 – God will punish both those who take the lives of innocent children as well as those who in any way ignore the taking of innocent life. What role are you playing in the fight against abortion?

2. Leviticus 20:6 -- “If a person turns to mediums and necromancers, whoring after them, I will set my face against that person and will cut him off from among his people.” God does not think that horoscopes, Ouija boards, Tarot cards, or psychics are cute or fun. God equates having anything to do with these things to whoredom.

3. Leviticus 20:7, 26 -- “Consecrate yourselves and be holy, because I am the Lord your God. Keep my decrees and follow them. I am the Lord, who makes you holy.... You are to be holy to me because I, the Lord, am holy, and I have set you apart from the nations to be my own.” We are called to holiness because God is Holy, and we are His children and His ambassadors on earth (1 Peter 1:16). “Holy” is the only attribute ascribed to God in the Bible three times (the highest degree of emphasis), yet today’s body of believers seems to have taken holiness very lightly, casually, negligently. Version dependent, the word holy is used in the Bible 584 times (holiness another 25 times). I encourage you to do your own word search and review of holiness. While we are made holy through salvation in Christ, we are called by God to “be like God in true righteousness and holiness.... [to] perfect holiness out of reverence for God.... [to] live our lives in all godliness and holiness.... [to be] living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God.... to control [our] own [bodies] in a way that is holy.... to live a holy life.... [to be] upright, holy, and disciplined.... [to be] holy blameless and pure.... [to be] a holy nation, a people belonging to God (all New Testament references).” Remember, you were baptized with the Holy Spirit, not the somewhat or occasionally holy spirit.

- Psalm 24:3-6 -- Who may ascend the mountain of the Lord? Who may stand in his holy place? The one who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not trust in an idol or swear by a false god. They will receive blessing from the Lord and vindication from God their Savior. Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek your face, God of Jacob.

- Revelation 22:11 -- Let the one who does wrong continue to do wrong; let the vile person continue to be vile; let the one who does right continue to do right; and let the holy person continue to be holy.

4. Leviticus 20:10 -- “If a man commits adultery with the wife of his neighbor, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.” The most important earthly institution in the Bible is the family, marriage between one man and one woman for the express purpose of raising up godly children (Malachi 2:15). God strictly forbids sexual activity outside the marriage covenant, and His high standard is never relaxed throughout God’s word for anyone. Sexual sin is like a deadly plague in society which is born from pure selfishness and spreads across the land wreaking havoc and death. Consider the impact of sexual sin in America, resulting in abortion, divorce, single-parent families, exploitation, sexual abuse, emotional illnesses, communicable diseases, crimes of passion, etc. Left unchecked, sexual sin will destroy a nation, one family at a time.

5. Leviticus 20:13 – “If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon them.” Society has now largely accepted the abomination of homosexuality. The remainder of the sexual sins in Leviticus 20 will also soon be publicly acceptable. Will you remain silent in the face of these sins around you or will you proclaim the need of repentance and salvation through Jesus Christ as John the Baptist did before Herod?

6. Leviticus 21:17-22 -- “If anyone takes the life of a human being, he must be put to death.... whoever kills a man must be put to death. You are to have the same law for the alien and the native-born. I am the Lord your God.” Many opposed to the death penalty will cite the Sixth Commandment in King James English, “Thou shalt not kill” as their reasoning (See Exodus 20). However, they fail to notice the penalty of death that comes with breaking this commandment. A better translation is “You shall not murder.” The authority for the death penalty was given by God and applied equally to all – “I am the Lord your God.” In fact murder wasn’t the only crime that warranted the death penalty in the Old Testament; so did blasphemy. It is interesting and timely that our OT readings describe the conditions required and the process for stoning, while the NT readings describe the stoning of Paul (as mentioned previously, the only other stoning in the NT was when Paul held the coats for Stephen’s stoning). The command in Leviticus was, “All those who heard him are to lay their hands on his head, and the entire assembly is to stone him (Leviticus 24:13)” – placing a burden of responsibility on the witnesses for the death. Notice that it doesn’t appear that anyone placed hands on Paul who, of course, wasn’t truly guilty. In the case where Jesus saved the alleged adulterer from getting stoned, you may have noticed that then too, the accusers were guilty of not following the Levitical law for stoning (no guilty man present, no evidence, etc). To follow God’s Laws, we must know God’s Laws.

Matthew 22:29 -- Jesus replied, “You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God.

7. Proverbs 25:7, 8 -- "What your eyes have seen do not hastily bring into court, for what will you do in the end, when your neighbor puts you to shame?" Don't be too quick to judge.

8. Proverbs 25:9 -- "Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not reveal another's secret." Settle matters one-on-one, quietly in order to preserve the dignity of both parties and to protect the relationship.

9. Proverbs 25:14 -- "Like clouds and wind without rain is a man who boasts of a gift he does not give." Don't make promises you don't intend to keep.

10. Proverbs 25:26-28 -- “Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked. It is not good to eat much honey, nor is it glorious to seek one’s own glory. A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.” Much of Proverbs 25 is about that last fruit of the Spirit, self-control – “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. (Galatians 5:22-24) The gift of the Holy Spirit does not remove the need or requirement for self-control but rather empowers us to have self-control. Self-control is our God-given ability to overcome temptation, one of our endowments that separate us from the animal kingdom, our defense against the destructiveness of sin. The Spirit has empowered us with the ability of self-control; we must choose to live by the Spirit and not by the flesh, to keep in step with the Spirit and not to quench the Spirit. This is our choice. “No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.” (1 Corinthians 10:13) But we are not yet perfected and experience the same frustrations Paul did – “For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate.” (Romans 7:15) So, the Bible remains a lamp to our feet to help protect us from our weak areas as we strive to build up our walls of self-control, as we live out the role of Nehemiah in our own lives, protecting our hearts. In dealing with self-control, today’s proverbs first warn us to avoid prideful self-promoting and self-justification. We are all too quick to take credit and to cast blame; we often do it without even thinking; this is ungodly. Proverbs next points out that prideful emotions cause us to sin in both word and deed. We lift ourselves up artificially and tear others down inappropriately, and we deny others the good we should have provided them. In so doing, we subvert our message from Christ. We misrepresent him as his ambassadors. Like a polluted well, we have nothing to offer those who thirst. The Bible tells us we must have self-control, internal discipline. Self-control goes hand-in-hand with love. Don’t take your lack of self-control lightly, and don’t act like you are powerless to overcome your areas of personal weakness. Strive to build up your strength where you know you are weak as an act of worship, as a sacrifice to God, to bring Him glory.

-- Self-control is a mark of maturity and vital to the development of greater maturity. Another word we use for self-control is discipline. But interestingly when the Bible uses the word "discipline" it is almost exclusively used to describe external discipline rather than internal discipline, or "self-control." God disciplines those He loves, but His desire is that we exercise self-control in maturity much like any parent would desire for their children. How is your self-control?

11. Psalm 23:1 – “The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.” If the Lord is truly your Shepherd, you shall not want because He will conform your desires to His will and make you satisfied with His provision.

12. Psalm 23:3 – “He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.” While we are made righteous solely through faith in Jesus Christ and not by our deeds, the Bible calls us to pursue righteousness in order to bring glory to God (Proverbs 15:9, 21:21; 1 Timothy 6:11, 2 Timothy 2:22). Fortunately, the Lord is our Shepherd who guides us in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. For His name’s sake means our righteousness is never for our glory but only for His. Jesus said, “I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me— just as the Father knows me and I know the Father—and I lay down my life for the sheep (John 10:14).” Are you guided by the sound of your Shepherd’s voice?

13. Psalm 23:6 – “Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life.” With God, even the ‘bad’ things that happen to us are ultimately good because God will use them for greater purposes we cannot even imagine. However, with the non-believer, even the ‘good’ things that happen to them will ultimately turn out to be curses because every step taken by the unbeliever is just one step closer to ultimate destruction.

14. Psalm 24:6 – “Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob.” Seeking the Lord involves the pursuit of increasingly “clean hands and a pure heart.” It is like ascending a mountain, getting a little higher each day.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 25 Feb: Today consider your wants. Where do your wants signal a lack of contentment with the provision of the Good Shepherd? (Psalm 23:1) Resolve today to keep all disagreements between you and the other party, never talking about them with others

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 24 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 18:3-5 -- "You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you lived, and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, to which I am bringing you. You shall not walk in their statutes. You shall follow my rules and keep my statutes and walk in them. I am the LORD your God. You shall therefore keep my statutes and my rules; if a person does them, he shall live by them: I am the LORD." Christians live as strangers in foreign lands, and though we must respect the laws of the earthly kingdoms, we are ultimately subject to a higher authority, the KING, the LORD. What is 'legal' to others is not legal to Christians. Much like military personnel live by a different standard, so Christians live by a different standard than the non-believers -- "No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him." (2 Timothy 2:4) Christians must never confuse man's definitions of righteousness and justice with God's definitions. In today's readings from Leviticus, we see that God condemns abortion, adultery, homosexuality, and mysticism; these practices were considered abominable and detestable, and worthy of death. Of course, our society has 'legalized' all of these evils. Yet, God says to His people, "keep my charge never to practice any of these abominable customs that were practiced before you, and never to make yourselves unclean by them: I am the LORD your God." (Leviticus 18:30) God's standard is that if anyone within the body practices such things, "the persons who do them shall be cut off from among their people." (Leviticus 18:29) Paul said, "Let him who has done this be removed from among you." (1 Corinthians 5) Romans, chapter one also tells us that we must never approve of these practices either, even under the banner of "choice." While we live by God's standard in an ungodly land, we also must not remain silent (silence is consent). Leviticus tells us: "You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason frankly with your neighbor, lest you incur sin because of him. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD." (Leviticus 19:17) We must reason "frankly" with those outside of God's law, with love, treating them as we would want to be treated. We must serve as Ambassadors for Christ. We must not allow ourselves become influenced and defiled in the process; this is what happened to Lot's family. As we serve our tour of duty in a foreign land, we must also live very cautiously, knowing that sin defiles the land, leading to the destruction of the people. (Leviticus 18:27, 28) No nation, regardless of what they believe, will escape the consequences of disobedience to God's laws. Christians who live in ungodly lands are also subject to those consequences as Lot discovered.

2. Leviticus 18:22, 23 -- "You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination. And you shall not lie with any animal and so make yourself unclean with it, neither shall any woman give herself to an animal to lie with it: it is perversion." God gives specific rules concerning sexual activity. He forbids homosexuality, an abomination not far removed from having sex with an animal. The prohibition against homosexuality is repeated throughout the Bible. Our nation's laws have recently been changed to fully endorse homosexuality, but God's laws have not changed. Which will you support? Beyond national laws, if you oppose homosexuality, you will be labelled a bigot and a hater, a danger to society -- are you ready for that, or will you play it safe and remain silent? (See Romans 1)

3. Leviticus 18:26-30 -- "But you shall keep my statutes and my rules and do none of these abominations, either the native or the stranger who sojourns among you.... For everyone who does any of these abominations, the persons who do them shall be cut off from among their people. So keep my charge never to practice any of these abominable customs that were practiced before you, and never to make yourselves unclean by them: I am the Lord your God.” God’s rules apply to everyone, whether or not they are believers.

4. Leviticus 19:17 -- “You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason frankly with your neighbor, lest you incur sin because of him.” Another version of the verse above is, “Rebuke your neighbor frankly so you will not share in his guilt.” Proverbs says that we have been given God’s word so that we may “know what is right and true,” and that we “may give a true answer” to those around us (Proverbs 22:21). Again, God’s Laws apply to everyone on earth, whether they choose to worship God or not (Leviticus 18:24-30). We have an obligation before God to “testify to the truth.” If we fail to do so, we are a party to sin. The dictum of the law is “Silence is consent.” The sexual revolution in our nation, eluded to above, has been a slow erosion, resulting primarily from a disobedient church that has failed to remain holy and to be salt and light. The church has been more influenced than influencing as occurred in Nazi Germany. John the Baptist, who Jesus declared the “greatest man born of woman,” lost his head because he publicly challenged Herod’s adultery. Many Christians say, “What someone else chooses to do with their life is none of my business.” The Bible says otherwise. Note that in today’s readings, rebuking our neighbors is among a list of basic personal responsibilities dealing with righteous treatment of others for their benefit (see Leviticus 19:10-18). Compare this with Romans 13:9, 10 – “For the commandments, ‘You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet,’ and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.’ Sin always harms your neighbor (whether they are currently “happy” in their sin or not). Fulfillment of the law brings life to your neighbor. If you truly love others, you will speak out, with tact and humility, against all sin.

- John 18:37, 38 -- “You are a king, then!” said Pilate. Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. In fact, the reason I was born and came into the world is to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me.” “What is truth?” retorted Pilate.

5. Leviticus 19:18 – “You shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the Lord.” When God commands us to love others as we love ourselves, He reminds us that He is the Lord. In other words, you have better understand how serious it is to disobey this command and thus commit cosmic treason against the Almighty King.

6. Leviticus 19 – Here are some statutes from this chapter: No fortune telling (v26); some haircut practices were forbidden (likely those practiced by the pagans around them); no tattoos (v28); no prostitution (v29); no psychics (v31); honor and respect the elderly (v32); take care of strangers and travelers (v33, 34); no cheating.

7. Proverbs 24:3, 10, 27, 33, 34 -- “By wisdom a house is built.... If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.... Prepare your work outside; get everything ready for yourself in the field, and after that build your house.... A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest, and poverty will come upon you like a robber, and want like an armed man.” Proverbs has much to say today about the discipline of the disciple. As we said earlier, success has two ingredients: good decisions and discipline. Wisdom lays the foundation for the house; then the house must be built. Good decisions place you on the right path, but discipline takes you, one step at a time, down the road to your intended destination. We can decide to follow Jesus, but then we must have the discipline to be his disciple and to follow him, one day at a time. Jesus warned that before a person decides to follow him, they should consider the cost. Most are familiar with the slogan, “What would Jesus do?” (WWJD). This is intended to serve as a reminder to Christians to make better decisions throughout the day, more like Jesus. “WWJD” is worn on bracelets, T-shirts, etc., to make that reminder more visible. But too often it only serves as a disappointing reminder when, at the point of decision, Christians still fail to act like Jesus. Too often, only after a thoughtless response, does the Christian realize that their hearts were not ready to do what Jesus would have done. Part of the reason is because they did not do what Jesus did well before his public ministry. They did not spend a lifetime preparing for the point of decision. What would Jesus do? He would spend a lifetime in discipleship to the Father – countless hours in study, prayer, obedience, and ministry. He would memorize God’s word and meditate upon it, treating it as more important than food. He would get ‘lost’ in the Temple. He would take on the form of a servant and decide ahead of time to be obedient unto death. He would decide ahead of time to deny self and to go to Calvary. Too often, the Christian plays the role of Christ like an ‘actor’ (Greek word: hypocrite), rather than being transformed into the image of Christ. We can learn the rules and language of football, we can dress up like football players, we can act like football players, and we can even play football on weekends, but that will never make us ready for the Super Bowl. The church in America has neglected the importance of discipleship, leaving many Christians feeling disappointed, defeated, and disheartened. Too many churches generate emotional experiences and convince Christians that mighty oaks are grown in a day, pushing them out into the world ill equipped for battle. Like Proverbs says today, when we fail at the point of decision, it shows us the limits of our strength that was not built up day-by-day ahead of time. “Go to the ant,” disciple and consider its ways. Do not be complacent in your discipleship. Study to show yourself approved. (2 Timothy 2:15) Train hard before the battle.

8. Proverbs 24:11, 12 – “Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter. If you say, ‘Behold, we did not know this,’ does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will he not repay man according to his work?” If you remain silent while those you know walk in darkness with knowledge of ‘The Way, The Truth, and The Life – Jesus, you will be held accountable by God.

9. Proverbs 24:19 – “Fret not yourself because of evildoers, and be not envious of the wicked...” Let God worry about the wicked while you focus on being faithful to Him, regardless of apparent outcomes. God knows what is going on and will judge the hearts of all people.

10. Proverbs 24:29 – “Do not say, ‘I will do to him as he has done to me; I will pay the man back for what he has done.’” Do not chase after the poisonous snakes the bite you – the poison will just travel to your heart. Let God deal with those who offend you. Just continue to follow Jesus.

11. Proverbs 24:32 – “Then I saw and considered it; I looked and received instruction.” God wants you to compare the actions of others to God’s word, consider the consequences of their actions, and learn from their actions, both good and bad.

12. Psalm 22: On the cross, Jesus recited Psalm 22:1 (Matthew 27:46; Mark 15:34). Psalm 22:12-18 is an incredible description of the Crucifixion. Psalm 22 is very exciting to read, an OT prophecy of Jesus’ work on the cross.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 24 Feb: Today, strongly consider your daily disciplines as a disciple. Are you knowing and making Jesus known more and more each and every day?

Consider this week. Did you make the most of every opportunity to grow in Christ and to make disciples?

DBRP- WEEK 8, Day 5, Friday, 23 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+15%2C16%3B+proverbs+23%3B+acts+12>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 23 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 16:3-6 – Those who led worship and the congregation needed atonement for sin – none were without sin.
2. Proverbs 23:1, 2 – “When you sit down to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you.... Do not desire his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.” Don’t place your hope and trust in government, and don’t compromise your fidelity to God in order to appease worldly leaders or to remain in good standing with those of authority at the expense of obedience to The Authority. The Bible commands that we obey government but not when government tells you to disobey God.
3. Proverbs 23:4 – “Do not toil to acquire wealth; be discerning enough to desist.” Do not place your hope and trust in wealth and so neglect your relationship with God. If you cannot find time to study the Bible, pray, fellowship with your church, raise your family as disciples, minister to the needs of others, etc, because you are working so hard, you are doing something wrong.
4. Proverbs 23:17 – “Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day.” Obey and follow God; don’t just do what is popular.
5. Acts 12:1-3 -- “Herod the king laid violent hands on some who belonged to the church. He killed James the brother of John with the sword, and when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also.” Today’s readings in Acts instruct us on the relationship between prayer and God’s will. Herod arrested both James and Peter. James was executed while Peter was miraculously freed. Surely the disciples were praying fervently for both James and Peter, but still James was executed. Was God somehow powerless to save James or somehow indifferent as to his fate? Of course not! Did God love Peter more than James? Of course not! James had been very close to Jesus. God commands us not to worry about anything but rather to pray about everything, and when we pray in God’s will He will always answer (Philippians 4:6; Jeremiah 33:3). However, sometimes His answer is “no” for reasons we cannot understand but for reasons that are for a greater good than we could not possibly imagine. The challenge for us, from our limited perspective, is to trust in God’s perfect love and faithfulness and to have faith in God’s Sovereignty regardless of apparent circumstances. This is hard. It was hard for John the Baptist when he was in prison. He undoubtedly questioned why Jesus didn’t miraculously free him from prison. After all, Jesus said that John was the greatest man he knew. Nonetheless, John was beheaded. Why? God did not say. Key is to pray with the understanding that, though you may not perceive it, your prayers are always answered by your perfectly loving Father – don’t doubt. After the death of Stephen, and now James, the disciples, though praying fervently, could not really believe that Peter, chained and heavily guarded, would be freed from prison. When Rhoda reported that Peter was at the door knocking, the disciples said, “You’re out of your mind.” Why were they “astonished” when they saw Peter? Hadn’t they been praying to the Sovereign Father? Why, in this case, did they assume the answer to their prayer would be “no”? It is possible to be a “person of prayer” and yet not have faith. This robs you of joy and confidence. How would your life be different if you completely trusted

God with your prayers? Pray that God will increase your faith to pray more fervently and to trust unconditionally.

6. Acts 12:2 – “He killed James the brother of John with the sword.” God did not prevent the murder of James yet expected the disciples to remain confident in their faith.

7. Acts 12:15 -- “You are out of your mind.” The disciples prayed for miracles but did not really believe that God would answer their prayers in a miraculous way. How do you suppose the death of James affected the disciples’ hope? Is your faith so weak that you are surprised when your prayers are answered as you requested?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 23 Feb: Begin the habit of journaling your prayers, and start recording God’s answers to your prayers. Soon you will see the pattern of your prayer life.

DBRP- WEEK 8, Day 4, Thursday, 22 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+14%2C15%3B+proverbs+22%3B+acts+11>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 22 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 14:1-20 – These verses symbolically point to the atoning work of Jesus Christ.

2. Proverbs 22:1 – “A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold.” When someone mentions your name, what comes to mind for others? Remember, as a Christian, you bear the name of Christ. What do people think about Jesus when they think about His impact on your life?

3. Proverbs 22:3 -- “The prudent sees danger and hides himself, but the simple go on and suffer for it.” We have all heard the adage, “You’d have to be blind not to see what is going on.” Well, that is right. Society is blind to the reality of the inevitable consequences of their sin. Why? Because society chooses to be blind, preferring darkness over light. Remember, yesterday we read in Proverbs, “Haughty eyes and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, are sin.” (Proverbs 21:4) The prideful direct their attention to (or shine their light on) sin, ignoring the will of God, regardless of God’s warnings to them (wisdom cries out in the streets). “And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his works should be exposed. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God.” (John 3:19-21) Today’s Bible readings give stern warnings concerning things like abortion, sexual sin, and mysticism which today are celebrated; the consequences of this abandonment of God’s will are more than evident, yet society largely ignores them. The danger for the church is that we become influenced society rather than an influence. We must not lose our humility, holiness, purity, and fear of the LORD. Warriors know that a defense that is not offensive in nature is doomed. We cannot just circle the wagons. We must boldly and confidently speak truth and resist evil. We must remind the earthly powers that “The earth is the LORD’s and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein.” (Psalm 24:1) We must command the powers that would resist God, Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle! Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory! Selah

(Psalm 24:7-10) “Fret not yourself because of evildoers.” (Psalm 37:1; Proverbs 24:19) “Fret not yourself; it tends only to evil.” (Psalm 37:8) Stop worrying so much about the obvious evil we see around us and the earthly powers that work against us. They are nothing at all compared to the power of our God. Allow God’s will to be done in your life and spread that to others, advancing the Kingdom one heart at a time. The Bible says that we have been given “power” by the Holy Spirit. (Luke 24:49) The Greek word for power is dunamis (doo'-nam-is), from which we get the word “dynamite.” It means mighty, forceful, destructive, power that is obviously miraculous. Destructive? Yes! “For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds.” (2 Corinthians 10:4) If the strongholds remain, it is only because we have not applied dynamite. Don’t focus on what the world is doing, focus on what God is doing. Be holy, pure, obedient, confident, love, bold, and powerful.

4. Proverbs 22:9 – “Whoever has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor.” You will receive what you dish out. If you are giving, God will be giving to you.

5. Proverbs 22:10 – “Drive out a scoffer, and strife will go out, and quarreling and abuse will cease.” A scoffer is someone who refuses to listen and learn, a person who is only interested in their own opinion and self-interest. Strife and quarreling come from scoffing. Christians should never cause strife or quarrel.

6. Proverbs 22:11 – “He who loves purity of heart, and whose speech is gracious, will have the king as his friend.” Christians should be known for gracious speech which comes from their pure hearts. Grace is giving people forgiveness and freedom that they don’t deserve. Grace does not seek to give them the just punishment they do deserve. Gracious speech responds to insults and harsh speech with love and blessings. See why Christians cannot quarrel? Rather than quarreling, Christians deny self, take up their cross, and follow Jesus.

7. Proverbs 22:15 – “Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline drives it far from him.” Children naturally lack internal discipline (self-control) and require external discipline from loving parents. Parental discipline is God’s plan for maturity. Likewise, adults lack adequate discipline (self-control) and require the counsel of the Holy Spirit and the discipline of the Father in order to grow to maturity.

8. Proverbs 22:17-22 – God’s word is provided to help you to trust in the Lord and to keep you on track as you grow in your love for and trust in the Lord. God knows you are not perfected in love and gives you clear instructions until you are so united with God in love that you no longer need rules and regulations to do what is right.

9. Proverbs 22:24 – “Make no friendship with a man given to anger, nor go with a wrathful man.” Do you have a friend with a hot temper? Not good.

10. Acts 11:17 – “If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God’s way?” God’s work isn’t limited by our rules or by our limited interpretation of His rules. We operate under the authority and power of Jesus Christ, not the authority and power of people.

11. Acts 11:20-21 – “But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who on coming to Antioch spoke to the Hellenists also, preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord.” Jesus’ disciples preached the Gospel, despite being persecuted for it. Many believed and some didn't. We are likewise called to preach to many, some who will believe and some who won't. We cannot do the work of the Holy Spirit.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 22 Feb: Don't assume someone won't accept the Gospel without trying. After prayer, tell someone about Jesus even if you doubt, they will believe. Have confidence. If they still refuse to believe after you have spoken to them, you have still planted a seed. Keep praying for them, and trust the Holy Spirit to do the rest.

DBRP- WEEK 8, Day 3, Wednesday, 21 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+12%2C13%3B+proverbs+21%3B+acts+10>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 21 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 12 – The purification instructions in Leviticus 12 have symbolic purposes as well as practical medical benefits which modern medicine continues to discover thousands of years later (many yet to be realized). For example, concerning circumcision on the eighth day, “a newborn baby has peculiar susceptibility to bleeding between the 2nd and 5th days of life. Hemorrhages at this time can be critical and may even produce serious damage to internal organs, especially to the brain, and cause death from shock and exsanguination. An important blood clotting element, vitamin K, is not formed in the normal amount until the 5th to the 7th day. The first safe day to perform circumcision would be the 8th day. A second element which is also necessary for the normal clotting of blood is prothrombin which is minimal in the first few days of the baby's life, but skyrockets to 110% of normal on the 8th day and then levels off to 100%. An 8-day-old baby has more available prothrombin than on any other day of its entire life.... Also, with a child, the sensation of pain begins with the head, and gradually moves down the body. By the eighth day, the pain sensation has not yet gone as far down as the genital area. So, really it is a painless operation for the child on the eighth day, any longer and it would be painful, and the blood will coagulate on the eighth day, so, it was the ideal day for circumcision.” As for the quarantine rules related to childbirth, one can research the many medical benefits. As for the increased time for the birth of female babies, a cynic might suggest that this is some sort of biased penalty. However, not only do women face different post-partum hormonal imbalances after the birth of a female child, survivability likely increased for female babies who benefited from increased isolation, and female babies promised future reproduction, arguably making their survival even more important. All this having been said, the key takeaway is that we cannot limit God's word to our very limited understanding.

2. Leviticus 12:8 – “And if she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering.” God has a heart for the poor.

3. Leviticus 13 – Leprosy is a lot like sin: It seems to come from nowhere, is painless at first, grows slowly, sometimes seems to come and go, produces a numbness to its spreading, causes death to the affected areas, makes a person unclean and disgusting, and potentially spreads to others. Like leprosy, those with untreated sin are like walking dead. Like leprosy, sin leads to isolation and broken relationships. Unlike others, Jesus engaged the lepers, those with apparently no hope and shunned by others. Jesus loved them and healed them when other religious ‘leaders’ avoided them and ostracized them. In OT times, it was left to the priests to determine how to treat the leper. The Bible says that we are priests, able to discern the needs of those plagued with sin, and the Holy Spirit uses us to bring healing to others.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Proverbs 21:1 – “The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of the Lord; he turns it wherever he will.” God uses national leaders to bless or punish the people of a nation. The best way for a nation to ensure great leaders is to repent.

5. Proverbs 21:2 – “Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but the Lord weighs the heart.” Only the Holy Spirit can reveal to you how you are deceiving yourself. Popular psychology recognizes the importance of being self-aware or introspective, but secular social sciences fail to solve social problems because only the Holy Spirit can expose and change the heart.

6. Proverbs 21:3 – “To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice.” Make your act of worship obedience to the Lord. Don't try to make up for disobedience by doing some act that God never asked you to do in the first place. Just obey in the circumstances God puts before you, one day at a time.

7. Proverbs 21:9, 19 – “It is better to live in a corner of the housetop than in a house shared with a quarrelsome wife.... It is better to live in a desert land than with a quarrelsome and fretful woman.” A quarrelsome and fretful person, whether it be a wife, husband, relative, close friend, or a business partner, can make your life miserable. Understand that your attitudes, words, and actions can have a dramatic impact on others. Someone said that people are like elevators, either bringing you up or bringing you down. What sort of elevator person are you? Some people are great at lifting up people outside of their homes while tearing down people within their homes – they treat friends better than family. However, the Bible says that if you don't take care of your family, you are denying the faith. Do your friends like being with you more than your family does?

8. Proverbs 21:11 – “When a scoffer is punished, the simple becomes wise; when a wise man is instructed, he gains knowledge.” Do you require punishment or merely instruction to do what God commands? Someone once said that wisdom is understanding what you have never experienced. Wise people learn from God's word and from watching the truth of God's word play out in the lives of others. For example, God's word says, “Don't commit adultery.” You can trust and obey God's word, you can observe and see the destructive impact of adultery in the lives of others, or you can commit adultery and experience destruction for yourself. God gives you the ability and the freedom to choose. You own the responsibility, but God owns the accountability.

9. Proverbs 21:13 – “Whoever closes his ear to the cry of the poor will himself call out and not be answered.” God often treats you the way you treat others. If you are praying to receive something from God that you are not willing to give to others, God sees through that, and you should not expect to receive that for which you are asking.

10. Proverbs 21:16 – “One who wanders from the way of good sense will rest in the assembly of the dead.” People wander into death by paying attention to something other than the Good Shepherd.

11. Proverbs 21:17 – “Whoever loves pleasure will be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil will not be rich.” Americans have cable, cell phones, nice cars, etc., but also have more debt than assets, less than a 2% savings rate, and they no longer tithe. Over half of US consumer debt is owned by China. What does God think about that?

12. Proverbs 21:24 -- “‘Scoffer’ is the name of the arrogant, haughty man who acts with arrogant pride.” The Bible uses the word “scoffer” 19 times. The word is mentioned in Proverbs 13 times. 2 Peter 3:3

says that “scoffers will come in the last days with scoffing, following their own sinful desires.” Scoffers are those who are too proud to humbly obey God. The Bible says that those people will increase.

13. Proverbs 21:26 – “All day long he craves and craves, but the righteous gives and does not hold back.” Christians overcome the cravings that destroy others by, in part, focusing on giving to others.

14. Acts 10:1, 2 -- “There was a man named Cornelius..., a devout man who feared God with all his household, gave alms generously to the people, and prayed continually to God.” One of the primary character traits of a true disciple is generous giving to the poor and needy (‘alms’ are gifts to the poor, above the tithe). Remember, just yesterday we read that Tabatha “was full of good works and acts of charity.” (Acts 9:36) Charity is the evidence of righteousness used for both Job and the Proverbs 31 woman. It is the mark of genuine worship and love for God, and it separates the true disciple from the hypocrite (actor). The generous giver is blessed by God. Twice today, Cornelius’ giving is praised -- “Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God.... Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your alms have been remembered before God.” (Acts 10:4, Acts 10:31) The kind of giving the Bible talks about is radical, shocking giving (see verses below), hands “wide” open. The Christian sees the need and then meets the need. Cornelius was known by both God and the community as a generous giver. Are you? Is charity one of the primary character traits others would use to describe you? Do you give like Job? Challenge: give to the poor today in a way that is felt by you as a true sacrifice.

- Matthew 19:21 -- Jesus said to him, “If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.”

- Deuteronomy 15:7-11 -- “If among you, one of your brothers should become poor, in any of your towns within your land that the Lord your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart or shut your hand against your poor brother, but you shall open your hand to him and lend him sufficient for his need, whatever it may be. Take care lest there be an unworthy thought in your heart and you say, ‘The seventh year, the year of release is near,’ and your eye look grudgingly on your poor brother, and you give him nothing, and he cry to the Lord against you, and you be guilty of sin. You shall give to him freely, and your heart shall not be grudging when you give to him, because for this the Lord your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake. For there will never cease to be poor in the land. Therefore I command you, ‘You shall open wide your hand to your brother, to the needy and to the poor, in your land.’

- Job 31:16-23 -- “If I have withheld anything that the poor desired, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it (for from my youth the fatherless grew up with me as with a father, and from my mother’s womb I guided the widow), if I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or the needy without covering, if his body has not blessed me, and if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep, if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, because I saw my help in the gate, then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder, and let my arm be broken from its socket. For I was in terror of calamity from God, and I could not have faced his majesty.

- Proverbs 19:17 -- Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the LORD, and he will repay him for his deed.

- Proverbs 22:9 -- Whoever has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor.

- Proverbs 28:27 -- Whoever gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.
- Proverbs 31:20 -- She opens her hand to the poor and reaches out her hands to the needy.
- Ezekiel 16:49 -- Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, excess of food, and prosperous ease, but did not aid the poor and needy.
- Deuteronomy 15:10-11 -- You shall give to him freely, and your heart shall not be grudging when you give to him, because for this the Lord your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake. For there will never cease to be poor in the land. Therefore I command you, 'You shall open wide your hand to your brother, to the needy and to the poor, in your land.'
- Isaiah 58:10 -- If you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday.
- James 1:27 -- Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.
- 1 John 3:17 -- But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him?
- Isaiah 25:4 -- For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat; for the breath of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall,
- Galatians 2:10 -- Only, they asked us to remember the poor, the very thing I was eager to do.
- Proverbs 14:21 -- Whoever despises his neighbor is a sinner, but blessed is he who is generous to the poor.
- 2 Corinthians 9:7 -- Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.
- Luke 14:33 -- So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.
- Matthew 5:42 -- Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you.
- Leviticus 25:35 -- "If your brother becomes poor and cannot maintain himself with you, you shall support him as though he were a stranger and a sojourner, and he shall live with you.
- Luke 3:11 -- And he answered them, "Whoever has two tunics is to share with him who has none, and whoever has food is to do likewise."
- James 2:16-17 -- And one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

15. Acts 10:2 – “...a devout man who feared God with all his household, gave alms generously to the people, and prayed continually to God.” In addition to his radical giving, Cornelius’ devoutness was evidenced by his continual prayer. Is that what you are known for? Both Cornelius’ uncommon charity and his prayer life were favored by God (v4), rendering Cornelius especially usable by God. How is your prayer life?

16. Acts 10:9-6 – Peter’s special vision of revelation was received during his time of prayer.

17. Acts 10:15 -- “What God has made clean, do not call common.” Peter’s vision pertained to God’s acceptance of Gentiles, using dietary laws in a symbolic way. Peter’s vision may not have had direct implication to dietary laws.

18. Acts 10:25-29 – “When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him.... And he said to them, ‘You yourselves know how unlawful it is for a Jew to associate with or to visit anyone of another nation, but God has shown me that I should not call any person common or unclean. So when I was sent for, I came without objection. I ask then why you sent for me.’” I don’t think our generation can fully appreciate the shocking significance of the events that occur in Acts 10: A Roman Centurion kneeling in reverence before a devout Messianic Jew who had agreed to enter his home despite Jewish law, all to mark the commencement of the pouring out of the Holy Spirit to the Gentiles. A Jew visiting a Centurion, and a Centurion bowing down to a Jew would have created a shocking, unthinkable scene in that day, challenging the deep-rooted beliefs and customs of all involved. However, the god-fearing men put God’s commands above all else and obeyed without hesitation, despite complete understanding. The power of God destroys all barriers. God does not celebrate diversity; He provides unity in Christ. God created the ‘universe’ – the combination of two words, unity and diversity. God brings different things and people in perfect order when He is as the center. This is not a “Coexist” moment where Cornelius and Peter make a public political statement of social tolerance or say, “I’m ok, and you’re ok.” No, this is two servants of God surrendering to the will of God for the glory of God. The message is “none of us are ok, apart from Christ;” however, “everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins through his name (Acts 10:43).” Race, ethnicity, gender, social status, etc. are not virtues. But nothing of man is virtuous – no man can boast. “But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world” (Galatians 6:14).

- 1 Corinthians 3:21 -- So let no one boast in men.

19. Acts 10:34, 35 -- “Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.” God shows no partiality; do you? In God’s economy, there are only two classes of people – saved and unsaved. Christians should reject all other social classifications or stratifications.

20. Acts 10:43 – “To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.” This is the Gospel we are called to preach. There is no other name by which a person may be saved but the name of Jesus.

21. Acts 10:47, 48 – ““Can anyone withhold water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?’ And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days.” Baptism was immediate, and the church put no obstacles in the way of immediate baptism.

DBRP- WEEK 8, Day 2, Tuesday, 20 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+10%2C11%3B+proverbs+20%3B+acts+9>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 20 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 10:1, 2 – “Now Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it and laid incense on it and offered unauthorized fire before the Lord, which he had not commanded them. And fire came out from before the Lord and consumed them, and they died before the Lord.” Nadab and Abihu were given tremendous responsibility to lead communal worship and maintain God’s standards of holiness. God gave strict instructions for worship and demanded obedience. Nadab and Abihu dishonored God, and God held them accountable. If this appears to be an extreme punishment, it can only be because of a misunderstanding of the severity of treating the Almighty’s holiness with contempt.

- Nadab, Abihu, and Saul were extremely committed and active in religious service. They were all very influential religious leaders. They had all convinced themselves that they were righteous before the Lord. However, they were practicing the false religion described in Colossians 2:20-23, having "an appearance of wisdom, with their self-imposed worship, their false humility...." Their prideful, misguided approaches to God dishonored God, led people astray, and only resulted in death and destruction. Jesus said, "true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. "God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth" (Jn. 4:19-24) Worship is the purpose for which Christians were made — and only the redeemed can worship the Father in spirit and in truth. True worship can only come from reliance on the Grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit within us. True worship must be grounded in and accountable to the Word of God. "Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship (Rom 12:1)."

2. Leviticus 10:3 – “Then Moses said to Aaron, ‘This is what the Lord has said: ‘Among those who are near me I will be sanctified, and before all the people I will be glorified.’” And Aaron held his peace.” Aaron understood the significance of the sin committed by his son’s — he did not dare challenge God’s punishment.

3. Leviticus 11 – The world is full of ‘unclean’ people who do not know God, common people who know God, and holy people who lead worship; likewise, the Law designated unclean animals, clean animals, and animals worthy for sacrifice.

4. Proverbs 20:6 – “Many a man proclaims his own steadfast love, but a faithful man who can find?” Fidelity is proof of love and one of the most valuable character traits. God seeks a rare commodity: a faithful individual.

- Genesis 24:49 -- Now then, if you are going to show steadfast love and faithfulness to my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left.

- Numbers 12:6-8 -- And he said, "Hear my words: If there is a prophet among you, I the Lord make myself known to him in a vision; I speak with him in a dream. Not so with my servant Moses. He is faithful in all my house. With him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in riddles, and he beholds the form of the Lord. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"

- Proverbs 16:6 -- By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the Lord one turns away from evil.
- Proverbs 20:28 -- Steadfast love and faithfulness preserve the king, and by steadfast love his throne is upheld.
- Proverbs 28:20 -- A faithful man will abound with blessings, but whoever hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.
- Matthew 23:23 -- Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others.
- Matthew 25:21 -- His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.'
- Luke 16:10 -- "One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much.

- Galatians 5:22 -- But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,

- Revelation 17:14 -- They will make war on the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, for he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called and chosen and faithful.”
- Revelation 19:11 -- Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! The one sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war.
- 5. Proverbs 20:11 – “Even a child makes himself known by his acts, by whether his conduct is pure and upright.” What you do reveals what you really believe.
- 6. Proverbs 20:15 – “There is gold and abundance of costly stones, but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.” Few people truly speak wisdom, and truly wise people use words most sparingly.
- 7. Proverbs 20:30 – “Blows that wound cleanse away evil; strokes make clean the innermost parts.” Some people can only learn the hard way.
- 8. Acts 9:1 – Saul used the church to persecute true followers of Jesus Christ.
- 9. Acts 9:4 -- “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?” To persecute disciples of Jesus is to persecute Jesus himself.
- 10. Acts 9:6, 12, 15, 17-20 – God gave Saul directions on step at a time. You must be willing to be faithful, one step at a time, regardless of outcome. Many people are obsessed with knowing the future, mainly because they want something to believe in today. The Christian walks in faith, hope, and love (love being the greatest attribute). Faith trusts God today, hope trusts God with the future, and love is the source of that faith and hope, the reason for faith and hope. Those who genuinely know Him, trust Him and will obey without need of understanding the 'why'. Paul had powerfully experienced God. That was all the motivation He needed.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

11. Acts 9:13 – Saul was praying when God spoke to Ananias.

12. Acts 9:13, 19 – God incorporated Saul into a church fellowship that feared him.

13. Acts 9:15, 16 – “But the Lord said to him, ‘Go, for he is a chosen instrument of mine to carry my name before the Gentiles and kings and the children of Israel. For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name.’”

- Jesus chose Saul; Saul did not choose Jesus. Saul was the least likely candidate from man's perspective to carry the name of Jesus to both Jew and Gentile. Leadership in the Kingdom is not about power, pride, and prestige but rather about calling, humility, service, sacrifice, and suffering. In the Kingdom, leaders are not self-appointed but are chosen and equipped by God. Saul, the career Pharisee, the self-appointed leader, made himself an enemy of God in the name of God, relentlessly pursuing 'righteousness' without relationship with God or the authority of the LORD. God would teach Saul to suffer. God would transform the proud and ambitious Saul into the living sacrifice, Paul, who would be willing to say, “For I am ready not only to be imprisoned but even to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.” (Acts 21:13) Are you ready to suffer and die?

- The account of Saul's (Paul's) conversion and calling shows us much about the ways of God. First, as mentioned above, God chose Paul while Paul was not seeking Jesus (Acts 9:1-7). In fact, Paul was “anti-Christ,” greatly feared among the believers. Next, God reveals to Saul that the persecution of believers is in fact persecution of Jesus directly (Acts 9:4). Notice that God does not reveal to Saul the “plan” but rather gives him instructions to follow one step at a time. He also makes proud Saul dependent on others rather than independent (Acts 9:6-9).” Immediately upon calling Saul, God began preparing the hearts of others to help Saul; in fact, it appears the God revealed to Ananias more about Saul's mission than He did to Saul (Acts 9:10-15). God gave Saul the mission of glorifying Him, and this mission would require great suffering (in which Paul would later rejoice, seeing suffering as an essential part of God's perfect plan). God surprised everyone by calling Saul, an infamous enemy of the church, to salvation and service. Many in the church could not accept what God was doing with the life of Saul. Meanwhile, Saul's former circles despised his conversion and wanted to kill him. However, God provided Saul with a small group of mentors and supporters. Notice that Paul, though still being mentored by the apostles, began preaching immediately, though most refused to accept his message. Paul's mission started as a struggle and only got more challenging with each day; yet Paul's joy and impact only grew. What, through the account of Saul's conversion and calling, is God revealing to you about your conversion and calling?

14. Acts 9:18 – “Then he rose and was baptized.” Just like the eunuch before him, Saul was baptized immediately.

15. Acts 9:20 – “And immediately he proclaimed Jesus in the synagogues, saying, ‘He is the Son of God.’” Those who have truly experienced Jesus don't hesitate to proclaim Jesus even to the most skeptical.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

16. Acts 9:25 – “His disciples took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket.” God protected Saul through the efforts of people. God is in control, but we must act wisely in every situation.

17. Acts 9:29 – Revival included bold preaching in Jesus’ name that spread to other churches.

DBRP- WEEK 8, Day 1, Monday, 19 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+8%2C9%3B+proverbs+19%3B+acts+8>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 19 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 8:4 – “And Moses did as the Lord commanded him....” God demands absolute obedience from His servants. Though we rely totally on grace, obedience remains essential.

2. Leviticus 8:1-36 – God’s servants are purified and reconciled before they begin their missions. God’s servants must be set apart, holy.

3. Leviticus 8:23, 24 – “And he killed it, and Moses took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron’s right ear and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. Then he presented Aaron’s sons, and Moses put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet.” The bloody ceremony was to serve as a reminder for the priests to guard their hearts in service to the Lord, to guard their spiritual gates (eyes, ears, hands, and feet). Nothing should pass in and out that isn’t purified by the blood. As ambassadors for Christs, as priests, the reality of The Cross should determine what we allow into our hearts (what we choose to listen to and gaze upon) and what we allow to come out of our hearts (our words and our deeds). Do you need a visible reminder of Jesus’ sacrifice for you in order to keep you pure in what you choose to listen to, what you choose to say, what you choose to do, and where you choose to go?

4. Proverbs 19:2, 15, 20, 21, 24, 27 -- “Desire without knowledge is not good, and whoever makes haste with his feet misses his way.... Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep, and an idle person will suffer hunger.... Listen to advice and accept instruction, that you may gain wisdom in the future. Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the LORD that will stand.... The sluggard buries his hand in the dish and will not even bring it back to his mouth.... Cease to hear instruction, my son, and you will stray from the words of knowledge.” As a basic principle, success in life is determined by two things: decisions and discipline. We need to make good decisions and then have the discipline to follow through. Effective decision-making gets you started down the right path; persistent, consistent discipline gets you to where you intended to go. Unfortunately, most people struggle with both decision-making and discipline, which is why success eludes so many. Proverbs offers wisdom for those desiring success. Concerning making good decisions, Proverbs points to three requirements: self-study, wise counsel, and alignment with God’s will, the latter, of course, being most critical. First when it comes to decision-making, you must ensure your choices honor and glorify God and do not in any way counter or detract from His word. God will never ask you to do something or bless any decision which goes against His word. If you find yourself saying things like, “I know the Bible says this, but....” You are going down the wrong path. Even a biblical decision can be poorly executed without knowledge, which is why the Bible tells us that all of our decisions should be guided by self-study and wise counsel. Note too that Proverbs reminds us that instruction must be continuous. We can never stop learning or accepting advice, even (or perhaps especially) in the areas in which we believe we have expertise. As soon as we think we have it figured out, we stray. Finally, there is no substitute for self-control and hard work rightly applied. Of course, success doesn't come from hard work alone; with bad decision-making, hard work will only get you to the wrong place faster. However, with sound decisions, only discipline and perseverance will get you what you are looking to achieve. The person who isn't toiled is spoiled, and a life of ease ruins a person. You can have all the knowledge in the world, but if you aren't willing to act upon it faithfully over time, it is useless to you. Success always involves sacrificing something good now for something great later. Success requires the pain of discipline now in order to avoid the pain of regret tomorrow. Successful people are those who are willing to sacrifice comfort where unsuccessful people aren't willing. And, all the things that matter most to us fall under the "principle of the farm": it takes persistent sacrifice over time to eventually get a harvest – you don't get a harvest overnight. Most disciplines must be maintained for a long time in order to get results eventually – this is the primary reason disciplines are hard; you don't get instant gratification or a quick payoff, and it takes faith and hope to invest in the future. It is the weak and lazy that constantly search for the 'get rich quick' schemes which is why the Bible warns against such thinking. Impatience always gets you into trouble – just ask Abraham, Jacob, Saul, etc. If success is eluding you in a particular area, check your decisions and your discipline.

5. Proverbs 19:3 -- "When a man's folly brings his way to ruin, his heart rages against the Lord." Don't blame God.

6. Proverbs 19:4 -- "Wealth brings many new friends, but a poor man is deserted by his friend." Truly loving people are those who will love others for love's sake, not for personal gain. Many people who claim to love don't really love the other but merely what the other can provide them, whether that other be another person or God. Do you love God or merely the blessings of God? If God promised you no blessings, would you love Him nonetheless? This is the question Satan asked of Job.

7. Proverbs 19:17 – "Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord, and he will repay him for his deed." The word "lends" in this word is the ancient word "lâvâh" which also means to unite or entwine with. So, another way to read this is that when we are generous to the poor, we unite ourselves with God. This is the unity Jesus prayed for in John 17. And this unity, this fellowship with Jesus, actually costs us nothing because God will repay us for what we lend to the poor. You can't be that. But how often do Christians justify withholding from the poor? There are plenty of logical reasons why a person might not want to give to another person, but obedience to God and love will not always seem logical or reasonable. Let the Holy Spirit guide you, and when He puts it on your heart to give, then be generous.

8. Proverbs 19:21 -- "Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the Lord that will stand." No matter how you justify your actions, if it is not what God wanted you to do, it is pointless. We were made to serve Him, not self.

9. Acts 8:1 – "And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles." Before the gift of the Holy Spirit, the apostles abandoned Jesus when pressured; now the apostles refused to run for self-preservation.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

10. Acts 8:2 – “Devout men buried Stephen and made great lamentation over him.” The devout responded to persecution completely differently than everyone else.

11. Acts 8:4 – “Now those who were scattered went about preaching the word.” God used the persecution of the church to rapidly spread the Gospel throughout the land. This reminds me of what Joseph said to his brothers: “You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives (Genesis 50:20).” We were created to fulfill God’s purposes and to glorify Him, and this will require that we go through trials and persecution. However, at the same time, God who IS love can only respond to His children in perfect love. What He has us go through for His glory is also what is the very best for us, though we cannot usually understand why. There is nothing that can happen to us that God does not allow, and as Romans 8:28 says, “We know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.” In your sufferings for Christ, God is doing a few things simultaneously: He is revealing Himself to you in a greater way; He is revealing Himself to the world through you; He is revealing you to yourself; and He is drawing you closer to Him and building your character to be more like that of Christ. Concerning Jesus, the Bible says, “Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered (Hebrews 5:8).” How is God teaching you obedience? Paul says, “We rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us (Romans 5:2-5). As God uses you for His purposes and builds your character, taking comfort in knowing that “because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted (Hebrews 2:18).” And if you are suffering for the name of Christ, give thanks that you have been considered worthy for such a task and for the opportunity to share in this fellowship with Jesus; take on Paul’s attitude: “I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us (Romans 8:18). But if you, after making an honest assessment, find that you are not really suffering persecution for Christ but rather the consequences of your own infidelity, take heart in knowing that “the Lord disciplines those he loves (Proverbs 3:12; Hebrews 12:6; Revelation 3:19), and nothing, not even you, can separate you from God’s perfect love (Romans 8:35-39). Repent and move forward with joy knowing that you live in a state of grace and God is raising you up as His wonderful child whom He loves completely.

12. Acts 8:5 -- “Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed to them the Christ.” According to the Bible, both Philip and Simon the magician “believed” in Jesus; however, Simon the magician’s belief had no power while through Philip, the Holy Spirit moved mightily. Clearly their beliefs were not the same. As James points out, “Even the demons believe—and shudder!” (James 2:19). Simon the magician had the appearance of a true believer. He publicly proclaimed his faith in Jesus, he was baptized, and he was already on a mission trip with the “greats” of the faith. However, Peter points out that, though Simon “believed” that Jesus was the Son of God, Simon had not yet repented and was trapped in “bitterness and in the bond of iniquity.” Ultimately, Simon the magician was focused on and living for self while Philip was focused on and living for Christ. Simon the magician was not really seeking a Lord and Savior, but rather a genie in a bottle. Simon was led by his earthly desires and by his own understanding, while Philip was led by the Spirit which is not discernable through human knowledge. The Holy Spirit uses the surrendered, obedient life. Notice that Philip, having just rocked the city of Samaria with powerful preaching and amazing miracles, refused to be distracted and remained completely responsive and obedient to the Holy Spirit. Rather than staying to cultivate this fruitful ministry in Samaria as would reasonably be expected, he did not hesitate to “Rise and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza,” a desert place. Certainly, no person would have advised Philip to leave success in the city for a desert journey with no defined purpose. However, Philip was not pursuing success from man’s perspective but rather obedience and fellowship with God. As Peter tells Simon, the fruitfulness of your faith depends in a large part upon “the intent of your heart.” Consider your heart. Why do you do what you do? What is the ultimate motivation behind your actions? Are you truly Christ-centered? Are you living obediently to the word God has plainly given? Are you receptive and obedient to convictions from the Holy Spirit? What has the Holy Spirit put on your heart to which you have yet to respond? Do not hesitate to “rise” and take the road the goes to the desert.

13. Acts 8:8 – “So there was much joy in that city.” Joy came from experiencing what only the Holy Spirit could do.

14. Acts 8:9 – “But there was a man named Simon, who had previously practiced magic in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, saying that he himself was somebody great.” False teachers take the credit instead of directing it towards Jesus Christ.

15. Acts 8:11 – “...for a long time he had amazed them with his magic.” False teachers can amaze.

16. Acts 8:12 – “But when they believed Philip as he preached good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.” Philip preached Jesus Christ, never seeking to share glory with Jesus.

17. Acts 8:22 – “Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you.” The Holy Spirit must change your heart. Even spreading the Gospel can be done with the wrong heart.

18. Acts 8:26, 27 – “And he rose and went.” Walking by the Spirit involves being obedient without understanding why. God will tell you to “go” without revealing His purpose or exact plan. God will arrange circumstances for His purposes; you need only obey with your eyes open for His activities in which He wants you to participate.

19. Acts 8:30-31 – “So Philip ran to him and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet and asked, ‘Do you understand what you are reading?’ And he said, ‘How can I, unless someone guides me?’ And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.” Only the Father can lead someone to the Son. We are merely His instruments to proclaim the truth when provided the opportunity.

20. Acts 8:35 – “Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he told him the good news about Jesus.” God calls us to use the Scripture to tell people about Jesus, not just our own words and opinions. We need not add to God’s word to proclaim the Gospel, but we can also share our personal testimonies as first-hand witnesses of the Truth. Are you prepared to explain the path of salvation through the Bible and to share your personal testimony?

21. Acts 8:38 – “And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.” Philip baptized the eunuch as soon as the eunuch believed, nothing else was required.

DBRP- WEEK 7, Day 7, Sunday, 18 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+6%2C+7%3B+proverbs+18%3B+psalm+20%2C+21>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 18 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 6:2 -- "If anyone sins and commits a breach of faith against the Lord by deceiving his neighbor...." Sins against our neighbors are in fact breaches of faith against the Lord.

2. Leviticus 6:2-6 -- "If anyone sins and is unfaithful to the LORD by deceiving his neighbor.... He must make restitution in full... to the owner on the day he presents his guilt offering... to the priest, that is, to the LORD, his guilt offering." We have forgiveness of our sins through Jesus, but we maintain a responsibility to make full restitution to those we have offended, even if they are not aware that we have deceived them in some way. This is hard, and Christians often neglect this responsibility, thereby living a lie. Moses relayed to the people that they had to both make restitution and provide a guilt offering to the Lord. Jesus said, "Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift (Matt 5:23)." I am reminded of the Prophet Samuel's farewell speech (1 Sam 12:1-4) when he says, "Here I stand. Testify against me in the presence of the LORD and his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I accepted a bribe to make me shut my eyes? If I have done any of these, I will make it right." Today is a good day to "strive..." to clear your conscience "before God and man (Acts 24:15-17)." Let no debt remain but the debt of love (Romans 13:8).

3. Leviticus 7:11-21 -- "This is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings that one may offer to the Lord...." God has always been delighted to receive special offerings from those whose hearts have been set apart to serve Him (Deut. 10:12-22). When worshipers under the old covenant wanted to present a special offering before the Lord, above and beyond what the Law required (Lev. 1-2; 4), a peace offering was brought to the sanctuary out of the overflow of the worshiper's heart. Freewill offerings were given in response to God's unexpected or unsought generosity. The peace offering was the only sacrifice worshipers could eat. Being at peace with God is a special occasion indeed and worthy of celebration with a great feast. For poor Israelites, this may have been the only time they ever ate meat. Moreover, strict cleanliness laws had to be followed regarding the eating of the sacrifice (vv. 19-21). Though at peace with the worshiper, our Creator remained holy and could still not tolerate any impurity in His presence.

4. Proverbs 18:1 -- "Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound judgment." Individualism is often a sign of selfishness. There is no such thing as a faithful Christian loner. Our mission is all about relationships. Christians are people persons.

5. Proverbs 18:2 -- "A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion." Consider this verse in context with Proverbs 11:30 -- "...whoever captures souls is wise." Fools are driven, blinded, and deafened by pride. Wise people are humble, driven by love, and on a mission of reconciliation, reconciling others to God. Fools seek to win arguments. The wise seek to win souls. The wise listener doesn't just listen to understand another person's argument but rather listens to understand the other person, for what is in that person's heart. Don't let an issue become a distraction from Jesus. Don't just win the debate, draw the listener closer to Jesus. Be wise, not a fool.

6. Proverbs 18:9 -- "Whoever is slack in his work is a brother to him who destroys." How many haven't suffered because somebody didn't do their job well? God expects his people to seek perfection in all that they do. We spend so much time, energy, and effort trying to fix what someone broke due to pure negligence, complacency, or laziness. Small, seemingly insignificant, decisions to cut corners or disregard fundamentals have a huge ripple effect that affects many and can become catastrophic. Truth be told, too much of your time is wasted also fixing what you broke because of your bad habits. For example, perhaps you don't put something away where it goes, then later you spend hours looking for it -- hours I could have used doing something productive, hours I will never get back. When we are not disciplined and diligent in our habits and practices, we pay a huge opportunity cost and destroy our productivity; this is a sin that I must work on daily. God is very interested in our attention to detail in all that we do. Our professionalism ultimately glorifies Him.

7. Psalm 20 is a worship service before battle. God's people at times have to fight for what is right.

8. Psalm 20:1 -- "May the Lord answer you in the day of trouble! May the name of the God of Jacob protect you!" The day of trouble is inevitable, when your best abilities and the best abilities of others is not enough, when the illusion of control is stripped away, and our dependency upon God becomes indisputable. Hence the old military adage, "There are no atheists in foxholes."

9. Psalm 20:5; Psalm 21:1, 13 -- Faith in God in time of crisis leads to joy in god in victory.

10. Psalm 20:6; Psalm 21:1, 13 -- God answers your prayers.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

11. Psalm 20:7 – “Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the Lord our God.” No earthly power can make up for infidelity to God. In what do you place your trust?

12. Psalm 21:1 – “O Lord, in your strength the king rejoices, and in your salvation how greatly he exults!” When you truly know that God is in complete control, loves you perfectly, protects you with all of His power, and only allows what is best for you to happen, you have much about to rejoice and won’t have trouble exulting Jesus.

13. Psalm 21:2 – “You have given him his heart’s desire and have not withheld the request of his lips.” When your heart’s desire is Jesus, and when your requests are for God’s will to be done, God will always answer your prayers with, “Yes,” and give you your heart’s desire.

14. Psalm 21:7 – “For the king trusts in the Lord, and through the steadfast love of the Most High he shall not be moved.” Love enables the king to trust God, but love also enables the king to remain faithful, steadfast and immovable, to God’s commands when it is difficult to do so – “Steadfast love and faithfulness meet; righteousness and peace kiss each other.” (Psalm 85:10)

15. Psalm 21:11 – God foils enemy plans.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 18 Feb: Today, seek to be relationship focused rather than task focused. Rather than just getting stuff done, build and strengthen your relationships in the process, loving those around you more and more. Put people before projects. Remember, our life mission of love and reconciliation is all about relationships, not busywork. Don’t let the worries of the world hinder your relationships. (Proverbs 18:1)

DBRP- WEEK 7, Day 6, Saturday, 17 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+4%2C+5%3B+proverbs+17%3B+psalm+19>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 17 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 4:1-3 – “If anyone sins unintentionally in any of the Lord’s commandments about things not to be done, and does any one of them,.. bringing guilt on the people....” We are still responsible and held accountable for our unintentional sins which reveal our complacency and lack of total devotion to God. Obviously, unintentionality is a lack of intentionality which the dictionary describes as “the fact of being deliberate or purposive [or] the quality of mental states (e.g., thoughts, beliefs, desires, hopes) that consists in their being directed toward some object or state of affairs.” God commanded that all of our thoughts, beliefs, desires, and hopes be directed towards Him. Anything else is sin, cosmic treason against the LORD. Note also that individual sin has corporate implications. No sins are committed in isolation; even the ones you think are secret will eventually impact those around you.

2. Leviticus 4:22 -- “When a leader sins, doing unintentionally any one of all the things that by the commandments of the Lord his God ought not to be done, and realizes his guilt, or the sin which he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a goat, a male without blemish, and shall lay his hand on the head of the goat and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the Lord; it is a sin offering.” God reminds leaders of their burden of responsibility and that, not only are they personally responsible for what they do and fail to do, their actions affect others. There are no excuses in leadership.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

3. Leviticus 5:5 – Old sins, even ones that were never revealed or that have been long forgotten by others, still need to be addressed. If at all possible, you must seek restitution and reconciliation with those against whom you have sinned. (review Exodus 22 on restitution)

4. God takes every sin seriously. The New Testament takes sin as seriously as does the OT – see Romans chapters 1-3.

5. Proverbs 17:2 -- “A wise servant will rule over a disgraceful son, and will share the inheritance as one of the brothers.” This is an interesting verse when considered in context with how God responded to the unbelief of many Jews by opening the door of salvation to the Gentiles. As Romans 11:11 says, “Because of their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel envious.” Paul continues: “I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in.” I believe that when “the full number of the Gentiles has come in,” the “Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare (2 Peter 3:10; see all of 2 Peter 3 to understand more on the topic). Who do you know and love that you want to see counted among that number? Have you told them about Jesus?

6. Proverbs 17:14 – “The beginning of strife is like letting out water, so quit before the quarrel breaks out.” Rarely do you ever really win an argument whether you are right or wrong. Just let it go and leave it to God to deal with whatever you have lost. When there is a conflict between you and someone else, the issue can become your idol (the focus rather than Jesus). Don’t let that issue cause you to lose sight of your goal of bringing that person closer to Jesus. If that person is focused on the issue or on you, they are not looking at Jesus. Is anything worth distracting you or someone else from Jesus?

7. Proverbs 17:27, 28 – “Whoever restrains his words has knowledge, and he who has a cool spirit is a man of understanding. Even a fool who keeps silent is considered wise; when he closes his lips, he is deemed intelligent.” If there is any doubt, remain silent. Everybody has something to say, but most of it is not worth listening to and does not promote reconciliation or wisdom. “The words of a man's mouth are deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is a bubbling brook.” (Proverbs 18:4) The most important time to be silent is when you are feeling emotional (this is a warning of self-centeredness). Emotional words won’t be wise, godly words. You must first deny self and take up your cross. You must be compelled by the love of Christ to see that person as Jesus sees that person. As an ambassador for Christ, you are not allowed to represent yourself in that encounter; to do so would be to commit cosmic treason. Do not sin against the one who gave His life for you (though you didn’t deserve it) by seeking your own justification and glory from a position of self-righteousness. Leave justice to the Just One, and stay focused on the goal of reconciling people to Jesus.

8. Psalm 19:1 – “The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork.” The truth of God is self-evident to those who choose to open their eyes to see it.

9. Psalm 19:1, 7, 9, 14 -- “The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork.... The law of the LORD is perfect.... the rules of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.... O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.”

In his meditations, the psalmist marvels at how the Creator has revealed Himself through both His creation and His word, and the psalmist rejoices in the fact that God has provided his word that we might live life to its fullest, aligned with the perfect will of the Creator. The psalmist understands the futility of attempting to live life apart from God's revealed word -- "Who can discern his errors?" God created both principles (the rules of how life works) and ethics (the rules of justice, mercy, and grace), but mankind replaces principles and ethics with values (how we perceive life works) and morals (from the word "mores" -- what society accepts as good vice what is really good). Apart from God's word, we are inclined to follow our values and morals into destruction.

The Creation reflects the nature, character, and will of the Creator as do the natural laws to which all of Creation, including us, is subject. Many throughout history, in great futility, have attempted to function in opposition to the laws of nature; predictably, the results have been devastatingly the same. On the contrary, those who have sought greater understanding of the laws of nature and have endeavored to apply those laws to life's challenges have accomplished great scientific feats, greatly advancing things such as medicine and technology. Only the Creator can control Creation, and in fact, controlling nature is one of the primary ways God uses throughout the Bible to reveal Himself, doing something that clearly only God can do. He parts the seas, causes catastrophic storms and earthquakes, stops the sun and moon, puts eyes in men that had been born without eyes, brings the dead back to life, etc. Jesus' power over nature revealed Him to be the Son of God -- "And the men marveled, saying, 'What sort of man is this, that even winds and sea obey him?'" (Matthew 8:27)

Like the laws of nature, God's spiritual laws, His commands, His Word, His Law, reflect His perfect nature, character, will, righteousness and order. Jesus is the embodiment of the Word, and fellowship or unity with Jesus results in conformance to the word, God's spiritual laws. All of Creation is subject to His Word, His Law. Many throughout history, in great futility, have attempted to function in opposition to God's Word; predictably, the results have been devastatingly the same. On the contrary others have sought diligently to understand and live by God's word and have brought great glory to God and healing into the lives of many. Nonetheless, born into sin, we are subject to the Law and doomed for death, apart from the Grace of God, through the living Word that has power over death. Defiance of God's natural laws brings physical death, defiance of God's spiritual laws brings spiritual death. God alone has power over death -- "Death is swallowed up in victory." (1 Corinthians 15:54) We are totally, TOTALLY dependent on God in the natural and spiritual. Our faith and hope are in Him; our love is our unity with Him which is manifested in obedience to His will, his commands. This unity will have predictable consequences in our lives.

We are saved by faith alone, and sanctified as we walk in God's word. The psalmist understands the importance of God's word, describing it as "perfect, sure, right, pure, clean, enduring, true, more desired than much fine gold, and sweeter than honey." Armed with God's word, the psalmist asks for God's assistance to live in accordance with the word, "blameless, and innocent of great transgression." Ultimately, the psalmist prays that, as he walks in the word, God will transform his heart to be one with God (Psalm 19:14). We don't obey God's word merely to be better people and to live better lives; we obey God's word that we might know Jesus more and more every day. How does your passion for God's word reflect your heart for God? Is the Holy Spirit using the word of God to conform you to the image of Jesus Christ?

10. Psalm 19:8-11 -- "The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart.... Moreover, by them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward." Joy and success are found in obedience to God.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

11. Psalm 19:12-13 – “Who can discern his errors? Declare me innocent from hidden faults. Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me! Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression.” We must strive with all of our might for perfection but trust in grace through Jesus Christ along the way. Christians are ever-mindful of presumptuous sins, not using grace as an excuse for complacency concerning sin. The closer you get to God, the more seriously you take sin as God does. Also, never forget that it is impossible for us to see our own sins apart from the revelation and conviction of the Holy Spirit.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 17 Feb: Consider where you have allowed values (what people believe about how life works) and morals (what people accept as right or wrong) to distract you from God's principles (how life really works) and God's ethics (God's rules for justice, mercy, and grace). Seek to follow God's principles and ethics alone, which will always be different than mankind's values and morals.

DBRP- WEEK 7, Day 5, Friday, 16 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+2%2C+3%3B+proverbs+16%3B+acts+7>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 16 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 2:4, 5 – “When you bring a grain offering baked in the oven as an offering, it shall be unleavened loaves of fine flour mixed with oil or unleavened wafers smeared with oil. And if your offering is a grain offering baked on a griddle, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mixed with oil.” Unleavened bread symbolized purity, and oil symbolizes the Holy Spirit. Jesus was the perfect sacrifice, wholly pure, and full of the Holy Spirit. (see Ephesians 5:2) Christians should strive to offer their lives to the Lord, pure and full of the Holy Spirit.

2. Leviticus 2:12, 13 – “As an offering of firstfruits you may bring them to the Lord, but they shall not be offered on the altar for a pleasing aroma. You shall season all your grain offerings with salt. You shall not let the salt of the covenant with your God be missing from your grain offering; with all your offerings you shall offer salt.” We are the first fruits, not burnt in the fire, seasoned with salt. (see James 1:18)

3. Leviticus 3 – The peace offering was an offering of reconciliation that brought together in fellowship God, the Priests, and the people. This is a great symbol of the unity Jesus prayed for in John 17. (see also 1 John 1:3) Remember, your mission in life is reconciliation. (2 Corinthians 5:18, 19)

4. Leviticus 3:17 – The fat and the blood was dedicated to the Lord. God's people do not take what belongs to God. All glory belongs to God. Never try to share glory with God by giving yourself credit before others, by being an ambassador for yourself rather than an ambassador for Christ. You have been commissioned for one message, the Gospel; to proclaim one name, Jesus. Do not be a distraction for others by drawing attention to yourself rather than Jesus. Don't be a substitute for Salvation (through the blood of the sacrifice) by presenting yourself as a remedy. Don't try to receive the fragrant offering of praise from others. All praise must go to Him.

5. Proverbs 16:1 -- “The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the Lord.... The lot is cast into the lap, but its every decision is from the Lord.” From beginning the end, the message in Proverbs 16 is very clear: “The Lord works out everything for his own ends.” The LORD is KING, the LORD is Sovereign, the LORD is in complete control, and the LORD has a plan. When our plan is aligned, in synch, in accordance with and subordinated to His plan, life is good. We are on the “highway of the upright” (Proverbs 16:17). However, when we get off course, when we go our own way, life is painful. The problem is that our hearts are deceptive, and, guided by our own pride, ignorance, and emotion, we will always choose the wrong path (Proverbs 16:2, 9, 25). Unfortunately, when we choose the wrong path, we also lead others astray too (Proverbs 16:29). Therefore, we must “fear the Lord.... Commit to the Lord whatever [we] do.... Give heed to instruction.... [and] Trust in the Lord... (Proverbs 16:6, 7, 2, 20).” Ultimately, our desire to faithfully submit in obedience to the LORD should be motivated purely by selfless love rather than a self-centered desire for the blessings of God. However, today’s Proverbs and Psalms do remind us that obedience to the Lord leads to fullness of life on earth (Proverbs 16:31; Psalm 20:7; 21:7). Yet to be perfected in love, we all have mixed motives behind our “love and faithfulness” to God and to others – it is partly selfless, and partly selfish. God calls us to approach Him in obedience while He continues to work on our hearts.

6. Proverbs 16:2 – “All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the Lord weighs the spirit.” God’s word is used by the Holy Spirit to show us the truth of ourselves and our sinfulness that we won’t admit to ourselves.

7. Proverbs 16:6 – “By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the Lord one turns away from evil.” Faithful obedience is the true measure of repentance and love.

8. Proverbs 16:7, 9 – God is fully aware of how others are treating you, and He allows to happen what He wants to happen to you.

9. Proverbs 16:17 – Your journey to spiritual maturity is fast when you choose to take the path far from evil.

10. Acts 7:1-53 – Pay close attention to Stephen’s example: When accused and attacked by others, he resisted the temptation to make himself the focus or to defend himself. Rather he turned the attention to Jesus, staying true to his mission of reconciliation. He used the opportunity to proclaim the Gospel and to call for repentance. Don’t allow people to make you the center of attention for good reasons or for bad reasons. Don’t allow yourself to be a distraction from Jesus. The moment you start defending yourself, you become the focus.

11. Acts 7:2 – “The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia....” God takes the initiative and calls those who are not looking for Him. God also calls us to take the initiative and reach out to people who have not asked.

12. Acts 7:3 – “...and said to him, ‘Go out from your land and from your kindred and go into the land that I will show you.’” Don’t expect God to tell you where He is leading you – just go and trust Him with the destination.

13. Acts 7:5 – “Yet he gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot’s length, but promised to give it to him as a possession and to his offspring after him, though he had no child.” Abraham called on a mission that would not be fulfilled in his lifetime on earth. Are you willing to receive a mission like that from God?

14. Acts 7:6 – “And God spoke to this effect—that his offspring would be sojourners in a land belonging to others, who would enslave them and afflict them four hundred years.” God called Abraham and his children on a mission that would require hard living all of their days. Are you willing to receive a mission from God like that? Can you see how faith is required to fulfill God's plan for your life?

15. Acts 7:6 – “And falling to his knees he cried out with a loud voice, ‘Lord, do not hold this sin against them.’” Stephen mirrored the forgiveness Jesus modeled on the Cross.

16. Acts 7:10 – Wisdom is forged in adversity. There is no comfort in the growth zone, and there is no growth in the comfort zone.

17. Acts 7:25 – In service to the Lord, we have a tendency to do things in our way and on our own timing which always leads to sin and failure. We must be led by the Holy Spirit in all that we do.

18. Acts 7:35 – “Who made you a ruler and a judge?” As a priest on this earth, people will question your authority. Your authority and power come from Jesus (see Matthew 28)

19. Acts 7:40 – The Israelites desired the provision of God rather than God Himself. The Israelites saw the activities of God but did not love, know or trust God. Their religion was self-centered and void of real faith. When they no longer saw the activities of God in their lives, they fell away and sought what they wanted in some other way, creating a fake savior. Do you truly seek Jesus or just His blessings? If you had no apparent blessings, would Jesus be enough to sustain your joy and your confidence? When you don't see God working, do you look elsewhere for what you want?

20. Acts 7:42 -- “But God turned away and gave them over to worship the host of heaven.” In His mercy, God does not give us what our sinful heart's desire. In His mercy, God often disrupts our ‘Towers of Babel’. Often our ‘unanswered’ prayers are actually God's controls where He knows we lack self-control. Often, we need humbling circumstances to keep us humble. Perhaps, you don't have the ‘blessings’ you desire because they would actually be ‘curses’ in your hands. Perhaps you do not have what you want because God knows you cannot control your own passions. (James 4:3) Perhaps you require a thorn in the flesh to keep you dependent on God rather than falsely believing in your own self-sufficiency. But what if God did give you your “heart's desires?” How quickly would you “turn to Egypt?” (Acts 7:39) Often God disciplines by giving people what they want, by turning them over to their own desires. God's punishment described in today's readings was just that, giving the unfaithful what they wanted. Stephen's warning to his wrongful accusers was that they had not ‘circumcised their hearts.’ Their hearts were not cut and marked for God. The promise of the Bible is that if we truly delight in the LORD, he will give us our desire, and the “fountain of life” will turn us away from the snares of death. (Psalm 37:4; Proverbs 13:14) What does your heart truly desire? What do your actions reveal about your heart?

- Psalm 81:12 -- So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts, to follow their own counsels.

- Romans 1:24, 26 -- Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves.... For this reason, God gave them up to dishonorable passions.

- Psalm 37:4 -- Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

- Proverbs 6:25 -- Do not desire her beauty in your heart, and do not let her capture you with her eyelashes;

21. Acts 7:51 – “You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you.” Even facing a hostile crowd, Stephen did not hold back the truth or attempt to sugarcoat it.

22. Acts 7:51 – The Holy Spirit is available to God’s people but often resisted.

23. Acts 7:51-53 -- “You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you. Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who announced beforehand the coming of the Righteous One, whom you have now betrayed and murdered, you who received the law as delivered by angels and did not keep it.” Stephen is described as “a man..., of good repute..., full of faith, wisdom..., grace..., power., and of the Holy Spirit. God worked through Stephen to do “great wonders and signs among the people.” However, when Stephen addresses the high priest after being wrongly accused by other Jews, he gives them both barrels, holding nothing back. How do you think these harsh words would be received in churches today? I think he would quickly be discounted as a closed minded, unloving, judgmental, fanatic. However, it would appear that God honored his zeal, and after He spoke these words, “he, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. And he said, ‘Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.’” The crowd (those claiming to be followers of God) acted in accordance with their hearts and stoned Stephen under a facade of righteousness. Stephen responded in accordance with his heart -- “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” The harsh truth, not sugar coated, came from loving Stephen while the church sought to kill the messenger. Stephen, in a life-or-death situation, undoubtedly knew that his words would not be well received, but that did not hold him back. We likely would have counselled him to soften his words so that he “would not lose his witness.” However, Stephen was not focused on seeking the approval of men but rather to boldly testify to the truth. John the Baptist lost his head boldly speaking out against adultery. Jesus, who harshly criticized the religious leaders, had the same mentality about boldly speaking truth regardless the outcome:

- John 18:37, 38 -- 37 Then Pilate said to him, “So you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice.” Pilate said to him, “What is truth?”

24. Acts 7:56 -- “Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.” Jesus stood to receive Stephen.

25. Acts 7:58 – God brings circumstances together for his purposes. God brought Saul to the stoning of Stephen for a purpose. God would use Stephen to convict the heart of the most unlikely apostle. You never know what God is doing in the life of the person who is persecuting you the most. Will you continue to pray honestly from your heart that your persecutor will become a mighty ambassador for Jesus?

26. Acts 7:58-60 -- "Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul. While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, 'Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.' Then he fell on his knees and cried out, 'Lord, do not hold this sin against them.' When he had said this, he fell asleep." How Stephen died was an incredible testimony to his faith in Jesus Christ. How do you think his death affected Saul?

27. Acts 7:60 – “And falling to his knees he cried out with a loud voice, ‘Lord, do not hold this sin against them.’” Stephen mirrored the forgiveness Jesus modeled on the Cross.

DBRP- WEEK 7, Day 4, Thursday, 15 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=leviticus+1%3B+proverbs+15%3B+acts+6>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 15 Feb 18:

1. Leviticus 1:4, 5 – “He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. Then he shall kill the bull before the Lord, and Aaron’s sons the priests shall bring the blood and throw the blood against the sides of the altar that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.” The guilty person showed personal responsibility and involvement by pressing a hand on the animal; this was a very powerful reminder of the destructiveness of sin as well as the need for atonement before God. The guilty person, the one responsible for sin, kills the animal. The priests would present the offering to the Lord on behalf of the sinner.

2. Proverbs 15:7, 28 -- “The lips of the wise spread knowledge; not so the hearts of fools.... The heart of the righteous ponders how to answer, but the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things.” Our words are far more important than we think. “Proverbs alone uses the word ‘mouth’ 44 times, the word ‘tongue’ 19 times, the word ‘lips’ 33 times, the word ‘words’ 45 times, the word ‘speech’ 12 times, and the word ‘speak’ 7 times. Today’s Proverbs tell us that our words are a direct reflection of our hearts. We may not be willing to physically assault our enemies, but we are likely willing to call them fools. (Matthew 5:22) Of course, words can be very destructive. The most revealing words are our ‘careless’ words, what we say without really thinking. Have you ever had to apologize for words you let ‘slip’ out of your mouth? Did you say, “I didn’t really mean it.”? The truth is you were only saying what you were thinking based upon what was in your heart. When your guard was down you spoke the truth of your heart. Do you occasionally lash out at others and then say, “I’m not really an angry person”? Your words reveal otherwise. Do you occasionally allow profanity to slip out of your mouth? What does that say about the condition of your heart? What will come out of your mouth today? Will your words reveal the love of Christ to others? Will your words be a blessing? Will they bring healing and reconciliation? Will your words reflect the character and will of God? Jesus said, “I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak.” (Matthew 12:36) A good disciple discipline is to hold yourself accountable at the end of each day for every word you spoke. Each evening, consider your interactions with others and what you said to them. Did you speak love?

3. Proverbs 15:19, 24 – Proverbs uses the word “path” 23 times. Everyone is on a path, but only those who enter the “Gate” of Jesus Christ, and follow Him as “the Way, the Truth, and the Life” find eternal life. A leader who does not lead others to Christ is an anti-Christ, preaching hope in something else which is an idol. Jesus said that the path of Life is narrow, and few take it.

4. Proverbs 15:28 – Proverbs 15 uses the word “heart” eight times, and all of Proverbs uses the word “heart” 77 times. Beyond behavior, God judges the heart. You can do the right things with the wrong heart and fall short of the Greatest Commandment and the First Commandment of total love for God. We are not perfected in love, but this is our goal. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you see the truth of your heart.

5. Proverbs 15:31 -- "The ear that listens to life-giving reproof will dwell among the wise." Proverbs uses the word "listen" 16 times, hear 19 times, "ear" 14 times, and "receives" four times. So much of your growth and sanctification depends upon your ability and willingness to truly listen to God's word, from the heart, a heart that is humble and fully receptive. It is the Holy Spirit that convicts you, enlightens you, and empowers you through God's word.

6. Acts 6:1 – Cultural differences can cause division within the church. We must learn to accept the cultural differences within the body and take steps to build trust and confidence between groups.

7. Acts 6:1 – People will judge the truth of your faith by how you treat people who can offer you nothing in return, how you treat people who are often forgotten by society.

8. Acts 6:2 – God expects people to serve the church in accordance with their God-given abilities. Human nature tempts people to expect leaders to do everything instead of pitching in themselves and contributing in leadership. Have you noticed that in any organization, a very few people seem to do all the work? That should not be so in the body of Christ. "Everyone wants to change the world, but no one wants to help Mom do the dishes."

9. Acts 6:3 – "Therefore, brothers, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint to this duty." All service to the kingdom is vital and requires far more than just a good reputation (though that is essential) – service requires faith, integrity, wisdom, and the power of the Holy Spirit. The smallest job in the church is a calling.

10. Acts 6:6 – The church body must pray for those in service.

11. Acts 6:7 – A healthy church body requires everyone doing their part. Healthy church bodies naturally grow, and the growth is not temporary.

12. Acts 6:8 – "And Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people." Don't miss this: God worked mightily through a faithful head waiter. Stephen was a faithful laborer who did miraculous things through the power of the Holy Spirit. God honors faithfulness, not titles, positions, degrees, or certificates. God is glorified and revealed when His power works through His humble servants, right where they are, to do what they could not possibly do under their own power.

13. Acts 6:8, 10, 15 -- "And Stephen, full of grace and power.... they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he was speaking.... all who sat in the council saw that his face was like the face of an angel." The reality of Christ in Stephen's life was truly powerful, evident to all, healing to many, threatening to some. Stephen's relationship with God filled him with the Spirit, grace, power, and great wisdom. Even Stephen's appearance reflected God's presence within him. Stephen's angelic face is reminiscent of the change in Moses' appearance after his direct encounter with God: Moses' face "shone because he had been talking with God." (Exodus 34:29) Our readings today about Moses reveal another key aspect of the Spirit-filled life – obedience. Eight times in Exodus 40, the Bible points out that, Moses did "all that the LORD commanded him;" not some of what the LORD commanded – "ALL". Obedience was the natural product of Moses' genuine relationship with God; his obedience 'shone' in his life longer than his face did. The life of the faithful witness (or martyr) is truly, undeniably powerful and impossible to ignore. It 'owns the room', but it is not at all about personal power but rather about the glorification, magnification of Christ. We are Ambassadors for Christ. What is an ambassador? The Greek word is 'presbeuō' which means "to act as a representative," or to 're-present', or 'present again.' So, when a faithful ambassador for Christ enters any environment, that person is presenting Christ. It should be as if Christ were actually there, only through the life of another. Our lives should reveal the power of Christ in an undeniable, transforming way. When people encounter you, are they struck by the power of Christ in your life? When you leave a room, are people left talking about you or about Jesus?

14. Acts 6:9, 10 – Faithful servants will definitely find themselves at odds with those who adhere to worldly ideas, even within the church such as these Greeks who were Jews that had obtained their freedom from Rome (a likely sign of compromise). Stephen did not hesitate to counter worldly ideas and to speak the truth in love; his boldness would cost him his earthly life, but he had eternal life and is memorialized in God's word forever.

15. Acts 6:11, 12 – "Then they secretly instigated men who said, 'We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God.' And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and they came upon him and seized him and brought him before the council." Listening to hearsay and gossip can lead you to sin terribly against others.

16. Acts 6:13 -- The truth is always countered with lies. Truthful people are always countered with false accusations, and there are always weak-willed people ready to believe those lies. In the end, there can be no fairness and justice among the ungodly. Justice comes from the Lord. Acknowledge the reality of the world in which you live, and trust God with your fate – you will not be disappointed.

17. Acts 6:15 – Under persecution, Stephen's light shone only brighter. What do people see in you when you are treated unfairly, when you see everything coming apart around you?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 15 Feb: Today, carefully consider how you might be treating people differently because of cultural differences or because of what you have heard about them that may not actually be true. Consider how you might be misinterpreting the motives of others because of personality or cultural differences. Start with grace, and seek to see past the superficial. God's people are called to totally disregard the labels and stratifications the world seeks to place upon people. (Proverbs 11:6; Acts 6:1-12; see also Romans 10:12)

DBRP- WEEK 7, Day 3, Wednesday, 14 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+39%2C+40%3B+proverbs+14%3B+acts+5>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 14 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 39 repeatedly points out that the work was done precisely the way God had shown Moses. Those who seek the Lord must approach Him with obedience, honoring His Sovereignty and holiness. Disobedience is universal treason. A follower of Jesus must also strive to know the Bible through and through. You should be an expert on God's word, not only in knowledge but also in application which is wisdom (knowledge rightly applied).

2. Exodus 39:43 -- "And Moses saw all the work, and behold, they had done it; as the Lord had commanded, so had they done it. Then Moses blessed them." The theme that jumps out to me from our readings today is 'accountability' – being answerable to God with the burden of responsibility for your actions. Eleven times in Exodus it is repeated that the people completed all the work, with excruciating attention to detail, "as the LORD had commanded Moses." And all of the resources used in the building of the Tabernacle and in the crafting of the instruments for worship were carefully accounted for. (Exodus 28:21-39) God's commands to Moses, the overseers, and the craftsmen were very detailed and specific, to the point where many readers of the Old Testament have a hard time getting through these chapters. Far more detail is recounted of the construction of the place of worship than was recounted of the building of the ark, which literally kept mankind afloat on earth. Certainly we can appreciate how important it was for Noah to diligently follow the directions provided to him by God, but we see that God's expectations for how His people approached Him for worship were even more demanding, detailed and specific. More important than life is the honor of God's Holiness. When the work was done, Moses carefully inspected, holding everyone accountable to the commands of God. Obedience was not taken lightly at all but was expected. Perhaps Moses was the first to coin that old Marine Corps adage: "Expect neglect in what you don't inspect." God expected obedience and Moses, as a leader, inspected for obedience. Related to accountability, our readings from Proverbs speak of the "The fruit of the righteous," God's expectation of righteousness from His people. The word righteous is used 13 times in Proverbs 11 alone, and each time it is connected with the consequences of righteousness – reward, life, deliverance, good, flourishing, repayment, etc. The message is that our gracious God, who is quick to forgive, still holds us accountable for our behavior and rewards or disciplines accordingly. Finally, in Acts we read the shocking story of Ananias and Sapphira. Note to self: don't lie to the Holy Spirit! The Bible says that each of us will give an account of ourselves before God, and on the Day of Judgment, we will give an account for "every careless word" we speak. (Romans 14:12, Matthew 12:36) On the Day of Judgment we will all fall short of God's perfectly Holy standard and will rely solely on salvation through the righteousness of Jesus Christ. We will be saved by Grace and not by our works. Nevertheless, all of Creation remains subject to both God's natural laws and spiritual laws, and "the LORD of hosts is exalted in justice, and the Holy God shows himself holy in righteousness." (Isaiah 5:16) Though we rely on Grace, God's demand for love requires obedience, and to obedience (in His love) He holds us accountable and rewards and disciplines accordingly – "he rewards those who seek him.... Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent." (Hebrews 11:6, Revelation 3:19) Though imperfect, we must strive for perfection, and that is what God expects – "You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect." (Matthew 5:48) "Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own." (Philippians 3:12) Again, we are only perfected in Christ, but our act of worship on earth is to follow God's perfect law which begins and ends with love. As we read about how carefully and diligently the craftsmen built the Tabernacle, perhaps we should consider how diligently we honor God in obedience to His word and in love:

- 1 John 2:4-6 -- "Whoever says 'I know him' but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked."

- 1 John 4:12-21 -- No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.

3. Exodus 40:15-33 – God sets apart ministers He calls for His service. God expects ministers to do what His word has told them to do.

4. Exodus 40:35 – When God's glory is present, humans cannot enter and look upon it. We have lost appreciation of the glory of God's presence.

5. Exodus 40:36 – We must follow God's lead in life.

6. Proverbs 14:1-4 – Your relationship with God determines if you will help or harm yourself.

7. Proverbs 14:5-7 – God knows people will reveal their character through their words. We were created, in part, to transfer spiritual truth into the physical world, to impact the world to God's glory, to "subdue" the earth by living out God's will and reconciling the world to Him. Our thoughts are within ourselves, but the first place we impact the world is in our words and deeds. Our words are powerful and create change (remember God created by speaking). Our words are often more powerful than our actions. They will either glorify God or dishonor Him; they will promote life or death, construction or destruction, peace or strife, love or hate. Our words will either lift up or tear down. They will promote unity or disunity. Every word matters, not only what you say, but how you say it. Your words reveal who you are really serving and how much you really love. Jesus said that we will be held accountable for "every careless word" we speak. (Matthew 12:26) What impact will you have on this world with your words? How will those around you think and feel after you speak?

8. Proverbs 14:8-15 – God does not want you to let outward appearances deceive you.

9. Proverbs 14:13 – Outward appearances and momentary emotions do not tell the whole story.

10. Proverbs 14:16-17 – No matter what happens, God wants you to stop and think before you act so you will act wisely.

11. Proverbs 14:31 – How you treat the poor reveals your relationship with God.

12. Proverbs 14:1-4 – Your relationship with God determines if you will help or harm yourself.

13. Acts 5:1-11 – It is not uncommon for people to make public oaths before God and then break them. To lie to God is a terrible thing, and the Bible warns repeatedly not to make oaths before God that you are not willing to keep. Jesus warned also not to make some words promises and other words questionable. All you commit to is a promise before God. (Eccl 5:4-6; Deut 23:21-23; Numbers 30:1-16)

14. Acts 5:29 -- "We must obey God rather than men." The Bible calls us to obey authority, but no one can command you to disobey God or to cease in your God-given mission of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

15. Acts 5:32 – ‘And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.’ The obedient received the Holy Spirit. Though the Spirit is within all believers, the Bible says that you can “quench” the Spirit or get out of “step” with the Spirit in sin. Sin limits the power of the Holy Spirit in your life. Don’t convince yourself that you are close to God while you are toying with sin.

- Again, today’s readings have much to say about the requirement for obedience, discipline, and surrender in a Christian’s life as well as about the tendency for us to slip into disobedience and about our need to guard against disobedience through the accountability of others. In the two chapters from Exodus today, the Bible repeats eleven times that that people obeyed “as the Lord had commanded Moses.” However, it also points out that Moses assigned Levites (working in groups) to account for every shekel and for every man-hour used for the construction of the tabernacle. Also, it says that Moses personally inspected all of the work before he blessed the people (Exodus 39:43). Christians understand the expectation for obedience and discipline but also understand the need for accountability. Proverbs 12:1 says, “Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid.” While we should have internal discipline or self-discipline, sometimes we require external discipline or the reproof of others. Anyone who walks humbly appreciates accountability. If only Sapphira had held her husband Ananias accountable to honest disclosure of his property value. Notice that they were both held accountable by Peter. Yesterday we read that we are to “pursue righteousness,” and this involves growing in obedience and self-discipline. However, we are also called to have partners in accountability and to be honest about our own limitations. If you are attempting to walk alone, you are in big trouble. Have you ever cheated on a diet? Case in point.

- Romans 12:3 -- For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.

- Ecclesiastes 4:9-11 -- Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up! Again, if two lie together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone?

16. Acts 5:39 – “...but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You might even be found opposing God!” To oppose God’s servant is to oppose God Himself. Jesus has transferred His authority and power to His disciples, He has given them the “keys to the Kingdom”. Jesus did not appear powerful to most though He is the Son of God. Disciples may also appear weak to mortals, but they have power beyond imagination while the Spirit works through them for God’s purposes.

17. Acts 5:40-42 – “When they had called in the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name. And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and preaching that the Christ is Jesus.” Proclaim Jesus unceasingly and rejoice if you are counted worthy to suffer for your evangelistic efforts.

- The Apostles had been called, above all else, to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ to the world, as have we. In this endeavor, they quickly found themselves at odds with the local governing officials (and church leaders) who considered their message to be a threat. The Apostles were commanded by God via an angelic messenger to “Go, stand in the temple courts and tell the people the full message of this new life (Acts 5:20).” However, the high priest had given the Apostles strict orders “not to teach in this name (Acts 5:28).” The Apostles were placed in a dilemma where they had to choose between obedience to local authorities or obedience to Him. For the Apostles the decision was simple -- “We must obey God rather than men (Acts 5:29)!” As a result of their civil disobedience and obedience to God, the Apostles were flogged, but they rejoiced knowing that God had considered them worthy enough to be entrusted with the challenge of persecution for the Truth. God commands Christians to respect and obey authority of human institutions which are in fact empowered by God (Romans 13), but not at the cost of their integrity as Christ’s Ambassadors. Christians are never given the license to sin, nor are they permitted to abandon the dictates of God in order to obey the orders of other human beings. As our Nation creates more and more laws that directly defy the Laws of God, more and more Christians will be placed in a corner where, despite having bent over backwards to be good citizens, they will have to choose between loyalty to government and loyalty to God. The more Christians fail to faithfully steward their legal, God-given influence over government through participation in the political process and through public discourse, the more inevitable persecution. Some will be counted as worthy to receive persecution, but we will all have to ask how much of that persecution can be attributed to our unwillingness to confront culture before the foundations of society were destroyed (Psalm 11:3).

- Matthew 5:10-12 -- Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. “Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

- 1 Peter 3:13-17 -- Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good? But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. “Do not fear what they fear; do not be frightened.” But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander. It is better, if it is God’s will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

- 1 Peter 4:12-19 -- Dear friends, do not be surprised at the painful trial you are suffering, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice that you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. If you suffer, it should not be as a murderer or thief or any other kind of criminal, or even as a meddler. However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name. For it is time for judgment to begin with the family of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And, “If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?” So then, those who suffer according to God’s will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 14 Feb: Challenge yourself to proclaim Jesus boldly today. Share Jesus with a complete stranger today. The Apostles went house to house. No doubt they were rejected by many. Are you willing to face rejection in hopes that someone might believe and be saved? (Acts 5:40-42)

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+37%2C+38%3B+proverbs+13%3B+acts+4>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 13 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 37:1-9 -- The Ark was the throne of footstool of God, located in the Most Holy Place, behind the veil, accessible only by the high priest, and then only once a year (on the Day of Atonement). Approaching the ark required the blood of atonement. The ark contained the Law, demonstrating God's Justice; it would eventually contain Aaron's rod, representing God's transfer of authority to His priests, His power provided to His priests, and His role as shepherd of His people; and it would eventually contain a jar of manna, demonstrating His miraculous provision for His people. Covering the Law and other articles was a lid called the mercy seat (see also Ex. 25:17–22). God knew that Israel would break His law but that He would be merciful and cover their law-breaking to guard those who truly loved Him from His wrath. Ultimately, this was achieved through the death of a substitute and the sprinkling of blood on the mercy seat itself (Lev. 16). Dr. John MacArthur aptly comments that “blood from the sacrifices stood between God and the broken law of God.” “The blood and the mercy seat would foreshadow the final cleansing that would be achieved through the shed blood of Christ (Heb. 10:1–18). Because of this blood we can now meet with the Lord in worship just as the high priest used to meet with God before the ark of the covenant (review Ex. 25:22). Therefore, when we come into the Lord’s presence, we must strive to do so with reverence and awe, for in worship we are entering the great King’s heavenly throne room.” (Ligonier)

2. Exodus 38:24-29 – “All the gold that was used for the work... was twenty-nine talents and 730 shekels.... The silver... was a hundred talents and 1,775 shekels.... everyone who was listed in the records, from twenty years old and upward, for 603,550 men.... The bronze that was offered was seventy talents and 2,400 shekels.” God’s ways are to account for every resource and every person. Does your church account for every person and every dollar?

3. Proverbs 13:2 – God’s people are designed in the physical form to translate the spiritual into the physical world. One of the first places spiritual realities become physical or are “created” physically is with words. First, ideas are spoken and then resonate in the physical world. God first created by speaking. Similarly, our words have an effect on the world. Our words will either produce good fruit or bad, and Jesus said that we will be held accountable for every word that comes out of our mouths. Today, take a close account of all the words you speak and what impact they have on your attitude and on others. What are your words creating? Are they uplifting, constructive, positive, and reconciling, or are they negative and counterproductive? Also, count your “I” and “Me” personal pronouns, checking for self-centeredness, self-edification, self-promotion, and self-righteousness.

4. Proverbs 13:10 – “By insolence comes nothing but strife, but with those who take advice is wisdom.” Another way to interpret this verse is, “Pride only breeds quarrels.” At the root of pride is comparison, comparing ourselves to other in an egotistical manner. It is very hard for some people to accept that others might know more than they in a particular area. It takes humility to admit weakness before others. How many truly humble people do you find quarrelling?

5. Proverbs 13:11 – “Wealth gained hastily will dwindle, but whoever gathers little by little will increase it.” It takes great, consistent, daily discipline to make money grow little by little which is why most don’t get rich, and many of those who do quickly lose their wealth.

6. Proverbs 13:13-15 -- "Whoever despises the word brings destruction on himself, but he who reveres the commandment will be rewarded. The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life, that one may turn away from the snares of death. Good sense wins favor, but the way of the treacherous is their ruin." I like the way the NIV says the last verse above: "The way of the unfaithful is hard." Sin, all sin, is terrible and produces destructive consequences, ultimately death, in the physical and spiritual realms. Sin is counter to God (anti-Christ) and, of course, God takes sin very seriously. God has given us His word that we may live life to its fullest and grow in love. However, our sinful choices cause such pain and destruction. Sin makes us all victims and victimizers; there is no such thing as victimless sin; even sinful thoughts ultimately produce a harvest of pain. The sin offerings described in Leviticus 1 brutally displayed the destructiveness of sin. When the sinner offered the "male without defect" the sinner placed his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and the sinner slaughtered the perfect, innocent animal. The blood was then sprinkled against the altar on all sides at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. The sin offering was intended to be a dramatic object lesson (using a physical object to teach deep truths). The sinner was given a very clear picture of the penalty for all sin, but the sinner was also given a prophetic picture of the atonement that would ultimately be provided through the Great "Male Without Defect," Jesus Christ. True repentance and saving faith in Jesus should simultaneously bring us great joy and peace but also great hatred for the sin that caused our Lord to suffer and that causes so much pain to others. It is impossible to love God without hating sin, and to make light of sin is to make light of the penalty that was paid for your sin (see Hebrews below). It is impossible to truly love others while remaining light hearted toward sin. One cannot help but wonder if there is such a thing as a "carnal Christian."

- Hebrews 10:26-31 -- For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, "Vengeance is mine; I will repay." And again, "The Lord will judge his people." It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

7. Proverbs 13:22 -- "A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the sinner's wealth is laid up for the righteous." How many Christians today are planning for the prosperity of their children's children?

8. Acts 4:2 -- Talking about Jesus has annoyed people for thousands of years.

9. Acts 4:4 -- "But many of those who had heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to about five thousand." Many will hate you because you talk about Jesus, but many will believe. Our job is not to do the work of the Holy Spirit; our job is simply to preach the Gospel to all, regardless of what they say they believe.

10. Acts 4:8-10 -- "Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, 'Rulers of the people and elders, if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well.' The Holy Spirit convicts you to talk about Jesus rather than just saying "God", which can mean all things to all people. God wants you to connect your good deeds to Jesus Christ. Good deeds open the door for the Gospel to be preached. Ambassadors for Christ take no credit for themselves and draw no attention to themselves. They always point to Jesus.

11. Acts 4:12 – “And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.” It’s Jesus people need, not ‘goodness’ or worldly versions of ‘godliness’. As an Ambassador for Jesus, you must proclaim His name. We are not ambassadors for moralism, common sense, or bright ideas. We are not commissioned to make people just feel better. We are called to reconcile others to Jesus Christ. If all you have done is make people feel more comfortable in their current condition or promote discord among the lost, you have fallen short of the Great Commission. Eternal life is knowing Jesus and unity with Jesus. The Bible is not a self-help book; rather, it is intended to guide us closer to Jesus.

12. Acts 4:13 – “Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated and untrained men, they marveled. And they realized that they had been with Jesus.” There is no mistaking a life transformed by God! The disciples had been vain and fearful when Jesus enlisted them. James and John sought to outmaneuver their fellow disciples in order to gain the places of greatest honor next to Jesus (Mark 10:37). Over and over the disciples’ actions showed that they did not truly understand who Jesus was (John 6:7-9; Mark 6:49). Even after three years with Jesus, Peter was afraid to confess Christ before a young servant girl (Matt. 26:69-75). Anyone who knew these men would realize they were not the kind of people on which you build a worldwide kingdom. Yet something happened to them as they were with Jesus. The Holy Spirit transformed them, giving them new boldness and wisdom. Now they could perform miracles and preach fearlessly and persuasively to multitudes. Even their enemies noticed in their changed lives the same power they had witnessed in Jesus. Sometimes we desperately want others to believe that we have changed, that we are godlier, more devoted, more Spirit-controlled. It is not necessary, however, for those who have been truly transformed by Christ to convince others of the difference; the change will be obvious. Don’t become too introspective, always focusing on yourself and the small changes you see happening over time. As you walk with Jesus daily, let the witness of the changes taking place in you come from others and not from you. If you have to prove to someone that God has really changed you, He has not. Those around you will surely notice when your life has been transformed by your relationship with Jesus. (Henry T. Blackaby)

13. Acts 4:13 -- “Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they were astonished. And they recognized that they had been with Jesus.” Is the evidence that you are with Jesus astonishing to those who know you? Is your Christian life characterized by boldness which comes from your faith in and love for your Sovereign LORD? If your witness isn’t bold and astonishing, pray the prayer of the apostles: “Sovereign Lord, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them.... grant to your servants to continue to speak your word with all boldness.” As with the original disciples, when God fills you with boldness and “great power”, He will also fill you with “great grace” towards others. (Acts 4:33) Above all else, you will be known for your powerful love which brings comfort and healing into the lives of others. Your love is your witness, the evidence of God to others. (1 John 3:10) Your love will be shocking, truly ‘out of this world’, a love that clearly could only come from God. (John 17:16) As a reflection of the love you received, the love you give to others will be very valuable because it is an undeserved gift that cost you everything.

“Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.” (John 15:13) “By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” (John 13:35)

14. Acts 4:18-20 – “So they called them and charged them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John answered them, ‘Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge, for we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard.’ What will you do when your government, place of employment, club, or social group tells you to not speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus? Will you tell yourself you are still obeying Jesus in your silence?

15. Acts 4:29 – “And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to continue to speak your word with all boldness.” Are you praying to God to protect you in your boldness? Keep proclaiming Jesus, and trust God to protect you as He desires.

16. Acts 4:31 – “And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness.” Prayer preceded the work of the Holy Spirit which empowered the disciples to proclaim the Gospel boldly. How is prayer and the work of the Holy Spirit empowering you?

17. Acts 4:32 – “Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common.” True love for Jesus inspires unity, not disunity, selflessness, not selfishness, generosity, not materialism, and radical giving rather than hoarding. Until you have genuine faith hope and love; until you trust God with today and with the future, you will not be willing to give freely.

18. Acts 4:34 – “There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold.” God has provided all the resources everyone needs. Human fear and greed causes need and poverty. Only Jesus can overcome greed.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 13 Feb: Tell three people about Jesus Christ today, and explain that “there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.” (Acts 4:12) Pray to God for the boldness you lack and the protection only He can provide. (Acts 4:29)

DBRP- WEEK 7, Day 1, Monday, 12 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+35%2C+36%3B+proverbs+12%3B+acts+3>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 12 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 35:1-3 -- In the last nine chapters, the requirement to honor the Sabbath has been repeated at least 14 times.

2. Exodus 35:5 – “Whoever is of a generous heart, let him bring the Lord’s contribution.” God is always looking for generous hearts to serve Him. Generosity is a demonstration of genuine faith. It takes faith to give abundantly, trusting in God’s provision.

3. Exodus 35:10 -- “Let every skillful craftsman among you come and make all that the Lord has commanded.” God wants people of all talents and skills to put their abilities towards His work rather than just using their God-given talents for themselves.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Exodus 35:10, 21, 22, 29 -- "Let every skillful craftsman among you come and make all that the Lord has commanded.... And they came, everyone whose heart stirred him, and everyone whose spirit moved him, and brought the Lord's contribution to be used for the tent of meeting, and for all its service, and for the holy garments. So they came, both men and women. All who were of a willing heart.... All the men and women, the people of Israel, whose heart moved them to bring anything for the work that the Lord had commanded by Moses to be done brought it as a freewill offering to the Lord." God's commands are obeyed only by willing hearts. What we choose to do reflects what we truly feel about God. God's commands are not difficult to understand or difficult to follow; the struggle is with the heart. As the old pastor says, "The heart of man's problem is the problem with man's heart."

5. Exodus 35:30-35 -- "See, the Lord has called by name Bezalel... and He has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, with intelligence, with knowledge, and with all craftsmanship, to devise artistic designs, to work in gold and silver and bronze, in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, for work in every skilled craft. And he has inspired him to teach, both him and Oholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan. He has filled them with skill to do every sort of work done by an engraver or by a designer or by an embroiderer in blue and purple and scarlet yarns and fine twined linen, or by a weaver—by any sort of workman or skilled designer." God calls His servants, assigns them, inspires them, empowers them, and equips them with all that is required to fulfill the mission which is given by Him. God also calls His servants to teach others. Bezalel and Oholiab were Old Testament disciple-makers who not only used their talents, first and foremost to serve God, they also ensured that the work of the temple would expand beyond themselves through others in the congregation. There are levels of leadership we should all aspire to achieve:

1) Lead Self – this is actually learning more and more to be led by the Spirit, obtaining the last mentioned "fruit of the Spirit" which is self-control (or self-discipline); this is growing in unity with Jesus and following Jesus more and more in loving obedience; this is the foundation of all the other levels of leadership and is something that remains a life-long endeavor. Leadership is taking people where they need to go. True leadership points exclusively to Jesus, the Way, the Truth, and the Life. The person who has learned to "lead self" is the true "walking dead," having been crucified with Christ and no longer living, being controlled by the love of Christ. The moral authority to lead is found only in the authority of Jesus. We are only as much of a leader as we are a follower of Jesus. Confidence, personality, talent, skills, and abilities are no substitutes for faith, hope, love, and obedience to Jesus.

2) Prepare to Lead Others – This is developing the skills required of a disciple-maker; it is learning how to not only share your faith but also how to teach others how to walk in faith, to obey all that Jesus has commanded.

3) Leading Others – This is disciple-making; it is far more than just teaching: it is coaching and mentoring; walking with the person and practicing discipleship, evangelism, ministry, worship, and fellowship together. How much time did Jesus spend in the classroom with His disciples? How much time do football coaches spend reading books about football with their players? You don't really understand something until you live it. Leading others involves "getting dirty" together and sharing experiences together. Like a good Marine squad leader, the disciple-maker is on the front-lines with his team employing the steps of instruction: "Educate, demonstrate, replicate, evaluate, remediate," – "Here is why and how.... Now, watch me.... Now you try.... Let's examine what went well and what could have been better.... Let's try again, and again...." As Jethro taught Moses, as Jesus modelled, and as the military has practiced for thousands of years, a disciple-maker must focus their energies on no more than three to twelve people to be effective (usually focusing on one, then three, then 10-12).

4) Leading Subordinate Leaders – this is developing disciples into disciple-makers, taking them beyond merely leading self to preparing to lead others, leading others, and onward. This creates a powerful pyramid structure of leadership that employs the principle of multiplication.

5) Develop a Leadership Climate and Culture – this is about creating an iron-sharpens-iron environment among large groups of mutually supportive, interdependent disciple-makers. It is about influencing a shared expectation of growth and helping to facilitate that growth.

6) Leading Communal Change – this is about creating, equipping, supporting, and sustaining unity of effort and unity of action among many to fulfill the Great Commandment and the Great Commission, to lead a growing movement of reconciliation with Jesus. Change implies a degree of permanence. We say that a person has changed when they are consistently different over time. Likewise, a community has changed when the difference is defining. Leading communal change is generational.

6. Ezekiel 36:1 -- “Bezalel and Oholiab and every craftsman in whom the Lord has put skill and intelligence to know how to do any work in the construction of the sanctuary shall work in accordance with all that the Lord has commanded.” Even artists have to constrain their creativity to the commandments of God. God tells us how we are to worship Him, what is acceptable to Him.

7. Exodus 36:4 – “The people are bringing more than enough for doing the work the Lord commanded to be done.” Have you ever been to a church where the Pastor, Reverend, or Priest said, “No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary”? I suspect not. However, today we read in both the Old and New Testaments where the people of God, of their own free will and without any pressure, gave in abundance. In both cases, the Israelites in the desert and in Rome had plenty of logical reasons not to give as, in both cases, their futures were (in the eyes of men) very uncertain. While we worry about a bad economy, they were right (from an earthly perspective) to be concerned for their very lives. Yet, they gave freely. Today, less than 4% of church members tithe (give 10% as commanded in the Bible), while most spend about 20-25% of their income paying off debt (much of which is owned by China and the nation of Islam), around 29% of their income on taxes, and about 20% of their income on transportation costs. Can you imagine the impact if Christians followed the Biblical principles of living debt free, sharing with one another, and tithing? What would happen if, tomorrow, 100% of the church tithed?

- Two experiences in my Christian walk significantly changed my perspective on church finances. One occurred in the early 90's when my Pastor stood before the church to explain why, despite supporting over 10,000 attendees, we still met in a giant tent instead of a building. He said that the church in America was spending more on building debt than to support missionaries, and he refused to go into debt to build a church. Today, he pastors in a huge, beautiful building, debt free. My second profound experience was in 2009-2011 when we attended a congregation that all worked together to construct their own church building (with the support of some builder missionaries – I did not know such people even existed). They took what was once a horse arena, moved it across the city, and transformed it into an amazingly beautiful church (quite large too). They did the vast majority of the work on their own. Mostly on Tuesdays and Thursdays the congregation would meet after normal working hours to build together, eat together and fellowship. This experience completely changed my perspective on, not only church finances but also on church fellowship. It is an incredibly powerful thing when the body works together to build the church. You can imagine the intense emotion that was felt during the first service conducted in the new building that everyone had built together through much blood, sweat, and tears. This was the most cohesive and committed church body of which I have ever been a part, and the culture of mutual support extended to all areas of life – they helped build each other's homes, shared necessities of life, and gave to each other generously; interestingly, most were barely middle class. That experience reminds me of what we read today in Exodus when everyone freely gave, not only of their resources, but also of their time and talents to construct the sanctuary. How does this relate to your church experiences?

8. Proverbs 12:18 – “There is one whose rash words are like sword thrusts, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.” Your words will either hurt or heal. Today, only speak healing words. (Proverbs 12:18)

9. Proverbs 12:22 – “Lying lips are an abomination to the Lord, but those who act faithfully are his delight.” God takes lying very, very seriously.

10. Proverbs 12:25 – “Anxiety in a man's heart weighs him down, but a good word makes him glad.” Anxiety comes from a lack of trust and a lack of faith and hope in God -- a deep-seated belief that your consequences and your future depend solely upon you, along with the recognition that you really have no control over either your consequences or your future. The Sabbath rest, the tithe, forgiveness, and giving are rebellious acts against a self-centered perspective that teach you to trust in God and that end anxiety promote a heart of peace and rest.

11. Proverbs 12:26 – “One who is righteous is a guide to his neighbor, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.” The measure of leadership is to what degree the leader leads others towards righteousness, and we know that righteousness is only found in Jesus Christ.

12. Acts 3:2 – “And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple that is called the Beautiful Gate to ask alms of those entering the temple.” The Bible talks about tithes, offerings, and alms. Tithing is required giving and is public (10%); offerings are above the tithe to the church and are generally anonymous (as described in Exodus today). Alms are acts of charity as described in Acts. God calls us to all forms of giving. All that we have is the Lords, but God wants us to consistently give 10% to the church, offerings above the tithe as led by the Spirit, and acts of charity where we see the opportunity to share the love of Christ. Among these, the tithe is probably most debated today by many who see this a part of the Old Covenant Law, made obsolete by Jesus. However, tithe is pre-covenant as observed by Abraham, the tithe was commended by Jesus, and the tithe has been used throughout church history as a storehouse for believers. The tithe is an act of faith and a public testimony. The tithe is revolutionary much like the Sabbath.

13. Acts 3:6 – “But Peter said, ‘I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!’” Christians should always do their charity in the name of Jesus Christ. God wants people to be more than more comfortable on this earth. He wants them to have the eternal life and peace of knowing Jesus. Don't let charity be a substitute for the Gospel.

14. Acts 3:12 – “Why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk?” Christians NEVER take credit our point to themselves but always point to Jesus.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

15. Acts 3:12, 13 -- "Men of Israel, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus." The Israelites saw miraculous things occur in and the through the lives of the Apostles because they were witnessing, not what a handful of very talented, skilled, and committed men could do, but rather the power of God working through surrendered servants. God works through us to do what is impossible for us to do of our own abilities that He may be glorified, not so that we can receive success, good fortune, or the praise of men. It always takes great faith to do what God calls us to do because what He calls us to do is impossible for us to do unless His power enables the achievement. However, when we do step off in faith (into the Ark, into the Red Sea, into the rushing waters of the Jordan River, into the fiery furnace, into the lion's den, etc), not only is God glorified, but our faith and appreciation for God grows too. However, if we don't first start crawling in faith, start toddling in faith, we will not be able to walk like adults with God along the Way.

- The Apostles wanted absolutely no credit for the miracle that had occurred through them -- "Don't look at us, look at Jesus!" When they saw the crippled man with a need they said, "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk." This is not charity work as we so often see it today, this was ministry -- service in the name of the Lord. While they compassionately desired to heal the man's infirmities, their ultimate concern was for his spiritual welfare. Never did they separate the healing from the Healer. Our mission on earth is to glorify God on earth, not governments, organizations, churches, or ourselves. How many times have you seen buildings (even church buildings) named after a person? How many times have you seen philanthropic organizations (even religiously based organizations) named after a person? How many times have you seen charities or charitable events named after a person? How many religious leaders can you think of who project their name far more than the name of Jesus Christ? How much time does the Christian community invest in charities and philanthropic work in the name of something or someone other than Jesus Christ?

- Will you acknowledge Jesus Christ before others today? Will you give all credit and attention to Jesus today? Often people will acknowledge "god" in crowds. Even the basest rock stars will get up at music award ceremonies and thank "god" for their success while simultaneously shocking crowds with their profane behavior. It is quite another thing to humbly, yet boldly, acknowledge "Jesus Christ" as Lord and Savior. That name, Jesus Christ, automatically changes the tone of any conversation. Will you proclaim his name today? Will you direct all attention away from yourself and point it towards Jesus?

- Isaiah 48:11 -- I will not yield my glory to another.

- Colossians 3:17 -- And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

16. Acts 3:14 -- "But you denied the Holy and Righteous One." The disciples did not sugar-coat the sinful condition and condemnation of those outside of Jesus. The Good News is good in contrast to the Bad News that we all deserve the wrath of God and eternal death.

17. Acts 3:19, 20 -- "Repent therefore, and turn back, that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus." The message was and remains, "Repent... that your sins may be blotted out." Does your message to others start with "repent" as did the messages of John the Baptist, Jesus, and now the disciples?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 12 Feb: In light of today's readings, consider your level of giving, the heart behind your giving, and the message of your giving. Do you give tithes, offerings, and alms? Do you point solely to Jesus Christ in your charity? Does your level of giving require great faith because of how much you are giving? It takes faith to please God, and it takes faith to give in a godly way.

DBRP- WEEK 6, Day 7, Sunday, 11 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+33%2C+34%3B+proverbs+11%3B+psalm+17%2C+18>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 11 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 33:3 – “But I will not go up among you, lest I consume you on the way, for you are a stiff-necked people.” God cannot partner with sin. Walking with God requires holiness. God forgives, but repentance is required. You must walk away from sin to walk with God.
2. Exodus 33:4 – “...they mourned....” Repentance comes from a truly mournful heart.
3. Exodus 33:7 -- "And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp." Moses understood and modeled the importance of getting alone with God. Where is your tent of meeting?
4. Exodus 33:11 – “Thus the Lord used to speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend.” Moses had a relationship with God others did not have. Moses’ most intimate relationship was with God, and they spoke to each other as friends. How is your relationship with God?
5. Exodus 33:13 -- "Now therefore, if I have found favor in your sight, please show me now your ways, that I may know you in order to find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people." The crowd just wanted the blessings of God, but Moses wanted to know the "ways" of God. He wanted to "know" God. He wanted a favored relationship with God. When you know God, all of life is a blessing. Because Moses desired God above all else, He understood the ways of God while others merely saw the activities of God.
6. Exodus 33:14 -- “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.” Rest comes when you walk with God. In the midst of a great storm, while the disciples feared imminent death, Jesus slept in the back of the boat. (Moses 8:24) Jesus said, “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” (Matthew 11:28) You can have rest in the midst of life’s storms, regardless of your circumstances, when you have the peace of Jesus that surpasses all understanding.
7. Exodus 33:15, 16 -- "And he said to him, 'If your presence will not go with me, do not bring us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight.'" Life accomplishment is meaningless if it isn't in partnership with God and doesn't fulfill His purpose for you. Apart from a genuine relationship with Jesus, walking with Him and serving Him, your life is meaningless regardless of what you accomplish. This is Solomon's point in Ecclesiastes.
8. Exodus 33:17 -- “This very thing that you have spoken I will do, for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name.” Don't just start doing things, even if you tell yourself what you have decided to do is "for God." First seek God, wait for His direction, and follow His direction.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

9. Exodus 34:3 -- "No one shall come up with you." Everyone must develop their own relationship with God.

10. Exodus 34:6, 7 -- "The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation." Pay attention to how God introduces Himself and defines who He is? He is Mercy, Grace, Love, and Faithfulness, but He is equally Justice. He forgives, but He also demands holiness and hold His followers accountable.

11. Exodus 34:10 -- "And all the people among whom you are shall see the work of the LORD, for it is an awesome thing that I will do with you." God wants to reveal Himself to others through the miraculous things He does in your life.

12. Exodus 34:11 -- "Observe what I command." God's direction for you starts with "Obey me."

13. Exodus 34:12 -- "Take care, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land to which you go, lest it become a snare in your midst." Immediately after God commands obedience, He warns against being influenced by the unfaithful, knowing our tendency to compromise for others.

14. Exodus 34:13 -- "You shall tear down their altars and break their pillars and cut down their Asherim." God tells you that you must make the commitment and the effort to remove temptations in your life.

15. Exodus 34:16 -- Your closest relationships must support your process of sanctification.

16. Exodus 34:21 -- "Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest." Rest is required. Mental, emotional, and physical exhaustion makes you vulnerable to spiritual failure. The Sabbath rest has many practical benefits, but the main point is that it is an act of faith and a public, corporate testimony of that faith. Proverbs 3 tells us that we must trust God rather than our own understanding. From a human perspective, the Sabbath is counter-intuitive, particularly during times of extreme need. Tithing, another public and corporate command, is also counter-intuitive. Why would you work less and give away a tenth of what you have when you need so much? Remember, the Israelites were doing this in the desert while surrounded by enemies. The Sabbath command and the command to tithe are acts of commitment that say, "God is the Provider, not me.... God is in control of my future, not me.... God comes first in my life." Much like the Sabbath rest and tithing, forgiving and giving are also counter-intuitive commands, requiring faith to obey. As the Bible says, without faith, it is impossible to obey God.

17. Exodus 34:26 -- "The best of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God." Only bring your best to the Lord. What do you do with the first part of your day? How much of your time in a day is fully dedicated to God? How much of your daily labor is dedicated solely to God's serving and advancing the Kingdom? What would be a tithe of your time? First, let's look at your week: There are 168 hours in a week. If you fully rested on the Sabbath, you would have 144 hours remaining in the other six days. One tenth of 144 is 14.4, divided among six days is 2.4 or about 2.5 hours. Could you dedicate 2.5 hours a day to discipleship, evangelism, ministry, fellowship, and worship? If you took your sleeping hours out of the picture, your daily tithe of time would be 1.5 hours. Could you dedicate that? Interestingly, according to the NY Daily News, the average American spends five hours a day watching TV.

18. Exodus 34:28 -- "So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights. He neither ate bread nor drank water." Isolation and fasting can help your clarity and focus. The first step to following Jesus is getting self out of the way.

19. Exodus 34:29 -- "Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God." People will see change in you that you can't even see in yourself.

20. Exodus 34:35 -- "And Moses would put the veil over his face again, until he went in to speak with him." Many people will not be ready for all you have to offer, and you might have to filter what is presented based upon the maturity of the audience. You are salt and light, but too much salt can be distasteful and unbearable, and too much light can be too painful to stand. Don't compromise the truth, but know your audience.

21. Proverbs 11:14 -- "Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety." Leaders must be able to see what everyone else can't see, say what is contrary to what everyone else is saying, and do what is contrary to what everyone else is doing. When you are winning the race, you are often running alone.

22. Proverbs 11:18 -- "...but one who sows righteousness gets a sure reward." There are many ways to invest our lives, but none offers greater reward than devoting ourselves to the pursuit of righteousness. Every area of our lives should reflect the holiness of God that is ours by salvation: our thoughts, so that nothing we think about would be inappropriate for a child of God; our actions, so that our lives demonstrate that we serve a holy God; our integrity, so that we are above reproach in all our relationships. Are you taking God's righteousness in your life for granted? Righteousness is something you must allow the Holy Spirit to work in your life. Instead of sowing holy thoughts, are you allowing evil and sinful thoughts to grow in your mind? Are you allowing lust to grow unchecked within you? Does enmity, bitterness, jealousy, or unforgiveness remain in your life? Jesus said if we seek first God and His righteousness, everything else will follow (Matt. 6:33). There is great reward in sowing righteousness. What are you presently doing to plant holiness in your life? (1 Pet. 1:15). How are you putting righteousness in your mind so that your thoughts are holy? How are you cultivating righteousness in your relationships so that you maintain your integrity? Are you instilling righteousness in your activities so that your life is above reproach? If you want to harvest righteousness in your life tomorrow, you must plant seeds of righteousness today." (Henry T. Blackaby)

23. Proverbs 11:30 -- "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and whoever captures souls is wise." How many souls have you captured?

24. Psalm 17:1 -- "Give ear to my prayer from lips free of deceit!" You must approach God honestly. Be totally open, honest, and transparent in your prayers.

25. Psalm 17:3 -- "I have purposed that my mouth will not transgress." Have you?

26. Psalm 17:4 -- "With regard to the works of man, by the word of your lips I have avoided the ways of the violent." Carefully obeying God's word will keep you from the deceitfulness of men.

27. Psalm 17:10 -- "They close their hearts to pity; with their mouths they speak arrogantly." Humility breeds compassion; pride and arrogance foster callousness.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

28. Psalm 18:2 – “The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge....” Do you feel completely safe and strong in the Lord? Do you take refuge in Him?

29. Psalm 18:22 -- "For all his rules were before me, and his statutes I did not put away from me." Jesus says in Matthew 28 that His disciples obey ALL the He commands.

30. Psalm 18:25 -- "With the merciful you show yourself merciful; with the blameless man you show yourself blameless." The Bible says time and time again that God will treat you the way you treat others.

31. Psalm 18:28 -- "For it is you who light my lamp; the LORD my God lightens my darkness." Light to see can only come from God. The more you deviate from God's path, the worse your vision will be, and the worse your decisions will be.

32. Psalm 18:31 -- "For who is God, but the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God?" How you respond to this question defines your life. It is your true perspective on God (not just what you verbalize about God) that defines your entire outlook on life and how you will respond to circumstances and to others. Does your life reveal that God is LORD? This is the heart of faith – “And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.” (Hebrews 11:6) This is the foundation of all knowledge and wisdom (Psalm 111:10; Proverbs 1:7). This is our confidence (Proverbs 14:26, 27) The Fear of the Lord is proof of the Spirit of the LORD within us. It is our delight. (Isaiah 11:2, 3) Honoring God as LORD is our very purpose. (Ecclesiastes 12:13) Yet too often we say, “Yes, God is LORD,” but then we forsake God in our thoughts, words, and deeds. Why? Because we have lost proper Fear of the LORD. (Jeremiah 2:19) Too often we honor God with our lips while our hearts are far from God. Too often we fear the world because, in our hearts, we have made God small. In the lesson of the Lord’s Prayer, Jesus begins by pointing out that the foundation of everything we do rests on our acknowledgment and glorification of God as LORD – “hallowed be your name.” (Matthew 6:9) Jesus then continues to teach that it is our Fear of the LORD that drives us to obey God, trust Him one day at a time, and forgive others unconditionally. We lack obedience, trust, and forgiveness when we lose proper perspective of God as LORD, when we have trouble seeing Christ crucified on our behalf, when we have trouble seeing an empty cross in our hearts. Perhaps the most important question we should meditate upon this today is this: “For who is God, but the LORD?” (see also 2 Samuel 22:32)

- 2 Corinthians 7:1 -- Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God.

- 1 Peter 2:17 -- Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

33. Psalm 18:34 -- "He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze." God doesn't just educate -- He trains.

34. Psalm 18:46 -- "The LORD lives." We do not live by a philosophy or a theory of God, but rather by a real relationship with a living, personal God.

35. Psalm 18:49 -- "For this I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations, and sing to your name." When you are in real fellowship with God, you cannot help but sing His praises to the world.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 11 Feb: Get alone with God today, and have true fellowship with Him. Meditate deeply upon God as LORD and what that means to your life. Dedicate

DBRP- WEEK 6, Day 6, Saturday, 10 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+31%2C+32%3B+proverbs+10%3B+psalm+16>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 10 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 30:20, 21 -- "When they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to burn a food offering to the LORD, they shall wash with water, so that they may not die. They shall wash their hands and their feet, so that they may not die. It shall be a statute forever to them, even to him and to his offspring throughout their generations." God has always taken His own Holiness very seriously with and expectation that we remain holy as His servants. To the priest this is a matter of life and death. Holiness is the only attribute of God repeated in the Bible three times for highest emphasis -- "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!" (Revelation 4:8) Of course, the Spirit is a Holy Spirit. By definition, unity with the Spirit is unity in holiness. God does not allow holy things to be used in an unholy way -- "And the incense that you shall make according to its composition, you shall not make for yourselves. It shall be for you holy to the LORD. Whoever makes any like it to use as perfume shall be cut off from his people." What is unholy cannot be accepted with the holy. Of course, this truth is revealed throughout the New Testament (see examples below). God compares our spiritual union with Him to a marriage and label our unfaithfulness with the world as adulterous. Whenever we choose sin with the world over faithfulness to God, we are committing spiritual adultery, but we don't see it that way -- "This is the way of an adulteress: she eats and wipes her mouth and says, 'I have done no wrong.'" (Proverbs 30:20) Consider Proverbs 7 from the perspective of the adulterous sinner in a spiritual union with God; consider your sin from God's perspective. Of course, God's grace covers over our sin, but do we really intend to treat Him this way?

- Revelation 22:11 -- Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy.

- 1 Peter 3:15 -- but in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy,

- 1 Peter 1:15, 16 -- but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy."

- 1 Peter 2:5 -- you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

- 1 Peter 2:9 -- But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

- Hebrews 12:14 -- Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord.

- 2 Timothy 2:21 -- Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work.

- 1 Thessalonians 4:4 -- that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor,

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- 1 Thessalonians 4:7, 8 -- For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

- 1 Thessalonians 5:26 -- Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.

- 1 Timothy 2:8 -- I desire then that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling;

- Colossians 3:12 -- Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience,

- Ephesians 4:24 -- and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

- Ephesians 4:30 -- And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

- Ephesians 5:27 -- so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

- 1 Corinthians 3:17 -- If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

- 1 Corinthians 6:19 -- Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own,

- Romans 12:1 -- I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

2. Exodus 31:1-6 -- Oholiab and Bezalel – God uses and empowers artists to glorify Him. Oholiab and Bezalel used their talents to serve God, and their names are written in eternity.

3. Exodus 31:3 – Only God's Spirit can empower someone to do God's work. God gives people the skills and knowledge to do His work, and beyond their natural abilities, He gives them supernatural abilities through the Spirit.

4. Exodus 31:2-4 -- "See, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with ability and intelligence, with knowledge and all craftsmanship." The word integrity doesn't just mean truthfulness, it also means wholeness or holistic, integrated strength. For example, if a chair with all its parts has structural integrity, you can confidently put all of your weight on it without thinking twice. God wants you to be a person of two-fold integrity, both truthful and holistically strong in body, mind, and spirit; said another way, in MEPS – in mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual abilities. God gives you capacity in all your essential elements, but He also calls us to faithfully use and strengthen all are attributes for selfless service to Him -- "You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind." (Luke 10:27) Too often we neglect one, if not all, of these elements, sometimes overlooking that they are not only all essential, they are also all interdependent. If you neglect the body, for example, it will affect you mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. If you neglect your mental development, it will impact all of your other attributes, and the same interdependent relationships apply to your emotions and spirit. The whole you must be dedicated to God. Work to be excellent in all human attributes, and understand their interdependence.

5. Exodus 31:6 – “And I have given to all able men ability, that they may make all that I have commanded you.” We live out the Greatest Commandment by obeying all that God commands – “Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, to love the Lord your God, and to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments and to cling to him and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.” (Joshua 22:5) God gives you abilities to serve Him. You walk in two-fold integrity when the whole of you is honestly and faithfully serving Him in strength.

6. Exodus 31:13-16 -- “You are to speak to the people of Israel and say, ‘Above all you shall keep my Sabbaths, for this is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I, the Lord, sanctify you. You shall keep the Sabbath, because it is holy for you.... Therefore the people of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, observing the Sabbath throughout their generations, as a covenant forever.’ How seriously does God feel about the Sabbath – “above all....” The Sabbath, beyond all of its MEPS benefits, is an act of holiness – it sets you apart from the rest of society. Notice also that the Sabbath is “a covenant forever”. What does forever mean?

7. Exodus 32:1 – “When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron and said to him, “Up, make us gods who shall go before us.” Waiting upon the Lord to lead is an essential act of faith. If you are not being led by God, you are being led by an idol. We become idolatrous when we lose patience and act on our own volition rather than by the Spirit’s counsel.

8. Exodus 32:4 – Idolatry gives credit for God’s blessings to something or someone else other than God Himself. The most common form of adultery is pride, giving credit to self – “I did [this]; I did [that].” God will not share His glory with another.

9. Exodus 32:8 – “They have turned aside quickly out of the way that I commanded them.” Moses was called to lead a spiritually weak people with hardly any faith, no self-control, and no discipline. As the leader, Moses provided external discipline to those who lacked internal discipline. As soon as he wasn’t there, the people displayed their immaturity and infidelity. Leaders are the leaders for a reason. If God calls you to lead, you must not lose sight of the fact that those who you lead will not, by definition, measure up to your standard (more importantly to God’s standard) – that is why they need you to be an example of fidelity and strength. Leaders must have incredible patience – “If you can’t stand the smell of sheep, don’t be a shepherd.” If you are frustrated by their weakness and immaturity, you are revealing your own weakness and immaturity – you are revealing your own self-centeredness.

10. Exodus 32:11 – “But Moses implored the Lord his God.” Leaders engage in intercessory prayer for those they lead because they have a genuine heart for the sinner and truly desire their reconciliation with God.

11. Exodus 32:25 – “And when Moses saw that the people had broken loose (for Aaron had let them break loose....)” Aaron failed as a leader because he failed to be strong while others were weak. He surrendered his integrity due to fear and lost his moral authority to lead. Leaders know where to go and are willing to lead others there (literally or figuratively, tangibly or ethically). Leaders often have to take people where they don't want to go for all the right reasons – this takes moral courage. Aaron lacked the inner strength to lead, and his failure resulted in thousands of needless deaths. Had Moses been there, the people would not have gone astray because he would have given them external discipline, guidance, and direction. A leader must possess the strength needed by the led or they are not really the leader at all.

12. Proverbs 10:2 -- "Treasures gained by wickedness do not profit, but righteousness delivers from death." The wicked may gain great treasure on earth but remain spiritually dead, missing the whole point of life on earth.

13. Proverbs 10:3 -- "The Lord does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked." Godly people are satisfied with what God has provided them, but the ungodly are never satisfied no matter how much they acquire for themselves and no matter how much they proclaim their happiness. Nothing on earth can fill a God-sized void in life.

14. Proverbs 10:4 -- "A slack hand causes poverty, but the hand of the diligent makes rich." We were created by God to love Him but also to work for Him. We are spiritual, but we were also intentionally created physical and placed in a physical world to translate God's spiritual reality into the physical reality -- "Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven." God's first command was to "subdue the earth". To bring His order into a world of disorder. God provides, but He expects us to work in accordance with His will. His provision is not meant to accommodate our irresponsibility (though in mercy and grace He often does). God's "natural" principles still apply to us even though God empowers us with the "supernatural". Decisions have predictable consequences, and actions produce predictable results. A fundamental life principle for everyone is you will reap what you sow. If you want a result in life, you will have to work for it using the abilities God has given you. Christians are responsible, hard workers who pursue excellence in all things.

15. Proverbs 10:8 -- "The wise of heart will receive commandments, but a babbling fool will come to ruin." Someone once pointed out that "listen" and "silent" are spelled with the same letters. Read God's word and receive. In prayer, don't just talk. Listen. Spend less time pondering over what you think and want and more time asking what God thinks and wants.

16. Proverbs 10:12 -- "Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all offenses." The Greatest Commandment is love. Love and forgiveness are inseparable. Our mission is reconciliation. Forgiveness and reconciliation are inseparable. Resolve to bury all offenses. Cover them over with love and forgiveness.

17. Proverbs 10:18 -- "The one who conceals hatred has lying lips, and whoever utters slander is a fool." Don't hide your hatred, and don't spew your hatred -- just don't hate! Love!

18. Proverbs 10:22 -- "The blessing of the Lord makes rich, and he adds no sorrow with it." A person can be rich with sorrow, or rich without sorrow. When you are truly walking with Jesus, you are rich and joyful. Your richness and joy won't be measured by currency.

19. Proverbs 10:24 -- "What the wicked dreads will come upon him, but the desire of the righteous will be granted." The righteous want what God wants and live for what God wants. Therefore, when the righteous ask, they receive because they are only asking for what God wants. If you are frustrated with not getting what you want, you likely have a problem with your "wanter."

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

20. Proverbs 10:25 -- "When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous is established forever." Everyone goes through the storms of life, but the outcomes are not the same.

21. Proverbs 10:28 -- "The hope of the righteous brings joy, but the expectation of the wicked will perish." Hope is trusting God with the future. God will not disappoint. The wicked trust themselves with the future though they have no control over it. This results in a terrible existence.

22. Proverbs 10:29 -- "The way of the Lord is a stronghold to the blameless, but destruction to evildoers." Like the old analogy of the ship and the lighthouse, the lighthouse does not move for the ship but serves as a beacon of protection. A person will either be guided by the Light or destroyed on the unseen rocks of life.

23. Psalm 16:2 -- "You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you." When the Lord becomes all you want out of life, you will get what you want and live a fulfilled life.

24. Psalm 16:3 -- "As for the saints in the land, they are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight." Christians love to be around other devoted Christians and seek them out.

25. Psalm 16:11 -- "In your presence there is fullness of joy." Joy in life depends on your closeness to God. Distance from God is not a matter of time/space but rather agreement, surrender, and obedience. Draw near to God by denying yourself, taking up your cross, and walking with Jesus Christ. This is where joy and eternal life are found. It is not enough to know 'about' Jesus; joy is knowing Jesus personally.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 10 Feb: Evaluate your MEPS integrity today and consider how you are using it to lead others to Jesus. Renew your commitment to love God holistically and to strengthen what is weak. (see today's readings)

DBRP- WEEK 6, Day 5, Friday, 9 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+29%2C+30%3B+pro+9%3B+acts+2>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 9 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 29:14 -- Sin offering makes the animal offered unclean so that it must be burned away from the holy presence.

2. Exodus 29:18 -- An offering totally burned up is a gift to God not shared by the worshipper.

3. Exodus 29:44-46 -- A people must be holy and thus committed to God and His work if God is to be present among them.

4. Exodus 30:20 -- God is serious about His ministers following His instructions.

5. Exodus 30:36 -- "It shall be most holy for you." Anything used where God is present must meet His standards of purity.

6. Exodus 30:37-38 -- God does not allow things used in His worship to be used in the normal life of this world.

7. Proverbs 9:1, 2 -- Wisdom is organized

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. Proverbs 9:10 -- "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight." Wisdom that is not founded on God, the Creator of Wisdom, is no wisdom at all.

9. Proverbs 9:13 -- Foolish people are loud, proud, lustful, and undisciplined.

10. Acts 2:6 -- "And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered...." Once again, the power of the Holy Spirit in your life is not intended just for you but that you might reach others. You have been empowered to go into the world and make disciples.

11. Acts 2:17 – The Spirit works in all genders and all age groups.

12. Acts 2:21 -- "And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." The Gospel is for everyone. Calling upon the name of the Lord is more than just uttering words; it is turning to God in your heart.

13. Acts 2:28 -- "You have made known to me the paths of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence." Jesus said, "I am the way," or the "Path of Life." Knowing Jesus is eternal life (see John 17).

14. Acts 2:38 – God’s basic invitation is repentance. This leads to forgiveness and receiving the Spirit.

15. Acts 2:37-40 -- "Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, 'Brothers, what shall we do?' And Peter said to them, 'Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself. And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, 'Save yourselves from this crooked generation.'" God’s call results in a “cut” heart, repentance, and a new life empowered by the Holy Spirit. The promise is for you and for everyone around you. Spread the word.

16. Acts 2:40 -- “Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, ‘Brothers, what shall we do?’ And Peter said to them, ‘Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself.’” God’s call results in a “cut” heart, repentance, and a new life empowered by the Holy Spirit. The promise is for you. “Save yourselves from this crooked generation.”

17. Acts 2:42-47 -- "And they devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.... And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved." Does this sound like your church?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 9 Feb 18: Today, devote yourself to “teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread, and to prayer.”

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 8 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 27 -- Notice how detailed God's instructions were, requiring very strict obedience. Some things God commands are very specific, and there is no room for interpretation. What would have happened if Noah didn't strictly obey God's instructions for building the ark? What happens when you don't strictly obey God's specific commands?
2. Exodus 28:2 -- "And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty." Aaron's glory and honor came from his service to God. The garments were not intended to point to Aaron but rather to his position under God. God does not share glory and honor with people. All glory and honor go to Him. Never let anyone point to you rather than Jesus.
3. Exodus 28:3 -- "You shall speak to all the skillful, whom I have filled with a spirit of skill." Through the Spirit, God gives skills to serve Him. Our skills were not intended to serve self.
4. Exodus 28:35 -- "And it shall be on Aaron when he ministers, and its sound shall be heard when he goes into the Holy Place before the Lord, and when he comes out, so that he does not die." Aaron could not be seen by the people while he performed his priestly role inside the Holy Place, but he could be heard. This likely served as a constant reminder to both Aaron and the people of the importance of his every move before God and on the behalf of the people. It likely also served as a reassurance to the people that Aaron was actively faithful before the Lord as their intermediary. Perhaps we should wear bells to remind us that we are always "before the face of God" (Coram Deo), that we should be "always faithful before the face of God" (Semper Fidelis Coram Deo) in our every deed, that our every action should be intentionally directed towards reconciliation -- bring others closer to Jesus, and that others should have constant evidence of our ministry to them before the Lord, confidence that we are always praying for them.
5. Proverbs 8:13 -- "The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate." If you love God, you must hate evil, pride, arrogance, and perverted speech. Don't hate the sinner; hate what is controlling them and what they represent.
6. Proverbs 8:14 -- "I have strength." Sinners are just weak.
7. Proverbs 8:17 -- "I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me." You will get what you are really looking for. What are you looking for in life?
8. Proverbs 8:34 -- "Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors." Spiritual growth requires daily, wholehearted diligence and includes watching and waiting.
9. Proverbs 8:35 -- "For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the Lord." Finding Jesus and knowing Jesus is eternal life. (see John 17)
10. Acts 1:2 -- "...until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen." Christians received commands from Jesus daily through the Holy Spirit. Can you hear what the Holy Spirit is saying to you today?
11. Acts 1:4 -- "And while staying with them he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father...." One of the hardest things to do is wait on the Lord and on His promises. Abram couldn't wait for God to provide the son He promised, and we are still feeling the pain of Abraham's sin. Jacob couldn't wait for the inheritance promised by God, and we are still feeling the pain of his sin today. Be very careful not to get ahead of God. Wait on Him to provide in His timing. Until then, focus on being faithful with what God has provided.

12. Acts 1:7 -- "He said to them, 'It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority.'" How many times on a long car ride will the little kids say, "Are we there yet? When will we be there?" When they get more mature, they learn to wait patiently and make the most of the time. We spend too much time worrying about when God is going to do what He is going to do. The Bible is clear, the past is gone, and there is no sense mourning what could have been; the future is not in our control, and though we can plan to be prepared, we should not worry about it. The only thing we can influence is today. Today is where we must be faithful and make the most of every opportunity. Jesus said not to worry about tomorrow but make the most of today. Constantly speculating about the future can be a form of escapism, distracting you from the thing right in front of you. Faith is trusting God enough to obey Him today. Hope is trusting Him with the future. Walk in faith and hope. Obey today, and trust God with the future.

13. Acts 1:8 -- "...you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses...." Do you want more Holy Spirit? Then be a witness and understand that power is not about you or for you -- it is about God, empowering you to make disciples.

14. Acts 1:11 -- "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven." What are you staring at? Start serving God. Jesus will return on God's timing. Be ready today, and be faithful with today.

15. Acts 1:16 -- "Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David." The Bible is God's word provided through Spirit-filled men.

16. Acts 1:24, 25 -- "And they prayed and said, 'You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.'" Only God knows the true heart of a person. Knowing a person's heart is beyond our capability, but certainly not beyond God's capability. God can reveal another person's heart to us. How often do we ask God to do only what God can do when we are dealing with others? And what do we do when God doesn't reveal? For example, suppose we are choosing between two options. Which to choose? First, you must obey the moral will of God as it is revealed in Scripture. If Scripture prohibits one option, the decision is easy. Similarly, if one of the options in your choice causes you to neglect something God specifically commands you to do, you are required to make the choice that will allow you to fulfill your biblical obligation. We must also immediately go to the Lord in prayer. If there is no clear answer and there is time to wait, then wait -- don't rush an important decision. What if still no answer? Then, using God's word (revelation we already have), we should dig deeper to determine which option best conforms to God's commands and direction. If the options are equally Biblically supportable, we should then go with our wisdom or preference, seeking guidance from other wise counsellors. (Proverbs 15:22) If still undecided, then use any method, flip a coin -- God will honor your efforts to conform to His will and to choose with discretion. And if you still choose poorly, God will instruct you and guide you through the error.

DBRP- WEEK 6, Day 3, Wednesday, 7 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+25%2C+26%3B+pro+7%3B+matthew+28>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 7 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 25:9 – “Exactly as I show you concerning the pattern of the tabernacle, and of all its furniture, so you shall make it.” Worshipping God starts with obedience to His every command. This is non-negotiable. The Bible provides many general principles for how to live, but it also provides very specific commands. Often, people will attempt to interpret the specific commands as general principles in order to give themselves some wiggle room for disobedience. On the contrary, sometimes people take verses intended to present general principles and make them specific commands. For example, when Jesus says to forgive your offending brother seventy-seven times in Matthew 18:22, He doesn't mean it literally, He means forgive your offending brother without limit. But when the Bible says a man should have only one wife, the Bible means one wife, it is not a general principle.
2. Exodus 25:30 – Bread does not imply that God needs food but serves as a reminder that God provides our every need, and our greatest need is His presence and His word. The Bread of Presence is a picture of Jesus, the Bread of Life -- “Whoever comes after me will never go hungry.” (John 6:35)
3. Exodus 25:31-37 – Lampstands indicate God is the source of light for His people and can deliver them from all darkness. God was very specific on how He wanted the Menorah to look. The Lampstand is shaped like an almond tree which was always the first tree to blossom and bear fruit in the spring (first fruits -- 1 Cor 15:20-23) and which was a symbol of the royal priesthood (God caused Aaron's rod to grow almonds overnight) -- the Bible says we are the priesthood. The Lampstand was always lit, 24/7-365. Jesus said, “I am the Vine, and you are the branches.” Jesus is the Light of the World and is always present, and in Him, we are the light of the world (Matthew 5:14). In Revelation 1:20, Jesus says the seven lampstands are the seven churches. The Lampstand points to Christ.
4. Exodus 25:38-26:16 – God’s provision is provided first that we might have the resources to worship and serve Him.
5. Proverbs 7:6, 7 – “I have looked out through my lattice, and I have seen among the simple, I have perceived among the youths, a young man lacking sense.” You can see the truth of God’s word at work in the lives of others and learn. Wisdom understands without need of personal experience.
6. Matthew 28:1-10 – God revealed Himself first to those who ministered faithfully to Him though their seemed to be no earthly benefit to their fidelity.
7. Matthew 28:8 – “So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples.” When was the last time you were overcome with fearful joy having had a miraculous encounter with Jesus?
8. Matthew 28:10 – Resurrection news must be shared.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

9. Matthew 28:13 -- "Tell people, 'His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep.'" Unbelievers and false prophets are comfortable lying about Jesus in order to pursue their own selfish ambitions.

10. Matthew 28:17 -- "And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted." Many Christians worship in doubt, despite Jesus' miraculous activities.

11. Matthew 28:18 -- Christ in you gives you all power.

12. Matthew 28:18-20 -- "And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'" This is your mission. Your authority is directly from Jesus as is your power to execute the mission. Your mission is to "make disciples" not just believers. Disciples obey ALL of Jesus' commands. You are to teach others how to do that, and disciple-makers must lead by example. The emphasis of the Great Commission is not just on evangelism (which most mega-churches focus on) but primarily on discipleship (which most churches do very poorly). Evangelism is "the spreading of the Christian gospel by public preaching or personal witness." The word 'evangelism' comes from the Greek word "euaggelion" which means "to announce good news". But with the Great Commission, many churches are guilty of what some have called "The Great Omission", failing to teach obedience. Discipleship is a 'train the trainer' concept requiring instruction that is continuous, consistent, coherent, and life-long, ideally starting from childhood and continuing until 'separation from service' upon earth. Discipleship is not just about education; it is also about training -- learning not just the 'who, what, and why', but also the 'how'. Training involves demonstration, rehearsal, coaching and critiquing through basic competencies. Of course, Jesus modeled discipleship with the Apostles. He patterned the basic training model -- "Educate, demonstrate, replicate, evaluate, remediate." A Great Commission Church does not focus on its seating capacity but rather on its sending capacity. Powerful churches are disciple factories, creating people who are not only ready to 'go' but who are also ready to 'teach' as 'priests' and as 'ambassadors for Christ' -- disciples who are prepared to make disciples. Have you been properly disciplined by your church? How many disciples are you personally training right now? Are you walking with your students and following the model of "educate, demonstrate, replicate, evaluate, remediate?" Does your Bible study or small group actively practice 'doing' the word rather than just 'hearing' the word? What role are you playing in the Great Commission?

13. Matthew 28:20 -- God promises His presence and power to those who commit their life's service to His work.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 7 Feb: Resolve today to be a disciple-maker.

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+23%2C+24%3B+pro+6%3B+matthew+27>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 6 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 23:4-9 -- "You shall not pervert the justice...." God expects His people to impart justice impartially, being extra careful to protect the rights of the weak.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

2. Exodus 23:10-12 -- “For six years you shall sow your land and gather in its yield, but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the beasts of the field may eat. You shall do likewise with your vineyard, and with your olive orchard. Six days you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall rest.” God has purposes for His Sabbath that we cannot understand. Resting or reducing productivity temporarily is counterintuitive, going against common sense. However, a careful scientific study of Sabbath rest will reveal that it produces far more productivity over time. More important than the practical value of obeying the Sabbath is the value of simply obeying God out of faith (trusting God now), hope (trusting God with the future), and love (making God your reason for everything). God’s word challenges common sense and takes faith to obey. Faith in God will never disappoint in the end.

3. Exodus 23:24 – “...you shall utterly overthrow them and break their pillars in pieces.” God does not respect other religions. We can respect another person’s right to believe what they want, but we cannot respect false religion.

4. Exodus 23:29 – “I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the wild beasts multiply against you.” God uses your enemies and your challenges for His purposes that are also for your greater good.

5. Exodus 23:32 – “You shall make no covenant with them and their gods.” God does not compromise with other religions, nor does He expect His people to partner with people of other faiths.

6. Exodus 24:13 – “So Moses rose with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God.” Moses mentored his future replacement.

7. Exodus 24:16 – “And on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud.” God meets His servants on the Sabbath.

8. Proverbs 6:7, 8 – “Without having any chief, officer, or ruler, she prepares her bread in summer and gathers her food in harvest.” Successful people have the self-discipline and self-control to do what needs to be done today to prepare for tomorrow. Successful people are willing to do what unsuccessful people aren’t willing to do – give up instant gratification for long-term reward. Successful people can lead themselves into victory.

9. Proverbs 6:7, 8 – “Without having any chief, officer, or ruler, she prepares her bread in summer....” God wants you to be self-regulated and self-motivated.

10. Proverbs 6:12 – “A worthless person, a wicked man, goes about with crooked speech....” A deceitful person is worthless in God’s economy.

11. Proverbs 6:16-19 – “...the Lord hates.... a false witness who breathes out lies, and one who sows discord among brothers.” The Lord hates liars and people who start quarrels.

12. Proverbs 6:23 – “For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching a light, and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life.” The Holy Spirit uses God’s word to convict you of sin and keep you on track. If God’s words are not enough, He will use discipline. Better to do what you are told than to receive a God smack.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Proverbs 6:25 – “Do not desire....” Following Jesus requires fighting your sinful desires and struggling to obey when it is hard for you. It requires determined effort and perseverance.

14. Proverbs 6:27, 28 – “Can a man carry fire next to his chest and his clothes not be burned? Or can one walk on hot coals and his feet not be scorched?” Moral failure does not happen overnight, and people don’t fall into it, they slip and slide into it. Little compromises lead to complete surrender. Be an extremist when it comes to your holiness and your purity.

15. Matthew 27:5 – “He went and hanged himself.” Suicide involves having no sense of self-worth and no hope.

16. Matthew 27:18 – Envy drove people to crucify the Son of God. How do you think God feels about envy?

17. Matthew 27 – Jesus obeyed the Father to the end.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 6 Feb: “Go to the ant” today – Consider your 20-year goals today; where will you be in 20 years? What will be the state of your relationships, your physical health, your financial health, your spiritual maturity, your contribution to society, etc? How well are you working today to ‘gather for that harvest’? Are you making the most of every opportunity? “Without having any chief, officer, or ruler,” commit yourself to the disciplines required to best serve the Lord with the totality of your life.

DBRP- WEEK 6, Day 1, Monday, 5 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+21%2C+22%3B+proverbs+5%3B+matthew+26>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 5 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 21:1-11 – “When you buy a Hebrew slave.” Bible verses related to slavery generate much emotion in our generation for good reason. However, the world view and concept of servitude and slavery were much different in ancient times. In that day and age, God’s word was revolutionary and controversial, not because of its cruelty but rather because of its uncommon concern for the rights of all people. Within ancient Israel, as in the entire ancient world, there were people who worked for others on the principle of servitude (servants), and there were slaves (usually foreign captives from battle). Servants are often viewed as slaves, but this wasn't the brutal form of slavery we think of today. "Moses did not institute slavery in any shape; the laws concerning it were made on purpose to repress it, to confine it within very narrow bounds, and ultimately to put an end to it." (Spurgeon) God brought the Israelites out of slavery, and it is fitting that His first laws dealt with respecting the rights and dignity of servants. There were four basic ways a Hebrew might become a slave to another Hebrew. In extreme poverty, they might sell their liberty (Leviticus 25:39); a father might sell a daughter as a servant into a home with the intention that she would eventually marry into that family (Exodus 21:7); in the case of bankruptcy, a man might become servant to his creditors (2 Kings 4:1); and if a thief had nothing with which to pay proper restitution (Exodus 22:3-4). Slavery, on the other hand, was often a choice given to foreign enemies as a substitute for death in a time where “total war” was the norm (when everyone was killed to totally eliminate enemies and the possibility of continued conflict with that enemy). The ideas of man-stealing into life-long servitude - the concepts many have of slavery - simply do not apply to the practice of slavery in the Old Testament. Normally, servitude was chosen or mutually arranged contractually, of limited duration, and highly regulated. In all of the four above mentioned cases, the servitude was never obligated to be life-long. The Hebrew servant worked for six years and then was set free. A careful consideration of the laws concerning slavery show that they abolished slavery among God's people, and substituted for it, contractual labor for a period of years. "Henceforward the condition of slaves among the Hebrew people would be in marked distinction to slavery as existing among other peoples. It was the beginning of a great moral movement." If, after the six years of servitude, a servant wished to make a life-long commitment to his master - in light of the master's goodness and his blessings for the servant - he could. However, this commitment was not motivated by debt or obligation, only by love for the master, and the good things that the master had provided for the servant. Still, it might be hard for us, being so far removed from society at that time, to imagine why God simply did not eliminate any form of servitude (slavery) altogether. Our complaints might be comparable to the trouble the Pharisees had in understanding how to navigate God's laws on divorce considering that the Bible states that God opposes divorce (Malachi 2:16). Jesus explained it this way: "He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' They said, 'Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce and to send her away.' And Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.' 'Therefore, a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.' So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together let not man separate.'" (Mark 10:3-9) God's laws account for the hardness of the heart of man.

2. Exodus 21:16 – Again, the Bible does not allow forced slavery outside of war.

3. Exodus 21:19 – God values a person's time.

4. Exodus 21:22-25 – In the Bible, killing an unborn baby is a crime punishable by death, just like any other murder. God's view of abortion should be more than clear.

5. Exodus 21:16-36 – In Biblical justice, restitution is made to the victim, not to the government.

Why is that not the case today?

6. Exodus 22:2, 3 – The Bible makes a distinction between self-defense and revenge.

7. Exodus 22:3 – Everyone was held accountable to the law, regardless of their economic status.

8. Exodus 22:6 – God's laws hold people accountable for carelessness.

9. Proverbs 5:2 – "...that you may keep discretion, and your lips may guard knowledge." Have God's words on your lips, ready for the moments of decision where you need God's word to keep from being deceived by your natural passions and desires and from doing what you want to do rather than what God commands you to do. If there is an area in your life where you know you are easily tempted, memorize Bible verses on that topic and recite them to yourself regularly, particularly in moments of weakness.

10. Proverbs 5:6 – Evil people often don't know or believe they are evil.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

11. Proverbs 5:8 – “Keep your way far from her, and do not go near the door of her house.” If you know that certain things or certain situations entice you to sin, then the best thing you can do is stay far, far away from them. Don’t be complacent with or toy with temptations.

12. Proverbs 5:11 – “.... and at the end of your life you groan, when your flesh and body are consumed.” People choose between two pains: the constructive pain of discipline today, or the destructive pain of regret tomorrow. You will reap what you sow.

13. Proverbs 5:12 – You will choose between two pains in life: the pain of discipline or the pain of regret.

14. Proverbs 5:23 -- Most pain in life is self-induced.

15. Matthew 26:8, 9 – “And when the disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, ‘Why this waste? For this could have been sold for a large sum and given to the poor.’” Good works can’t replace genuine worship. More than charity, people need Jesus Christ. Acts of charity can be used a substitute for a lack of genuine love, designed to ease the conscience or promote self-righteousness. Acts of charity can also direct hope towards mankind rather than hope in Christ and can provide short-term comfort without addressing the deeper spiritual issues at hand. Christians should be most charitable, but as ambassadors for Christ on a mission of reconciliation.

16. Matthew 26:20-34 – Judas betrayed, and Peter denied. Betrayal involves planning and waiting, but denial can be instant, revealing the hidden truth of the heart. Verse 22 points out that anyone could betray Jesus, and we know that all of the disciples except John would abandon Jesus in the time of Jesus’ greatest need. We are all totally dependent on the grace of Christ with no reason to boast.

17. Matthew 26:53, 54 -- “Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will at once send me more than twelve legions of angels? But how then should the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be so?” Peter responded to his circumstances ‘in the flesh’, reacting emotionally, taking matters into his own hands based on his own understanding, relying on his own strength, all contrary to God’s will. Peter’s response revealed a typical security bias, overvaluing physical safety (of self or loved ones) at the expense of the mission. Conversely, Jesus chose to deny self and His personal security for sake of faithfulness to the mission given him by the Father. Following God requires self-denial, dying while still alive – “For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (Matthew 16:25) The Spirit empowers us to deny self. Self-denial frees us to follow the Spirit. As with the other fruits of the spirit, self-control is something we must cultivate, and often God will use the heat of the moment to reveal to us what is really in our hearts. How do you respond when you are attacked un-expectedly? Do you start cutting off ears or use the opportunity to glorify God in love? Love covers over a multitude of sins. (1 Peter 4:8)

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 5 Feb: Do not defend yourself today, but rather make the most of every opportunity to not only demonstrate the love of Christ but also to proclaim Gospel of Jesus. Return good for evil, and tell them about Jesus too. Always point to Him. Deny self, take up your cross, and follow Jesus in example – when He was crucified, He prayed for the forgiveness of those who were persecuting Him. (Matthew 26)

DBRP- WEEK 5, Day 7, Sunday, 4 Feb 2018

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+19%2C+20%3B+proverbs+4%3B+psalm+14%2C+15>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 4 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 19:5 – “Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession among all peoples, for all the earth is mine.” God’s blessings to the Israelites were conditional. God demands obedience.
2. Exodus 19:6 – “you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.” God has always expected His people to be His priests – “But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.” (1 Peter 2:9) Do you see yourself as a priest? Do others recognize you as a priest?
3. Exodus 19:11 – “Be ready for the third day. For on the third day the Lord will come....” Do you see the parallel with Jesus’ resurrection?
4. Exodus 19:22 – “Let the priests who come near to the Lord consecrate themselves.” Approach the Lord with holiness and purity.
5. Exodus 20:1-17 – The first four commandments deal with our relationship with God. The remainder of the commandments deal with our relationships with others. However, they should not be considered as independent from one another. If we fail in any of the last six, we have already broken the first commandment and the Great Commandment.
6. Exodus 20:3 – “You shall have no other gods before me.” God will not accept you prioritizing something ahead of Him. Anything that influence your decisions more than God is your god at the moment, and idol. The first priority is to put God truly first in your heart, in all that you think, all that you say, and all that you do.
7. Exodus 20:4 – “You shall not make for yourself a carved image.” God is spiritual, unseen, and quintessential [beyond the five (quint) senses of hearing, seeing, tasting, feeling, and smelling. We are to worship Him as He is, not attempting to limit His essence by our imaginations. Whether we intend to worship it or not, we should never make an image of God, regardless of the justification we contrive. We are not only incapable of portraying God, we are forbidden from doing so. This commandment actually addresses the sinful nature of our hearts that is constantly trying to create the God of our imagination, one that looks like us and has our attributes. God created man, and man has been trying to create God ever since. It may seem innocent enough to create a statue or image of God, but if you meditate upon this deeply, you will realize just how inappropriate this is. God must be worshipped in spirit and in truth.
8. Exodus 20:7 -- “You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.” Careless use of God’s name or careless words about Him show a complete disrespect for Him. God will not be disrespected. This commandment is closely related to the first commandment and the Great Commandment of total love for God. What we say reveals what is in our hearts. Loose words about God reveal a lack of Fear and love for Him.
9. Exodus 20:20 -- “Do not fear, for God has come to test you, that the fear of him may be before you, that you may not sin.” Notice that the Bible says in this one verse, “Do not fear,” and then says we should “fear” Him. The first “fear” involves dread, while the second fear involves reverence, overwhelming respect and appreciation. Sin comes from a lack of reverence for God. The Bible says,

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

“There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love.” (1 John 4:18) When you love God, you have no desire to sin and, therefore, have no fear of punishment. When you are guided by love, you don’t need laws to constrain you. You will be able to say, “The love of Christ controls us.” (2 Corinthians 5:14)

10. Psalm 14:1 – “The fool says in his heart, ‘There is no God.’” Nothing has changed.

11. Psalm 14:1 – “The fool says in his heart, ‘There is no God.’ They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds; there is none who does good.” The obvious point of this verse is that atheism is utterly foolish. The less obvious point is that all sin (foolishness) is, essentially, a moment of saying, ‘There is no God.’ In sin, God has been removed from the decision-making cycle or rendered a non-factor. When the atheist rejects God, he essentially makes himself the god of his life -- the one to be served, the decider of right and wrong, the only hope for salvation, etc. That person, though (s)he may appear fun-loving or respectable, is corrupt at the core and guaranteed to do abominable deeds. On the other hand, the believer who sins has become his own god (idol) for the moment. The first letter in “idol” is “I”. When we make ourselves the priority against the First Commandment, we become the embodiment of foolishness, we become corrupt, and we are guaranteed to do abominable things. So, to restate the point -- This verse does not apply just (or even primarily) to those self-proclaimed, at times outspoken, atheists out there; but also, more importantly to the ‘practical atheist’, that person who proudly proclaims faith, but who thinks, speaks, and acts as if there is really no God. It is the person who proclaims faith without a true heart of faith that is perhaps most troubling because they, by their actions, bear false witness of the Lord before others; they proclaim a weak god of poor character. These are they who Jesus says, “because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth.” (Revelation 3:16) The practical atheist may believe ‘in God’ (as the demons do) but doesn’t believe God to love, trust, and obey Him. Counter to Hebrews 11:6, the practical atheist doesn’t believe God means what He says. The Practical atheist doesn’t take seriously the call to be a critical part of “a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.” (Exodus 19:6). The practical atheist does not take Exodus 20 very seriously. The practical atheist recklessly takes matters into his own hands without waiting on God. (Exodus 14:14) Psalm 15 points out today that the true believer is revealed by how they treat others -- truthfully, fairly, compassionately, graciously, generously, etc; the true believer never takes advantage of those less fortunate (such as by lending money with interest – profiting from God’s blessings), and the true believer obeys God regardless the personal cost. (Psalm 15:4) Whenever we sin, we are essentially, at least for a brief moment, saying that God is not Lord. What a terrible thing. We must never take sin lightly as it is an affront to God. It is a constant daily endeavor to ensure that your Savior remains the Lord and Savior of your heart.

12. Psalm 14:4 – “Evildoers... eat up... people as they eat bread and do not call upon the Lord?” Sin is self-centeredness and selfishness that violates the First Commandment and the Great Commandment. Self-centered, selfish people always hurt themselves and others. We were created to be interdependent. Outside of love, you are like a fish out of water, struggling violently and hopelessly for life, only expediting death the more you struggle. Jesus is the Living Water required for life.

13. Psalm 14:5 – “There they are in great terror, for God is with the generation of the righteous.” Again, we have a tendency to think in the physical realm and apply physical rules to the spiritual God. We tend to think of God being “with” us in terms of time and space – He is physically here and then He is physically not here. However, God is spirit and is not bound by the physical attributes of time and space.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Being with God or walking with God is a spiritual condition that is determined by the heart condition and by obedience. God is omnipresent and unchanging. We choose to separate from God and lose awareness of His omnipresence when we choose to separate from Him in sin. He is still present, but we become blind to His presence. We are like an out of tune radio that cannot receive the unseen radio waves that are being transmitted continually. The radio waves don't change; it is the radio that must be adjusted.

14. Psalm 15: 1, 4 – “O Lord, who shall sojourn in your tent? Who shall dwell on your holy hill? in whose eyes a vile person is despised, but who honors those who fear the Lord; who swears to his own hurt and does not change.” Presence with God is an issue of the heart and requires obedience that is motivated by love. God does not expect you to overlook the sins of the unrepentant.

15. Psalm 15:1, 5 – “Who shall dwell on your holy hill.... who does not put out his money at interest.” God does not intend for His people to lend money with interest. Money was originally intended to replace objects in trade. For example, rather than transferring a sheep, a person could transfer the worth of a sheep without the burden of logistics. However, interest adds no tangible (object) value but only transfers wealth from one person to another. Interest takes advantage of another person's need. In most cases, one person needs or wants something they can't afford, so they essentially give someone else who can afford it more than it is really worth. Interest creates a debt that makes a richer person richer and a poorer person poorer. The original word for debt is a word derived from another word meaning “snakebite: -- it takes life from you slowly. The only time Jesus displayed violence directed at others was when He attacked the moneychangers in the temple, calling them thieves. There are many ways to gain wealth, and many ways merely transfer wealth rather than adding real value (production). God wants His people to add value to the lives of others.

16. Psalm 15:5 – “He who does these things shall never be moved.” One last time – this is a spiritual statement meaning never moved from the presence of God. You can be “with” God anywhere and under any circumstances, all depending on your faith, trust, love, and obedience.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 4 Feb 18: Memorize the Ten Commandments. If you already know them from memory, teach someone else.

DBRP- WEEK 5, Day 6, Saturday, 3 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+17%2C+18%3B+proverbs+3%3B+psalm+13>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 3 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 17:2 – You test God when you do not trust Him to provide for your needs.

2. Exodus 17:2 – “Therefore the people quarreled with Moses and said, ‘Give us water to drink.’ And Moses said to them, ‘Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?’” It is easy to act nice or good when things are going well. But how someone acts under pressure reveals the truth of their character and the truth of their relationship with God. Under pressure (stress, fear, hunger, sickness, etc), people are more inclined to become self-centered and to lash out at others if they lack spiritual strength. Relationships start to become more “dog eat dog” – “It's you and me until it's you or me,” syndrome. Emotions overcome reason. In this situation, one might say, “He acted out of character;”

however, in truth, the person's true character was revealed. James, chapter 4 explains Exodus 17:2, and relational conflict in general, perfectly: "What causes quarrels and what causes fights among you? Is it not this, that your passions are at war within you? You desire and do not have, so you murder. You covet and cannot obtain, so you fight and quarrel. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions." (James 4:1-3) Quarrels are the product of selfishness and a godless perspective. Even when offended, the Christ-centered Christian understands that God is in complete control and will provide, that the offender is trapped in sin on "knows not what [he does]", and that it is love that prevails. The mature Christian understands that stress and conflict are tests of faith, revealing the truth of a person's faith. How do you act under stress and when offended? When tested, pray that you will remain Spirit-led and that God will use that opportunity to reveal to you the truth of your heart. Also, remember this truth when dealing with others. What are the spiritual conditions and emotions behind their offensive behavior? Remember that they are trapped in sin. They are not your enemy; they are your goal for reconciliation. The enemy is the Tempter, Satan. In your relationships, don't represent yourself, represent Jesus.

3. Exodus 17:3 – "But the people thirsted there for water, and the people grumbled against Moses and said, 'Why did you bring us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?'" Ultimately, grumblers, complainers, and whiners lack spiritual maturity. They tend to blame their circumstances and other people for their childish behavior, and they tend to avoid personal responsibility with victimization language – "Everything is against me so I can't do the right thing." They become catastrophists, making things worse than they really are, and as a result, they sink deeper into ineffectiveness and sin. Your job is to lead them out of their dark place to the light of Jesus. Like a drowning person, they will try to drag you down with them, but remember, you cannot save them if you are struggling in the sea of emotions too.

4. Exodus 17:6 – "And Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel." God wants your obedient life to be a witness to others as He honors your obedience and works mightily through you to reveal Himself.

5. Exodus 17:7 -- "Is the LORD among us or not?" Because of their lack of faith, the exiles quickly lost hope and rapidly spiraled into abandoned sin. Among the great Christian virtues of "faith, hope, and love," this mob lacked all of them because, ultimately, they lacked the foundation of faith. Without faith it is impossible to please God. Faith is believing God, not just believing 'in' God but believing God; not only acknowledging that He exists (as even demons do) but trusting Him enough to obey Him, regardless. As God explains in Exodus, he tested the people to see if they would obey. The Christian life is about believing God. It is about living by every word that proceeds from His mouth (Deut. 8:3; Matt. 4:4). Faith walks with God one day at a time. Hope is faith looking forward, completely trusting God with the future because of what we know of Him and His love today. As the Bible says, "Now faith is the assurance [or substance] of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." (Hebrews 11:1) Faith is the assurance or substance of our hope, giving us hope unlike the world (which is more like a fantastical wish or dream) but rather a hope that is total, unquestioned confidence because we know without a doubt the God is God and He keeps His promises of love for us, a hope of substance. Our hope is a "sure and steadfast anchor of the soul" keeping us from being tossed about aimlessly and beaten against the rocks like a ship in a storm without an anchor. (Hebrews 6:19) Our anchor keeps us from drifting away slowly in the tide of sin. The exiles in today's readings did not have hope founded on faith and their ship was in peril. Without faith and hope, they lacked love. So, in their grief, they did what the faithless do, they lashed out against each other – hurting people hurt people. As Christians, our suffering gives us an opportunity to display God’s love which is founded on faith, which has assured hope, which is anchored in Christ. Under persecution, today’s Psalmist describes his faith-based hope: “But I have trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation. I will sing to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.” (Psalm 13:5, 6) I pray that, in our trials, our faith, hope, and love will cause us to “rejoice” and “sing”, thereby glorifying God to others.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. Exodus 17:10 – “So Joshua did as Moses told him.” God expects our faith to give us the confidence to not only obey Him but also to submit to earthly authorities. Christians should model obedience.

Question: Do you drive the speed limit on the highways when no one is around or a bit faster because “It’s no big deal.”?

7. Exodus 17:12 – “But Moses’ hands grew weary, so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it, while Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side. So his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.” God’s primary command is love, and with that command as central, He expects us to work together in love to accomplish His purposes. He will intentionally task us in ways that require interdependence. We cannot do what God wants us to do in isolation. How are you supporting the Christians around you? How have you asked for their support to do God’s will? Remember, “Two by two He sent them.”

8. Exodus 17:14, 15 – “Write this as a memorial in a book.... And Moses built an altar....” How are you memorializing what God has done in your life so that your friends and family will never forget?

9. Exodus 18:7-12 -- When godly people get together, they naturally talk about what God has done and is doing because it is what they are most excited about. Godly people love to be with other godly people who they can truly share life with, joyful relationships full of praise and worship for God.

10. Exodus 18:20 – “You shall warn them about the statutes and the laws, and make them know the way in which they must walk and what they must do.” What did God expect the national leader to do?

11. Exodus 18:21 – “Look for able men from all the people, men who fear God, who are trustworthy and hate a bribe, and place such men over the people as chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.” The organizational concept of “span of control” is taught in the Bible which in the Marine Corps would look like forces, brigades, divisions, regiments, battalions, companies, platoons, squads, and fire teams. The fundamental concept is that leaders should focus their energies on developing (training, teaching, coaching, mentoring, and supporting) three to twelve other leaders, encouraging them to do the same. This is the “Master Plan for Evangelism”. Note the prerequisites to be a squad leader in God’s Marine Corps. Are you a squad leader? What is the condition of your troops? Are you building leaders in Jesus who, in turn, can make squad leaders? Write down the names of your squad and evaluate how you are doing with them. Write down the names of their respective squads. How are they doing with them?

12. Proverbs 3:2 -- "...peace they will add to you." Knowing and obeying God's word out of love for Jesus brings peace in your life.

13. Proverbs 3:3 -- "Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart." Once again, love and faithfulness go together. Obedience comes from the heart, not from just the head. You will not endure and persevere if you don't really want to from your heart.

14. Proverbs 3:5-7 -- "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord, and turn away from evil." Memorize these verses if you haven't already -- they are critical to your walk in life. Your understanding and 'wisdom' will always mislead you apart from the continual counselling of the Holy Spirit through God's word. You do not possess the capacity to know and understand enough to make good decision -- you were not created to have that ability; you were created to be a receptor of the Holy Spirit and to translate God's revelation into practical action in the physical world. You were made to be a vessel. Yes, God wants you to use your volition, but in total love for Him. God makes it clear: "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts." (Isaiah 55:8, 9) How far are the heavens from the earth? The distance cannot be measured. How important than is it to stay connected to God day by day?

15. Psalm 13 – Sometimes when God is silent during trials, you may feel as if God has forgotten you; even John the Baptist needed reassurance that Jesus was the Christ, the Lord, the Savior. Someone once said, during the exam, the teacher is silent. Faith is tested during times such as these. Faith is trusting God now and acting on that trust. Hope is trusting God with your future. Love is an affection for God that gladly surrenders all to God regardless of outcomes – faith, hope, love – these three remain. We are weak, but He is strong: "But I have trusted in your steadfast love." (v5)

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 3 Feb 18: Consider this – What rank and position do you hold in 'God's Marine Corps'? Who are you leading, and who is leading you? Are you adequately organizing, training, equipping, and supporting those under your charge? What has your unit accomplished for the mission of the Great Commission lately? Privates are responsible for themselves. Lance corporals are responsible for fire teams (four people, including themselves); Corporals and Sergeants are responsible for squads (three fireteams); lieutenants run platoons (around 48 people); captains run companies (around 200 people); etc. So, what rank are you among God's troops, and how well are you doing in your responsibilities? "Look for able men from all the people, men who fear God, who are trustworthy and hate a bribe, and place such men over the people as chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens." (Exodus 18:21) Pray today that God will help you lead, guided by the Great Commandment, to accomplish the Great Commission.

DBRP- WEEK 5, Day 5, Friday, 2 Feb 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+15%2C+16%3B+proverbs+2%3B+mat+25>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 2 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 15:1-21 – Church worship music is used to proclaim the glory of God and to remind people of His mighty works. What Christian songs and hymns mean the most to you?
2. Exodus 15:3 – "The Lord is a man of war." Many are on a mission to end all war, considering war to be the worst evil. However, there are evils that are worse than war. Injustice and godlessness can cause far more destruction over time than war. God is a God of justice, and "the Lord is a man of war." Peace only comes through surrender to God's will. When Jesus Christ reigns, war will end. Until then, wars will continue, and when there is not war, there will still be other forms of conflict and oppression. Luke 19:42 -- "Would that you, even you, had known on this day the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes."

3. Exodus 15:8-10 -- "...the waters piled up; the floods stood up in a heap; the deeps congealed in the heart of the sea.... the sea covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters." Again, this does not describe a "reed sea" where Pharaoh's chariots were simply stuck in mud. This describes an unforgettable miracle seen by millions that brought them to their knees in fearful worship. Also, other nations heard of this event and trembled. (v14-16) Don't let humanists explain away God's miracles. Don't let them call you ignorant because you believe the truth of God's word and because you believe in the power of God which transcends their understanding.

4. Exodus 15:24 -- "And the people grumbled against Moses, saying, 'What shall we drink?'" If you are going to be a leader, you are going to have to deal with ingratitude, disrespect, bad attitudes, selfishness, incompetence, etc. As one pastor said, "If you can't stand the smell of sheep, don't be a shepherd." People need leadership for a reason. Leadership is lonely and costly. Real leadership rarely 'pays off' in this world. Real leaders sacrifice all without walking around with a 'martyr complex'. Real leaders rarely say "I" or "me", but only point to the Truth.

5. Exodus 15:26 -- "If you will diligently listen to the voice of the Lord your God...." Salvation is through faith in Jesus Christ alone, not by works. However, many of God's blessings on earth are conditional -- "If". God commands love as the Greatest Command. Jesus said that the evidence of love or product of love is obedience -- If you love me, you will obey my commands. We walk with Jesus and grow closer to Jesus through obedience. If you truly love Him, you will obey Him; the more you obey Him, the more you will learn to love Him. Be diligent in your walk in the word.

6. Exodus 16:3 -- "Would that we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the meat pots and ate bread to the full, for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger." New believers or immature Christians are usually very self-centered in their faith and vulnerable to comfort-based temptations. Most people begin their spiritual journey selfishly much like infants only want to be fed, held, changed, and to sleep. It is natural to start out this way, but not stay that way. Mature Christians must be ready to patiently 'parent' babies in Christ, protecting them from their own self-centeredness, never forgetting that babies don't grow up overnight, and they don't grow up well without wise, consistent parenting (discipleship).

7. Exodus 16:3 -- "Would that we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the meat pots and ate bread to the full...." The Jews would have rather eaten meat as slaves than to suffer discomfort in freedom and under the protection of the Lord. The hand-fed caged bird might grow captive to comfort, unwilling to escape and experience the fullness of life in the great outdoors where each meal depends on God's provision. It takes courage and strength to live freely and to trust in the Lord. When you grow dependent on government or other man-made institutions, they become idols that rob you of the fullness of life and prove to be poor gods, providers that take far more than they give and can't love you back. Where have we surrendered freedom and joy for costly, unreliable security and comfort? How have we compromised fidelity to God for reliance on ungodly institutions. The comfortable captive is easy to control, and the best slave is the one that doesn't realize he is a slave. Psalm 84:10 -- "For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness."

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. Exodus 16:4 -- "Behold, I am about to rain bread from heaven for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in my law or not." God's test for you is obedience in good times and bad, during times of want, and during times of plenty. God knows your heart, but he uses tests of obedience to reveal the truth of your heart to you and to others. You might have observed in life that people are susceptible to sin when they have too much or too little. Proverbs 30:8, 9 -- "Give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me, lest I be full and deny you and say, 'Who is the Lord?' or lest I be poor and steal and profane the name of my God."

9. Exodus 16:8 -- "Your grumbling is not against us but against the Lord." When you get mad at others for treating you unfairly (in your eyes), remember that God is still in control and knows exactly what is happening to you. Your grumbling is really against God who did not allow you to get what you wanted. Settle the matter with God, and return only good to the offending individual.

10. Exodus 16:15 -- "'What is it?' For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, 'It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat.'" Again, many secular 'scholars' have sought natural explanations for these supernatural acts of God, but God's word intentionally provides enough detail to demonstrate the miracle. Those who are swayed by worldly theories have not read the Bible first-hand to see the whole story.

11. Exodus 16:28 -- "How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?" How you act reveals what you really think about God.

12. Exodus 16:35 -- God provided until the people could provide for themselves. God expects growth. He doesn't treat spiritual babies the same way He treats spiritual adults. God works in miraculous ways, but He won't usually use miracles as a substitute for your obedience or to keep you from the circumstances of your unrepentant sin. We own responsibility, and God owns accountability.

13. Proverbs 2:1-4 -- Six conditions for finding the knowledge of God: receive, cherish, pay close attention, call out, seek, and trust. How are you doing?

14. Proverbs 2:1-12 -- "If you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you, making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding; yes, if you call out for insight and raise your voice for understanding, if you seek it like silver and search for it as for hidden treasures, then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God. For the Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding; he stores up sound wisdom for the upright; he is a shield to those who walk in integrity, guarding the paths of justice and watching over the way of his saints. Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path; for wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul; discretion will watch over you, understanding will guard you, delivering you from the way of evil, from men of perverted speech." Wisdom (knowledge rightly applied) comes only from God -- we do not have, within our natural capacities, the ability to do what we ought to do, we need a supernatural capacity which comes only from God. To be guided by the Spirit, we must remain in God's word and pray for the special enlightenment of the Holy Spirit. Walking in the word, empowered by the Holy Spirit, enables us to see through the deception teachings of the world, the perverted speech, and keeps us from getting distracted or off track. Wisdom is learned for God's word. (Proverbs 2:6, 7)

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

15. Proverbs 2:7, 8 -- For whom is God a shield?

16. Proverbs 2:9 -- A person cannot understand justice and equity apart from God's word.

17. Proverbs 2:11, 12 -- "...discretion will watch over you, understanding will guard you, delivering you from the way of evil." When you are obedient to God, you will avoid needless pain and suffering that most other people go through. Most trouble in life is self-induced. God's word will help you avoid much self-induced trouble if you obey it.

18. Proverbs 2:13-17 -- God's word causes you to separate from those who have forsaken the paths of uprightness.

19. Proverbs 2:20 -- God's word will take you down a different path in life than the way the majority are travelling.

20. Matthew 25:1-13 -- Being unprepared for Christ to come is foolish.

21. Matthew 25:12 -- Salvation requires real relationship.

22. Matthew 25:34, 41 -- There are two groups of people, saved and unsaved. God has no doubt to which group you belong.

23. Matthew 25:35-40 -- God expects His people to be THE charitable organization on earth, ministering to the world IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST. The Great Commandment and the Great Commission go hand in hand. You cannot be successful in the one without the other. We have been given the mission of "reconciliation". Too many Christians have pursued charity through secular organizations, failing to bring proper glory to God. These secular charitable organizations largely exist because of the void that was created when churches stopped ministering to the needs around them. Yes. Take care of people around you, but open your mouth too, and proclaim the Gospel.

24. Matthew 25:37-40 -- "Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.'" Our actions reveal what is truly in our hearts. Though we may make excuses, we do what we really want to do. For example, you may say you want to lose weight, but your favorite foods seem to win every time. Why? Because at the moment of truth, you want the pleasure of food more than the satisfaction of being fit and healthy. Behavior modification coaches would tell you that, in order to lose weight, your "No," must be bigger than your "Yes," when you stare at that cookie. Ultimately the Bible calls this self-control, not being controlled by destructive, sinful passions, urges, and desires. But self-control relies on the power of the Spirit within us, having a heart for God, and the mind of Christ. Our "Yes" to Jesus must be far bigger than anything else, giving us complete power to say, "No" to sin. In our Old Testament readings, God tests His people with specific instructions concerning food to see "whether they will walk in my law or not." (Exodus 16:4) Was their love for God more powerful than their appetites, their most basic desires? Jesus said, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." (John 14:15) Concerning the commandments, Jesus said, "The most important is, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these.” (Mark 12:29-30) So, the greatest commandment is to love God totally; to love God is to obey His commandments, and the next greatest commandment is to love others. So, the very best way we demonstrate our love for God (the truth and proof of our love) is to love others, and certainly not just the loveable. As Jesus said, “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you... For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?” (Matthew 5:43-46) The Bible makes it clear, “If anyone says, ‘I love God,’ and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.” (1 John 4:20, 21) It is in love towards others that we have relationship with God – “No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.... So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (1 John 4:12, 16) Love is how the branch remains connected to the Vine. However, agape love is impossible in the flesh and goes against broken human nature. We must be guided by the Spirit, not by the flesh. Just as God tested the Jews in the desert with the manna, God will test you today with unloving people, guaranteed. The test is not to show God what his in your heart – he knows. The test is to show you what is truly in your heart – you are likely in denial. If you find it hard to love ‘that person’ (you know who I am talking about), then you have a heart problem that God is revealing to you. The Bible says, “For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.” (1 John 5:3) Love for God makes loving others “not burdensome.” If you find it a burden, check your love for God. Today, Jesus makes it very clear that when we love the people who are hard to love, people who can do nothing for us in return, we are loving God. This is our act of worship. Step out today in love.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 2 Feb 18: “Your grumbling is not against us but against the Lord.” (Exodus 16:8) Today, don’t allow others to be the target of your frustrations and anger, regardless of what they do. Remember, that God allowed for His purposes whatever is happening to you. Go to God with any complaints you might have, but treat everyone around you, especially your enemies, with goodness, recognizing that it is their spiritual condition that causes their behavior – “For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.” (Ephesians 6:12) Walking in the Spirit requires seeing past the apparent physical realities of our circumstances to the spiritual realities of the real battle we are in. The person who offends you is in need of reconciliation to God who is love; reveal God through love, and trust God with your defense and physical condition. Whatever you lose in the surrendering of your personal ‘rights’ in the name of mercy, grace, and love, God can restore seven-fold.

DBRP- WEEK 5, Day 4, Thursday, 1 Feb 2018

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 1 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 13:3, 8 – “Remember this day.... You shall tell your son” Knowing human nature, God established rituals to teach future generations what He had done and to ensure that His people never forgot. How do you remind your family each year about what God has done in your life?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

2. Exodus 13:7 -- "Unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days; no leavened bread shall be seen with you, and no leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory." Holiness and purity are all-or-nothing propositions. Just a bit of impurity spreads and ruins the batch.

3. Exodus 13:9 – "...that the law of the Lord may be in your mouth." God expects His people to know and teach His word.

4. Exodus 13:13 – "Every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb, or if you will not redeem it you shall break its neck. Every firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem [with a lamb]." Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God was the perfect sacrifice who redeemed us once and for all.

5. Exodus 13:17 – "God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near. For God said, 'Lest the people change their minds when they see war and return to Egypt.'" If you are following God, He will not give you more than you can handle – "Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil...." The Israelites equipped themselves for battle (v18), but God knew their limitations better than they did. They had not yet developed the faith for a fight. Without faith, it is impossible to please God. Without faith, you are not ready for big victories.

6. Exodus 14:4 – "the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord." God's plan for your life is the glorify Himself through your life. His glory takes priority over your comfort and security. However, God is faithful to save. God intentionally placed His people in an impossible situation, a totally vulnerable position that was impossible for Pharaoh to pass up. God left His people exposed and helpless (self-helpless). Why? Because He was about to use His people to reveal (glorify) Himself to a watching world (as well to His people). God glorifies Himself by doing what only God can do so there can be no doubt it was Him. Of course, by definition, the infinitely vast amount of what God does anyway is far outside the limits of what man can do, even far outside the limits of what man can even understand. We experience God whenever we have a glimpse of that continuous activity and appreciate that it is God's power at hand. In the situation of the Israelites pressed up against the sea, God was going to leave no doubt for anyone to question His presence. No surprise, God's people were overcome in fear by their situation and completely misinterpreted their circumstances, believing that God had left them to die. Most telling was that, in their desperation, the Jews longed for slavery again, that they might have the 'protection' of captivity. Doesn't the bird in a cage get fed far more consistently than the free bird outside? Just like the slave and the caged bird, many Christians are happy to sacrifice the fullness of their joy for the comfortable captivity of worldly compromise, syncretism, and dependence on ungodly institutions – "What does it profit a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his soul?" (Matthew 16:26; Mark 8:36; Luke 9:25). The problem for these slave-minded Jews is the same as that of the compromised Christian, they are totally out of touch with what God is doing and lack the courage to stray away into freedom and true joy – "Is not this what we said to you in Egypt: 'Leave us alone that we may serve the Egyptians'?" In the midst of what God was doing, Moses, who understood the ways of God, reminds the weak that God is God -- "Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will work for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall never see again. The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to be silent." (Exodus 14:13, 14) Translation: "Shut up, stand there, and watch God work." While the weak were worried about what the weak always worry about – themselves; God was about His business doing what He always does – Glorify Himself – "the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD." In order for God's people to experience the power of God in their lives, they had to be freed from captivity and placed in a position of complete dependence on God, and they had to walk through the impossible (in this case the Red Sea in pursuit) with God. Having gone through the impossible, “Israel saw the great power that the LORD used against the Egyptians, so the people feared the LORD, and they believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.” (Exodus 14:31) Jesus said, “He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives.” (Luke 4:18) However, freedom requires courage. Christian courage comes from faith, hope, and love – total trust in God, in God’s love, and in God’s word. Without faith it is impossible to please God because God will always take you outside the limited realm of your human understanding and capabilities to function where He operates for His purposes and for His glory. In the faith environment, God becomes ‘real’ to us, and we then can truly witness to what we have seen and experienced first-hand, rather than just recounting stories we have heard from others. Jesus warned his disciples though to carefully consider the cost of discipleship. To follow God means we will have to step into rushing waters, fiery furnaces, and lion’s dens; we will have to face the giants. Unfortunately, most will choose to die in a desert rather than to face the giants in the Promised Land. Most never see the big moments because they prove themselves unworthy with the little things. Ten thousand troops were willing to go to battle with Gideon, but only 300 proved themselves disciplined enough to go at the water hole. The commitment to deny ourselves, take of our crosses, and following Jesus is not just a one-time decision, though that initial commitment is essential. We continuously decide to follow one day at a time, one step at a time, in the face of continuous temptations to do otherwise. Discipleship requires discipline – continuous Spirit enabled self-control to resist our internal desires to return to comfortable captivity, the promised protection of prison. Before we can be chosen to face mighty evil armies, we have to handle ourselves well at the water hole. Will we prove ourselves worthy today?

7. Exodus 14:11 – “What have you done to us in bringing us out of Egypt?” When the going gets tough, the unfaithful reveal themselves. When things seemed hopeless, the hidden disloyal hearts of the Israelites were revealed. Their hearts hadn’t changed, but it was easy for them to act loyal when there appeared to be an escape option. The fully committed eliminate all other options but obedience.

8. Exodus 14:12 – “For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.” Few people are willing to die in defense of the freedom to worship God. Many people prefer cowardice captivity than courageous freedom. It takes faith to live free.

9. Exodus 14:13 -- "And Moses said to the people, 'Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will work for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall never see again.'" Fear is the opposite of faith. Without faith, it is impossible to please God. Fear causes you to be more influenced by what can be seen than the God who cannot be seen. Faith trusts the unseen all powerful God and His word when what you see and feel seems to contradict it. What do you believe to be true?

10. Exodus 14:14 – “The Lord will fight for you, and you have only to be silent.” What a great verse to remember! Shut up and keep moving in faith. Verse 15 continues -- “Why do you cry to me? Tell the people of Israel to go forward.” Quit worrying and whining and keep moving forward.

11. Exodus 14:21 – God reveals Himself by doing what is impossible for people to do.

12. Exodus 14:22 – “And the people of Israel went into the midst of the sea on dry ground, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.” People, attempting to explain away God’s miracles, will say that the ‘Red Sea’ is a mistranslation of ‘Reed Sea’, which was a place of very shallow water and that what really happened was Pharaoh’s chariots were merely stuck in mud. However, the Bible makes it clear that the Sea became walls. And then the walls fell and covered the chariots completely (v28). What the Israelites saw caused them to fear God.

13. Exodus 14:30 – “Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.” What happens when you put your trust in an ungodly leader?

14. Proverbs 1:1-7 – “To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight, to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity; to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth— Let the wise hear and increase in learning.... The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.” People often confuse knowledge with wisdom. Wisdom is knowledge rightly applied, and knowledge cannot be rightly applied without the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Our society is full of extremely knowledgeable people, but wisdom is harder and harder to find as society moves farther and farther away from God and people do what seems right in their own eyes rather than what God says is right. God is the only source of wisdom, and He is the only source of justice. As society drifts from God, it not only loses wisdom, it loses justice, not to mention mercy, peace, love, and hope.

15. Proverbs 1:20, 21 -- “Wisdom cries aloud in the street, in the markets she raises her voice; at the head of the noisy streets she cries out.” The voice of wisdom competes with the noise of the world. Have you ever noticed that the scoffer has to shout their views, interrupting and shutting down any opposing views without listening? The world’s counter to wisdom is to drown it out, to shut it out, to subvert it, to create a false narrative that becomes a mantra. Since wisdom comes from the source of Truth, it must be countered with a lie repeated loudly and continuously until it is accepted.

16. Matthew 24:3 -- “Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?” The disciples ask Jesus two questions – one relating to the destruction of the Temple (70 AD) and one related to End Times.

17. Matthew 24:4 – Jesus emphasized a warning against deceptive leaders. “Christ” is not a name but rather a title meaning “The Anointed One” or “God’s Chosen Leader”. Many will claim to be the leader who has come to solve all of our problems, but we should only follow Jesus Christ. This is important for Christians to remember during political debates. The only person on earth who is worth following is the one who is closely following Jesus and pointing to Him rather than to themselves.

18. Matthew 24:11 – “And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray.” Many will be led astray by ungodly political leaders and also by ungodly church leaders who deceive in the name of God.

19. Matthew 24:12 – “And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold.” Love is dependent upon obedience to God. You cannot really love while in disobedience to God. Disobedience and subsequent lack of love are signs of looming destruction in both a relationship and in a society.

20. Matthew 24:13 – “But the one who endures to the end will be saved.” Endurance is required. Not everyone will remain obedient over time. Many who call themselves Christians will compromise to the world. Obedience that is motivated by fear, pride, and even duty will ultimately fail. Only obedience that is truly motivated by love can endure.

21. Matthew 24:14 – “And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.” The Gospel is proclaimed as a testimony to everyone whether they believe or not. Final judgment comes after the Gospel has been proclaimed throughout the world.

22. Matthew 24:30, 36-45 – Jesus repeatedly emphasizes that His return will be sudden, unexpected, and unannounced. This is an important point.

23. Matthew 24:36 – Anyone who says they know the date for the End is a false prophet – never listen to them again.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 1 Feb 18: "For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness." (Exodus 14:12) Consider where you might be a comfortable captive to sin, where you might be compromising your obedience to God because you have grown to depend on worldly comfort, security, or pleasure and have accepted compromise in order to maintain it. Consider where you have refused to obey out of fear of giving something up or losing something of value to you. Resolve to make God truly BOTH your Lord and Savior in those areas too.

DBRP- WEEK 5, Day 3, Wednesday, 31 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+11%2C+12%3B+proverbs+31%3B+mat+23>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 31 Feb 18:

1. Exodus 11:1 – God reveals His plan to His servants as they need it.
2. Exodus 11:3 – "And the Lord gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians." God can control how people treat you and can even make your enemies live at peace with you.
3. Exodus 11:7 – "...the Lord makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel." The very apparent and unique blessings observed in the lives of God's people is a testimony of the glory of God to the unbelieving world.
4. Exodus 11:10 – No matter what you say or do, some people will reject the Gospel because belief is not an evidence issue but rather a heart issue.
5. Exodus 12:2 – "This month shall be for you the beginning of months." Two of God's events have been so great that they have reset the calendar. The first event referenced in Exodus 12 began the Jewish religious calendar. What marks the beginning of our current calendar? B.C. stands for Before Christ, and it means the number of years before the time of Jesus Christ. AD does not mean "After Death." It is an abbreviation for "Anno Domini," which is a Latin phrase meaning "in the year of our Lord," referring to the year of Christ's birth. BC means before Christ. So, 2017 AD is intended to signify that it has been 2,017 years since Christ was born. Jesus Christ reset everything. Exodus 12 is a shadow, a representation of what Jesus would do for mankind.
6. Exodus 12:13 – "The blood shall be a sign for you, on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you." Nothing can save you but the blood of Jesus. Salvation isn't about your sacrifices, it is about the perfect sacrifice of the Lamb of God on your behalf. When the Father sees the mark of the blood of Jesus on you, He will pass over you in judgment. As was foreshadowed with the Jews in the story of Exodus, there is only one way for salvation, and God defines the way, not people.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

7. Exodus 12:24-27 – Religious celebrations are intended to be opportunities for parents to teach their children about God in a way that can be passed down from generation to generation.
8. Exodus 12:37 – “About six hundred thousand men on foot, besides women and children.” Over a million Jews left Egypt, and God would provide for all of them in a desert for 40 years!
9. Exodus 12:38 – Some people who were not Jews also obeyed God’s commands and went with them.
10. Exodus 12:47 – God exempted no one from remembrance and celebration.
11. Exodus 12:50-51 – God did the miraculous things needed to bring His people safely out of Egypt. All God’s people were required to do was obey. Our role in God’s work is obedience to Him in love for Him.
12. Proverbs 31:1 -- “His mother taught him.” Great leaders come from godly mothers who teach them God’s ways while they are young.
13. Proverbs 31:1, 2 – “What are you doing, son of my vows? Do not give your strength to women, your ways to those who destroy kings.” All relationships are built on trust, trust that comes from the integrity of the individuals. Families are built on relationships of trust based upon the character of the family members. Nations are built on relationships between families who have nurtured trustworthy character. As the family goes, so goes the nation. As Christians, our primary testimony is marriage. Marriage symbolizes before the world the relationship between Christ and His church, and it is through marriage that God raises up godly offspring. Why do you think God hates divorce? Adam and Eve walked naked in the garden, without shame or fear between them, until they realized that they had lost their integrity and could no longer trust each other, that they were vulnerable to each other’s sinfulness (again, sin always hurts others). God intends for us to live out His perfect will on earth, love that does not threaten. Proverbs 31:11, 12 – “The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life.”
14. Proverbs 31:11 – “The heart of her husband trusts in her.” All relationships are built on trust based upon the character of the individuals. Love is faithful.
15. Matthew 23:11 -- “The greatest among you shall be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.” Servants have the lowest position in the house, are treated with the least respect, do the most work with the least amount of credit, enjoy the fewest luxuries, remain largely behind the scenes and make others look good. Servants don’t live luxurious lives or comfortable lives. Today the term ‘servant leader’ is very popular, but the worldly concept falls far short of Jesus’ meaning which he personally lived. Sun Tzu said that truly great generals never receive recognition because they never fight great, glorious battles. Great generals conquer their enemies without having to fight large, costly battles; they defeat their enemies before they make it to the battlefield; their victories go unobserved, and therefore, these masterful generals receive no honor. Similarly, servant leaders live largely in anonymity, not receiving any credit for the real work they do in quiet places to change lives. No fancy titles, no reserved parking spaces, no seats of honor, no ribbons, medals, or awards; no name recognition, no big offices or big desks; servant leaders just see needs and meet needs in the name of Jesus Christ, never in their own name. If there were rank in God’s Kingdom Army, I don’t think we would know who the generals were, and those who were religious ‘careerists’ would have no rank at all. The job of servant is the greatest job in the Kingdom but the hardest for which to qualify.

16. Matthew 23:23 -- "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others." Here Jesus commends tithing but condemns the Pharisees for their legalism. Tithing is a highly-debated topic in churches today. Many feel that the tithe was part of the Old Covenant and no longer relevant today, observing that, under the New Covenant of love, all belongs to Jesus. Two points for consideration: tithing is a practice that occurred before the Law (Abraham tithed to Melchizedek), and even under the Old Covenant, all belonged to God. Tithing was never meant to place a limit or minimum on giving. God has always commanded far more than just the tithe. Tithing, unlike gifts and alms, was a public act of worship that intentionally give the first and best part of income to God. It was something that could be measured and was used to support the collective works and needs of God's church and people. Tithes were given by the people and administered by the leadership of the church, without bias and in accordance with God's general and special revelation. When God's people tithed, the church could not only resource evangelism but could also care for its people. When God's people fell into need, they did not have to sell themselves into slavery to cover their needs (today's slavery is debt) or turn to ungodly institutions for help. This from an article posted in 2016: "Christians are only giving at 2.5 percent per capita, while during the Great Depression they gave at a 3.3 percent rate.... What would happen if believers were to increase their giving to a minimum of, let's say, 10 percent? There would be an additional $165 billion for churches to use and distribute. The global impact would be phenomenal. Here's just a few things the Church could do with the kind of money: $25 billion could relieve global hunger, starvation and deaths from preventable diseases in five years. $12 billion could eliminate illiteracy in five years. $15 billion could solve the world's water and sanitation issues, specifically at places in the world where 1 billion people live on less than $1 per day. $1 billion could fully fund all overseas mission work. $100 – $110 billion would still be left over for additional ministry expansion. How much do you pay in taxes? How much do you pay to debt? How much do you spend on cell phone bills and internet/cable bills? Who gets that money you pay and what do they do with it? Do you tithe?

17. Matthew 23:26 – "You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean." Good deeds without true love give the appearance of godliness but in fact do not make a person godly. Two people can give the same charitable gift to people in need, and one gift is acceptable to God and the other not acceptable, all depending upon the motive of the heart that gave the gift. Sure, both provide a benefit to the needy, but God can use anyone to provide to the needy, even the wicked. What is acceptable to God is love.

18. Matthew 23:28 – "So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness." Obedience to God inspired only by love for Him is the true act of worship.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 31 Jan 18: Today, seek to be a true servant leader. See note #15 above. (Matthew 23:11)

DBRP- WEEK 5, Day 2, Tuesday, 30 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+9%2C+10%3B+proverbs+30%3B+matthew+22>

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 30 January 2018:

1. Exodus 9:16 – “But for this purpose I have raised you up, to show you my power, so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth.” Our purpose is to bring glory to God on earth. God can use a person in positive ways or negative ways to reveal Himself. Pharaoh challenged God, and Egypt learned through Pharaoh's rebellion that God is God. Moses obeyed God, and the Israelites learned in miraculous ways that God is God.
2. Exodus 9:20, 21 – “Then whoever feared the word of the Lord among the servants of Pharaoh hurried his slaves and his livestock into the houses, but whoever did not pay attention to the word of the Lord left his slaves and his livestock in the field.” It is your choice whether or not you obey God's word or not, but you will reap the consequences either way.
3. Exodus 9:22 – “Stretch out your hand toward heaven, so that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man and beast and every plant of the field, in the land of Egypt.” Man's rebellion against God affects “man and beast and every plant of the field”.
4. Exodus 9:26 – “Only in the land of Goshen, where the people of Israel were, was there no hail.” God's miraculous blessings bestowed upon His people serves as testimony to His Sovereignty.
5. Exodus 9:27, 28; 10:16 -- “This time I have sinned; the Lord is in the right, and I and my people are in the wrong. Plead with the Lord....” Being sorry is not the same as being repentant. Pharaoh was ‘sorry’ he was being punished, but his heart had only grown harder over time. The mark of genuine repentance is a changed heart that responds with humility, surrender, fidelity, obedience, love.
6. Exodus 9:30; 10:1 – “But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear the Lord God.” Pharaoh surrounded himself with likeminded people – they were all equally and fatally wrong. No doubt, Pharaoh's servants encouraged Pharaoh in his rebellion, telling him what he wanted to hear. Christians should surround themselves with other committed Christians who will tell each other the truth according to God's word.
7. Exodus 10:2 – “...you may tell in the hearing of your son and of your grandson how I have dealt harshly with the Egyptians and what signs I have done among them, that you may know that I am the Lord.” God wants us to tell others what we have personally witnessed God do in our lives. He especially wants to ensure that parents tell their children and their children's children.
8. Exodus 10:3 -- “Thus says the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.’” God demands humility and submission from all as the Sovereign Lord. He is patient, but not patient forever. All sin (all sin) is rebellion against God that comes from a shocking pride that prioritized the desires of the individual over the commands of the Almighty. God cannot and will not tolerate sin.
9. Exodus 10:7 -- “Do you not yet understand that Egypt is ruined?” In his stubbornness and refusal to obey God, Pharaoh ruined Egypt. The consequences of sin not only affect the sinner but also those around the sinner. Sin's collateral damage is always much greater than anyone understands at the time the sin is committed. One of the reasons God hates sin is because it is the antithesis of love and hurts the innocent.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

10. Exodus 10:11 – “No! Go, the men among you, and serve the Lord, for that is what you are asking.” God does not negotiate or compromise with people. Partial obedience is disobedience.

11. Exodus 10:17 – “Now therefore, forgive my sin, please, only this once, and plead with the Lord your God only to remove this death from me.” Many pray to God for relief from the wrong heart, desiring only God’s mercy rather than God Himself. God knows the heart and can see through the self-centered, unrepentant prayer.

12. Exodus 10:28 – “Then Pharaoh said to him, ‘Get away from me; take care never to see my face again, for on the day you see my face you shall die.’” Ignoring the truth doesn’t change the truth.

13. Proverbs 30:1-3 – “I am weary, O God, and worn out. Surely, I am too stupid to be a man. I have not the understanding of a man. I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.” Going your own way apart from Jesus will wear you out.

14. Proverbs 30:2, 3 – “Surely I am too stupid to be a man. I have not the understanding of a man. I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.” The more you know, the more you know what you don’t know. Socrates said, “The only true wisdom is in knowing you know nothing.” Proverbs says, the Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, understanding our total reliance on Him.

15. Proverbs 30:4 – “Who has ascended to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son’s name? Surely you know!” Why would you trust your own judgment or the judgment of other mortals over that of Jesus, the God-man?

16. Proverbs 30:5 – “Every word of God proves true.” God does not call us to trust in blind faith but rather faith in a revealed God. The Bible says that God is revealed in your conscience, in nature, in the miracles of God, and in God’s word. When you obey God’s word in the faith you have, it will be proven true, and your faith will grow.

17. Proverbs 30:6 – “Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you and you be found a liar.” People add to God’s word to water it down, to make it more “reasonable,” to conform it to what they prefer. People also attempt to add to God’s word to make it more “sophisticated” or “relevant” to the times. Also, many cults and false leaders add to God’s word. The simplicity of God’s word is perfectly unchanging. You don’t need more word or a better word, you just need a heart that will obey God’s simple word.

18. Proverbs 30:7-9 – “Two things I ask of you; deny them not to me before I die: Remove far from me falsehood and lying; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me, lest I be full and deny you and say, ‘Who is the Lord?’ or lest I be poor and steal and profane the name of my God.” Agur struggled with untruthfulness and infidelity under certain circumstances. So, he prayed to God for strength of integrity. What sins are struggling with? Are these issues at the center of your prayer life? The things that hinder your relationship with God (sin) should be your greatest prayer concern.

19. Proverbs 30:10 – “Do not slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.” You are not in a position to condemn (judge) others. Your perspective is always biased and very limited. Also, you cannot perceive what God is doing in the heart of another person. Be very careful what you think and say about others.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

20. Proverbs 30:20 – “This is the way of an adulteress: she eats and wipes her mouth and says, ‘I have done no wrong.’” In sin, a heart grows harder and harder and more and more desensitized to sin to the point where sin is no longer acknowledged. The extreme is the sociopath who can commit an atrocity with absolutely no sign of remorse, some of whom can completely erase the deed from their mind and convince themselves that they never did it at all. Some can even pass a lie detector test in their complete self-deception. Most of time, such psychological disorder can be traced back to patterns of decision over time.

21. Proverbs 30:32 – “If you have been foolish, exalting yourself... your hand on your mouth.” Ironically, self-exaltation is usually a product of deep-rooted insecurity. To stop always talking about yourself, seeking credit, or seeking the approval of others, you might have to get to the root of your insecurities – why you feel you need it. You might also need to remind yourself of your purpose in life – to glorify God alone. Self-exaltation draws attention away from Jesus, a mission failure on your part and a terrible sin.

22. Matthew 22:1-9 – The servants (Christians) are called to invite people to accept Jesus Christ as their Savior, all are invited. However, many will not only ignore God’s messengers (Christians) but will even persecute them.

23. Matthew 22:11-14 -- “But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had no wedding garment.... ‘cast him into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ For many are called, but few are chosen.” Unless you are “clothed” in Jesus Christ, you are not worthy to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. “See Romans 13:14; Galatians 3:27;

24. Matthew 22:16 -- “Teacher, we know that you are true and teach the way of God truthfully, and you do not care about anyone’s opinion, for you are not swayed by appearances.” True teaching is the unadulterated word of God, no person should add to it or take away from it. It doesn’t matter what people think about God’s word, only what God’s word says.

25. Matthew 22:21 -- “Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” Hoping to trap Jesus, the Pharisees ask him, “Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?” Jesus asks for the coin used to pay the tax, which for pious Jews should be a special copper coin minted with Rome’s approval, not the silver denarius, which is seen as idolatrous because it depicts the Caesar’s image and his title divus et pontifex maximus, Latin for “divine and high priest.” Jesus’ enemies are revealed as hypocrites when they produce the denarius (22:18–21). Those who hate idolatrous coinage are carrying unclean money themselves. Jesus turns them away with the following: “Jesus said to them, ‘Whose likeness and inscription is this?’ They said, ‘Caesar’s.’ Then he said to them, ‘Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.’” Most commentaries on this interaction will take from it the point that Christians should respect and obey governmental authority, which is true. However, the more powerful point Jesus is making is the second half of his statement, “[give] to God the things that are God’s.” What things are Gods? EVERYTHING! What Caesar demands is nothing compared to what God demands. What power would worldly governments have over a people fully surrendered to God? What value is Caesar’s money if God’s people put no value in it? Caesar’s claim on taxes was such a meaningless thing compared to what God was demanding from the people – their lives, wholehearted devotion, unconditional love. And what power do worldly governments have over God’s people anyway? None but what God gives them. Why fear men rather than fear God? If God’s people would but follow God, evil political powers would be powerless.

26. Matthew 22:29 -- "You are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God." Followers of Christ must know both God's word and God Himself. Many unbelieving Bible scholars lack any true understanding, and many believers hinder their relationship to God due to a lack of understanding of God's word.

27. Matthew 22:32 – Without study aids, Jesus knew God's word so well that He won an unanticipated argument by pointing out the tense of a verb from an Old Testament verse.

28. Matthew 22:34-40 – Jesus summarized the Old Testament in two sentences that pointed to affections rather than regulations. Obedience that is motivated by fear, pride, or even duty (anything other than love) is ultimately disobedience because the first command is love. If you don't start there, you are already wrong.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 30 Jan 18: Examine your love: Set a timer today, and every hour stop and review your attitudes and actions for that hour ask yourself, "Why did I do what I did? What was my motivation?" Were you motivated by fear, pride, duty, a sense of obligation, or were you motivated by genuine, selfless love? Was Jesus Christ your focus or something else? Briefly journal your answers. Pray that God will reveal to you where you are lacking in love. (Matthew 22:32-40)

DBRP- WEEK 5, Day 1, Monday, 29 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+7%2C+8%3B+proverbs+29%3B+mat+21>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 29 Jan 18:

1. Exodus 7:5 – "The Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch out my hand against Egypt and bring out the people of Israel from among them." God had a plan that was much bigger than just helping the Jews – He intended to glorify Himself to those who did not know Him, to the whole world and for all future generations. The Jews saw circumstances from their perspective and complained, but God had a much greater good in mind. Understand that God has a plan for your life that places Him at the center, even at the expense of your comfort and desires. However, also understand that though God's plan might call for discomfort in your life, His plan is always best for you too, the product of a perfectly loving God. If you see life from your perspective, you will only be frustrated and joyless. If you keep God in the center, seek to understand God's will, truly pray the Lord's Prayer in your heart – "Thy will be done...." -- you will find peace and joy in the midst of any circumstance and you will be in a position to be used mightily by God.

2. Exodus 7:6, 7 – "Moses and Aaron did so; they did just as the Lord commanded them. Now Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh." Moses and Aaron had come to a place in their lives where they were willing to obey God totally; it took over 80 years for them to get to that place. How long will it take before you are willing to do "just as the Lord commanded"? Then, you will be very usable.

3. Exodus 7:8-13 – World philosophies claim to be just as powerful as Christianity, claiming to produce the same results in your life as God. The world will point to many philosophies for relief of mankind's problems. Christians point only to Jesus Christ. Just as in the time of Moses, we are in a contest of beliefs. The Gospel will consume all other philosophies.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Exodus 7:8-13 – World philosophies claim to be just as powerful and claim to produce the same results in your life as God. The world will point to many philosophies and remedies for relief from mankind's problems. However, they all fall short and only contribute to deeper issues. Christians point only to Jesus Christ. Just as in the time of Moses, we are in a contest of beliefs. The Gospel will consume all other philosophies ultimately, but what will control the lives of you and those around you? Our mission is to help guide people to the Truth.

5. Exodus 7:19 – "...there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, even in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone." It is comical how historians attempt to find natural causes for God's supernatural work. In the modern movie "Exodus", The Nile turns to blood because of rampant crocodile attacks. Here we see that the Bible points out that all water turned to blood. Hollywood doesn't mention that. When science becomes a person's religion, they leave no room for the supernatural, power beyond what can be observed and explained by the human intellect. When these humanists see the unexplainable, they have to create a false science, and explanation that cannot be proven but is accepted as truth. Then, anyone who doesn't accept the false truth must be condemned as ignorant, superstitious, and closed-minded.

6. Exodus 7:23 – "Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he did not take even this to heart." Pride is a powerful thing. You cannot convince a prideful person, through reason or miracles, to accept Jesus Christ because their heart hasn't been humbled by the Holy Spirit. However, our job is to proclaim the Gospel to all creation, regardless of the response. You never know what seeds you are planting. Proclaim the truth to all, but don't argue with the scoffers.

7. Exodus 8:1 – "Thus says the Lord, 'Let my people go, that they may serve me.'" Hollywood quotes, "Let my people go," but fails to include the most important part, the reason – "that they may serve me." Like Hollywood, we tend to see the Bible from a man-centered perspective rather than a God-centered perspective. It's not about giving us; it is all about God. God is not here to serve us or to make our lives what we want them to be. We exist to serve Him, to glorify Him, and to enjoy Him always.

8. Exodus 8:10 – "Moses said, 'Be it as you say, so that you may know that there is no one like the Lord our God.'" Again, God's intent is to reveal Himself and to bring glory to Himself, not simply to bless His people.

9. Exodus 8:22 – "But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where my people dwell, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, that you may know that I am the Lord in the midst of the earth." When God blesses you uniquely, it is a testimony of His power to those around you. This is your testimony as His witness.

10. Exodus 8:27 – "We must go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the Lord our God as he tells us." God's authority is higher than government's. You must obey God over government.

11. Proverbs 29:1 – "He who is often reproved, yet stiffens his neck, will suddenly be broken beyond healing." Safety investigators point out that most catastrophic mishaps were the result of unsafe practices that had become habits long before the mishap, and that there had often been previous near misses or close calls (warnings). Ninety-nine times out of 100, a person might get away with carelessness, but the 100th time is devastating. What is true with physical mishaps is also true with moral failures.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

12. Proverbs 29:1 -- "He who is often reproofed, yet stiffens his neck, will suddenly be broken beyond healing." Don't take God's patience for granted, and don't be presumptuous with grace.

13. Proverbs 29:4 -- "By justice a king builds up the land." God is the God of mercy and grace, but never forget that He is also the God of justice. Imagine one day on earth with no justice, and you can start to understand that injustice is an evil that our loving, righteous, holy God cannot tolerate. We have to stand up for justice and be Ambassadors for Jesus Christ (who physically attacked the money changers in the Temple).

14. Proverbs 29:6 -- "An evil man is ensnared in his transgression, but a righteous man sings and rejoices." Sinners claim to have freedom in sin, unshackled by God's commands. They don't know the freedom they are missing in Christ. Jesus teaches us that obedience to God allows us to enjoy the fullness of life without unneeded pain and sorrow. Fences on playgrounds keep the children from running out into the highway traffic, enabling them to enjoy the whole playground without fear. Obey God and enjoy His blessings without curses.

15. Proverbs 29:8 -- "Scoffers set a city aflame, but the wise turn away wrath." Have we not witnessed this?

16. Proverbs 29:9 -- "If a wise man has an argument with a fool, the fool only rages and laughs, and there is no quiet." Wise people don't argue. Arguments occur with people who really don't want to hear what you are saying anyway. You can disagree without arguing and, in the process, even build relationship.

17. Proverbs 29:10 -- "Bloodthirsty men hate one who is blameless and seek the life of the upright." People who live in darkness hate bright lights.

18. Proverbs 29:18 -- "Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law." The law reflects the perfect will of God, and restrains us where we have yet been perfected in love to protect us and others from ourselves. Obeying the law out of duty is not the same as obeying the law out of genuine love, but obedience at least helps bridle our worldly passions while we grow in love. Even those who don't believe in God receive good consequences from conforming to God's laws.

19. Proverbs 29:18 -- "Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law." God's word is used by the Holy Spirit like a coach that makes you do what you often don't feel like doing so you can win the big game. Good coaches make you run laps you don't really want to run, pushing you out of your comfort zone to increase your capabilities. No matter how fast you run, the goal is to run faster. The Holy Spirit will run you too.

20. Proverbs 29:21 -- "Whoever pampers his servant from childhood will in the end find him his heir." God knows better than to pamper you.

21. Proverbs 29:25 -- "The fear of man lays a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD is safe." Worrying about what other people will think of us or do to us is one of the primary reasons we fail to follow Jesus wholeheartedly.

22. Proverbs 29:26 -- "Many seek the face of a ruler, but it is from the LORD that a man gets justice." This is such an important truth for us to understand. Too often we turn to human leaders or government for 'salvation' or 'justice'. Too often we look to others for what only God can give us. God is Almighty and Lord of all. Turn to Him.

23. Matthew 21:6 – “The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them.” Followers of Christ obey, period. If you are comfortable in disobedience, you are not really a disciple. If you think grace gives you a license to remain in sinful habits, you are misled. If you don’t have a passion for holiness and purity, you don’t have a passion for Christ.

24. Matthew 21:6 – “The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them.” Followers of Christ obey, period, just as Moses and Aaron exhibited in today’s readings. If you are comfortable in disobedience, you are not really a disciple; you might be a believer (the demons believe in Jesus), but you are not a disciple, a disciplined follower of Jesus. If you think grace gives you a license to remain in sinful habits, you are misled. If you don’t have a passion for holiness and purity, you don’t really have a passion for Christ.

25. Matthew 21:12, 13 -- “And Jesus entered the temple and drove out all who sold and bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons. He said to them, ‘It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’ but you make it a den of robbers.’” The only time it is recorded that Jesus used physical force against anyone was to throw the money changers out of the temple (John says he even whipped them). According to historians, when Jews came to Jerusalem to pay their Temple tax, they could only pay it with a special coin, the half-shekel. This was a half-ounce of pure silver, about the size of a quarter. It was the only coin at that time which was pure silver and of assured weight, without the image of a pagan Emperor, and therefore to the Jews it was the only coin acceptable to God. The money changers had cornered the market on them, and so they raised the price of them to whatever the market could bear. They used their monopoly they had on these coins to make exorbitant profits, forcing the Jews to pay whatever these money changers demanded. Also, these ‘money-changers’ sold livestock (and doves to the poor) at unfair rates. Jesus was particularly sensitive to the impact of this extortion on the poor (Mark 12:40-42; Luke 20:47; Luke 21:2). According to Mark 11:16, Jesus shut down the whole temple exchange system – “And he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple.” It is a terrible sin to take advantage of the poor, the needy, the ignorant, and the weak. Yet, the banking industry, the insurance industry, the gambling industry, and the sales industry often use very complex schemes to trick the ignorant into unneeded financial loss. I see this happen every day to young adults who are convinced by someone that their six or seven-year loan on that brand-new car is a great deal because they can afford to make the monthly car payment. Today, even the government uses state lotteries to supplement their income, institutionalizing the manipulation of the poor and ignorant (first state lottery, 1964; now in 44 states; no major church resistance). In some states, lottery income exceeds revenues from corporate income taxes. Often you will hear Christians compare today’s sexual immorality to that of Sodom and Gomorrah, but they forget about the similarities in economic manipulation – “Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, excess of food, and prosperous ease, but did not aid the poor and needy. (Ezekiel 16:49) The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery. They have oppressed the poor and needy, and have extorted from the sojourner without justice. Ezekiel 22:29) “In arrogance the wicked hotly pursue the poor; let them be caught in the schemes that they have devised.” (Psalm 10:2) A Christian must never be advantaged by taking advantage of others. Job defended his righteousness by pointing to his treatment of the weak -- “If I have withheld anything that the poor desired, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it (for from my youth the fatherless grew up with me as with a father, and from my mother's womb I guided the widow), if I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or the needy without covering, if his body has not blessed me, and if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep, if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, because I saw my help in the gate, then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder, and let my arm be broken from its socket. For I was in terror of calamity from God, and I could not have faced his majesty." (Job 31:16-23) Consider our economy and market from God's perspective.

- Psalm 72:4 -- May he defend the cause of the poor of the people, give deliverance to the children of the needy, and crush the oppressor!

- Proverbs 14:31 -- Whoever oppresses a poor man insults his Maker, but he who is generous to the needy honors him.

- Proverbs 19:17 -- Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the LORD, and he will repay him for his deed.

- Proverbs 22:7 -- The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is the slave of the lender.

- Proverbs 22:9 -- Whoever has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor.

- Proverbs 22:16-- Whoever oppresses the poor to increase his own wealth, or gives to the rich, will only come to poverty.

- Proverbs 22:22-- Do not rob the poor, because he is poor, or crush the afflicted at the gate,

- Proverbs 28:3-- A poor man who oppresses the poor is a beating rain that leaves no food.

- Proverbs 28:6 -- Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity than a rich man who is crooked in his ways.

- Proverbs 28:8 -- Whoever multiplies his wealth by interest and profit gathers it for him who is generous to the poor.

- Proverbs 29:7 -- A righteous man knows the rights of the poor; a wicked man does not understand such knowledge.

- Proverbs 30:14 -- There are those whose teeth are swords, whose fangs are knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, the needy from among mankind.

- Proverbs 31:9 -- Open your mouth, judge righteously, defend the rights of the poor and needy.

- Ecclesiastes 5:8 -- If you see in a province the oppression of the poor and the violation of justice and righteousness, do not be amazed at the matter, for the high official is watched by a higher, and there are yet higher ones over them.

- Isaiah 3:14 -- The LORD will enter into judgment with the elders and princes of his people: "It is you who have devoured the vineyard, the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

- Isaiah 3:15-- What do you mean by crushing my people, by grinding the face of the poor?" declares the Lord GOD of hosts.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- Isaiah 10:2-- to turn aside the needy from justice and to rob the poor of my people of their right, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless their prey!
- Isaiah 32:7 -- As for the scoundrel—his devices are evil; he plans wicked schemes to ruin the poor with lying words, even when the plea of the needy is right.
- Ezekiel 16:49 -- Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, excess of food, and prosperous ease, but did not aid the poor and needy.
- Ezekiel 22:29 -- The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery. They have oppressed the poor and needy, and have extorted from the sojourner without justice.
- Amos 4:1 -- “Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who say to your husbands, ‘Bring, that we may drink!’
- Amos 5:11 -- Therefore because you trample on the poor and you exact taxes of grain from him, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not dwell in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine.
- Luke 14:13 -- But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind,

26. Matthew 21:12 – “And Jesus entered the temple and drove out all who sold and bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons.” Money changers were taking advantage of people financially through religious products. They were capitalizing on worship. This infuriated Jesus and, yes, Jesus reacted violently, using drapery chords as a whip to drive the moneychangers out (described on later readings). How many people are cashing in on Jesus today? How many teachers attract people to their books and other pieces of merchandise rather than the Bible? Matthew 10:8 – “Freely you have received; freely give.”

27. Matthew 21:12-17 – Jesus showed both justice and mercy which go hand-in-hand. Yes, Jesus violently stood up against injustice. We too must stand boldly for justice, but we must also stand boldly and faithfully for mercy and grace. One of the hardest things for a person to do is to understand how to administer justice, mercy, and grace as an ambassador of Christ. This cannot be achieved through intellect alone – it requires the counsel of the Holy Spirit.

28. Matthew 21:28-32 – You must be more than just a hearer of the word; you must be a doer of the word. Jesus said that those who really love Him obey Him. Anyone can talk about following Jesus, but it takes faith, hope, and love to really follow Him in obedience.

29. Matthew 21:43 – “Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits.” God’s people are the ones producing fruit in the name of Jesus Christ. How many people will you tell about Jesus Christ today? How will your words and deeds draw others closer to Jesus today?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 29 Jan 18: Meditate upon obedience today. Pray for obedience today. Pray for obedience that is truly inspired by love and not by merely a desire for personal ‘righteousness’. Seek to walk in righteousness today, and all the while, consider your motivation for what you are doing. (See today’s readings)

DBRP- WEEK 4, Day 7, Sunday, 28 Jan 2018

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+5%2C+6%3B+proverbs+28%3B+psalm+11%2C+12>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 28 Jan 18:

1. Exodus 5:2 – "Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice...? I do not know the Lord." Pharaoh did not believe in God, but that did not remove his obligation to obey God, nor did it remove Moses' obligation to tell Pharaoh he had to obey God. Why would Moses waste his time and risk persecution trying to talk to Pharaoh about God? Because, God told him to, and that is all that matters. But wasn't God glorified through the process? Mission accomplished!
2. Exodus 5:4 -- "Moses and Aaron, why do you take the people away from their work? Get back to your burdens." For most people, productivity is more valued than time dedicated to worship. Notice that most people are too busy for daily prayer, Bible study, and fellowship. "I just can't seem to find the time." Time is a constant. We have no more or less time available in a day than anyone else has had throughout history. Our problem is not too little time; it is too much opportunity, too many choices. The world is harried chasing after many things, and we choose to do likewise. It is downright rebellious (against society) to just sit at Jesus' feet.
3. Exodus 5:6-9 – Serving as Christ's Ambassador may make life much harder for you and may impact your career.
4. Exodus 5:9 -- "Let heavier work be laid on the men that they may labor at it and pay no regard to lying words." The Enemy wants you so busy that you won't read, study, meditate on, memorize, and apply God's word. Expect to have a greater burden placed upon you in society as a Christian. For example, if you want to send your child to a Christian school, you will pay for both public school (through taxation) and for private school (through your discretionary dollars).
5. Exodus 5:17 -- "But he said, 'You are idle, you are idle; that is why you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.'" The world sees a Sabbath rest as laziness. Many view Christianity as a crutch for the weak and simple minded.
6. Exodus 5:21 – "and they said to them, 'The Lord look on you and judge, because you have made us stink in the sight of Pharaoh and his servants, and have put a sword in their hand to kill us.'" The people turned against Moses and Aaron because of pressure from the government. The people were more concerned about what government wanted than what God wanted. In their fear of the government, the people told themselves that Moses and Aaron were sinning against God. Religion became a means for them to justify their compromise.
7. Exodus 5:21 -- Even God's people turned against Moses in his obedience. Moses was called to stand alone, and it challenged his faith. Would you be willing to stand your ground against both the government and against the popular church?
8. Exodus 5:22 – "Why did you ever send me?" When the going got tough, Moses didn't ask for God's help but rather complained about the assignment. At least he went to God in prayer, and despite his whininess, God listened. How do you respond to setbacks?
9. Exodus 5:22 -- "Why did you ever send me?" God called Moses to boldly proclaim His word regardless the consequences or apparent outcomes. Moses, an Ambassador for God, was responsible for the message, not for the response to the message. God is God, regardless of what anyone chooses to believe. His word stands and should be proclaimed to all creation. The servant of God faithfully serves the KING at all costs. What is the faithful disciple of Christ to do when the church majority resists or rejects the bold proclamation of God's truth? Tell the truth at all costs – "Then Pilate said to him, 'So you are a king?' Jesus answered, 'You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born, and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth.'" (John 18:37)

10. Exodus 5:23 – "For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has done evil to this people, and you have not delivered your people at all." Moses expected instant results, and when he didn't get them, he lost faith. How do you act when you don't get immediate or amazing results?

11. Exodus 6:1 -- "But the LORD said to Moses, 'Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh; for with a strong hand he will send them out, and with a strong hand he will do to Pharaoh....' Moses had to go through incredibly hard times before God revealed Himself in power.

12. Exodus 6:2 – "God spoke to Moses and said to him, 'I am the Lord.'" We lose faith when we lose perspective on who God is. Sometimes we need to be reminded that God is God! He has got you! Now, obey!

13. Exodus 6:9 – "Moses spoke thus to the people of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses, because of their broken spirit and harsh slavery." The Bible provides countless warnings to the church to be careful not to lose faith in God and sensitivity to the Spirit because of earthly conditions. In hard times, Moses had the direct word of God, but God's people would not accept it. They had lost touch with God's will, though they worshipped God. In our current situation, is your church aware of God's will and remaining obedient to His word? What is God doing in America, and what role does your church play?

14. Exodus 6:14-26 – God's acts are done for and through specific people who can be listed and named.

15. Exodus 6:28, 29 – God has chosen to use "Ambassadors", messengers, and witnesses to communicate His word to the world; Jesus told His disciples to make more disciples throughout the world under His authority as the Son of God, and through His power. Are you accomplishing your mission?

16. Exodus 6:29 -- "I am the LORD; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you." The Ambassador of Christ need not fear but should be bold as the power and authority of Jesus has been given to him.

17. Proverbs 28:2 – "When a land transgresses, it has many rulers." Ungodliness causes divisions as people more and more seek their own self-interests rather than the greater good. Our national motto was original "E Pluribus Unum (Out of Many, One)", later changed to "In God We Trust". We changed our motto in the face of the global rise of secular communism as a reminder that only under God was strength of unity possible. Are we more united as a nation today or less? What role has the church played in uniting the nation around Jesus?

18. Proverbs 28:5 – "Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the Lord understand it completely." God is Justice. The secular person does not know justice and will drift towards injustice.

19. Proverbs 28:9 – "If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination." Sin hinders your prayer life. Don't expect God to bless you in your disobedience.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

20. Proverbs 28:10 -- "Whoever misleads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit." If you are not leading people to Jesus, you are leading them astray. Worldly ethics, morals, and bright ideas are founded on the 'goodness' of people rather than the goodness of God. We are not messengers of ethics, we are messengers of Jesus.

21. Proverbs 28:13 -- "Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy." Being transparent, open and honest about your sinfulness, helps protect you from false pride. It is hard to be prideful when people know the truth of you. It is easier to point to Jesus when your life is an open testimony about your total reliance on His grace. If you are always trying to get people to trust in your goodness, talent, or skills, you are distracting them from Jesus.

22. Proverbs 28:21 -- "To show partiality is not good, but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong." Everyone, regardless of apparent motive, must be held accountable to the law, though punishment can take into consideration factors that may have contributed to the crime.

23. Psalm 11:3 -- "...if the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?" The basic institutions of society are severely threatened in America today. If the foundations are destroyed, what will you do? God calls His people to be the conscience of society to promote order and stability so that God's people can spread the Gospel.

24. Psalm 11:6 -- "Let him rain coals on the wicked." This verse describes God's judgment on the wicked such as what occurred to Sodom and Gomorrah. This is a judgment only God can carry out. Compare this verse with Proverbs 25:21, 22 -- "If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, for you will heap burning coals on his head, and the Lord will reward you." What is the point? Do not return evil for evil but rather good, and God will administer justice in ways you could not possibly imagine and also take care of you in ways you could not possibly imagine. Trust the Lord in your persecution. Let Him be your defender rather than you trying to defend yourself. You can't possibly understand what is the right thing to do.

25. Psalm 11:7 -- "The upright shall behold his face." Not everyone will behold His face.

26. Psalm 12:1 -- "Save, O LORD, for the godly one is gone; for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man." The psalmist wanted salvation in a society of people that had lost all goodness. Without the people of God to be salt that preserves and the light that exposes darkness, a society can become a virtual hell on earth. When the whole world turns wicked, will you still be holy, obedient and pure? How about your family. In times like this, when faith is being attacked, you need to double down on obedience.

27. Psalm 12:3, 4 -- "May the Lord cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that makes great boasts, those who say, 'With our tongue we will prevail, our lips are with us; who is master over us?'" Flattery is selfishness disguised by nice words. Flattery always has behind it a selfish motive. Similarly, many will speak of justice to pursue unjust gains; many will speak of love to promote sin; many will call love hate in order to disguise their own hate; many will define the language of an argument in order to win the argument. However, God's word will prevail, and we need not deviate from it.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 28 Jan 18: A theme in today's readings seems to be how to handle adversity and persecution. Resolve today trust God in your adversity and persecution.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Remain obedient to Him and continue to pursue a deeper love relationship with Jesus Christ and with everyone around you. Don't worry. Keep pressing forward. When offended by others, respond with kindness and goodness. Try to see every situation from God's perspective rather than your own perspective. In every situation, remember, you represent Jesus Christ and His Ambassador, so you cannot represent your own interests. Have faith that God will restore whatever you lose for His sake because you refused to defend your own personal interests. As a Christian who has been crucified with Christ and no longer lives, and as a disciple who has decided to deny self, take up your cross, and follow Jesus Christ, don't allow yourself for one second to think "What about me?"

DBRP- WEEK 4, Day 6, Saturday, 27 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+3%2C+4%3B+proverbs+27%3B+psalm+10>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 27 Jan 18:

1. Exodus 3:1 – Moses was born a Levite and married the daughter of the priest of Midian. God was raising up a future spiritual leader.
2. Exodus 3:1 – “Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian.” Jethro was the priest of Midian, but being a priest was not his livelihood. Jethro was a shepherd by trade and priest by calling. Likewise, the Bible says you are a priest, but you still need to work in order to care for yourself and for others.
3. Exodus 3:9, 10 – “Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. Come now, therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring My people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.” The Christian community needs leaders — the right kind of leaders. The Christian community must repudiate the weaklings who dare not speak out, and it must seek in prayer and much humility the coming again of leaders of the stuff of which prophets and martyrs are made. God will hear the cries of His people as He heard the cries of Israel in Egypt, and He will send deliverance by sending deliverers. It is His way.

And when the deliverers come—reformers, revivalists, prophets—they will be followers of God and people of courage. They will have God on their side because they are careful to stay on God's side. They will be coworkers with Christ and instruments in the hands of the Holy Spirit. Such men will be baptized with the Spirit indeed and through their labors He will baptize others and send the long-delayed revival. (A.W. Tozer)
4. Exodus 3:11 -- “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?” God doesn't give you a task you can do; he gives you a task He can do through you. The successes of God's plan did not depend on Moses but rather the power of God. Most churches will tell you to “discover your gifts” and use them for ministry. That is a good general principle as long as you don't lose sight of the fact that God often calls people to do what they are NOT good at so that the world can see His power and not your talents. Also, it doesn't take faith to do what you know you can do.
5. Exodus 3:12 – “But I will be with you.” We do great things when we do what God wants, not what we want to do ‘for Him’, and when we rely on His strength and not ours. Notice the pattern between Moses' calling and that of the disciples. Moses, like the disciples, was called to do the seemingly impossible; he was called to proclaim a truth that would not be accepted by many; he would have to leave his old life behind, including his occupation, his personal goals, etc – his life would never be the same; God told Moses that God would be with him, just like Jesus said when He gave us the Great Commission – “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.” (Matthew 28:19-20) Do you have the faith to fulfill the Great Commission?

6. Exodus 3:14 – “God said to Moses, ‘I am who I am.’ And he said, ‘Say this to the people of Israel, ‘I am has sent me to you.’” God is God! Everyone should know who God is; He needs no introduction, and the proof of His character is self-evident. Our Founding Fathers proclaimed, “We hold these truths self-evident, that all men were created.... endowed by the Creator....” God is the Truth that is “self-evident”, plainly apparent to anyone who desires to see.

7. Exodus 3:18-20 – When God sent Moses to be His messenger, God already knew who would accept His message and who wouldn’t; nonetheless, God commanded Moses to proclaim His message to all. God also knew that Moses would be persecuted for proclaiming God’s message, but God called Him to proclaim it anyway. The New Testament says that we are Christ’s Ambassadors, called to proclaim the Gospel to all Creation, regardless the response to the Gospel. We are responsible for the message; what people do with the message is out of our control. We should not let fear of rejection or persecution quiet us; remember, God told us to proclaim His message under the authority of Jesus Christ and through His power, not ours.

8. Exodus 3:21-22 – “I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and when you go, you shall not go empty, but each woman shall ask of her neighbor, and any woman who lives in her house, for silver and gold jewelry, and for clothing. You shall put them on your sons and on your daughters. So you shall plunder the Egyptians.” 1) God can control the hearts of people. 2) God will work in miraculous ways to give you the provisions you need to accomplish His work (not your work). 3) God often uses unbelievers and their resources to accomplish His purposes – Herod unknowingly financed Jesus’ ministry (Luke 2:8); Paul spread the Gospel on a ship dedicated to two foreign gods (Acts 28:11), etc. The cartoon Charlie Brown once spread the Biblical message of Easter to countless people who might have never heard it before. Romans 8:28 says, “And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.” God doesn’t work all things together for everyone but for those who truly love Him and are called to His purpose rather than self-centered purposes. Paul had learned to be content in all situations because he knew that he was fulfilling the will of the Father who was in complete control and loved Him perfectly. God’s intent is not to help you build your own kingdom and bring glory to yourself. God’s intent is for you to serve His Kingdom and bring glory to Him. When you are intent on fulfilling His purposes, everything that happens to you will ultimately be good (regardless how difficult), and power that works far beyond your power will enable you beyond your capabilities.

9. Exodus 4:1-5 – Miraculous signs are used throughout the Bible for a purpose – to validate the authority or authenticity of God’s messenger. They are for the unbeliever who is so blind he cannot see the proof of God all around him every day. Miracles are for God’s glory, not just for earthly comfort. We may pray for healing, but we must understand that God heals according to His purposes, not just for our desires. Everyone who God miraculously heals will still face death (until the return of Christ) because that is God’s will. King Hezekiah prayed for healing for selfish reasons, and God gave him 15 more years of life, which ended up being the worst years of Hezekiah's life. Make sure what you are seeking is God's will, not your own, and don't put God to the test. The Almighty is not obligated to prove Himself to you – it is quite arrogant and audacious to expect Him to do that. Open your eyes, trust, and obey, and He will show you all the proof you need.

10. Exodus 4:10 – “Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall speak.” Another pattern revealed in the Bible about how God works in the lives of His followers is that He almost always asks them to step out in faith without showing them exactly how He is going to make things work out. Moses was told by God to “Go... to a place that I will show you.” If you are waiting for everything to be ‘right’ before you do what God told you to do, you are not stepping out in faith. Obedience to God is instantaneous and fully committed. If He told you to do it, do it. That doesn't mean be reckless or careless, and stepping out on your own plan will never work. However, understand that God almost always told His followers to drop everything they were working on, and immediately follow Him without a defined course to do the impossible for His glory, not theirs. “And without faith it is impossible to please Him.” (Hebrews 11:6)

11. Exodus 4:14-16 – “Then the anger of the Lord was kindled against Moses and he said, ‘Is there not Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well.... You shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth.... He shall speak for you to the people, and he shall be your mouth.’” Moses not only angered God by His lack of faith, but his lack of faith also tragically hindered Moses' mission accomplishment. Because of his insecurities and unwillingness to simply do what God asked of Him, Moses became dependent on Aaron who remained a thorn in Moses' side his whole life. Aaron led great rebellion against God, and caused the needless death of many (the Golden Calf). Had Moses simply walked in faith, Aaron would have never entered the picture. As you continue to read about Moses and Aaron, think about what could have been different without Aaron in the picture. How are you limiting yourself due to a lack of faith and an unwillingness to trust what you can't see simply because God told you to?

12. Exodus 4:21 – “But I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go.” Mission accomplishment for Moses involved rejection. God knew what was going to happen and knew that Moses would fail in the eyes of people (for a time) but succeed in his calling from God. God called Moses to preach to deaf ears. Would you do that?

13. Exodus 4:24 – “At a lodging place on the way the Lord met him and sought to put him to death.” God's messengers are held to an incredibly high standard when it comes to obedience. If you call yourself a Christian and are simultaneously careless with His commands, don't be surprised by the discipline you will receive. “Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap.” (Galatians 6:7)

14. Exodus 4:27 – “The Lord said to Aaron, ‘Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.’ So he went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.” God intentionally works in human relationships and arranges meetings that seem coincidental to people. Pay attention when you experience a “chance encounter” with someone. God arranges circumstances to give you a unique opportunity to proclaim the Gospel to people who need to hear it, and He will use others to help you in your mission. Make the most of these once-in-a-lifetime opportunities. There are no accidents with God, and you are on a divine mission – don't lose sight of that, even for a second.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

15. Proverbs 27:1 – Do not be complacent with today. Serve God today as if today were your last day.
16. Proverbs 27:5 – “Better is open rebuke than hidden love.” If you don’t tell others about Jesus, you either don’t really care about them, or you are a coward.
17. Proverbs 27:6 – “Faithful are the wounds of a friend; profuse are the kisses of an enemy.” If you only tell people what they want to hear, you are their enemy.
18. Proverbs 27:12 – “The prudent sees danger and hides himself, but the simple go on and suffer for it.” Only the wise can see what is truly going on around them. Wisdom comes from God alone, not from mere intellect.
19. Proverbs 27:17 – “Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another.” God’s will for your life is that you are in close relationship with other committed Christians, working together in sanctification. You cannot be a good Christian alone.
20. Proverbs 27:23-27 – Spend your productive years building production capacity so that you possess the ability to be financially self-sufficient.
21. Psalm 10:1 – “Why, O Lord, do you stand far away? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?” The Psalms are very honest prayers, designed to show us how to pray. God wants us to be honest with Him. Tell Him how you really feel, and trust Him with your transparency.
22. Psalm 10:2, 3 – “In arrogance the wicked hotly pursue the poor; let them be caught in the schemes that they have devised. For the wicked boasts of the desires of his soul, and the one greedy for gain curses and renounces the Lord.” How many businesses and business practices take advantage of the poor and ignorant? How many get rich, not from producing anything new, but from taking advantage or exploiting the weaknesses, insecurities, and temptations of others? God knows. A Christian should never work in an industry that exploits. By the way, for those of you who support the lottery systems, consider that “households making less than $28,000 a year are dishing out $600 a year on lotteries.” Lotteries are an example of a business that exploits the ignorant and the poor.
23. Psalm 10:4 – “In the pride of his face the wicked does not seek him; all his thoughts are, ‘There is no God.’” Unbelievers have a pride and arrogance problem. Those who sin (ignoring God at the moment) have a pride and arrogance problem that exposes itself in certain circumstance but may otherwise be hidden. What is at the root of your sin?
24. Psalm 10:6 – “He says in his heart, ‘I shall not be moved; throughout all generations I shall not meet adversity.’” The prideful are blind to the truth and cannot see the inevitable consequences of their decisions. The prideful have an inability to admit their faults and will intentionally, though often subconsciously, filter out any information that does not validate their position, beliefs, and behavior. They often respond emotionally to critique in order to avoid reasoned contemplation.
25. Psalm 10:16 – “The Lord is king forever and ever; the nations perish from his land.” Be careful not to lose your perspective in patriotism. God is King, nations come and go. You are an ambassador of The Kingdom of God, representing Jesus in a foreign land. Your message to the nation is the Gospel. While others are pointing to certain leaders or political parties for national ‘salvation’, make sure you are point to Jesus. The Christian is the most faithful citizen and true patriot.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 27 Jan 18: Tell at least three people about Jesus Christ today without fear of rejection. (Exodus 4)

DBRP- WEEK 4, Day 5, Friday, 26 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=exodus+1%2C+2%3B+proverbs+26%3B+matthew+20>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 26 Jan 18:

1. Exodus 1:5 – What can God do with 70 people?
2. Exodus 1:8 – The Bible reminds us that power on earth is brief. The Bible also reminds us that we must carefully consider how the impact of our decisions will affect generations to follow.
3. Exodus 1:11 -- "Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with heavy burdens." Satan would also like to keep you controlled by keeping you heavily burdened. For example, if he can burden you with materialism, consumer debt, and needless activities, he will.
4. Exodus 1:12 – "But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and the more they spread abroad." God's people obeyed God's first command to mankind to be fruitful and multiply. In obedience, oppression only made God's people stronger.
5. Exodus 1:12 – "And the Egyptians were in dread of the people of Israel." Distrust in relationships often leads to sinful behavior.
6. Exodus 1:17 – The midwives feared God over government and disobeyed government when government told them to dishonor God.
7. Exodus 2:1 -- "Now a man from the house of Levi went and took as his wife a Levite woman." Would you continue to have children in such terrible circumstances?
8. Exodus 2:1 – Moses had priestly credentials.
9. Exodus 2:4, 7-9 – God uses children in His work.
10. Exodus 2:9-10: No one could possibly understand that God's plan was to ensure that Moses would get the best of Hebrew and Egyptian upbringing with special access to both communities for a great future mission.
11. Exodus 2:12 – You cannot fight for justice unjustly. Doing the wrong things in the wrong way for the right reasons is still wrong.
12. Exodus 2:13, 14 – People observe your behavior more than you think they do. If you have lost your credibility due to your actions, you have lost your influence for Christ. Moses murdered and then tried to "preach" to others against unjust violence. When Christians don't do what they say, they dishonor God and discredit the Gospel before men. Christians who don't walk the talk are viewed as judgmental by others.
13. Exodus 2:12-15 – God's plan included using a wanted criminal, a murderer, for His purposes.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

14. Exodus 2:19 – God gave Moses a heart for justice and the heart of a deliverer, but He needed to learn humility, and He needed to know God. God IS justice. Justice comes from God and cannot be understood apart from God.

15. Proverbs 26 – Today's proverbs warn us against fools, sluggards, liars, and gossips. The warning is not only to protect us from others but also to protect us from ourselves. Christians must guard themselves against such behavior.

16. Proverbs 26:1 -- "Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool." Ultimately, the fool trusts in the attributes of man, while the wise person trusts in God. When seeking a leader in anything, seek a person that is following Jesus. Anyone else, despite how talented, confident, motivated, and convincing they are, are leading people astray, down a path of eventual destruction.

17. Proverbs 26:4, 5 -- "Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest you be like him yourself. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes." You have an obligation to hold others accountable for their sin, but don't stoop down to their level when rebuking them. Listen empathetically, don't get emotional, and don't seek self-justification. In love, speak the truth from God's word, and don't lose sight of the goal of reconciliation, bringing them closer to Jesus in some way. When you let self get in the way of your rebuke, you lose your moral authority and have become a 'judge' rather than a juror. Don't judge the person or seek to be the punisher -- judge the action and seek to free the person trapped in sin.

18. Proverbs 26:7 – "Like a lame man's legs, which hang useless, is a proverb in the mouth of fools." Wisdom is knowledge rightly applied. Many have knowledge but don't know how to apply it because their hearts are not right. Many use the Bible in a self-serving manner rather than a God-centered way.

19. Proverbs 26:9 -- People often use God's word inappropriately to justify their foolish thinking, decisions, and behavior. People also tend to use God's word for self-justification in arguments with others. When rebuking others with God's word, be careful to check your motives -- are you really representing Jesus or just seeking to defend your own self-interests.

20. Proverbs 26:11 -- "Like a dog that returns to his vomit is a fool who repeats his folly." Repeating the sin you have been forgiven for through the blood of Jesus is just disgusting. Do you see it that way?

21. Proverbs 26:14 -- A lazy and undisciplined person's actions are very predictable.

22. Matthew 20:1-15 – "Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or do you begrudge my generosity?" God is always just. We all deserve justice from God, but He gives mercy and grace. Justice is getting what we deserve; mercy is not giving us what we deserve, and grace is giving us what we don't deserve. In justice, we all deserve eternal damnation for the countless sins we have committed against God, and we deserve it immediately. His mercy gives all the opportunity to receive His gift of grace, salvation through Jesus Christ -- the offered gift must be taken for it to be possessed. God does not have to give mercy or grace to be just. If God offered salvation to no one, He would still be just. It is God's right and prerogative to give mercy and grace as He desires. Mercy is non-justice (not administering the full measure of justice), but it is not injustice. Likewise with grace. Often when God gives others enormous portions of mercy and grace, we compare and tend to think that somehow God has been unfair, as if any portion of mercy or grace from God is obligated of Him -- as if God were somehow being unjust or unfair. We start seeing God's amazing gift of grace as a wage, something He owes us, and when we compare, we presumptuously start questioning the value of that gift. In our hearts, we might be tempted to say, "That's not fair!" We forget that if God wanted to give us only "fairness", we would receive His total wrath. Jesus warns us in Luke 17 that we are all unworthy servants who deserve nothing and who should be grateful what the incredible blessings God has given us -- "So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, 'We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty.'" (v 10)

23. Matthew 20:20-28 – Parents want the very best for their children, but a parent's ambition for their children can get them in trouble.

24. Matthew 20:22 -- "Jesus answered, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am to drink?' They said to him, 'We are able.'" Jesus knew the answer to the question He asked. He knew His disciples far better than they knew themselves. Full of self-confidence (at least at that moment), they had a much higher opinion of themselves than they should have. They wanted more than they could handle. Jesus will eventually use His disciples in a mighty way, but they still have much growing to do, and the Father will accomplish His will on His timing. You might be asking God for many things you are not ready to receive or that you should not receive. God knows your condition and situation and has a great plan for you. Trust Him and be grateful that He gives you what is best for you and not simply what you are asking for. As you grow in Christ, more and more of what you are asking for is what God desires for you. The small child might be frustrated with eggs for breakfast rather than candy, but the adolescent child desires and appreciates the eggs mom makes.

25. Matthew 20:23 – The Bible points out how two entities, equal in worthiness and value may not be equal in responsibility and authority. The Father and Jesus are equally God and are "One", but Jesus submitted to the Father's authority. This is a good model for marriage and family.

26. Matthew 20:24 -- Jealousy hurts relationships.

27. Matthew 20:26-28 – There is a lot of talk these days about servant leadership, but Jesus' definition of servant leadership is radical, being a slave (v27) to others and surrendering all of your personal interests (giving up your life) to others, literally not just figuratively. What rights, honors, respect, privileges, titles, etc do you think you deserve as a leader? What respect does a slave receive? Funny, but most of the people reading books on "servant leadership" are hoping to develop the traits needed to be more respected, to get promoted, and to get paid more. The true servant leader may not be recognized by anyone, quietly serving and influencing without praise, honor, or fanfare.

28. Matthew 20:32-33 – God knows what you want, but He expects you to ask.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 26 Jan 18: "Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound...." Are you still amazed by grace? Today, be truly amazed by the grace that you have received, and be truly grateful for your many blessings without comparing your blessings with those apparently received by others. Rather than comparing gifts, celebrate the gifts given by God to others -- "Rejoice with those who rejoice." (Romans 12:15). Grateful for what you have received, rejoicing with others, serve God wholeheartedly and follow Jesus, with no expectation other than being with Jesus. Pray for a heart that is more than satisfied by just being in the presence of God. (Matt 20:1-15)

DBRP- WEEK 4, Day 4, Thursday, 25 Jan 2018

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+49%2C+50%3B+proverbs+25%3B+matthew+19>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 25 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 49:3 – Reuben was forgiven for a terrible sin, but he did not escape all of the consequences. He would never be who he could have been.
2. Genesis 50:15 – For the joy of reconciliation to be experienced, forgiveness must not only be received, it must be believed. Though Joseph had forgiven his brothers, they still greatly feared him and did not trust him. Likewise, Christians who don't have genuine belief in the forgiveness they have received in Jesus remain in fear, shame, and doubt, lacking complete joy.
3. Genesis 50:19-21 – Joseph models for us how to respond to abuse from others: Leave judgment to God; remember that God is in complete control, knows exactly what is going on, and is using your circumstances for a greater good you cannot understand; forgive; and return good for evil, trusting that God will cover your losses.
4. Genesis 50:24, 25 – Joseph knew what God was going to do with his family. The Bible says that God reveals His plans to His servants (Amos 3:7). What has God revealed to you?
5. Proverbs 25:2 – “It is the glory of God to conceal things, but the glory of kings is to search things out.” The government-run education system in our country is based upon the assumption that one can acquire knowledge and wisdom without God as part of the equation, and today, the “enlightened” class increasingly reject God, pursuing greater knowledge for their own glory. However, God in His glory withholds ultimate truth for His followers, truth that can only be obtained through the Spirit. Man's ‘knowledge’ is foolishness in God's eyes (1 Cor 3).
6. Proverbs 25:7, 8 – “What your eyes have seen do not hastily bring into court, for what will you do in the end, when your neighbor puts you to shame?” Human discernment is always deceiving because we cannot see the whole picture that only God sees, hence the reason we should not judge others because we do not know what God knows about them and about the situation at hand. 1 Corinthians 4:5 says, “Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God.” We cannot see what God sees. Again, without special revelation, we are called to simply obey the general revelation of God's word. When we walk in general obedience, we won't quench the Spirit and will be positioned to receive the special conviction of the Holy Spirit. In relationships, we must be led by the Holy Spirit.
7. Proverbs 25:19 – “Trusting in a treacherous man in time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips.” Trust is the foundation of all relationships. It doesn't take much to lose your credibility. Christians should strive to be unimpeachably trustworthy.
8. Proverbs 25:21, 22 – “If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, for you will heap burning coals on his head, and the Lord will reward you.” God wants you to treat those who offend you with nothing but kindness. This is hard to do, particularly when you are caught off guard by bad behavior. Often our first response is to push back against offenders. Often our first, unguarded response reveals what is really in our hearts. Pay attention to your first responses, and pray for a genuinely loving heart that automatically loves the sinner who hurts us. Once again, God's commands (His general revelation), go against 'common sense'. Obey this command, and you will shock, potentially anger, those around you -- "Don't let her get away with that! Don't be a doormat! You need to stand up for yourself!" It takes faith to resist the temptation to fight back and obey God when it just doesn't seem to make sense. Walk in God's word and see what happens.

9. Compare Proverbs 25:21-22 to Psalm 11:6. Reading the whole Bible gives you a much fuller understanding and appreciation of God's word. The Bible reiterates key points -- God calls us to return good for evil. God can deal with the sins of others far better than we can.

10. Proverbs 25:26 -- "Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked." Don't let the wicked influence your behavior. Prepare yourself to meet the wicked today by reading God's word, praying for strength in obedience, and resolving in your heart not to sin at the moment of decision. How much feces would you allow in your drinking water? How much sin will you allow in your life?

11. Proverbs 25:27, 28 -- "It is not good to eat much honey, nor is it glorious to seek one's own glory. A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls." Do not let your selfish desires and pride get the best of you today. Apply self-control which is given to you by the Spirit (not your own will power). We cannot overcome self with self. Self-control must come from the Holy Spirit. When tempted, turn to the Spirit for strength. Today, you will be tempted to follow your urges, passions, and your perceptions rather than the Spirit. You will be tempted to put self over God, to draw attention to yourself rather than to Jesus, to do what you want rather than what God commands. Self is perhaps your most tempting idol. In small ways that we often don't consciously acknowledge (revealed in small decisions), we seek to place self on the throne rather than Jesus. Prepare yourself for the challenge and set your mind before the challenge. Be a selfless servant of Jesus today. When you inevitably catch yourself prioritizing self again, thank God that the Holy Spirit is convicting you of your sin, pray for forgiveness (repent), and start over -- this is part of the sanctification process.

12. Matthew 19:21 -- "If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." In many different ways throughout the Gospels, Jesus said that the first step to following Him is to deny self. He means what He says. Obedience is only an issue where selfishness and self-centeredness remain. When we refuse to surrender all, only then do we say things like, "What exactly does the Law demand?", "How many times must I forgive my brother?", or "Who is my neighbor?" In self-righteousness, we want to give God only what He has specifically asked for, and we look very carefully within the boundaries of the Law to find a place within what is written to build our own glorious kingdom, a sanctuary from authority; we then build our palace far bigger than the temple of God within our hearts. However, what God has demanded is our everything, all of us. We are created to serve and glorify Him, and we were designed to have joy in serving Him. We were not created to serve self. The Bible says that we are Ambassadors for Christ. An ambassador is an official representative to a foreign country who represents the positions and interests of the appointing nation. But what would happen if an Ambassador began to show loyalties to the foreign country, began accommodating the demands and positions of that foreign country at the expense of their own kingdom, or began working on the side to establish their own private residency and position within that foreign kingdom? Not only would that ambassador be removed from position, he would likely be labeled a traitor. Today's Proverbs say, "The... LORD... overthrows... the traitor." (Proverbs 22:23) Are we still trying to get something for ourselves? Do we still think that there is what is

God's and then what is ours? Have we not realized that it's all God's, including our hearts, souls, minds, and bodies? Are we really going to challenge God's Lordship in any part of us or what we claim to possess? Do we still think that we are 'somebodies'? Are we going to set out today to take care of ourselves and what we want? Or are we going to forget about self and serve wholeheartedly, all in?

13. Matthew 19:25-26 – You cannot use will power to deny self. Only the power of the Holy Spirit can give you power over self. Self cannot defeat self, but self is no match for the Holy Spirit. Pray for the power of the Holy Spirit over self.

14. Matthew 19:29 – You cannot stay where you are, with all that you have, and with who you are with and still follow Jesus. Meditate upon this – it only makes sense that a new creation has no need of its old things.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 25 Jan 18: Today, meditate upon and truly work at denying self for Christ. Pray that the Holy Spirit will empower you to overcome self. Monitor and record your thoughts – how many are focused inward (on self) and how many are focused outward (on God and others). Evaluate your actions, whether they are self-serving or charitable. Evaluate your motives, why you do what you do. Are you motivated by fear, pride, duty, or love? Check your perspective – do you evaluate everything from your perspective and position ("How does this relate to me?... How does it affect me?... How does (s)he compare to me?") or do you evaluate everything from God's perspective and position? Do you put everything in the context of your interests or God's? Look humbly and deeply into yourself today. Keep your thoughts on Jesus and on serving Him through your every action. Deny self, take up your cross today, and follow Jesus with all that you are, all that you say, and all that you do. (Matthew 19:25-26)

DBRP- WEEK 4, Day 3, Wednesday, 24 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+47%2C+48%3B+proverbs+24%3B+matthew+18>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 24 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 47:20:21 -- "So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for all the Egyptians sold their fields, because the famine was severe on them. The land became Pharaoh's. As for the people, he made servants of them from one end of Egypt to the other." Read it again. The story of Joseph is almost always preached as an incredible story of forgiveness, ending in Joseph's powerfully true statement -- "Do not fear, for am I in the place of God? As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good." (Genesis 50:19) However, Joseph's story is also about the destructiveness of deep-seated resentment and un-forgiveness. Our first hint of Joseph's unresolved emotions comes in Genesis 41 when he names his children -- "God has made me forget... all my father's house," and "God has made me fruitful." His mentality was to write off his family and to live by the old saying, "Success is the greatest revenge." But his family comes to him, and exposes his pain and resentment. So, he puts them all through needless torment. He deceives them; he falsely accuses them; he imprisons them; he threatens to kill them; he frames them; etc, etc, all during a famine. Eventually, Joseph is convicted to show mercy to his family. However, Joseph is not done with the Egyptians. God had blessed Joseph with revelation and wisdom to graciously save the Egyptians, the Jews, and other nations during a time of terrible famine. The plan God gave Joseph was to collect from the people 1/5 of their harvests for seven years as a national reserve for the looming famine. Then, that food was to be provided back to the people. However, Joseph does not just give that food back to the people. He makes them surrender everything they own for that food (which they had grown) and finally submit themselves to slavery to Pharaoh. The former slave makes everyone else a slave. The only people he does not put into complete servitude are the Jews, who now own the choicest land in Egypt, and Pharaoh's priests (incidentally, he married the daughter of a priest). What God intended to be a blessing, Joseph turns into a curse. In so doing, Joseph sets the stage for national revenge against the Jews. We will see that, after the death of Joseph and Pharaoh, new national leadership will, in turn, put all the Jews into slavery for hundreds of years. Literally, the impact of Joseph's ungraciousness lasts for centuries. When the Jews finally escape slavery, God will give them specific laws to prevent such abuse of power in the future. How much pain could have been avoided if Joseph had simply shown others the same grace God had shown him? Having received God's grace through His Son, Jesus, do you now forgive others unconditionally, with no strings attached? As Jesus paid the penalty on the cross, do you carry your own cross and bear the burden of hurt in relationships with others in order to end the cycle of pain and to promote total reconciliation? Or, do you forgive with conditions or partially? Do you have deep-seated resentment you have been covering up for years that needs to be surrendered to God? Do you say, "I forgive you," and then make people jump through hoops for you? Remember, God has given us the mission of reconciliation -- "All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation." (2 Corinthians 5:18, 19) "You received without paying; give without pay." (Matthew 10:8)

2. Genesis 48:18, 19 -- "And Joseph said to his father, 'Not this way, my father; since this one is the firstborn, put your right hand on his head.' But his father refused and said, 'I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great. Nevertheless, his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his offspring shall become a multitude of nations.'" God's thoughts are not our thoughts and His ways are not our ways. To understand anything, we must rely on revelation rather than just reason. God gives us reason, which has its purpose, but revelation goes beyond reason to reveal what our small minds could never understand. God gives general revelation through the Bible and Creation to guide us along the path, but He gives special revelation through the Holy Spirit to know how to rightly apply knowledge in particular situations. How did Israel know to contradict tradition and to bless Ephraim over Manasseh, despite Joseph's protests? Israel was acting on special revelation. The Bible does not tell us how He received that revelation, but it does reveal that Israel had no doubt in the special revelation he received from God. Many people say, "I think God is telling me [this or that]." But one should not assume this is special revelation. When God speaks, there is no doubt He has spoken. There may arise doubt in obedience, but there is no doubt in the message. Don't confuse imagination with inspiration. And don't confuse a "positive mental attitude" with faith. A positive mental attitude places confidence in yourself to bring positive results out of challenging circumstances. Faith trust God, despite yourself and regardless the outcome. It's not about success; it's about surrender. It's not about fortune; it's about fidelity. It's not about winning; it's about worship.

3. Proverbs 24:7 -- "Wisdom is too high for a fool; in the gate he does not open his mouth." In biblical times, elders or local officials met at the city gate to settle disputes and to impart wisdom to the people. As the local Ambassador for Christ, are you that person to others? Do people naturally come to you because of your godly wisdom? Notice that many people who desire to be leaders, push their 'wisdom' out to others who never asked for it. Many people want to be thought wise, but few people have paid the price for wisdom.

4. Proverbs 24:10 – “If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.” Your strength is built through proper discipleship, one day at a time over time; it is tested in adversity. When the storms of life come (and everyone will go through the storms), everyone will see whether or not your house was built on a solid foundation.

5. Proverbs 24:11 -- “Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter.” Proverbs 24 has much to say about how we are to deal with unrepentant sinners. Most importantly, we are reminded that we have a responsibility to rescue them from their sin – we can’t ignore what they are doing; we are our brother’s keeper. Elsewhere in the Bible, God says it like this: “If I say to the wicked, O wicked one, you shall surely die, and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from his way, that wicked person shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. But if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way, that person shall die in his iniquity, but you will have delivered your soul.” (Ezekiel 33:8, 9) However, rescuing is dangerous business. Much like saving someone drowning, if you are not a strong swimmer, you are in danger of being pulled down too. We must be very careful not to go into the rescuing business casually or complacently – “And have mercy on those who doubt; save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh.” (Jude 22:23) So, Proverbs warns that rescuing takes much preparation, well prior to the actual rescue attempt. (Proverbs 24:3-10) At the ‘day of adversity’ when you make the rescue attempt, you will discover how prepared you actually were. We have a responsibility to be prepared. Proverbs also gives us some ground rules for rescuing unrepentant sinners: Do not be envious of them or desire to be with them (Proverbs 24:1, 19); don’t act like you can’t see what they are doing (Proverbs 24:12; remember, silence is consent); do not rejoice when they suffer the consequences of their sin (Proverbs 24:17; that makes God unhappy); don’t worry about sinners or fear them (Proverbs 24:19); do not join with sinners (Proverbs 24:21; this is perhaps the Christian’s biggest mistake today); do not accept, tolerate, validate, excuse, or minimize their behavior (Proverbs 24:24); rebuke them by speaking honestly of their sin (Proverbs 24:25, 26); treat unrepentant sinners fairly and unemotionally (Proverbs 24:28, 29); and finally learn from their mistakes and take heed of the consequences of sin. (Proverbs 24:30) You will have plenty of opportunities to respond to sin today. What will you do? What most people seem to do is nothing. Again, silence is consent.

6. Proverbs 24:11, 12 -- "...will he not repay man according to his work?" God will not excuse His messengers who do not call out for repentance. The Good News is 'good' in context with the 'bad' news, that mankind is facing the wrath of God. It is in the context of the looming wrath of God that salvation through Jesus is such Good News. Those who don't desperately feel the need for salvation will not cry out to the Savior. We must first communicate the truth of the problem before we can point to the Truth, Jesus. Unfortunately, few want to hear the truth, so you will suffer if you have any courage to speak truth -- suffer with joy and thankfulness to be found worthy. Suffer out of love for God and for the sinner. Love makes you courageous. Courage, by the way is not the absence of fear. In fact, fear is required for courage. Courage is being faithful in spite of fear.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

7. Proverbs 24:16 – “for the righteous falls seven times and rises again, but the wicked stumble in times of calamity.” Everyone falls, but how God’s people respond reveals the power of their God to the watching world. How God has seen you through your trials, tribulations, and personal failures is an important part of your testimony to others. A personal testimony likely eliminates any possibility for personal pride (because it is humiliating), and gives all glory to God. It is about one worthless, pathetic sinner who was saved by Jesus Christ and then used by God for His purposes. A personal testimony gives all glory to God, and the witness goes out of His way to avoid sharing any of the glory.

8. Proverbs 24:17 – “Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles.” Verses 16 and 17 go together. We get up to help others up, not to step on them. The Christian does not want to see anyone fall -- our heart hopes genuinely for the repentance and salvation of the most despised, wicked wretch. Remember, everything God gives us is to accomplish His mission of reconciliation. If you are not reconciling, you’re wrong.

9. Proverbs 24:24 – “Whoever says to the wicked, ‘You are in the right,’ will be cursed by peoples, abhorred by nations.” God has put in the hearts of every person a sense of justice and a conscience. Likewise, God has enabled people to have a sense of guilt. Some will respond to their guilt with self-justification, and others will understand that justification can only come through Jesus Christ.

10. Proverbs 24:26 – “Whoever gives an honest answer kisses the lips.” Love demands complete honesty, and love demands that we speak the truth about sin.

11. Proverbs 24:32-34 – “I looked and received instruction. A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest, and poverty will come upon you like a robber, and want like an armed man.” God gives every bird its worm, but He doesn’t throw worms in nests. God expects His people to work hard, to be disciplined, diligent, and persistent. Everything that matters requires daily effort to receive a future reward – finances, fitness, relationships, knowledge, wisdom, sanctification – it all falls under the principle of the farm – you will reap what you sow. You are cultivating your future harvest today – what will you have?

12. Matthew 18:1-4 – Jesus will challenge your pride. If you are seeking to “get ahead” of others or to be #1, you don’t understand love yet. If you are always talking about yourself, you don’t understand love yet.

13. Matthew 18:10-14 – Jesus first sought His lost sheep, those who were already in the fold but had gone astray. These are those who say that they are Christians but do not really follow Jesus. This is the first focus of the church. How concerned are you about the “carnal Christian”?

14. Matthew 18:15-20 – Jesus gives very specific steps for conflict resolution. Make sure you always follow these steps.

15. Matthew 18:23-35 – Jesus Christ accepts no excuse for your un-forgiveness of those who have sinned against you. If you accepted His forgiveness, you have absolutely no right to hold forgiveness from anyone else for any reason. If you are having a hard time forgiving, you don’t really understand the gift you have received through the blood of Jesus Christ. How much you are willing to forgive others reveals how much you truly value Jesus' sacrifice for you. Have you gone to the cross in your relationships?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 24 Jan 18: Meditate on how you forgive: Is there someone you haven't really forgiven? Have you said the words but still harbor resentment? Do you feel the urge to keep bringing it up? Are you holding back just a bit of love from that person as an unspoken, unacknowledged punishment? Are you harboring some sort of expectation for the other person to make it up to you? Or, have you truly 'cancelled the debt' of the person who has taken something (usually emotionally) from you? Are you willing to pay the price for their sin as Jesus did for you? Seek to settle your forgiveness issues today. Don't hesitate to pick up the phone or see someone today if you need to in order to settle a matter. Don't hesitate to apologize to someone who offended you if you did not forgive the way Jesus expects you to, unconditionally. (Gen 47:20, 21; Matthew 18:23-35)

DBRP- WEEK 4, Day 2, Tuesday, 23 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+45%2C+46%3B+proverbs+23%3B+matthew+17>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 23 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 45:5-9 – With the right perspective on God and God's purpose for his life, Joseph was able to forgive his brothers. Joseph did not see himself as a mere hapless victim whose life was subject to the will of others. He knew that God was in complete control of His life and had a greater plan through it all. Consider this in context with Romans 8:28. Consider what this means for your life and for what you are going through. The victim mindset imprisons too many Christians and robs them of their joy. And the idea that we are controlled by others makes too many Christians fear people rather than God. If God is for you, who can be against you? How does your perspective on God effect how you treat those who mistreat you?
2. Genesis 45:18 – After Joseph had enslaved all of the Egyptians, Pharaoh gave Joseph's family (foreigners) the choicest land in Egypt. The seeds of racial conflict are being planted. God is providing for His chosen people, but how Joseph managed the blessings of God will cause his people much pain and suffering in the future. Wouldn't it be better to live in accordance with God's sovereignty and grace and not to add our own curses to God's blessings?
3. Genesis 45:28 -- "And Israel said, 'It is enough; Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.'" How do you think Israel's perspective on His God changed when he learned that Joseph was alive?
4. Genesis 46:34 -- "'...your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers,' in order that you may dwell in the land of Goshen, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.'" Again, see the seeds of future racial division being planted.
5. Proverbs 23:4 – "Do not toil to acquire wealth; be discerning enough to desist." There is such a thing as too much. Wealth building can be a substitute for faith, not trusting God to provide for your future. Also, we have likely all heard the adage, "Possessions possess you." Jesus walked with virtually nothing and told us to pray "Give us this day our daily bread." It is not sinful to maintain provisions for the future, in fact, it is Biblical; however, trying to build your own kingdom on earth and your own security can be idolatry and can destroy you. Use your resources for Kingdom work, advancing the Gospel and resourcing acts of love.

6. Proverbs 23:13, 14 – “Do not withhold discipline from a child; if you strike him with a rod, he will not die. If you strike him with the rod, you will save his soul from Sheol.” Yes, the Bible promotes spanking your children, but not in emotional anger, rather in love to save them from future pain. Sometimes words simply aren’t enough for a rebellious child.

7. Proverbs 23:20, 21 – “Be not among drunkards or among gluttonous eaters of meat, for the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty, and slumber will clothe them with rags.” How many churches who are adamant about not drinking have an obesity problem within their congregation? Excessive eating and drinking are both sinful and point to our need of a Savior and the power of the Holy Spirit to give us the spiritual gift of self-control.

8. Proverbs 23:27 – “For a prostitute is a deep pit; an adulteress is a narrow well.” Adultery is like prostitution. In fact, adultery is even viewed as worse than prostitution because prostitutes sin as a means of providing for themselves, but adulterers sin simply for the pleasure of it, destroying families in the process. (Proverbs 6:26)

9. Matthew 17:1-9 – Those who are closest to Jesus see what others don’t see and understand from experience what others can’t understand.

10. Matthew 17:9 – Jesus does not tell His followers everything, and some are told more than others. God will tell you what you need to know, what you are ready for. Don't worry about what you don't know. Be faithful with what you do know, and you will be given more. You have a big enough challenge obeying the word you have been given.

11. Matthew 17:11-13 – Those who studied God’s word the most did not understand the prophecy they studied and missed its occurrence. Prophecy must be revealed by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit reveals as He will -- trust Him with the timing and methods. Do the last thing you were told and, in the meantime, remain receptive. All revelation starts with God’s written word.

12. Matthew 17:16-20 – Though Jesus had given His disciples the power to heal and cast out demons, they could not heal the boy with a demon brought to Jesus by his father. Jesus explains that they couldn’t heal him, not because He hadn’t empowered them, but because they lacked faith to do what God said they could. How does your limited faith limit you? The Bible says that, though we have the Spirit, we can quench the Spirit and "Get out of step" with the Spirit. Be guided by the spirit, not by fear, pride, guilt, or shame.

13. Matthew 17:23 – God’s plan of salvation filled the disciples with grief because it would be a painful experience for Jesus and for them. How do you feel about the fact that Jesus said that if you truly follow Him you too will suffer for His glory and not yours? Will you still joyfully and thankfully follow?

14. Matthew 17:24-27 – “However, not to give offense to them....” Again, though the Son of God, Jesus sets the example by both obeying the law of God and by being careful to demonstrate humility, peace, and grace to others. Jesus used this opportunity to reveal His ultimate authority over all Creation and His power over everything. In most cases, we can remain obedient to God and reveal His power through our lives without disobeying governmental authority, disrespecting others, or needlessly offending others.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 23 Jan 18: Make a list of your primary relationships, those people that are closest to you or that you encounter the most at work, at church, within the community, etc. Ensure the list includes those around you that cause you grief or problems. By each name, make a note on how you have intentionally sought to draw them closer to Jesus, and make a note on the one thing you could do to have the most impact on them in the future for Jesus. Don't just use your intellect to come up with your own plan. Pray for God to reveal opportunity to you. (Matthew 17:16-20)

DBRP- WEEK 4, Day 1, Monday, 22 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+43%2C+44%3B+proverbs+22%3B+matthew+16>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 22 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 43:2, 3 – Jacob and his brothers did not go back to retrieve Simeon until they were out of food again and only when they had to go. This was a very selfish family.
2. Genesis 43:6 – “Israel said, ‘Why did you treat me so badly as to tell the man that you had another brother?’” Israel (Jacob) blamed his sons for what happened and made it all about him. Jacob was a very self-centered, self-absorbed person who saw himself as the center of everything. Yet, God did not reject Him.
3. Genesis 43:32 – Prejudice is nothing new, but God’s word says that there are only two types of people, saved and unsaved. Nothing else matters.
4. Genesis 44:2 – Joseph is still emotionally torturing his family with resentful games.
5. Genesis 44:5, 15 – Joseph practiced divination (and had married into the Egyptian priesthood). It is incredibly difficult, nearly impossible, for God’s people to be a part of the worldly system without being influenced by it. How has culture influenced you to do things God forbids?
6. Genesis 44:24-29 – How unloved Jacobs sons not born from Rachel must have felt.
7. Proverbs 22:2 – Everyone is accountable to God.
8. Proverbs 22:3 – Wisdom enables you to predict the consequences of your actions and the actions of others. Wisdom enables you to avoid bad outcomes before they occur.
9. Proverbs 22:6 – Most of your habits were ingrained in you during childhood, and they are very hard to change. How important is godly parenting? Malachi 2:15 says that the purpose of marriage is to raise godly offspring. For parents, this is your primary responsibility in life.
10. Proverbs 22:7 – God wants His people to be financially self-sufficient with enough resources to also finance the work of the Great Commission and the Great Commandment.
11. Proverbs 22:9 – God will give resources to those He can trust to use them according to His purposes.
12. Proverbs 22:15 – Godly parents discipline their children in love so that later in life they will not be disciplined by someone who doesn’t love them.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Proverbs 22:19 – Above all else, a godly parent wants His children to trust in the Lord and to diligently follow Jesus Christ. This is the ultimate goal of parenting.

14. Proverbs 22:26 – Have no debt.

15. Proverbs 22:29 – God wants you to be skilled in your work.

16. Matthew 16:1-4 – “‘You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times. An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.’ So he left them and departed.” The Pharisees were scholars of God’s word, they saw Jesus perform miracles; and the Son of God, Jesus, stood right in front of them, yet they still demanded more signs. The proof of God is all around us – it is self-evident. God is working all around us all the time, working on the hearts of unsaved, bringing about His ultimate plan of judgment and salvation. If anyone is empowered with the Holy Spirit and is not quenching the Spirit, they can see God’s presence, miraculous work, and activity in the here and now in a very powerful way. What does the Holy Spirit reveal to you on a daily basis? Do you need more evidence to obey God wholeheartedly?

17. Matthew 16:12 – “Then they understood that he did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” The Pharisees and Sadducees used God’s word to promote self, to serve themselves rather than to truly serve God from the heart. They used God’s word to preach a form of moralism which seemed ‘good’. They preached legalism (self-righteous works) that were not truly motivated by selfless love for God and love for others. Just a little selfishness ruins the whole batch. Beware of ‘Biblical’ teachings that promote a self-righteousness rather than the righteousness of Jesus or that promote moral behavior over a genuine oneness with Jesus.

18. Matthew 16:23 -- “But he turned and said to Peter, ‘Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man.’” Poor Peter – one moment he is receiving tremendous praise from Jesus; the next moment he is receiving his harshest rebuke. Peter wanted to serve God Peter’s way to achieve the results Peter wanted. Peter wanted God to validate his vision for success which likely involved earthly comfort, security, and power. Ultimately, Peter’s vision of serving God was heavily biased on self – it was selfish. Peter was very confident and committed, more committed most, but his selfishness and pride made him reckless and unreliable (cutting off ears and abandoning Jesus). We committed Christians run the risk of making the same mistake, seeking to serve God on our own terms, deciding for God what success looks like, or seeking to have God validate what we want by claiming it for Jesus. We are tempted to serve God to fulfill our own desires for accomplishment, praise, success, and self-worth. And our human nature is always biased towards safety, security, and self-preservation. This is why so many sermons preached today are self-centered: “How to have a better ____ How to be a better _____, etc.” The Bible is often reduced to a theological self-help book. As the times grow more uncertain, many people turn to religion, not to glorify God as much as to find some answers for themselves to get them through life’s challenges. They are in pursuit of the blessings of God rather than God Himself. Many pursue ambitious goals and objectives, often with Christian packaging, that are far removed from what God intends; and many wear themselves out pursuing what God never intended for them. We get out of alignment with God’s will, and then, when we receive the natural consequences of this misalignment, we tend to put a spiritual spin on it that removes our responsibility from the equation. Proverbs 19:21 says, “Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the Lord that will stand.” How important is it for us to be about God’s business? Service and worship that is acceptable to the Lord is selfless service – that should be our aim. It is not about us. Take the “I” and “me” out of it. It is all about Him. Seek to be “crucified with Christ.” Seek to “know nothing but Christ.” Jesus tells us today what it takes to be his true disciple

19. Matthew 16:24, 25 – “Then Jesus told his disciples, ‘If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.’” Memorize these verses and meditate upon them all day every day. Receive the Holy Spirit’s conviction from these verses. Deny self – the greatest battle anyone would fight is the battle against self. It is mostly revealed in how we treat others, particularly those other sinners who wrongfully hurt us (taking up the cross). Taking up the cross does not just involve persevering under persecution but rather suffering in the name of Jesus, seeking the reconciliation of the persecutor in the name of Jesus, loving the persecutor in the name of Jesus, reaching out to the persecutor in the name of Jesus, and following Jesus is joyfully obeying Him and taking up His attitude – “Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who... emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant... and... he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.” (Philippians 2:5-8) Again, the first challenge Jesus levies is – deny self. Among the three enemies of the world, the flesh, and the devil, the flesh seems to be the greatest threat. Why? Because the enemy of ‘self’ is ‘inside the wire’, an internal tempter; while the world and the devil are external threats. When Jesus was tempted by Satan in the desert, he was tempted externally but not internally, keeping Him free from sin. Conversely, we are tempted internally to seek our own desires rather than the will of God. Our selfish thoughts are sinful thoughts because they counter the Great Commandment and the First Commandment. Let’s take time today to consider our approach to God – how much of it is selfish? Let’s consider our service to God and look for hidden agendas within our hearts (if you can’t find them, you are not looking hard enough). Consider even how we are reading the Bible this year. How often do we approach God’s word selfishly, as if its primary focus was on us rather than the glorification of God? Let’s endeavor again today to die of self. This isn’t about submission; it is about complete surrender. “He must increase, but I must decrease.” (John 3:30)

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 22 Jan 18: Deny self. Seen note number 19 above.

DBRP- WEEK 3, Day 7, Sunday, 21 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+41%2C+42%3B+proverbs+21%3B+psalm+8%2C+9>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 21 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 41:16 -- “‘I cannot do it,’ Joseph replied to Pharaoh, ‘but God will give Pharaoh the answer he desires.’” -- Despite desiring the favor of Pharaoh, Joseph did not hesitate to give God the glory instead of lifting up himself.
2. Genesis 41:28-40 -- God intends for nations and for people to store reserves for contingencies, to save for the rainy days of life.
3. Genesis 41:38 -- “So Pharaoh asked them, ‘Can we find anyone like this man, one in whom is the spirit of God?’” Joseph was valuable solely because of his relationship with God.
4. Genesis 41:41-54 -- God can completely change your circumstances in an instant.
5. Genesis 41:51 -- “Joseph named his firstborn Manasseh and said, ‘It is because God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father’s household.’” The fact that he named his son Manasseh suggests that Joseph really hadn't forgotten. Also, don't lose sight of the fact that Joseph married and had children with the daughter of a pagan priest. It is very difficult to succeed in a secular society without compromising your holiness.

6. Genesis 41:56 -- The greatest sermon never preached about Joseph's great failure -- "When the famine had spread over the whole country, Joseph opened the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout Egypt." Joseph sold back to the people what was rightfully theirs. He abused his gift from God to take advantage of others. In fact, you will see that he uses the storehouse grain to sell all the people into slavery which will cause great hatred between the Egyptians and the Jews, resulting in enslavement of the Jews. This is also a Biblical warning about the abuse of government power.

7. Genesis 42:4 -- To Jacob, all the sons but Benjamin were expendable. Wow!

8. Genesis 42:7-28 -- Joseph toyed with and emotionally tortured his brothers, likely because of deep seated resentment. How do you treat those who have offended you? Do punish them emotionally by playing games? Do you make them jump through hoops to prove their sincerity?

9. Genesis 42:37 -- "Then Reuben said to his father, 'You may put both of my sons to death if I do not bring him back to you. Entrust him to my care, and I will bring him back.'" Reuben appears to have grown greatly in character, having learned from his past failures. Now he is acting like a selfless leader.

10. Proverbs 21:1 -- "The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of the Lord; he turns it wherever he will." Watch and see how this truth is revealed in Joseph's life. This truth remains true today. God controls all political leaders for His purpose. God blesses and punishes peoples through their political leaders. If you do not like what is happening politically, you can protest as the world does, or you can turn to the Lord in repentance, prayer, and obedience.

11. Proverbs 21:3, 27 -- Obedience is the greatest form of worship. Ceremony is not substitute for obedience. In fact, the religious acts of the disobedient are insulting to God.

12. Psalm 8:1 -- Psalm 8 starts like the Lord's Prayer, acknowledging the Majesty of God. Without the right perspective of God, even our prayers are misguided. All sin starts with seeing God wrongly. All wisdom starts with seeing God rightly.

13. Psalm 8:4 -- "What is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him?"

After seeing God correctly, the second key to life is having the right perspective of ourselves in relationship to Him, totally undeserving of His mercy and grace, nothing but His humble servant but lived by Him unconditionally.

14. Psalm 8:9 -- "O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!" Start and end praising God's majesty!

15. Psalm 9:1 -- The habit of praising God publicly keeps you on track and points the Way to others.

16. Psalm 9:10 -- "And those who know your name put their trust in you, for you, O Lord, have not forsaken those who seek you." How well do you really know God, not 'know about God', but 'know God'? Jesus came that we could truly "know him who is true." (1 John 5:20) In fact Jesus said that eternal life is knowing God -- "And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.” (John 17:3) The better we truly know God, the more we trust Him (faith), love Him, and obey Him, the more we grow in the big three Christian attributes – faith, hope (faith projected forward), and love. Paul reminds us that among these three, love is the greatest, but he also tells us that love rests on faith – “The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.” (1 Timothy 1:5) Love is the greatest mark of faith and true relationship with God – “Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God.” (1 John 4:7) “Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.” (1 John 4:8) The one who knows God and loves God, obeys God – “And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says ‘I know him’ but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him.” (1 John 2:3, 4) Jesus said that his sheep not only know his voice, but they also follow him. (John 10) In fact, it is in the following that we grow in the knowing, trusting, loving, and obeying. We grow in our trust through personal experience in the faithfulness of God. Knowing God is not just reading about God, it is about walking with God and seeking Him with all of our heart. Knowing God is about relationship, not religion. Witnesses testify to what they have experienced first-hand, not about what they have heard about (that is hearsay). Our witness to others is only powerful when it is first-hand. Paul said, “Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.” (Philippians 3:8-11) “For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.” (1 Corinthians 2:2) Knowing God, trusting Him, loving Him, and obeying Him, is a growth process – “For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known.” (1 Corinthians 13:12) Though we have a relationship with God, we must pursue greater relationship with God – “So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.” (2 Timothy 2:22) So, how well do you know God? Do you desire to know him further? Jesus said, “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.” (Matthew 16:24) Today is a new day.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

17. Psalm 9:13 -- "O Lord, see how my enemies persecute me! Have mercy and lift me up from the gates of death." How are you trying to solve your relationship problems and the injustices you are experiencing? Go to God. He controls everything including the hearts of people.

18. Psalm 9:17 -- "The wicked return to the grave, all the nations that forget God." What happens when a nation makes laws contrary to God's laws?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 21 Jan 18: Meditate upon what God is doing with our nation, pray for a national repentance and revival, and pray that God will use you as a faithful beacon of light to expose darkness and to point to the only True Light, Jesus. Rather than being a spokesperson for a party, person, or organization, be a spokesperson for Jesus. (Proverbs 21:1)

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 20 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 39:2, 3 – “The Lord was with Joseph, and he became a successful man.... His master saw that the Lord was with him.” Joseph was successful because the Lord was with Him, not because Joseph was lucky or talented. God’s activity in Joseph’s life was apparent to Joseph’s master. There are many talented people in the world, but being empowered by God is a totally different thing, revealing a power far beyond human abilities, bringing glory to God rather than the person. Is God’s activity in your life apparent to those around you?
2. Genesis 39:6 – “So he left all that he had in Joseph’s charge, and because of him he had no concern about anything but the food he ate.” In captivity, Joseph worked so diligently for his master his master put him in charge of everything and worried about nothing. How does this compare to how you do jobs you don’t want to do for people you don’t want to do it for?
3. Genesis 39:6, 7 – “So he left all that he had in Joseph’s charge.... Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance. And after a time his master’s wife cast her eyes on Joseph and said, ‘Lie with me.’” Character is who you are in the dark, what you do when you have no restraints or no repercussions that concern you. Ethical failures, usually involving sex and money, have destroyed many high-level leaders. God allowed Joseph’s leadership to be tested in a big way. Here is where we see the truth of Joseph’s heart – he is truly a man of integrity and fidelity. Here is a leader you can trust. Today, society often overlooks the ethical failures of leaders and then wonders why they can’t seem to be counted on to make good policy decisions. People act as if character can be compartmentalized, as if a person can be untrustworthy in one area of their lives but trustworthy in another – nope. Character is what you repeatedly do – if you almost never murder, you’re still a murderer. If you hardly ever steal, you are still a thief. If you rarely lie, you are still a liar. A habit or trait doesn’t define you until it becomes who you truly are. Joseph acted faithfully because he WAS faithful. Who are the Joseph leaders today?
4. Genesis 39:7 – “Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance.” Few people can handle the temptations that come with being attractive.
5. Genesis 39:9 – “How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?” Joseph saw sins committed against others as, more importantly, sins committed against God.
6. Genesis 39:16, 17 – “Then she laid up his garment by her until his master came home, and she told him the same story, saying, ‘The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought among us, came in to me to laugh at me.’” The light of the Christian life will expose the darkness in the lives of others, and the response of those who live in the dark will often be to extinguish the painful light. When Christians refuse to condone sin and participate in sin, they will be hated and silenced. Unfortunately, too many Christians respond to attacks from sinners by dimming their own light, by either compromising or remaining silent before sin. Had Joseph surrendered to sin, he might not have gone to prison, but he would have missed out on the great things God had intended for him along the path of fidelity and obedience.
7. Genesis 39:21 – “But the Lord was with Joseph and showed him steadfast love and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.” A Christian following God is never a mere victim of circumstances, and God will bring all things together for good for them, even those things that seem so terrible at the time.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. Genesis 39:23, Genesis 40:23 -- "The Lord was with him. And whatever he did, the Lord made it succeed.... Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him." Genesis 39 and Genesis 40 end very differently and, together (intentionally), describe the challenge of faith both Joseph and Christians today will go through – apparent victories and agonizing defeats. Genesis 39:23 points out that God was in control of Joseph's life; yet Genesis 40:23 seems to imply that Joseph's fate was at the mercy of other people, circumstances, or even his own failures. No doubt, at times Joseph struggled with the question: "Where is God now?" Despite all of Joseph's efforts to obey God, it seemed like he was just a helpless victim. Perhaps, like so many of us do, Joseph felt like God was blessing him when there was obvious success and then ignoring him or punishing him when there was apparent failure. Surely, it is hard to feel loved, blessed, and protected by God when you are wrongly accused, abused, and forgotten in prison. At times like that, you are tempted to doubt. You may have even made a lot of personal mistakes that caused you to create your own personal 'prison', but "nothing can separate us from the love of God," not even our own buffoonery. (Romans 8:35-39) We will experience consequences of sin in a sinful world, but "we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose." (Romans 8:28) Throughout the Bible we have seen and will continue to see how God uses both good and bad circumstances, intentionally, to accomplish His purposes in both the lives of individuals and in the world. In Joseph's case, the chief cupbearer's forgetfulness was no surprise to God. God took Joseph through exactly what God wanted Joseph to go through as He prepared Joseph for a greater experience with God. Of course, it would be impossible for Joseph to know exactly what God was doing; that takes FAITH. It takes both endurance and perseverance. The Second Marine Regiment's motto is "Keep moving," derived from the WWII Battle of Tarawa where during the amphibious assault on the heavily defended island, Marines found themselves stuck on coral 500 yards from the shore, forcing them to wade/swim to the island under intense bombardment and machine-gun fire – hard to imagine a worse scenario. What do you do in a time like that? Keep moving! Sometimes in life, that is what the Christian must do. Keep pressing forward in faith, even joy. Faith is trusting God right now at His word, and hope is trusting God with the future from your foundation of faith. The God who IS love, loves you always and continually. "Shall we receive good from God, and shall we not receive bad?" (Job 2:10) "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." (1 Thessalonians 5:18) Spoiler alert: After Joseph had gone through so much abuse by so many people, he understood that it was all simply part of God's plan – "You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today." (Genesis 50:20) Just as Moses had to go through the Red Sea; just as Shadrack, Meshack, and Abednego had to go through the fiery furnace; just as Daniel had to go through the lions' den, Joseph had to go through his great test in order to become the leader God intended; and we must go through our trials too. Through trials or tests, God is doing five things: Revealing Himself to you in a greater way; revealing you to yourself in a greater way (He already knows everything about you, but you don't); revealing Himself to the world through your life; using your life to effect change in the world; and preparing you for greater things. See how God does these things in Joseph's life. See how He does these things in your life. God is Good!

9. Genesis 39:23 – "The keeper of the prison paid no attention to anything that was in Joseph's charge, because the Lord was with him. And whatever he did, the Lord made it succeed." Again, Joseph was successful because God enabled him. Joseph wasn't a 'natural' leader but rather a God-empowered leader. Therefore, he was able to accomplish the seemingly impossible. Joseph was usable because he did not simply surrender to his terrible circumstances but relentlessly trusted in God. Joseph didn't take on a victimization mentality, wallow in self-guilt, seek some form of escapism, or even complain – he just sought to faithfully put his 100% into his current situation and wait upon the Lord. What do you do when life doesn't seem to work out for you?

10. Genesis 40:15 – “For I was indeed stolen out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also I have done nothing that they should put me into the pit.” God was “with” Joseph, but God did not protect Joseph from terrible injustice and hardship. On the contrary, God allowed Joseph to go through seemingly hopeless situations so that God could prepare and position Joseph for greater things. Joseph accepted good and seemingly bad from God (which was really good). Do you?

11. Genesis 40:19 – “In three days Pharaoh will lift up your head—from you! —and hang you on a tree. And the birds will eat the flesh from you.” Joseph did not sugar coat the word revealed to him by God but rather told people the straight truth. We too are called to communicate the unadulterated truth of God's word to others, in love, regardless of whether they want to hear it or not.

12. Genesis 40:23 – “Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.” How do you respond when people let you down? How do you respond when you never seem to get a break?

13. Proverbs 20:3 – “It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife, but every fool will be quarreling.” Again, being ‘right’ is not nearly as important as being loving.

14. Proverbs 20:6, 9 – “Many a man proclaims his own steadfast love, but a faithful man who can find...? Who can say, ‘I have made my heart pure; I am clean from my sin’?” Pride is the worse form of blindness. If you ever catch yourself proclaiming your best attributes, repent, and return to humility. If you catch yourself comparing your ‘righteousness’ to that of another person, repent, and return to humility.

15. Proverbs 20:14 -- “‘Bad, bad,’ says the buyer, but when he goes away, then he boasts.” God's economy does not allow for a person gaining wealth at the expense of another. There is a way to gain wealth while genuinely adding value to others. When you do things God's way, you earn your wages in ways that give more than you get. Others get more than what they paid for. This brings glory to your God.

16. Proverbs 20:22 – “Do not say, ‘I will repay evil’; wait for the Lord, and he will deliver you.” When offended by others, you can only handle mercy and grace, not justice. Only God can handle justice because only God is just, and you will likely ere in your favor. Never try to seek justice for yourself against others. When offended, show mercy and grace as shown you by/through Jesus, and leave it to God to settle the score. If you try to be the judge, you sin.

17. Proverbs 20:27 – “The spirit of man is the lamp of the Lord, searching all his innermost parts.” You cannot be adequately self-aware, self-controlled, or self-disciplined apart from the power of the Holy Spirit. This should make sense to you: if self is the problem, self can't fix the problem. You need a power that is beyond self, a power that can see what you can't see and control what you cannot control. You need something beyond your limited natural abilities, you need the supernatural. Today's culture promotes humanism, the notion that humans are the answer to human problems. Secular humanistic concepts have crept into the church, and many churches seek to validate these concepts by attaching out-of-context scripture verses to them. Yes, it is important for Christians to be self-aware and self-controlled, but the Bible is clear that only through the Holy Spirit can this be achieved. See Galatians 5.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

The Bible says that we should constantly have within our decision-making calculus three awarenesses -- awareness of God, awareness of self, and awareness of others. We can only have true awareness of all three as God enables. If we seek awareness of these three merely from our own intellect, we will be deceived and constantly in error. You will read many Bible verses this year which will clarify this point.

18. Psalm 7:9 – “Oh, let the evil of the wicked come to an end, and may you establish the righteous—you who test the minds and hearts, O righteous God!” God knows your mind and heart, and He uses circumstances to reveal your mind and heart to you. He knows your heart and knows you don’t. You can’t fix what you can’t see or what you are not willing to be honest about. Your spontaneous fit of anger is God’s revelation to you that your heart is not right. So, what are you going to do about it?

19. Psalm 7:12 – “If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow.” The first word of Jesus’ message was “Repent”. The message hasn’t changed, though fewer and fewer churches are proclaiming it.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 20 Jan 18: Today, seek to be like Joseph when things aren’t at all going your way – remain faithful to God and wholly obedient to God’s word. Trust God’s unfailing power and love through your circumstances and with the future. Make the most of whatever you have; make the most of your circumstances – if you wind up in prison, then run it and make it great. Never give up! Don’t worry about the score on the scoreboard (Genesis 39:23)

DBRP- WEEK 3, Day 5, Friday, 19 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+37%2C+38%3B+proverbs+19%3B+mat+13>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 19 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 37:3 – “Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his sons, because he was the son of his old age. And he made him a robe of many colors.” Children are not equal in character and competence, and there are some attributes that are more favorable in one child or another, but a parent should never love one child more than another or show favoritism. Israel sowed the seeds of hate and destruction in his family by showing favoritism to his children.

2. Genesis 37:4 – “But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peacefully to him.” People may hate you simply because you are blessed. Again, envy is one of the most powerfully destructive emotions which often turns violent. Be careful to guard your heart against any thought of envy.

3. Genesis 37:5 – “Now Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers they hated him even more.” Mastering human relationships requires knowing what to say and what not to say. Just because you know the truth doesn’t mean the time is right to share it, and how you share it matters too. Knowledge has a tendency to puff you up, but love lifts up the other person. Verse 4 says that Joseph’s brothers “could not speak peacefully to him,” and then it says that Joseph shared his dream. So, it would seem that Joseph was intentionally goading his brothers. Proverbs says that a fool’s mouth invites a beating. Joseph, in pride, is acting foolishly, and it is going to cost him dearly. You may be right on concerning a matter, but it is never beneficial to incite a quarrel with others or to escalate an argument.

4. Genesis 37:12-14 – Joseph had become an outsider to his brothers and was viewed as an enemy because he brought bad reports of them to their father. Joseph was not an agent of reconciliation.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

5. Genesis 37:13-17 -- “Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem?... Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock, and bring me word....” Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.” The Bible records that Jacob sent his favored son alone to Shechem, the place where Jacob’s son massacred a city. Jacob shows incredible negligence as a father here and is further evidenced by his careless disregard for the destructive behaviors growing in his family. If he couldn’t see what was going on between Joseph and his brothers, he was negligent. If he did understand the strife between them, he was irresponsible for sending Joseph out to report on his brothers. He should have clearly recognized the resentment this would incite. It is a parent’s responsibility to know the strengths and weaknesses of all their children and to develop their respective characters. Teaching kids to manage emotions and conflict within the home prepares them for challenges in the world. The home is intended to be the schoolhouse for character development, and the parent is the teacher, coach, mentor. The Bible then points out that in fact, Joseph would have to walk another 13 miles in the desert to meet his brothers in Dothan. Would you walk 13 miles to meet a bunch of bullies who hated you and “could not speak peacefully to [you]?” Joseph was willing because he was incredibly diligent – one of his positive character traits. God has called you to proclaim the Gospel to people who will hate you. Will you do it? Will you walk 13 miles to take a beating simply because your Father told you to?

6. Genesis 37:17 – “And the man said, ‘They have gone away, for I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’” So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.” The community is always watching you and your family and making judgments whether you realize it or not. You might be very surprised if you realized all that people notice and what they think of you from what they observe. Whether you accept it or not, you and your family are a testimony to something. Does your family’s character point to Jesus and glorify God?

7. Genesis 37:18 – “They saw him from afar, and before he came near to them they conspired against him to kill him.” Joseph’s brothers had transitioned from one of the most destructive of all emotions, envy, to the most destructive of all emotions, hate. This is the opposite of love. Love promotes life, and hate promotes death. When a person or a group are driven by hate, they are capable of unspeakable sins, things that would otherwise shock you from them.

8. Genesis 37:21, 23 – “Let us not take his life....” And Reuben said to them, ‘Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him’—that he might rescue him out of their hand to restore him to his father.” Reuben was still influenced by conscience, but he lacked requisite courage of conviction. Though he intended to save his brother’s life, he lacked the strength to control his brothers; so, he diverted to scheming, which didn’t work. He pretended to play along while working a hidden agenda to save his brother. How do you confront sinful popular opinion? Had he gone to trial with his brothers, he would have been found guilty too because, though he kept Joseph from being murdered on the spot, he didn’t do enough to protect Joseph. It is not enough to have ‘good intentions’, we have to fully commit to doing what is right. As the saying goes, “The road to hell is paved with good intentions”. How Reuben’s guilt must have consumed him over the years after Joseph was sold into slavery! Reuben’s life is a negative leadership lesson. Reuben was the oldest who committed incest with his father’s concubine and will lose his birthright to Joseph. Reuben wanted to be the leader of his family and, his eventual birthright, but he lacked the requisite integrity and moral courage to lead. Some seek positional authority, rank, or titles to claim leadership, but it is moral authority combined with competency that makes a true leader. Notice throughout the Bible, that when God calls a leader, it is usually not from the group of pre-established positional leaders. In the midst of priests, God calls His prophets from the ranks of laymen. Are you the leader where you are? The true leader knows the way and has the character and competence to lead others along the way. Jesus is the Way – do you demonstrate the character and competence to lead others to Him? A seminary degree is not a requirement, nor is a piece of paper or special clothing. In fact, those things can stand in the way if they promote pride and self-confidence rather than humility and God-confidence.

9. Genesis 37:25 -- “Then they sat down to eat.” Envy, jealousy, and hate can make a person ruthless. It is hard to believe that God could still use these terrible people who can casually eat lunch while torturing their younger brother. From what depths can God rescue a sinner today?

10. Genesis 38 – Genesis 38 is a shocking story. Judah commits unthinkable sin after unthinkable sin and at the end of it all is willing to burn to death as daughter-in-law for getting pregnant from prostitution (idol worship prostitution) without condemning himself for being the one who got her pregnant. Again, after reading Genesis 38, it is hard to believe that God would use Judah to be in the lineage of Jesus Christ. What does that tell you about how God works? Why do you think God wants you to read this story?

11. Proverbs 19:2 -- “Desire without knowledge is not good, and whoever makes haste with his feet misses his way.” Consider very carefully what you desire to do – don’t let emotion lead the way. Is it what God wants you to do? Do you have a plan to accomplish God’s will, and are you willing to do what it takes to see it through? “Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain.” (Psalm 127:1)

12. Proverbs 19:3 – When we receive the natural consequences of our own actions, we tend to blame God for being unfair to us.

13. Proverbs 19:10 – God intended for His people to “subdue” the earth, to be the dominant influence on earth for His glory. What if Christians controlled Hollywood, the government, the education system, industry, banking, etc. and ran things according to His law? It is not fitting that Christians have surrendered the systems of power over to the world and are now controlled by them.

14. Proverbs 19:11 -- “Good sense makes one slow to anger, and it is his glory to overlook an offense.” God expects us to show mercy and grace to people as He has shown us mercy and grace. Mercy is not giving people the punishment they deserve, and grace is giving them the forgiveness they don't deserve. Judgment is giving the punishment deserved. Why is it we often want justice for those who offend us and mercy and grace for ourselves?

15. Proverbs 19:15 -- “Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep, and an idle person will suffer hunger.” God expects you to be a hard worker. He does not bless laziness.

16. Matthew 15:1-20 – Religiously sincere may defend theological tradition and miss the mark on love for God and for others, the Greatest Commandments of all.

17. Matthew 15:8, 18-20 -- “Their heart is far from me.... What comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this defiles a person. For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, slander. These are what defile a person.” The heart of man’s problem is the problem with man’s heart. While we tend to focus on actions; God looks at the heart behind those actions – “The Lord sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart.” (1 Samuel 16:7) The Lord searches the heart, tests the heart, weighs the heart, and judges the heart (Jeremiah 17:10, Proverbs 17:3, Proverbs 21:2). Fundamentally, our ‘heart’ is what we love. The “upright in heart”, the “wholehearted” have been given the First Commandment and Great Commandment upon which every other commandment rests: “You shall have no other gods before me.... You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. (Exodus 20:3; Luke 10:27) Well before sinful deeds are exposed to people, our sinful hearts are exposed wide open to God. Jesus said, “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.” (Matthew 5:8) Our problem is “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately sick; who can understand it?” (Jeremiah 17:9) Because of the deceitfulness of our hearts, we cannot even honestly critique our own motives – “Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but the Lord weighs the heart.” (Proverbs 21:2) We are totally dependent on God. First, it is God, and God alone, who gives us a heart that even can love and to obey Him:

- Jeremiah 24:7 -- I will give them a heart to know that I am the Lord, and they shall be my people and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

- Ezekiel 11:19 -- And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh,

- Jeremiah 32:39 -- I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their own good and the good of their children after them.

- Jeremiah 32:40 -- And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me.

- Mark 6:52 -- for they did not understand... their hearts were hardened.

- Psalm 119:32 -- I will run in the way of your commandments when you enlarge my heart!

Then, only God can reveal to us, through the conviction of the Holy Spirit, the truth of our hearts:

- Psalm 139:23 -- Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts!

But we must remain receptive to the conviction of the Holy Spirit, and act on that conviction. It starts with a humble and contrite heart:

- Psalm 51:17 -- The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

- Lamentations 1:20 -- Look, O Lord, for I am in distress; my stomach churns; my heart is wrung within me, because I have been very rebellious.

- Isaiah 57:15 -- For thus says the One who is high and lifted up, who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: “I dwell in the high and holy place, and also with him who is of a contrite and lowly spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly, and to revive the heart of the contrite.

- Joel 2:12 -- “Yet even now,” declares the Lord, “return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning.”

Then, in complete reliance on God, we must diligently, relentlessly pursue love, holiness, righteousness, mercy, justice, obedience, purity, unity with God:

- Psalm 119:112 -- I incline my heart to perform your statutes forever, to the end.
- Ezekiel 18:31 -- Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel?
- King Rehoboam 2 Chronicles 12:14 -- And he [king Rehoboam] did evil, for he did not set his heart to seek the Lord.
- Ezra 7:10 -- For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the Lord, and to do it and to teach his statutes and rules in Israel.

The Bible says, "Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life. (Proverbs 4:23) We must put all of our effort into 'keeping' our hearts because everything flows from the heart. An important part of keeping our hearts is continually examining our hearts (again, empowered by the Holy Spirit). Today, Jesus points out again that the tongue is a great revealer of the condition of our hearts. Of course, the relationship between heart and tongue is repeated throughout the Bible. We are held accountable by God for every careless word that comes out of our mouths. Today, ask God to show you what your words say about the true condition of your heart.

18. Matthew 15:12-14 – Religious activities and good deeds that were not commanded by God are worthless.

19. Matthew 15:27-28 – Though focused on His mission, Jesus stopped to make time to minister to the needs of people not directly tied to His ultimate objective.

20. Matthew 15:32-34 – The disciples seem unable to learn from what they have already experienced with Jesus. Has your faith grown from what you have already experienced with Jesus? Can you trust Him because you know Him to be trustworthy?

21. Matthew 15:32-34 – The disciples seem unable to learn from what they have already experienced with Jesus. Has your faith grown from what you have already experienced with Jesus? Can you trust Him because you personally and powerfully know Him to be trustworthy from your real experiences with Him, not just from what you have read about Him or heard about Him from others? You cannot grow in faith if you don't walk in faith. Walking in faith requires walking beyond your own knowledge and capabilities that you might see Him work the impossible in your life, all for His glory rather than your desires.

DBRP- WEEK 3, Day 4, Thursday, 18 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=Gen+35%2C+36%3B+proverbs+18%3B+matthew+14>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 18 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 35:1, 2 – An encounter with God caused Jacob to seek holiness in his life and the lives of those around him.

2. Genesis 35:2 -- "Put away the foreign gods that are among you and purify yourselves." God demands total loyalty and purity from His people.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

3. Genesis 35:3 – “God... answers me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone.” Jacob had a life testimony based upon his personal experiences with God, a testimony he shared with others. What is your personal testimony, and how do you share it with others?

4. Genesis 35:4 – “So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods that they had, and the rings that were in their ears. Jacob hid them under the terebinth tree that was near Shechem.” Jacob’s people committed to get rid of their foreign gods but Jacob didn’t. He hid the idols which is certainly not the same as destroying the idols. Outwardly he looked pure, but in reality, his idols remained, waiting to influence in the future. The Latin of the word “decision” literally means, “to cut off” completely. Making a decision is about “cutting off” choices or removing possibilities from your life. Jacob made a “decision” but not really. He kept open the possibility of the idols remaining idols. When we repent, we must cut off completely whatever was impure or unholy in our lives. Don’t leave a door for sin to reenter into your heart.

5. Genesis 35:10 – “Israel” means, “He struggles with God,” and many believe that this name refers to when Jacob struggled with “a man” in Chapter 32. However, it seems from our readings that the name “Israel” applies to Jacob’s whole life as he struggles to transition from the “deceiver” to a godly person. Jacob struggles with his sin nature his whole life. Can you relate to that? Jacob/Israel relies solely on God’s mercy and grace. It is worthy to note once again, that the Bible reveals its main characters to be terrible sinners, not super heroes as would have been the case if the Bible were written by men. The Bible reveals the humble condition of man and the need for salvation through Jesus Christ.

6. Genesis 35:11 – God commands His people throughout the Bible to grow in numbers, regardless of the world situation.

7. Genesis 35:22 – “While Israel lived in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father’s concubine. And Israel heard of it.” Israel’s family was corrupt, in no small part due to Israel’s poor example and leadership. Israel seems to do nothing when his sons sin terribly. He did nothing when they slaughtered a town, and here he seems to do nothing when his son commits this abomination. Beyond being an unthinkable sin, Reuben’s action was a challenge to the headship of his father Israel. Reuben clearly had no respect for his father or his father’s authority.

8. Genesis 36 – The word of God, in careful detail, shows how He formed other nations from the lineage of Abraham and how the Edomites became divided from the Israelites. This history is important. Of note, Herod, who reigned over Jerusalem when Jesus was born on poverty, was an Edomite.

9. Proverbs 18:1 – “Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire.” Isolation is a form of self-centeredness and is contrary to love. Christianity is all about close relationships with God and with others.

10. Proverbs 18:2 – Listen

11. Proverbs 18:4 – “The words of a man’s mouth are deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is a bubbling brook.” There are countless ‘teachers’ out there, but wisdom is scarce. Let the Holy Spirit be your Counselor through the word of God.

12. Proverbs 18:12 -- “Before destruction a man’s heart is haughty, but humility comes before honor.” Most people cannot see their own destruction because they are blinded by pride.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Proverbs 18:13 – “If one gives an answer before he hears, it is his folly and shame.” Christians don’t interrupt. They don’t listen just to respond, they listen to understand.

14. Matthew 14:4 – John the Baptist lost his life ultimately because he challenged the adultery of a political leader. He called out sin. How boldly to Christians challenge sin today? In the face of a moral revolution (or revulsion), the church seems pretty quiet.

15. Matthew 14:6-12 – John the Baptist was called the greatest man who had lived by Jesus, yet John the Baptist died a very inglorious death by the hands of terrible sinners. How do you define life success? Do you need to do something “big”, important, or famed to feel successful? Many Christian who say, “What does God want me to do?” are really just not satisfied with what God has called them to do. What does God want you to do? Be faithful to Him today, right where He as placed you, regardless of what happens to you in the process. Perhaps no one will give you any credit – great! Your reward is in Heaven.

16. Matthew 14:7-9 – Rash promises bring sorrow.

17. Matthew 14:9 – Being sorry and repenting are two different things.

18. Matthew 14:16 -- “But Jesus said, ‘They need not go away; you give them something to eat’.” Jesus tasked the disciples to do what was clearly impossible for them. Yet, the disciples obeyed Jesus’s instructions and, as a result, experienced the power of God in a way they had never seen before. As Christians, we must learn to be uncomfortable in the realm of ‘impossible’ – this is the faith zone where we learn to rely on God rather than ourselves. This is where we see the power of God in our lives, where we grow in our relationship with God, and where God is glorified. God allows us to participate in His impossible tasks because He is always doing two things at once: strengthening our relationship with Him while glorifying Himself to the world – He does this by leaving no doubt that it was He at work. God is not trying to show the world what a bunch of really talented and committed Christians can do; He is showing the world His power through ordinary people like us. We say, “God would never ask me to do something I can’t do.” However, God is always asking us to do something we can’t do but for His mighty working. Look throughout the Bible and see how often God reveals Himself to the world through humble, obedient servants who are willing to step into the impossible, and God intentionally refuses to clear the path before His servant’s step. Noah had an impossible task; Abram had an impossible task; Moses had an impossible task; Jesus left the Apostles with an impossible task: disciple all nations. Those who refuse to step out into the impossible are like the tens of thousands of Gideon’s army who walked away from the 300 who were willing to step out in faith on an impossible mission and who personally witnessed God’s Mighty Hand at work. We are called to be witnesses. Witnesses report first-hand experience, not hearsay. If we refuse to operate in the faith zone, we miss out on what God is doing, we hinder our personal relationship with God, and we fail to fulfill our purpose in life. We have little of which to bear witness. What did Mordechai say to Esther? “For if you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father’s house will perish. And who knows whether you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?” (Esther 4:14) You were born for “such a time as this.” Even today, you will face seemingly small decisions that, for you, are like the Nile River, the Jordon River, a fiery furnace, a lion’s den, a mighty giant, an unstoppable army. Will you trust God to step into the impossible?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

19. Matthew 14:30, 31 – What is truly most real in your life, Jesus Christ or your apparent situation? Keep your eyes affixed on the person of Jesus Christ rather than the storms of life, and you will not sink. However, when you do doubt, Jesus will catch you.

20. Matthew 14:34-36 -- "And when they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. And when the men of that place recognized him, they sent around to all that region and brought to him all who were sick and implored him that they might only touch the fringe of his garment. And as many as touched it were made well." Don't miss this: Why did "the men of that place recognize Him"? Review Matthew 8:28-34. The first time Jesus had gone to the region, He healed a demon possessed man, and the people, in great fear, asked Him to leave. The demon possessed man begged to go with Jesus, but Jesus instructed him, "'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him." (Luke 8:39) By the time Jesus returned to the region, large crowds were ready to receive him. The formerly demon-possessed man apparently was a tremendous witness, preparing the way for the return of Jesus. Like the demon possessed man, you might prefer to just enjoy Jesus one-on-one, but also like the former demoniac, Jesus has commissioned you for more, to "declare how much God has done for you". When Jesus returns, how many will be eagerly awaiting Him because of your testimony?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 18 Jan 18: Today, truly listen to others empathetically. Don't just pretend to listen, and don't just listen for the things you want to hear or things that seem to validate your perspective. Don't listen merely for facts, determining whether you agree with what is being said while preparing your response. Don't listen impatiently where you believe you already understand what is about to be said and already have the answer (interrupting). Listen empathetically – seek to understand the person. Don't just listen to what is being said, seek to understand their perspective and what is behind their words. Listen for what is not being said. Slow down, be patient, talk less and listen more, repeat back what was said to ensure you don't overlook anything. Seek to understand before being understood. Listen in order to build relationship and to model the character of Jesus. (Proverbs 18:13)

DBRP- WEEK 3, Day 3, Wednesday, 17 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+33%2C+34%3B+proverbs+17%3B+mat+13>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 17 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 33:2 – "And he put the servants with their children in front, then Leah with her children, and Rachel and Joseph last of all." There was certainly no question who Jacob favored. Facing a threat, the last people Jacob wanted to see harmed was Rachel and Joseph. How do you think the rest of Jacob's family felt about that? As we read, watch and see how God responds to Jacob's favoritism.

2. Genesis 33:4 – "But Esau ran to meet him and embraced him and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept." Despite being the offended party, Esau took the initiative in reconciliation.

3. Genesis 33:9 – "But Esau said, 'I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself.'" It is far easier to be patient and kind when you have everything you need or when you are comfortable in your position. However, when people feel vulnerable or threatened, they are susceptible to attacking others. Contentment is an attitude that doesn't have to depend on external conditions. If you learn to be content in any situation, you will be in a good position to love others as you should.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Genesis 33:10 – “For I have seen your face, which is like seeing the face of God, and you have accepted me.” Guilt and fear can consume our lives. Jacob has spent most of his adult life essentially exiled and living in the shame of having deceived his brother. Esau’s welcoming of Jacob was like taking an enormous burden off of Jacob’s shoulders, a gift Jacob didn’t deserve, and to Jacob it was similar to the grace God bestows. How will your forgiveness affect others?

5. Genesis 33:16, 17 -- “So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir. But Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built himself a house and made booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.” Reconciliation is critical to a Christian. Reconciliation is a total forgiveness that restores two parties back to complete harmony or unity, back to the same quality of relationship that existed before any disagreement or divisive offense – no emotional barriers, perfect peace, fullness of relational joy. The Bible says, “For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.” (Romans 5:10) In this reconciliation, our trespasses were covered over, not counted against us. (2 Corinthians 5:19) Having been reconciled through Christ, Christians have subsequently been given the mission and purpose of reconciliation – “All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.” (2 Corinthians 5:18-20) To be worthy to carry the message of reconciliation, we must be reconciled in our own personal relationships. How important is this? Jesus said, “Leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.” (Matthew 5:24) Reconciliation requires five conditions: first, the offender must be repentant and humbly recognize the need for forgiveness; second, the offender must desire forgiveness and be willing to ask for forgiveness and/or receive forgiveness; third, the offended must be willing to forgive (truly forgive) the offender; fourth, the offender must TRULY believe and accept that he is forgiven; finally, the two must agree to return to their original relational conditions and activities (Amos 3:3 – “Do two walk together, unless they have agreed to meet?”). The primary stumbling block for most Christians is with the fourth condition – they don’t really BELIEVE that they are totally forgiven by God. Therefore, their relationship with God is still uncomfortable, lacking of the fullness of joy and blessings that are potentially available. There remains an elephant in the room. There remains a feeling of guilt and unworthiness that causes the believer to keep up emotional/spiritual barriers, to ‘hide in the garden’; to continually, awkwardly, and painfully seek to make up for what has already been nullified, to earn the forgiveness that has already been given, and/or to keep a more comfortable distance or go their separate way. We have all seen this in human relationship that ‘just weren’t the same’ after a major offense, despite the proclaimed forgiveness. The two that were once so close slowly drift apart. This is what we see happen with Jacob and Esau. Jacob was guilty and very fearful. It would appear that Esau was ready to forgive. However, Jacob could not trust in the forgiveness and politely went his separate way – the relationship was never fully restored; they never again experienced the joy and blessings of brotherhood. This is a sad story, given to us for a reason. To fulfill the Great Commandment and the second one like it, we must pursue genuine reconciliation in our relationships with God and other people respectively. With God, we must truly believe in and trust in (faith) our forgiveness and then return to our original relationship (serve and walk) with God without fear – “Enter into the joy of your master.” (Matthew 25:21) “These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.” (John 15:11) With other people, we must master forgiveness and graciousness. We must deny self and surrender our rights before others. We must be ready to receive persecution from others and to bear the burden of that offense upon ourselves. This is a big part of what it means to 'take up our cross'. How are your relationships, both with God and with others? Are you experiencing the fullness of joy that comes from reconciliation in all of your relationships? Do you fully forgive because you truly know that you are fully forgiven? Is the truth of Christ Crucified and Risen revealed in how you treat others? If not, "leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

6. Genesis 34:1 – "Now Dinah... went out to see the women of the land." Engaging the world is extremely dangerous. Because so much of the world seems so appealing, we can forget the destructive power of sin and to what extremes to godless can go. Some of the vilest people appear to be the 'nicest' people.

7. Genesis 34:5-12 – Shechem did a disgraceful thing and deeply offended Jacob's family, but Shechem apparently desired to make restitution and seek reconciliation – "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give." However, in their self-righteous indignation and anger for what happened to Dinah, the sons of Jacob sinned terribly against the House of Hamor. Their resentment resulted in great destruction and hatred that would last for generations to come.

8. Genesis 34:13 – "The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully, because he had defiled their sister Dinah." Jacob's sons returned sin for sin, resulting in the slaughter of many who had nothing to do with the original offense.

9. Genesis 34:13 – Jacob was a model of deceit for his children. What did you learn from your parents, and what habits are you teaching others?

10. Genesis 34:27-39 – "The sons of Jacob came upon the slain and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. They took their flocks and their herds, their donkeys, and whatever was in the city and in the field. All their wealth, all their little ones and their wives, all that was in the houses, they captured and plundered." Because of the sin of one person, the sons of Jacob slaughtered countless unsuspecting, peaceful bystanders. If we are not careful, we too can let our anger get out of hand and hurt the innocent around us. For example, strife between a mother and father hurts the children.

11. Genesis 34:30 -- Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, 'You have brought trouble on me by making me stink to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites. My numbers are few, and if they gather themselves against me and attack me, I shall be destroyed, both I and my household.'" Jacob was not as concerned about the spiritual significance of what his sons did as he was about the social impact. Jacob was only concerned about his own skin. You will see this character trait continue to play out as we read on.

12. Genesis 34:31 – The sons of Jacob put revenge ahead of justice and mercy, and they were willing to sin in order to get revenge and make a statement.

13. Proverbs 17:1 – "Better is a dry morsel with quiet than a house full of feasting with strife." Strife takes the joy out of everything.

14. Proverbs 17:1 -- What good are riches and resources if you can't enjoy them because your heart is not right?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

15. Proverbs 17:3 – “The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and the Lord tests hearts.” The Lord is testing your heart through your circumstances to see if you will remain loving and faithful. What you say about your situation reveals more about you than your situation. How does God test your heart? What is God revealing to you about your walk with Jesus?

16. Proverbs 17:5 – “He who is glad at calamity will not go unpunished.” Is there a part of you that is happy when offensive people suffer the consequences of their behavior, or do you pray that they will be driven to the comfort of Jesus? Jonah couldn’t stand the thought of God forgiving evil Nineveh. Do you ever feel that way?

17. Proverbs 17:6 – “Grandchildren are the crown of the aged.” God calls us to have plan for generations.

18. Proverbs 17:9 -- "He who covers over an offense promotes love, but whoever repeats the matter separates close friends." Gossip is contrary to your God-given mission of reconciliation and makes you an adversary of God.

19. Proverbs 17:14 – “The beginning of strife is like letting out water, so quit before the quarrel breaks out.” Just drop it – that is the Christian thing to do.

20. Proverbs 17:15 -- "Acquitting the guilty and condemning the innocent—the Lord detests them both." Personal forgiveness and civil accountability are two different things. You should personally forgive the criminal, but he still must be held accountable to society.

21. Proverbs 17:16 – “Why should a fool have money in his hand to buy wisdom when he has no sense?” There is a political theory that says that poverty (economic plight) and poor education is the cause of strife. However, the issue is the heart, and no amount of education or money can fix the heart.

22. Proverbs 17:19 – “Whoever loves transgression loves strife.” Strife is the product of sin. Avoid the love of transgression. When someone transgresses against you, don’t respond with transgression.

23. Proverbs 17:20 – “A man of crooked heart does not discover good.” Heart problems keep you from the fullness of God’s blessings.

24. Proverbs 17:27, 28 -- "A man of knowledge uses words with restraint, and a man of understanding is even-tempered. Even a fool is thought wise if he keeps silent, and discerning if he holds his tongue." Your temper and rash words reveal your spiritual immaturity and lack of Spirit-enabled self-control. All the Bible knowledge in the world and logical thinking can't hide this heart problem.

25. Matthew 13:1-15 – People will respond differently to God’s word, but we must spread it everywhere.

26. Matthew 13:12 – “For to the one who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.” To receive more truth from God, you must obey the truth you have already been given. If you won’t obey what God has already revealed to you, not only will you not receive more, even what you have will depart from your life. God will not allow you to stay where you are – you are either growing or withering.

27. Matthew 13:15 – “...understand with their heart.” Understanding comes from the heart, not from the head. You can have all the Bible ‘knowledge’ in the world but no understanding if God’s word doesn't change your heart. If God's word hasn't transformed your life, if it hasn't inspired you to fulfill the Great Commandment of love, you don't really understand and have only empty knowledge that is powerless.

28. Matthew 13:15 – “For this people's heart has grown dull.” Every time you hear God's word and neglect it, your heart grows dull, and you lose a bit more of your ability to hear from God in the future. You will still be able to study God's word, but less and less are you inclined to be changed by it.

29. Matthew 13:17 – “Many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.” Everyone of God's faithful in the Bible that you are reading about would have loved to have the opportunities that you have been given to know Jesus and to serve Him. The authority of Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit has been given to you as a priest and ambassador of Jesus to fulfill the Great Commission during a time when God's word is available to just about everyone, and the whole world can be reached due to technological advances. What are we doing in our age?

30. Matthew 13:18-23 – Which seed are you?

31. Matthew 13:18-23 – God does not expect all labors for Him to produce similar results or success.

32. Matthew 13:22 – “As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful.” Most Christians in America seem to fall into this category. So easily do we replace the Great Commission with the American dream. We are worried about so much, harried, busy, consumed. Too often, our Kingdom mission gets what little is left.

33. Matthew 13:28-30 – “So the servants said to him, ‘Then do you want us to go and gather them?’ But he said, ‘No, lest in gathering the weeds you root up the wheat along with them. Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, “Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.”’” Don't waste your time trying to figure out who isn't saved or really a Christian. Rather, spend your time making more disciples. God will separate the weeds from the flowers in His own time.

34. Matthew 13:33 -- “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened.” Your role as yeast is to slowly influence others. Like yeast, we slowly influence others, and eventually the Kingdom grows very large. You have no idea how much your small impact on others will produce tremendous results.

35. Matthew 13:44 – When we have truly discovered Jesus Christ, our joy is complete and nothing else matters, nothing else gives us greater joy. Our joy is complete in Him.

36. Matthew 13:46 – When we truly know Jesus Christ, giving up everything to follow Him is not a difficult thing to do but rather comes naturally. Everything else loses its value, and all that you have is dedicated to drawing closer to Him. If you are still hanging on to something, you need to work on your relationship with Jesus Christ.

37. Matthew 13:54 – Amazement is not faith.

38. Matthew 13:58 – A lack of faith robs us of God's blessings in our life.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 17 Jan 18: Consider what truly gives you joy more than Jesus. Consider what influences your daily decision-making more than Jesus. Consider what, if it were lost, would cause you to doubt God or love Him less joyfully. Whatever that thing is, it is an idol to you that ultimately robs you of the joy God desires for you, joy that can only be found in Jesus. Chances are, your idol is not necessarily a bad thing, rather your preference for it over God has made it a bad thing. Don't make that thing less important, make your relationship with God more important.

DBRP- WEEK 3, Day 2, Tuesday, 16 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+31%2C+32%3B+proverbs+16%3B+mat+12>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 16 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 31:3 – “Then the Lord said to Jacob, ‘Return to the land of your fathers and to your kindred, and I will be with you.’” To remain with God, Jacob had to go where God was leading. If Jacob had chosen to stay, if he had delayed, he would have remained outside of God’s plan for his life. What Jacob didn’t realize is that God was leading Jacob to a confrontation with Esau; He was leading Jacob back to the roots of Jacob’s deception. He was going to bring Jacob face to face with the reality of his infidelity. God had to deal with Jacob’s lack of integrity, and Jacob had to trust God through the process. When we know we have sinned terribly against another, the last thing we want to do is face them in our guilt, especially if we know they are resentful. When we know we have sinned terribly, the last thing we want to do is shed light on that sin, to expose it, to acknowledge it fully. However, unresolved sin and guilt is a barrier to relationships with God and with others and is a barrier to our spiritual growth. God doesn’t want us to carry that hidden burden but rather to surrender it to Him, to accept His total forgiveness and to walk in repentance and the confidence of His grace. We must no longer drag the chains of continued sin but must walk in the freedom of Jesus, in obedience to Him out of love. Jacob was still trapped in the sin and guilt of deception, and the consequences were closing in around him – Esau wanted to kill him, and he had worn out his welcome with Laban’s clan. God will lead him into crisis so he is forced to face the truth of himself, but more importantly, the truth of God’s love, mercy, and grace.
2. Genesis 31:5 -- “I see that your father does not regard me with favor as he did before. But the God of my father has been with me.” In your sin, others may be done with you, perhaps never being able to forgive you again, but God will not forsake you and will continue to draw you closer to Him. He will forgive, but He will also deal with your sin, but in love, always hoping to reconcile you to Him.
3. Genesis 31:6, 7 – “You know that I have served your father with all my strength, yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times. But God did not permit him to harm me.” In conflict with others, we tend to give ourselves more credit than we deserve and cast all the blame on others. We also tend to believe that God is on our side.
4. Genesis 31:9 – “God has taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.” God is in control of your future, not others. God knows what is happening to you and will intervene for His purposes and in His way to do what most brings glory to Him and best provides for you.
5. Genesis 31:14 – “Then Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, ‘Is there any portion or inheritance left to us in our father’s house?’” Rachel and Leah were motivated by self-preservation rather than simple obedience to God.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. Genesis 31:14-16 – “Then Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, ‘Is there any portion or inheritance left to us in our father’s house?... Now then, whatever God has said to you, do.’” Rachel and Leah’s decision follow God’s plan was based upon personal self-interest rather than love. They were willing to go because it made sense to them, not simply because it was what God directed. If we only obey instructions with which we agree, we will be disobedient, and our obedience won’t be virtuous. Jesus said, “If you love me, you will obey me,” but we are not perfected in love and disobey Him when we prefer what we want over what He wants. Obedience is hard because it goes against our desires. For example, abstaining from sex outside of the covenant marriage is not hard until it wars against our desires.

7. Genesis 31:19 – “Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel stole her father’s household gods.” This is a very revealing statement – not only can we see how deception and greed had been passed down to the next generation, we can also see that idolatry had been taught to the family. Here, the idolatry involved an actual idol; but idolatry is anything that threatens our fidelity to God. If in reality, you prioritize anything over God in your life, it is an idol. What idols have we passed to our children? See how God took the initiative to work in the lives of terribly sinful idolaters, unlikely suspects in God’s master plan. Through these people, God was revealing His righteousness, mercy, and grace as well as our total dependence on Him. He is teaching that we are all totally unworthy apart from Jesus. The only righteousness we can demonstrate in our lives is that of Jesus flowing through us, Christ in us being revealed in our surrender to Him.

8. Genesis 31:19, 20 – “Rachel stole her father’s household gods. And Jacob tricked Laban the Aramean, by not telling him that he intended to flee.” The Bible does not conceal the sins of its ‘heroes’ but records them for posterity. This transparency directs all glory to God and reveals His incredible mercy and grace. God calls us to be open and transparent concerning our sins in order to remove all pride from us and to direct all glory to Jesus Christ who saved us wretched creatures for the wrath of God which we deserve.

9. Genesis 31:22— “Jacob had fled.” Do you avoid relationships with certain people because of “what happened”? God has given us the mission of reconciliation. “If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.” (Romans 12:8) Living at peace doesn’t involve avoiding loving confrontation when there is no peace within your heart or theirs. Leaders take the lead in reconciliation and don’t just leave things unsettled. If reconciliation means you pay the price of their sin, then pay the price – it is a far less price than Christ paid for you when you didn’t deserve it.

10. Genesis 31:24 – God can influence the thoughts of your adversaries.

11. Genesis 31:31 – “Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.” Secret sins in marriage are highly destructive, ungodly, and prevent the two from truly becoming spiritually one.

12. Genesis 31:32 – “‘Anyone with whom you find your gods shall not live. In the presence of our kinsmen point out what I have that is yours, and take it.’ Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.” Concealed sins between husbands and wives not only divide their spirits, but the consequences can be catastrophic to the family. A marriage must be completely transparent that the two may truly be one and that real issues can be resolved as quickly as possible.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Genesis 31:36 – “Then Jacob became angry and berated Laban.” Be very careful in your ‘righteous’ indignation because in reality you are guilty.

14. Genesis 31:36-43 – An offense caused Jacob and Laban to rehash a long history of unresolved resentment between them. As always, this resentful review of history was unproductive and did not support reconciliation.

15. Genesis 31:42 – “God saw my affliction and the labor of my hands and rebuked you last night.” God can work on the hearts of your adversaries in ways that you can’t.

16. Genesis 31:44-55 – Jacob and Laban could not bring themselves to reconcile, which resulted in a broken family – tragic.

17. Genesis 31:50 – “God is witness between you and me.” Covenants, such as the marriage covenant, are promises before God that recognize God as the mediator. When we break a covenant, we invite God’s punishment into our lives.

18. Genesis 32:10 – Fear has a way of removing our pride and enabling us to see our true unworthiness. What added to Jacob’s fear and humility was that, deep inside, he knew he was guilty. Christians should not have pride issues because they realize that they are worthless sinners, deserving of no honor, who have been saved only by the blood of Jesus Christ.

19. Genesis 32:10 -- “I am not worthy.... Please deliver me....” God takes away all self-confidence that we might confide in Him, humble ourselves before Him, and depend upon Him.

20. Genesis 32:13-23 – In the face of danger, Jacob led from behind – not good. He was willing to sacrifice everyone before himself, though he was the one who had offended Esau.

21. Genesis 32:27 – Jacob’s wrestling match with God was a major turning point in his life where he came to terms with who he really was as a person. Jacob had lied about his identity to steal his blessings, and now as Jacob faced a perilous situation and struggled for a new blessing, God had one question for Jacob: “What is your name?” Jacob left Laban with defiant self-righteousness, but now Jacob was in a struggle with the Truth which was convicting him of his ungodly character. Jacob means deceiver. Jacob had to come to terms with the truth of his life. God brought him to this moment of honesty with himself. Repentance requires humbly admitting the truth of your sinfulness and surrendering to the mercy and grace of God. Only then was Jacob ready to be called Israel.

22. Genesis 32:28 – “Then he said, ‘Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with men, and have prevailed.’” With Jacob’s life transformation from God came a new name – no longer would he be known as the deceiver but rather Israel -- “Triumphant with God”, “who prevails with God”. Jacob [Israel] didn’t prevail against God in a wrestling match (in fact, he walked away with a permanent limp); he prevailed “with” God. He prevailed because of God, because God guided him through the greatest battle anyone will ever fight, the battle against self.

23. Genesis 32:29-30 – “Then Jacob asked him, ‘Please tell me your name.’ But he said, ‘Why is it that you ask my name?’ And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, saying, ‘For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life has been delivered.’” Do you know the name of the One with whom Israel wrestled, the One who left Israel marveling, having seen the “face of God”?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

24. Proverbs 16:1 – There is what you plan on doing and what God is really going to do with you. Best to conform to God’s plan for your life than to attempt to force your own plan. Joseph certainly did not plan on being a slave, but God had a greater plan.

25. Proverbs 16:2 – “All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the Lord weighs the spirit.” We all have a tendency to justify our actions, but God always knows the truth of the matter. Humility involves being willing to hold our actions accountable to God’s standards.

26. Proverbs 16:2 – God knows what you need far more than you do.

27. Proverbs 16:3 – “Commit your work to the Lord, and your plans will be established.” We were created to work for God. In the Garden of Eden, Adam and Eve had great joy in work, and all their work succeeded because they were doing exactly what God wanted and exactly what God wanted, with God and with each other. The creature has fulfillment when it is doing what it was created to do. However, Satan deceived Adam and Eve to begin working for themselves rather than God – nothing has been the same since. “See, this alone I found, that God made man upright, but they have sought out many schemes.” (Ecclesiastes 7:29) Work is not a consequence of sin; toilsome, frustrating work is. Why? Because we weren’t created or empowered to work for ourselves. God wants you to return to joyful, productive work by working for Him, rather than self, by seeking to contribute to the Kingdom of God rather than building your own kingdom, and by relying on His strength rather than your own strength, and trusting Him in His work rather than trusting in yourself. This isn’t doing the work you intend to do while saying you are doing it to honor God. This is turning your labors over to God completely, allowing Him to do whatever He will with you. The ball is completely in His court so-to-speak. Many Christians want to do what they want to do while saying they are seeking to honor God. It is like children who are given chores by their parents they don’t want to do, so they do easier chores and seek praise from their parents nonetheless only to hear the parent say, “That’s nice but not what I asked you to do.” If your work is joyless and unfulfilling, perhaps you are doing it for yourself rather than for God.

28. Proverbs 16:6 – “By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the Lord one turns away from evil.” The secret to overcoming sin is to truly know and love God and to truly appreciate His Majesty. If overcoming sin is your goal, you will fall short; if knowing God is your goal, sin is not an issue. Your force of will and determination will never be enough as long as your will is not truly compelled by selfless love for Him.

29. Proverbs 16:17 – “The highway of the upright turns aside from evil; whoever guards his way preserves his life.” A highway gets you where you need to go quickly and directly. Spiritual maturity doesn’t need to take as long as most people take. Some even take the wrong road and never actually get closer to the destination but, in fact, further away.

30. Proverbs 16:20 – “Whoever gives thought to the word will discover good, and blessed is he who trusts in the Lord.” Don’t just read the word, give true thought to the word and discover its goodness by trusting enough to obey it.

31. Proverbs 16:32 – “Whoever is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city.” The true measure of your leadership is not in your ability to control others but rather in your ability to control self. The foundation of your leadership is self-leadership, and the hardest thing to control is yourself. Self-control is one of the ‘fruits of the Spirit’ listed in Galatians 5. Self-control is really being Spirit controlled. If you lack self-control in any area of your life, it is a spiritual issue. America is more overweight than it has ever been before, but few consider this a spiritual issue. However, the Bible compares gluttony to sexual immorality, idolatry, sorcery, and drunkenness because all of these sins deal with a lack of self-control which is the result of a lack of Spirit empowered control.

32. Matthew 12:1 – “At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat.” Don’t miss this point: On mission with Jesus, the disciples were so hungry, they were plucking and eating heads of grain. They had no other food. They gave it all. That is full commitment and radical discipleship. They did not simply ‘spiritualize’ Jesus’ message to sell everything or leave everything they had to follow Him, they actually did it. They were all in. And while they were hungry, they were joyfully ministering to the needs of others. How do you treat others when you are hungry or don’t know where the next meal is coming from? Under what conditions do you start to lose your joy in ministry?

33. Matthew 12:2 – “But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, ‘Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.’” While Jesus and the disciples were living in poverty for the Gospel, the rich religious leaders could only criticize them in the name of religion. In complete discomfort while doing what is right, how do you respond to criticism and mistreatment from those who are clearly wrong and self-righteous? Do you get emotional and strike back at them, or do you graciously speak truth to them in pursuit of reconciliation?

34. Matthew 12:7 – “And if you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the guiltless.” The followers of the law who talked about godliness from a self-centered perspective criticized Jesus’s disciples who had truly surrendered themselves to Jesus and walked with Him in truth. While others practiced religion, the disciples obeyed Jesus wholeheartedly.

35. Matthew 12:7 – “And if you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the guiltless.” God wants people who truly follow Jesus, not those who just perform acts of religion as it suits them.

36. Matthew 12:8 – “For the Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath.” When you are truly with Jesus, you have Sabbath rest.

37. Matthew 12:10 -- “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?” People are always looking for excuses to not show the love and mercy to others that God requires, and often, they will use religion or misapplied, out of context, Bible verses to justify their hard-heartedness.

38. Matthew 12:11, 12 – God’s laws can only be rightly applied from the context of love. When we approach God’s laws in a self-centered, self-serving, and self-righteous way, we will apply them inappropriately. Justice, mercy, and grace go together, and only the Spirit can reveal how to rightly apply both together.

39. Matthew 12:14 – “But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how to destroy him.” Often Christians are more persecuted from within the ‘church’ than from outside the church.

40. Matthew 12:15, 16 – “And many followed him, and he healed them all and ordered them not to make him known.” Jesus performed real miracles, not trying to bring attention to Himself, but many false prophets have performed and still perform fake miracles in order to bring attention to themselves.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

False teachers are always telling others about themselves while using the name of Jesus merely to validate their goodness.

41. Matthew 12:18 -- “I will put my Spirit upon him.” Matthew 12 contrasts the Spirit-filled life with the religious, works-based life (as Jesus opposes the Pharisees and their teachings). First, the Pharisees challenge the legality of the disciples eating grain on the Sabbath. Why were the disciples eating grain? Because they were famished. Anyone who has ever plucked heads of grain by hand knows how difficult it is to get your fill that way – this signals real hunger. Why were the disciples so hungry? Because they had completely depleted themselves healing and preaching the kingdom. Jesus had just previously sent them out under his authority to “freely give” to the “lost sheep of Israel” with instructions not to take along any provisions. He had sent them out “like sheep among wolves.” (Matthew 10) Jesus told them, “He who receives you receives me.” Relying on the hospitality of the homes and towns visited, the disciples returned famished (unsupported); meanwhile, the Pharisees, from their positions of comfort, wealth, and self-righteousness, studied the Scriptures like legal documents or text books looking for a way to condemn those who were actually doing the will of God. By reminding the Pharisees of when David ate the consecrated bread, he is also indirectly placing the Pharisees in the position of Saul who chased David and killed the priests of the Lord (1 Samuel 22). Remember, Saul was the king of Israel by legal authority, but he had lost his morale authority and anointing by God; whereas David lacked earthly authority as king but had the anointing of God. Likewise, the Pharisees were the recognized, positional leaders of the ‘church’ but lacked the authority of the KING. While the Pharisees attempted to use their religious knowledge to justify themselves before men, Jesus used the power of God to heal, revealing the truth of his faith and displaying the mercy and grace of the Father so that the Father would be glorified. (Matthew 12:9-14) The Pharisees not only lacked the authority of God, they lacked a genuine heart for God, the Spirit of God, and therefore, the power of God. In fact, Jesus said to the Pharisees, “You know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God.” (Matthew 22:29) Jesus describes the Pharisees as empty houses, “swept, and put in order,” more appealing to homeless unclean spirits than those who are not self-righteous legalists. Their good works were motivated by the flesh, not by the Spirit; so, they actually worked against the plan of God, and scattered what was to be gathered – “Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.” Jesus ends the chapter with the proof of a Spirit-led, true disciple: “Whoever does the will of my Father in heaven.”

42. Matthew 12:22 – “A demon-oppressed man who was blind and mute was brought to him.” Let’s not lose sight of the fact that this man was demon-oppressed when he was brought to Jesus – he was unclean. Subconsciously, we are often tempted to set conditions on who we are willing to share Jesus with, as if some are not good enough to hear about Jesus. We might not be as compelled to share Jesus with someone who has offended us or whose lifestyle offends us. In this account, the man had no ability, apart from the Holy Spirit, to accept Jesus, yet others brought him to Jesus in hope. Who will you bring to Jesus?

43. Matthew 12:28 – “But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.” Wherever God is, there is the Kingdom. If you have the Holy Spirit within you, you are part of the Kingdom and bring the Kingdom wherever you go. Much like a US ship on international waters is considered US sovereign territory, you are God’s sovereign territory, and attack on you is an attack on the Kingdom of God.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

44. Matthew 12:30 – “Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.” Jesus forces everyone to decision – you are either all in or not in at all. You are either working with God or against Him. All of your ‘good deeds’ done in any name other than the name of Jesus are offering people an ‘answer’ other than Jesus. If you are not clearly pointing them to Jesus, you are not really helping them.

45. Matthew 12:34 – “You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.” First, note that Jesus did not mince words here, nor was He gentle. Jesus spoke very harshly to the self-righteous. Second, note that you can know and preach the Bible without knowing Jesus and leading others to Him. People don’t need to see your goodness or learn knowledge from you, they need Jesus.

46. Matthew 12:34-37 – Your words reveal your heart.

47. Matthew 12:36 – “People will give account for every careless word they speak.” Careless words, within the context of this chapter, involve speaking the truth with an untruthful heart, speaking the truth but not living the truth – You know God’s words, but in practice, you couldn’t ‘care-less’. You must walk your talk. When we speak the truth but don’t live it, our own words condemn us. (v37)

48. Matthew 12:39 -- “An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign.” Those that need a sign do not have the heart to accept the truth of God they have already seen, and no amount of evidence will be enough because the problem is not proof, it is the heart.

49. Matthew 12:39-42 – People who won’t respond to what they already know about God should not expect any additional revelation from God.

50. Matthew 12:41 – “The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.” Jesus Himself stood face-to-face with them, yet they could not see Him. Jesus is the Truth that is self-evident. If a person cannot see Him, they don’t desire to see Him.

51. Matthew 12:43-45 – Heaven forbid we would repent of our sins and accept forgiveness through the blood of Jesus Christ only to return to our sin. When we demonstrate this sort of callousness, we fall much deeper into sin.

52. Matthew 12:48-50 – The family of God are the followers of God.

53. Matthew 12:50 – “For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.” Relationship with Jesus is based upon obedience.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 16 Jan 18: Today, seek to share Jesus with those you might think would be the least likely to accept Him. Look for those who among the seemingly unlikely who do not scoff but listen. (Matthew 12:22)

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 15 Jan 18

1. Genesis 29:25 – “Why then have you deceived me?” Another theme you see throughout the Bible is that God often allows people to be treated the same way they treat others. Jacob deceived others, and now he is the victim of deceit. Ironically, the deception he committed was very similar to what he experienced – both involving misrepresentation.
2. Genesis 29:26 – “Laban said, ‘It is not so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn.’” Another theme throughout the Bible is a warning not to confuse traditions, customs, social norms, or even morality (what society says is right and wrong) with God’s commands and will. Colossians 2:8 says, “See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary principles of the world, rather than according to Christ.” Laban followed worldly principles over what he should have done, and it would contribute to the breakup of his family.
3. Genesis 29:30 – “So Jacob went in to Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah, and served Laban for another seven years.” Jacob’s polygamy caused great pain and suffering which would have an impact for generations. God’s plan for marriage is that one man and one woman would marry, become “one” in spirit, and raise up godly children, passing faith from generation to generation. (see Malachi 2:13-16)
4. Genesis 29:35 -- “‘This time I will praise the Lord.’ Therefore she called his name Judah.” Only God can fill the love void in your heart. People cannot fulfill your need for love that only God can give.
5. Genesis 29:35 – Ultimately, God would settle the matter between Rachel and Leah -- Leah is in Jesus’ lineage, not Rachel.
6. Genesis 30:1 – Envy is a very powerful emotion that can cause a person to do terrible things to others as the Bible warns from beginning to end. In envy, Cain killed Abel, and envy was behind the crucifixion of Jesus. Envy is a form of hate that is outwardly directed at other but inwardly is a deep resentment of God because God gave someone something that you think you deserve instead. Envy comes from deep within your heart. The Bible says, above all else, guard your heart. You cannot address what you are not willing to be honest about. Search your heart diligently for any envy. As God said to Cain, “Sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is contrary to you, but you must rule over it.” (Gen 4:7)
7. Genesis 30:24 – Receiving God’s blessing brings expectation and faith in God’s future provision and blessings.
8. Genesis 30:25 – Jacob constantly makes plans with no reference to God’s leadership. (See also Gen 25:23)
9. Genesis 30:42 – “So the feebler would be Laban’s, and the stronger Jacob’s.” Jacob became wealthy at Laban’s success. He was a conniver with a grudge, and he further contributed to family divisions.
10. Proverbs 15:1 -- “A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.” Christians should be masters at handling conflict and bringing out the best in people. Our mission is reconciliation, and we are God’s priests on earth. How well do you handle difficult people?
11. Proverbs 15:8 – “The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright is acceptable to him.” Don’t let unrepentant sin stand in the way of your prayers.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

12. Proverbs 15:11 – “Sheol and Abaddon lie open before the Lord; how much more the hearts of the children of man!” God knows everything about your heart, far more than you do. Pray that God will expose your heart to you and create in you a pure heart that loves Him wholeheartedly.

13. Proverbs 15:12 – “A scoffer does not like to be reproved; he will not go to the wise.” Scoffers despise Christians who call for repentance.

14. Proverbs 15:16 – “Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble with it.” Jacob got it all along with great trouble. Better he had simply waited upon the Lord and received it all without sorrow. Getting all that you want is never a blessing unless all that you want is Jesus.

15. Proverbs 15:19 – “The way of a sluggard is like a hedge of thorns.” Laziness prevents us from achieving all that we could.

16. Matthew 11:2 – Even John the Baptist had moments of doubt. Concerning John the Baptist, Jesus said there was no greater man born of woman. Don’t be surprised by your doubt, Jesus isn’t. We are all like the man who said to Jesus, “I believe; help me my unbelief.” (Mark 9:24) Your sanctification involves growing in your faith, which only happens through challenges. Stepping out in faith is hard – it requires trust. Trust requires “knowing” Jesus – the more you know Him, the more you love Him and trust Him. Jesus said, that the path (and proof) of loving Him is obedience, which will require you do often do what you don’t want to do. The more you are willing to “trust and obey” the more the faithfulness of God is revealed, and the more your faith grows that you will be willing to take another step forward in faith and closeness to Jesus. Trust and obey!

17. Matthew 11:4, 5 – Miracles are not primarily for those who are blessed by them but rather for the purpose of bringing glory to God.

18. Matthew 11:11 – Jesus acknowledged the fidelity of John the Baptist but did not save John from physical death. God does not remove life’s challenges from our lives. He walks with us through them and draws us closer to Him in an eternal love relationship.

19. Matthew 11:11 – “Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.” John’s ministry on earth only lasted about six months, and he gladly watched most of his disciples leave him to follow Jesus; then he was wrongly accused, imprisoned, and executed. While some might call him a flash in the pan, Jesus said that John was greater than all the Bible greats – Noah, Moses, Elijah, David, etc. Beyond this surprising statement, Jesus goes on to say that you and I can do even greater things than John the Baptist – we have the Holy Spirit within us, and the authority of Jesus Christ. Our mission is the same mission John the Baptist had – to proclaim Jesus. John gave it all he had for six months and received Jesus’ highest compliment. What will you do in your day?

20. Matthew 11:12 -- “From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force.”

- This unusual statement made by Jesus appears to be related to two other verses:

-- Luke 16:16: The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone forces his way into it.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

-- Matthew 23:13: But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. For you neither enter yourselves nor allow those who would enter to go in.

- The Greek for 'suffered violence' is 'biazō', meaning, 'to force, crowd, or press oneself into'. The Greek for 'the violent' is 'biastēs', meaning, 'the forcer' or figuratively, 'the energetic'. I believe that when Jesus speaks of the violent taking the kingdom of heaven by force, he is talking about the total commitment of the true believer who puts everything on the line for heaven and presses towards to kingdom with all of their might, even at the price of their lives. In Matthew 11, this verse marks a contrast between the attitude of John the Baptist (not a wind-blown reed in soft clothing) and the majority of his generation who act like children in the marketplace playing games. (Matthew 11:16) Jesus then announces 'woe' to the unrepentant cities. (Matthew 11:20-24) In Luke 16, Jesus talks about those who force their way into the kingdom after a discussion on wholehearted commitment – "One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much.... No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money." (Luke 16:10-13) Immediately following Luke 16:16, Jesus says, "But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void." Finally, in Matthew 23:13, when Jesus proclaims 'woe' to the Pharisees for attempting to "shut the kingdom of heaven in people's faces", he is condemning those who use religion to exalt themselves above others and who maintain the appearance of godliness but whose hearts are selfish and unloving; these do not enter the kingdom themselves because they have not truly committed in their hearts to God but rather are serving the master of self. Jesus' message is that the true Christian is all-in, fully, wholeheartedly committed. This is serious business – "Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple." (Luke 14:27-33) Are we children playing in the streets or are we warriors?

21. Matthew 11:17, 18 – People come up with a million reasons why they don't accept Jesus and follow Him, but the truth to Jesus is self-evident.

22. Matthew 11:19 – Jesus led a joyful lifestyle, though at times he went with absolutely nothing, had no place to call home, and continually challenged the hypocrites. His joy came from His relationship with the Father.

23. Matthew 11:20 – Jesus expected repentance.

24. Matthew 11:20-26 – God has given men all the evidence they need to believe in Jesus. It is a heart issue, not an intellectual issue that separates men from the Truth.

25. Matthew 11:27 – If you don't know Jesus, you don't know God. There is only one way to God – Jesus Christ.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

26. Matthew 11:28-30 – “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” If Christianity exhausts you then you are practicing religion rather than enjoying a relationship. There is a greater exhaustion beyond physical exhaustion – emotional and spiritual exhaustion. Sleep and temporary sabbatical will not rejuvenate your soul – you must find rest in Jesus. Jesus was essentially homeless, always on the go, and often with very little to eat. He often prayed throughout the entire night, and He rarely had any privacy. He also faced relentless opposition. However, He was at peace. He wasn’t grumpy, didn’t complain about not having enough time in the day, didn’t complain about being underappreciated, didn’t complain about being treated unfairly, and didn’t go into self-pity mode. He was a beacon of peace, joy, and rest. In the midst of it all, He received the rest and strength that could come only from the Father. If you are weary, find rest in Jesus.

27. Matthew 11:28-30 – Those who know Jesus can be recognized by the peace that they have which transcends understanding, a peace that makes them gentle, humble, and calm. How do people see the impact of Jesus Christ on your life?

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 15 Jan 18: Today, consider what is robbing you of joy and peace and surrender it to Jesus. Walk with Jesus and have peace in your soul. (Matthew 11:28-30)

DBRP- WEEK 2, Day 7, Sunday, 14 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+27%2C+28%3B+proverbs+14%3B+psalm+5%2C+6>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 14 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 27:1-10 – Rebekah and Jacob sinned against family to steal the blessings God had already promised. Christians often sin when they think they have to make God’s promises happen through their own efforts.
2. Genesis 27:13 – Family members become idols when we put them ahead of God.
3. Genesis 27:13 – “His mother said to him, ‘Let your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, bring them to me.’” Rebekah led her child into sin against God while rashly and flippantly calling the curse upon herself, but God holds all accountable for their part in sin – Jacob would not be able to blame his mother. Also, Rebekah's willingness to shield her son from the punishment of sin would not protect his character from being corrupted and tarnished from sin -- you can't handle filth and not get filthy. She may have thought that she was acting in Jacob's favor by securing his earthly prosperity through deception, but in reality, she was contributing to his separation from God and his potential downfall. As the saying goes, "When someone loses their fortune, they have lost nothing; when someone loses their health, they have lost something; but when a person loses their character, they have lost everything." Ironically, they were trying to steal what God had already promised. Sin will never bring us closer to our goal, and we cannot have what God has not given without a curse.
4. Genesis 27:18, 19 – “‘Who are you, my son?’ Jacob said to his father, ‘I am Esau your firstborn.’” Pay attention: The culminating point in Jacob’s life will be when God challenges Jacob with a similar question -- “What is your name?”, another way of saying, “Who are you?”. Jacob’s life and character will be defined by deceit until Jacob wrestles with God and changes the course of his life. In big or small ways, people often live a lie, trying to be something God never intended them to be or trying to do things God never intended or in ways God never intended. You will never be who you are supposed to be until you humble yourself completely before God, own the truth of you, and live the truth of Jesus.

5. Genesis 27:20 -- "Because the Lord your God granted me success." Jacob was so deep in sin that he even claimed that God had supported him. He not only misrepresented himself, he also misrepresented God. Many people use religion to deceive other people about their sins.

6. Genesis 27:26 -- "Come near and kiss me, my son." The kiss was a deep form of intimacy and trust. Jacob defied all trust in his deceit and demonstrated complete callousness. Similarly, Judas betrayed Jesus with a kiss. A sinner is completely untrustworthy even to those closest to them.

7. Genesis 27:41 -- "Now Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him, and Esau said to himself, 'The days of mourning for my father are approaching; then I will kill my brother Jacob.'" Proverbs says, "The blessing of the Lord makes rich, and he adds no sorrow with it." (Proverbs 10:22) We add the sorrows through our sin and unfaithfulness. Jacob's blessing had already been promised by God at Jacob's birth -- "The older shall serve the younger." (Genesis 25:23) However, Jacob could not wait for and trust in God's timing and God's ways to bring about that blessing. He thought he could steal what had already been promised and gifted to him by God. Therefore, Jacob induced many unnecessary sorrows for himself and many others. He could not enjoy his blessings but rather lived fearfully and painfully. God says, "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope." (Jeremiah 29:11) Jesus says, "Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." (Matthew 11:28-30) However, when Jesus taught throughout the cities, villages, and synagogues, he observed that the people were "harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd." (Matthew 9:36) Solomon observed, "See, this alone I found, that God made man upright, but they have sought out many schemes." (Ecclesiastes 7:29) Too many Christians are living fearful, painful, harassed, and helpless lives, unable to enjoy God's blessings because they have "sought out many schemes" -- attempting to earn what has been given to them by grace, and pursuing many worldly goals that God never intended them to pursue. They have denied themselves the restful soul, the light burden, and the peace that transcends understanding by choosing to live by the flesh, by seeking personal kingdoms rather than the Kingdom of God, and by getting caught up in the worries of the world. Though they have the Good Shepherd, they live as "sheep without a shepherd" because they are not following the Shepherd but rather wandering off on their own paths (often in the name of the Shepherd) expecting the Shepherd to follow them and continue to bless them along their way. Though they have full access to the Living Water that takes away all thirst, they have instead "hewed out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that can hold no water." (Jeremiah 2:13) Therefore, they live in dry lands and thirst needlessly. Are you harassed today? Did your 'blessings' come with sorrows? Perhaps you have loaded unnecessary burdens upon yourself by doing things your way for your purposes rather than denying yourself, taking up your cross, and following Jesus. Perhaps in some areas of your life you are a builder laboring in vain. (Psalm 127:1) Do you feel like there is not enough time in the day to do all the things you need to do? Well, God has given you all the time you need to do all the things He wants you to do without losing your joy and peace. If you find that you have drifted away from the Good Shepherd, return to him in your weariness, and he will give you rest (and don't try to earn what he has given you or it won't be restful).

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

8. Genesis 27:41 -- "The days of mourning for my father are approaching; then I will kill my brother Jacob." Just like the story of Cain and Abel, hate, jealousy, bitterness, and un-forgiveness caused one brother to want to kill another. Interestingly, Herod who sought kill Jesus, was an Edomite, perhaps fulfilling the prophecy in verse 40.
9. Genesis 28:1 – God intends for His people to marry other followers of Christ.
10. Genesis 28:3 – God intends for His people to multiply and become great communities in Christ.
11. Genesis 28:4 – Throughout the Bible God's earthly blessings include children, land, His presence, and His provision.
12. Genesis 28:8, 9 – "So when Esau saw that the Canaanite women did not please Isaac his father, Esau went to Ishmael and took as his wife, besides the wives he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth." Esau's resentment towards his family drew him deeper into sin, further away from God, and closer to the ungodly world.
13. Genesis 28:15 – "Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." Despite his deceitfulness, God continued to bless Jacob based upon God's integrity, not Jacob's. Aren't we all grateful that God's fidelity does not depend upon our fidelity? God will discipline Jacob, but He won't abandon Jacob.
14. Genesis 28:16 -- "Surely the Lord is in this place, and I did not know it." Christians are filled with the Holy Spirit, and God is at work all around us, but many Christians cannot perceive His presence. Can you?
15. Genesis 28:20, 21 – "Then Jacob made a vow, saying, 'If God will be with me and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and clothing to wear, so that I come again to my father's house in peace, then the Lord shall be my God.'" Is your fidelity to God conditional, based upon His blessings to you? Does God have to do something for you before you will obey Him and follow Him? Pray for a love for God that doesn't depend upon His blessings, that doesn't change in good times or bad times.
16. Genesis 28:22 – "And of all that you give me I will give a full tenth to you." The principle of tithing is found throughout the Bible, but in tithing, we must never forget that it is all God's.
17. Proverbs 14:2 -- "Whoever walks in uprightness fears the LORD, but he who is devious in his ways despises him." Your actions reveal what you really think about God.
18. Proverbs 14:4 -- "Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean, but abundant crops come by the strength of the ox." What is your ox? Have you invested in the capacity to produce, or have you only invested in products that do not add a capacity to produce more for you? Many people buy cars, but few people buy the factories that make the cars. Many people play video games, but few people build and sell video games. What do you produce?
19. Proverbs 14:34 -- "Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." Revival is the only hope for our nation. It must start with the church; it must start with you.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

20. Psalm 5:3 – “O Lord, in the morning you hear my voice; in the morning I prepare a sacrifice for you and watch.” Start your day the right way, rededicating yourself to God, and then keep your eyes open to see what God is doing, prepared to join Him in His activity. One of the best things you could do this year is commit to beginning every day with prayer and Bible study.

21. Psalm 5:4 – “For you are not a God who delights in wickedness; evil may not dwell with you.” Don’t let sin hinder your relationship with God. He can forgive your sin, but He cannot tolerate it. He cannot bless sin. God hates sin. He will deal with it.

22. Psalm 5:5 – God does hate some people.

23. Psalm 5:7 – “But I, through the abundance of your steadfast love, will enter your house.” We can approach God because of His steadfast love, not because of our own merit. We are unworthy apart from Jesus who covers us over with His righteousness.

24. Psalm 5:8 – “Lead me, O Lord, in your righteousness because of my enemies; make your way straight before me.” We cannot know the way; we must be led by the Holy Spirit. Only God can make our way straight.

25. Psalm 5:11 – “But let all who take refuge in you rejoice.” Taking refuge in God requires obedience to Him.

26. Psalm 6:1 – “O Lord, rebuke me not in your anger, nor discipline me in your wrath.” This is what we want from God; are we willing to give this type of grace to others?

27. Psalm 6:8, 9 – “Depart from me, all you workers of evil, for the Lord has heard the sound of my weeping. The Lord has heard my plea.” When persecuted, don’t try to take matters into your own hands. Turn to the Lord, and wait on Him to deliver you. God will hear your prayer and do only what is very best. Again, you cannot know what is very best from your very limited perspective and understanding. God knows what you cannot know. God can do what you cannot do. When you try to act from your perspective, you only add to sin and make matters worse. Be patient and persevere through persecution. Trust and obey and watch what God will do. When He sees you through, you will grow in faith and have more strength to follow Him than you did before.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 14 Jan 18: Focus on following God’s lead today. Don’t just act – pray and wait. When in doubt, test your thoughts with the standard of God’s word before you act. Obey what you know, and continue to pray for more insight. Be very careful not to act on emotions or ‘common sense’. Remember, feelings are often very misleading. Gut feelings and intuition can be very valuable, but only where they are aligned with God’s word. God will never lead you into sin or ask you to do ‘good’ things in bad ways. (Psalm 5:1-8)

DBRP- WEEK 2, Day 6, Saturday, 13 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+25%2C+26%3B+proverbs+13%3B+psalm+4>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Saturday, 13 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 25:1, 5, 6 – “Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah.... Abraham gave all he had to Isaac. But to the sons of his concubines Abraham gave gifts, and while he was still living he sent them away from his son Isaac, eastward to the east country.” Abraham caused immeasurable strife in the world by having multiple wives, concubines, and children outside of his monogamous marriage. Note that Abraham did not treat his children equally.

2. Genesis 25:16 – “These are the sons of Ishmael and these are their names, by their villages and by their encampments, twelve princes according to their tribes.” It is very interesting that there were 12 tribes of Israel and also twelve tribes of Ishmael.

3. Genesis 25:28 – “Isaac loved Esau because he ate of his game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.” Favoritism tears families apart. Favoritism also causes parents to overlook the character problems developing in the favored child.

4. Genesis 25:29-34 – Esau had no self-control, sacrificing his future for instant gratification, a bowl of stew. Today, many people sacrifice their futures for a ‘pot of stew’ – they sacrifice their health for bad vices, their financial future for temporary luxuries, etc. The pot of stew equates to lacking the personal self-discipline or self-control to deny self in the short term for the sake of long-term reward. Do you have a ‘pot of stew’ in your life? If so, learn from this story.

5. Genesis 26:6-10 – Isaac learned how to lie from his dad Abraham. (see Gen 20, 21)

6. Genesis 26:14 – Your blessings will make others jealous.

7. Genesis 26:34, 35 – “When Esau was forty years old, he took Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite to be his wife, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and they made life bitter for Isaac and Rebekah.” Esau was motivated by his passions rather than a heart of obedience. The same character he displayed when he sold his birthright was reflected in his relationships.

8. Proverbs 13:3 -- Rash words can ruin you.

9. Proverb 13:5 -- The righteous will desire obedience.

10. Proverbs 13:8 -- It can be freeing to have nothing left to lose.

11. Proverbs 13:13 – “Whoever despises the word brings destruction on himself, but he who reveres the commandment will be rewarded.” God’s word is not hard to understand. What a person does with God’s word determines consequences.

12. Proverbs 13:16 – Always decide rationally rather than emotionally.

13. Proverbs 13:20 – Choose your friends carefully. Wisdom is a journey. Walk with the wise and become wise.

14. Proverbs 13:25 -- The wise know how to be content in any situation. The wicked are never satisfied.

15. Psalm 4:4 – “Be angry, and do not sin; ponder in your own hearts on your beds, and be silent. Selah. Offer right sacrifices, and put your trust in the Lord.” There is a right way to handle anger, and it involves silence, meditation, prayer, and worship.

16. Psalm 4:4 -- “Ponder in your own hearts on your beds, and be silent. Selah.” The Christian life is to be lived “on purpose”, intentionally striving to accomplish God’s purpose for our lives, in accordance with His intent. While the Bible has much to say about the importance of planning in life, Jesus explains that successful execution of the 'plan' is accomplished one day at a time, making the most of every opportunity that is placed in front of us:

- "Therefore, do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble." (Matthew 6:34)
- "Come now, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and make a profit' — yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring.'" (John 4:13, 14)
- "Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring." (Proverbs 27:1)
- "Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time [every opportunity], because the days are evil." (Ephesians 5:15, 16)

While we can and should plan, one of our major challenges is that we don't know the details of the plan, only the ultimate end state. It's God's plan, not ours, and our thoughts could not be farther than His thoughts; also, we can see in the Bible that God always takes His servants off of their intended course to accomplish His plan in His ways.

- "The heart of man plans his way, but the Lord establishes his steps." (Proverbs 16:9)
- "A man's steps are from the Lord; how then can man understand his way?" (Proverbs 20:24)

God's command to Abram was "Go... to the land that I will show you." (Genesis 12:1) So, when you don't know where you are going, the key is to stay close to the leader. "Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man." (Ecclesiastes 12:13) When we drift from God's intended trajectory for our lives, this is called "sin", a word taken from marksmanship which means, "to miss the mark". Expert marksmen know a counter-intuitive secret to shooting that makes them far superior to the rest: the expert marksman does not focus his eye on the target but rather on his front sight — the sight (the thing closest to him) is very clear (the clearer the better the shot), but the target is very blurry. The marksman need only be concerned that the very clear sight has a very blurry target behind it. Then he applies the other fundamentals of properly releasing the round as not to move the sights from their intended location. This rather uncomfortable approach to shooting always produces amazing results. It is no accident that the Bible uses "sin" to describe what causes us to "miss the mark". We make the amateur mistake of trying to see the target clearly while allowing our sights to get blurry — a guaranteed miss. As Christians, what we must see VERY clearly is Jesus Christ in our lives, revealed through our lives TODAY. Our eyes must be fixed upon Jesus as we follow the lead of the Holy Spirit in all that we think, say, and do today, walking as Jesus would walk, making his appeal to the world for him through the power of the Holy Spirit and under his authority. To that end, the disciple has some very basic daily habits or fundamentals of good 'marksmanship' such as Bible study, prayer, and fellowship. However, another very important, often overlooked, daily habit of discipleship is humble, Spirit-led assessment. At the end of the day, we must receive our debrief from the Holy Spirit on how well we lived the day to God's glory. How well did we deny self, take up our cross (proclaim Christ in word and deed), and follow Jesus? How well did we produce the fruit of the spirit — love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control? Did we succeed at making ourselves slaves to Christ and servants to all others? Did we consider everyone else's needs above our own? Did we directly communicate the Good News of Jesus Christ (rather than just hinting at it) to all those around us? Did we forgive and seek forgiveness while on our mission of reconciliation? Note from our verse today that as we consider our day's activities and decisions, the Holy Spirit will convict us about the condition of our hearts that produced those actions. It is always a heart problem and a love problem. Even our outwardly good deeds may be burst into flames by the conviction of the Holy Spirit which reveals the selfish motivations behind them. Honest daily assessment with repentance and confidence in Grace will bring us a brighter day tomorrow, one day at a time – "But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day." (Proverbs 4:18) The assessment process IS NOT a time to wallow in guilt, get frustrated, or quit striving. One of the key attributes of discipleship is persevering, working through mistakes and challenges. Countless people have taken piano lessons, but very few people are concert pianists. Why? Because most get frustrated at their constant mistakes and quit practicing, happy to tinker around on occasion, perhaps at parties – no perseverance required. Let's make beautiful music unto the Lord through daily, persistent habits of discipleship which include ending each day quietly in our beds pondering our hearts.

17. Psalm 4:6 – "There are many who say, 'Who will show us some good? Lift up the light of your face upon us, O Lord!' All goodness comes from the Lord. People will always let you down, but God never will.

18. Psalm 4:8 – "In peace I will both lie down and sleep; for you alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety." You will only find peace in Jesus. Peace on Earth only becomes a reality when Jesus is present. When you trust in Jesus with all your heart, you will have peace in any situation. You will be able to rest peacefully in the back of the boat while it is being tossed about by the storms and while everyone else says, "We perish".

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 13 Jan 18: Consider your "bowls of soup", those places in life where you lack adequate self-control. Remember that self-control is a fruit of the Spirit, not merely will power; pray for greater self-control; and instead of focusing on the soup, focus on Jesus. (Gen 25:29-34)

DBRP- WEEK 2, Day 5, Friday, 12 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+23%2C+24%3B+proverbs+12%3B+mat+10>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 12 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 23:2 -- God's ways do not protect His people from normal griefs and losses in life.
2. Genesis 23:6 -- "Hear us, my lord; you are a prince of God among us." Abraham had established a reputation among unbelievers as God's faithful leader, and though they did not share his faith, he had earned their great respect. Are you recognized in your community as faithful child of God, an ambassador for Jesus?
3. Genesis 23:16 -- "Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver that he had named in the hearing of the Hittites, four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weights current among the merchants." Abraham was very careful to leave no doubt that all of his business dealings were more than fair. He likely paid more than "blue book" for this land.
4. Genesis 24:2-6 – The servant's past obedience gained him great responsibility.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

5. Genesis 24:3, 4 – "... you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell...." Most important to Abraham was that his son marry within the people of God; this was non-negotiable as it must be today. See Deuteronomy 7:3, and 2 Chronicles 6:14-15.

6. Genesis 24:12 – "Please grant me success today and show steadfast love to my master Abraham." The faithful and obedient servant wanted blessing for his master. Note also that the servant realized that success could only come from God. As faithful servants, our goal should only be what God wants, and we should recognize that only He can accomplish that goal through us; we cannot do it ourselves. God-sized goals always require God-sized power. God is always asking you to do what is impossible for you so that His power and glory may be revealed rather than yours.

7. Genesis 24:12-14 – The servant had a test of character for Isaac's future wife, not a test of personality, beauty, or family connections.

8. Genesis 24:15, 16 – God arranged circumstances and put everything in place to ensure that Rebekah met Isaac.

9. Genesis 24:16 – Rebekah had saved herself for marriage.

10. Genesis 24:19, 20 -- "When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, 'I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking.' So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough and ran again to the well to draw water, and she drew for all his camels." Watering camels was a huge task, but Rebekah offered to do it for a complete stranger without being asked. Note also that she did it quickly, with great zeal, not begrudgingly. What does this say about her character? Who do you know who lives this way?

11. Genesis 24:50, 51 – No man can thwart the plans of God. God blesses those who abide by His plans.

12. Genesis 24:52-54 – The servant paid the bride price. You too were bought at a price which you will soon learn all about in your daily Bible readings.

13. Genesis 24:55-58 – It is easy to say you will follow God (vs 50, 51), but delay indicates doubt, self-centeredness, and disobedience. Willing obedience is always instant obedience.

14. Proverbs 12 – This chapter compares the attributes of the righteous person with the attributes of the foolish person. Read this chapter and see which ones apply to you. Do you love discipline (v1)? Do you see God's favor in your life (v2)? Are you firmly grounded and strong (v3)? Are you in iron-sharpens-iron, honorable relationships (v4)? Are your thoughts pure, holy, and wise; and do you give sound counsel (v5)? Do your words rescue and heal people rather than destroy them and hurt them (vs6, 18)? Are you commended for your good sense (v8)? Do you live well within your means, without concern about impressing others (v9)? Are you equally kind to the lowliest people (v 10)? Are you hard working (vs11, 24, 27)? Do you focus on doing the best you can rather than worrying about what everyone else is doing and rather than becoming envious or jealous (vs12, 14)? Are you always truthful, even in the smallest ways (vs13, 17, 18, 22)? Do you humbly listen to the advice of others? (v15)? Do you hold your emotions and ignore insults (v16)? Do you plan to make peace with all others rather than adding friction (v20)? Do you speak the truth only when it is helpful and brings peace and reconciliation (v 23)? Do you always comfort others in distress (v25)? Do your words and guidance always lead people to a better place and closer to Jesus (vs26, 28)

15. Proverbs 12:1 – “Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid.” God disciplines you to teach you. Don’t despise His discipline – learn from it.
16. Proverbs 12:9 – “Better to be lowly and have a servant than to play the great man and lack bread.” Don’t seek honor; seek to be honorable.
17. Proverbs 12:11 -- "Whoever works his land will have plenty of bread, but he who follows worthless pursuits lacks sense." God is Author of both the natural laws and the ethical laws. One theme that is constantly repeated in the Bible is "You reap what you sow." God's natural and ethical laws are simple and produce obvious results. We complicate things when we attempt to work around God's laws and do pointless things. Don't waste your time, energy, and efforts by doing things God never intended.
18. Proverbs 12:16 -- "The prudent ignores an insult." Did you get that? Ignore insults and be prudent.
19. Proverbs 12:18 -- "There is one whose rash words are like sword thrusts, but the tongue of the wise brings healing." Are all of your words healing?
20. Proverbs 12:20 -- "Those who plan peace have joy." You have to have a plan for peace.
21. Proverbs 12:25 -- "Anxiety in a man’s heart weighs him down, but a good word makes him glad." You can help take a load off of others by giving them a good word to ease their anxiety.
22. Proverbs 12:26 – “One who is righteous is a guide to his neighbor, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.” Let God’s good word take away your stress.
23. Proverbs 12:26-28 -- "One who is righteous is a guide to his neighbor, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.... In the path of righteousness is life, and in its pathway there is no death." A good leader guides people to where they need to go. They know the way and show the way. The Bible says that Jesus IS the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Good leaders lead people to Jesus. Leading people anywhere else is to lead them astray, wickedness. So, all those secular gurus out there are, in fact, wicked.
24. Matthew 10:1 – Jesus empowered His disciples, but because of their lack of faith, they did not always use the power they actually had.
25. Matthew 10:6 – The church’s top priority is to properly disciple believers that they may then properly go and make more disciples. Today’s body includes many lost sheep that need to experience repentance and revival.
26. Matthew 10:11-15 – Some are ready to receive God’s word; others are not. We cannot do the work of the Holy Spirit. We must provide the message and be ready for those who are willing to receive it.
27. Matthew 10:16-20 – God is intentionally sending you into situations where you will be persecuted. It goes with your task. Don’t be surprised, and don’t worry about it – trust God.
28. Matthew 10:24, 25, 38, 39 -- "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master.... Whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." A big theme in today’s readings is discipleship and followership. Saving faith is not just a believing faith, it is a following faith. It is not just believing in God, it is believing God, trusting

Him at His word, and obeying Him. In our OT readings, we learn some things about followership and obedience: God's path will not take us 'out of the world' or shield us from all of the problems or sorrows of the world. (Genesis 23:2; see also John 17:15) Obedience will make us ready for greater responsibility and usability by God. (Genesis 24:2-6) God leads us to where He is already at work preparing the way for His purposes. (Genesis 24:27, 48) When we follow God's lead, we will see His miraculous provision in ways we could not have imagined, and this will drive us to greater worship and a closer relationship to Him. (Genesis 24:25-27, 48) When we follow God, it is His power that brings us success, not our power. (Genesis 24:40) A key to followership is focus and perseverance. When you know God has led you, you need to keep following despite temptations to get sidetracked. (Genesis 24:56) Following God means that we have to wait on Him and trust His provision, even in apparent delay. (Genesis 24:63) In the NT, Jesus further expands on the traits of a disciple, concluding that it demands a level of love and loyalty that far exceeds what we display in our most intimate human relationships. We must deny self, take up the cross, and follow Jesus; otherwise, Jesus says, we are not worthy of him. (Matthew 10:38) Of course we know that we are not, of ourselves, worthy of Him, but we should strive to become 'perfected in love'. We are not worthy, but God is more than worth of our complete surrender. Interestingly, the word 'worship' essentially means, 'worthy-ship' or worthy of complete praise and honor. Related to our theme today, The Bible says, "By the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship." (Romans 12:1) Let us worship not only in spirit but also in truth.

29. Matthew 10:34 – Jesus did NOT come to bring peace to the earth, rather spiritual peace for those who "know" Him.

30. Matthew 10:37-38 – Notice the degree of love Jesus expects from His followers.

31. Matthew 10:40 -- You are Christ's Ambassador.

DBRP- WEEK 2, Day 4, Thursday, 11 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+21%2C+22%3B+proverbs+11%3B+mat+9>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 11 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 21:1 -- "The Lord did to Sarah as he had promised." The Lord always keeps His promises. As His ambassadors on earth, we must model His character by always keeping our promises.

2. Genesis 21:12-13 – God has plans for people you may dislike.

3. Genesis 21:23 -- "Now therefore swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my descendants or with my posterity." Abraham's trustworthiness came from his relationship with God. Abimelech called upon Abraham's faith in God as the foundation of their relationship of trust. If someone doesn't ground their integrity on fidelity to God, their integrity will always be in doubt because soon or later, self-interest will take priority over self-sacrifice. Ultimately, the unbeliever makes themselves 'god' at some point.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Genesis 22:1, 2 -- Our difficulty is not usually that we don't know God's will. Our discomfort comes from the fact that we do know His will, but we do not want to do it! When God first spoke to Abraham, His commands were straightforward. "Go to a land I will show you" (Gen. 12:1). Then God led Abraham through a number of tests over the years. Abraham learned patience as he waited on God's promise of a son, which took twenty-five years to be fulfilled. Abraham learned to trust God through battles with kings and through the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. The pinnacle of Abraham's walk of faith was when God asked him to sacrifice the one thing that meant more to him than anything else. Abraham's previous obedience indicated that he would have quickly and decisively sacrificed anything else God asked of him, but was he prepared for this? God did not ask Abraham to make such a significant sacrifice at the beginning of their relationship. This came more than thirty years after Abraham began walking with God. As the Father progressively reveals His ways to you in your Christian pilgrimage, you, like Abraham, will develop a deeper level of trust in Him. When you first became a Christian, your Master's instructions were probably fundamental, such as being baptized or changing your lifestyle. But as you learn to trust Him more deeply, He will develop your character to match bigger tests, and with the greater test will come a greater love for God and knowledge of His ways. Are you ready for God's next revelation? (Henry T. Blackaby)

5. Genesis 22:1-12 -- God will use those who hold nothing back from Him. You cannot value something more than your relationship with God.

6. Genesis 22:8 -- Abraham said, "God will provide for himself the lamb." This is a prophecy of Jesus. Notice that Isaac carried the wood for the sacrifice as Jesus carried His cross.

7. Genesis 22:14 -- "On the mount of the Lord it shall be provided." The "land of Moriah" is where Jesus was crucified. There is much debate over the various hills of Moriah and whether or not Abraham's sacrifice was the exact location of Jesus' crucifixion, but there really is no way of proving any theory. The key point is that this is a foreshadowing of Jesus' ultimate sacrifice for us.

8. Proverbs 11:2 -- "When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with the humble is wisdom." Pride is mentioned around 100 times in the Bible, only a few times is it mentioned in a positive way. Conversely, humility is mentioned around 100 times in the Bible, either as a godly attribute possessed by someone, or something God does to the prideful through discipline and punishment. God hates pride. Do you? Watch out for any indication of pride in your life. Pursue humility.

9. Proverbs 11:12 -- "Whoever belittles his neighbor lacks sense, but a man of understanding remains silent." It is always good to maintain a long-term view on relationships. Your family will be with you your whole life. You will have to work with your co-workers for a long time. Your neighbors will be your neighbors for a long time. If your behavior promotes strife with the people around you, you may have to live with it for a long time. You may even be surprised one day when that stranger you argued with in a parking lot or shopping center checkout line (exposing your bad side) turns out to be your new neighbor, church member, etc. -- someone you didn't realize you would see regularly. Best to always treat people in a way that promotes peace, whether they deserve it or not. Additionally, the people closest to you are your first responsibility in ministry and discipleship. They will see more of you than anybody and, therefore, have the best opportunity to see Christ in you. Make the most of the opportunity to bear fruit for the Kingdom.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

10. Matthew 9:6 – “But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins” — he then said to the paralytic— ‘Rise, pick up your bed and go home.’” God uses miracles to glorify Himself and to validate His messenger, in this case His Son. We often pray for miracles for our reasons, but God uses miracles for His ultimate purpose -- to reconcile people to Him.

11. Matthew 9:8 – “When the crowds saw it, they were afraid, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men.” Jesus transferred His authority to His disciples and said that they would do even greater things than He:

- “And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction.” (Matthew 10:1)

- “And Jesus came and said to them, ‘All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.’” (Matthew 28:18-20)

- “Declare these things; exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you.” (Titus 2:15)

- “Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father.” (John 14:12)

12. Matthew 9:13 – “Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.’ For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.” When you think you are righteous, you have a hard time forgiving others. The self-righteous believe their deeds (such as sacrifices) make them more righteous than others. Mercy comes from the truly humble sinner who understands the price Christ paid for them in mercy and grace. Mercy is a true act of worship. There is not greater indicator of what we really think about God and how much we really love Him than how we treat others. We worship primarily, first and foremost, through relationships. The Bible says, “He who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen.” (1 John 4:20) Love is the evidence of our salvation: “We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death.” (1 John 3:14) Jesus said that if we truly love Him, we will obey Him, and the primary commandment He gave us was to love one another – “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another.” (John 13:34) How did Jesus love us? “God shows His love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” (Romans 5:8) Therefore, we must ‘lay down our lives’ before those who sin against us and who the world would consider ‘unworthy’ of love, the unlovable. How much we value the mercy and grace we have received through the blood of Jesus is not revealed in songs, rituals, sacrifices, or other religious activities but rather in the mercy and grace we show others. This is how we glorify God: “By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” (John 13:35) This is how we change the world, not through personal successes, parades, conventions, protests, speeches, or politics, but by changing hearts, one heart at a time -- “Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” (Luke 20:25) God gave us our mission; it is a mission of reconciliation: “All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to Himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.” (2 Corinthians 5: 18, 19) The messenger is known for shocking love, mercy, generosity, and holiness: “Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world." (James 1:27) "Present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship." (Romans 12:1) This is how we change the world.

13. Matthew 9:15 – "The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast." Now is the time of fasting. Do you fast along with your prayers?

14. Matthew 9:18-25 -- The woman who had suffered from a discharge of blood made Jesus "unclean" as a Rabbi when she touched the fringe of his garment. (Leviticus 15:25-27) She acted selfishly without considering the needs of others. However, Jesus did not scold her. Now Jesus was unclean, but now Jesus could enter the house of the dead girl and touch her without intentionally making Himself unclean (touching a dead body made priests unclean by Levitical Law). God will not let the sins of others get in the way of Him using them for His glory, and our sins do not change God's plan. God uses all things, good and bad, for His glory and in accordance with His plan, though we cannot see how all things are coming together.

15. Matthew 9:36 – "When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd." You see all types of people in a crowd. Crowds often bring out the best and worse in human nature, some are courteous towards others, and some aren't. Some people simply hate crowds because of how people act. Jesus had compassion on crowds, understanding that they were simply "harassed and helpless". How you feel about crowds reveals more about you than the crowd.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 11 Jan 18: Seek to be a righteous leader today by leading everyone to Jesus. (Proverbs 12:26)

DBRP- WEEK 2, Day 3, Wednesday, 10 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+19%2C+20%3B+proverbs+10%3B+mat+8>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 10 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 19:1 – "Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom." The term "sitting at the gate" signifies that Lot was a leader within the community who settled disputes and offered counsel to others. Lot had become a respected member of a highly sinful society. What does that say about Lot?

2. Genesis 19:1 -- "The two angels came to Sodom in the evening". Note that the Lord and the two angels visited Abraham, but the Lord did not accompany the two angels to Sodom. Abraham had a level of relationship with the Lord that Lot, having chosen to partner with corruption, never experienced. 2 Peter 2:7, 8 describes Lot as a "righteous" man, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked... for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard." However, Lot chose to stay among the wicked, to do business with them, to raise his children with them, to partner with them. There is no account of Lot's influence on Sodom, but as you will see, the Bible has much to say about how Sodom influenced Lot's family. Christians are called to be in the world but not "of the world". To be influence agents but not influenced by agents of evil. Perhaps the greatest threat to the modern church is syncretism -- the blending of worldly ideas with the Biblical standard, the mixing of the holy and unholy, compromise with the world for the sake of getting along, finding unity with the ungodly around something other than Jesus. Within the world, Christians cannot isolate themselves and still accomplish their mission of preaching the Gospel to all creation, but we will always be set apart from the ungodly, lacking unity with those who unify around moralism, humanism, patriotism, traditions, culture, or any other substitute for Jesus. The Lord would not even engage Sodom, but Lot had to be kicked out by the angels -- he didn't leave of his own volition. Where might you have grown attached to ungodly things or have sent mixed messages, combining worldly viewpoints with the pure Gospel of Jesus Christ? If someone were to ask your acquaintances what you are all about and what you care about most, would they say, "Jesus"?

3. Genesis 19:2 -- "My lords, please turn aside to your servant's house...." Lot clearly knew that his fellow citizens were untrustworthy and unfit for holy guests.

4. Genesis 19:8 -- "Behold, I have two daughters who have not known any man. Let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please. Only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof." Rules of hospitality were well established in the customs of the day, requiring the host to protect their guests at all costs. Lot valued the cultural customs of hospitality more than God's command of love -- he was willing to subject his daughters to gang rape and likely death for the sake of customs. Jesus condemned the Pharisees for the same heart -- "Why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?" (Matthew 15:3) Many socially acceptable customs, traditions, and standards of our day are actually contrary to God's word. Consider where you might have allowed your fidelity to God to be compromised because of what has always been practiced.

5. Genesis 19:9 -- "This fellow came to sojourn, and he has become the judge!" As per the comments on Matthew 7 from yesterday, the common refrain from the unrepentant sinner to those who would challenge their sin is, "Who are you to judge me?" Lot was not condemning the sinner but rather condemning their actions and likely hoping to protect them from the inevitable consequences of their sin.

6. Genesis 19:9 -- "Now we will deal worse with you than with them." When Lot tried to prevent people for sinning, he was labeled as "judgmental". Why do Christians face so much persecution? Unrepentant sinners hate the one who challenges them on their behavior.

7. Genesis 19:16 -- "But he lingered." Having been compromised by Sodom's culture, Lot had grown unresponsive to God's word sent through God's messengers. As previously mentioned, the Bible says that Lot was a "righteous [man], greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard)". (2 Peter 2:7,8) Yet Lot had partnered with his sinful community to the point where he could not bring himself to separate from them, and as a result, he lost most of his family, and he allowed his daughters to be morally corrupted to the point where they committed terrible sexual sin themselves. At the point where God was prepared to destroy the city, Lot's witness was so weak and corrupted that his only response to the mob of homosexual predators who threatened to rape the angels was to offer his virgin daughters for their sexual gratification! At this point, Lot's pleas to his sons-in-law to leave the doomed city were taken as jokes. Of course, we all know what happened to Lot's wife. A key point from this story is that Lot's compromise was slow, over time. The whole culture had gradually slipped into ever-increasing sin to the point where no one could comprehend its gravity and where completely desensitized and unaware of the looming destruction. God's wrath, though it should have been anticipated, came as a thief in the night. Jesus, uses this story to warn our generation: "Just as it was in the days of Lot—they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building, but on the day when Lot went out from Sodom, fire and sulfur rained from heaven and destroyed them all—so will it be on the day when the Son of Man is revealed. On that day, let the one who is on the housetop, with his goods in the house, not come down to take them away, and likewise let the one who is in the field not turn back. Remember Lot's wife. (Luke 17:32) We must be wary of gradual compromise and syncretism. In Luke 17, Jesus continues to explain what caused both Lot's sin and Abraham's sin in his dealings with Abimelech: "Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will keep it.... He said to them, 'Where the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.'" (Luke 17:33, 37) If we have not truly denied self, taken up the Cross daily, and chosen to follow Jesus on his mission rather than our own, we are in peril of losing our saltiness and luminance before a society that desperately needs salvation. We must not allow ourselves to lose our holiness in this sinful world.

8. Genesis 19:26 -- "But Lot's wife, behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt." Had Lot left Sodom when he should have, he would not have lost his wife. Had he never taken his family to Sodom, his wife would never have grown attached to the wicked city. Godly leaders are called to protect weaker Christians from their weakness by being a shield against temptation whenever possible. This responsibility starts within the home.

9. Genesis 19:32 -- "Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve offspring from our father." Lot was a righteous man, but he chose to raise his daughters in Sodom. Sodom was more of an influence on Lot's daughters than their father was; so they had become sexually perverse.

10. Genesis 19:36 -- "Thus both the daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father." The children of incest grew into enemy nations against Israel.

11. Genesis 20:2 -- "And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, 'She is my sister.'" Fear of man can lead you to sin terribly. It takes faith to obey God regardless the perceived cost.

12. Genesis 20:5 -- "Did he not himself say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands I have done this." Abimelech showed more integrity than God's prophet Abraham -- what a tragedy. And Abraham's cowardice almost cost Abimelech his life. How terrible is it for one of God's people to dishonor God by sinning before unbelievers? How incredible is God's grace that He does not give up on the failures of His servants? Abraham, like the rest of us, was in no position to brag of his righteousness; he could only brag about the mercy, grace, and righteousness of God.

13. Genesis 20:6 -- "It was I who kept you from sinning against me." You have no idea how many times God has protected you from your own weakness by shielding you from temptations you would not be able to handle -- another reason no one can brag about their righteousness. God knows that, often times, if you got what you wanted, you would not be able to handle it with integrity and would drift from Him.

14. Genesis 20:11 -- "Abraham said, 'I did it because I thought, 'There is no fear of God at all in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.'" The Bible says that we cannot know the hearts of other people, and we often prejudge others inappropriately causing us to sin by treating them unfairly. This year, we will read several stories in the Bible where misunderstandings between people led to avoidable conflict, pain, and destruction. As Christians, we must be very careful not to let our biases get in the way of fairness.

15. Genesis 20:14 – “Then Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and male servants and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and returned Sarah his wife to him.” Abimelech paid restitution despite having been deceived and having attempted to act in integrity. Abimelech paid the price for peace though the conflict wasn’t his fault.

16. Proverbs 10:8 – “The wise of heart will receive commandments.” A wise heart is an obedient heart.

17. Proverbs 10:4, 5 – “A slack hand causes poverty, but the hand of the diligent makes rich. He who gathers in summer is a prudent son, but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who brings shame.” Success requires persistent hard work for a long time. Successful people do not expect instant gratification.

18. Proverbs 10:10, 11 – “The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.” A person’s words either build up others or tear them down, and words reveal whether or not you have a heart of love which is a godly heart.

19. Proverbs 10:22 – “The blessing of the Lord makes rich, and he adds no sorrow with it.” Many seek to create their own blessings on earth, but sorrow comes with them. Only God knows what is best for us. We must not sacrifice His will for what we want. When we set our own goals, we may accomplish them and miss what God intended for us. Make sure you are pursuing God's plan for your life and not your own plan.

20. Matthew 8:4 -- "And Jesus said to him, 'See that you say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a proof to them.'" Likely, Jesus was not trying to hide His glory from the world but rather was first revealing Himself to the religious leaders that they might lead others by example in repentance. When leaders fail, God raises up new, faithful leaders.

21. Matthew 8:6 -- “Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, suffering terribly.” The Centurion put his reputation on the line to approach Jesus because of his compassion for his servant.

22. Matthew 8:10 -- “Truly, I tell you, with no one in Israel have I found such faith.” True followers of Jesus trust Him at His word and act upon His word with complete confidence.

23. Matthew 8:11, 12 – “I tell you, many will come from east and west and recline at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven while the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” Many who think they are going to heaven aren’t.

24. Matthew 8:13 -- "And to the centurion Jesus said, 'Go; let it be done for you as you have believed.' And the servant was healed at that very moment." As physical beings, we have a tendency to view God from a physical perspective, limiting in our minds how we think God might work in a situation based upon what we have seen and understand. Here we see that Jesus did not have to go to the servant to heal the servant, though that was what most would have expected. The power of the Holy Spirit is not limited by time and space.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

25. Matthew 8:20 – “And Jesus said to him, ‘Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.’” Jesus exemplified personal sacrifice and commitment and expected His disciples to follow His example.

26. Matthew 8:22 -- "And Jesus said to him, 'Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead.'" Following Jesus requires wholehearted, total commitment. You cannot go with Him while staying where you are. You also cannot ask Him to wait for you until you are ready to join Him on the journey. Nor can you take a path halfway between where you are going and where He is going and still be with Him. You just need to walk with Jesus right now, leaving behind all self-interest in pursuit of His will.

27. Matthew 8:25 -- "And they went and woke him, saying, 'Save us, Lord; we are perishing.'" Our thoughts are not God's thoughts, and our ways are not God's ways -- they are completely different. We cannot understand our lives or what we should do from our own understanding which is based upon our limited awareness and perspective. What we see and what we feel is not the total reality and is often a distorted interpretation of reality. While the disciples thought they were going to die, Jesus was sleeping calmly because Jesus had quintessential (beyond the five (quint-) senses) awareness or supernatural (beyond natural abilities) awareness through the Holy Spirit. To understand anything, you must be guided by the Holy Spirit, not relying on your own understanding.

28. Matthew 8:26 – “And he said to them, ‘Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?’” Crisis reveals what you really believe about Jesus and in what you place your faith. Doubt is your signal that you don’t know God as well as you should.

29. Matthew 8:28 -- "And when he came to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes." Jesus led His disciples to the land of the pagans who worshipped Baal and valued swine, unclean to Jews. Immediately they met two demon-possessed men coming out of tombs (imagine that in your mind) confirming in the minds of the disciples they had no business being there. However, Jesus intended to spread the Gospel to these Hellenistic people. Jesus performed a miracle but the response from the crowd was not positive -- "they begged him to leave their region." Once again, this undoubtedly convinced the disciples that this journey was a wasted effort, time squandered on ungodly people who would never accept Jesus. Jesus did not try to convince the crowds but rather he will focus His attention on the one under the conviction of the Holy Spirit. We will soon read of the powerful impact this one trip had on the entire region. This is also another good example of how we are called to engage or sinful culture without partnering with that sinful culture. Jesus in no way compromised His fidelity, His integrity, or His holiness while He travelled the country of the Gadarenes. He did not try to validate their culture or show 'respect' for their false religion. He did not change along the way, but He transformed others.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 10 Jan 18: Today, don't just do something. Wait for the Holy Spirits guidance and act upon it. Don't just follow your routine or plan. Ask God what He wants you to do, and quietly wait for a response. If He convicts you to call someone, call them. If God convicts you to go somewhere, then go. Keep your eyes open for where the Holy Spirit is working in someone's life, and join Him there. Be an ambassador for Jesus to the person the Holy Spirit is already working on. Don't waste your time trying to build something where the Holy Spirit is not building. You will find at first it is very difficult to follow the Holy Spirit and wait upon the Lord for direction. We are a very busy people who often measure the day's success on what we got done. The problem with that is we might get all the wrong things done, being so busy we missed what God would have had us do. God is already working His plan around you -- join Him in what He is already doing rather than asking Him to join you on what you want to do or on what you think He should do. (Matthew 8:28)

DBRP- WEEK 2, Day 2, Tuesday, 9 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+17%2C+18%3B+proverbs+9%3B+mat+7>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 9 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 17:1 -- "I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless." God's standard for His people has not changed. God's expectation for His chosen people is clear and consistent throughout the whole Bible: "Walk before me, and be blameless.... Keep the way of the Lord." Previously in Matthew we heard Jesus say, "You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect." (Matthew 5:48) Today, Jesus says, "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.... depart from me, you workers of lawlessness." (Matthew 7:21, 23) Though we are saved by grace alone (Ephesians 2:8, 9), we are expected to obey in response to grace. The Great Commission says, "Go therefore and make disciples [not merely 'believers' like the demons described in James] of all nations.... teaching them to observe [obey] all that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:19, 20) We are saved by faith alone, but not by a faith that is alone. Or as James says, "faith without deeds is useless (James 2:20)." Genuine faith inevitably produces a changed life from a changed heart. We are saved not by our works but by faith; but genuine faith works. "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come (2 Corinthians 5:17)!" Jesus said, "Produce fruit in keeping with repentance (Luke 3:8)." The "fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law (Galatians 5:22, 23)." The Bible is clear that, of our own merit, no one is righteous (Psalm 143:2; Romans 3:10), rather we are made righteous through Christ (II Corinthians 5:21; Romans 4). However, in our state of grace, we are compelled to "seek righteousness". (Zephaniah 2:3; Matthew 6:33) With all our might and with all our heart, we "pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness (1 Timothy 6:11)." The genuinely saved person will change for the better (2 Corinthians 5:17). That person is saved "for good works" (Ephesians 2:10), and there is no way (s)he can fail to bring forth at least some of the fruit that characterizes the redeemed (Matthew 7:17). His desires are transformed; (s)he begins to hate sin and love righteousness. He will not be sinless, but the pattern of his life will be decreasing sin and increasing righteousness. Disciples are disciplined and produce the last-mentioned fruit of the Spirit -- self-control.

2. Genesis 18:1-2 -- "And the Lord appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the door of his tent in the heat of the day. He lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing in front of him." This is another Old Testament Theophany -- Jesus appearing with two angels.

3. Genesis 18:19 -- "For I have chosen him, that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the Lord." Obedience is to be taught to the next generation. Even those without children are commanded to "make disciples", to train up others to follow Jesus. You are not merely called to be a good student; you are called to be an instructor.

4. Genesis 18:22-32 -- God's people have a genuine heart for sinners and seek to intervene for them.

5. Proverbs 9:4-6 -- "'Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!' To him who lacks sense she says, 'Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed. Leave your simple ways, and live, and walk in the way of insight.” The invitation is out there for anyone willing to repent and to humble themselves before the Lord.

6. Proverbs 9:7-8 – “Whoever corrects a scoffer gets himself abuse, and he who reproves a wicked man incurs injury. Do not reprove a scoffer, or he will hate you; reprove a wise man, and he will love you.” Jesus told His disciples to invest their time and energy on those who would accept their message and to ‘shake the dust off their feet and walk away’ from those who were clearly not willing to listen -- “And if anyone will not receive you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet when you leave that house or town.” (Matthew 10:14) We are called to proclaim the Gospel to all but most importantly to make disciples of those who would follow Jesus. Pay close attention to Jesus’ Great Commission to us: “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.” (Matthew 28:19, 20) Again, God did not call us to just make believers, He called us, you and I, to make disciples, teaching them “to obey all”, to be priests on this earth. (1 Peter 2:5-9) That means the you must first be a good example of a priest, knowing how to rightly divine and to teach God’s word, and you must lead others in walking in the word. It is much, much more than simply sitting in church and in small group Bible studies, it is hitting the streets with fellow believers as the Spirit leads, like Jesus did with His twelve. It means getting dirty and stepping out in faith into the unknown. It means learning how to discern who is already being convicted by the Holy Spirit and then ministering to them. Are you ready to accept the Great Commission? Do you have mentees who are equally committed to following Jesus? As you lead others, remember to lead them as a mere follower of Jesus – it is always about Jesus and not about you. Never, ever point to yourself, always to Jesus.

7. Proverbs 9:7-9 – One of the big differences between a fool and a wise person is the ability to receive instruction and correction from others.

8. Proverbs 9:10 – “The knowledge of the Holy One is insight.” We are only as wise and spiritual as how well we know Jesus. Jesus explains this in John 17. It is not moralism that saves us. It is Jesus. Jesus doesn’t just want us to live ‘good’ lives and do works of charity so that life might be more comfortable on earth for the lost. Jesus wants us to know Him and lead others to knowing Him.

9. Proverbs 9:12 – “If you are wise, you are wise for yourself; if you scoff, you alone will bear it.” The choice is ours. Will we obey God’s word in total, or will we get wrapped up in the worries of the world? Some “scoff” in obvious ways by denying Jesus, but others “scoff” in less obvious ways by ignoring God’s Great Commandment and Great Commission, the call to live solely as an ambassador for Jesus. Even the demons believe and Jesus, and many church goers scoff – the lukewarm who have lost their light and saltiness.

10. Proverbs 9:15-16 – “The woman Folly is loud; she is seductive and knows nothing. She sits at the door of her house; she takes a seat on the highest places of the town, calling to those who pass by, who are going straight on their way.” Folly’s message competes with Wisdom’s (Jesus’) message, inviting all to live for self-interest and pleasure. In the competition of ideas, you are called to proclaim Jesus, not moralism or a message the merely promises better living on earth.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

11. Matthew 7:1, 2 -- "Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you." Perhaps no Bible verses have been more misapplied than these. Many blatant unrepentant sinners have quoted these verses in response to calls for repentance. Many Christians have used these verses to justify their failure to "speak the truth in love" to those who needed to be confronted in their sin. These verses are not telling us to remain silent before sin or to make light of sin. If they were, they would be countering countless other clear verses in the Bible. If Jesus were telling His disciples not to challenge the sinner, John the Baptist would have lost his head for all the wrong reasons, and Jesus Himself would have been out of line while driving out the money changers in the Temple and calling the Pharisees a "brood of vipers" and "whitewashed tombs". Instead, Jesus is telling us here not to play the role of the "judge" [the righteous administer of justice who is God] rather than the juror [merely a peer who is judging whether an action is right or wrong]. We are not called to condemn others from a self-righteous position, viewing ourselves as more righteous than the other; we are called to humbly speak the truth to others in love, not hoping for their punishment, but hoping for their reconciliation with God. We must be motivated by love, and our goal must always be the sinner's best interest. When we see the sin in others, we must seek to help them out of sin while recognizing our own unworthiness before the Lord, never trying to compare ourselves to them [only God sees the whole picture]. And before we engage the sinner, we must search our own hearts for any selfish motive -- are we concerned for them only, or are we offended and hoping to justify ourselves or seek 'justice' for ourselves? We are merely poor beggars helping others find bread. Only God knows the hearts and minds of others, we cannot. We can only observe outward behavior and compare it to God's commands, all the while remembering our need for accountability from others too. Also, we cannot place another person in the proper context of God's total perspective. If we lived the life of the other person, we might have done worse than they them. The less talented person is quick to accuse the more talented one of being egotistical. The person who grew up on a stable home with good parents is quick to condemn the person from a broken home of being undisciplined. The rich person is quick to withhold charity to the poor person, arguing that they will just squander to gift. God does not call us to judge the person but rather to judge the actions with a heart for reconciliation, always pointing to Jesus. And, here is where continual forgiveness comes in to play. God does not want us to ever give up on the sinner. If he or she is still trapped in sin, our job is not done. God placed you in that relationship for a reason -- His reason -- reconciliation. This is tough work, but you have been given the authority of Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit to do that work for His glory. Quit on that sinner when you want God to quit on you -- you know you are going to sin again against God today and every day. You need continual grace and they do too.

12. Matthew 7:7-11 -- If you desire a relationship with Jesus Christ and to know His will, He will reveal Himself to you and show you His will for you.

13. Matthew 7:12-14 -- "So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few." The 'Golden Rule' is 'Golden' because it is both valuable and very rarely found among people. Few are willing to enter the narrow gate. Few are willing to truly follow Jesus and obey this command. Are you? If not, consider Matthew 7:21 very carefully.

14. Matthew 7:15-19 -- "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits.” Don’t listen to teachers who don’t walk as Jesus walked. Bible knowledge is not the same as wisdom which is revealed in holiness and love. A true teacher will not boast in themselves for their knowledge but will walk humbly and point solely to Christ.

15. Matthew 7:22-23 – “On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?’ And then will I declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.’” You can do all the right things for all the wrong reasons and receive no credit from God.

16. Matthew 7:24 -- “Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock.” Once again, hearing Jesus is not sufficient. You must obey His commands. The greatest command is unconditional love and forgiveness. It is a far greater sin to know God’s word and choose to disobey it than to not know it at all. Don’t take God’s word lightly – what God says He means. To obey God, you must love Him enough to deny self, take up your cross in messy relationships, and follow Jesus as He seeks the lost, the wounded, the suffering, and those struggling with sin.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 9 Jan 18: Today, pray that God will help you interact with offensive people as His ambassador rather than as your own defender. Pray that He will help you see them as He sees them, that your wholehearted goal for that unloving person will be that they draw closer to Jesus. Take yourself out of the equation -- it is not about you. You are on mission for Jesus in that relationship. Pray for the strength to endure whatever persecution you will encounter as you continue to minister to the needs of that person, whether it be a person you know very well and deal with regularly or that person who just cut you off on the highway or took your parking spot. And in that moment, continually search your heart, remembering that your first reaction, what you do without thinking, is the best indicator of what is really in your heart. As C.S. Lewis said, the rats in the seller are only visible for a brief moment when you turn on the lights. They are then hidden but still there. Look for the 'rats' in your heart and deal with them. (Matthew 7)

DBRP- WEEK 2, Day 1, Monday, 8 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+15%2C+16%3B+proverbs+8%3B+mat+6>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 8 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 15:1 -- “Fear not, Abram, I am your shield.” When God is your shield, you definitely have nothing to fear. Do you think this vision ended Abram’s fear? Do you trust God in His word?
2. Genesis 15:16 – God’s promise to Abraham would take four generations to be completed. Are you satisfied to obey God without immediate reward if any at all? Do you think generationally?
3. Genesis 15:17 – “When the sun had gone down and it was dark, behold, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces.” In ancient times, two people would bind a contract by walking together through the blood of animals cut in half, signifying that breaking the contract was deserving of death. Notice that in this covenant, only God ‘walked’ through the animal parts, perhaps taking full responsibility for the covenant. God would hold up His end of the bargain, but when Abraham would inevitably fail to keep his end, God would not abandon the covenant or destroy Abraham.

4. Genesis 16:1-4 – “Now Sarai, Abram’s wife, had borne him no children. She had a female Egyptian servant whose name was Hagar. And Sarai said to Abram, “Behold now, the Lord has prevented me from bearing children. Go in to my servant; it may be that I shall obtain children by her.” And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. So, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai, Abram’s wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her servant, and gave her to Abram her husband as a wife. And he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, she looked with contempt on her mistress.” Rather than patiently trusting on God’s word, Sarai and Abram took matters into their own hands and followed a very common worldly practice to accomplish their goals. As a result, great strife entered into the world that continues through Islam today. Obedience requires a willingness to wait on God rather than getting desired results the wrong way. Often, popular opinion or ‘common sense’ stands in direct contrast to God’s commands but often seems to produce practical, quick results. However, God will not bless disobedience, and there are always negative, destructive consequences for disobedience, some consequences that may affect generations.

5. Genesis 16:12 – The Bible prophesied of Islam and the bloodshed it would inspire.

6. Matthew 6:1 – Our motivation for doing the good things we do should only be to serve God in love; any other motivation is unacceptable before the LORD and dangerous to you.

7. Matthew 6:2 – “When you give to the needy, sound no trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be praised by others.” One of the biggest traps for a Christian is being tempted to share glory with Jesus, taking credit for what they do or drawing attention to themselves. Be wary of the Christian who talks about themselves, even if in the process, they ‘tip their hat’ to Jesus. Watch your “I”s and “Me”s. Search your heart – are you trying to feel good about yourself and gain the approval of people? Or, are you serving Jesus, solely out of love for Him, and giving your all so that “when you have done all that you were commanded, [you] say, ‘We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty.’” (Luke 17:10)

8. Matthew 6:7-14 -- “And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him....” The value and power of a prayer is determined by the heart behind the prayer, not the words. Jesus challenged the empty prayers of the ‘religious’ by offering the “Lord’s Prayer”, not as something to be recited (which is now customary) but rather as a challenge to the hearts of would-be followers. A true prayer first glorifies God and seeks His will above self-interest. A genuine prayer only seeks from God what is necessary to accomplish His work on earth, not to live in prosperity. A genuine prayer is truly ‘amazed by grace’ and seeks the strength to forgive all others as Jesus forgives. A genuine prayer desires the strength to resist temptation that God would be best glorified.

- Jesus ended His challenge with a reemphasis on forgiveness which is a measure of true thankfulness for salvation. How you forgive the one who persecutes you, who ‘crucifies’ you, is proof of your faith and love for Jesus. Most who recite the Lord’s Prayer don’t stop to consider that they are holding themselves accountable to forgiveness by asking God to treat them the way they treat others in forgiveness. Jesus was calling out the prideful to true humility. He was reminding all who desire grace from God that they must give unconditional grace to others. Jesus said, if you have a relationship that has not been reconciled, don't bring Him an offering until you have sought reconciliation and have truly forgiven. Worship is in relationships first.

9. Matthew 6:9, 12, 14, 15 -- "Pray then like this: ...forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.... For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." Again, the Lord's Prayer is first and foremost about forgiveness (undeserved, unconditional grace), and Jesus is delivering a not so subtle rebuke to many in the crowd in order to humble the proud. Jesus calls the unforgiving 'believer' a hypocrite – an actor, a liar, a fraud. It is an impossibility to receive unmerited forgiveness from God while refusing to offer the same to an offender. How could there be a higher arrogance than to expect forgiveness from the Holy One while demanding justice for ourselves, mere pitiful sinners? In walking the listener through The Lord's Prayer, Jesus is pointing out that absurdity. He first has the would-be supplicant acknowledge the absolute Holiness of the One we have sinned against; He then points out that the Kingdom is where God's will is done -- clearly, we have all fallen short of the Kingdom. Jesus then drives His point home by telling the listener to ask God for the same forgiveness we give to others – ouch! He finally tells the petitioner to acknowledge their own frailty by praying for more protection against further temptation and sin (which is inevitable). Forgiveness can be hard until we consider the offense against us in context with the awfulness of our own sin against God and the magnitude of the grace we have received at the unfathomable price of Christ crucified. To refuse to forgive is to claim ourselves to be more important or worthier of justice than Jesus Christ – unthinkable! Jesus looked down on those who had ruthlessly and mockingly nailed Him to the cross and cried out: "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do." (Luke 23:34) How could we refuse to do less? Forgiveness is not a spiritual gift, a skill, or an inherent trait. Forgiveness is a choice. Jesus said that if we are withholding forgiveness from another, we are not ready to worship God. (Matthew 5:23-24) So, if you realize that you have not forgiven someone; there is no higher priority in your life than to settle the matter right now.

10. Matthew 6:21 – "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." You will dedicate your time, energy, resources, and efforts to what you care about most. Many pursue Christianity in the selfish hope that God will give them what they want in this world, and their prayers reveal their self-centeredness – "Lord, give me what I want". Sometimes, they seek to make a deal with God – "Give me what I want, and I will serve you more."

11. Matthew 6:22-24 -- "The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money." Life perspective and focus is everything. What you really believe is true about life and what you care about most in life defines how you view everything and what you will act upon. If you really believe that Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, that changes everything -- you will not have any competing priorities in life and will live for Him only. If your eyes are affixed on Jesus, you won't even notice the potential distractions around you.

12. Matthew 6:27 – "And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life?" Being anxious not only accomplishes nothing, it dishonors God who graciously promises you His best for you. Also, anxiousness promotes bad decision-making.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

13. Matthew 6:33 – “But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.” Just focus on remaining obedient to Jesus, and let Jesus take care of the rest.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 8 Jan 18: Today, settle any unpaid debts of forgiveness today, and then remain debt free by unconditionally forgiving everyone, immediately, on the spot. Accept the personal price of forgiveness, cancelling the debts owed to you by others. No, it won't be fair – that is the point. (Matthew 6:7-14)

DBRP- WEEK 1, Day 7, Sunday, 7 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+13%2C+14%3B+proverbs+7%3B+psalm+2%2C+3>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Sunday, 7 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 13:6, 7 – “Their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together, and there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock.” Throughout the entire Bible, we are warned not to let possessions or the pursuit of possessions to get in the way of relationships. Abram and Lot had been blessed by God in a tremendous way, but greedy hearts turn God's blessings into curses. When we get more than we need, we are told to give the rest away. Actually, we are told to give our best away and take for ourselves only what we need from the rest. Jesus warned of the man who had so much that he built new barns to store it all so he could retire and live comfortably (like worldly investment advisors recommend). Jesus called him a fool who should have stored up treasures in Heaven by caring for others with what he had today. (Luke 12:13-21) In this Genesis story, the family divided in pursuit of earthly gain, and everyone eventually paid a hefty price for choosing worldly prosperity over relationships. Consider families today – everyone goes their separate directions to make a living, and they rely on technology to maintain some degree of connection. When life's challenges come, many turn to strangers (counsellors, bankers, etc) rather than family for support. This is so normal, we hardly question it. However, God had a different plan for families and church families.

2. Genesis 13:9-11 – “‘If you take the left hand, then I will go to the right, or if you take the right hand, then I will go to the left.’ And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw that the Jordan Valley was well watered everywhere like the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, in the direction of Zoar. (This was before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) So Lot chose for himself all the Jordan Valley, and Lot journeyed east. Thus they separated from each other.” In conflict, Abram following the godly principle of selflessly accommodating the desires of the other person. Abram's focus was on reconciliation while Lot remained focused on getting the best deal, coming out on top. Lot chose what he thought was the best land, and allowed Abram to take a harsh land full of enemies. No complaint was registered by Abram, though he got the raw deal. It took great faith for Abram to behave this way. It took no faith for Lot to take what he wanted. Abram's choice was blessed by God; Lot's choice was cursed. Do you have the faith to do what God wants even when obedience comes at a great cost to you and seems to give the advantage to more selfish people?

3. Genesis 13:13 – “Now the men of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the Lord.”

Better to live with nothing than to live in comfort with sinners.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

4. Genesis 13:16 -- Abraham had to walk in faith, believing beyond human reason that his descendants would be greatly blessed by God.

5. Genesis 14:12 -- Lot partnered with the ungodly and got entangled in ungodly conflicts.

6. Genesis 14:13-16 -- Abraham was prepared to defend himself and his loved ones.

7. Genesis 14:14, 15 -- “When Abram heard that his kinsman had been taken captive, he led forth his trained men, born in his house, 318 of them, and went in pursuit as far as Dan. And he divided his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and defeated them and pursued them to Hobah, north of Damascus.” Christians not only have an inalienable right to self-defense but also an inalienable responsibility to self-defense. This responsibility cannot be abrogated. Lot’s government did not protect or rescue him, Abram did. Abram had his own fighting force, and he didn’t create them overnight – they were highly trained and obviously very capable. Abram wasn’t looking for a fight, but he was ready to win one. Christians are called to seek peace and reconciliation but also to protect themselves, their families, and other fellow believers when necessary. Jesus rebuked Peter for attacking the Roman soldier with a sword because it was not a time for fighting, but don’t lose sight of the fact that Peter carried a sword, something that could not have escaped Jesus’ attention. In fact as Jesus drew closer to His crucifixion, He warned His disciples to make sure they had enough swords to protect themselves. (Luke 22:36-38)

8. Genesis 14:18-24 -- In great victory, Abraham worshipped and made offerings to God while others sought spoils of war.

9. Genesis 14:20 -- “And Abram gave him a tenth of everything.” This is the first recorded act of tithing – giving the first tenth of acquired wealth to God. Note that Abram did this before the Law required it. Melchizedek is a fascinating and mysterious Biblical figure, described here as “priest of God Most High.” Of the Messiah, Jesus, Psalm 110 says, “You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.” This order is specifically different, set apart, and higher than the priestly order of Aaron from which was handed down the Law. Melchizedek is further mentioned and associated with Jesus in Hebrews 5-7. Hebrews 5 repeats that Jesus was “designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.” Hebrews 6 points out that Jesus is forever a high priest after the order of Melchizedek, and Hebrews 7 goes into a bit more detail about Melchizedek -- “He is first, by translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then he is also king of Salem, that is, king of peace. He is without father or mother or genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God he continues a priest forever. See how great this man was to whom Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth of the spoils!” Many believe that Melchizedek was a theophany, actually Jesus Himself appearing to Abraham, that Jesus is the only person in the “order” of Melchizedek and has been and will be forever, explaining why no one else is ever mentioned as part of this order. If the description in Hebrews 7 is literal, then it is indeed difficult to see how it could be properly applied to anyone but the Lord Jesus Christ. No mere earthly king “remains a priest forever,” and no mere human is “without father or mother.” However, others believe that Hebrews 7 is not intended to be taken literally and that Melchizedek was just a “type of Christ” who foreshadowed the coming Messiah. Are Melchizedek and Jesus the same person? A case can be made either way. At the very least, Melchizedek points to Christ.

But it is also possible that Abraham, after his weary battle, met and gave honor to the Lord Jesus Himself. What do you think?

10. Genesis 14:22, 23 -- "But Abram said to the king of Sodom, 'I have lifted my hand to the LORD, God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth, that I would not take a thread or a sandal strap or anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich.'" Abram refused to partner with the ungodly, to become dependent upon the ungodly, or to be entangled in the affairs of the ungodly, which is what got Lot into trouble. Unfortunately, partnership with, dependency on, and entanglement with the world has largely disempowered the church today. As an example, according to the Evangelical Christian Credit Union, churches in America spend 82 percent of their budgets on overhead costs, largely due to building debt to ungodly banking institutions. Churches use only 3 percent of their budget for children's and youth programs, and only 2 percent for adult programs. Local and national benevolence receives just 1 percent of the typical church budget. Comparatively, the American Red Cross spends only 8 percent of its revenues on administrative and fundraising expenses; World Vision spends only 14 percent; and Compassion International spends just 16 percent. Also, among those Christians who claim to tithe, studies show that they actually give about 2% while they pay around 35-40% to debt. We should learn from Abram.

11. Genesis 14:22-23 – Abram had a healthy distrust of secular government which our Founding Fathers shared. Abram gave the king of Sodom what was his and wanted nothing in return – no strings attached. He did not want earthly kings to lay claim to any of God's glory. He did not want a relationship with the ungodly to compromise his relationship with God. Abram laid the foundations for separation of church and state. Abram's King was God. He needed no other. A church that becomes dependent upon government or any other institution will eventually compromise fidelity to God in favor of that worldly benefactor.

12. Proverbs 7:1, 2 – "My son, keep my words and treasure up my commandments with you; keep my commandments and live." God's commands are intended for your very best, though the sinful heart views them and needlessly restricting. Throughout the Bible, you will see God passionately warn people to obey His word for their benefit; and throughout the Bible, you will see people reject God's impassioned plea with devastating results. This pattern continues today.

13. Proverbs 7: 6, 7 – "For at the window of my house I have looked out through my lattice, and I have seen among the simple, I have perceived among the youths, a young man lacking sense." The Holy Spirit will use God's word to give you a perception in life others don't have. As you read God's word and walk in God's word, the Holy Spirit will reveal to you the truth of God's word in the circumstances and activities that are occurring around you every day. You will begin to see and understand what God is doing in the lives of others around you, and you will have opportunities to help others understand the truth too. When you read God's word in the morning, God will continue to teach it to you all day long if you keep your eyes and ears open.

14. Psalm 2:1 – "Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?" The entire Bible reveals a cosmic, timeless battle over who is really King. Is God the one and only Almighty God, or are people gods? Is it, "Thy will be done on earth..." or is it, "My will be done on earth..." This battle will continue until Jesus' return, and until then, everyone will take a side.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

15. Psalm 2:7 -- God has always planned to work through His Son to accomplish His mission of world redemption.

16. Psalm 2:10-12 – “Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth. Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way, for his wrath is quickly kindled. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.” God expects all earthly leaders to serve Jesus. This is part of our message and His ambassadors.

17. Psalm 3:8 – “Salvation belongs to the Lord.” People place their hope in many different things. Some place their hope in politicians, others in finances, others in friends and family; but hope, peace, and security are ultimately found only in Jesus. Build your house on the rock of Jesus. Everything else is shifting sand.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 7 Jan 18: Trust God enough today to show mercy, grace, and forgiveness to others. Mercy is choosing to not give people the bad that they deserve; grace is giving people the good that they don't deserve; and forgiveness is cancelling their perceived debt to you (physical or emotional), and viewing them as 'right' with you. God showed you mercy, grace, and forgiveness through the ultimate price of His Son, Jesus – on this you place the unshakable hope of your Salvation. Your act of gratitude to God is to show the same kind of mercy and grace to others who would 'crucify' you in relationship. Having received reconciliation with God through Jesus, He is now calling you to be a minister of reconciliation with all others, those terrible sinners who God knows are going to hurt you because “Hurting people hurt people.” Today we read how Abram made himself vulnerable to Lot, and Lot took advantage of Abram's graciousness; but we also read how God blessed Abram beyond anything Lot could have done for him, and God restored ten-fold anything Abram might have lost in his generosity. Abram did not show any resentment to Lot and did not seek to get even with Lot but trusted God to provide and handle the justice equation – justice comes only from God, not from people. On the contrary, Abram stood ready to rescue Lot from the consequences of his own selfishness. 'Common sense' rules of 'fairness' would have validated Abram if he had decided to let Lot face the consequences of his actions or at least to receive payment for saving him from his actions, but Abram chose to follow a higher standard, the standard of the order of Melchizedek, the order of Jesus – mercy, grace, forgiveness, reconciliation, peace, and love. Abram did not receive 'fairness' from the people around him; he received a higher blessing from God, and his blessings lasted for generations, for eternity. Trust God and choose the higher path of unconditional, selfless, sacrificial love. Today, sinful people will, in some way, treat you unfairly (though they will likely not literally crucify you as they did your example, Lord, and Savior Jesus). Leave justice to Jesus, and offer the gift of mercy, grace, forgiveness, love, reconciliation, and peace. But what if they don't ask for it or don't appreciate it? Remember the example of Jesus – “God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” (Romans 5:8) God gave before we asked, when we didn't even want the gift – that is what leaders in Christ do, regardless the personal cost. (Genesis 13:6-11)

Observations from today's readings: Saturday, 6 Jan 18:

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

1. Genesis 11:1, 4, 6 – “Now the whole earth had one language and the same words.... Then they said, ‘Come, let us build ourselves a city.... let us make a name for ourselves’.... And the Lord said, ‘Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do. And nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them.’” Without restraints in pursuit of godless objectives, mankind would have rapidly disintegrated into hell on earth. Therefore, God mercifully limited their abilities by confusing their language. Technology and globalization have become the new Tower of Babel, and there is quickly becoming no limit to the evil mankind can do.

-- There are many rally cries for “unity” and for compromise for the sake of unity. However, unifying around the wrong thing only means destruction for everyone, and comprising the truth for the sake of unity only contributes to the demise of all. Some say our country is more divided now than it has been since the Civil War, and as a result, we cannot make ‘progress’. However, division may not be such a bad thing if it is keeping us from making progress in the wrong direction. Christians are salt and light in the midst of society, preserving order and lighting the way by refusing to compromise the truth and by showing people the only thing worth unifying around – Jesus! There is no real unity, no real peace apart from Jesus.

2. Genesis 11:31 – “Terah took Abram his son and Lot the son of Haran, his grandson, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram’s wife, and they went forth together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go into the land of Canaan, but when they came to Haran, they settled there.” Abram’s (Abraham’s father) Terah first inspired Abram to travel from Ur to the area of the Promised Land. Terah had a vision to go to the Promised land, but for some unmentioned reason, Terah didn’t make it all the way. His vision would be fulfilled through his son. God works through families over generations. Do you have a long-term vision for your family to bring glory to God on earth?

3. Genesis 12:1 – “Now the Lord said to Abram, ‘Go... to the land that I will show you.’” One of the ways of God revealed throughout the Bible is that God calls His servants to “Go” without showing them exactly where they are going. He knows His total plan for His servants, but He usually doesn’t completely reveal it to them. He will act the same way in your life. God expects His servants to walk in faith and total obedience. We always want to know exactly what God is doing in our lives, and when you think about it, our constant desire for answers is motivated by a lack of faith. Sometimes we are called to just go and see what God is going to do. And when God tells us to do something, it is quite often something we cannot do, because God intends to show us and the world what He can do, not what we can do. Again, it takes faith. The Bible says, “Without faith, it is impossible to please God.” Have faith.

4. Genesis 12:8 – “And there he built an altar to the Lord and called upon the name of the Lord.” One of the signs God is working in someone’s life is their motivation to pray, worship, and glorify God. Abram’s response to God’s activity in his life was to build altars to the Lord and to call upon His Name more and more. This took time and effort away from Abram’s travels and work, but He was compelled to do it. Notice that along his way, Abram didn’t build altars to himself, and he wasn’t celebrating his accomplishments. He was proclaiming what God had done, leaving markers for his family that they would never forget.

5. Genesis 12:10 – “Now there was a famine in the land. So Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine was severe in the land.” God gave Abram a vision of greatness and then immediately led Abram right into a terrible famine where Abram’s faith was tested. To accomplish God-given objectives,

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

God will seek to build in you a godly character. Character is built through adversity and challenges. You must learn to be faithful through any and all circumstances.

6. Genesis 12:12-14 – When Abram focused on self rather than others and lost his confidence in the LORD, he sinned. Sin is conceived in self-centeredness, pride, and fear. Sin translates destructive motives into distractive actions.

7. Proverbs 6:1-11 -- The Bible commands that you stay out of debt and to work hard for what you need rather than borrowing from others for what you need.

8. Proverbs 6:12-15 -- God expects you to always tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

9. Proverbs 6:16 -- "There are six things that the Lord hates." Do you know the six things the Lord hates? Don't you think you should have those memorized if God hates them? Good News: You will get to review these six things every month this year.

10. Psalm 1:1, 2 – "Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night." Where do you go for advice? Who or what has the most influence on your daily decision-making? When you have to make a decision, even a seemingly small or insignificant decision, do you start you thinking with God's word? Would you say that God's word is so important to you that it is your "delight"?

11. Psalm 1:6 – "...for the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish." Again, Proverbs 1 talks about the two paths people take: the path of eternal life and path eternal death. Everyone takes one of the two paths. Jesus said, "For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few." (Matthew 7:14) Are you willing to take the hard road to eternal life? Interestingly, Jesus described the way to life as "hard", but Jesus also says, "I am the Way," and "Come to me, all who labor and heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." (Matthew 11:28, 29) Seek to be so yoked to Jesus that the "hard" way may become "easy."

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 6 Jan 18: Consider carefully today who/what is influencing you in life. Who or what are you listening to on a daily basis that is not godly or that isn't from God. Resolve to not "sit in the seat of scoffers" by removing negative influences from your life, even those that 'scoff' in the name of righteousness. Remember that any teacher that doesn't point to Jesus as the answer is a false teacher. For many, moralism has become a 'noble' substitute for the Gospel. Consider what 'good ideas' you have allowed to influence your thinking rather than the purity of God's word. Consider where you have been drinking out of man-made cisterns rather than straight from the Living Water of Jesus. (Jeremiah 2:13) Resolve to fill your mind with Jesus Christ, seeking an ever-increasing relationship with Him. "Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers." (Psalm 1:1)

DBRP- WEEK 1, Day 5, Friday, 5 Jan 2018

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Friday, 5 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 9:1 -- "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth." Again, God commands His people to grow and take control for His glory.
2. Genesis 9:3 -- "Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. And as I gave you the green plants, I give you everything." Notice that before the flood, God gave people "every plant yielding seed that is on the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit." (Gen 1:29) Notice that after the flood, God gave people animals to eat too. And, you will see that, in Genesis 7:2, God told Noah to take "seven pairs of all clean animals.... and seven pairs of birds" in order to provide both food and sacrifices to the Lord. Things changed after the flood, and much theory surrounds these changes, but what is clear is that God expects people to eat meat in a balanced way and has made provision for people to eat meat.
3. Genesis 9:6 -- "Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed, for God made man in his own image." Many use verses such as this to argue against the death penalty without mentioning that the Biblical punishment for murder is public execution. Also, contrary to modern popular opinion, this verse again drives home the point that people are not just higher forms of animals -- they are created by God with spiritual potential that animals cannot possess. Organizations that prioritize animals over people are unbiblical.
4. Genesis 9:13 -- "I have set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth." What does the rainbow really symbolize?
5. Proverbs 5:3-6 -- "For the lips of a forbidden woman drip honey, and her speech is smoother than oil, but in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps follow the path to Sheol; she does not ponder the path of life; her ways wander, and she does not know it." Sin is selfishly choosing pleasure and self-gratification over love, faithfulness, and obedience, with no consideration of the consequences or the inevitable destruction to follow. The sinful are blind to the reality of sin because their eyes are not on God, and they aren't viewing things from God's perspective.
6. Proverbs 5:7, 8 -- "And now, O sons, listen to me, and do not depart from the words of my mouth. Keep your way far from her, and do not go near the door of her house." Laws and social moral codes cannot keep you from sin, only faith can. Faith gives more value to the unseen than the seen. Faith is more motivated by God's word, which cannot be seen or handled, than the appealing physical things right in front of us. Do you believe God and His Majesty is more real and more wonderful than the 'shiny apples' at your fingertips?
7. Proverbs 5:12 -- "...How I hated discipline...." You will choose between two pains in life: the pain of discipline or the pain of regret.
8. Proverbs 5:22 -- "The iniquities of the wicked ensnare him, and he is held fast in the cords of his sin." Do not be trapped by sin.
9. Matthew 5:2 -- "And he opened his mouth and taught them." Proverbs describes two roads we can take in life, the path of the righteous, and the path of the wicked. (Proverbs 2:20-22) At the crossroads of these two paths is the word "if" -- "if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you... if you call out for insight and raise your voice for understanding... if you seek it like silver and search for it as for hidden treasures, then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God. For the Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding; for wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.” (Proverbs 2:1-10) What we do with God’s word, and how we respond to God’s word, His teachings, and His commandments is crucial. In our readings today, Jesus delivers His first recorded teaching to the ‘crowds’ and to His disciples which I believe it would have been shocking to everyone in the audience. How we respond to

His teaching today is crucial. First, He describes the heart of a true disciple: humble, mournful, meek, hungry and thirsty for righteousness, merciful, pure, reconciliatory, and resolute. (Matthew 5:2-11) Then He describes the fruit of the heart of the true disciple, “good works” that can only point to God and that glorify God before men, standing out as a beacon before men, radically different than the artificial, self-righteous good works of the world. He describes a hyper obedience that is concerned by every “iota” and “dot”, an obedience that does not take a ‘relaxed’ approach to God’s commandments nor teaches others to do so. (Matthew 5:17-19) However, the obedience Jesus describes is to far exceed the ‘righteousness’ of the Pharisees because of the ‘beatitude’ heart behind the obedience. Jesus then makes His point with the commandments against murder, adultery, divorce, deceitfulness, and vengeance, pointing to the sinful heart that has already disobeyed the First Commandment (Thou shalt have no other gods before me.) and the Great Commandment (Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.... Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself). All other commandments rest on the First and the Greatest. Long before anyone has broken the others, they have already broken these. So, Jesus drives the point home further by talking about loving our enemies. By this point, everyone with an ounce of humility in the crowd would have felt very uncomfortable and hopefully repentant. Many in the modern ‘grace’ movement would suggest that Jesus’ ‘impossible’ standard points not only to our absolute dependence on Grace (which is true) but also to a more ‘relaxed’ approach to God’s Commandments (which is exactly opposite of what Jesus is teaching). Jesus further exemplifies his teaching on wholehearted obedience in a latter discussion with the Pharisees -- “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others.” (Matthew 23:23) Note, that Jesus is NOT nullifying the details of the law for sake of the “weightier matters” but is rather saying that God demands both. Grace is not an excuse for complacency, and Jesus concludes his sermon with these words: “You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.” For the disciple, this is an all-in, wholehearted, dauntless pursuit of righteousness with the goal being unity with the Father and the Son as Jesus describes in his prayer in John 17. In our righteousness (achieved through Christ and Christ alone), we pursue righteousness that we may ‘abide’ in Him and glorify Him. “As he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, ‘You shall be holy, for I am holy.’” (1 Peter 1:15, 16)

10. Matthew 5:16 – “In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.” Our goal must be to have our words and deeds give glory to God, not to ourselves. Too many Christians hope to share glory with God (Moses’ big mistake). It isn’t about you; it’s about God. If people are singing your praises at the end of the day, you have received your reward on earth rather than Heaven. If they are praising God at the end of the day, your reward is awaiting you in Heaven.

11. Matthew 5:19, 20 – “Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.” God’s Law is a product of God’s righteousness, justice, grace, love, and will. A Christian, like Jesus, seeks to fulfill God’s Law, not relax on them in the name of “grace.” A Christian’s righteousness exceeds that of the Pharisees, not because we fulfill God’s Law out of fear, pride, or duty, but rather out of LOVE. If we tell people that they can relax on God’s commands, we may still be going to Heaven, but we will be the least in the Kingdom.

12. Matthew 5:22 – “Everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment.” The murderer and the un-righteously angry have this in common: they have both violated the 1st Commandment and the Great Commandment which is also deserving of death.

13. Matthew 5:23, 24 – “So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.” We cannot leave conflict unresolved as Christians. Before any other gift to Him, God wants us to honor Him with unconditional forgiveness and reconciliation. Just as God took the initiative with us, we must be the leaders in forgiveness, regardless of how we have been offended. With no delay, forgive.

14. Matthew 5:24 – “But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.” This is how Jesus feels about divorce, and this is His command concerning divorce. It seems pretty clear, regardless of the fact that most denominations have “relaxed” on this command, perhaps because so many Christians have divorced. We have all sinned in many ways, but our response should be to repent, accept forgiveness, pursue future righteousness, and speak out against sin, even those we have committed. When we speak out against sins we have committed, many will consider that to be hypocritical, but the word hypocrite means, “actor,” pretending to be something we are not. We are forgiven sinners who seek God’s will in all of our future actions. We don’t stand against sin in a judgmental way, from some misguided perception of superiority, we warn others out of love and speak the truth in love.

15. Matthew 5:37 – “Let what you say be simply ‘Yes’ or ‘No’; anything more than this comes from evil.” If you don’t do what you say you are going to do (“I promise” is not required), you are lying and are being led by evil rather than following Jesus.

16. Matthew 5:38-42 -- “You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’ But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you.” God expects us to do what is unreasonable in all relationships, even if we are clearly being taken advantage of by others. So, do you give to the beggar who you suspect will use your gift inappropriately? Do you lend to the one who doesn’t deserve it or can’t really be trusted?

17. Matthew 5:44 – “But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven.” One of the true tests of your spiritual maturity is how you treat your enemies and those who wrongfully hurt you. Christian love truly loves enemies and seeks their reconciliation with God.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) -- 5 Jan 18: Begin the New Year by personally forgiving everyone who has wronged you and by seeking forgiveness from those you have wronged, whether they know you have wronged them or not (no secret sins). Seek reconciliation in every relationship. Be the leader, and take the initiative, but don't do it in your name or through your power. Do it in the name of JESUS CHRIST and through the power of the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 5:23, 24)

DBRP- WEEK 1, Day 4, Thursday, 4 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+7%2C+8%3B+proverbs+4%3B+matt+4>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Thursday, 4 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 7:1 -- "Then the LORD said to Noah, 'Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you are righteous before Me in this generation.'" The children of Noah faced a significant decision. They lived in a world where everyone blatantly disregarded God. Wickedness was the norm. No one would have condemned Noah's sons for living evil lives like the rest of society—no one except their father. In a world rampant with ungodly attitudes and every form of wicked behavior, they were fortunate to be Noah's sons. When their father invited them to spend the next hundred years building an ark in obedience to a word from God, Noah's sons had to choose whether to believe those around them or to trust their father. They chose to join their father. What a wonderful testimony of Noah's godly influence in his home! How fortunate for Shem, Ham, and Japheth that their father refused to compromise his integrity, even though everyone else in his society had done so. Your life has an influence on those around you as well. Your spouse and your children are profoundly affected by your choices. Your coworkers, your neighbors, and your friends will all be impacted by your life. As the world tries to persuade people to follow its standard, your life should stand in stark contrast as an example of a righteous person. Your life should convince those around you of the wisdom of following God. Do not underestimate the positive effect that your obedience will have upon those close to you. (Henry T. Blackaby)

2. Genesis 7:5 -- "And Noah did all that the Lord had commanded him." Noah's key attribute was unconditional obedience. The Christian life demands unconditional obedience as God directs us down paths we never intended to go. Obedience is not required just in the 'big' things but especially in the small things as we strive for holiness. Every small decision you make both reveals your character and shapes your character, for better or for worse. Obedience is a product of faith that also strengthens our faith for the future.

3. Genesis 7:13 -- "On the very same day Noah and his sons, Shem and Ham and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them entered the ark." The Christian life is a life of leadership, guiding others in God's will. Leadership starts with those closest to you. Christians serve God in relationships, not in isolation. We have a responsibility to serve as Christ's Ambassador in the lives of those around us. A leader knows the way and shows the way. Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life...." A true leader is closely following Jesus and directing others towards Him. Fortunately for

Noah's family, Noah was walking with God, and his family were willing to follow Noah against all practical reason.

4. Genesis 7:16 -- "And the Lord shut him in." Noah did all that God commanded, but God completed the work in a way only He could enable. God demands that we work diligently for His purposes, but He works beyond our abilities to glorify Himself. The Christian life trusts in and depends upon the power of God. God's path will be impossible for us to walk in our own strength, though we are called to press forward with all our might in faith that we do not labor in vain. Our dependence in God, which requires faith, reveals the power of God in our lives, both to ourselves and to those around us. It does not take faith to do what we already know we are capable of doing.

5. Genesis 8:20 -- "Then Noah built an altar to the Lord and took some of every clean animal and some of every clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar." The Christian life begins with worship, is lived in constant worship, and ends in worship. In ALL things, God gets ALL the glory. Noah began his new life on earth with worship and sacrifice (a tremendous act of faith considering his scarcity of resources). Begin this year in worship.

6. Proverbs 4:7 -- "The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight." Wisdom comes only from God, but we must make the choice to receive it. This is not small choice -- it is life defining. You will either choose to trust God implicitly or will choose to trust your own understanding. If you want God's wisdom, you must sit at His feet in Bible study and prayer and listen. You must then get up and walk with Him, following His every step rather than expecting God to follow you. Set your heart to following God -- this is the first step.

7. Proverbs 4:14 -- "Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of the evil." With the choice to follow God comes the decision to follow no one else. Who are the wicked? Those who are not following in the footsteps of Jesus, those who lift themselves up as the leader. If they are not continually pointing to Jesus, and if they are using themselves as the example, let them go their own way. Jesus is not a help-mate -- He is the Leader. Be a respecter of no man and a disciple of Jesus.

8. Proverbs 4:18 -- "But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day." No Christian follows Jesus perfectly or is perfected in love, but if they are seeking Him with all their hearts, they are getting closer to Him every day and are growing in love every day. Day by day, their light becomes brighter.

9. Proverbs 4:23 -- "Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life." Above all else, guard your heart. All of life's issues start with the heart. Fortunately, the Bible doesn't just tell you to protect your heart, it tells you how to protect your heart. Read the rest of Proverbs to understand some of the actions required to protect your heart. (Proverbs 4:24-27)

10. Matthew 4:1 -- "Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil." The Spirit led Jesus into temptation. What do you make of that? The Christian life is led by the Spirit rather than just human reasoning and understanding. The Spirit will lead in ways that don't seem to make sense to us and that may be very uncomfortable, even scary. It takes faith to trust the invisible Eternal over the visible, tangible, temporal.

11. Matthew 4:3 -- Now when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread." Jesus was tempted in every way that we are, yet He never sinned

(Heb. 4:15). Jesus began His public ministry with His baptism. As John the Baptist raised Him from the water, Jesus heard His Father's affirmation, "Well done!" Immediately afterward, Jesus spent forty days fasting in the wilderness. There, Satan met Him and presented three temptations. First, Satan enticed Jesus to use His divine power to transform stones into bread. It seemed like a logical thing to do. Jesus was hungry, but He had a much greater need to follow His Father's leading. The Father had led Him to fast; Satan sought to persuade Him to eat. Next, Satan tried to convince Jesus to use Satan's means to accomplish the Father's ends. "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down" (Matt. 4:6). Jesus understood that this would be presumption, not faith. It would be attempting God's work in the world's way. The world looks for spectacular displays; God uses a holy life. The final temptation Satan proposed for Jesus to worship Satan (Matt. 4:8-9). In return, Satan offered to give Him worldly success without suffering the cross. Jesus knew that only God was to be worshiped and to do this would not bring instant success, as Satan promised, but seemingly devastating failure, pain and suffering. As you seek to follow God, temptations will inevitably come. Sometimes they will come to you immediately after a spiritual victory. Jesus relied on God's Word to see Him through the temptations that could have destroyed Him and thwarted God's plan. He has modeled the way for you to meet every temptation. (Henry T. Blackaby)

12. Matthew 4:3-11 – Satan tempted Jesus by perverting God's word. However, Jesus knew God's word well enough, within its proper context, to refute Satan's man-centered false teaching.

13. Matthew 4:4 -- "It is written, "'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" To a Christian, God's word is more essential to life than food. God's word is our daily nourishment that enters inside of us and builds up our souls. We are what we eat. In an age where obesity is at epidemic proportions, Christians would do well to prefer God's word over bread. Here is a good habit: don't eat until you have done your daily Bible study and prayer.

14. Matthew 4:7 -- "Again it is written, 'You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.'" The Christian understands that God is God and we are merely humble servants, created by Him for His glory. We are here to serve Him, not vice versa. God has nothing to prove to us and certainly owes us nothing. Proper fear of the Lord does not presume anything. We receive both good and bad circumstances with thanksgiving to God that we may glorify Him as He has sought fit for us. We also don't decide God's plan or how we will serve Him. It's God's plan, and He must assign the tasks.

15. Matthew 4:10 -- "'You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.'" Christians serve God and God alone, period. Our measure of success is how well we are serving, honoring, loving, and glorifying God. Most acts of service involve serving others, but not just serving others, serving others in the NAME OF CHRIST, not in our name or the name of any other institution made by men. When we serve and give, we DO NOT represent ourselves in any way.

16. Matthew 4:11 -- "Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and were ministering to him." The Christian is ministered to by angels.

17. Matthew 4:19 -- And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." From our readings today, we can learn much about the life of a true disciple: The Christian objective is people, not riches, not fame, not comfort, not happiness, not programs, just people. We serve as instruments of God to advance the Kingdom one heart at a time. Jesus focused most of his time, energy, and effort on just twelve people (prioritizing three). He had no riches, started no organizations, wrote no books, built no monuments, and though he spoke to thousands, never tried to lead massive movements. He fulfilled God's will, one day at a time, with what God place in front of him.

18. Matthew 4:20 -- "Immediately they left their nets and followed him." God's plan takes you off of your plan and requires personal risk. The committed, usable Christian responds to God's call immediately, no hesitation. This takes significant faith because God will take you away from your plans and your self-reliant security. It will require a choice between the world's version of success and God's version of success. God's version is not appealing to the world and will receive little if any honor from the world.

19. Matthew 4:23 -- "And he went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people." Again, the Christian life involves healing, teaching, and proclaiming the Gospel. Ministry is NEVER separated from the message. It isn't just about 'good deeds' it is about the Great Commission. After we have 'denied self', we 'take up the cross', which involves accepting our identity as an Ambassador for Christ, and then we follow Christ.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 4 Jan 18: Endeavor to serve others as a representative of Jesus rather than just another nice person. Connect the Savior to your service. Make sure everyone understands that it is not you who works but Jesus who is working through you. When you impact the lives of others, leave them thinking about Jesus, not about you. (Matt 4)

DBRP- WEEK 1, Day 3, Wednesday, 3 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+5%2C+6%3B+proverbs+3%3B+matt+3>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Wednesday, 3 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 5:22 – "Enoch walked with God." The Bible only uses the phrase "walked with God" to describe the lives of Enoch and Noah, both used mightily by God. Our goal should be to make that our epitaph!
2. Genesis 6:8, 9 – "But Noah found favor in the eyes of the Lord. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation. Noah walked with God." In a corrupt world, Noah stood out as faithful. In his fidelity, God revealed to Noah what no one else could see and used Noah to play a critical role in redemptive history. We should seek to be blameless on our generation. Are you willing to defy the entire world for God?
3. Genesis 6:9 – "Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation. Noah walked with God." Who are you walking with? Your actions reveal the answer.
4. Genesis 6:13 – "And God said to Noah, 'I have determined to make an end of all flesh.'" God reveals His plans to His faithful servants, those who can be trusted with revelation as evidenced by their response to God's commandments.
5. Genesis 6:19 – "They shall be male and female." Gender confusion does not come from God.
6. Genesis 6:22 – "Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him." Again, Noah could be trusted to obey completely. Note that Jesus commanded that His disciples make disciples who would "obey all that I have commanded." Obedience is the proof of faith, hope, and love.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

7. Genesis 6:22 – “Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him.” Noah was known for total obedience, making him usable by God to do great things. Be known for total obedience to God.

8. Proverbs 3:3 – “Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you.” Love and faithfulness go hand-in-hand. If you love God, you will obey Him. If you struggle to obey, understand that it is a heart problem. Don’t simply try to strengthen your resolve, get to the “heart” of the problem. In your failure, turn closer to Jesus, not further away. Don’t give up, surrender instead. Turn your life over to Jesus more completely.

9. Proverbs 3:4 – “So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man.” Success is defined by God. Success is found in fulfilling God’s purpose for your life which is becoming one with Him. When you have success with God, you will be respected by the respectable.

10. Proverbs 3:5-8 – “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord, and turn away from evil. It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones.” Another critical theme throughout the Bible – You cannot know what you should do apart from the guidance of the Holy Spirit. To be guided by the Holy Spirit, you must seek to walk in God’s word, to obey God’s word, to make the decision to turn away from evil (disobedience). Only God can keep your path straight. If you choose to trust in self, you will walk away from God no matter how much you ask God to bless what you have chosen to do. God does not follow you, you must follow God.

11. Proverbs 3:9, 10 – “Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce; then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.” When you are working for God, when your life is dedicated to Him, you give Him your best, not what is left. You put God first with your focus, your time, your energy, and your resources. When God is first, you will no longer struggle to find time for Him.

12. Proverbs 3:11-12 – “My son, do not despise the Lord’s discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the Lord reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights.” Are you grateful for God’s discipline in your life? How do you respond?

13. Proverbs 3:19 – “The Lord by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding he established the heavens.” When you walk in the wisdom which only comes from God, you walk in harmony with all creation. You tap into the powers that control the universe, the power of the Creator! Nothing can compare to that.

14. Proverbs 3:24-26 – “If you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet. Do not be afraid of sudden terror or of the ruin of the wicked, when it comes, for the Lord will be your confidence.” The prohibition most repeated by Jesus in the Bible is “Do not fear”, or “Fear not”. When you are walking with Jesus, you never need to worry about your circumstances. Even in death, you can trust that your perfectly loving, all powerful Father is giving you the very best for you, far greater than you can imagine.

15. Proverbs 3:27-28 – “Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it. Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it”—when you have it with you.” God’s greatest commandment for us is love, and He expects instant and willing obedience. Don’t hesitate in your obedience by withholding love, even for a second. If you see a need, meet the need immediately. See what happens.

16. Matthew 3:1, 2 – “In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, ‘Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.’” As with Jesus, John the Baptist’s first message was “repent”. We don’t hear that word used much anymore, though it remains critical to the Gospel message. Damnation must be understood before salvation can be appreciated. We must remember that we are saved, not from the earthly consequences of our sinful behavior, but from the wrath of The Holy God. You must know the bad news before you can appreciate the Good News.

17. Matthew 3:4 – “Now John wore a garment of camel’s hair and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey.” John the Baptist was not focused on the comforts of life. He was focused on preaching the word of God.

18. Matthew 3:7 -- “You brood of vipers!” Today, few would dare talk to others about their sin as John the Baptist did for fear that they would be labelled as “judgmental”. Jesus used the same sort of language several times, and even physically attacked people in the Temple. In John 7:24, Jesus says, “Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment.” How do you make sense of that?

19. Matthew 3:8 – “Bear fruit in keeping with repentance.” True repentance produces fruit revealed in a changed life.

20. Matthew 3:8 -- “Bear fruit in keeping with repentance.” John the Baptist came, preaching in the Desert of Judea, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” His message mirrors that of Jesus, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” (Matthew 4:17) A confession of faith starts with repentance. The Greek word is metanoēō, which means to “change your mind”, or to change the ‘intent of your heart’. (Acts 8:22) Of course, the expectation is that with a changed heart comes a changed life, the ‘fruit of repentance’, the product and evidence of faith. Today, we read the story of Noah who “found favor in the eyes of the Lord.... Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation. Noah walked with God.” (Genesis 5:8, 9) I prefer the King James translation in this verse: “But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.” The word ‘grace’ here being the Hebrew word chên, “kindness and mercy imposed by a superior to an inferior.” The order of the verses in this account matters – Moses received “grace” and was made “righteous” or ‘right’ in the eyes of God; Moses then, in response to grace, lived righteously and “walked with God”. What does it look like to walk with God? “Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him.” (Genesis 6:22) Noah lived “by every word that [came] from the mouth of God. (Matthew 4:4; Deuteronomy 8:3) In today’s readings, we see Jesus exemplify the fruitful life of obedience by being Baptized by John the Baptist though Jesus was without sin – “But Jesus answered him, ‘Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.’” (Matthew 4:15) Noah was certainly not perfect when God called him, and as we will soon read, Noah still messed up terribly after God called him; nonetheless, Noah ‘pursued’ righteousness and obedience, rendering him usable by God for a critical task requiring much attention to detail (obedience in the smallest of matters). We should encourage one another to walk with God in obedience, confident in grace.

- Isaiah 1:19 -- If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land;

- Acts 6:7 -- And the word of God continued to increase, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests became obedient to the faith.

 - Romans 6:16 -- Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?
 - Romans 6:17 -- But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed,
 - Romans 15:18 -- For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed,

 - 1 Peter 1:2 -- according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you.
 - 1 Peter 1:14 -- As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance,
 - 1 Peter 1:22 -- Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart,
21. Matthew 3:12 -- “His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.” Jesus separates the true followers of God from everyone else.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

22. Matthew 3:15 – “But Jesus answered him, ‘Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.’” Again, Jesus modelled obedience and submitted Himself to the will of the Father in humility. He is our example of obedience.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 3 Jan 18: Resolve to develop a reputation, first and foremost, as a person who walks with God. Resolve to stand out as holy, pure, and faithful. Make your first priority, your daily goal to reveal Christ to others in both your words and your deeds. Stand out in such a way that all credit and glory is given to Jesus and none to you. Judge your success today and every day based on how well you serve as an agent of reconciliation between people and Jesus -- 2 Corinthians 5:18-20: "All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God." (See today's reasons)

DBRP- WEEK 1, Day 2, Tuesday, 2 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+3%2C+4%3B+proverbs+2%3B+matt+2>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Tuesday, 2 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 3:1 -- “Did God actually say...?” Sin starts with questioning God’s word and trying to alter its obvious meaning in order to accommodate sin. How important is it then to personally know God’s word? Then, how important is it to actually trust God’s word rather than second-guessing it? How important is it to trust enough to obey God’s word even when it doesn’t seem to make sense? Most people hardly know God’s word, and all who know God’s word (though no one knows it well enough) are tempted to doubt it and to rely on their own opinions instead. When Jesus was tempted by Satan in the desert, Jesus responded with the right application of God’s word which Jesus had memorized – He is our example.

2. Genesis 3:4 -- “You will not surely die.” It is not enough to ‘believe in God’, which, as James reminds us, even the demons do – “You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder!” (James 2:19) At least the demons shudder -- many today don’t even do that; demon-like faith would be a step up for some. We must not just ‘believe in God’, we must ‘believe God’. The Christian life is about believing God and trusting Him -- faith. It is about living by every word that proceeds from His mouth (Deut. 8:3; Matt. 4:4). To say that we live by every word that God speaks is the same as saying we trust Him implicitly -- we take God at His word. This is the kind of faith that the Bible calls, in one sense, childlike faith (not childish but childlike). We don’t trust in our own understanding, but rather in His perfect wisdom (Proverbs 3:5); we aren’t controlled by our own desires but rather His (2 Corinthians 5:14). Faith is obedient. The Bible says that without faith, it is impossible to please God because we won’t believe Him enough to do what He commands, which will usually be contrary to our desires and to human wisdom. (Hebrews 11:6; Isaiah 55:8) Paul writes, in 1 Corinthians 13, of the great triad of Christian virtues: faith, hope, and love – faith: trusting God now; hope: trusting God’s future promise (faith projected forward); love: unity with God and both the source and fruit of genuine faith. The greatest of these is love, and Jesus tells us that love obeys. One of the first steps of faith in a Christian’s life is to prayerfully study God's word. At first, this might be difficult, but love will make this a passion rather than a difficult task. However, careful study of God's word must be followed by obedience to God's word; this is where the heart is tested, and this is where knowledge turns to true understanding. Adam and Eve knew God's word and, like Jesus did in the desert, responded to Satan's temptations by reciting God's word. However, unlike Jesus, Adam and Eve trusted themselves more than they trusted God's word. They allowed their emotions, passions, and desires to influence their decision-making more than God's word. The visible, tangible apple in front of them became more real to them than the invisible God that created it. They became practical atheists and dethroned the KING, replacing Him with the idol of self. At the moment of decision, their "Yes" became bigger than their "No". One seemingly small decision had eternal consequences. As with Adam and Eve, our problem is not usually that we don't know what God wants, we simply don't want to do what God wants. Our problem is not the gap between ignorance and knowledge but rather the chasm between knowledge and commitment. Why? Because the reality of who God is isn't real enough in our lives. At the point of decision (which is continuous), our faith must trust the invisible Eternal more than the visible temporal – "we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal." (2 Corinthians 4:18) Jesus said, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me." (Luke 9:23) The first obstacle is self, the "I" in idol. The battle against self is a "daily" struggle.

3. Genesis 3:4, 5 – "But the serpent said to the woman, 'You will not surely die. For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.'" When we doubt God's word, we are doubting God Himself, questioning His Sovereignty, Righteousness, Holiness, Perfection, and Love. We are committing cosmic treason, trying to claim the rights of authority for ourselves. Treason against God is a crime deserving of death. The God of Justice must deal with this sin; The God of Grace and Mercy gave his Son to pay that penalty.

4. Genesis 3:6 – "So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate, and she also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate." Again, sin involves trusting our own perceptions over God's word; it involves preferring what can be seen over what is unseen. Sin places selfish desires over God's commands. Sin seeks self-gratification over obedience to God. Sin promotes self over God. When we sin, we also promote sin in others. We lead others away from God, whether we realize it or not.

5. Genesis 3:7 – "Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked." Sin destroys relationships because it makes us selfish and untrustworthy. All relationships are built on trust. Real trust can only be found in love which will never take advantage of the other person. Only in selfless, loving relationships can people be safely vulnerable and fully exposed, fully open, truly one. Love and obedience go hand-in-hand. God's greatest commandment calls us to love Him wholly, and the second greatest commandment is to love others though they are incapable of loving us unselfishly. This means we are called to be vulnerably exposed to others despite the fact that, in imperfect love, they will undoubtedly hurt us. This is why Jesus said that to "come after Him", we must deny self (be selfless), take up our cross (loving the unloving who will hurt us), and follow Him. This is why Jesus promised that His true disciples would suffer persecution. When we suffer because we lovingly expose ourselves to unloving people that they might see the love of Christ, we fellowship with Jesus.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

6. Genesis 3:8 – “And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.” The guilt we feel from sin causes us to separate, even hide from God. Guilt prevents us from experiencing the fullness of joy that comes from close relationship with God, and this hurts all of our earthly relationships. Key to all of our relationships is having unquestioned faith in forgiveness from God through faith in Jesus Christ who paid for our sins once and for all. With grace through Jesus, we can walk with God confidently, fully exposed, without fear. When we sin again, we don’t have to hide our sins from our loving Father who gave His Son to pay for those sins. We can lay those sins before the Lord, repent of them, and start anew, pressing forward to ever-increasing holiness. As we confidently accept continual forgiveness through Christ, we must then freely give forgiveness to those who will continually sin against us – how could we possibly do otherwise?

7. Genesis 3:9 – “But the Lord God called to the man and said to him, ‘Where are you?’” God has always called out to the sinner.

8. Genesis 3:12, 13 – “The man said, ‘The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate.’ Then the Lord God said to the woman, ‘What is this that you have done?’ The woman said, ‘The serpent deceived me, and I ate.’” People have a tendency to blame God and others for their sins. One of the first steps to getting right with God is being humble enough to take responsibility for your sins, to stop blaming someone else or your circumstances for your sins. Pride makes it hard to be honest with yourself and before God. You cannot fix what you are not willing to be honest about.

9. Genesis 3:15 – “...he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.” This is the first proclamation of the Gospel, prophesying Jesus’ victory over Satan. When Jesus was wounded on the Cross, Satan was dealt a mortal blow.

10. Genesis 3:16 – “Your desire shall be contrary to your husband.” God knew from the beginning that marriage would be a unique struggle between man and woman; marriage is the schoolhouse for Christ-like character development. Marriage is the primary place where people learn how to love selflessly, sacrificially, and unconditionally. This is the primary place most people are called to deny self, take of their cross (in relationships), and follow Jesus. As our example, Jesus hung on a cross and freely gave His life for those who persecuted Him, and as He died a brutal death, He said, “Forgive them Father, for they know not what they do.” Your spouse will mistreat you, but your “cross” will never compare to the forgiving sacrifice Jesus gave on your behalf, the sacrifice upon which you place your hope. In your domestic struggles, deny yourself and take up your cross as an act of love, first for Jesus and then for others. God knows what you are going through and has given you a great opportunity to both glorify Him and draw nearer to Him. You worship God primarily in your relationships, and your greatest worship is found in your closest relationships.

11. Genesis 3:17 -- “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, ‘You shall not eat of it,’ cursed is the ground because of you.” Whoever or whatever on this earth has the most control over you at the moment of decision is your god, or better stated, idol. Your choices that are made outside of the authority and will of God cannot be blessed by God, only cursed. God still loves you, but He will not honor your disobedience, and He will not accept idols in your life. One of the most important things you can do this year, and every year, is continually consider why you do what you do. What is the real motivation behind your actions? Are you truly serving God or serving self (sometimes with great religiosity)? Are you motivated by selfless love or fear, pride, greed, or self-righteousness? Is something other than God driving your decisions? Does fear of man have more relevancy in your life than fear of God? Are you trusting in Him, trusting in self, or trusting in others? Do you have a Savior or a Lord and Savior? If you are honest, you will admit that your motives are mixed, and if you are humble, you will earnestly seek the Holy Spirit's power in your life to purify your motives. Throughout each day, examine your heart and continually pray for greater purity, again, always walking confidently in the grace of God. Don't stare at or wallow in your constant past mistakes but keep pressing forward in Christ, seeking a closer walk with Him with each step.

12. Genesis 3:19 – “By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread, till you return to the ground.” At the very beginning of this year, you can put the “prosperity gospel” teachings to rest. Life is guaranteed to be challenging for all, including the faithful Christian. You will work hard, experience many life crises, get sick, and eventually die, no matter how many times God heals you for a time. Times might be hard today, but as you read the Bible, consider what life was like for those you are reading it about. When was it ever easy? In his final recorded prayer for us in John 17, Jesus specifically states that He is not praying for us to be kept from life's challenges but that we would be protected from the temptations of Satan as we go through them, that we would remain one with Him through life's challenges. The Bible will teach you this year that, in Jesus, we can have contentment, peace, rest, and joy despite life's challenges. Read carefully and prayerfully to understand this truth.

13. Genesis 3:20 – “The man called his wife's name Eve, because she was the mother of all living.” God values men and women equally, though He gives them very different roles and responsibilities. Our popular culture challenges these roles, in part, by implying that certain roles and responsibilities are more important than others. The Bible gives certain authorities to men over women, much like the Father has certain authorities over the Son, though the Son is no less God or less important than the Father. The general designs the strategy, but the colonel designs the operations, the captain executes the tactics, and the sergeants put the rounds on the targets – they are all essential to winning the battles that win the war, none of them worthier of praise than the other. We all have our roles to play. Success is found in fidelity to God in our unique purpose. Nothing good happens on the battlefield when sergeants try to be generals and when generals try to be sergeants.

14. Genesis 3:21 -- “And the Lord God made for Adam and for his wife garments of skins and clothed them.” In His grace and mercy, God shields us from the total impact of our sins.

15. Genesis 3:22 – “Then the Lord God said, ‘Behold, the man has become like one of us in knowing good and evil. Now, lest he reach out his hand and take also of the tree of life and eat, and live forever.’” God places limits on us for our own benefit and for the benefit of others around us. He gives us what is best over what we want. If we got what we wanted, it would ruin us because we don't want what He wants. God's answer to your prayers is often “No,” for good reason. Trust Him with “No.” The more what you want is what He wants, the more you will hear “Yes.”

16. Genesis 3:24 – “He drove out the man.” For His perfect purposes, God will often take you where you don't want to go and will have you experience hardships you don't want. Again, trust Him. He may drive you out, but He will never abandon you, and He remains in complete control.

17. Genesis 4:1 -- “I have gotten a man with the help of the Lord.” God creates life, not us. The lives of the unborn belong to God, not to mothers or fathers.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

18. Genesis 4:4-7 – “And the Lord had regard for Abel and his offering, but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his face fell. The Lord said to Cain, ‘Why are you angry, and why has your face fallen? If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is contrary to you, but you must rule over it.’” One of the first, most powerful, and most dangerous sins recorded in the Bible, revisited countless times throughout the remainder of the Bible, is envy. Envy is obviously directed at other people, but ultimately it is directed at God. We are angry because God has given somebody something He hasn’t given us. We are challenging God’s justice and fairness. Resentment creeps in and takes control of us, causing us to sin against God and others. The Bible says that envy destroys us – “rots the bones”. Envy drove Cain to murder. Envy caused the religious leaders of the day to murder Jesus. God calls us to focus on our relationship with Him and to be content with what He has given us rather than to compare our lives with others. Focus on your fidelity to Him, not on your circumstances.

19. Genesis 4:7 – “If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it.” The greatest battle we fight in life is with self, or “the flesh”. We must resist our temptations to sin. The world and the devil are external temptations, but the flesh tempts us from within, making it our greatest threat. Through your Bible readings this year, you will learn how to resist internal temptations.

20. Genesis 4:9 – “Am I my brother’s keeper?” Another major theme throughout the Bible is that God holds us accountable of taking care of others around us. We are never permitted to act as if we are not responsible for others. Yes, you are your brother’s keeper.

21. Genesis 4:14 – “Behold, you have driven me today away from the ground, and from your face I shall be hidden. I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me.” Even evil Cain knew that He was helpless without God’s provision and protection. The height of arrogance is for a person to believe that they are in control of their life.

22. Genesis 4:15 -- “Not so! If anyone kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.” God Himself protects the sinner. We cannot possibly know what God is doing in the life of an obvious sinner. We are called to judge the actions, not the person. Our job is to seek to help others be reconciled with Jesus, not condemn them, even if we must punish them.

23. Genesis 4:17 – “When he built a city, he called the name of the city after the name of his son, Enoch.” When people walk away from God, they glorify themselves over God. They build monuments to themselves rather than God. They want people to recognize them and remember them rather than to recognize and remember God. The Christian doesn’t want any credit, any accolades, or any attention. The Christian’s whole life points to Jesus. Christian, be very wary of the vertical personal pronoun of “I”. Don’t try to share glory with Jesus. You were called to be an ambassador for Jesus, not an ambassador for yourself. Do everything in the name of Jesus, not in your own name.

24. Genesis 4:24 – “If Cain’s revenge is sevenfold, then Lamech’s is seventy-sevenfold.” A godless people become increasingly obsessed with sex and violence, and they grow a distorted view of justice while viewing mercy as weakness.

25. Genesis 4:26 – “At that time people began to call upon the name of the Lord.” The Bible shows a division in society right from the beginning between the lineage of Cain who walked away from God and sought their own power, and the lineage of Seth who called upon God. Everyone places their faith in something. Some will trust earthly power, and some will trust God. Within the political cycle, many will be proclaimed as the hope of the nation; how often did you hear people proclaiming Jesus as the hope for our nation? While everyone is preaching politics, hopefully you will preach the Gospel.

26. Proverbs 2:1-5 – There are three conditions (“if”) to obtaining the “knowledge of God”. Do you know what they are, and are you meeting the conditions? Review: “My son, IF you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you, making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding; yes, IF you call out for insight and raise your voice for understanding, IF you seek it like silver and search for it as for hidden treasures, then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God.” These verses contain the first “If... then” statements in our readings this year, the first conditional blessings from God. You will see conditional blessings throughout the Bible this year – make note of them. Yes, to receive the fullness of God’s blessings, we must do something. Our responsibility starts with receiving and treasuring His word, studying it, applying it, and praying to Him for more and more understanding. Only through reading and applying God’s word can we find the knowledge of God. Key to this year’s Bible study is understanding that you won’t understand what you don’t apply. For example, you can’t understand football simply by reading all the best books on football. You have to play the game, succeed and fail, get bruised and battered, get dirty, etc. Likewise, when the Holy Spirit tells you what you need to do, you must do it to understand it and to eventually win the game.

27. Proverbs 2:6 – “For the Lord gives wisdom.” Another critical theme in the Bible – wisdom comes only from God. Wisdom is knowledge rightly applied. There are many knowledgeable people in the world, but not many wise people in the world. The Holy Spirit must guide you beyond your very limited intellect to do what you cannot understand through your own ability.

28. Proverbs 2:6-22 – Everyone is on one of two paths in life. One path, the path of life, is only known through Jesus Christ; it cannot be found by anyone else. We must deny self and follow Jesus Christ to be on this path; in fact, He is the path, the “way, the truth, and the life”. No one can get to God apart from Him. Jesus said that His path was a very narrow path that few would find. The other path, the path of destruction, is very wide, and the majority take this path. This path is for those who choose not to deny self and follow Jesus.

29. Proverbs 2:10 – “For wisdom will come into your heart.” Wisdom is not a mental issue, it is a heart issue. Wisdom is not achieved intellectually, it is achieved spiritually. Wisdom is knowledge controlled by love and applied with love. God is love. To have wisdom we must become one with the God who is love and obey Him in love.

30. Matthew 2:1 – “Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king.” Herod was one of the most powerful kings of his day, his ruins still remain visible to this day. But in the time of Herod, Jesus was born, without earthly wealth, without political power, and without grand acclaim. He had no armies and never built anything we can see today. It took incredible faith to believe that in the time of Herod, a small poor Jewish child was the Savior. Would you have believed then? Do you believe today? Do you believe enough to surrender your life to Him? Have you placed your complete trust in Him? Has He become your life’s purpose?

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

31. Matthew 2:1-7 – “Wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, ‘Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him....’ Herod... [assembled] all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They told him.... Then Herod summoned the wise men secretly and ascertained from them what time the star had appeared.” Very few people knew God’s word well enough to know that the time of Jesus was at hand – almost everyone completely missed it. However, among the very few who knew that the Messiah had come, even fewer sought Him out to honor Him as King. Some studied God’s words with intent to counter Jesus while others studied the same word in order to worship Him. Even armed with superior knowledge, some still chose to reject Jesus. The same remains true today. Elite Bible knowledge is required, but it isn’t enough. Ultimately, belief is a spiritual matter not an intellectual matter.

32. Matthew 2:13, 20 – “Remain there until I tell you.... Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel.” God knows what you cannot know and sees what you cannot see. Our natural perceptions are very limited, but the Holy Spirit can give you supernatural perceptions. When you walk in the Spirit, guided by God’s word, He will lead you where you would not know to go and when you would not know to go. He will keep you from the threats you never saw. Joseph was in-tuned to the Spirit’s guidance because He was committed to obedience. He obeyed the word God had given Him, and God gave Him more. If you are walking in disobedience, you are not in position to hear God’s next instruction.

33. Matthew 2:22, 23 – God can use what seem to be bad situations to fulfill His intent and purpose. Sometimes, from our incredibly limited perspective, what looks bad might be God doing a mighty work in our lives for His glory and our blessing.

"Cross" Fit S-WOD (Spiritual Workout of the Day) – 2 Jan 18: Consider your motives behind your Bible study: Are you seeking God’s blessings or seeking God Himself, to be closer to Him? Even with Bible study, you can endeavor in a self-centered way or a God-centered way. Seek to study God’s word in a way that places Him at the center, that makes knowing Him and loving Him the only goal, regardless of whatever blessings you might receive. Be like the wise men in the Bible who only sought to Honor the King and found their greatest joy merely in being in His presence. (Matthew 2:1-10)

DBRP- WEEK 1, Day 1, Monday, 1 Jan 2018

<http://esv.literalword.com/?q=gen+1%2C+2%3B+proverbs+1%3B+matt+1>

Observations from today's readings and today's S-WOD, Monday, 1 Jan 18:

1. Genesis 1:1 – “In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.” The first thing God wants you to understand is that He created everything. This fact is critical to your understanding of life and is reiterated throughout the remainder of the Bible. Genesis 1:1 is the “uni-verse,” the ‘single verse’ that reveals the origins of all Creation. If you want to know the answers to the questions of life, go to the Creator of life. He created the ethical laws (the right application of justice, mercy, and grace), the physical laws (like the law of gravity), and the principles of life (how life works, wisdom). God’s ethics and principles reflect His character as Creator and are unchanging. However, man replaces God’s ethics (what we ought to do) with “morals” (from the word “mores”, meaning the habits of the people or what is commonly accepted); and man replaces God's principles with "values" (a distorted perception of principles based upon man's viewpoint rather than God's). The remainder of the Bible will reveal a contest between God and man over who is really in charge, who is king, who defines "rightness", in whom is salvation and security, and who is to be served. The foundation or beginning of wisdom is acknowledging and respecting God as KING and Jesus as Savior.

2. Genesis 1:1 – The Bible begins with the beginning of world history. However, first and foremost, the Bible is not a history book, though it does contain history; the Bible is not a science book; though all true science will agree with it; the Bible is not a self-help book; though it does offer practical solutions to all of life's issues; the Bible is intended to reveal God to you and to help you draw closer to Him. The Bible is God's personal word to you in His relationship to you. All of the Bible points to Jesus. You will read later in John 17 that eternal life is "knowing" Jesus, the Father and the Spirit, the One triune God. As you begin reading this year, don't lose sight of the target – the target is not better living or moralism; the target is Jesus, knowing Him a bit more each day, loving Him a bit more each day, trusting Him a bit more each day, following Him a bit more each day, and making Him known more each day to those around you. As you read, meditate deeply about what you are reading, praying that the Holy Spirit will help you understand what God wants you to know about Him, about Jesus.

3. Genesis 1:21 – "So God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind." There is much debate about how God created the earth. The debate is not between scientists (those who study the world through observation and experimentation) and religionists, though it is often portrayed that way. Since no one observed original creation, the debate starts with beliefs taken of faith. Some believe that the Creation came from nothing, the absurd notion that nothing can create something indescribably magnificent and complex. Others believe that God created it all. Among those who believe in God, there remains much debate over evolution, between macro-evolution, one species morphing into another species, and micro-evolution, changes in a single species in order to adapt to environmental changes. No one has observed macro-evolution, but we are all aware of micro-evolution. Genesis 1:21 tells us that God created creatures according to their "kinds," or species. In essence, if two animals can mate and produce babies, they are a "kind", which can survive from generation to generation, physically adapting over time to their respective environments, but over time, they will not miraculously produce an entirely new species of animal. Wolves can mate with domesticated dogs, but they will never give birth to cats.

4. Genesis 1:26, 27 – "Then God said, 'Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion....' So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them." God made people different from the animals, with a spiritual dimension, with a distinct purpose, with special authority and responsibility on earth. God also created mankind with intentional gender roles, male and female. For the first time in my lifetime, mankind is seeking to redefine gender.

5. Genesis 1:28 – "And God blessed them. And God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth.'" God's first command to mankind was to raise godly offspring in order to manage the earth for God's glory. God intended for His people to serve Him, to grow in numbers and influence on earth, and to maintain godly order on earth – “Thy will be don on earth as it is in Heaven.”

6. Genesis 1:31 – “And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good.” What God makes is very good. Only sin corrupts what God made for good. Sin uses originally good things in bad ways for bad purposes. For example, God made sex for good, but mankind has used sex for selfish, self-centered was to produce highly destructive results. God calls His people to “subdue” the earth by obeying his will in all things, by using all His good things in loving ways.

7. Genesis 2:3 – “So God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all his work that he had done in creation.” When we take a Sabbath rest each week, against the world’s pressures to get stuff done, we acknowledge personally and publicly, that God is the Creator, not us, that God is in control, not us, and that God will provide for us what we cannot provide for ourselves. The Sabbath rest is an act of worship and an act of faith which is also physically healing.

8. Genesis 2:7 – “The Lord God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature.” Only relatively recently did scientist discover that the human body is comprised of the same basic elements as the earth. Again, the Bible is not primarily intended to be a science book, but the Bible will not contradict ‘real’ science, only ‘political science’ which seeks to make unproven claims that contradict the truth of God’s creation in an attempt to nullify the Creator.

9. Genesis 2:15 – “The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it.” God made man to work for Him, to translate spiritual truths into physical realities on earth. Contrary to what some believe, work is not a curse – we were made to work. When people toil over what God does not desire, work becomes a curse. We were created to work for God, not for selfish ambition. God blesses your work when it is for Him and not for yourself.

10. Genesis 2:16, 17 -- “You may surely eat of every tree of the garden, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.” God gave man and women all but one thing. Sin is not satisfied with all that God has given. Sin is not satisfied to trust God with good and evil and to simply obey Him. God did not want His people to “know” evil, only good. Within our limited intellect, we cannot know what is right, our knowledge is far too limited, and we are deceived by our own selfish desires. We must simply trust and obey God. When man does what He thinks is right rather than following God’s word and His spirit, He inevitably sins. This will be a theme throughout your Bible readings this year. Don’t try to be smarter or wiser than the Creator. Trust and obey.

11. Genesis 2:18 -- “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him.” Thus far in Genesis, God has proclaimed everything He has created as good until this first “malediction.” It is not good for a person to be alone. Isolation is not only unhealthy, but it is contrary to God’s command to love others. God is love; we were made in His image; we were designed to love others. From the beginning, God intended people to be in loving relationships with Him and with others. You were created for relationships – with Him, with others, and with nature. The best cure for depression is loving God, loving others, working hard (God created you for work), and enjoying God’s Creation outdoors. Do all these things together. You were not created to be inside alone doing nothing but thinking about yourself.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

12. Genesis 2:19 – “Now out of the ground the Lord God had formed every beast of the field and every bird of the heavens and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. And whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.” God’s Sovereignty accommodates free will and choice. God’s plan is not disrupted by our choices which He allows us to make. God gives us choices as an act of love; what we do with those choices is up to us, and we can’t blame God when we choose poorly. Every choice produces a consequence. As you read the Bible this year, take special note of what God says about our responsibility to choose wisely.

13. Genesis 2:24, 25 – “Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed.” The most important institution in the Bible is that of marriage. The Bible begins with marriage and ends with a wedding (see Revelation). We must guard marriage as sacred. Marriage is the building block of society, designed by God to be a lifetime commitment between one man and one woman for the purpose of raising godly offspring (see Malachi 2:15). As the institution of marriage goes, so goes society. Most marriages fail today, and many have simply chosen cohabitation over marriage. Many others who have remained married are unhappily married. If you have struggled or struggle in marriage, dedicate your relationships to God “from this day forward,” and walk in forgiveness and love.

14. Genesis 2:25 -- “And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed.” Adam and Eve had no psychological barriers in their relationship, no shame, not distrust, no guilt, no anger, etc., because they had not sinned. Sin always hurts relationships, striking at our life’s purpose. Even ‘secret’ sins hurt relationships because they cause people to put up walls, to hide something from the other. Two cannot truly become one when there is a barrier of guilt in the way. This applies both to our relationship with God and our relationship with others. Forgiveness is key to relationship with God and others – another critical theme in the Bible that God wants you to understand.

15. Proverbs 1:5 – “Let the wise hear and increase in learning, and the one who understands obtain guidance.” Everyone needs to continue to study, meditate upon, and apply God’s word.

16. Proverbs 1:7 -- “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.” The Christian honors God as GOD and treats God’s written word accordingly, living by that word.

17. Proverbs 1:8 – “Hear, my son, your father’s instruction, and forsake not your mother’s teaching.” God intended for every child to have both a father and mother to instruct them in God’s word and ways. Where this is not possible, God’s people are called to support the single parent.

18. Proverbs 1:8 -- “Hear, my son, your father’s instruction, and forsake not your mother’s teaching,” The Christian honors all God-ordained earthly authorities, in family, in church, and in government. Even Jesus honored his mother’s trivial request to turn water into wine.

19. Proverbs 1:15 -- “My son, do not walk in the way with them.” The Christian does not partner with those who are living life for themselves rather than God.

20. Proverbs 1:20 – “Wisdom cries aloud in the street, in the markets she raises her voice.” The truth is “self-evident” for anyone who cares to pay attention and heed its instruction. Unfortunately, many refuse to listen.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

21. Proverbs 1:23 -- "If you turn at my reproof, behold, I will pour out my spirit to you." The Christian life requires repentance and a spirit of continual humility while trusting in the Grace of God. Repentance is a continuing action in a Christian's life: "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." (1 John 1:9)

22. Proverbs 1:28 -- "Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me." There comes a point when it is too late.

23. Proverbs 1:33 -- "but whoever listens to me will dwell secure and will be at ease, without dread of disaster." The Christian life is a life of confidence, peace, joy, and hope. Even in tribulation, the Christian has unyielding hope in God's promised future.

24. Matthew 1:1-17 -- "...the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham." The Bible is full of long genealogies which are often hard to read and may seem to have little value to us today, but in fact, they are very important to understand as they reveal much about God's will, ways, and plan. For example, the genealogies should remind us that God places people in specific times and places throughout history for great purposes they don't understand and which may take generations to fulfill. God has you right where He wants you for purposes you cannot see but will be revealed over time. Also, God shows us that He uses all sorts of people, all sinners (with the exception of Jesus), to complete His perfect plan. Note that Jesus' genealogy includes a long list of very imperfect people including liars, adulterers, murderers, and prostitutes. God can and will use you. No matter what you have done, God calls you to repent, accept His forgiveness, and dedicate the rest of your life to serving Him for His purposes. God has a great plan for your life, but it is not about you, it is about Him. Serve Him wholeheartedly and fulfill your purpose in life.

25. Matthew 1:19 -- "And her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to divorce her quietly." Not much is written in the Bible about Joseph, but here we see a glimpse into his character. His fiancé turning up pregnant out of wedlock would have been emotionally and socially devastating to him. By the law, he could have had her publicly stoned, at least ostracized; however, he demonstrated mercy and grace and sought rather to resolve the matter quietly. What do you do when people hurt you terribly? Joseph, a "just man", demonstrated justice, mercy, and grace by being prepared to hold Mary accountable to the law but in a way that sought to maintain her dignity and her future. Do you seek to protect those who hurt you terribly?

26. Matthew 1:20 -- "But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, 'Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.'" Note that the Holy Spirit did not speak to Joseph until after Joseph chose to treat Mary with mercy and grace. When you are faithful with the little things, day to day, at the moment, then the Holy Spirit will reveal to you more, things you cannot understand on your own.

27. Matthew 1:24 -- "When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife." To obey God, Joseph had to do what defied all human reason. Throughout the Bible this year, God will remind us that our thoughts are very far from His thoughts and that we cannot trust our own understanding or desires, nor can we trust "common sense." We must walk by the Spirit, not by intellect.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

28. Matthew 1:24 – “When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him.” The defining attribute of Joseph’s character was obedience. Joseph was used mightily by God, but at a tremendous personal cost. God’s plan for Joseph’s life would change his life forever, taking from Joseph his dreams for a normal marriage and a normal life, bringing Joseph no honor before men of his day. Marital engagements in those days usually lasted for about a year while the husband built a home for the wife, adjoined to the father-in-law’s house. There could be no hiding Mary’s unplanned pregnancy. One can only imagine what would be said within the community about Joseph’s wife. Yet, Joseph displays a character trait that is evident throughout what little is written about him, he was obedient. “He did as... the Lord commanded him,” apparently without hesitation. Joseph not only obeyed God, but he also respected the civil authorities (as God commands), which is why Jesus was born in a manger, because Joseph was dragging his extremely pregnant wife “from Galilee, from the town of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem” to take part in the census in accordance with Caesar Augustus’ decree. (Luke 2) Joseph could be trusted to do the right thing, regardless the personal cost; perhaps this is why he was chosen by God for the incredible task of serving as the earthly parent of Jesus. Joseph’s obedience stands in stark contrast to what we all know about the disobedience of Adam and Eve. Our readings today in Genesis and Matthew begin one of the constant themes of the Bible which is summarized in Proverbs 29:18 – “blessed is he who keeps the law.” God’s word reveals God’s will which is aligned to God’s character and to all that He has created. There is a natural cause and effect relationship between God’s laws and our obedience or disobedience. God’s laws are just as dependable as the laws of nature – consequences are predictable. After all of his days, having done and seen it all, after having acquired unmatched wisdom and wealth, and after permanently and catastrophically damaged the kingdom of Israel due to his sin, Solomon concluded, “The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.” (Ecclesiastes 12:13) Jesus took it even further as stated that if we really love him, we will obey his commandments. Obedience is essential to love, not only to loving God but also to love others. God is Love and the only source of true love; obedience brings us into harmony with him and enables us to truly love, not like the world loves by rather with agape love. (Colossians 3:14) Disobedience is ALWAYS unloving and in violation of God’s Greatest Commandment to love. Our level of obedience reveals the level of our faith, hope, and love. Of course, it only takes a split-second of self-examination to realize that we haven’t been “perfected in love”, but our endeavor is to, while in the confidence and freedom of grace, “pursue righteousness”. As we begin a new year, recommit to honoring God through your obedience. Obedience is key to our walk with God. Joseph did not hesitate in his obedience – he acted immediately. If God has put on your heart to do something, do it immediately – this is so very important. If God is convicting you right now to forgive someone, minister to someone’s needs, call someone, etc. Stop what you were doing or planning to do and, instead, obey God first.

- 2 John 1:6 -- And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

- 1 John 5:2, 3 -- By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.

- 1 John 3:18 -- Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.

2018 Defenders Bible Reading Plan Study Notes

- 1 John 2:5 -- but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him:
- 1 Peter 1:22 -- Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart,
- James 2:8 -- If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well.
